Item 8.01 – Other Events.

On January 15, 2009, the Board of Directors of M/I Homes, Inc. (the “Company”) approved, subject to adoption by the Company’s shareholders, an amendment (the “NOL Protective Amendment”) to the Company’s Amended and Restated Code of Regulations (the “Regulations”) to impose certain restrictions on the transfer of the Company’s common shares, par value $.01 per share (the “Common Shares”), in order to preserve the tax treatment of the Company’s net operating losses and built-in losses (collectively, the “NOLs”). The Company’s shareholders adopted the NOL Protective Amendment at a special meeting of the shareholders of the Company held on March 13, 2009 (the “Special Meeting”). The NOL Protective Amendment and the transfer restrictions imposed therein became effective immediately upon the adoption of the NOL Protective Amendment by the Company’s shareholders at the Special Meeting.

The purpose of the NOL Protective Amendment is to assist the Company in protecting the long-term value to the Company of its NOLs by limiting direct and indirect transfers of its Common Shares that would affect the percentage of shares that are treated under the relevant tax laws as being owned by 5-percent shareholders. The transfer restrictions imposed by the NOL Protective Amendment generally would restrict any direct or indirect transfer if the effect would be to: (i) increase the direct or indirect ownership of our shares by any person or group of persons from less than 5% to 5% or more of our Common Shares; or (ii) increase the percentage of our Common Shares owned directly or indirectly by a person or group of persons owning or deemed to own 5% or more of our Common Shares. The transfer restrictions imposed by the NOL Protective Amendment would not practically restrict transfers, from the standpoint of the transferor, made by less than 5-percent shareholders, regardless of whether their shares are held of record or in “street name” and regardless of the person or group of persons to whom the less than 5-percent shareholders transfer their shares.

The description of the NOL Protective Amendment provided above is qualified in its entirety by reference to the NOL Protective Amendment. A copy of the NOL Protective Amendment is filed as Exhibit 3.1 to this Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.
