PRELIMINARY PROXY STATEMENT SUBJECT TO COMPLETION DATED OCTOBER 22, 2018

[], 2018

Dear Aspen Insurance Holdings Limited Shareholder:

You are cordially invited to attend a special general meeting of the shareholders of Aspen Insurance Holdings Limited (Aspen, the Company, our, us, or we), which will be held at Aspen s office located at 141 Front Street, Hamilton HM19, Bermuda, on [], 2018, commencing at 9:00 a.m., local time, or any adjournment thereof.

At the special general meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote on a proposal to approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of August 27, 2018 (as it may be amended from time to time, the merger agreement), by and among Highlands Holdings, Ltd., a Bermuda exempted company (Parent), Highlands Merger Sub, Ltd., a Bermuda exempted company and wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub), and the Company. Parent is a Bermuda exempted company and an affiliate of the Apollo Funds (as defined in the accompanying proxy statement). Pursuant to the merger agreement, (i) Merger Sub will be merged with and into the Company (the merger), (ii) the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub will cease and (iii) the Company will continue its corporate existence under Bermuda law as the surviving company in the merger. Parent will own 100% of the ordinary shares of the Company immediately following the merger.

Pursuant to the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement, at the effective time of the merger (the effective time), each ordinary share of Aspen, $0.015144558 par value per ordinary share (each an ordinary share and collectively, the ordinary shares), issued and outstanding immediately prior to such time

Table of Contents

(other than ordinary shares owned by Aspen as treasury shares, owned by any subsidiary of Aspen or owned by Parent, Merger Sub or any subsidiary of Parent, which will be canceled as set forth in the merger agreement) will be converted into the right to receive $42.75 in cash, without interest and less any required withholding taxes (the merger consideration). Our issued and outstanding 5.95% fixed-to-floating rate perpetual non-cumulative preference shares (the 5.95% preference shares) and 5.625% perpetual non-cumulative preference shares (the 5.625% preference shares and, together with the 5.95% preference shares, the preference shares) will each remain issued and outstanding as preference shares of Aspen as the surviving company following the merger and the relative rights, terms and conditions of each such preference share will remain unchanged.

We are soliciting proxies for use at the special general meeting or any adjournment thereof to consider and vote upon proposals to approve: (1) an amendment to the Aspen bye-laws to reduce the shareholder vote required to approve a merger with any third party from the affirmative vote of at least 66% of the voting power of the shares entitled to vote at a meeting of the shareholders to a simple majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the shareholders (the bye-law amendment proposal), (2) the merger agreement, the statutory merger agreement required in accordance with Section 105 of the Bermuda Companies Act 1981, as amended (the Companies Act), and the merger (the merger proposal), (3) on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation that may be paid or become payable to Aspen s named executive officers in connection with the merger, as described in the accompanying proxy statement (the compensation advisory proposal); and (4) an adjournment of the special general meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies, in the event that there are insufficient votes to approve the bye-law amendment proposal or the merger proposal at the special general meeting (the adjournment proposal). Holders of ordinary shares will be entitled to vote on all four proposals described above, whereas holders of preference shares will be entitled to vote only on the merger proposal and the adjournment proposal. We urge all shareholders to read the accompanying proxy statement and the documents included with the accompanying proxy statement carefully and in their entirety.

Aspen s board of directors (the Board) has unanimously, by all directors present at a duly called meeting, adopted resolutions whereby it has (1) determined that the bye-law amendment is advisable and in the best interests of Aspen, and authorized and approved the bye-law amendment, (2) determined that the merger consideration constitutes no less than fair value for each ordinary share in accordance with the Companies Act, that the preference shares of the surviving company constitutes fair value for each of the preference shares of Aspen in accordance with the Companies Act and that the merger, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement, is fair to and in the best interests of, Aspen and its shareholders, (3) approved the merger, the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement, and (4) resolved to recommend approval of the bye-law amendment, the merger, the merger agreement, and the statutory merger agreement to Aspen s shareholders for their consideration at the special general meeting. Accordingly, the Board recommends that Aspen s shareholders vote FOR the bye-law amendment proposal, FOR the merger proposal, FOR the compensation advisory proposal and FOR the other proposals described in the accompanying proxy statement in respect of which they are entitled to vote.

If the bye-law amendment proposal is approved, the bye-law amendment will be effective immediately and prior to the vote on the merger proposal, so that the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the special general meeting or any adjournment thereof at which a quorum under Aspen s bye-laws is present will be required to approve the merger proposal. If the bye-law amendment proposal is not approved, the affirmative vote of at least 66% of the voting power of shares entitled to vote at the special general meeting or any adjournment thereof at which a quorum under Aspen s bye-laws is present will be required to approve the merger proposal. Approval of the merger proposal by holders of Aspen s ordinary shares and preference shares, voting as one class, is necessary to complete the merger.

Your vote is very important. Whether or not you plan to attend the special general meeting, please take the time to complete, date, sign and return the enclosed proxy card in the accompanying prepaid reply envelope, or submit your proxy by telephone or through the Internet. We ask that you do so as promptly as possible to ensure that your shares may be represented and voted at the special general meeting or any adjournment thereof. Each ordinary share and preference share carries the right to vote on the merger proposal and the adjournment proposal. Accordingly, the quorum required at the special general meeting to consider the merger proposal and the adjournment proposal is the presence in person or by proxy of at least one shareholder representing in excess of 50% of the combined total voting power of all ordinary and preference shares as of the record date. Only the ordinary shares carry the right to vote on the bye-law amendment proposal and the compensation advisory proposal. Accordingly, the quorum required at the special general meeting to consider the bye-law amendment proposal and the compensation advisory proposal is the presence in person or by proxy of at least one shareholder representing in excess of 50% of the total voting power of all ordinary shares as of the record date.

Required Shareholder Votes (Page 104)

The approval of the bye-law amendment proposal requires the affirmative vote of at least 66% of the voting power of ordinary shares in accordance with Aspen's bye-laws. Preference shares do not have the right to vote on the bye-law amendment proposal.

If the bye-law amendment proposal is approved, the bye-law amendment will be effective immediately and prior to the vote on the merger proposal, so that the approval of the merger proposal will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by holders of ordinary shares and preference shares, voting as one class, at the special general meeting or any adjournment thereof in accordance with Aspen's bye-laws. If the bye-law amendment proposal is not approved, the approval of the merger proposal will require the affirmative vote of at least 66% of the voting power of ordinary shares and preference shares entitled to vote, voting as one class, at the special general meeting or any adjournment thereof in accordance with Aspen's bye-laws.

The approval of the compensation advisory proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by holders of ordinary shares at the special general meeting in accordance with Aspen's bye-laws. Preference shares do not have the right to vote on the compensation advisory proposal.

The approval of the adjournment proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by holders of ordinary shares and preference shares, voting as one class, at the special general meeting in accordance with Aspen's bye-laws.

Voting Securities (Page 104)

Except as provided below (i) holders of ordinary shares have one vote for each ordinary share held by them and are entitled to vote on all the proposals voted on at the special general meeting or any adjournment thereof and (ii) holders of preference shares have one vote for each preference share held by them and are entitled to vote only on the merger proposal and on the adjournment proposal. See the section of this proxy statement titled The Special General Meeting Voting Securities beginning on page 104 for a description of the voting rights of the preference shares.

In accordance with Aspen's bye-laws, if a U.S. shareholder is deemed to control more than 9.5% of the aggregate voting power of shares of Aspen entitled to vote, the votes conferred by the controlled shares are reduced by whatever amount is necessary so that after such reduction the votes conferred by the controlled shares of such shareholder will represent 9.5% of the aggregate voting power of shares of Aspen entitled to vote.

If your ordinary shares or preference shares are held in street name by your bank, broker or other nominee, you should instruct your bank, broker or other nominee how to vote your shares using the instructions provided by your bank, broker or other nominee.

If you fail to submit a proxy or to vote in person at the special general meeting and you are a record holder, your shares will not be counted for purposes of quorum or as votes cast at the special general meeting. If your ordinary shares or preference shares are held in street name and you do not provide your bank, broker or other nominee with voting instructions, your shares will be treated as broker non-votes as described below. If you choose to vote in person at the special general meeting and your ordinary shares or preference shares are held in street name, you must first obtain a legal proxy form from your broker, bank or other nominee and bring such executed form with you to the meeting.

Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes (Page 105)

Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted toward the presence of a quorum at the special general meeting, but will not be considered votes cast on any proposal brought before the special general meeting. Given the vote required to approve the proposals to be voted upon at the special general meeting (other than the bye-law amendment proposal and, if the bye-law amendment proposal is not approved, the merger proposal) is the affirmative vote of the specified required percentage of the votes cast assuming a quorum is present, an abstention or a broker non-vote with respect to any proposal to be voted on at the special general meeting (other than the bye-law amendment proposal and, if the bye-law amendment proposal is not approved, the merger proposal) will not have the effect of a vote for or against the relevant proposal, but will reduce the number of votes cast and therefore increase the relative influence of those shareholders voting. With respect to the bye-law amendment proposal, approval of which requires the affirmative vote of holders of at least 66% of the voting power of ordinary shares, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote against the bye-law amendment proposal. With respect to the merger proposal, which, if the bye-law amendment proposal is not approved, requires the affirmative vote of holders of at least 66% of the voting power of ordinary shares and preference shares, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote against the merger proposal.

Revocation of Proxies (Page 105)

You may revoke a submitted proxy prior to its exercise by either giving notice of such revocation to the General Counsel of Aspen in writing at Aspen Insurance Holdings Limited, 141 Front Street, Hamilton HM19, Bermuda, or attending and voting in person at the special general meeting or by executing a subsequent proxy, provided that such action is taken in sufficient time to permit the necessary examination and tabulation of the subsequent proxy or revocation before the votes are taken.

If your ordinary shares or preference shares are held in street name by your bank, broker or other nominee, please follow the instructions provided by your bank, broker or other nominee as to how to revoke your previously provided voting instructions.

Background of the Merger (Page 24)

A description of the actions that led to the execution of the merger agreement is included under the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Background of the Merger.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors (Page 35)

The Board has unanimously, by all directors present at a duly called meeting, adopted resolutions whereby it has (1) determined that the bye-law amendment is advisable and in the best interests of Aspen, and authorized and approved the bye-law amendment, (2) determined that the merger consideration constitutes no less than fair value for each ordinary share in accordance with the Companies Act, that the preference shares of the surviving company constitutes fair value for each of the preference shares of Aspen in accordance with the Companies Act and that the merger, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement, is fair to, and in the best interests of, Aspen and its shareholders, (3) approved the merger, the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement, and (4) resolved to recommend approval of the bye-law amendment, the merger, the merger agreement, and the statutory merger agreement to Aspen's shareholders for their consideration at the special general meeting. Accordingly, the Board recommends that Aspen's shareholders vote FOR the bye-law amendment proposal, FOR the merger proposal, FOR the compensation advisory proposal and FOR the other proposals described in this proxy statement in respect of which they are entitled to vote. See the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of Aspen's Board of Directors; Fairness of the Merger beginning on page 35 for the factors considered by the Board in reaching its determination that the merger, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement, is fair to, and in the best interests of, Aspen and its shareholders.

Opinion of Goldman Sachs (Page 40)

Goldman Sachs & Co LLC (Goldman Sachs) rendered its oral opinion to the Board, which opinion was subsequently confirmed in a written opinion dated August 27, 2018, that, as of the date of such opinion and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the $42.75 in cash per ordinary share to be paid to the holders (other than Parent and its affiliates) of ordinary shares pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

The full text of the written opinion of Goldman Sachs, dated August 27, 2018, which sets forth assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement. Goldman Sachs provided advisory services and its opinion for the information and assistance of the Board in connection with the consideration of the merger. The Goldman Sachs opinion is not a recommendation as to how any holder of Aspen's ordinary shares should vote with respect to the merger, or any other matter.

For more information, see the section entitled "The Merger - Opinion of Aspen's Financial Advisor (Goldman Sachs)" on page 40 of this proxy statement and Annex B to this proxy statement.

At the meeting of the Board on August 27, 2018, J.P. Morgan Securities LLC ("J.P. Morgan") rendered its oral opinion to the Board, which opinion was subsequently confirmed in a written opinion dated August 27, 2018, that, as of the date of such opinion and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the $42.75 in cash per ordinary share to be paid to the holders of ordinary shares pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

The full text of the written opinion of J.P. Morgan, dated August 27, 2018, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered and limits on the review undertaken, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement and is incorporated herein by reference. Aspen's shareholders are urged to read the opinion in its entirety. J.P. Morgan's written opinion is addressed to the Board, is directed only to the consideration to be paid in the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Aspen as to how such shareholder should vote at the special general meeting. The summary of the opinion of J.P. Morgan set forth in this proxy statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion.

For more information, see the section entitled "The Merger - Opinion of Aspen's Financial Advisor (J.P. Morgan)" on page 43 of this proxy statement and Annex C to this proxy statement.

Financing (Page 53)

The consummation of the merger is not conditioned upon receipt of financing by Parent. Parent has obtained equity financing commitments for the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, the aggregate proceeds of which will be used to pay the merger consideration. Apollo Investment Fund IX, L.P., Apollo Overseas Partners (Delaware 892) IX, L.P., Apollo Overseas Partners (Delaware) IX, L.P., Apollo Overseas Partners (Lux) IX, SCSp and Apollo Overseas Partners IX, L.P. (collectively the "Apollo Funds") entered into an equity commitment letter, dated August 27, 2018 (the "equity commitment letter"), pursuant to which the Apollo Funds committed to purchase, or cause to be purchased, equity of Parent for an aggregate amount of up to approximately $2.6 billion.

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Parent and Merger Sub have represented that, assuming the equity financing is funded in accordance with the equity commitment letter, at the closing of the merger, Parent will have sufficient funds to pay the merger consideration and all other amounts required to be paid by Parent at the closing of the merger under the merger agreement, and all related fees and expenses required to be paid at the closing of the merger by Parent in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Limited Guarantee

Concurrently with the execution of the merger agreement, and as a condition and inducement to Aspen's willingness to enter into the merger agreement, Parent and Merger Sub delivered to Aspen a limited guarantee

Table of Contents

(the limited guarantee) in favor of Aspen by the Apollo Funds pursuant to which, and subject to the terms and conditions contained therein, the Apollo Funds are guaranteeing certain obligations of Parent and Merger Sub in connection with the merger agreement. The Apollo Funds' obligations under the limited guarantee are subject to a maximum aggregate cap of $167,370,000.

Interests of Aspen's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger (Page 54)

Aspen's executive officers and directors may have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, those of Aspen's shareholders generally. The Board was aware of and considered these interests to the extent such interests existed at the time, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the merger agreement, in approving the merger agreement and the merger and in recommending that the merger agreement be approved by the shareholders of Aspen. Such interests potentially include entitlement to:

certain retention bonus payments under preexisting retention bonus letter agreements with Aspen;

potential transaction bonus payments, subject to approval by the Compensation Committee of the Board and, in certain instances, by Apollo;

possible severance payments and/or benefits under preexisting change of control employment agreements with Aspen; and

See the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Interests of Aspen's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page 54 for a more detailed discussion on the interests of Aspen's directors and executive officers in the merger.

Aspen will take all actions necessary to cause its Employee Share Purchase Plan, 2008 Sharesave Scheme and International Employee Share Purchase Plan (collectively, the Aspen ESPP) (i) not to commence an offering period to purchase ordinary shares that would otherwise begin after the end of any offering period in effect as of the date of the merger agreement, (ii) not to accept payroll deductions to be used to purchase ordinary shares under the Aspen ESPP after the end of any offering period in effect as of the date of the merger agreement and (iii) to ensure that no new participants be permitted to participate in the Aspen ESPP and that the existing participants thereunder may not increase their elections with respect to any offering period in effect as of the date of the merger agreement. In addition, Aspen will take all actions necessary to cause the Aspen ESPP to terminate immediately after the purchases set forth in the following paragraph, if any, are completed and immediately prior to the effective time.

In the case of any outstanding purchase rights under the Aspen ESPP, (i) immediately prior to the effective time (x) any offering period under Aspen s Employee Share Purchase Plan and the International Employee Share Purchase Plan will end and each participant s accumulated payroll deduction will be used to purchase newly issued ordinary shares in accordance with the terms of Aspen s Employee Share Purchase Plan or the International Employee Share Purchase Plan (as applicable) and (y) such ordinary shares will be treated the same as all other ordinary shares in accordance with the merger agreement, and (ii) prior to the effective time (x) Aspen will promptly take all actions necessary to enable and require participants in its 2008 Sharesave Scheme to utilize their accumulated payroll deduction to purchase newly issued ordinary shares in accordance with the terms of the 2008 Sharesave Scheme, such that there are no outstanding purchase rights thereunder as of the effective time and (y) such ordinary shares will be treated the same as all other ordinary shares in accordance with the merger agreement.

Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, Aspen and Parent cannot consummate the merger until Aspen and Parent have notified the Department of Justice's Antitrust Division and the Federal

Table of Contents

Trade Commission of the merger and furnished them with certain information and materials relating to the merger and the applicable waiting period has terminated or expired. On September 25, 2018, Aspen and Parent filed their respective Notification and Report Forms, and early termination of the waiting period was granted effective October 2, 2018.

Under the EU Merger Regulation, the merger cannot be consummated until after the European Commission has issued its clearance decision.

Under the Chilean Protection of Free Competition Act, the merger cannot be consummated until after the Chilean Competition Authority has issued its clearance decision.

Pursuant to the Turkish Law on Protection of Competition No. 4054 dated 13 December 1994, the merger cannot be consummated until after the Turkish Competition Board has issued its clearance decision or the relevant waiting periods have expired without the issuance of a decision.

Under the South African Competition Act 89 of 1998, as amended, the merger cannot be consummated until after the South African Competition Authority has issued its clearance decision or the relevant waiting periods have expired without the issuance of a decision.

Further conditions include the receipt of other required regulatory approvals, including from the North Dakota Insurance Department, the Texas Department of Insurance, the Bermuda Monetary Authority, the UK Prudential Regulation Authority, the UK Financial Conduct Authority, Lloyd's of London, the Australian Treasury, the Jersey Financial Services Commission, the Dubai Financial Services Authority, the Central Bank of Ireland, and the Italian Institute for the Supervision of Insurance.

Aspen has agreed in the merger agreement that it will not, and will cause each of its subsidiaries, and its and their respective directors, officers and employees not to, and will use its reasonable best efforts to cause its other representatives not to, among other things, solicit, knowingly encourage, initiate or take any action to facilitate or engage in or otherwise participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding the submission of any inquiry or the making of any proposal, in each case that constitutes, or would reasonably be expected to lead to, a takeover proposal (as described and summarized on page 71 of this proxy statement).

If Aspen receives a bona fide written takeover proposal during the period between August 27, 2018 and the date Aspen's shareholders approve the merger agreement where such takeover proposal did not result from a material breach by Aspen of the non-solicitation or related provisions of the merger agreement, and the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that such takeover proposal constitutes or would reasonably be expected to lead to a superior proposal, then Aspen may, subject to certain conditions, enter into a confidentiality agreement with and furnish information (including non-public information) about Aspen and its subsidiaries to the person or group of persons making the takeover proposal and engage in or otherwise participate in discussions or negotiations with the person or group of persons making such takeover proposal.

The Board has agreed to recommend approval of the merger proposal and the bye-law amendment proposal at the special general meeting and that it will not change such recommendation, except in certain circumstances described below.

The Board may make an adverse recommendation change (as described and summarized on page 73 of this proxy statement) in compliance with the terms of the merger agreement prior to the time the approval of Aspen's shareholders of the merger proposal is obtained, if the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law in response to either (i) a superior proposal (as described and summarized on page 74 of this proxy statement) received by Aspen or (ii) an intervening event (as described and summarized on page 75 of this proxy statement). If Aspen makes an adverse recommendation change, Parent may terminate the agreement and Aspen will be required to pay Parent a termination fee of $82,935,000.

Subject to the procedures set forth in the merger agreement, if Aspen receives a superior proposal, Aspen may terminate the merger agreement prior to obtaining shareholder approval of the merger proposal to enter into an alternative acquisition agreement in respect of such superior proposal if the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law. In such case, Aspen will be required to pay Parent a termination fee of $82,935,000.

Mutual Conditions

The obligations of Aspen, Parent and Merger Sub to consummate the merger under the merger agreement are subject to the satisfaction (or waiver by the applicable parties, if permissible under applicable law) of the following conditions:

the merger proposal having been approved by Aspen's shareholders;

the required regulatory approvals having been obtained and being in full force and effect;

there being no injunction, judgment or ruling, enacted, promulgated, issued, entered, amended or enforced by any governmental authority enjoining, restraining or otherwise making illegal or prohibiting the consummation of the merger;

with respect to Aspen's obligations, on the one hand, and Parent's and Merger Sub's obligations, on the other hand, subject to the applicable materiality standards provided in the merger agreement, the representations and warranties of the other party in the merger agreement being true and correct as of the closing date (except to the extent expressly made as of an earlier date, in which case, as of such date) and such other party having furnished a certificate signed on behalf of such other party by an executive officer of such other party, to that effect; and the parties having performed or complied in all material respects with all obligations and covenants required to be performed by them under the merger agreement at or prior to the effective time and such other party having furnished a certificate signed on behalf of such other party by an executive officer of such other party, to that effect.

Parent and Merger Sub Conditions

Parent and Merger Sub's obligations to consummate the merger are subject to the satisfaction (or waiver by Parent and Merger Sub, if permissible under applicable law) of the following additional conditions:

none of the required regulatory approvals contain, require or result in a burdensome condition (as described and summarized in the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Agreement Efforts to Complete the Merger beginning on page 77);

the applicable financial strength ratings of certain Company insurance subsidiaries that are issued by A.M. Best are A (Excellent) or a higher rating and that are issued by S&P are A (Strong) or a higher rating as of the closing; and there being no triggering event notice date (as defined in the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement.) within the twenty (20) business day period immediately prior to the closing date or Parent has waived its rights to terminate the merger agreement in response to a triggering event.

Table of Contents

See the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Agreement Conditions to Completion of the Merger beginning on page 66 for more information on the conditions to the parties' respective obligations to consummate the merger.

Termination of the Merger Agreement (Page 80)

The merger agreement may be terminated at any time before the effective time by mutual written consent of Aspen and Parent and, subject to certain limitations described in the merger agreement, by either Parent or Aspen if any of the following occurs:

the merger has not been consummated by May 31, 2019 (such date, which may be automatically extended to July 31, 2019 under certain circumstances, the "walk-away date"), except that this right of termination is not available to any party whose breach of a representation or warranty or failure to perform any of its obligations under the merger agreement has been a principal cause of or resulted in the failure of the merger to occur on or before the walk-away date;

there is in effect any injunction, judgment or ruling, enacted, promulgated, issued, entered, amended or enforced by any governmental authority enjoining, restraining or otherwise making illegal or prohibiting the consummation of the merger that is final and nonappealable, except that this right of termination is only available if the applicable party has performed, in all material respects, its obligations under the merger agreement;

if Aspen's shareholders do not approve the merger proposal at the special general meeting (including any adjournment or postponement thereof at which a vote on the matter has been taken); or there has been a breach by the other party of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained in the merger agreement, which breach would result in the failure of certain closing conditions relating to compliance with such representations, warranties, covenants and agreements to be satisfied on or prior to the walk-away date, and such breach is not reasonably capable of being cured or, if reasonably capable of being cured, has not been cured within thirty (30) days after written notice of such breach has been received by the party alleged to be in breach.

The merger agreement may be terminated by Parent if any of the following occurs:

prior to the approval by Aspen's shareholders of the merger proposal, the Board makes an adverse recommendation change;

Aspen causes a triggering event (as described in the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement); or net CAT losses incurred by Aspen between July 1, 2018 and January 31, 2019 (or the closing date, if earlier) are greater than $350,000,000.

See the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement for more information on the respective termination rights of the parties under the merger agreement.

Generally, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement will be paid by the party incurring or required to incur such fees and expenses, whether or not the merger is consummated.

Subject to the procedures set forth in the merger agreement, if Aspen receives a superior proposal and Aspen's shareholders have not yet approved the merger proposal, Aspen may terminate the merger agreement to enter into an alternative acquisition agreement in respect of such superior proposal, if the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law. In such case Aspen must pay Parent a termination fee of $82,935,000.

In addition, the merger agreement may be terminated by the Company, and Parent must pay the Company a reverse termination fee of $165,870,000, if, any of the following occurs:

Aspen terminates as a result of a material breach by Parent of its reasonable best efforts obligations to obtain required regulatory approvals and consummate the merger under certain circumstances, if, at the time of such termination, all of the conditions to Parent's obligations to close the transaction, other than the conditions relating to the receipt of regulatory approvals, have been satisfied or would have been satisfied, if the closing had occurred on the date of such termination.

Aspen terminates due to all of Parent and Merger Sub's conditions to closing having been satisfied or waived and Aspen having notified Parent at least three (3) business days prior to such termination that Aspen is ready, willing, and able to consummate the closing and Parent and Merger Sub fail to consummate the closing within three (3) business days after the date by which the closing is required to have occurred.

See the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Agreement Expenses and Termination Fees for more information on the respective termination fees payable in certain circumstances by the parties under the merger agreement.

Market Price of Aspen Ordinary Shares (Page 96)

The closing price of the ordinary shares on the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE") on August 27, 2018, the last full trading day prior to the announcement of the transaction, was $40.10 per ordinary share. On [], 2018 the most recent practicable date before this proxy statement was mailed to our shareholders, the closing price of ordinary shares on the NYSE was $[] per ordinary share. You are encouraged to obtain current market quotations for ordinary shares prior to voting your ordinary shares.

Dissenting Shares (Page 75)

Under Bermuda law, Aspen's shareholders have rights of appraisal, pursuant to which those shareholders of Aspen who do not vote in favor of the merger proposal and who are not satisfied that they have been offered fair value for their shares will be permitted to apply to the Bermuda Court for an appraisal of the fair value of their shares within one month after the notice convening the special general meeting is given and otherwise fully comply with the requirements for seeking appraisal under the Companies Act. See the sections of this proxy statement titled The Merger Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal for Aspen Shareholders beginning on page 63 and The Merger Agreement Dissenting Shares beginning on page 75 for a more detailed description of the appraisal rights available to Aspen's shareholders.

Delisting and Deregistration of Aspen Shares (Page 62)

If the merger is completed, the ordinary shares will be delisted from the NYSE and the Bermuda Stock Exchange (the "BSX") and deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act").

At the effective time, each preference share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will continue as a preference share of Aspen as the surviving company following the merger and the relative rights, terms and conditions of each such preference share will remain unchanged. The preference shares will remain listed on the NYSE and registered by Aspen under the Exchange Act immediately after the merger. Parent may decide, following the merger, to delist the preference shares from the NYSE, deregister such preference shares under the Exchange Act or take other action with respect to the preference shares.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (Page 111)

The exchange of ordinary shares for the merger consideration pursuant to the merger agreement generally will be a taxable transaction to U.S. holders (as defined below) of ordinary shares for U.S. federal income tax purposes. On an exchange of your ordinary shares for the merger consideration, you will generally recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between the amount of cash received by you in the merger and your adjusted tax basis in your ordinary shares.

The continuation of preference shares as preference shares of the surviving company in the merger will not be a taxable event for U.S. federal income tax purposes for holders of preference shares. If you are a holder of preference shares, you will not recognize any income, gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes upon the continuation of your preference shares as preference shares of Aspen as the surviving company in the merger, and will retain an adjusted tax basis and holding period in your surviving company preference shares equal to the adjusted tax basis and holding period you had in your preference shares prior to the merger.

TAX MATTERS ARE COMPLICATED AND THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO YOU WILL DEPEND UPON THE FACTS OF YOUR PARTICULAR SITUATION. GIVEN INDIVIDUAL CIRCUMSTANCES MAY DIFFER, ASPEN STRONGLY URGES YOU TO CONSULT WITH YOUR TAX ADVISOR AS TO THE SPECIFIC TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO YOU, INCLUDING THE APPLICABILITY OF U.S. FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL, NON-U.S. AND OTHER TAX LAWS.

Proposed Amendment to Bye-Law (Page 107)

Aspen is asking its ordinary shareholders to approve an amendment to the Aspen bye-laws to reduce the shareholder vote required to approve a merger with any third party from the affirmative vote of at least 66% of the voting power of the shares entitled to vote at a meeting of the shareholders to a simple majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the shareholders.

The Board has unanimously, by all directors present at a duly called meeting, adopted resolutions whereby it has (1) determined that the bye-law amendment is advisable and in the best interests of Aspen, and authorized and approved the bye-law amendment and (2) resolved to recommend approval of the bye-law amendment proposal to Aspen's shareholders for their consideration at the special general meeting.

Only ordinary shares issued and outstanding as of the record date may vote on the bye-law amendment proposal. Preference shares do not have a right to vote on the bye-law amendment proposal. The approval of the bye-law amendment proposal requires the affirmative vote of holders of at least 66% of the voting power of ordinary shares in accordance with Aspen's bye-laws.

Approval of the bye-law amendment proposal is not a condition to consummation of the merger, but will have the effect of lowering the approval threshold for the merger proposal.

See the section of this proxy statement titled Proposal 1 Approval of the Bye-Law Amendment Proposal for more information on the bye-law amendment proposal.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE SPECIAL GENERAL MEETING

The following questions and answers address some questions you may have regarding the special general meeting, the merger agreement and the merger. These questions and answers may not address all questions that may be important to you as a shareholder of Aspen. Please refer to the more detailed information contained elsewhere in this proxy statement, the annexes to this proxy statement and the documents referred to or incorporated by reference in this proxy statement for further information.

Q: Why am I receiving this proxy statement?

A: Aspen, Parent and Merger Sub, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent, have entered into the merger agreement, pursuant to which Merger Sub will be merged with and into Aspen, with Aspen surviving the merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent.

In order to consummate the merger, Aspen's shareholders must approve the merger proposal. Aspen will hold the special general meeting to obtain approval of the merger proposal and to consider certain other related matters which are not prerequisites to the consummation of the merger. This proxy statement, which you should read carefully, contains important information about the merger and related transactions and other matters being considered at the special general meeting.

Q: When and where is the special general meeting?

A: The special general meeting of the shareholders of Aspen will take place at 9:00 a.m., local time, on [], 2018, at Aspen's offices located at 141 Front Street, Hamilton HM19, Bermuda.

Q: What will happen at the special general meeting?

A: At the special general meeting, Aspen's shareholders will be asked to consider and vote on each of the following proposals:

Proposal 1: to approve an amendment to Aspen's bye-laws to reduce the shareholder vote required to approve a merger with any third party from the affirmative vote of at least 66% of the voting power of the shares entitled to vote at a meeting of the shareholders to a simple majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the shareholders;

Proposal 2: to approve the merger agreement, the statutory merger agreement and the merger;

Proposal 3: on an advisory (non-binding) basis, to approve the compensation that may be paid or become payable to Aspen's named executive officers in connection with the merger, as described in this proxy statement; and

Proposal 4: to approve an adjournment of the special general meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies, in the event that there are insufficient votes to approve the bye-law amendment proposal or the merger proposal at the special general meeting.

Ordinary shares outstanding as of the record date will be entitled to vote on each of the above proposals. Preference shares outstanding as of the record date will have the right to vote only on Proposal 2 and Proposal 4.

Q: Does the Board recommend approval of the proposals?

A: The Board unanimously, by all directors present at a duly called meeting, recommends that Aspen shareholders vote FOR the bye-law amendment proposal, FOR the merger proposal, FOR the compensation advisory proposal and FOR the other proposals described in this proxy statement in respect of which they are entitled to vote.

See the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of Aspen's Board of Directors; Fairness of the Merger beginning on page 35 for a more complete description of the recommendations of the Board. In considering the recommendations of the Board, you should be aware that Aspen's executive officers and directors may have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, those of Aspen's shareholders generally. See the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Interests of Aspen's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page 54.

Q: What will happen if the merger is approved?

A: If the merger proposal is approved and all other conditions to the merger have been satisfied or waived, Merger Sub will be merged with and into Aspen, with Aspen surviving the merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent.

Q: What will holders of ordinary shares receive if the merger is approved?

A: Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement, each ordinary share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time (other than ordinary shares owned by Aspen as treasury shares, owned by any subsidiary of Aspen or owned by Parent, Merger Sub or any subsidiary of Parent, which will be canceled as set forth in the merger agreement) will be canceled and converted into the right to receive the merger consideration of $42.75 per ordinary share in cash, without interest and less any required withholding taxes.

Q: How does the merger consideration compare to the closing price of ordinary shares prior to announcement of the transaction?

A: The merger consideration represents a premium of 6.6% to the closing price of ordinary shares on August 27, 2018, the last full trading day prior to the announcement of the transaction.

Q: What will happen to issued and outstanding preference shares in the merger?

A: Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, each preference share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will continue as a preference share of Aspen as the surviving company following the merger and the relative rights, terms and conditions of each such preference share will remain unchanged. Following the merger, Parent may cause the surviving company to exercise any of its rights with respect to each 5.95% preference share and 5.625% preference share issued and outstanding.

Q: Are shareholders able to exercise appraisal or dissenters' rights?

A: Yes, under Bermuda law, Aspen's shareholders have rights of appraisal, pursuant to which those shareholders of Aspen who do not vote in favor of the merger proposal and who are not satisfied that they have been offered fair value for their shares will be permitted to apply to the Bermuda Court for an appraisal of the fair value of their shares within one month from the giving of the notice convening the special general meeting and otherwise fully comply with the requirements for seeking appraisal under the Companies Act. See the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Dissenters Rights of Appraisal for Aspen Shareholders for more information on appraisal rights.

Q: When do the parties expect to complete the merger?

A: The parties expect to complete the merger during the first half of 2019, although there can be no assurance that the parties will be able to do so. The closing of the merger is subject to customary closing conditions, including approval by Aspen's shareholders and receipt of certain insurance and other regulatory approvals, as well as the maintenance of certain financial strength ratings by Aspen.

See the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Agreement Conditions to Completion of the Merger for more information.

Table of Contents

Q: If I hold ordinary shares will I be entitled to receive a dividend in respect of the fourth quarter of 2018 or any other period prior to the closing of the merger?

A: No. The merger agreement restricts Aspen from declaring, setting a record date for or paying dividends during the period from August 27, 2018 through the closing date.

Q: What happens if the merger is not completed?

A: If the merger proposal is not approved by the requisite vote of Aspen's shareholders, or the merger is not completed for any other reason, the merger will not occur and Aspen's shareholders will not receive the merger consideration, which is described in greater detail in the section of this proxy statement titled Summary The Merger Agreement. Aspen's shareholders will continue to own the ordinary shares and preference shares owned by them until sold or otherwise disposed of by them. Aspen will remain an independent public company and the ordinary shares will continue to be registered under the Exchange Act and traded on the NYSE. In addition, if the merger agreement is terminated, Aspen may be required, under certain circumstances, to pay a termination fee of $82,935,000 to Parent. Alternatively, Parent may be required, under certain circumstances, to pay a reverse termination fee of $165,870,000 to Aspen.

Q: What are the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to holders of ordinary shares?

A: The exchange of ordinary shares for the merger consideration pursuant to the merger agreement generally will be a taxable transaction to U.S. holders of ordinary shares for U.S. federal income tax purposes. On an exchange of your ordinary shares for the merger consideration in the merger, you will generally recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between the amount of cash received by you in the merger and your adjusted tax basis in your ordinary shares.

Q: What are the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to holders of preference shares?

A: The continuation of preference shares as preference shares of Aspen as the surviving company in the merger will not be a taxable event for U.S. federal income tax purposes for holders of preference shares. If you are a holder of preference shares, you will not recognize any income, gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes upon the continuation of your preference shares as preference shares of Aspen as the surviving company in the merger, and you will retain an adjusted tax basis and holding period in your surviving company preference shares equal to the adjusted tax basis and holding period you had in your preference shares prior to the merger.

Q: Why are holders of ordinary shares being asked to cast an advisory (non-binding) vote to approve golden parachute compensation payable to Aspen's named executive officers under existing agreements with Aspen in connection with the merger?

A: The SEC, in accordance with the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010, adopted rules that require Aspen to seek an advisory (non-binding) vote with respect to certain payments that will or may be made to Aspen's named executive officers in connection with the merger. The compensation advisory proposal satisfies this requirement. See the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Interests of Aspen's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger-Merger-Related Compensation for Aspen Named Executive Officers for more details on such payments.

Q: Do any of Aspen's directors or officers have interests in the merger that may differ from or be in addition to the interests of Aspen's shareholders?

A: Aspen's executive officers and directors may have interests in the merger that may be different from, or in addition to, those of Aspen's shareholders generally. The Board was aware of and considered these interests to the extent such interests existed at the time, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the merger agreement, in approving the merger agreement and the merger and in recommending that the merger agreement be approved by the shareholders of Aspen. Such interests potentially include entitlement to:

certain retention bonus payments under preexisting retention bonus letter agreements with Aspen;

potential transaction bonus payments, subject to approval by the Compensation Committee of the Board and, in certain instances, by Apollo;

possible severance payments and/or benefits under preexisting change of control employment agreements with Aspen; and

See the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Interests of Aspen's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page 54 for a more detailed discussion on the interests of Aspen's directors and executive officers in the merger.

Q: I am an employee of Aspen who holds Aspen equity awards granted under a company share plan. How will my Aspen equity awards be treated in the merger?

A: At the effective time, equity awards granted under a company share plan will be treated as follows:

Performance Units and Phantom Shares. Each performance unit or phantom share, in each case that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will, to the extent not vested, vest and be canceled and converted into the right to receive a lump-sum amount in cash, without interest and less any applicable tax withholdings, equal to the merger consideration; provided that, for purposes of determining the number of performance units or phantom shares, as applicable, outstanding immediately prior to the effective time, (i) with respect to any portion of a performance unit award or phantom share award, as applicable, with a performance period that has been completed, the number of shares will be determined based on the actual level of performance achieved, and (ii) with respect to any portion of a performance unit award or phantom share award, as applicable, with a performance period that has not been completed, any applicable performance-based vesting requirements will be deemed to be achieved immediately prior to the effective time at target payout levels.

RSU Awards. Each RSU that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will, to the extent not vested, vest and be canceled and converted into the right to receive a lump-sum amount in cash, without interest and less any applicable tax withholdings, equal to (i) the sum of (x) the merger consideration and (y) any accrued but unpaid dividend equivalents in respect of such RSU, multiplied by (ii) the number of ordinary shares subject to such RSU which had not previously been settled.

See the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Agreement Treatment of Aspen Equity Awards beginning on page 76 for a more detailed discussion on the treatment of Aspen equity awards in the merger.

Q: I am an employee of Aspen who is a participant in the Aspen ESPP. How will my rights under the Aspen ESPP be treated in the merger?

A: With respect to the Aspen ESPP, Aspen has agreed (i) not to commence an offering period to purchase ordinary shares that would otherwise begin after the end of any offering period in effect as of the date of the merger agreement, (ii) not to accept payroll deductions to be used to purchase ordinary shares under the Aspen ESPP after the end of any offering period in effect as of the date of the merger agreement and (iii) not to allow the existing participants thereunder to increase their elections with respect to any offering period in effect as of the date of the merger agreement. In addition, Aspen will take all actions necessary to cause the Aspen ESPP to terminate immediately after the purchases set forth in the following paragraph, if any, are completed and immediately prior to the effective time.

In the case of any outstanding purchase rights under the Aspen ESPP, (i) immediately prior to the effective time (x) any offering period under Aspen's Employee Share Purchase Plan and the International Employee Share Purchase Plan will end and each participant's accumulated payroll deduction will be used to purchase newly issued ordinary shares in accordance with the terms of Aspen's Employee Share Purchase Plan or the International Employee Share Purchase Plan (as applicable) and (y) such ordinary shares will be treated the same as all other ordinary shares in accordance with the merger agreement, and (ii) prior to the effective time (x) Aspen will promptly take all actions necessary to enable and require participants in its 2008 Sharesave Scheme to utilize their accumulated payroll deduction to purchase newly issued ordinary shares in accordance with the terms of the 2008 Sharesave Scheme, such that there are no outstanding purchase rights thereunder as of the effective time and (y) such ordinary shares will be treated the same as all other ordinary shares in accordance with the merger agreement.

See the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Agreement Treatment of Aspen ESPP beginning on page 77 for a more detailed discussion on the treatment of Aspen ESPP rights in the merger.

Q: What is the required quorum for the special general meeting?

A: Each ordinary share and preference share carries the right to vote on the merger proposal and the adjournment proposal. Accordingly, the quorum required at the special general meeting to consider the merger proposal and the adjournment proposal is the presence in person or by proxy of at least one shareholder representing in excess of 50% of the combined total voting power of all ordinary shares and preference shares as of the record date. Only the ordinary shares carry the right to vote on the bye-law amendment proposal and the compensation advisory proposal. Accordingly, the quorum required at the special general meeting to consider the bye-law amendment proposal and the compensation advisory proposal is the presence in person or by proxy of at least one shareholder representing in excess of 50% of the total voting power of all ordinary shares as of the record date.

Q: What shareholder vote is required to approve the items to be voted on at the special general meeting, including the merger?

A: The approval of the bye-law amendment proposal requires the affirmative vote of holders of at least 66% of the voting power of ordinary shares in accordance with Aspen's bye-laws. Holders of preference shares do not have the right to vote on the bye-law amendment proposal.

If the bye-law amendment proposal is approved, the bye-law amendment will be effective immediately and prior to the vote on the merger proposal, so that the approval of the merger proposal will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by holders of ordinary shares and preference shares, voting as one class, at the special general meeting or any adjournment thereof in accordance with Aspen's bye-laws. If the bye-law amendment proposal is not approved, the approval of the merger proposal will require the affirmative vote of 66% of the voting power of ordinary shares and preference shares entitled to vote, voting as one class, at the special general meeting or any adjournment thereof in accordance with Aspen's by-laws.

The approval of the compensation advisory proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by holders of ordinary shares at the special general meeting in accordance with Aspen's by-laws. Holders of preference shares do not have the right to vote on the compensation advisory proposal.

The approval of the adjournment proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by holders of ordinary shares and preference shares, voting as one class, at the special general meeting in accordance with Aspen's by-laws.

See the section of this proxy statement titled Questions and Answers About the Merger and the Special General Meeting Who is entitled to vote at the special general meeting? for a more detailed description.

Q: What effect do abstentions and broker non-votes have on the proposals?

A: Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted toward the presence of a quorum at the special general meeting, but will not be considered votes cast on any proposal brought before the special general meeting. Because the vote required to approve the proposals to be voted upon at the special general meeting (other than the by-law amendment proposal and, if the by-law amendment proposal is not approved, the merger proposal) is the affirmative vote of the specified required percentage of the votes cast assuming a quorum is present, an abstention or a broker non-vote with respect to any proposal to be voted on at the special general meeting (other than the by-law amendment proposal and, if the by-law amendment proposal is not approved, the merger proposal) will not have the effect of a vote for or against the relevant proposal, but will reduce the number of votes cast and therefore increase the relative influence of those shareholders voting. With respect to the by-law amendment proposal, approval of which requires the affirmative vote of holders of at least 66% of the voting power of ordinary shares of Aspen, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote against the by-law amendment proposal. With respect to the merger proposal, which, if the by-law amendment proposal is not approved, requires the affirmative vote of holders of at least 66% of the voting power of ordinary shares and preference shares of Aspen, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote against the merger proposal.

Q: Does Parent have the financial resources to complete the merger?

A: It is anticipated that the total funds needed to complete the merger will be approximately $2.6 billion, and Parent has informed Aspen that, assuming the equity financing is funded in accordance with the equity commitment letter, it will have the financial resources to complete the merger and fund the aggregate merger consideration. Parent has informed Aspen that it may evaluate opportunistic funding alternatives prior to closing.

Q: Who is entitled to vote at the special general meeting and what is the record date?

A: Only Aspen's shareholders of record, as shown on Aspen's registers of members at the close of business on [] [], 2018, the record date for the special general meeting, will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special general meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof. Ordinary shares will be entitled to vote on the bye-law amendment proposal, the merger proposal, the compensation advisory proposal and the adjournment proposal, whereas preference shares will be entitled to vote only on the merger proposal and the adjournment proposal.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: We urge you to carefully read this proxy statement, including its annexes and the documents incorporated by reference in this proxy statement. You are also encouraged to review the documents referenced under the section of this proxy statement titled Where You Can Find Additional Information and consult with your accounting, legal and tax advisors. Once you have considered all relevant information, we encourage you to sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card (if you are a shareholder of record) or voting instruction form you receive from your bank, broker or other nominee (if you are a shareholder who holds your shares through a bank, broker or other nominee) or to follow the instructions provided to you for voting over the Internet or by telephone.

Q: How do I vote my shares?

A: Shareholder of Record. If your ordinary or preference shares (collectively, the Aspen shares) are registered directly in your name, then you are considered a shareholder of record of Aspen with respect to those Aspen shares and this proxy statement and the enclosed proxy card were sent to you directly by Aspen. As an Aspen shareholder of record, you may vote by completing, dating, signing and mailing the enclosed proxy card in the return envelope provided as soon as possible or by following the instructions on the proxy card to submit your proxy by telephone or over the Internet at the website indicated. Submission of the proxy by telephone or over the internet is available through 11:59 p.m. Atlantic Standard Time on the day immediately before the special general meeting. Shareholders of record may also vote by attending the special general meeting in person if they bring valid picture identification. However, whether or not you plan to attend the special general meeting in person, we encourage you to vote your Aspen shares in advance to ensure that your vote is represented at the special general meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted toward the presence of a quorum at the special general meeting, but will not be considered votes cast on any proposal brought before the special general meeting, as described above under the question titled What effect do abstentions and broker non-votes have on the proposals?

Beneficial Owner of Shares Held in Street Name. If your Aspen shares are held in the name of a bank, broker or other similar organization or nominee, then you are considered a beneficial owner of such Aspen shares held for you in what is known as street name. Most of Aspen's shareholders hold their shares in street name. If this is the case, this proxy statement has been forwarded to you by your bank, broker or other organization or nominee together with a voting instruction form. You may vote by signing, dating and returning your voting instruction form to your broker. Please review the voting instruction form to see if you are able to submit your voting instructions by telephone or over the Internet. The organization or nominee holding your account is considered the shareholder of record for purposes of voting at the special general meeting. As a beneficial owner, you have the right to instruct the organization that holds your shares of record how to vote the Aspen shares that you beneficially own.

Q: If my Aspen shares are held in street name, how do I vote in person at the special general meeting?

A: If you are a beneficial owner of Aspen shares held in street name rather than a shareholder of record, you may only vote your Aspen shares in person at the special general meeting by bringing valid picture identification and a legal proxy form from your broker, bank or other nominee.

Q: Can I change my vote?

A:

Yes. You may revoke a submitted proxy prior to its exercise by either giving notice of such revocation to the General Counsel of Aspen in writing at Aspen Holdings Insurance Holdings Limited, 141 Front Street, Hamilton HM19, Bermuda, or attending and voting in person at the special general meeting or by executing a subsequent proxy, provided that such action is taken in sufficient time to permit the necessary examination and tabulation of the subsequent proxy or revocation before the votes are taken.

If your Aspen shares are held in street name by your bank, broker or other nominee, please follow the instructions provided by your bank, broker or other nominee as to how to revoke or change your previously provided voting instructions.

Q: If I hold my shares in certificated form, should I send in my share certificates now?

A: No. You should NOT return your share certificates with the enclosed proxy card, and you should not forward your share certificates to the paying agent without a letter of transmittal. Promptly after the effective time, each shareholder of record of a certificate representing ordinary shares that has been converted into the right to receive the merger consideration will be sent a letter of transmittal describing the procedure for how to surrender shares in exchange for the merger consideration. If you hold your shares in certificated form, you will receive your cash payment after the paying agent receives your share certificates and any other documents requested in the instructions.

Q: If I hold my shares in book-entry form, how will I receive payment if the merger occurs?

A: If you hold shares in non-certificated book-entry form that have been converted into the right to receive the merger consideration, you will receive your cash payment in respect of those shares following the effective time and the paying agent's receipt of the documents that it requests from you, if any.

Q: Who will solicit and pay the cost of soliciting proxies?

A: Aspen has engaged Innisfree M&A Incorporated (Innisfree) to assist in the solicitation of proxies for the special general meeting. Aspen estimates that it will pay Innisfree a fee of approximately $20,000 plus reasonable expenses. Further solicitation may be made by our directors, officers and employees personally, by telephone, internet or otherwise, but such persons will not be specifically compensated for such services. We may also make, through bankers, brokers or other persons, a solicitation of proxies of beneficial holders of the ordinary shares. Upon request, we will reimburse brokers, dealers, banks or similar entities acting as nominees for reasonable expenses incurred in forwarding copies of the proxy materials relating to the special general meeting to the beneficial owners of ordinary shares which such persons hold of record.

Q: Who can help answer my other questions?

A: If you have more questions about the merger, or require assistance in submitting your proxy or voting your shares or need additional copies of the proxy statement or the enclosed proxy and voting instruction card(s), please contact Innisfree, which is acting as the proxy solicitation agent in connection with the merger.

THE MERGER

Effects of the Merger

On the terms and subject to the conditions of the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement, and in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Companies Act, at the effective time, Merger Sub will merge with and into Aspen, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub will cease and Aspen will survive the merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent. As a result of the merger under Bermuda law, Aspen's and Merger Sub's respective undertakings, property and liabilities will become vested in Aspen as the surviving company in the merger.

The merger agreement provides that, at the effective time, each ordinary share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time (other than ordinary shares owned by Aspen as treasury shares, owned by any subsidiary of Aspen or owned by Parent, Merger Sub or any subsidiary of Parent, which will be canceled as set forth in the merger agreement) will be converted into the right to receive $42.75 in cash, without interest and less any required withholding tax. All such ordinary shares will no longer be outstanding and will be canceled and cease to exist and each holder of a certificate previously evidencing any ordinary shares or uncertificated ordinary shares represented by book-entry will cease to have any rights with respect to those shares, except the right to receive the merger consideration.

At the effective time, Parent will become the sole owner of Aspen's ordinary shares. Therefore, Aspen's current ordinary shareholders will cease to have direct or indirect ownership interests in Aspen or rights as Aspen ordinary shareholders, will not participate in any future earnings or growth of Aspen, will not benefit from any appreciation in value of Aspen and will not bear the future risks of Aspen's operations.

At the effective time, each preference share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will continue as a preference share of Aspen as the surviving company following the merger and the relative rights, terms and conditions of each such preference share will remain unchanged.

Background of the Merger

The Board and Aspen's senior management regularly review Aspen's operations, financial condition, financial performance and long-term strategic plans and objectives, as well as industry and regulatory developments and their impact on Aspen's long-term strategic plans and objectives, with the goal of maximizing shareholder value.

From time to time, representatives of other industry participants and private equity firms have contacted senior management of Aspen or members of the Board to gauge Aspen's interest in potential business combination transactions, including a call in January 2018, from Mr. Gary Parr, Senior Managing Director of Apollo, to Mr. Christopher O. Kane, Aspen's Group Chief Executive Officer, but none of these contacts proceeded past preliminary inquiries.

At a meeting of the Board held on February 6 and 7, 2018, the Board discussed in detail Aspen's strategic position in the marketplace, risks relating to Aspen's ability to execute its long-term strategic plan as a stand-alone entity, potential alternatives to such long-term strategic plan, and the potential benefits of pursuing a sale of Aspen. Members of senior management and representatives of Aspen's financial advisors, Goldman Sachs and J.P. Morgan, and its outside legal counsel, Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP (Willkie), were also present at the meeting. The discussion covered the factors that had affected Aspen's financial results for the year ended December 31, 2017, including Aspen's underwriting and net losses during 2017, including as a result of the California wildfires that occurred in the fourth quarter of 2017 and other catastrophic events that occurred in 2017, attritional losses in its insurance segment, Aspen's leverage and balance sheet, and its ratings outlook. The Board also reviewed and considered current and projected trends in the insurance and reinsurance industries, including the impact of continuing consolidation in the insurance and reinsurance industries, increasingly competitive pricing in many of the insurance and reinsurance markets in which Aspen operates, the continued growth of alternative capital and its impact on the reinsurance industry, the impact of tax reform in the United States and Brexit in the United Kingdom, and the potential impact of expected increases in U.S. interest rates. Mr. O Kane provided an update to the Board regarding his communication with Mr. Parr.

The Board then considered a range of potential strategic alternatives with input from Aspen's financial advisors and outside legal counsel, including whether to initiate a process to explore potential strategic alternatives, including a sale of Aspen, and whether and how to execute on Aspen's long-term strategic plan, including whether and how to raise additional capital, if the need arose. The Board determined that, while it had not decided to sell the Company, it was advisable to explore a potential sale of Aspen as part of an overall review of strategic options, and authorized Aspen's management to review potential sale options with the assistance of Goldman Sachs and J.P. Morgan.

On February 21, 2018, a member of the board of directors of Party A, a company that operates in the insurance and reinsurance industries, called Mr. Bret Pearlman, a member of the Board with whom the member of the board of directors of Party A was acquainted, to discuss the potential for a stock-for-stock business combination transaction between Aspen and Party A and to propose that representatives of Aspen meet with representatives of Party A to discuss the possibility of such a transaction. Following the call, Mr. Pearlman provided an update to Mr. Glyn Jones, Chairman of the Board, and Aspen's financial advisors regarding the outreach from the Party A director.

At a meeting of the Board held on March 8, 2018, at which members of senior management and representatives of Aspen's financial advisors and outside legal counsel were present, the Board again reviewed the potential options the Board was considering, including a potential sale of Aspen and the execution of Aspen's long-term strategic plan, and the merits and risks associated with each of the options. Representatives of Aspen's financial advisors reviewed with the directors Aspen's financial performance and certain preliminary financial analyses performed by Aspen's financial advisors. The discussion also covered an initial draft of the confidential information memorandum and projections prepared by Aspen's management included therein to be provided to potential buyers. At the request of the Board, the confidential information memorandum was prepared by Aspen's management team with the assistance of Aspen's financial advisors. It was noted during that discussion that management was in the process of updating its views regarding the projected financial performance of Aspen's business through 2020, which updates were not expected to be completed in time for the distribution of the confidential information memorandum. At that meeting, in order to facilitate the timely consideration of potential strategic alternatives, the Board established a Strategy Committee consisting of Mr. Jones, Mr. O Kane and Board members Messrs. Matthew Botein, Gary Gregg, Gordon Ireland and Bret Pearlman, with Mr. Jones serving as chair. The Board selected the members of the Strategy Committee because of their collective knowledge of Aspen and its business, their business acumen and their knowledge and experience in executing business transactions. The Board was aware that Mr. Pearlman had a business relationship with senior executives of Apollo. Mr. Pearlman is a manager at HRS 1776 Partners, an entity affiliated with HRS Management LLC, the family office of Joshua Harris, a senior managing director and co-founder of Apollo.

The Board authorized the Strategy Committee, among other things, to review and analyze proposals for Aspen to engage in strategic transactions, including a potential sale of Aspen until May 2, 2018, the date of the next regularly scheduled Board meeting; to discuss with management and Aspen's advisors the strategy regarding any discussions or negotiations with potential buyers relating to any such potential transaction, and to oversee such discussions or negotiations; to agree on the nature and scope of any due diligence review to be undertaken by any potential buyer; and to make recommendations to the Board with respect to the foregoing. The Board also discussed with management and representatives of Aspen's financial advisors the parties that may be interested in exploring a potential transaction with Aspen and the Board authorized Aspen's management and advisors to engage in discussions with potential counterparties. The Board also authorized the appointment of Goldman Sachs and J.P. Morgan as Aspen's financial advisors.

Following this Board meeting and as requested by the Board, on March 9, 2018, Messrs. O Kane and Pearlman met with the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer of Party A and a member of its board of directors to discuss the possibility of a stock-for-stock business combination transaction between Aspen and Party A. The parties discussed their respective views on the insurance and reinsurance industries and the parties' respective businesses and operations. Following the meeting, Messrs. O Kane and Pearlman provided an update to Mr. Jones and Aspen's financial advisors regarding their communications with Party A.

On March 12, 2018, Mr. O Kane met with Messrs. Parr and Harris to discuss Apollo's insurance business and the potential for an acquisition of Aspen. Following this meeting, Mr. O Kane provided an update to Mr. Jones and Aspen's financial advisors regarding his communication with Apollo.

At a telephonic Board meeting on March 21, 2018, at which members of Aspen's senior management and representatives of Aspen's financial advisors and outside legal counsel were also present, members of Aspen's senior management team and representatives of Aspen's financial advisors provided an update on the latest draft of the confidential information memorandum. Messrs. O Kane and Pearlman also updated the Board on their conversation with Party A and Mr. O Kane updated the Board on his conversation with Apollo.

Throughout March 2018, as requested by the Board, representatives of Aspen's financial advisors, on behalf of Aspen, contacted and engaged in discussions with 26 potential counterparties, including both strategic buyers and financial sponsors (and which included Apollo, Party A, Party B, and Party C, as described below) to gauge their interest in making a proposal to acquire Aspen. Such potential counterparties included, among others, the potential counterparties that the Board and Aspen's financial advisors believed, based on their knowledge and experience of the market and the insurance and reinsurance industries, were most likely to be interested in a potential acquisition of Aspen. Nine counterparties (including Apollo, Party A, Party B, and Party C) ultimately entered into confidentiality agreements with Aspen in connection with the ongoing sale process. The remaining 17 potential counterparties indicated they were not interested in pursuing a transaction with Aspen. Each of the parties that entered into a confidentiality agreement with Aspen received a confidential information memorandum prepared by Aspen's management team with the assistance of Goldman Sachs and J.P. Morgan, which described and included projections regarding Aspen's business and operations, and information regarding Aspen's insurance and reinsurance loss reserves. None of these confidentiality agreements currently restricts any potential counterparty from making a proposal to acquire Aspen.

On March 22, 2018, a member of the board of directors of Party A called Mr. Pearlman to indicate that, if Aspen was not interested in entering into a stock-for-stock business combination transaction involving Aspen and Party A, Party A could partner with a private equity firm to acquire Aspen for cash or a mix of cash and stock. Following the call, Mr. Pearlman provided an update to Mr. Jones and Aspen's financial advisors regarding this communication from Party A.

On April 3, 2018, Aspen and Apollo executed a confidentiality agreement, which included a standstill provision that did not permit Apollo to make a formal proposal to acquire Aspen, unless specifically invited to do so by Aspen.

At a telephonic Board meeting on April 4, 2018, at which members of senior management and representatives of Aspen's financial advisors and outside legal counsel were present, representatives of Aspen's financial advisors provided an update on the outreach in connection with a potential sale transaction. Representatives of Aspen's financial advisors noted that a few prospective bidders had indicated an interest in acquiring only Aspen's reinsurance business and one prospective bidder had indicated an interest in acquiring only Aspen's capital markets business. Mr. Pearlman also updated the Board on his conversation with Party A. Messrs. O Kane and Kirk also updated the Board on matters relating to the execution of Aspen's long-term strategic plan and the risks associated with the implementation of the plan.

On April 14, 2018, Aspen and Party B executed a confidentiality agreement, which included a standstill provision that did not permit Party B to make a formal proposal to acquire Aspen, unless specifically invited to do so by Aspen.

On April 16, 2018, Aspen and Party A executed a confidentiality agreement, which included a standstill provision that did not permit Party A to make a formal proposal to acquire Aspen, unless specifically invited to do so by Aspen.

On April 18, 2018, Party C, one of the potential counterparties whom Aspen's financial advisors contacted to gauge its interest in making a proposal to acquire Aspen, informed Aspen's financial advisors that it had decided to withdraw from the process and not to submit a proposal to acquire Aspen.

The Board convened by telephone on April 24, 2018. Members of senior management and representatives of Aspen's financial advisors and outside legal counsel were also present by telephone. Representatives of Aspen's financial advisors provided an update on conversations with the potential counterparties they contacted at the direction of the Board regarding a transaction involving Aspen and summarized the principal reasons potential counterparties gave for declining to engage in the process. They also updated the Board on the progress made by, and their discussions with, the potential counterparties that remained active in the process. Messrs. O'Kane and Kirk also updated the Board on matters relating to the execution of Aspen's long-term strategic plan and the risks associated with the implementation of the plan.

On April 25, 2018, Mr. O'Kane met with the Chief Executive Officer of Party A and discussed Party A's interest in making an offer to enter into a business combination with Aspen and Party A's plans for Aspen's business after any such acquisition.

On April 27, 2018, Apollo submitted to Aspen a non-binding proposal to acquire 100% of Aspen's outstanding ordinary shares for $45.00-$47.00 per ordinary share in cash, which proposal indicated that Apollo had the ability to commit to providing 100% of the amount required to complete the transaction through equity financing arrangements.

On April 30, 2018, Party A submitted to Aspen a non-binding proposal to enter into a stock-for-stock business combination transaction with Aspen as a result of which Aspen's current shareholders would retain a majority of the pro forma ownership of the combined company. Party A's proposal suggested an implied valuation of Aspen that was disproportionately lower than the implied valuation of Party A because Party A would be valued using a significantly higher multiple to book value than the multiple to book value that be used to value Aspen in the transaction. Party A indicated that it was receptive to exploring the inclusion of a limited cash component as part of the consideration.

On April 30, 2018, Party B, a company that operates in the insurance and reinsurance industries, submitted a non-binding proposal to acquire 100% of Aspen's outstanding ordinary shares for $38.00 per ordinary share in Party B common stock and a pre-closing dividend payable by Aspen to Aspen's shareholders of $7.00 per ordinary share in cash.

The remaining parties that received the confidential information memorandum indicated they were not interested in pursuing a potential transaction with Aspen.

At a meeting of the Board held on May 1, 2018, at which members of senior management and representatives of Aspen's financial advisors and outside legal counsel were present, representatives of Willkie reviewed with the Board its fiduciary duties in connection with its consideration of a potential sale of Aspen and the Board engaged in a discussion of such duties and the sale process. Willkie also discussed with the Board the expected material terms of any merger agreement involving Aspen and potential implications of any merger on Aspen's outstanding preference shares. Representatives of Aspen's financial advisors summarized the conversations they had to date with potential buyers of Aspen. The Board then discussed the preliminary proposals received from each of the three bidders (Apollo, Party A and Party B) and the risks inherent in the proposals made by each of the three bidders, including each potential bidder's plans for Aspen following the closing and how those plans might impact the likelihood that each such bidder would ultimately be willing or able to execute its proposed transaction. The Board also discussed the need to perform reverse diligence on Party A and Party B, given that their proposals included a large stock component as consideration. Following discussion, the Board decided that each of Apollo, Party A and Party B should be invited into the second round of the potential sale process, whereby each of the three bidders would be invited to undertake a more detailed due diligence review of Aspen and submit a revised, definitive proposal to acquire Aspen on or prior to June 28, 2018. The Board also separately discussed, as an alternative to the transactions proposed by Apollo, Party A and Party B, a potential sale of Aspen's reinsurance business and the significant execution risk, protracted timeline, and other risks and considerations inherent in pursuing such a sale. The Board also discussed management's updated views regarding the projected financial performance of Aspen's business through 2020 and the risks inherent in the execution of Aspen's long-term strategic plan.

At a meeting of the Board held on May 2, 2018, at which members of senior management were present, the Board authorized the Strategy Committee to remain in place through August 1, 2018. The Board was reminded that Mr. Pearlman had a business relationship with senior executives of Apollo. At the time of this Board meeting, Apollo was one of the three remaining bidders interested in making a proposal to enter into a transaction involving Aspen. The Board also discussed management's updated views regarding the projected financial performance of Aspen's business through 2020 and the risks inherent in the execution of Aspen's long-term strategic plan.

On May 11, 2018, Aspen granted to representatives of Apollo, Party A and Party B access to an electronic data room containing documents and information with respect to Aspen to facilitate the due diligence process.

Between May 11, 2018 and late June, 2018, representatives of each of Apollo, Party A and Party B conducted separate due diligence reviews of Aspen and its business. Aspen's management team and financial advisors regularly responded to questions from each of the three bidders regarding Aspen's business and the documents and information made available in the electronic data room.

On May 16 and 17, 2018, members of senior management held management presentations and discussions regarding a potential transaction with representatives of Party A. Representatives of Aspen's financial advisors and outside legal counsel attended the meeting. Aspen's senior management made presentations to Party A regarding Aspen's business and operations, and representatives of Party A asked questions of Aspen's senior management in connection with their due diligence review of Aspen. Representatives of Party A made presentations to Aspen's senior management regarding Party A's business and operations, and Aspen's senior management asked questions of Party A's representatives in connection with their due diligence review of Party A.

On May 21, 2018, members of senior management held management presentations and discussions regarding a potential transaction with representatives of Party B. Representatives of Aspen's financial advisors and outside legal counsel attended the meeting. Aspen's senior management made presentations to Party B regarding Aspen's business and operations, and representatives of Party B asked questions of Aspen's senior management in connection with their due diligence review of Aspen.

On May 23, 2018, members of senior management held management presentations and discussions regarding a potential transaction with representatives of Apollo. Representatives of Aspen's financial advisors and outside legal counsel attended the meeting. Aspen's senior management made presentations to Apollo regarding Aspen's business and operations, and representatives of Apollo asked questions of Aspen's senior management in connection with their due diligence review of Aspen.

On June 1, 2018, the member of the board of directors of Party A who was acquainted with Mr. Pearlman called Mr. Pearlman to convey Party A's expectation that the management team of Party A would lead the combined entity following any potential stock-for-stock business combination of Aspen and Party A. Following the call, Mr. Pearlman provided an update to Mr. Jones and Aspen's financial advisors regarding this communication from the Party A director.

On June 5, 2018, Party A gave representatives of Aspen access to an electronic data room containing documents and information with respect to Party A to facilitate Aspen's due diligence review of Party A. Aspen's management team and outside legal counsel engaged in a review of the documents and information made available by Party A.

On June 7, 2018, Mr. O Kane, at the request of Party B, had a call with the Chief Executive Officer of Party B during which they discussed their respective views on the insurance and reinsurance industries and the parties' respective businesses and operations.

At a telephonic Board meeting on June 7, 2018, at which members of senior management and representatives of Aspen's financial advisors and outside legal counsel were present, members of Aspen's senior management presented to the Board management's updated views regarding the projected financial performance of Aspen's business through 2020 (see The Merger Certain Aspen Prospective Financial Information). The updates to the projections were primarily driven by, among other matters, improved projected underwriting results as a result of current views on natural catastrophe losses, projected performance improvement in insurance underwriting, projected expense reductions, projected improvement in results (other than those relating to catastrophic events) in certain business lines, and the impact of the discontinuation of the international professional indemnity, marine hull and aviation insurance business lines at Lloyd's of London due to their limited contribution and volatility and the views of Aspen's senior management and the Board that they should be discontinued as part of Aspen's long-term strategic plan. The Board asked management questions regarding the assumptions underlying such projections, and the Board engaged in a discussion of Aspen's long-term strategic plan. Representatives of Aspen's financial advisors provided the Board with an update on the potential sale transaction and noted that Apollo, Party A and Party B continued to express interest in pursuing a potential sale transaction.

During the evening of June 10, 2018, the updated projections were placed in the Aspen data room. Each of Apollo, Party A and Party B had access to such projections.

On June 12, 2018, members of Aspen's senior management met with representatives of Party B. During that meeting, the parties discussed the parties' respective business strategies, legal and management structure, and market position.

During the evening of June 12, 2018, initial drafts of merger agreements (reflecting different potential transaction structures) prepared by Willkie were placed in the Aspen data room. Each of Apollo, Party A and Party B had access to such initial drafts.

On June 14, 2018, Mr. O Kane met with the Chief Executive Officer of Party A to discuss their respective businesses and Party A's plans for Aspen's business following any potential business combination transaction.

On June 18, 2018, members of the Board had dinner with members of the board of directors of Party B during which the parties discussed the parties' respective businesses, the strategic rationale for a potential business combination transaction involving the two companies, the scale and fit of the parties' respective businesses, and matters relating to the integration and optimization of the parties' respective businesses.

On June 19 and 20, 2018, members of Aspen's senior management met with representatives of Party A to discuss the parties' respective businesses and Party A's plans with respect to Aspen's businesses after the closing of a potential business combination transaction involving the two companies.

On June 19, 2018, Party B gave representatives of Aspen access to an electronic data room containing documents and information with respect to Party B to facilitate Aspen's due diligence review of Party B. Aspen's management team and outside legal counsel engaged in a review of the documents and information made available by Party B.

Also on June 19, 2018, Mr. Botein, as a member of the Strategy Committee, discussed with a representative of Party A the potential merits and considerations of a potential business combination involving Aspen and Party A.

On June 20, 2018, members of senior management and a representative of Party A met and discussed Party A's plans for Aspen's businesses following the closing. Following the meeting, Mr. Botein and a representative of Party A discussed the possibility that any business combination transaction involving Party A and Aspen be effected through a merger of equals transaction in which both Party A and Aspen would be valued in a consistent manner and using the same multiple to book value.

On June 21, 2018, Party A informed representatives of Aspen's financial advisors that Party A had decided to withdraw from the process and not to submit a revised proposal to enter into a merger of equals transaction involving Aspen or make a proposal to acquire Aspen for cash, stock or a mixture of cash and stock. Party A stated that it might be willing to re-engage in the future on terms in line with its initial bid (i.e., a stock-for-stock business combination transaction as a result of which Aspen's shareholders would own a majority of the post-closing equity securities of the combined company and where Party A would be valued using a significantly higher multiple to book value than the multiple used to value Aspen).

On June 26, 2018, Apollo's legal counsel, Sidley Austin LLP (Sidley), and Party B's legal counsel each submitted a revised draft of a merger agreement to Aspen. Apollo's draft of the merger agreement included a note that Apollo desired to discuss with Aspen the inclusion of a mechanism in the merger agreement to protect Apollo in the event of drastic changes in the book value of Aspen between the signing of the merger agreement and the closing of the transaction.

On June 28, 2018, Apollo submitted a revised non-binding proposal to acquire 100% of Aspen's outstanding ordinary shares for $44.00 to $45.00 per ordinary share in cash, which offer indicated that Apollo had the ability to commit to providing 100% of the amount required to complete the transaction through equity financing arrangements. In its offer letter, Apollo requested a period of exclusivity during which (i) Aspen would not negotiate or discuss a potential alternative transaction with any other party, (ii) Apollo would work to complete its due diligence review of Aspen and (iii) the parties would negotiate a definitive merger agreement.

Also on June 28, 2018, the chairman of the board of directors of Party C called Mr. John Cavoores, a member of the Board with whom the chairman of the board of directors of Party C was acquainted, and expressed an interest in re-entering the process and potentially submitting a proposal to acquire Aspen. Representatives of Party C's financial advisors subsequently clarified to representatives of J.P. Morgan that Party C would need to complete significant due diligence prior to providing a preliminary indication of interest to acquire Aspen and that Party C did not have sufficient funding to propose an all-cash transaction. Party C requested, as a condition to its agreement to conduct due diligence in advance of making any proposal regarding a transaction with Aspen, that Aspen enter into an agreement to negotiate exclusively with Party C and not to negotiate or discuss potential transactions with anyone other than Party C.

On June 29, 2018, Party B informed Aspen's financial advisors that it had decided to withdraw from the process and not to submit a revised offer to acquire Aspen.

On June 30, 2018, representatives of Aspen's financial advisors, at the direction of the Strategy Committee, contacted representatives of Party C to inform them that Aspen was not inclined to enter into an exclusivity agreement with Party C at that time and requested that Party C provide a preliminary indication of its proposed valuation of Aspen.

Beginning in July, 2018, to mitigate any uncertainty regarding Aspen's ability to execute its long-term strategic plan as a stand-alone entity, Aspen granted retention bonus letters to certain of its key employees, including the following executive officers: Mr. Cain; Mr. Cohen; Mr. Issavi; Mr. Kirk and Mr. Schick.

The Board convened by telephone on July 2, 2018. Members of senior management and representatives of Aspen's financial advisors and outside legal counsel were also present by telephone. Representatives of Aspen's financial advisors provided the Board with an update on the potential sale transaction and discussed the key terms of Apollo's proposal, including the reduction in the price range indicated to $44.00 to $45.00 per ordinary share (compared to Apollo's initial indication of $45.00 to $47.00 per ordinary share in April 2018), Apollo's request for a period of exclusivity, and Apollo's desire to discuss a mechanism in the merger agreement to protect Apollo in the event of drastic changes in the book value of Aspen between the signing of the merger agreement and the closing. The Board discussed the reasons provided by Party A and Party B for declining to submit an offer and the conditions under which Party A indicated that it might be willing to re-engage in the process. The Board also discussed the call from Party C indicating an interest in potentially submitting a proposal after being granted exclusivity. After extensive discussion, the Board directed its financial advisors to request that Apollo provide a best and final price per share and to clarify the terms and conditions of its proposal by July 16, 2018. The Board also directed its financial advisors to contact Party C to further gauge the seriousness of Party C's approach and assess the likelihood that Party C would have the interest and financial wherewithal to make a proposal to acquire Aspen that was more favorable to Aspen's shareholders than Apollo's proposal. Because the Board believed that the terms of the potential business combination involving Aspen and Party A being contemplated by Party A were not as attractive as the terms of Apollo's proposal, the Board did not authorize Aspen's management or financial advisors to request a revised proposal from Party A.

On July 2 and 3, 2018, representatives of Aspen's financial advisors contacted representatives of each of Apollo and Party C to discuss the matters identified by the Board.

On a call among representatives of Goldman Sachs, J.P. Morgan and Apollo that took place during that time, representatives of Apollo indicated that Apollo's willingness to engage in further confirmatory due diligence of Aspen was conditioned on Aspen's willingness to enter into an exclusivity agreement with Apollo, and that Apollo would likely not be in a position to finalize and execute any potential merger agreement for another four to six weeks.

At a meeting of the Board held on August 1, 2018, the Board authorized the Strategy Committee to remain in place through October 25, 2018 and Mr. Pearlman was appointed as chair of the Strategy Committee because Mr. Jones, the chair of the Strategy Committee, would be traveling and possibly unreachable at times during this period. On a call among representatives of Aspen's financial advisors and representatives of Party C that took place during that time, the representatives of Party C indicated that Party C would not be willing to engage in a due diligence review of Aspen, unless Aspen was willing to enter into an exclusivity agreement with Party C and that Aspen should not expect the merger consideration to be paid by Party C in any proposed transaction to exceed the then-current market price of Aspen's shares. Party C likewise indicated that the merger consideration to be paid by Party C in any potential transaction would likely not consist solely of cash. Party C did not subsequently make any proposal or submit any preliminary indication of interest to acquire Aspen.

The Board convened by telephone on July 5, 2018. Members of senior management and representatives of Aspen's financial advisors and outside legal counsel were also present by telephone. Representatives of Aspen's financial advisors provided the Board with an update on their discussions with Apollo and Party C. The Board and its advisors engaged in a discussion of the responses from Apollo and Party C. The Board and representatives of Willkie discussed the expected terms of any merger agreement with Apollo, including expected terms that would govern Aspen's ability to engage with or accept alternative proposals to acquire Aspen should they be made by a third party following the execution of any merger agreement with Apollo, and regarding the standstill provisions in confidentiality agreements with potential counterparties, which would terminate upon execution of any merger agreement with Apollo and would not prohibit any third party who signed such a confidentiality agreement from making a proposal to acquire Aspen. After discussion, and considering the attractiveness of Apollo's proposal and the fact that Apollo remained the only active bidder, the Board authorized management to negotiate an exclusivity agreement with Apollo.

On July 8, 2018, representatives of Willkie delivered a draft exclusivity agreement to representatives of Sidley. Between July 8 and July 10, 2018, Willkie and Sidley negotiated the terms of the exclusivity agreement on behalf of Aspen and Apollo, respectively.

At a telephonic Board meeting on July 10, 2018, at which members of senior management and representatives of Aspen's financial advisors and outside legal counsel were present, the Board discussed in detail the revised proposal Apollo made on June 28, 2018, and the time and process Apollo indicated it would need to complete its due diligence review of Aspen. Following that discussion, the Board approved the entry by Aspen into the exclusivity agreement with Apollo.

Table of Contents

On July 11, 2018, Apollo and Aspen entered into an exclusivity agreement. The exclusivity agreement provided that the exclusivity period thereunder would extend until the earlier of (i) August 8, 2018 and (ii) any time at which Apollo makes a material modification to the terms of its proposal. It also provided that Aspen could terminate the exclusivity agreement earlier, on July 28, 2018, if Apollo failed to provide a written proposal on or about July 27, 2018 indicating that the merger consideration proposed by Apollo remained within the per share price range set forth in its offer letter, dated June 28, 2018.

During the period from July 11, 2018 through July 30, 2018, Aspen and Apollo had frequent discussions and meetings as part of Apollo's confirmatory due diligence process, and representatives of Willkie and Sidley discussed the proposed terms of the merger agreement.

On July 17, 2018, representatives of Willkie sent representatives of Sidley a revised draft of the merger agreement.

The Board convened by telephone on July 23, 2018. Members of senior management and representatives of Aspen's financial advisors and outside legal counsel were also present by telephone. Representatives of Goldman Sachs, J.P. Morgan and Willkie provided the Board with an update on their ongoing discussions with Apollo.

On July 27, 2018, Apollo confirmed its interest in acquiring Aspen for a price within the range of $44.00 to $45.00 per share and requested an extension of the exclusivity period under the exclusivity agreement through late August, 2018.

At a meeting of the Board held on July 30, 2018, at which members of senior management and representatives of Aspen's financial advisors and outside legal counsel were present, representatives of Goldman Sachs, J.P. Morgan and Willkie provided the Board with an update on their ongoing discussions with Apollo, the progress of Apollo's due diligence review of Aspen and the developing terms of the merger agreement with Apollo, including the provisions of the merger agreement related to the bye-law amendment. Representatives of each of Goldman Sachs and J.P. Morgan presented to the Board their preliminary financial analyses of the proposed merger consideration. The Board authorized management and Aspen's financial advisors and outside legal counsel to negotiate an extension to the exclusivity agreement with Apollo. The Board also discussed potential alternatives to a sale of Aspen, including risks and considerations relating to the execution by Aspen of its long-term strategic plan.

On August 1, 2018, Apollo and Aspen entered into an amendment to the exclusivity agreement, which provided that Aspen could terminate exclusivity on August 8, 2018, unless Apollo provided a written proposal on or about August 7, 2018 indicating that the merger consideration proposed by Apollo remained within the per share price range set forth in its offer letter, dated June 28, 2018, in which case the exclusivity period would be extended to August 17, 2018.

Between August 1, 2018 and August 15, 2018, representatives of Aspen and Apollo held frequent discussions regarding matters relating to Apollo's due diligence review of Aspen.

On August 3, 2018, representatives of Sidley sent representatives of Willkie a revised draft of the merger agreement.

On August 6, 2018, representatives of Aspen's financial advisors, at the direction of Aspen's management, contacted representatives of Apollo to discuss a change to Aspen's senior management team that was scheduled to be announced on August 7, 2018. During that conversation, Apollo requested additional individual meetings with members of Aspen's senior management team to discuss matters relating to Apollo, its track record and vision for investments in the insurance and reinsurance industries, Apollo's due diligence review of Aspen and future plans for Aspen's businesses.

On August 7, 2018, Aspen issued a press release to announce changes in the leadership of Aspen's reinsurance business. Also on that date, representatives of Willkie and representatives of Sidley discussed by telephone issues arising out of the draft merger agreement.

On August 8, 2018, Apollo communicated to representatives of Aspen's financial advisors that it was not confirming its price, as contemplated by the amended exclusivity agreement, dated August 1, 2018, and that it would provide an update on its proposal after its investment committee meeting the following week.

During the period from August 8, 2018 through August 10, 2018, representatives of Apollo met individually with members of Aspen's senior management team to discuss matters relating to Apollo, its track record and vision for investments in the insurance and reinsurance industries, Apollo's due diligence review of Aspen and future prospects for Aspen's businesses in light of market and industry conditions. Representatives of Aspen's financial advisors or legal counsel were also present at such meetings.

On August 15, 2018, Apollo communicated to representatives of Aspen's financial advisors a further revision to its offer to acquire 100% of Aspen's outstanding ordinary shares. Under the revised terms of its proposal, Apollo would acquire 100% of Aspen's outstanding ordinary shares for $41.00 per ordinary share in cash and the merger agreement would provide, among other things, that Apollo's obligation to consummate the merger would be conditioned on the absence of a ratings downgrade of Aspen's ratings by any of A.M. Best, S&P or Moody's. In addition, Apollo's revised proposal stated that it would have the ability to terminate the merger agreement at any time prior to closing if Aspen's book value declined for any reason by 10% or more relative to its book value as of June 30, 2018. In connection with discussions regarding this proposal, representatives of Apollo communicated the need for these provisions at the valuation reflected in its proposal. Also on that date, representatives of Sidley sent representatives of Willkie an initial draft of an equity commitment letter and a limited guarantee.

At a telephonic Board meeting on August 17, 2018, at which members of senior management and representatives of Aspen's financial advisors and outside legal counsel were present, the Board discussed Apollo's further revised offer, including the price Apollo was offering to acquire Aspen and the terms of the merger agreement proposed by Apollo. Representatives of each of Goldman Sachs and J.P. Morgan presented to the Board their updated preliminary financial analyses of the proposed merger consideration. The Board also discussed alternative courses of action that the Board was prepared to take with respect to the implementation of Aspen's long-term strategic plan if the Board did not move forward with a transaction. Finally, the Board discussed the parameters of the terms of a transaction with Apollo that the Board likely would find acceptable. At the end of the meeting, the Board instructed Aspen's senior management team, financial advisors and outside legal counsel to work with the Strategy Committee to develop a proposal within the parameters discussed by the Board that would satisfy the Board's requirements for such a transaction and negotiate with Apollo to determine whether the parties could agree to a transaction on acceptable terms. During the meeting, it was noted that Mr. Pearlman is a manager at HRS 1776 Partners, an entity affiliated with HRS Management LLC, the family office of Joshua Harris, a senior managing director and co-founder of Apollo. The Board did not believe that Mr. Pearlman's relationship with Mr. Harris would affect his judgment concerning the Board's consideration of a potential transaction involving Apollo. Given that Apollo had emerged as the final bidder with whom the Company was expected to negotiate potential transaction terms, and in an abundance of caution, following the Board meeting, Mr. Botein assumed the role of chair of the Strategy Committee.

On August 18, 2018, the Strategy Committee held a meeting, at which members of senior management and representatives of Aspen's financial advisors and outside legal counsel were present. At the meeting, the Strategy Committee discussed the terms of a potential counterproposal within the parameters discussed by the Board to be made by Aspen's representatives to Apollo whereby Apollo would acquire 100% of Aspen's outstanding ordinary shares for $42.75 per ordinary share in cash and the merger agreement would provide, among other things, that (i) there would not be any closing condition resulting from a downgrade of any rating of Aspen issued by Moody's, (ii) the Board would have flexibility to take certain actions to avoid any potential ratings downgrade, notwithstanding the restrictive covenants to the contrary that were included in the draft merger agreement proposed by Apollo, and (iii) the termination right proposed by Apollo relating to a decline in Aspen's book value would be replaced with a termination right relating to net losses incurred by Aspen from catastrophic events occurring prior to the closing date.

On August 19, 2018, representatives of Aspen's financial advisors, at the direction of the Strategy Committee, discussed with representatives of Apollo the key terms of Aspen's counterproposal to Apollo, and following such discussion sent Apollo a term sheet that summarized such key terms. Later on August 19, 2018, the Strategy Committee held a meeting, at which members of senior management and representatives of Aspen's financial advisors and outside legal counsel were present, to discuss Apollo's potential response to this counterproposal.

On August 20, 2018, Apollo communicated to representatives of Aspen's financial advisors a further revised offer to acquire 100% of Aspen's outstanding ordinary shares for $42.75 per ordinary share in cash and responded to the terms of Aspen's counterproposal relating to the proposed termination right, closing conditions and related provisions as reflected in a revised term sheet.

On August 20 and 21, 2018, the Strategy Committee held meetings, at which members of senior management and representatives of Aspen's financial advisors and outside legal counsel were present, to discuss Apollo's further revised offer and Aspen's potential response regarding the proposed termination right, closing conditions and related provisions. After the meeting on August 21, 2018, representatives of Aspen's financial advisors, at the direction of the Strategy Committee, sent representatives of Apollo a revised draft of the term sheet reflecting Aspen's counterproposal regarding such terms.

On August 21, 2018, representatives of Aspen's financial advisors and outside legal counsel discussed with Apollo and its legal advisors the specific terms of the proposed termination right, closing conditions and related provisions. Later on August 21, 2018, representatives of Apollo sent Aspen's financial advisors a revised draft of the term sheet reflecting Apollo's further revised counterproposal.

At a telephonic Board meeting on August 21, 2018, at which members of Aspen's senior management and representatives of Aspen's financial advisors and outside legal counsel were also present, the Board discussed the developments in the discussions between Aspen and Apollo since the Board meeting on August 17, 2018, and the terms of the proposed termination right, closing conditions and related provisions being negotiated by the parties. At the end of the meeting, the Board directed Aspen's senior management team, financial advisors and outside legal counsel to negotiate the terms of the definitive merger agreement with Apollo.

During the period from August 22, 2018 to August 27, 2018, representatives of Willkie, with the assistance of Goldman Sachs and J.P. Morgan and under the direction of the Strategy Committee and Aspen's senior management, negotiated the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, equity commitment letter and limited guarantee with Apollo's legal advisors.

The Board, other than Mr. Pearlman, who was unable to attend, met by telephone on August 27, 2018. Members of Aspen's senior management and representatives of Aspen's financial advisors and outside legal counsel were also present. At that meeting, representatives of Aspen's financial advisors reviewed with the Board the process to identify a potential buyer of Aspen and their respective financial analyses of the merger consideration, as more fully described below under the heading Opinion of Aspen's Financial Advisors. Thereafter, representatives of Aspen's financial advisors each rendered their respective oral opinions to the Board, which opinions were subsequently confirmed in their respective written opinions dated August 27, 2018, that, as of the date of such opinions and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the $42.75 in cash per ordinary share to be paid to the holders of ordinary shares pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders. Representatives of Willkie then reviewed the terms and conditions of the proposed merger agreement with Apollo, including the provisions of the merger agreement relating to the bye-law amendment. After discussion, and in light of the Board's review and, among other things, consideration of the factors described under Aspen's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Board, the Board approved the merger, the merger agreement, the statutory merger agreement, and the bye-law amendment and resolved that the merger proposal and the bye-law amendment be submitted to Aspen's shareholders for their consideration at the special general meeting. In approving the merger, the merger agreement, and the statutory merger agreement, the Board determined that the fair value for (i) each ordinary share to be no greater than $42.75, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes, (ii) each issued and outstanding 5.95% preference share, to be the continuation of each such 5.95% preference share as a preference share of Aspen as the surviving company following the merger with all of its relative rights, terms and conditions remaining unchanged and (iii) each issued and outstanding 5.625% preference share, to be the continuation of each such 5.625% preference share as a preference share of Aspen as the surviving company following the merger with all of its relative rights, terms and conditions remaining unchanged.

Following the Board meeting on August 27, 2018, Aspen and Apollo entered into the merger agreement. Apollo and Aspen issued a joint press release announcing the transaction prior to the opening of trading markets in Europe on August 28, 2018.

Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the Board of Directors; Fairness of the Merger

The Board has unanimously, by all directors present at a duly called meeting, adopted resolutions whereby it has (1) determined that the bye-law amendment is advisable and in the best interests of Aspen, and authorized and approved the bye-law amendment, (2) determined that the merger consideration constitutes no less than fair value for each ordinary share in accordance with the Companies Act, that the preference shares of the surviving company constitutes fair value for each of the preference shares of Aspen in accordance with the Companies Act and that the merger, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement, is fair to, and in the best interests of, Aspen and its shareholders, (3) approved the merger, the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement, and (4) resolved to recommend approval of the bye-law amendment, the merger, the merger agreement, and the statutory merger agreement to Aspen's shareholders for their consideration at the special general meeting. Accordingly, the Board recommends that Aspen's shareholders vote FOR the merger proposal.

For purposes of Section 106(2)(b)(i) of the Companies Act, the Board has unanimously, by all directors present at a duly called meeting, determined that the fair value for (i) each ordinary share to be no greater than $42.75, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes, (ii) each 5.95% preference share to be the continuation of each such preference share as a preference share of Aspen as the surviving company following the merger with all of its relative rights, terms and conditions remaining unchanged and (iii) each 5.625% preference share to be the continuation of each such preference share as a preference share of Aspen as the surviving company following the merger with all of its relative rights, terms and conditions remaining unchanged.

Positive Factors Relating to the Merger

As described in the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger - Background of the Merger, the Board, prior to and in reaching its unanimous determination by all directors present at its meeting on August 27, 2018 to approve the bye-law amendment and that the merger, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement, is fair to, and in the best interests of, Aspen, consulted with Aspen's management, financial advisors, and outside legal counsel and considered a variety of potentially positive factors relating to the merger, including, but not limited to, the following:

Treatment of Ordinary Shares

The value to be received by the holders of ordinary shares in the merger, including the fact that the all cash consideration to be received represents a significant premium relative to the trading price of the ordinary shares. The merger consideration of $42.75 per ordinary share represents (i) a premium of 18.9% to the closing price of ordinary shares on March 2, 2018, the last trading day prior to the announcement that AXA

S.A. had entered into an agreement to acquire XL Group Ltd.; (ii) a premium of 12.4% to the closing price of ordinary shares on March 8, 2018, the last trading day prior to the publication of an article in Insurance Insider, an industry publication, reporting that Aspen retained Goldman Sachs and J.P. Morgan to advise on strategic alternatives; [(iii) a premium of 11.3% to the closing price of ordinary shares on August 24, 2018, the last trading day prior to the date on which the Board adopted a resolution approving the merger agreement;] and (iv) a premium of 6.6% to the closing price of ordinary shares on August 27, 2018, the last full trading day prior to the announcement of the transaction.

The fact that the merger consideration of $42.75 per ordinary share is 1.12x Aspen's fully diluted book value per share and 1.13x Aspen's tangible book value per share, in each case as of June 30, 2018.

The fact that the per share merger consideration would be paid solely in cash, which provides certainty and immediate liquidity and value to holders of Aspen ordinary shares, enabling holders of Aspen ordinary shares to realize value that has been created at Aspen while eliminating long-term business and execution risk.

The potential values, benefits, risks, and uncertainties facing holders of Aspen ordinary shares associated with possible strategic alternatives to the merger (including scenarios involving the possibility of remaining independent, with or without seeking to raise additional capital), and the timing and likelihood of accomplishing such alternatives, including engaging in and evaluating strategic alternatives to further enhance shareholder value.

The risks associated with continuing to operate Aspen as a standalone company, including the potential execution risks associated with the strategic plan, and the potential risk associated with the possibility that, even if our strategic plan is successfully executed, the market may not reflect such execution in Aspen's ordinary share price in the near term or in the long term.

The fact that (a) Aspen's financial advisors at the direction of the Board engaged in discussions with 26 potential counterparties, including strategic and financial firms, to gauge their interest in making a proposal to acquire Aspen, (b) nine of those 26 parties signed confidentiality agreements and received a CIM with respect to Aspen, (c) three of those parties (Party A, Party B and Apollo) made non-binding proposals to acquire Aspen, (d) each of Party A and Party B ultimately elected to withdraw from the process and not to pursue a transaction with Aspen, and (e) Apollo's proposal to acquire Aspen for $42.75 was the highest price proposed by the remaining bidders.

The Board's belief, after consultation with management and Aspen's financial advisors, that the 26 potential counterparties contacted by Aspen's financial advisors were the parties most likely to be interested in a potential acquisition of Aspen.

The fact that there were numerous reports in the media speculating on the existence and developments with respect to the process in the months leading up to the date on which the merger agreement was signed, which gave any interested potential counterparties who were not contacted by Aspen's financial advisors an opportunity to inquire about the process.

That the merger agreement was the product of arm's-length negotiations and contained terms and conditions that were, in the Board's view, advisable and favorable to Aspen and its shareholders.

The belief of the Board that, as a result of the negotiations between the parties, the merger consideration of $42.75 per ordinary share was the highest price per share for the ordinary shares that Parent was willing to pay at the time of those negotiations and the highest price per share for the ordinary shares that was reasonably attainable.

The possibility that, if Aspen did not enter into the merger agreement, it could take a considerable amount of time and involve a substantial amount of risk before the trading price of the ordinary shares would reach and sustain the $42.75 per ordinary share value of the merger consideration, as adjusted for present value, or that the trading price would never reach or would fail to sustain such level.

The respective financial analyses reviewed and discussed with the Board by representatives of each of J.P. Morgan and Goldman Sachs as well as the separate oral opinions of each of J.P. Morgan and Goldman Sachs rendered to the Board (which were subsequently confirmed by delivery of separate written opinions of each of J.P. Morgan and Goldman Sachs on August 27, 2018) that, as of such date and based on and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the $42.75 in cash per ordinary share to be paid to the holders of ordinary shares pursuant to the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

Treatment of Preference Shares

The fact that holders of preference shares will continue to own preference shares of Aspen as the surviving company following the merger and that the relative rights, terms, and conditions of each such preference share will remain unchanged.

Terms of the Merger Agreement

The belief of the Board, after consultation with Aspen's senior management and outside legal counsel, that the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, including, but not limited to, the representations, warranties, and covenants of the parties and the conditions to the closing and termination rights, are reasonable and customary for similar transactions.

The belief of the Board, after consultation with Aspen's senior management and outside legal counsel, that the conditions to the consummation of the merger as set forth in the merger agreement are reasonable under the circumstances and the likelihood that such conditions will be satisfied.

The belief of the Board, after consultation with Aspen's senior management and outside legal counsel, that the likelihood is low that Aspen will sustain more than $350,000,000 of net losses from catastrophe events occurring between July 1, 2018 and January 31, 2019, and accordingly that Parent's related termination right under the merger agreement is unlikely to be triggered.

The belief of the Board, after consultation with Aspen's senior management and outside legal counsel, that the likelihood is low that A.M. Best or S&P will downgrade the financial strength ratings of Aspen's operating subsidiaries, which downgrade would permit Parent to refuse to consummate the merger.

The availability of appraisal rights to Aspen's shareholders who do not vote in favor of the merger proposal, which rights provide eligible shareholders with the opportunity to have the Bermuda Court determine the fair value of their shares, provided that they fully comply with the requirements of the Companies Act.

The absence of any financing condition or contingency to the merger.

The fact that the Board is permitted to withhold, withdraw, modify, qualify, or amend its recommendation of the merger proposal and the bye-law amendment proposal in response to a material event or circumstance that was not known or was not reasonably foreseeable to the Board on August 27, 2018, if the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law, subject to the payment of a $82,935,000 termination fee, if Parent terminates the merger agreement (see the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Agreement No Solicitation of Takeover Proposals; Adverse Recommendation Change; Alternative Acquisition Agreement).

Terms of the merger agreement permitting Aspen to consider a superior proposal received after August 27, 2018 and at any time prior to approval of the merger proposal by Aspen's shareholders, including:

Aspen's ability, under certain circumstances, to enter into an acceptable confidentiality agreement with and furnish information (including non-public information) to the third party making such a proposal and engage in discussions or negotiations with the third party making such a proposal, in each case, if the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that such takeover proposal either constitutes or would reasonably be expected to lead to a superior proposal (see the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Agreement No Solicitation of Takeover Proposals; Adverse Recommendation Change; Alternative Acquisition Agreements);

The fact that the terms of the merger agreement provide that, under certain circumstances where a superior proposal has been received, Aspen is permitted to entertain takeover proposals, and the Board is permitted to:

modify or withdraw its recommendation of the merger proposal in response to a superior proposal, if the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the directors fiduciary duties under applicable law, subject to the payment of a $82,935,000 termination fee, and compliance with certain procedural requirements; or terminate the merger agreement to enter into an alternative acquisition agreement in respect of a superior proposal, if the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the directors fiduciary duties under applicable law, subject to the payment of a $82,935,000 termination fee, and compliance with certain procedural requirements (see the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Agreement No Solicitation of Takeover Proposals; Adverse Recommendation Change; Alternative Acquisition Agreements);

The belief of the Board, after consultation with Aspen's senior management and financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that the $82,935,000 termination fee, which is approximately 3.25% of the estimated aggregate merger consideration payable to holders of ordinary shares in connection with the merger, would not preclude other parties from making an acquisition proposal for Aspen.

The fact that the terms of the merger agreement provide that, if Aspen terminates the merger agreement due to Parent's or Merger Sub's breach of their respective obligation to use reasonable best efforts to obtain required regulatory approvals and consummate the merger under certain circumstances or due to Parent's and Merger Sub's having failed to consummate the merger within three (3) business days after the date by which the closing is required to have occurred pursuant to the merger agreement and all conditions in the merger agreement have been satisfied or waived and Aspen has notified Parent that Aspen is irrevocably ready, willing, and able to consummate the merger, then Parent must pay a $165,870,000 reverse termination fee, subject to compliance with certain procedural requirements.

The fact that the Apollo Funds entered into an equity commitment letter pursuant to which they committed, subject to the terms of such letter, to provide Parent with an amount of cash that is sufficient to allow Parent to pay the aggregate merger consideration under the merger agreement.

The fact that the Apollo Funds entered into a limited guarantee concurrently with the execution of the merger agreement guaranteeing the obligation of Parent and Merger Sub to pay the reverse termination fee or (in certain cases) damages awards up to $167,370,000.

The business reputation and capabilities of Apollo and Parent and their management, and the financial resources of Apollo and Parent.

Parent's commitment in the merger agreement to use its reasonable best efforts to consummate the merger (subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement).

The ability of the parties to consummate the merger.

The fact that the bye-law amendment would facilitate approval of the transaction.

Risk and Other Considerations of the Merger

In the course of its deliberations, the Board, in consultation with Aspen management, financial advisors, and outside legal counsel, also considered a variety of risks and other potentially negative factors relating to the merger, including the following:

The possibility that the merger might not be consummated, or that the consummation might be delayed.

The risk of diverting management focus and resources from other strategic opportunities and operational matters while implementing the merger.

That restrictions on the conduct of Aspen's business prior to consummation of the merger could delay or prevent Aspen from undertaking business opportunities that arise pending consummation of the merger, which opportunities might be lost to Aspen if the merger could not be consummated.

The potential negative effect of the impending merger on Aspen's business and relationships with customers, vendors, business partners, and employees, including the risk that key employees might not choose to remain employed with Aspen prior to the consummation of the merger, regardless of whether or not the merger is consummated.

The risk that Aspen's shareholders may not approve the merger proposal.

The risk that governmental entities may oppose or refuse to approve the merger or impose conditions on Aspen and Parent (or any of their respective affiliates) prior to approving the merger, which conditions may constitute a burdensome condition under the terms of the merger agreement that would permit Parent to refuse to consummate the merger.

The risk that A.M. Best or S&P might downgrade the financial strength ratings of Aspen's operating subsidiaries, which would permit Parent to refuse to consummate the merger.

The fact that the all-cash merger consideration, while providing certainty of value upon consummation, would not allow holders of ordinary shares to participate in any future earnings growth of Aspen or benefit from any future increase in its value.

The fact that some of Aspen's directors and executive officers have other interests in the merger that are in addition to their interests as shareholders of Aspen (see the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Interests of Aspen's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger).

The specific terms of the merger agreement that either individually or in combination, could discourage potential acquirors from making a competing bid to acquire Aspen, including:

The terms of the merger agreement placing certain limitations on the ability of Aspen to solicit, knowingly encourage, initiate, or take any action to facilitate the submission of any inquiry or the making of any proposal or offer that constitutes, or would reasonably be expected to lead to, a takeover proposal, to engage in any discussions or negotiations regarding any submission, proposal, announcement, offer, or inquiry that constitutes or would reasonably be expected to lead to a takeover proposal, to furnish any non-public information in connection with a takeover proposal or any such submission, proposal, announcement, offer, or inquiry, to enter into any agreement related to any takeover proposal, to terminate, waive, amend, release, or modify any provision of any confidentiality agreement with a third party in connection with any takeover proposal or any submission, proposal, offer, or inquiry that would reasonably be expected to lead to any takeover proposal (unless the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law), and to reimburse the expenses of any person in connection with any takeover proposal; and

The fact that Aspen will be required to pay Parent a termination fee in connection with the merger, if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, or which may become payable following a termination of the merger agreement (which termination fee the Board determined was reasonable and customary).

The fact that Parent can terminate the agreement in certain circumstances, including:

if the Company has taken any commercially reasonable actions that the Board reasonably determines are reasonably necessary to avoid a ratings downgrade from A.M. Best or S&P and such action causes, or would reasonably be expected to cause, significant adverse economic consequences for the Company and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or increases the aggregate merger consideration payable to the holders of Aspen's ordinary shares; and if net CAT losses between July 1, 2018 and January 31, 2019 (or the closing date, if earlier) are greater than $350,000,000.

The limitations on remedies available to Aspen under the merger agreement, including the possibility that certain obligations under the merger agreement might be difficult to enforce.

The foregoing discussion of the factors considered by the Board is not intended to be exhaustive, but rather a summary of the material factors considered by the Board. In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, including the merger and other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, the Board did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The Board considered the various factors as a whole, including discussions with, and questioning of, Aspen's management, financial advisors, and outside legal counsel, and overall considered the factors to be favorable to, and to support, its determination.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the Board is forward-looking in nature. This information should be read in light of the factors described under the section of this proxy statement titled Cautionary Statement Concerning Forward-Looking Information.

The Board recommends unanimously, by all directors present at a duly called meeting, that you vote FOR the approval of the Merger Agreement.

Opinion of Aspen's Financial Advisor (Goldman Sachs)

Goldman Sachs rendered its oral opinion to the Board, which opinion was subsequently confirmed in a written opinion dated August 27, 2018, that, as of the date of such opinion and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the $42.75 in cash per ordinary share to be paid to the holders (other than Parent and its affiliates) of ordinary shares pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

The full text of the written opinion of Goldman Sachs, dated August 27, 2018, which sets forth assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion, is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement. Goldman Sachs provided advisory services and its opinion for the information and assistance of the Board in connection with the consideration of the merger. The Goldman Sachs opinion is not a recommendation as to how any holder of Aspen's ordinary shares should vote with respect to the merger, or any other matter.

In connection with rendering its opinion described above and performing the related financial analysis, Goldman Sachs reviewed, among other things:

the merger agreement;

annual reports to shareholders and annual reports on Form 10-K of Aspen for the five years ended December 31, 2017;

certain interim reports to shareholders and quarterly reports on Form 10-Q of Aspen;

certain other communications from Aspen to its shareholders;

certain publicly available research analyst reports for Aspen; and the updated financial projections and related internal financial analyses and forecasts for Aspen prepared by its management in June 2018, as approved for the financial advisors' use by Aspen, summarized in the section of this proxy statement captioned "Certain Aspen Prospective Financial Information" (which we refer to in this section as "Opinions of Aspen's Financial Advisors" Goldman Sachs and J.P. Morgan Securities LLC as the "Forecasts").

Goldman Sachs also held discussions with members of the senior management of Aspen regarding their assessment of the past and current business operations, financial condition and future prospects of Aspen; reviewed the reported price and trading activity for the ordinary shares of Aspen; compared certain financial and stock market information for Aspen with similar information for certain other companies the securities of which are publicly traded; reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the property and casualty insurance and reinsurance industries and in other industries; and performed such other studies and analyses, and considered such other factors, as Goldman Sachs deemed appropriate.

For purposes of rendering its opinion, Goldman Sachs, with Aspen's consent, relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial, legal, regulatory, tax, accounting and other information provided to, discussed with or reviewed by Goldman Sachs, without assuming any responsibility for independent verification thereof. In that regard, Goldman Sachs assumed, with Aspen's consent, that the Forecasts were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Aspen. Goldman Sachs did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities (including any contingent, derivative or other off-balance-sheet assets and liabilities) of Aspen or any of its subsidiaries, nor was any such evaluation or appraisal furnished to Goldman Sachs. Goldman Sachs is not an actuary and its services did not include any actuarial determination or evaluation by Goldman Sachs. Goldman Sachs did not make any attempt to evaluate actuarial assumptions and relied on Aspen's actuaries with respect to reserve adequacy. In that regard, Goldman Sachs did not make any analysis of, and did not express any opinion as to, the adequacy of loss and loss adjustments expenses reserves. Goldman Sachs assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the merger will be obtained without any adverse effect on the expected benefits of the merger in any way meaningful to Goldman Sachs' analysis. Goldman Sachs assumed that the merger will be consummated on the terms set forth in the merger agreement, without the waiver or modification of any term or condition the effect of which would be in any way meaningful to Goldman Sachs' analysis.

Goldman Sachs' opinion does not address the underlying business decision of Aspen to engage in the merger, or the relative merits of the merger as compared to any strategic alternatives that may be available to Aspen, nor does it address any legal, regulatory, tax or accounting matters. Goldman Sachs' opinion addresses only the fairness from a financial point of view to the holders (other than Parent and its affiliates) of ordinary shares of Aspen, as of the date of the opinion, of the of the $42.75 in cash per ordinary share to be paid to such holders pursuant to the merger agreement. Goldman Sachs did not express any view on, and its opinion does not address, any other term or aspect of the merger agreement or the merger or any term or aspect of any other agreement or instrument contemplated by the merger agreement or entered into or amended in connection with the merger, including the fairness of the merger to, or any consideration received in connection therewith by, the holders of any other class of securities, creditors, or other constituencies of Aspen, nor as to the fairness of the amount or nature of any compensation to be paid or payable to any of the officers, directors or employees of Aspen, or class of such persons, in connection with the merger, whether relative to the $42.75 in cash per ordinary share to be paid to the holders (other than Parent and its affiliates) of ordinary shares of Aspen pursuant to the merger agreement or otherwise. Goldman Sachs did not express any opinion as to the impact of the merger on the solvency or viability of Aspen, Merger Sub or Parent or the ability of Aspen, Merger Sub or Parent to pay their respective obligations when they come due. Goldman Sachs' opinion was necessarily based on economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Goldman Sachs as of, the date of its opinion and Goldman Sachs assumed no responsibility for updating, revising or reaffirming its opinion based on circumstances, developments or events occurring after such date. Goldman Sachs advisory services and the opinion expressed in its opinion were provided for the information and assistance of the Board in connection with its consideration of the merger and such opinion does not constitute a recommendation as to how any holder of ordinary shares should vote with respect to such merger or any other matter. The opinion was approved by a fairness committee of Goldman Sachs.

Goldman Sachs and its affiliates are engaged in advisory, underwriting and financing, principal investing, sales and trading, research, investment management and other financial and non-financial activities and services for various persons and entities. Goldman Sachs and its affiliates and employees, and funds or other entities they manage or in which they invest or have other economic interests or with which they co-invest, may at any time purchase, sell, hold or vote long or short positions and investments in securities, derivatives, loans, commodities, currencies, credit default swaps and other financial instruments of Aspen, Parent, any of their respective affiliates and third parties, including Apollo and its affiliates and portfolio companies, or any currency or commodity that may be involved in the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement for the accounts of Goldman Sachs and its affiliates and employees and their customers. Goldman Sachs acted as financial advisor to Aspen in connection with, and participated in certain of the negotiations leading to, the transaction contemplated by the merger agreement. Goldman Sachs has provided certain financial advisory and/or underwriting services to Aspen and/or its affiliates from time to time for which the Investment Banking Division of Goldman Sachs has received, and may receive, compensation, including having acted as co-manager with respect to a public offering of Aspen's 5.95% Fixed-to-Floating Rate Perpetual Non-Cumulative Preference Shares (aggregate principal amount $250,000,000) in September 2016. Pursuant to an engagement letter, dated March 16, 2018, Aspen retained J.P. Morgan as its financial advisor in connection with the proposed merger.

At the meeting of the Board on August 27, 2018, J.P. Morgan rendered its oral opinion to the Board, which opinion was subsequently confirmed in a written opinion dated August 27, 2018, that, as of the date of such opinion and based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions set forth therein, the $42.75 in cash per ordinary share to be paid to the holders of ordinary shares pursuant to the merger agreement was fair from a financial point of view to such holders.

The full text of the written opinion of J.P. Morgan, dated August 27, 2018, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered and limits on the review undertaken, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement and is incorporated herein by reference. Aspen's shareholders are urged to read the opinion in its entirety. J.P. Morgan's written opinion is addressed to the Board, is directed only to the consideration to be paid in the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Aspen as to how such shareholder should vote at the special general meeting. The summary of the opinion of J.P. Morgan set forth in this proxy statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion.

In arriving at its opinion, J.P. Morgan, among other things:

J.P. Morgan's opinion was necessarily based on economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to J.P. Morgan as of, the date of such opinion. J.P. Morgan's opinion noted that subsequent developments may affect J.P. Morgan's opinion, and that J.P. Morgan does not have any obligation to update, revise, or reaffirm such opinion. J.P. Morgan's opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be paid to the holders of ordinary shares in the proposed merger and J.P. Morgan has expressed no opinion as to the fairness of any consideration paid in connection with the merger to the holders of any other class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of Aspen or as to the underlying decision by Aspen to engage in the merger. Illustrative Present Value of Future Share Price Analysis. Goldman Sachs performed an illustrative analysis of the implied present value of an illustrative future value per share of Aspen's ordinary shares, which is designed to provide an indication of the present value of a theoretical future value of a company's equity as a function of such company's financial multiples. For this analysis, Goldman Sachs first calculated the implied equity values per ordinary share of Aspen as of the fiscal years ended December 31, 2018 and 2019, respectively, by applying an illustrative range of forward EPS multiples of 9.0x to 12.0x to EPS estimates for each of the fiscal years ended December 31, 2019 and 2020, respectively, contained in the Forecasts. These illustrative multiple estimates were derived by Goldman Sachs utilizing its professional judgment and experience, taking into account, among other things, historical average price to earnings multiples for Aspen and the selected companies referenced in the analysis above. Goldman Sachs then discounted the implied future value per ordinary share of Aspen back to June 30, 2018, using an illustrative discount rate of 7.27%, reflecting an estimate of Aspen's cost of equity. Goldman Sachs derived such illustrative estimated cost of equity by application of the Capital Asset Pricing Model, which requires certain company specific inputs, including a beta for the company, as well as certain financial metrics for the United States financial markets generally (CAPM).

Goldman Sachs also performed an illustrative analysis of the implied present value of an illustrative future value per share of Aspen's ordinary shares as a function of its price to future BV. For this analysis, Goldman Sachs first calculated the implied equity values per ordinary share as of December 31, 2018, 2019 and 2020, respectively, by applying an illustrative range of BV of shareholders' equity multiples of 0.90x to 1.20x to BV per share estimates as of December 31, 2019, 2020 and 2021, respectively, contained in the Forecasts. These illustrative multiple estimates were derived by Goldman Sachs utilizing its professional judgment and experience, taking into account, among other things, historical average of price to BV multiples for Aspen and the selected companies referenced in the analysis above. Goldman Sachs then discounted the implied future value per share of Aspen back to June 30, 2018, using an illustrative discount rate of 7.27%, reflecting an estimate of Aspen's cost of equity. Goldman Sachs derived such illustrative estimated cost of equity by application of CAPM.

Using the Forecasts, Goldman Sachs performed a dividend discount analysis on Aspen to determine a range of equity values for the Company's fully diluted ordinary shares. Goldman Sachs discounted the estimated dividend streams from Aspen for the period 2018 through 2020 as reflected in the Forecasts and the range of terminal values to derive present values, as of June 30, 2018, of Aspen. Goldman Sachs calculated a range of terminal values for Aspen by applying price to BV multiples ranging from 0.90x to 1.20x to the projected BV of Aspen in 2020 as reflected in the Forecasts. These illustrative BV multiple estimates were derived by Goldman Sachs utilizing its professional judgment and experience, taking into account, among other things, historical average of price to BV multiples for Aspen. J.P. Morgan's Dividend Discount Analysis

J.P. Morgan conducted a dividend discount analysis to determine a range of equity values for the Company's fully diluted ordinary shares, assuming the Company continued to operate as a standalone entity. The range was determined by adding the present value of an estimated future dividend stream for Aspen over a three-year period from 2018 through 2020, using the Forecasts and the present value of an estimated terminal value of the ordinary shares at the end of 2020. For purposes of calculating the terminal value, J.P. Morgan was directed by Aspen's management to use a terminal growth rate of 1.00%-2.00% and a payout ratio of 70% (among other terminal year assumptions). In performing its analysis, J.P. Morgan assumed a cost of equity range of 7.00-8.00%, which range was chosen by J.P. Morgan taking into account macroeconomic assumptions, estimates of risk, Aspen's capital structure and other appropriate factors.

This analysis implied an equity value per share of $37.17 to $52.39 per ordinary share of Aspen as of June 30, 2018 based on fully diluted shares outstanding provided by Aspen's management.

The foregoing summary of certain material financial analyses does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses or data presented by Aspen's financial advisors. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Selecting portions of the analyses or of the summary set forth above, without considering the analyses as a whole, could create an incomplete view of the processes underlying Aspen's financial advisors' opinions. In arriving at its respective fairness determination, each of Aspen's financial advisors considered the results of all of its analyses and did not attribute any particular weight to any factor or analysis considered by it. Rather, each of Aspen's financial advisors made its determination as to fairness on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all of its analyses. Other than Aspen or Parent, no company or transaction used in the above analyses as a comparison is directly comparable to Aspen or Parent or the contemplated transaction.

Aspen's financial advisors prepared these analyses for purposes of providing their respective opinions to the Board as to the fairness from a financial point of view of the total consideration to be paid to the holders of ordinary shares of Aspen in the proposed merger. These analyses do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold. Analyses based upon forecasts of future results are not necessarily indicative of actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by these analyses.

Because these analyses are inherently subject to uncertainty, being based upon numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties or their respective advisors, none of Aspen, Parent, Goldman Sachs, J.P. Morgan or any other person assumes responsibility if future results are materially different from those forecasted.

The consideration was determined through arm's-length negotiations between Aspen and Parent and was approved by the Board. Aspen's financial advisors provided advice to Aspen during these negotiations. Aspen's financial advisors did not, however, recommend any specific amount of consideration to Aspen or the Board or that any specific amount of consideration constituted the only appropriate consideration for the merger. As described above, J.P. Morgan's and Goldman Sachs' opinions to the Board were one of many factors taken into consideration by the Board in making its determination to approve the merger agreement. The foregoing summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by each of J.P. Morgan and Goldman Sachs in connection with the fairness opinions and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the written opinions of Goldman Sachs and J.P. Morgan included as Annexes B and C to this proxy statement, respectively.

Certain Aspen Prospective Financial Information

Aspen management does not as a matter of course make public projections as to future performance or earnings, particularly given the significant unpredictability inherent in its business. However, Aspen provided, among other information, certain financial projections prepared by Aspen's management to the Board, to Goldman Sachs and J.P. Morgan, financial advisors to Aspen, and to each of the potential bidders for Aspen in connection with their respective evaluations of the merger (the "financial projections"). The financial projections were not developed for the purposes of providing earnings guidance.

The financial projections represent only one scenario in a wide range of potential outcomes. While presented with numeric specificity, the financial projections reflect numerous estimates and assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business, economic, regulatory, market, and financial conditions, and other future events, as well as matters specific to Aspen's business, all of which are inherently uncertain and difficult to predict and many of which are beyond Aspen's control. These financial projections are subjective in many respects. The financial projections cover multiple years and such information by its nature becomes less reliable with each successive year. The financial projections may also be affected by Aspen's ability to achieve strategic goals, objectives, and targets over the applicable periods. As such, the financial projections constitute forward-looking information and are subject to risks and uncertainties, including the various risks set forth in the sections of this proxy statement titled Cautionary Statement Concerning Forward-Looking Information and in Aspen's most recent reports on Form 10-K and Form 10-Q and other documents filed with or furnished to the SEC. Aspen's shareholders should read the section of this proxy statement titled Cautionary Statement Concerning Forward-Looking Information and such reports filed with the SEC for additional information regarding the risks inherent in forward-looking information such as the financial projections.

The financial projections were not prepared with a view toward public disclosure, the published guidelines of the SEC regarding projections, or the guidelines established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants for preparation and presentation of prospective financial information. In view of Aspen's management, the financial projections were prepared on a reasonable basis. However, the financial projections are not factual, and should not be relied upon as being necessarily indicative of future results, and readers of this proxy statement are cautioned not to place undue reliance on the financial projections. Neither Aspen's independent registered public accounting firm, nor any other independent accountants, have compiled, examined or performed any procedures with respect to the financial projections included below, nor have they expressed any opinion or any other form of assurance on such information or its achievability, and they assume no responsibility for, and disclaim any association with, the financial projections. Furthermore, the financial projections do not take into account any circumstances or events occurring after the date they were prepared.

Certain of the financial projections set forth herein may be considered non-generally accepted accounting principles (non-GAAP) financial measures. Non-GAAP financial measures should not be considered in isolation from, or as a substitute for, financial information presented in compliance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). Non-GAAP financial measures as used in the financial projections may also not be comparable to similarly titled amounts used by other companies or persons.

The financial projections set forth below do not give effect to the merger and do not take into account the effect of any potential failure for the merger to be consummated.

You are strongly cautioned not to place undue reliance on the financial projections set forth below. The inclusion of the financial projections in this proxy statement should not be regarded as an indication that any of Aspen, Parent or their affiliates, advisors or representatives considered or consider the financial projections to be predictive of actual future events, and the financial projections should not be relied upon as such. None of Aspen, Parent or their respective affiliates, advisors, officers, directors or representatives can give any assurance that actual results will not materially differ from the financial projections, and none of them undertakes any obligation to update or otherwise revise or reconcile the financial projections to reflect circumstances existing after the date such financial projections were generated or to reflect the occurrence of future events even in the event that any or all of the assumptions underlying the financial projections are shown to be in error. None of Aspen, Parent or their respective affiliates, advisors or representatives makes any representation to any other person regarding the financial projections. The financial projections are not being included in this proxy statement to influence a shareholder's decision regarding how to vote on any given proposal, but because the financial projections were provided to Goldman Sachs and J.P. Morgan. These financial projections are for illustrative purposes and should not be considered an indication of what Aspen may do in the future.

The CIM distributed by Aspen's financial advisors to potential bidders in March 2018 included a preliminary set of financial projections prepared by Aspen's management. A summary of such financial projections that were set forth in the CIM is set forth below (expressed in millions of U.S. dollars):

The financial projections included in the CIM were updated by Aspen's management after discussion with and approval by the Board in June 2018. The updates to the financial projections were primarily driven by, among other matters, improved projected underwriting results as a result of an anticipated reduction in natural catastrophe losses, projected performance improvement in insurance underwriting, projected expense reductions, projected improvement in results (other than those relating to catastrophic events) in certain business lines, and the impact of the discontinuation of the international professional indemnity, marine hull and aviation insurance business lines at Lloyd's of London due to their limited contribution and volatility and the views of Aspen's senior management and the Board that they should be discontinued as part of Aspen's long-term strategic plan. The updated financial projections were made available to the remaining bidders on June 10, 2018. The following is a summary of the updated financial projections (expressed in millions of U.S. dollars):

	2018E	2019E	2020E

Table of Contents

The following table represents the total estimated future dividends and net share repurchases for Aspen over a period of thirty-six months from January 1, 2018 to December 31, 2020 (expressed in millions of U.S. dollars):

	2018E	2019E	2020E
Ordinary share dividends	57	57	57

The projections of dividends reflect projections of Aspen's distributable cash flow to Aspen's ordinary shareholders for the periods presented based on Aspen's stand-alone financial plan and capital management policy and may not be indicative of aggregate net cash flows generated by Aspen or the amount of cash potentially available to Aspen to return to Aspen's ordinary shareholders.

Financing

Aspen, Parent and Merger Sub estimate that the total amounts of funds required to complete the merger and pay related fees and expenses is approximately $2,600,000,000, for which Parent has obtained equity investment commitments under the equity commitment letter from the Apollo Funds.

The consummation of the merger is not conditioned upon receipt of any financing. Pursuant to the merger agreement, Parent and Merger Sub have represented that Parent and Merger Sub will have the required equity financing, in an amount sufficient to (i) pay the aggregate merger consideration, (ii) pay all fees and expenses required to be paid by Parent in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and (iii) satisfy all other payment obligations of Parent and the Company payable on the closing date of the merger.

Equity Commitment Letter

Parent has entered into the equity commitment letter with the Apollo Funds pursuant to which the Apollo Funds have committed, on a several but not joint basis, on the terms and subject to the conditions of the equity commitment letter, to purchase, or cause to be purchased, directly or indirectly, equity of Parent in an aggregate amount up to $2,600,000,000, or such lesser amount sufficient to fully fund the aggregate merger consideration pursuant to the merger agreement. The Apollo Funds are permitted to assign their aggregate commitment to one or more affiliates or one or more third-party co-investors, each of which is acquiring less than 10% of the equity securities of Parent or any of its subsidiaries and will not be granted a right to designate any member of the board of directors or other governing body of Parent or any of its subsidiaries; however, no such assignment will relieve the Apollo Funds of their obligations under the equity commitment letter.

Funding of the equity financing is subject to the conditions provided in the equity commitment letter, which include the satisfaction in full or waiver by Parent, on or before the closing of the merger, of all conditions precedent to Parent's obligations set forth in the merger agreement (other than those conditions that by their nature, are to be satisfied at the closing of the merger, each of which is capable of being satisfied at the Closing). Subject to certain limitations, the obligations of each Apollo Fund to fund its portion of the equity financing under the equity commitment letter will terminate upon the earliest to occur of:

the closing of the merger (including the funding of the merger consideration to the account of the paying agent);

the valid termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms;

the funding in full of the aggregate equity commitment;

the payment in full by the Apollo Funds of their guaranteed obligation pursuant to the limited guarantee; and the assertion by Aspen or any of its affiliates of a claim, lawsuit or other proceeding against any Apollo Fund or any related party of such Apollo Fund under the merger agreement, the equity commitment letter or the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement or the equity commitment letter (subject to certain exceptions, including an action seeking specific performance under the equity commitment letter or payment of the guaranteed obligations under the limited guarantee).

Aspen is an express third party beneficiary of the equity commitment letter, for the purpose of, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, seeking specific performance of the Apollo Funds' obligation to fund the equity commitment to Parent (as described in the section entitled The Merger Agreement Terms of the Merger Agreement Specific Performance beginning on page 37 of this proxy statement).

Effective Time of Merger

Subject to Parent's ability to delay closing in certain circumstances to determine the amount, if any, of net CAT losses, the closing of the merger will occur on the third business day following the satisfaction or waiver of all the closing conditions set forth in the merger agreement (described in the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Agreement Closing; Effective Time) (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver of those conditions) or such other date and time as Aspen and Parent may agree in writing.

The merger will become effective upon the issuance of the certificate of merger by the Bermuda Registrar of Companies and at the time and date shown on such certificate of merger.

Interests of Aspen's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the Board that you vote to approve the merger agreement and the merger, you should be aware that, aside from their interests as Aspen shareholders, Aspen's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, those of other Aspen shareholders generally. Members of the Board were aware of and considered these interests to the extent such interests existed at the time, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the merger agreement and the merger, and in recommending to the Aspen shareholders that the merger agreement and the merger be approved. Aspen's shareholders should take these interests into account in deciding whether to vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the merger. These interests are described in more detail below, and certain of them are quantified in the narrative and the table below.

Treatment of Aspen Equity Awards

As described under The Merger Agreement Treatment of Aspen Equity Awards below, equity-based awards held by Aspen's directors and executive officers as of the effective time will be treated at the effective time as follows:

Performance Units. Each performance unit that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will, to the extent not vested, become fully vested, and will be canceled and converted into the right to receive a lump-sum amount in cash, without interest, equal to the merger consideration, less any applicable tax withholdings; provided that, for purposes of determining the number of performance units outstanding immediately prior to the effective time, (i) with respect to any portion of a performance unit award with a performance period that has been completed, the number of shares will be determined based on the actual level of performance achieved, and (ii) with respect to any portion of a performance unit award with a performance period that has not been completed, any applicable performance-based vesting requirements will be deemed to be achieved immediately prior to the effective time at target payout levels.

Phantom Shares. Each phantom share that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will, to the extent not vested, become fully vested, and will be canceled and converted into the right to receive a lump-sum amount in cash, without interest, equal to the merger consideration, less any applicable tax withholdings; provided that, for purposes of determining the number of phantom shares outstanding immediately prior to the effective time, (i) with respect to any portion of a phantom share award with a performance period that has been completed, the number of phantom shares will be determined based on the actual level of performance achieved, and (ii) with respect to any portion of a phantom share award with a performance period that has not been completed, any applicable performance-based vesting requirements will be deemed to be achieved immediately prior to the effective time at target payout levels.

RSU Awards. Each RSU granted under a company share plan that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will, to the extent not vested, become fully vested, and will be canceled and converted into the right to receive a lump-sum amount in cash, without interest, equal to (i) the sum of (x) the merger consideration and (y) any accrued but unpaid dividend equivalents in respect of such RSU, multiplied by (ii) the number of ordinary shares subject to such RSU which had not previously been settled, less any applicable tax withholdings.

Quantification of Payments. Assuming for this purpose that the merger were completed on September 30, 2018 (the last practicable date before the filing of this proxy statement), the table below sets forth the number of unvested performance units, phantom shares and RSUs held by Aspen's executive officers and non-employee directors and the estimated value that Aspen's executive officers and non-employee directors can expect to receive for such equity awards at the effective time based on the per share merger consideration equal to $42.75.

(1) Aspen previously announced Mr. Lillelund's expected departure from the Company effective October 31, 2018. Pursuant to the terms of the separation agreement entered into with Mr. Lillelund, with effect from his departure date, Mr. Lillelund will have no claim for any payment for salary or other benefits under his change of control agreement or other employment or service agreements and the equity awards previously granted to Mr. Lillelund, to the extent not already vested and distributed to him by the departure date, will lapse on such date and cease to be eligible for vesting. Accordingly, assuming the merger is consummated in the first half of 2019, as anticipated, Mr. Lillelund will not be eligible to receive any compensation or benefits that will or may be paid or provided in connection with the merger, including any of the amounts set forth in this table.

(2) Per the SEC executive compensation disclosure rules, Mr. Boornazian is a named executive officer of Aspen with respect to 2018. Mr. Boornazian's employment with Aspen terminated on April 30, 2018, and he is therefore not entitled to any compensation or benefits that are based on or otherwise relate to the merger, which is anticipated to be consummated in the first half of 2019.

- (3) Per the SEC executive compensation disclosure rules, Mr. Postlewhite is a named executive officer of Aspen with respect to 2018. Mr. Postlewhite's employment with Aspen terminated on April 30, 2018, and he is therefore not entitled to any compensation or benefits that are based on or otherwise relate to the merger, which is anticipated to be consummated in the first half of 2019.
- (4) Includes Emil Issavi, David Cohen, Michael Cain, Kathryn Vacher, Timothy Paul Aman, David Schick and Heather Brown.
- (5) Includes Glyn Jones, Albert Beer, Bret Pearlman, Gary Gregg, Gordon Ireland, Heidi Hutter, John Cavoores, Karl Mayr, Matthew Botein and Ronald Pressman.

Retention Bonuses

Beginning on August 7, 2018, Aspen granted retention bonus letters to certain of its key employees, including the following executive officers: Mr. Cain, Mr. Cohen, Mr. Issavi, Mr. Kirk, and Mr. Schick. The maximum amount that Mr. Kirk is eligible to receive under his retention bonus letter is $2,000,000. The maximum amount the other four executive officers are eligible to receive under the retention bonus letters is $9,500,000 in the aggregate. The retention bonus is payable, for Mr. Kirk, on January 1, 2020, and for the other executive officers, upon the earlier to occur of (a) January 1, 2020 and (b) twelve (12) months following the effective time; provided, that, in each case, the applicable executive officer continues to satisfactorily perform his employment duties and remains employed with Aspen through the applicable date of payment. In connection with a covered termination of employment (i.e., in the event the applicable executive officer's employment is terminated by Aspen for any reason other than gross misconduct prior to the payment date), the entire retention bonus will be paid to the executive officer in a lump sum within forty-five (45) days after the termination of employment, provided the executive officer executes and does not revoke a release of claims.

Potential Transaction Bonuses

Under the merger agreement, subject to approval by the Compensation Committee of the Board, Aspen may grant cash transaction bonuses to certain executive officers in connection with the merger. Depending on the size of the transaction bonus, Apollo's consent may also be required. If approved, such transaction bonuses are anticipated to be payable upon the completion of the merger, subject to the executive officer's continued employment through, and performance in executing, the merger, in the sole discretion of the Compensation Committee of the Board. As of the date of this proxy statement, no such transaction bonuses have been approved or awarded. It is expected that the Compensation Committee of the Board will meet prior to closing to determine whether any such transaction bonuses will be awarded and the terms of any such bonuses.

Change of Control Agreements

Aspen or one of its affiliates has entered into change of control employment agreements and, with respect to Mr. Cohen, an employment agreement (collectively, the "change of control agreements") with each of its executive officers. Each executive officer's change of control agreement provides for certain severance payments and/or benefits if, during the two (2) year period following a change of control (or, in certain cases, prior to such change in control in the event that the executive officer reasonably demonstrates that such termination of employment arose in connection with or in anticipation of the change in control), the executive officer's employment is terminated by the employer without cause or the executive officer resigns with good reason, in each case, as defined in the change of control agreement, which termination we refer to as a qualifying termination. For purposes of each of the change of control agreements, the merger will constitute a change of control. The following is a summary of the severance payments and/or benefits that would be provided to each of our executive officers, including our named executive officers, in connection with a qualifying termination.

In the case of Mr. O Kane, the severance payment would be equal to (i) the average bonus paid or payable to Mr. O Kane in respect of the last three (3) full fiscal years, pro-rated based on the number of days in the fiscal year in which the qualifying termination occurs through the date of termination, plus (ii) three times the sum of (x) the current base salary rate and (y) the average bonus paid or payable to Mr. O Kane in respect of the last three (3) full fiscal years. On October 1, 2018, Aspen announced that Mr. O Kane will step down from his position as Chief Executive Officer and director of Aspen on or shortly following the closing of the merger. Apollo has informed Aspen that it anticipates that Mark Cloutier, who currently serves as executive chairman of Brit Ltd., will serve as Aspen's Chief Executive Officer following the closing of the merger.

In the case of Messrs. Aman, Cain, Cohen, Issavi, Kirk, Lillelund, and Schick and Meses. Brown and Vacher, the severance payment would be equal to (i) the average bonus paid or payable to the applicable executive in respect of the last three (3) full fiscal years, pro-rated based on the number of days in the fiscal year in which the qualifying termination occurs through the date of termination, plus (ii) two times the sum of (x) the applicable executive's current base salary rate and (y) the average bonus paid or payable to the applicable executive in respect of the last three (3) full fiscal years.

In addition, each executive officer would be entitled to: (i) continued health and welfare benefits for one (1) year (or, in certain cases, a lump sum cash payment equal to the value of such benefit), (ii) the additional contributions the Company would have made on the executive officer's behalf in the pension and retirement plans in which the executive officer participates plus the additional amount of any benefit the executive officer would have accrued under any excess or supplemental retirement plan in which the executive officer participates, in each case, had the executive officer's employment continued for twelve (12) months following termination (or, in the event that contribution or participation limits would prevent the executive officer from receiving the full value of those benefits, a cash payment equal to any portion of benefits that cannot be so provided), (iii) except for Mr. Schick, fees for outplacement services (not to exceed $40,000) and (iv) accelerated vesting of any then-outstanding equity awards, with any performance conditions relating to these equity awards deemed to have been satisfied at the greater of target performance levels and actual performance.

Mr. Issavi's change of control agreement contains a Section 280G best net after-tax provision, which provides that, if the total payments to Mr. Issavi under the agreement would exceed the applicable threshold under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code) then those payments will be reduced to the applicable Section 280G threshold to avoid the imposition of excise taxes under Section 4999 of the Code in the event, and only to the extent, such reduction would result in a better after-tax result for Mr. Issavi.

For an estimate of the amounts that would be payable to each of the Company's named executive officers under the change of control agreements in connection with the merger, see Quantification of Payments and Benefits to Aspen's Named Executive Officers below. The estimated amount that would be payable to Aspen's seven other executive officers who are not named executive officers under the change of control agreement in connection with the merger is $11,136,070 in the aggregate.

On August 29, 2018, Aspen Insurance UK Limited (Aspen UK) and Mr. Lillelund executed a separation letter agreement, dated August 29, 2018, providing that Mr. Lillelund's employment with Aspen will cease on October 31, 2018, after which Mr. Lillelund will have no claim for any payment for salary or other benefits under his change of control employment agreement or other service agreements. Accordingly, Mr. Lillelund will not be eligible to receive any payments or benefits under his change of control employment agreement in connection with a qualifying termination.

Quantification of Payments and Benefits to Aspen's Named Executive Officers

The table below, along with its footnotes, is intended to provide the information required by Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K regarding the amount of compensation for each of Aspen's named executive officers that is based on or otherwise related to the merger, and assumes, among other things, that each named executive officer will experience a termination in connection with the change of control (or, if otherwise indicated below, a qualifying termination), as indicated below, immediately following the consummation of the merger. This merger-related compensation is subject to a non-binding advisory vote of Aspen shareholders, as set forth in Proposal 3 to this proxy statement. See the Section entitled Proposal 3 Approval of the Compensation Advisory Proposal on page 109.

Please note that the amounts described and quantified below are estimates based on multiple assumptions (including assumptions described in this proxy statement) that may or may not actually occur or be accurate on the relevant date and do not reflect certain compensation actions that may occur before the effective time. Some of the assumptions are based on information not currently available and, as a result, the actual amounts, if any, to be received by a named executive officer may differ in material respects from the amounts set forth below. For purposes of calculating the amounts included in the table below, we have assumed September 30, 2018 as the closing date of the merger and a termination of each named executive officer's employment on September 30, 2018 immediately following the effective time. The relevant price per share is $42.75 per ordinary share, which is the fixed price per share to be received by Aspen's shareholders as merger consideration in respect of their ordinary shares. See the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Interests of Aspen's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page 54 for a detailed discussion on the interests of Aspen's directors and Amounts originally denominated in British Pounds have been converted into U.S. Dollars at the exchange rate of £1 to $1.3041 (i.e., the exchange rate on September 30, 2018 rounded to four decimal places). All dollar amounts set forth below have been rounded to the nearest whole number.

- (1) Under the merger agreement, subject to approval by the Compensation Committee of the Board, Aspen may grant cash transaction bonuses to certain executive officers in connection with the merger. Depending on the size of the transaction bonus, Apollo's consent may also be required. As of the date of this proxy statement, no such transaction bonuses have been approved or awarded. As a result, no amounts relating to such transaction bonuses have been included in this table. If approved, such transaction bonuses are anticipated to be payable upon the completion of the merger, subject to the executive officer's continued employment through, and performance in executing, the merger, in the sole discretion of the Compensation Committee of the Board.
- (2) Represents the value attributed to unvested performance units and RSU awards, the vesting of which will be accelerated and that will be cashed-out in connection with the merger, assuming a per share value of $42.75 (pursuant to the merger agreement). For a more detailed discussion regarding the treatment of Aspen equity awards in connection with the merger, see Interests of Aspen's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger Treatment of Aspen Equity Awards above. The payments described in this footnote are single-trigger payments (i.e., they are conditioned solely upon the completion of the merger, not the named executive officer's subsequent termination of employment following the effective time). Pursuant to Mr. Lillelund's separation agreement, his unvested equity awards will lapse and cease to be eligible for vesting in connection with his expected departure from Aspen on October 31, 2018. Set forth below are the values of each type of unvested equity-based award that would vest and become payable in connection with the merger, assuming a per share value of $42.75.

O Kane, Kirk, and Lillelund).

- (4) None of the named executive officers are eligible to receive a tax reimbursement or gross up related to Section 280G of the Code that are based on or otherwise relate to the merger.

- (5) Represents a lump sum cash severance payment, payable within thirty (30) days after the date of termination, equal to (i) the average bonus paid or payable to Mr. O Kane in respect of the last three (3) full fiscal years, pro-rated based on the number of days in the fiscal year through the date of termination ($446,644), (ii) three times the sum of (x) Mr. O Kane's current base salary rate ($853,172) and (y) the average bonus paid or payable to Mr. O Kane in respect of the last three full fiscal years ($599,356) and (iii) because contribution or participation limits in the applicable plans would otherwise prevent Mr. O Kane from receiving the full value of such benefits through such plans, a cash payment equal to the contributions the Company would have made on Mr. O Kane's behalf in the pension and retirement plans in which Mr. O Kane participates had his employment continued for twelve (12) months following termination ($161,703). This severance payment is a double-trigger payment (i.e., it is conditioned upon both the completion of the merger and a qualifying termination of employment during the two (2) year period following the merger (or, in certain cases, prior to such change in control in the event that Mr. O Kane reasonably demonstrates that such termination of employment arose in connection with or in anticipation of the change in control)). On October 1, 2018, Aspen announced that Mr. O Kane will step down from his position as Chief Executive Officer and director of Aspen on or shortly following the closing of the merger. Apollo has informed Aspen that it anticipates that Mark Cloutier, who currently serves as executive chairman of Brit Ltd., will serve as Aspen's Chief Executive Officer following the closing of the merger.
- (6) Represents a lump sum cash severance payment, payable within thirty (30) days after the date of termination, equal to (i) the average bonus paid or payable to Mr. Kirk in respect of the last three (3) full fiscal years, pro-rated based on the number of days in the fiscal year through the date of termination ($131,872), plus (ii) two times the sum of (x) Mr. Kirk's current base salary rate ($521,641) and (y) the average bonus paid or payable to Mr. Kirk in respect of the last three (3) full fiscal years ($176,960) and (iii) because contribution or participation limits in the applicable plans would otherwise prevent Mr. Kirk from receiving the full value of such benefits through such plans, a cash payment equal to the contributions the Company would have made on Mr. Kirk's behalf in the pension and retirement plans in which Mr. Kirk participates had Mr. Kirk's employment continued for twelve (12) months following termination ($70,419). This severance payment is a double-trigger payment (i.e., it is conditioned upon both the completion of the merger and a qualifying termination of employment during the two-year period following the merger (or, in certain cases, prior to such change in control in the event that Mr. Kirk reasonably demonstrates that such termination of employment arose in connection with or in anticipation of the change in control)). Aspen does not consider Mr. Kirk's retention bonus, which is described in the Retention Bonuses section above, to be merger-related compensation and, as a result, no amount relating to such retention bonus has been included in this table.
- (7) Aspen previously announced Mr. Lillelund's expected departure from the Company effective October 31, 2018. Pursuant to the terms of the separation agreement entered into with Mr. Lillelund, with effect from his departure date, Mr. Lillelund will have no claim for any payment for salary or other benefits under his change of control agreement or other employment or service agreements and the equity awards previously granted to Mr. Lillelund, to the extent not already vested and distributed to him by the departure date, will lapse on such date and cease to be eligible for vesting. Accordingly, assuming the merger is consummated in the first half of 2019, as anticipated, Mr. Lillelund will not be eligible to receive any compensation or benefits that will or may be paid or provided in connection with the merger, including any of the amounts set forth in this table.
- (8) Represents a lump sum cash severance payment, payable within thirty (30) days after the date of termination, equal to (i) the average bonus paid or payable to Mr. Lillelund in respect of the last three (3) full fiscal years, pro-rated based on the number of days in the fiscal year through the date of termination ($247,439), plus (ii) two times the sum of (x) the current base salary rate ($525,000) and (y) the average bonus paid or payable to Mr. Lillelund in respect of the last three (3) full fiscal years ($332,042). This severance payment is a double-trigger payment (i.e., it is conditioned upon both the completion of the merger and a qualifying termination of employment during the two-year period following the merger (or, in certain cases, prior to such change in control in the event that Mr. Lillelund reasonably demonstrates that such termination of employment arose in connection with or in anticipation of the change in control)).

Please refer to footnote (7) above regarding details of Mr. Lillelund's separation agreement, which provides that he will not be eligible to receive any compensation or benefits in connection with the merger, including this severance payment, following his expected departure from Aspen on October 31, 2018.

- (9) Represents a pension contribution by the Company in an amount equal to the contributions the Company would have made on Mr. Lillelund's behalf in the pension and retirement plans in which Mr. Lillelund participates had Mr. Lillelund's employment continued for twelve (12) months following termination ($38,102).
- (10) Per the SEC executive compensation disclosure rules, Mr. Boornazian is a named executive officer of Aspen with respect to 2018. Mr. Boornazian's employment with Aspen terminated on April 30, 2018, and he is therefore not entitled to any compensation or benefits that are based on or otherwise relate to the merger, which is anticipated to be consummated in the first half of 2019.
- (11) Per the SEC executive compensation disclosure rules, Mr. Postlewhite is a named executive officer of Aspen with respect to 2018. Mr. Postlewhite's employment with Aspen terminated on April 30, 2018, and he is therefore not entitled to any compensation or benefits that are based on or otherwise relate to the merger, which is anticipated to be consummated in the first half of 2019.

Dividends, Distributions and Share Repurchases

Aspen customarily pays a quarterly cash dividend on the ordinary shares. Under the terms of the merger agreement, Aspen is restricted from declaring and paying regular quarterly dividends prior to the effective time.

Regulatory Clearances Required for the Merger

Each of the parties has agreed, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement, to use its reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, and to assist and to cooperate with the other parties in doing, all things necessary, proper or advisable to fulfill all conditions to the closing of the merger applicable to such party and to consummate and make effective the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement in the most expeditious manner reasonably practicable.

Such obligations will not require Parent or any of its affiliates to take any action, including entering into any consent decree, hold separate order or other arrangement, (i) that would, or would reasonably be expected to have, a material adverse effect on the business, results of operations, or financial condition of (1) Aspen and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or (2) Parent or any of its affiliates (provided that, for this purpose, that the business and the financial condition, results of operations and other financial metrics of Parent or any of its affiliates that is of a smaller scale than Aspen and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, is deemed to be of the same scale as those of Aspen and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole), (ii) relating to the contribution of capital, or any guaranty, keep-well, capital maintenance or similar arrangement, by Parent or any of its affiliates (other than Aspen and its subsidiaries) to or of Aspen or any of its subsidiaries or any restrictions on dividends or distributions that, in any case, has or would reasonably be expected to have a non-de minimis adverse economic impact on Parent or any of its affiliates or (iii) that requires or involves any adverse deviation in any material respect from any key term of the summary business plan with respect to Aspen and its insurance subsidiaries in connection with the merger (as described in the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Agreement Efforts to Complete the Merger).

Antitrust

Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 (the HSR Act), Aspen and Parent cannot consummate the merger until Aspen and Parent have notified the Department of Justice s Antitrust Division (the Antitrust Division) and the Federal Trade Commission (the FTC) of the merger and furnished them with certain information and materials relating to the merger and the applicable waiting period has terminated or expired. The termination or expiration of the waiting period means the parties have satisfied the regulatory requirements under the HSR Act. Aspen and Parent filed the required notifications with the Antitrust Division and the FTC on September 25, 2018 and early termination of the waiting period was granted effective October 2, 2018.

Table of Contents

Both Aspen and Apollo operate in the European Union. The EU Merger Regulation requires notification of and approval by the European Commission of mergers or acquisitions involving parties with worldwide and European Union sales exceeding given thresholds. The European Commission has an initial period of twenty-five (25) working days after its receipt of the notification to issue its decision (Phase I). The European Commission may extend this Phase I period to thirty-five (35) working days, if, within the first twenty (20) working days after submission of the notification, the parties propose remedies to address any competition concerns identified by the European Commission. The European Commission may open an extended investigation, which extends Phase I by up to ninety (90) working days, and can be extended to 105 working days, if remedies are offered after the 55th working day or to 110 working days by request of the parties or by the European Commission with consent of the parties. The merger cannot be consummated until after the European Commission has issued its clearance decision. In accordance with applicable best practices of the European Commission on merger control proceedings, Parent is planning on filing the first draft of the required notification with the European Commission the week of October 22, 2018 prior to formally filing the required notification.

Merger control filings are also required in Chile, Turkey, and South Africa. Pursuant to Chilean Protection of Free Competition Act, the merger cannot be consummated until after the Chilean Competition Authority has issued its clearance decision and the Chilean Competition Authority has 70 calendar days after its receipt of the notification to issue its decision. Under Turkish Law on Protection of Competition, the merger cannot be consummated until after the Turkish Competition Board has issued its clearance decision or the relevant waiting periods have expired without the issuance of a decision, and the Turkish Competition Authority has 30 calendar days after its receipt of the notification, which can be extended by 15 days, to issue its decision. Pursuant to the South African Competition Act, the merger cannot be consummated until after the South African Competition Authority has issued its clearance decision or the relevant waiting periods have expired without the issuance of a decision, and the South African Competition Authority has 20 business days after its receipt of the notification to issue its decision. Parent is planning on filing in these jurisdictions by the end of October 2018.

Insurance and Other Regulatory Matters

The insurance laws and regulations of all fifty (50) U.S. states and the District of Columbia generally require that before the acquisition of control of an insurance company may occur, either through the acquisition of or merger with the insurance company or a holding company of that insurance company, the acquiring party must obtain approval from the insurance regulator of the insurance company's state of domicile. In addition, many U.S. state insurance laws require prior notification to state insurance regulatory authorities of an acquisition of control of a non-domiciliary insurance company doing business in that state if the acquisition would result in specified levels of market concentration. While these prior notification statutes do not authorize the state insurance regulatory authorities to disapprove the acquisition of control, they authorize regulatory action in the affected state, including requiring the insurance company to cease and desist from doing certain types of business in the affected state or denying an application for a license to do business in the affected state, if particular conditions exist, such as the substantially lessening of competition in any line of business in such state.

Applications or notifications in connection with the merger or the changes in control of various subsidiaries of Aspen and Parent that may be deemed to occur as a result of the merger have been or will be filed, pursuant to the merger agreement, with various U.S. state regulatory authorities. Apollo filed an application for approval of the change of control of the Company with the Texas Department of Insurance on October 5, 2018, and the parties expect that Apollo will file an application for approval of the change of control of the Company with the North Dakota Insurance Department and the filing with the Monetary Authority of Singapore around November 1, 2018.

Applications for approval or notifications to regulators have also been filed or will be filed with certain non-U.S. regulatory authorities, including but not limited to, the Bermuda Monetary Authority, the UK Prudential Regulation Authority, the UK Financial Conduct Authority, Lloyd's of London, the Australian Treasury, the Jersey Financial Services Commission, the Dubai Financial Services Authority, the Central Bank of Ireland, the Italian Institute for the Supervision of Insurance, the Monetary Authority of Singapore, the Swiss Financial Market Supervisory Authority and the Office of the Financial Institutions of Canada.

Although Aspen and Parent do not expect these regulatory authorities to raise any significant concerns in connection with their review of the merger, there is no assurance that Aspen and Parent will obtain all required regulatory approvals on a timely basis, if at all, or that these approvals will not include a restriction, limitation or condition that would trigger a burdensome condition, which, in such case, would permit Parent to refuse to close the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and consummate the merger.

Other than the approvals and notifications described above, neither Aspen nor Parent is aware of any material regulatory approvals required to be obtained, or waiting periods required to expire, after the making of a filing. If the parties discover that other approvals or filings and waiting periods are necessary, they will seek to obtain or comply with them, although, as is the case with the regulatory approvals described above, there can be no assurance that they will be obtained on a timely basis, if at all.

Payment of Merger Consideration and Surrender of Share Certificates

Paying Agent

Prior to the closing date, Parent will designate a paying agent reasonably acceptable to Aspen for the payment and delivery of the aggregate merger consideration. Prior to the effective time, Parent will deposit or cause to be deposited with the paying agent cash in an amount sufficient to pay the aggregate merger consideration.

Payment Process

As soon as practicable, but in no event later than three (3) business days after the effective time, the surviving company or Parent will cause the paying agent to mail a letter of transmittal (in a form subject to Aspen's reasonable approval) to each holder of a share certificate, as well as instructions regarding the procedures by which holders of share certificates may receive the merger consideration. Upon the completion of such applicable procedures and the surrender of such holder's share certificates or without any action by holders of book-entry shares, the paying agent will deliver to the holder the merger consideration that the holder is entitled to receive and the share certificates or book-entry shares will be canceled immediately. No interest will be paid or accrue on the merger consideration.

Unregistered Transferees

If any merger consideration is to be paid to a person or entity other than the person or entity in whose name the surrendered Aspen certificate is registered, it will be a condition to the payment of such merger consideration to such transferee that the surrendered certificate be properly endorsed or will otherwise be in proper form for transfer and the transferee will have established that any transfer and other required taxes has been paid or is not applicable.

Withholding

Parent, the surviving company or the paying agent, as applicable, will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the amounts otherwise payable pursuant to the merger agreement such amounts as are required to be deducted and withheld with respect to the making of payments under any provision of applicable tax or other law or pursuant to any Company plan. Amounts so withheld and paid over to the appropriate governmental authority will be treated for all purposes of the merger agreement as having been paid to the Aspen shareholder in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made.

Delisting and Deregistration of Aspen Shares

If the merger is completed, the ordinary shares will be delisted from the NYSE and the BSX and deregistered under the Exchange Act.

Table of Contents

At the effective time, each preference share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will continue as a preference share of Aspen as the surviving company following the merger and the relative rights, terms and conditions of each such preference share will remain unchanged. The preference shares will remain listed on the NYSE and registered by Aspen under the Exchange Act immediately after the merger. Parent may decide, following the merger, to delist the preference shares from the NYSE, deregister such preference shares under the Exchange Act or take other action with respect to the preference shares.

Dissenters Rights of Appraisal for Aspen Shareholders

Any dissenting shareholder who did not vote in favor of the merger proposal and who is not satisfied that it has been offered fair value for its Aspen shares may, within one month of the giving of the notice calling the special general meeting, apply to the Bermuda Court to appraise the fair value of its Aspen shares, provided that such shareholder fully complies with the requirements of the Companies Act.

FOR THE AVOIDANCE OF DOUBT, A FAILURE OF A DISSENTING SHAREHOLDER TO AFFIRMATIVELY VOTE AGAINST THE MERGER PROPOSAL WILL NOT CONSTITUTE A WAIVER OF ITS RIGHT TO HAVE THE FAIR VALUE OF ITS ASPEN SHARES APPRAISED, PROVIDED THAT SUCH DISSENTING SHAREHOLDER DID NOT VOTE IN FAVOR OF THE MERGER PROPOSAL.

The Bermuda Court can determine the fair value to be greater than, less than, or equal to the merger consideration. Where the Bermuda Court has appraised the fair value of any Aspen shares and the merger has been consummated prior to the appraisal (as is anticipated) then, within one month of the Bermuda Court appraising the value of the Aspen shares, if the value received by any dissenting shareholder for its Aspen shares is less than the value of its Aspen shares as appraised by the Bermuda Court, the surviving company shall pay to such dissenting shareholder the difference between the value received and the value appraised by the Bermuda Court.

There is no right of appeal from an appraisal by the Bermuda Court. The costs of any application to the Bermuda Court to appraise the fair value of the Aspen shares shall be at the discretion of the Bermuda Court.

Table of ContentsTHE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following describes the material provisions of the merger agreement, a composite conformed copy of which is included as Annex A-1 to this proxy statement and incorporated by reference herein. The summary of the material provisions of the merger agreement below and elsewhere in this proxy statement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement. This summary does not purport to be complete and may not contain all of the information about the merger agreement that is important to you. Aspen encourages you to read carefully the merger agreement in its entirety before making any decisions regarding the merger as it is the legal document governing the merger.

The merger agreement and this summary of its terms have been included to provide you with information regarding the terms of the merger agreement and is not intended to provide any factual information about Aspen or Parent. Factual disclosures about Aspen or Parent contained in this proxy statement or Aspen's public reports filed with the SEC may supplement, update or modify the factual disclosures about Aspen or Parent contained in the merger agreement and described in the summary. The representations, warranties and covenants made in the merger agreement by Aspen, Parent and Merger Sub are qualified and subject to important limitations agreed to by Aspen, Parent and Merger Sub in connection with negotiating the terms of the merger agreement. In particular, in your review of the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement and described in this summary, it is important to bear in mind that the representations and warranties were negotiated with the principal purpose of allocating risk between the parties to the merger agreement, rather than establishing matters as facts, and may be subject to subsequent waiver or modification. The representations and warranties may also be subject to a contractual standard of materiality that may be different from that generally relevant to shareholders or applicable to reports and documents filed with the SEC, and in some cases are qualified by confidential disclosures that were made by each party to the other, which disclosures are not reflected in the merger agreement or otherwise publicly disclosed. The representations and warranties in the merger agreement will not survive the completion of the merger. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may have changed since the date of the merger agreement and subsequent developments or new information qualifying a representation or warranty may have been included or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement. For the foregoing reasons, the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions of those provisions should not be read alone, but instead should be read together with the information provided elsewhere in this proxy statement and in the documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement. See the section of this proxy statement titled "Where You Can Find Additional Information" beginning on page 116.

The Merger

On the terms and subject to the conditions of the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement, and in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Companies Act, at the effective time, Merger Sub will merge with and into Aspen, the separate corporate existence of Merger Sub will cease and Aspen will survive the merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent.

The merger agreement provides that, at the effective time, each ordinary share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time (other than ordinary shares owned by Aspen as treasury shares, owned by any subsidiary of Aspen or owned by Parent, Merger Sub or any subsidiary of Parent, which will be canceled as set forth in the merger agreement) will be converted into the right to receive $42.75 in cash, without interest and less any required withholding tax. All such ordinary shares will no longer be outstanding and will be canceled and cease to exist and each holder of a certificate previously evidencing any ordinary shares or uncertificated ordinary shares represented by book-entry will cease to have any rights with respect to those shares, except the right to receive the merger consideration.

At the effective time, Parent will become the sole owner of Aspen's ordinary shares. Therefore, current Aspen ordinary shareholders will cease to have direct or indirect ownership interests in Aspen or rights as Aspen ordinary shareholders, will not participate in any future earnings or growth of Aspen, will not benefit from any appreciation in value of Aspen and will not bear the future risks of Aspen's operations.

At the effective time, each 5.95% preference share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will continue as a preference share of Aspen as the surviving company following the merger and the relative rights, terms and conditions of each such preference share will remain unchanged.

At the effective time, each 5.625% preference share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will continue as a preference share of Aspen as the surviving company following the merger and the relative rights, terms and conditions of each such preference share will remain unchanged.

Following completion of the merger, Aspen's ordinary shares will be delisted from the NYSE and the BSX and deregistered under the Exchange Act. As a result, there will be no public market for Aspen's ordinary shares. This will make certain provisions of the Exchange Act, such as the requirement of furnishing a proxy or information statement in connection with shareholders' meetings, no longer applicable to Aspen. After the effective time, Aspen will also no longer be required to file periodic reports with the SEC on account of Aspen's ordinary shares. However, Aspen will continue to make securities filings with respect to its publicly-held preference shares to the extent such filings are required under SEC regulations following the completion of the merger. Parent may decide, following the merger, to delist the preference shares from the NYSE, to deregister such preference shares under the Exchange Act or to take other action with respect to the preference shares.

The directors of Merger Sub immediately prior to the effective time will be the initial directors of Aspen as the surviving company until their earlier death, resignation or removal or until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified. Other than Aspen's Chief Executive Officer, who will resign on or shortly after closing, the officers of Aspen immediately prior to the effective time will be the initial officers of Aspen as the surviving company until their earlier death, resignation or removal or until their respective successors are duly appointed and qualified.

Closing; Effective Time

Subject to Parent's ability to delay closing in certain circumstances to determine the amount, if any, of net CAT losses, the closing of the merger will occur on the third business day following the satisfaction or waiver of the closing conditions set forth in the merger agreement (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver of those conditions) or at such other date and time as Aspen and Parent may agree in writing. See the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Agreement Conditions to Completion of the Merger beginning on page 66 for further discussion on the conditions to the closing of the merger.

Catastrophe Events.

If, as of the date on which the closing would otherwise occur under the merger agreement, one or more CAT events (as described below) has occurred between July 1, 2018 and January 31, 2019 (or the closing date, if earlier), and Parent, having determined reasonably and in good faith and after taking into account all relevant information reasonably available, including available industry loss estimates from reliable sources, Aspen's own estimates and modeling with respect to losses arising out of such CAT events (or Aspen's representations regarding such estimates and modeling, as applicable), the amount of time that has passed since the occurrence of such CAT events and relevant historical experience regarding events that were similar to such CAT events (which we refer to as "acting in accordance with the agreed standard"), believes that the aggregate amount of all (i) losses and allocated loss adjustment expenses incurred and reinstatement premiums paid or payable with respect to ceded reinsurance or retrocessional treaties plus (ii) loss and allocated loss adjustment expenses reserves established (based on Aspen's historical reserving methodologies and information available as of the applicable date of determination) less (iii) reinsurance and other recoverables that are not doubtful or reasonably likely to be uncollectible less (iv) reinstatement premiums due (and not doubtful or reasonably likely to be uncollectible) or received with respect to assumed reinsurance or retrocessional treaties (net CAT losses) arising from such CAT events may reasonably be likely to exceed $350,000,000 but that more time is needed to determine more accurately the amount of such net CAT losses, then Parent may delay the closing for up to thirty (30) days. Parent may only exercise this right to delay the closing once. If, at or after the end of the 30-day period, all conditions to the closing have been satisfied or waived, then the closing will occur on the first business day after the end of such 30-day period unless Parent has exercised its determination right (as defined below).

Conditions to Completion of the Merger

Catastrophe Events Delivery of Loss Report.

If, as of any time on or prior to March 3, 2019, one or more CAT events has occurred between July 1, 2018 and January 31, 2019, and Parent, acting in accordance with the agreed standard, believes that net CAT losses arising from such CAT events exceed $350,000,000, then it may exercise its determination right to initiate a process to determine the amount of net CAT losses. If Parent exercises its determination right, Aspen, acting in accordance with the agreed standard, will deliver a written loss report setting forth Aspen's reasonable and good faith estimated calculation of net CAT losses as of the end of the month immediately preceding the month in which the determination right was exercised. Parent will have a ten (10) business day period to review the loss report and the calculations set forth therein and, if Parent, acting in accordance with the agreed standard, disagrees with Aspen's loss report (including any amount or computation set forth therein) on the basis that the loss report is inaccurate and that, if the loss report were accurate, net CAT losses as reflected on such loss report would be greater than $350,000,000, it may initiate during the review period a dispute resolution process, which may involve an independent actuary, to resolve disputed items in the loss report. If, after the loss report has been finally determined, net CAT losses are determined to be in excess of $350,000,000, Parent will have the ability to terminate the agreement within ten (10) business days after the loss report has been finally determined.

Parent may not exercise its determination right more than once. If, after the loss report has been finally determined, net CAT losses are determined not to be in excess of $350,000,000, Parent will not have the ability to terminate the merger agreement as a result of net CAT losses.

For purposes of the merger agreement, a CAT event is any of the following events that first occurs between July 1, 2018 through January 31, 2019:

any hurricane, windstorm, tropical storm, typhoon, cyclone, earthquake, seaquake, wildfire, severe thunderstorm, winter storm, flood, volcanic eruption, meteorite impact, weather event or any other naturally occurring peril that is identified by PCS as a catastrophe (or equivalent designation);

any natural catastrophe event that is identified by PERILS; any tsunami that makes landfall in the country of Japan;

any weather system that makes landfall in the country of Japan and is named by the Japan Meteorological Agency to be a tropical cyclone;

any event which is allocated a Catastrophe Code by Lloyd's of London;

any other natural catastrophe event of similar type and size as those identified in the above bullets and that occurs in a location that is not covered by PCS or PERILS; any act of terrorism or disastrous event that is caused by identifiable human action (whether intentional, deliberate, negligent, reckless or otherwise) that results in large-scale losses comprising environmental damage, physical property damage, loss of services or business, loss of life or other

damages that are insured or reinsured by the global insurance or reinsurance industry and that the global insurance and reinsurance industry generally considers (or is reasonably likely with the passage of time generally to consider) to be a human-made disaster or human-made catastrophe. (e.g., spills, fires, contamination, aviation, rail and maritime disasters, industrial and mining accidents, building and bridge collapses, power plant failures and release of dangerous substances); or a catastrophe that is not a natural catastrophe event or a catastrophe described in the immediately preceding bullet (e.g., pandemics or an epidemic of infectious disease, whether viral, bacterial or otherwise) that causes mortality rates in a relevant geographic region to increase significantly from historical or generally expected experience.

Mutual Conditions

The obligations of Aspen, Parent and Merger Sub to effect the merger are subject to the satisfaction (or waiver by the parties, if permissible under applicable law) of the following conditions:

the merger proposal having been approved by Aspen's shareholders;

any waiting period (or extension thereof) applicable to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement under the HSR Act having been terminated or having expired and the consents of, or declarations, notifications or filings with, and the other terminations or expirations of waiting periods required from, certain governmental authorities (see the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Regulatory Clearances Required for the Merger beginning on page 60 for more information on the consents of, or declarations, notifications or filings with, and the other terminations or expirations of waiting periods required from, these governmental authorities) having occurred or been obtained and being in full force and effect; and

there being no injunction, judgment or ruling, enacted, promulgated, issued, entered, amended or enforced by any governmental authority enjoining, restraining or otherwise making illegal or prohibiting the consummation of the merger.

Parent and Merger Sub Conditions

Parent's and Merger Sub's obligations to consummate the merger are subject to the satisfaction (or waiver by Parent and Merger Sub, if permissible under applicable law) of the following additional conditions:

the representation and warranty by Aspen that no material adverse effect occurred with respect to Aspen since December 31, 2017 being true and correct in all respects as of the closing date with the same effect as though made as of the closing date;

the representation and warranty by Aspen relating to its capitalization being true and correct in all respects other than for de minimis inaccuracies as of the closing date with the same effect as though made as of the closing date;

the representations and warranties of Aspen relating to (i) the power and authority of Aspen to execute, deliver and perform the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement, (ii) the capitalization of Aspen's subsidiaries (iii) the due authorization by Aspen of the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement, (iv) the enforceability of the merger agreement against Aspen, (v) the approval of the Board of the merger, the merger agreement, the statutory merger agreement and the bye-law amendment, (vi) the requirements under Bermuda law and Aspen's bye-laws to approve the merger proposal (vii) the applicability of any anti-takeover law to Aspen with respect to the merger agreement, and (viii) the fees and expenses payable to any brokers and advisors of Aspen, in the case of each of (i) through (viii) above, being true and correct in all material respects as of the closing date with the same effect as though made as of the closing date (except to the extent expressly made as of an earlier date, in which case as of such date);

the representations and warranties of Aspen, other than the ones set out in the three bullet points above, being true and correct (disregarding all qualifications or limitations as to materiality, material adverse effect and words of similar import set forth therein) as of the closing date with the same effect as though made as of the closing date (except to the extent expressly made as of an earlier date, in which case as of such date), except where the failure to be true and correct has not had and would not, individually or in the aggregate, constitute a material adverse effect;

Aspen having performed or complied in all material respects with the obligations and agreements required to be performed or complied with by it under the merger agreement at or prior to the effective time;

Aspen having delivered to Parent a certificate of an executive officer of Aspen that the conditions above have been satisfied;

none of the required regulatory approvals (see the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Regulatory Clearances Required for the Merger beginning on page 60 for more information on the consents of, or declarations, notifications or filings with, and the other terminations or expirations of waiting periods required from, these governmental authorities) contain, require or result in a burdensome condition (as described and summarized below);

as of the closing, Aspen Insurance UK Limited, Aspen Bermuda Limited, Aspen Specialty Insurance Company and Aspen American Insurance Company having financial strength ratings by A.M. Best Company, Inc. of A (Excellent) or higher (provided that the placement of such ratings under review, including under review with negative implications or under review with developing implications, will not constitute a failure of this condition);

Aspen Insurance UK Limited and Aspen Bermuda Limited having financial strength ratings by Standard & Poor's Financial Services LLC of A (Strong) or higher (provided that the placement of such ratings under review, including any CreditWatch action, or the attachment of any outlook to such ratings or CreditWatch action, including any negative, or developing outlook, will not constitute a failure of this condition); and there being no triggering event notice date (as described in the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Agreement Termination of the Merger Agreement.) within the twenty (20) business day period immediately prior to the closing date or Parent having waived its rights to terminate the merger agreement in response to a triggering event.

Aspen Conditions

Aspen's obligations to consummate the merger are subject to the satisfaction (or waiver by Aspen, if permissible under applicable law) of the following additional conditions:

the representations and warranties of Parent and Merger Sub relating to (i) the power and authority of Parent and Merger Sub to execute, deliver and perform the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement, (ii) the due authorization by Parent and Merger Sub of the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement, (iii) the enforceability of the merger agreement against Parent and Merger Sub, (iv) the approval by the Parent board of directors of the merger agreement and the merger, (v) the absence of a required vote of the holders of any class or series of capital stock of Parent to approve the merger agreement, the statutory merger or the merger and (vi) the fees and expenses payable to any brokers and advisors of Parent and Merger Sub being true and correct in all material respects as of the closing date of the merger as though made as of the closing date (except to the extent expressly made as of an earlier date, in which case as of such date);

the representations and warranties of Parent and Merger Sub (other than the representations and warranties described in the first bullet above), disregarding all qualification or limitations as to materiality, parent material adverse effect or similar effect, being true and correct as of the closing date of the merger as though made as of the closing date (except to the extent expressly made as of an earlier date, in which case as of such date), except for such failures to be true and correct has not had and would not, individually or in the aggregate, constitute a parent material adverse effect (a description of which is summarized below);

Parent and Merger Sub having performed or complied in all material respects with the obligations and agreements required to be performed or complied with by them under the merger agreement at or prior to the effective time;

Parent and Merger Sub having delivered to Aspen a certificate of an executive officer of Parent that the conditions above have been satisfied;

Material Adverse Effect

For the purposes of the merger agreement, a material adverse effect will be deemed to occur if any effect, change, event, circumstance, state of facts, development or occurrence, individually or in the aggregate, has had, or is reasonably expected to have, a material adverse effect on the business, operations, results of operations, assets and liabilities (considered together), or the financial condition of Aspen and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole.

However, when determining whether a material adverse effect has occurred, none of the following will be considered except as expressly noted below:

changes, events, or conditions generally affecting the insurance, reinsurance, risk management, or investment management industries in the geographic regions or product markets in which Aspen and its Subsidiaries operate or underwrite insurance or reinsurance or manage risk;

general economic or regulatory, legislative, or political conditions or securities, credit, financial, or other capital markets conditions in any jurisdiction (including changes in the value of the bonds, stocks, mortgage loans and other investment assets of Aspen and its subsidiaries (the investment assets), to the extent arising from any of the foregoing);

any failure, in and of itself, by Aspen to meet any internal or published projections, forecasts, estimates, or predictions in respect of revenues, earnings, or other financial or operating metrics for any period (however, the underlying cause of the failure is not excluded and may be taken into account in determining whether a material adverse effect has occurred);

geopolitical conditions, the outbreak or escalation of hostilities, any acts of war (whether or not declared), armed hostilities, sabotage, terrorism or man-made disaster, or any escalation or worsening of any such hostilities, acts of war (whether or not declared), armed hostilities, sabotage, terrorism or man-made disaster;

the occurrence or continuation of any volcanic eruption, tsunami, pandemic, hurricane, tornado, windstorm, flood, earthquake, wildfire, or other natural disaster or any conditions resulting from such natural disasters (including increases in liabilities under or in connection with insurance or reinsurance contracts to which Aspen or any of its subsidiaries is a party arising from such a natural disaster);

the negotiation, execution, and delivery of the merger agreement or the public announcement or performance of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the impact thereof on the relationships of Aspen or any of its subsidiaries with employees, customers, insureds, cedants, policyholders, brokers, agents, financing sources, business partners, service providers, governmental authorities, or reinsurance providers, and including any legal or administrative proceeding, suit, investigation, arbitration or action arising out of any of the foregoing;

any change or announcement of a potential change, in and of itself, in Aspen's or any of its Subsidiaries credit, financial strength, or claims paying ratings or the ratings of any of Aspen's or its

Subsidiaries' businesses (however, the underlying cause of the change is not excluded and may be taken into account in determining whether a material adverse effect has occurred);

any change, in and of itself, in the market price, ratings, or trading volume of Aspen's or any of its Subsidiaries' securities (however, the underlying cause of the change is not excluded and may be taken into account in determining whether a material adverse effect has occurred);

any change in applicable law, GAAP (or authoritative interpretation or enforcement thereof), or in applicable statutory accounting principles prescribed or permitted by the applicable insurance regulator, including accounting and financial reporting pronouncements by the SEC, the National Association of Insurance Commissioners, any Insurance Regulator, and the FASB (however, this will not prevent or otherwise affect a determination that the actual consequences of an action taken or an omission by Aspen or any of its subsidiaries that resulted in a failure by Aspen or any of its subsidiaries to comply with applicable law contributed to a material adverse effect);

any action required to be taken by Aspen, or that Aspen is required to cause one of its subsidiaries to take, pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement;

any failure of Aspen or any of its subsidiaries to take an action prohibited by the terms of the merger agreement (but only if Aspen has requested and Parent has refused to provide a waiver of the applicable prohibition in the merger agreement in a reasonably timely manner);

the effects of any breach or violation of any provision of the Agreement by Parent or any of its affiliates; or the potential departure of the United Kingdom (or any part thereof) from the European Union, negotiations with respect to passporting rights (as defined in the UK Financial Conduct Authority handbook) and any resultant effects thereof.

Certain effects, changes, events or occurrences listed in each of the first, second, fourth, fifth and ninth bullets above may be taken into account in determining whether a material adverse effect has occurred with respect to Aspen if, but only to the extent, any such effect, change, event or occurrence has a disproportionate adverse effect on Aspen and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, relative to other participants engaged primarily in the industries and in the geographic regions or product markets in which Aspen and its subsidiaries operate or underwrite insurance or reinsurance. In such case, only the disproportionate effect or effects may be taken into account when determining whether a material adverse effect has occurred with respect to Aspen.

Parent Material Adverse Effect

For the purposes of the merger agreement, a parent material adverse effect will be deemed to occur if any effect, change, event, circumstance, state of facts, development or occurrence, individually or in the aggregate, would, or would reasonably be expected to prevent, delay, interfere with, hinder, or impair, in each case, in any material respect (i) the consummation by Parent or Merger Sub of any of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement on a timely basis or (ii) the compliance by Parent or Merger Sub with its obligations under the merger agreement.

Efforts to Obtain Required Shareholder Approvals

Unless the merger agreement has been earlier terminated, including pursuant to Aspen's right to terminate the merger agreement to enter into an alternative acquisition agreement (see the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Agreement No Solicitation of Takeover Proposals; Adverse Recommendation Change; Alternative Acquisition Agreements below), Aspen has agreed to hold a special general meeting of its shareholders and to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the requisite approval of Aspen's shareholders for the by-law amendment proposal and the merger proposal.

Table of Contents

No Solicitation of Takeover Proposals; Adverse Recommendation Change; Alternative Acquisition Agreements

No Solicitation of Takeover Proposals

Aspen is prohibited from taking certain actions, summarized in detail below, relating to takeover proposals. In this proxy statement, and in the merger agreement, a takeover proposal means any inquiry, proposal or offer from any person or group other than Parent and its subsidiaries, relating to a:

acquisition, including by means of reinsurance or retrocession, outside the ordinary course of business in a single transaction or a series of related transactions that, if consummated, would result in any person or group owning or having the economic benefit of 10% or more of the consolidated assets, revenues or net income of Aspen and its subsidiaries or net exposure to insured liabilities;

acquisition of Aspen ordinary shares representing 10% or more of the issued and outstanding ordinary shares;

any transaction that, if consummated, would result in any person (or the shareholders of such person) (other than Aspen or any of its subsidiaries as of the date hereof) being the direct or indirect beneficial owner of 10% or more of the voting power of, or economic interest in, any significant subsidiary of Aspen within the meaning of Rule 1-02(w) of Regulation S-X of the SEC;

tender offer or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in any person or group having beneficial ownership of ordinary shares representing 10% or more of the issued and outstanding ordinary shares;

merger, amalgamation, consolidation, share exchange, scheme of arrangement, business combination, reorganization, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving Aspen pursuant to which such person or group (or the shareholders of any person) would acquire, directly or indirectly, 10% or more of the aggregate voting power (without taking into account the voting cutback provisions in the Aspen bye-laws) or economic interest in Aspen or in the surviving entity in such transaction or the resulting direct or indirect parent of Aspen or such surviving entity; or combination of the foregoing, in each case, other than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement.

Any transaction meeting the above conditions, whether effected in a single transaction or through a series of related transactions, or directly or indirectly, is a takeover proposal.

Specifically, Aspen has agreed that it will, and will cause each of its subsidiaries to, and its and their respective directors, officers and employees to, and will use its reasonable best efforts to cause its other representatives, as applicable, to immediately cease any solicitation, knowing encouragement, discussions or negotiations of or with any persons that may be ongoing on or prior to August 27, 2018 with respect to any takeover proposal.

Aspen has also agreed that, from August 27, 2018 until earlier of the closing date and the date on which the merger agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms, it will not, and will cause each of its subsidiaries not to, and its and their respective directors, officers and employees not to, and will use its reasonable best efforts to cause its other representatives not to, directly or indirectly:

solicit, knowingly encourage, initiate or take any action to facilitate the submission of any inquiry or the making of any proposal or offer, in each case that constitutes, or would reasonably be expected to lead to, a takeover proposal;

engage in or otherwise participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding any submission, proposal, announcement, offer, or inquiry, that constitutes or that would reasonably be expected to lead to a takeover proposal or furnish to any other person any non-public information in connection with a takeover proposal or any such submission, proposal, announcement, offer, or inquiry;

enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, merger agreement, acquisition agreement, stock purchase agreement, asset purchase agreement, option agreement, amalgamation agreement, or other agreement related to a takeover proposal;

terminate, waive, amend, release or modify any provision of any confidentiality agreement to which Aspen or any of its subsidiaries is a party in connection with a takeover proposal or any submission, proposal, offer, or inquiry that would reasonably be expected to lead to a takeover proposal (unless Aspen's board determines in good faith (after consultation with its outside counsel) that failure to do so would be inconsistent with the fiduciary duties of directors under applicable law);

reimburse or agree to reimburse the expenses of any person (other than Aspen's representatives) in connection with a takeover proposal; or publicly propose or agree to do any of the foregoing.

Aspen has further agreed that it will, to the extent it has not previously done so prior to August 27, 2018, deliver a request to each person that executed a confidentiality agreement with Aspen during the eighteen month period prior to August 27, 2018 or has received non-public information from or on behalf of Aspen during such period, in either case, in connection with considering or making a takeover proposal to promptly return or destroy any non-public information previously furnished or made available to such person or any of its representatives on behalf of Aspen or representatives of Aspen. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else in the merger agreement to the contrary, Aspen may waive, and may choose not to enforce, any provision of any standstill or confidentiality agreement with any person that would prohibit such person from communicating confidentially a takeover proposal to the Board, if and only to the extent that the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that the failure to do so would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable law.

The non-solicitation obligations summarized above do not prohibit Aspen or its representatives from contacting a person that has made a takeover proposal delivered to Aspen during the period between August 27, 2018 and the date Aspen shareholders approve the merger agreement that did not result from a material breach by Aspen of such non-solicitation provisions solely to clarify the terms and conditions of such takeover proposal or to request that any takeover proposal made orally be made in writing.

If the Board determines in good faith after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel that such takeover proposal constitutes or would reasonably be expected to lead to a takeover proposal superior to Parent's, then Aspen and its representatives may (i) enter into a confidentiality agreement with and furnish information (including non-public information) about Aspen and its subsidiaries to the person or group of persons making the takeover proposal, and (ii) subsequently engage in or otherwise participate in discussions or negotiations with the person or group of persons making such takeover proposal.

If Aspen enters into a confidentiality agreement and furnishes information (including non-public information) to a person or group of persons making a takeover proposal, the merger agreement requires Aspen to promptly provide to Parent a copy of the confidentiality agreement and to concurrently provide Parent any information about Aspen or its subsidiaries that is provided to any person given such access that was not previously provided to Parent or its representatives.

Aspen has agreed to promptly notify Parent upon receipt of any takeover proposal (and in any event within twenty-four hours after receipt thereof). Aspen has also agreed to promptly disclose to Parent the material terms and conditions of such takeover proposal and the identity of the person or group of persons making such takeover proposal and unredacted copies of all proposals, offers, indications of interest, term sheets, or other material agreements and documents with respect thereto or that contain proposed terms of such takeover proposal (and communicate to Parent any material terms and conditions orally communicated to Aspen or its representatives in connection with such takeover proposal).

Table of Contents

Finally, Aspen has agreed to keep Parent reasonably informed of any material developments with respect to such takeover proposal on a prompt basis.

Adverse Recommendation Change: Termination of the Merger Agreement to Enter into an Alternative Acquisition Agreement

Except as described below, Aspen has agreed that neither its Board, nor any committee thereof, will:

withhold or withdraw or publicly propose to withdraw or withhold its recommendation that the Aspen shareholders approve the merger proposal and the bye-law amendment proposal;

modify, qualify or amend, or publicly propose to modify, qualify or amend such recommendation in a manner adverse to Parent;

fail to include such recommendation in this proxy statement;

approve, publicly endorse or recommend or propose to approve, publicly endorse or recommend any takeover proposal;

make any recommendation in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer other than a recommendation against such offer, or fail to recommend against acceptance of such a tender or exchange offer, including by taking no position with respect to acceptance of such tender or exchange offer, by the close of business on the earlier of (i) the 10th business day following the commencement of such offer and (ii) the 2nd business day prior to the date of the special general shareholders meeting (if such tender or exchange offer is commenced prior to the 4th business day prior to the special general shareholders meeting) or the date and time of the special general shareholders meeting (if such tender or exchange offer is commenced on or after the 4th business day prior to the special general shareholders meeting); or fail to publicly reaffirm such recommendation within five (5) business days of receiving a written request made by Parent to make such public reaffirmation following the receipt by Aspen of a takeover proposal (other than in the case of a takeover proposal in the form of a tender offer or exchange offer) that has not been withdrawn, provided that Parent may make any such request only once in any ten (10) business day period and only once for each such public takeover proposal and once for each public material amendment to such takeover proposal.

If Aspen takes any of the above actions it will be deemed an adverse recommendation change and this proxy statement generally refers to any of such actions as an adverse recommendation change.

In addition, except as described below, Aspen has agreed that its Board will not authorize, cause or permit, or publicly propose to authorize, cause or permit, Aspen or any of its subsidiaries to execute or enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, merger agreement, acquisition agreement, stock purchase agreement, asset purchase agreement, option agreement, amalgamation agreement or other agreement related to any takeover proposal, other than a confidentiality agreement with the person or persons making the takeover proposal, or requiring, directly or indirectly, Aspen to abandon, terminate or fail to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

However, prior to the date Aspen shareholders approve the merger agreement, in response to a superior proposal that has not been withdrawn, the Board may make an adverse recommendation change or cause Aspen to terminate the merger agreement, pay to Parent the termination fee and enter into an alternative acquisition agreement to implement such superior proposal, if:

the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law;

such adverse recommendation change is made or entered into after the fourth business day following the receipt by Parent of written notice from Aspen advising that its Board intends to take such action and Aspen discloses to Parent (1) the material terms and conditions of such superior proposal and the identity of the person or group of persons making such superior proposal and its or their financing sources, if applicable, and (2) a copy of the most current version of the acquisition agreement (if any) with respect to such superior proposal and any agreement in Aspen's possession relating to the financing of such superior proposal; and during the period following Parent's receipt of the notice described in the immediately preceding bullet, in determining whether to make an adverse recommendation change or terminate the merger agreement and enter into an alternative acquisition agreement, (i) Aspen has, and has caused its subsidiaries and its and their respective representatives to, negotiate with Parent in good faith (to the extent Parent desires to negotiate) to make such commercially reasonable adjustments to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement as would enable the Board to no longer make an adverse recommendation change or a determination that a takeover proposal constitutes a superior proposal and (ii) the Board determines in good faith, after considering the results of such negotiations and any revised proposals made by Parent, if any, after consulting with Aspen's financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that such superior proposal continues to be a superior proposal.

For purposes of this proxy statement and the merger agreement, a superior proposal means a bona fide written takeover proposal with respect to Aspen that, if consummated, would result in any person or group (other than Parent and its subsidiaries), owning, directly or indirectly:

50% or more of the outstanding voting equity securities of Aspen or of the surviving entity in a merger or the resulting direct or indirect parent of Aspen or such surviving entity;

50% or more of the consolidated assets of Aspen and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole; or

50% or more of the net exposure to insured liabilities of Aspen and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole;

did not result from a material breach of Aspen's non-solicitation obligations described above; and which the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, considering legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the takeover proposal (including any break-up fee, expense reimbursement provisions, conditions to consummation and financing terms), the person or group making the takeover proposal, and such other factors as the Board considers to be appropriate, is reasonably likely to be consummated in accordance with its terms, taking into account all legal, financial and regulatory aspects of the proposal and the identity of the persons making the proposal and to be more favorable to the holders of ordinary shares than the merger.

In addition, prior to the date Aspen shareholders approve the merger proposal, in response to an intervening event, the Board may make an adverse recommendation change if:

the Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that failure to take such action would be inconsistent with the directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law;

such adverse recommendation change is made or entered into after the fourth business day following the receipt by Parent of written notice from Aspen advising that its Board intends to take such action and Aspen discloses to Parent the material changes, developments, effects, circumstances, states of facts or events comprising such intervening event; and

during the period following Parent's receipt of the notice described in the immediately preceding bullet, in determining whether to make an adverse recommendation change, (i) Aspen has, and has caused its subsidiaries and its and their respective representatives to, negotiate with Parent in good faith (to the extent Parent desires to negotiate) to make such commercially reasonable adjustments to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement as would enable the Board to no longer make an adverse recommendation change and (ii) the Board determines in good faith, after considering the results of such negotiations and any revised proposals made by Parent, if any, after consulting with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that failure to make an adverse recommendation change would be inconsistent with the directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law.

For purposes of this proxy statement and the merger agreement, intervening event means a material effect, change, event, circumstance, state of facts, development or occurrence relating to Aspen and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole that:

was not known to the Board on August 27, 2018;

was not reasonably foreseeable as of August 27, 2018; and first arose or occurred or, if such effect, change, event, circumstance, state of facts, development or occurrence existed after August 27, 2018, becomes known to the Board after August 27, 2018 and on or before the date on which the Aspen shareholders approve the merger proposal.

However, the term intervening event does not include any effect, change, event, circumstance, state of facts, development or occurrence specifically related to the receipt, existence of or terms of a takeover proposal or any inquiry relating thereto.

As described in further detail in the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Agreement Expenses and Termination Fees, Aspen will be required to pay Parent a $82,935,000 termination fee, if:

The Board makes an adverse recommendation change in response to a superior proposal or intervening event and Parent terminates the merger agreement; or

Aspen terminates the merger agreement and enters into an alternative acquisition agreement;

Treatment of the 5.95% Fixed-to-Floating Rate Perpetual Non-Cumulative Preference Shares

Subject to the rights of dissenting shareholders, each 5.95% preference share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will continue as a preference share of Aspen as the surviving company following the merger and the relative rights, terms and conditions of each such preference share will remain unchanged. Following the merger, Parent may cause the surviving company to exercise any of its rights with respect to each 5.95% preference share issued and outstanding.

Treatment of the 5.625% Perpetual Non-Cumulative Preference Shares

Subject to the rights of dissenting shareholders, each 5.625% preference share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will continue as a preference share of Aspen as the surviving company following the merger and the relative rights, terms and conditions of each such preference share will remain unchanged. As with the 5.95% preference shares, following the merger Parent may cause the surviving company to exercise any of its rights with respect to each 5.625% preference share issued and outstanding.

Dissenting Shares

Assuming the requisite shareholder vote is obtained, Aspen shareholders who do not vote in favor of the merger at the special general meeting will, with respect to ordinary shares, receive the merger consideration, and with respect to preference shares, have their preference shares continue as preference shares of Aspen as the surviving company following the merger with the relative rights, terms and conditions of each such preference share remaining unchanged. Any dissenting shareholder will, in the event that the fair value of a dissenting share as appraised by the Bermuda Court under the Companies Act is greater than, (i) with respect to ordinary shares, the merger consideration, (ii) with respect to 5.95% preference shares, the value of their preference shares of the surviving company or (iii) with respect to 5.625% preference shares, the value of their preference shares of the surviving company, be entitled to receive such difference from Aspen as the surviving company by payment made within thirty (30) days after the final determination by the Bermuda Court of the fair value of such shares. If a dissenting shareholder fails to exercise, effectively withdraws or otherwise waives any right to appraisal, such dissenting shareholder's shares, (i) if an ordinary share, will be canceled and converted as of the effective time into the right to receive the merger consideration, (ii) if a 5.95% preference share, will continue as a preference share of Aspen as the surviving company following the merger and the relative rights, terms and conditions of each such class of preference shares will remain unchanged or (iii) if a 5.625% preference share, will continue as a preference share of Aspen as the surviving company following the merger and the relative rights, terms and conditions of each such class of preference shares will remain unchanged. For a more complete description of the available appraisal rights, see the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal of Aspen Shareholders beginning on page 63.

Under the merger agreement, Aspen has agreed to give Parent (i) written notice of any demands for appraisal of dissenting shares (or withdrawals thereof) and, to the extent Aspen has knowledge thereof, any applications to the Bermuda Court for appraisal of the fair value of the dissenting shares and (ii) to the extent permitted by applicable law, the opportunity to participate with Aspen in any settlement negotiations and proceeds with respect to any demands for appraisal under the Companies Act. Aspen will not, without the prior written consent of Parent, voluntarily make any payment with respect to, offer to settle or settle any such demands or applications, or waive any failure to timely deliver a written demand for appraisal or to timely take any other action to exercise appraisal rights in accordance with the Companies Act.

Treatment of Aspen Equity Awards

As of the effective time, each performance unit that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will, to the extent not vested, become fully vested, and will be canceled and converted into the right to receive a lump-sum amount in cash, without interest, equal to the merger consideration, less any applicable tax withholdings; provided that, for purposes of determining the number of performance units outstanding immediately prior to the effective time, (i) with respect to any portion of a performance unit award with a performance period that has been completed, the number of shares will be determined based on the actual level of performance achieved, and (ii) with respect to any portion of a performance unit award with a performance period that has not been completed, any applicable performance-based vesting requirements will be deemed to be achieved immediately prior to the effective time at target payout levels.

As of the effective time, each phantom share that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will, to the extent not vested, become fully vested, and will be canceled and converted into the right to receive a lump-sum amount in cash, without interest, equal to the merger consideration, less any applicable tax withholdings; provided that, for purposes of determining the number of phantom shares outstanding immediately prior to the effective time, (i) with respect to any portion of a phantom share award with a performance period that has been completed, the number of shares will be determined based on the actual level of performance achieved, and (ii) with respect to any portion of a phantom share award with a performance period that has not been completed, any applicable performance-based vesting requirements will be deemed to be achieved immediately prior to the effective time at target payout levels.

As of the effective time, each RSU that is outstanding immediately prior to the effective time will, to the extent not vested, become fully vested, and will be canceled and converted into the right to receive a lump-sum amount in cash, without interest, equal to the product of (i) the sum of (x) the merger consideration and (y) any accrued but unpaid dividend equivalents in respect of such RSU, multiplied by (ii) the number of Aspen common shares subject to such RSU which had not previously been settled, less any applicable tax withholdings.

Treatment of Aspen ESPP

Aspen will take all actions necessary to cause the Aspen ESPP (i) not to commence an offering period to purchase ordinary shares that would otherwise begin after the end of any offering period in effect as of the date of the merger agreement, (ii) not to accept payroll deductions to be used to purchase ordinary shares under the Aspen ESPP after the end of any offering period in effect as of the merger agreement and (iii) to ensure that no new participants be permitted to participate in the Aspen ESPP and that the existing participants thereunder may not increase their elections with respect to any offering period in effect as of the date of the merger agreement. In addition, Aspen will take all actions necessary to cause the Aspen ESPP to terminate immediately after the purchases set forth in the following paragraph, if any, are completed and immediately prior to the effective time.

In the case of any outstanding purchase rights under the Aspen ESPP, (i) immediately prior to the effective time (x) any offering period under Aspen's Employee Share Purchase Plan and the International Employee Share Purchase Plan will end and each participant's accumulated payroll deduction will be used to purchase newly issued ordinary shares in accordance with the terms of Aspen's Employee Share Purchase Plan or the International Employee Share Purchase Plan (as applicable) and (y) such ordinary shares will be treated the same as all other ordinary shares in accordance with the merger agreement, and (ii) prior to the effective time (x) Aspen will promptly take all actions necessary to enable and require participants in its 2008 Sharesave Scheme to utilize their accumulated payroll deduction to purchase newly issued ordinary shares in accordance with the terms of the 2008 Sharesave Scheme, such that there are no outstanding purchase rights thereunder as of the effective time and (y) such ordinary shares will be treated the same as all other ordinary shares in accordance with the merger agreement.

Efforts to Complete the Merger

Each of Parent, Merger Sub and Aspen has agreed, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement, to, and to cause its subsidiaries to, and, with respect to Parent, to use its reasonable best efforts to cause its control persons under applicable law, if applicable, to, use its reasonable best efforts to fulfill all conditions to the closing of the merger applicable to such party and to consummate and make effective, in the most expeditious manner reasonably practicable, the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement. Specifically, such actions include:

using reasonable best efforts to obtain all necessary, proper or advisable consents from governmental authorities and making all necessary, proper or advisable registrations, filings and notices and using reasonable best efforts to take all steps as may be necessary to obtain such consents from any governmental authority (including under the insurance laws of any applicable jurisdiction and the HSR Act and any other applicable antitrust laws); and executing and delivering any additional agreements, documents or instruments necessary, proper or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement and to fully carry out the purposes of the merger agreement.

In addition, each of the parties agreed to, and to cause their respective subsidiaries to, and, with respect to Parent, to use its reasonable best efforts to cause its control persons under applicable law, if applicable, to, use its reasonable best efforts to avoid each and every impediment under any applicable law that may be asserted by, or judgment, decree and order that may be entered with, any governmental authority with respect to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement so as to enable the closing to occur in the most expeditious manner reasonably practicable. Specifically, such actions include using reasonable best efforts in:

obtaining all consents of governmental authorities that are necessary, proper or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement and secure the expiration or termination of any applicable waiting period under the HSR Act and any other applicable antitrust laws;

resolving any objections that may be asserted by any governmental authority with respect to the merger or any other transaction contemplated by the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement; and preventing the entry of, and have vacated, lifted, reversed or overturned, any judgment, decree or order of governmental authorities that would prevent, prohibit, restrict or delay the consummation of the merger or any other transaction contemplated by the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement.

Burdensome Condition

The obligations of the parties described in this section Efforts to Complete the Merger will not require Parent or any of its affiliates to take or refrain from taking, or agree to take or refrain from taking, any action, including entering into any consent decree, hold separate order or other arrangement, or permit or suffer to exist any condition, limitation, restriction or requirement:

that would, or would reasonably be expected to, have a material adverse effect on the business, results of operations, or financial condition of (x) Aspen and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or (y) Parent or any of its affiliates (provided that, for this purpose, that the business and the financial condition, results of operations and other financial metrics of Parent or any of its affiliates that is of a smaller scale than Aspen and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, shall be deemed to be of the same scale as those of Aspen and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole);

relating to the contribution of capital, or any guaranty, keep-well, capital maintenance or similar arrangement, by Parent or any of its affiliates (other than Aspen and its subsidiaries) to or of Aspen or any of its subsidiaries or any restrictions on dividends or distributions that, in any case, has or would reasonably be expected to have a non-de minimis adverse economic impact on Parent or any of its affiliates; or that requires or involves any adverse deviation in any material respect from any key term of the Parent's business plan with respect to Aspen and its insurance and reinsurance subsidiaries in connection with the merger (any such requirement, individually or together with all other such requirements, termed a burdensome condition).

Furthermore, the provisions of the merger agreement do not obligate any party or its affiliates to take any action required by a governmental authority which is not conditioned upon the closing of the merger.

Regulatory Filings

The section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Regulatory Clearances Required for the Merger beginning on page 60 includes a description of the material regulatory approvals required for the completion of the merger that are referenced above.

Aspen has waived the obligation for Parent to file, or use its reasonable best efforts to cause each of its control persons under applicable law, if applicable, to file, and pay all necessary filing fees for the following required forms, applications, and notification filings with the governmental authorities listed below within twenty (20) business days after August 27, 2018 to allow the filings to have been made by October 5, 2018 other than the filing with the North Dakota Insurance Department and the Monetary Authority of Singapore, which the waiver allows to be made by

Information

In connection with the efforts described in this section Efforts to Complete the Merger, each party has agreed:

to consult with one another with respect to the obtaining of all consents of governmental authorities necessary, proper or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated under the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement and keep the other parties reasonably apprised on a prompt basis of the status of matters relating to such consents;

that each other party will have the right to review in advance and, to the extent practicable, and subject to any restrictions under applicable law, to consult the other with respect to, any filing made with, or written materials submitted to, any governmental authority or any third party in connection with the transactions contemplated under the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement and to in good faith consider comments of the other parties thereon;

to promptly furnish to each other copies of all such filings and written materials after their filing or submission, in each case subject to applicable laws;

to promptly advise each other upon receiving any communication from any governmental authority whose consent is required to consummate the transactions contemplated under the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement, including promptly furnishing each other copies of any written or electronic communication (redacted or on an outside counsel basis as necessary), and to promptly advise each other when any such communication causes such party to believe that there is a reasonable likelihood that any such consent will not be obtained or that the receipt of any such consent will be materially delayed or conditioned; and to not participate in any live or telephonic meeting with any governmental authority (other than routine or ministerial matters) in respect of any filing, investigation or other inquiry relating to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement, unless, to the extent practicable, it consults with the other party in advance and, to the extent permitted by applicable law and by such governmental authority, gives the other party the opportunity to attend and participate in such meeting.

Aspen and Parent have further agreed that each will not be obligated to provide information to a third party if a party to the merger agreement determines in its reasonable judgment that (i) doing so would violate applicable law or a contract, agreement, privilege or obligation of confidentiality owing to a third party, jeopardize the protection of an attorney-client privilege or expose such party to risk of liability for disclosure of sensitive or personal information or (ii) such information is not directly related to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be terminated and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement abandoned at any time prior to the effective time, whether before or after receipt of the requisite approvals of the Aspen shareholders (except as otherwise noted), under any of the following circumstances:

by mutual written consent of Aspen and Parent;

by either Aspen or Parent, if:

the merger has not been consummated by a walk-away date of May 31, 2019, except that, if, on May 31, 2019, the only condition to closing of the merger that has not been satisfied or waived by that date is the condition that such required regulatory approvals have been filed or obtained, or that certain required regulatory approvals have been obtained without the imposition of a burdensome condition, then the walk-away date will be automatically extended without further action of the parties to July 31, 2019 (however, the right to terminate the merger agreement pursuant to the provision described in this bullet will not be available to any party who has breached any of such party's representations and warranties set forth in the merger agreement, or who has failed to perform its obligations under the merger agreement has been a principal cause of or resulted in the failure of the merger to occur on or prior the walk-away date);

there is in effect any injunction, judgment or ruling, enacted, promulgated, issued, entered, amended or enforced by any governmental authority of competent jurisdiction enjoining, restraining or otherwise making illegal or prohibiting the consummation of the merger and that is final and nonappealable, except that the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement pursuant to the provision described in this bullet must have performed, in all material respects, its obligations under the merger agreement, including its obligations to use its reasonable best efforts to prevent the entry of and to remove any such restraint, as required by the provisions described under Efforts to Complete the Merger beginning on page 77 (it being understood that Parent and Merger Sub are deemed a single party for purposes of this exception);

Aspen's shareholders do not approve the merger proposal at the special general meeting or at any adjournment or postponement thereof at which a vote on the merger proposal has been taken;

by Parent, if:

Aspen has breached any of its representations or warranties, or has failed to perform any of its obligations or agreements contained in the merger agreement, which breach or failure would result in the failure of certain conditions to the obligations of Parent to consummate the merger described under Conditions to Completion of the Merger beginning on page 66 to be satisfied and which is incapable of being cured prior to the walk-away date or, if capable of being cured, has not been cured within thirty (30) days following receipt by Aspen of written notice from Parent stating its intention to terminate the merger agreement, provided that Parent will not have the right to terminate the merger agreement under this provision, if either Parent or Merger Sub is in material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements under the merger agreement; prior to Aspen's shareholders approving the merger proposal, the Board has made an adverse recommendation change;

Aspen has caused a triggering event, provided that, with respect to any particular triggering event, Parent may only terminate on this basis on or prior to the 20th business day after the later of the date Aspen causes such triggering event and the date which Aspen notifies Parent that Aspen has caused such triggering event (such later date we refer to as the triggering event notice date);

Parent has validly and timely exercised its determination right with respect to net CAT losses incurred by Aspen and the net CAT losses as reflected on the finally determined loss report are greater than the $350,000,000; provided that, if this termination right becomes effective in accordance with its terms, then Parent may only terminate pursuant to this right on or prior to the 10th business day after the loss report has been finally determined;

by Aspen, if:

Parent or Merger Sub has breached any of its representations or warranties, or has failed to perform any of its obligations or agreements contained in the merger agreement, which breach or failure would result in the failure of certain conditions to the obligations of Aspen to consummate the merger described under Conditions to Completion of the Merger beginning on page 66 to be satisfied and which is not reasonably capable of being cured prior to the walk-away date or, if reasonably capable of being cured, has not been cured within thirty (30) days after written notice thereof has been received by Parent from Aspen stating its intention to terminate the merger agreement, provided that Aspen will not have the right to terminate the merger agreement under this provision if it is in material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements under the merger agreement;

prior to Aspen's shareholder approving the merger proposal, the Board has authorized Aspen to enter into an definitive agreement to implement a superior proposal and, concurrently with such termination, Aspen enters into such definitive agreement and pays to Parent an amount equal to the termination fee in accordance with the merger agreement; or if all of Parent and Merger Sub's conditions to closing have been satisfied or waived, Aspen has notified Parent at least three (3) business days prior to such termination that Aspen is irrevocably ready, willing, and able to consummate the closing and Parent and Merger Sub have failed to consummate the closing within three (3) business days after the date by which the closing is required to have occurred.

Upon termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms by a party, written notice will be given to the other parties specifying the provision thereof pursuant to which such termination is made and the merger agreement will become null and void without liability on the part of any party or its directors, officers or affiliates, other than, with respect to any party to the merger agreement, the obligations pursuant to certain provisions that will survive the termination of the merger agreement. In addition, nothing will relieve any party to the merger agreement from liability for any willful breach of any provision set forth in the merger agreement (in an amount that does not exceed the reverse termination fee, in the case of Parent).

Triggering Event

For the purposes of the merger agreement, a triggering event is deemed to occur when, prior to the closing date, Aspen receives a clear indication from a rating agency after a discussion with the rating agency that it intends to downgrade the rating of Aspen or any of its subsidiaries in the near-term and (x) Aspen, without the consent of Parent, takes any commercially reasonable actions that the Board reasonably determines are reasonably necessary to avoid the ratings downgrade and the taking of such action causes, or would reasonably be expected to cause, a significant adverse economic consequence for Aspen and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or increases in any respect the aggregate merger consideration payable to Aspen shareholders, or duly elected or appointed and qualified. Other than Aspen's Chief Executive Officer, who will resign on or shortly after closing, the officers of Aspen immediately prior to the effective time will be the initial officers of Aspen as the surviving company until their earlier death, resignation or removal or until their respective successors are duly appointed and qualified.

Such payment must be made by wire transfer of same-day funds upon the earlier of the consummation of the takeover proposal or entry into a definitive agreement with respect thereto.

Indemnification; Directors and Officers Insurance

The merger agreement provides that, from and after the effective time, the surviving company will, and Parent will cause the surviving company to, indemnify and hold harmless, the present and former directors and officers of Aspen, any of its subsidiaries, or any other person in which Aspen or any of its subsidiaries owns any equity interests at the request of Aspen (and each such person's heirs, executors and administrators) with respect to all claims, liabilities, losses, damages, judgments, fines, penalties, costs (including amounts paid in settlement or compromise) and expenses (including fees and expenses of legal counsel) in connection with any action based on or arising out of, in whole or in part, (i) the fact that such person is or was a director or officer of Aspen or such subsidiary or (ii) the acts or omissions of such person in such person's capacity as a director, officer, employee or agent of Aspen or such subsidiary or taken at the request of Aspen or such subsidiary, in each case, at, or at any time prior to, the effective time (including in connection with serving at the request of Aspen or such subsidiary as a director, officer, employee, agent, trustee or fiduciary of another person (including any employee benefit plan)) (including any action relating in whole or in part to the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement or relating to the enforcement of the indemnification provisions in the merger agreement, as described in this paragraph), to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law.

In addition, for the six-year period commencing immediately after the effective time, the surviving company will maintain in effect directors' and officers' liability insurance from an insurance carrier with the same or better financial strength of Aspen's current carrier with respect to directors' and officers' liability insurance covering acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the effective time with respect to those individuals who, as of August 27, 2018, were, and any individual who, prior to the effective time, becomes, covered by Aspen's directors' and officers' liability insurance policy. The terms, scope and amount of such insurance coverage will be no less favorable to such individuals than Aspen's directors' and officers' liability insurance policies as in effect on August 27, 2018. However, if annual premium for such insurance exceeds 300% of the current annual premium, then Parent may provide or cause to be provided a policy for the applicable individuals with the best coverage as shall then be available at an annual premium not in excess of 300% of the current annual premium. In addition, Aspen may, prior to the effective time, purchase for an aggregate amount not in excess of such 300% threshold for six (6) years, a six-year prepaid tail policy on terms and conditions providing at least substantially equivalent benefits as the current policies maintained by Aspen with respect to matters existing or occurring prior to the effective time including the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. If such prepaid tail policy has been obtained by Aspen, it shall be deemed to satisfy all obligations to obtain insurance pursuant to the foregoing provisions and the surviving company will use its reasonable best efforts to cause such policy to be maintained in full force and effect, for its full term, and to honor all of its obligations thereunder.

Employee Matters

Through the end of the calendar year following the year in which the effective time occurs, a period we refer to as the continuation period, each Aspen employee who continues to remain employed by Aspen or one of its subsidiaries (a company employee), will be provided a base salary or wage rate, target annual incentive compensation opportunity and other compensation and employee benefits (excluding special, one-time or transaction-based compensation and benefits, defined benefit plan benefits, retiree welfare and long-term incentive compensation opportunities) that are not materially less favorable, in the aggregate, than those provided to such company employee by Aspen and any of its subsidiaries immediately prior to the effective time. In addition, each company employee whose employment is terminated by Parent, Aspen, as the surviving company, or any of their respective affiliates during the continuation period (other than for cause) will be provided severance benefits that are no less favorable, in the aggregate, than the severance benefits set forth in the confidential disclosure schedules delivered to Parent in connection with the execution of the merger agreement.

From and after the effective time, Parent or the surviving company will honor and continue all of Aspen's employment, severance, retention, termination and change-in-control plans, policies, programs, agreements and arrangements maintained by Aspen or any of its subsidiaries as set forth in the confidential disclosure schedules delivered to Parent in connection with the execution of the merger agreement, in each case, as in effect at the effective time, including with respect to any payments, benefits or rights arising as a result of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement (either alone or in combination with any other event), subject, in each case, to the terms and conditions of such arrangements including any provisions related to amendment, modification, termination and discontinuance.

From and after the effective time, Parent or the surviving company will provide credit to company employees for their service recognized by Aspen and its subsidiaries for purposes of determining eligibility to participate, level of benefits and vesting under all employee benefit plans of Parent, the surviving company or any of their subsidiaries (including any paid time off and severance plans) in which company employees are first eligible to participate following the effective time, which we call new benefit plans, provided that such service will not be recognized for purposes of any retiree health or welfare arrangements, any frozen benefit plan, benefit accrual under any defined benefit pension plan or to the extent that such recognition would result in any duplication of benefits.

Parent or the surviving company will use commercially reasonable efforts to waive, or cause to be waived, any pre-existing condition limitations, exclusions, actively-at-work requirements and waiting periods under any new benefit plan that is a welfare benefit plan in which company employees (and their eligible dependents) will be eligible to participate from and after the effective time, except to the extent that such pre-existing condition limitations, exclusions, actively-at-work requirements and waiting periods would not have been satisfied or waived under the comparable Aspen benefit plan immediately prior to the effective time. With respect to any new benefit plans, Parent or Aspen, as the surviving company, will use commercially reasonable efforts to recognize the dollar amount of all co-payments, deductibles and similar expenses incurred by each company employee (and his or her eligible dependents) prior to the effective time during the calendar year in which the effective time occurs for purposes of satisfying such year's deductible and co-payment limitations under the relevant welfare benefit plans in which they will be eligible to participate from and after the effective time.

Amendment or Supplement and Waiver

The merger agreement may be amended or supplemented by written agreement of the parties, by action taken or authorized by the boards of directors of Aspen and Parent, at any time before or after the receipt of the requisite approval of the Aspen shareholders of the merger proposal, but (i) after the requisite approval of the Aspen shareholders, no amendment may be made that by law requires further approval by the Aspen shareholders without such further approval and (ii) any modification or amendment to matters that relate to the sources (and any of their related parties) of Parent's debt financing in connection with Parent's obligations under the transactions contemplated under the merger agreement and statutory merger agreement requires such sources prior written consent.

At any time prior to the effective time, Parent and Aspen may, subject to applicable law, (i) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the other party, (ii) extend the time for performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties or (iii) waive compliance by the other party with any of the agreements contained in the merger agreement or waive any of such party's conditions. No failure or delay by a party in exercising any of its rights under the merger agreement will operate as a waiver thereof nor will any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right under the merger agreement. Any agreement on the part of a party to any such extension or waiver will be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party.

No Third Party Beneficiaries

While the merger agreement is not intended and will not be construed to create any third-party beneficiaries or confer upon any person other than the parties to the merger agreement any rights, benefits or remedies of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of the merger agreement, it provides a limited exception for each Aspen shareholder at the effective time as regards its rights to receive the merger consideration and for each present and former director and officer of Aspen and its subsidiaries (and each such person's heirs, executors and administrators) to continue to have indemnification, advancement of expenses and liability insurance coverage following completion of the transactions as described under Indemnification; Directors and Officers Insurance beginning on page 90, holders of equity awards from and after the effective time as regards their rights to receive payments for their share of the merger consideration and the sources of Parent's debt financing and their related parties as regards their rights.

Remedies; Specific Enforcement

Aspen and Parent agreed in the merger agreement that if for any reason any of the provisions of the merger agreement are not performed in accordance with their specific terms or are otherwise breached, irreparable damage would be caused for which monetary relief would not be an adequate remedy under applicable law. Accordingly, each of the parties to the merger agreement agreed that, in addition to all other remedies to which it may be entitled, (i) each of the parties to the merger agreement is entitled to an injunction or injunctions, specific performance or other equitable relief to prevent breaches of the merger agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions thereof in the courts in the State of Delaware or the federal courts of the United States of America located in the State of Delaware and (ii) the right of specific enforcement is an integral part of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and without that right, neither of the parties would have entered into the merger agreement. Such relief may be sought without the posting of a bond or other necessary security. The parties agreed not to assert that a remedy of specific enforcement is unenforceable, invalid, contrary to law or inequitable for any reason, and not to assert that a remedy of monetary damages would provide an adequate remedy or that the parties otherwise have an adequate remedy at law. The parties agreed that under no circumstances shall Aspen be entitled to (i) both specific performance to cause the equity financing to be funded or other equitable relief to cause the merger consideration to be paid and the closing to occur on the one hand, and payment of any monetary damages whatsoever and/or the payment of the reverse termination fee, on the other hand, or (ii) payment of the reverse termination fee, on the one hand, and/or any other monetary damages whatsoever, on the other hand. The parties agreed that the Parent's obligation to consummate closing and Aspen's right to specific performance of such obligations of Parent are subject to (i) all Parent and Merger Sub's conditions precedent to closing being satisfied or waived, (ii) Parent and Merger Sub failing to consummate within three (3) days after the date closing is required to have occurred pursuant to the merger agreement, and (iii) Aspen irrevocably confirming in a written notice to Parent that, if specific performance is granted and the equity financing is funded, then Aspen will take actions as required by the merger agreement to cause closing to occur, and Parent and Merger Sub fail to consummate closing within three (3) business days after delivery of Aspen's written confirmation.

Aspen will consult with, and consider in good faith any recommendations of, such designated representatives in regard to the development of the overall reinsurance plan for Aspen and its subsidiaries as well as on any determination to enter into, renew and modify any ceded reinsurance contract.

DISSENTERS RIGHTS TO APPRAISAL

Under Bermuda law, in the event of a merger of a Bermuda company with another Bermuda company or foreign corporation, any shareholder of the Bermuda company is entitled to receive fair value for its shares. For purposes of Section 106(2)(b)(i) of the Companies Act, the Board has unanimously, by all directors present at a duly called meeting, determined that the fair value for (i) each ordinary share to be no greater than $42.75, without interest and less any applicable withholding taxes, (ii) each issued and outstanding 5.95% preference share, to be the continuation of each such 5.95% preference share as a preference share of Aspen as the surviving company following the merger with all of its relative rights, terms and conditions remaining unchanged and (iii) each issued and outstanding 5.625% preference share, to be the continuation of each such 5.625% preference share as a preference share of Aspen as the surviving company following the merger with all of its relative rights, terms and conditions remaining unchanged.

Any Aspen shareholder who is not satisfied that it has been offered fair value for its shares and whose shares are not voted in favor of the merger agreement, the statutory merger agreement and the merger may exercise its appraisal rights under the Companies Act to have the fair value of its shares appraised by the Bermuda Court. Persons owning beneficial interests in shares but who are not shareholders of record should note that only persons who are shareholders of record are entitled to make an application for appraisal. Any Aspen shareholder intending to exercise appraisal rights must file its application for appraisal of the fair value of its shares with the Bermuda Court within one month after the date the notice convening the special general meeting to approve the merger has been given. The notice delivered with this proxy statement constitutes this notice. There are no statutory rules and limited decisions of the Bermuda Court prescribing in detail the operation of the provisions of the Companies Act governing appraisal rights that are set forth in Section 106 of the Companies Act or the process of appraisal by the Bermuda Court; the Bermuda Court retains considerable discretion as to the precise methodology that it would adopt when determining the fair value of shares in an appraisal application under the Companies Act.

If an Aspen shareholder votes in favor of the merger agreement, the statutory merger agreement and the merger at the special general meeting, such shareholder will have no right to apply to the Bermuda Court to appraise the fair value of its shares, and instead, if the merger is consummated, and as discussed in the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Agreement Effects of the Merger, each (i) ordinary share of such shareholder will be canceled and converted into the right to receive the merger consideration, (ii) 5.95% preference share of such shareholder will continue as a preference share of Aspen as the surviving company following the merger and the relative rights, terms and conditions of each such preference share will remain unchanged and (iii) 5.625% preference share of such shareholder will continue as a preference share of Aspen as the surviving company following the merger and the relative rights, terms and conditions of each such preference share will remain unchanged. Voting against the merger, or not voting, will not in itself satisfy the requirements for notice and exercise of a shareholder's right to apply for appraisal of the fair value of its shares.

A FAILURE OF A DISSENTING SHAREHOLDER TO AFFIRMATIVELY VOTE AGAINST THE MERGER PROPOSAL WILL NOT CONSTITUTE A WAIVER OF ITS RIGHT TO HAVE THE FAIR VALUE OF ITS ASPEN SHARES APPRAISED, PROVIDED THAT SUCH SHAREHOLDER DOES NOT VOTE IN FAVOR OF THE MERGER PROPOSAL.

In any case where a registered holder of shares has made an appraisal application, in respect of the shares held by such dissenting shareholder, and the merger has been made effective under Bermuda law before the Bermuda Court's appraisal of the fair value of such dissenting shares, then the dissenting shareholder shall be entitled to receive the consideration and, if the fair value of the dissenting shares is later appraised by the Bermuda Court to be greater than the value of the consideration, such dissenting shareholder will be paid the difference, between the amount paid to him as the consideration and the value appraised by the court within one month of the Bermuda Court's appraisal.

In any case where the value of the dissenting shares held by a dissenting shareholder is appraised by the Bermuda Court before the merger has been made effective under Bermuda law, then the surviving company will be required to pay the dissenting shareholder within one month of the Bermuda Court's appraisal an amount equal to the value of the dissenting shares appraised by the Bermuda Court, unless the merger is terminated under the terms of the merger agreement, in which case no payment shall be made. However, it is anticipated that, subject to having obtained the requisite approval, the merger would have proceeded prior to the appraisal by the Bermuda Court.

A shareholder that has exercised appraisal rights has no right of appeal from an appraisal made by the Bermuda Court. The responsibility for apportioning the costs of any application to the Bermuda Court under Section 106 of the Companies Act will be in the discretion of the Bermuda Court.

The relevant portion of Section 106 of the Companies Act in relation to appraisal rights is as follows:

(6) Any shareholder who did not vote in favor of the amalgamation or merger and who is not satisfied that he has been offered fair value for his shares may within one month of the giving of the notice referred to in subsection (2) apply to the Court to appraise the fair value of his shares.

(6A) Subject to subsection (6B), within one month of the Court appraising the fair value of any shares under subsection (6) the company shall be entitled either (a) to pay to the dissenting shareholder an amount equal to the value of his shares as appraised by the Court; or (b) to terminate the amalgamation or merger in accordance with subsection (7).

(6B) Where the Court has appraised any shares under subsection (6) and the amalgamation or merger has proceeded prior to the appraisal then, within one month of the Court appraising the value of the shares, if the amount paid to the dissenting shareholder for his shares is less than that appraised by the Court, the amalgamated or surviving company shall pay to such shareholder the difference between the amount paid to him and the value appraised by the Court.

(6C) No appeal shall lie from an appraisal by the Court under this section.

(6D) The costs of any application to the Court under this section shall be in the discretion of the Court.

(7) An amalgamation agreement or merger agreement may provide that at any time before the issue of a certificate of amalgamation or merger the agreement may be terminated by the directors of an amalgamating or merging company, notwithstanding approval of the agreement by the shareholders of all or any of the amalgamating or merging companies.

SHAREHOLDERS WHO HOLD THEIR SHARES IN BANK OR BROKERAGE ACCOUNTS OR OTHER NOMINEE FORMS, AND WHO WISH TO EXERCISE APPRAISAL RIGHTS, SHOULD CONSULT WITH THEIR BANKS, BROKERAGE FIRMS AND OTHER NOMINEES, AS APPLICABLE, TO DETERMINE THE APPROPRIATE PROCEDURES FOR THE BANK, BROKERAGE FIRM OR OTHER NOMINEE HOLDER TO MAKE A DEMAND FOR APPRAISAL OF THOSE ASPEN ORDINARY SHARES OR ASPEN PREFERENCE SHARES, AS APPLICABLE. A PERSON HAVING A BENEFICIAL INTEREST IN SHARES HELD OF RECORD IN THE NAME OF ANOTHER PERSON, SUCH AS A BANK, BROKERAGE FIRM AND OTHER NOMINEE MUST ACT PROMPTLY TO CAUSE THE RECORD HOLDER TO FOLLOW PROPERLY AND IN A TIMELY MANNER THE STEPS NECESSARY TO PERFECT APPRAISAL RIGHTS.

If the merger is completed, Aspen's ordinary shares will be delisted from the NYSE and the BSX and deregistered under the Exchange Act. However, we will continue to make securities filings with respect to our publicly-held preference shares to the extent such filings are required under SEC regulations following the completion of the merger. Parent may decide, following the merger, to delist the preference shares from the NYSE, to deregister such preference shares under the Exchange Act or take other action with respect to the preference shares and preference shares.

THE SPECIAL GENERAL MEETING

Date, Time and Place

This proxy statement is being furnished to our shareholders as part of the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors for use at the special general meeting, which will take place at Aspen's office located at 141 Front Street, Hamilton HM19, Bermuda, on [], 2018, at 9:00 a.m., local time, or at any adjournments or postponements thereof.

The purpose of the special general meeting is for our shareholders to consider and vote upon the approval of the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated thereby. A copy of the merger agreement is attached to this proxy statement as Annex A-1. This proxy statement and the enclosed form of proxy are first being mailed to our shareholders on or about [], 2018.

Purposes of the Special General Meeting

At the special general meeting, Aspen's shareholders will be asked to consider and vote on each of the following proposals:

- 1. Proposal 1 (the bye-law amendment proposal): to approve an amendment to Aspen's bye-laws to reduce the shareholder vote required to approve a merger with any third party from the affirmative vote of at least 66% of the voting power of the shares entitled to vote at a meeting of the shareholders to a simple majority of the votes cast at a general meeting of the shareholders;
- 2. Proposal 2 (the merger proposal): to approve the merger agreement, the statutory merger agreement and the merger;
- 3. Proposal 3 (the compensation advisory proposal): on an advisory (non-binding) basis, to approve the compensation that may be paid or become payable to Aspen's named executive officers in connection with the merger, as described in this proxy statement; and
- 4. Proposal 4 (the adjournment proposal): to approve an adjournment of the special general meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies, in the event that there are insufficient votes to approve the bye-law amendment proposal or the merger proposal at the special general meeting.

Ordinary shares outstanding as of the record date will be entitled to vote on each of the above proposals. Preference shares outstanding as of the record date will have the right to vote only on Proposal 2 and Proposal 4.

Consummation of the merger is conditioned on, among other things, the approval of Proposal 2 above, but is not conditioned on the approval of Proposals 1, 3 or 4.

The Board has unanimously, by all directors present at a duly called meeting, adopted resolutions whereby it has (1) determined that the bye-law amendment is advisable and in the best interests of Aspen, and authorized and approved the bye-law amendment, (2) determined that the merger consideration constitutes no less than fair value for each ordinary share in accordance with the Companies Act, that the preference shares of the surviving company constitutes fair value for each of the preference shares of Aspen in accordance with the Companies Act and that the merger, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement, is fair to, and in the best interests of, Aspen, (3) approved the merger, the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement, and (4) resolved to recommend approval of the bye-law amendment, the merger, the merger agreement, and the statutory merger agreement to Aspen's shareholders for their consideration at the special general meeting. Accordingly, the Board recommends that Aspen shareholders vote FOR the bye-law amendment proposal, FOR the merger proposal, FOR the compensation advisory proposal and FOR the other proposals described in this proxy statement in respect of which they are entitled to vote.

Record Date

Only shareholders of record, as shown on Aspen's registers of members, at the close of business on [] [], 2018, the record date for the special general meeting, will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special general meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof. As of [] [], 2018, the record date for the special general meeting, there were [] ordinary shares, 11,000,000 5.95% preference shares and 10,000,000 5.625% preference shares issued and outstanding.

Quorum

Each ordinary share and preference share carries the right to vote on the merger proposal and the adjournment proposal. The quorum required at the special general meeting to consider the merger proposal and the adjournment proposal is the presence in person or by proxy of at least one shareholder representing in excess of 50% of the combined total voting power of all ordinary and preference shares as of the record date. The quorum required at the special general meeting to consider the bye-law amendment proposal and the compensation advisory proposal is the presence in person or by proxy of at least one shareholder representing in excess of 50% of the total voting power of all ordinary shares as of the record date.

Required Vote

The approval of the bye-law amendment proposal requires the affirmative vote of holders of at least 66% of the voting power of ordinary shares in accordance with Aspen's bye-laws. Holders of preference shares do not have the right to vote on the bye-law amendment proposal.

If the bye-law amendment proposal is approved, the bye-law amendment will be effective immediately and prior to the vote on the merger proposal, so that the approval of the merger proposal will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by holders of ordinary shares and preference shares, voting as one class, at the special general meeting or any adjournment thereof in accordance with Aspen's bye-laws. If the bye-law amendment proposal is not approved, the approval of the merger proposal will require the affirmative vote of at least 66% of the voting power of ordinary shares and preference shares entitled to vote, voting as one class, at the special general meeting or any adjournment thereof in accordance with Aspen's bye-laws.

The approval of the compensation advisory proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by holders of ordinary shares at the special general meeting in accordance with Aspen's bye-laws. Holders of preference shares do not have the right to vote on the compensation advisory proposal.

The approval of the adjournment proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by holders of ordinary shares and preference shares, voting as one class, at the special general meeting in accordance with Aspen's bye-laws.

Voting Securities

Except as provided below holders of ordinary shares have one vote for each ordinary share held by them and are entitled to vote on all the proposals voted on at the special general meeting or any adjournment thereof. Holders of preference shares have one vote for each preference share held by them and are entitled to vote only on the merger proposal and the adjournment proposal.

There are provisions in the Aspen bye-laws that may reduce or increase the voting rights of the holders of Aspen's shares, including its ordinary shares. These provisions generally provide that if any Aspen shareholder in the U.S. is deemed to control Aspen shares which confer votes in excess of 9.5% of the votes of the aggregate voting power of shares of Aspen entitled to vote, the votes conferred by the controlled shares are reduced by whatever amount is necessary so that after such reduction the votes conferred by the controlled shares of such shareholder will represent 9.5% of the aggregate voting power of shares of Aspen entitled to vote. Notwithstanding the foregoing, after having applied such provisions as best as they consider reasonably practicable, the Board may make such final adjustments to the aggregate number of votes conferred, directly or indirectly or by attribution, by the controlled shares on any United States person (as defined in Section 7701(a)(30) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended) that they consider fair and reasonable in all the circumstances to ensure that such votes represent 9.5% of the aggregate voting power of the votes conferred by all shares of Aspen entitled to vote generally at any election of directors. Controlled shares means, in reference to any person (i) all securities of Aspen directly, indirectly or constructively owned by such person within the meaning of Section 958 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended and (ii) all securities of Aspen directly, indirectly or constructively owned by any person or group of persons within the meaning of Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act. The amount of any reduction of votes that occurs by operation of the above limitations will generally be reallocated proportionately among all of Aspen's other shareholders who were not members of these groups so long as such reallocation does not cause any person to control Aspen shares which confer votes in excess of 9.5% of the votes of the aggregate voting power of shares of Aspen entitled to vote.

Under these provisions, certain Aspen shareholders may have their voting rights limited to less than one vote per share, while other Aspen shareholders may have voting rights in excess of one vote per share. Moreover, these provisions could have the effect of reducing the votes of certain Aspen shareholders who would not otherwise be deemed to control Aspen shares which confer votes in excess of 9.5% by virtue of their direct share ownership.

As a result of any reallocation of votes, the voting rights of an Aspen shareholder might increase above 5% of the aggregate voting power of the outstanding Aspen shares, thereby possibly resulting in an Aspen shareholder becoming a reporting person subject to Schedule 13D or 13G filing requirements under the Exchange Act. In addition, any increase of an Aspen shareholder's voting rights could result in an Aspen shareholder becoming subject to filing requirements under Section 16 of the Exchange Act.

Abstentions and Broker Non-Votes

Abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted toward the presence of a quorum at the special general meeting, but will not be considered votes cast on any proposal brought before the special general meeting. Because the vote required to approve the proposals to be voted upon at the special general meeting (other than the bye-law amendment proposal and, if the bye-law amendment proposal is not approved, the merger proposal) is the affirmative vote of the specified required percentage of the votes cast assuming a quorum is present, an abstention or a broker non-vote with respect to any proposal to be voted on at the special general meeting (other than the bye-law amendment proposal and, if the bye-law amendment proposal is not approved, the merger proposal) will not have the effect of a vote for or against the relevant proposal, but will reduce the number of votes cast and therefore increase the relative influence of those shareholders voting. With respect to the bye-law amendment proposal, approval of which requires the affirmative vote of holders of at least 66% of the voting power of ordinary shares of Aspen, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote against the bye-law amendment proposal. With respect to the merger proposal, which, if the bye-law amendment proposal is not approved, requires the affirmative vote of holders of at least 66% of the voting power of ordinary shares and preference shares of Aspen, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote against the merger proposal.

Revocation of Proxies

You may revoke a submitted proxy prior to its exercise by either giving notice of such revocation to the General Counsel of Aspen in writing at Aspen Insurance Holdings Limited, 141 Front Street, Hamilton HM19, Bermuda, or attending and voting in person at the special general meeting or by executing a subsequent proxy, provided that such action is taken in sufficient time to permit the necessary examination and tabulation of the subsequent proxy or revocation before the votes are taken.

PROPOSAL 1-APPROVAL OF THE BYE-LAW AMENDMENT PROPOSAL

In this proposal, Aspen is asking its ordinary shareholders to approve an amendment to the Aspen bye-laws to reduce the shareholder vote required to approve a merger with any third party from the affirmative vote of at least 66% of the voting power of the ordinary shares entitled to vote at a meeting of the shareholders to a simple majority of the votes cast at a meeting of the shareholders. If the necessary vote of shareholders is obtained in connection with this proposal, the Aspen bye-laws will be immediately amended by the replacement of bye-law 50 with the following:

50. Notwithstanding the provisions of Bye-Laws 48-49 (in addition to any approval requirements set out in the Companies Act), (i) the following action shall be approved by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the voting power of votes cast at a meeting of Shareholders (taking into account the provisions of Bye-Laws 63-67), in substitution for any higher voting requirement that would otherwise apply under the Companies Act: a merger or amalgamation with, or a sale, lease or transfer of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company to, a third party; and (ii) the following action shall be approved by the affirmative vote of at least sixty-six percent (66%) of the voting power of shares entitled to vote at a meeting of Shareholders (taking into account the provisions of Bye-Laws 63-67): discontinuance of the Company out of Bermuda to another jurisdiction. Any amendment to clause (i) of this Bye-law 50 shall be approved by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the voting power of votes cast a meeting of Shareholders (taking into account the provisions of Bye-Laws 63-67). Any amendment to clause (ii) of this Bye-law 50 shall be approved by the affirmative vote of at least sixty-six percent (66%) of the voting power of shares entitled to vote at a meeting of Shareholders (taking into account the provisions of Bye-Laws 63-67).

The Board has unanimously, by all directors present at a duly called meeting, adopted resolutions whereby it has (1) determined that the bye-law amendment is advisable and in the best interests of Aspen, and authorized and approved the bye-law amendment and (2) resolved to recommend approval of the bye-law amendment proposal to Aspen's shareholders for their consideration at the special general meeting.

Only ordinary shares issued and outstanding as of the record date may vote on the bye-law amendment proposal. Preference shares do not have a right to vote on the bye-law amendment proposal.

The approval of the bye-law amendment proposal requires the affirmative vote of holders of at least 66% of the voting power of ordinary shares in accordance with Aspen's bye-laws.

Approval of this proposal is not a condition to consummation of the merger but will have the effect of lowering the approval threshold for the merger proposal.

The Board unanimously, by all directors present at a duly called meeting, recommends a vote FOR Proposal 1.

Table of Contents

PROPOSAL 2-APPROVAL OF THE MERGER PROPOSAL

In this proposal, Aspen is asking its shareholders to approve the merger agreement, the statutory merger agreement and the merger.

The Board has unanimously, by all directors present at a duly called meeting, adopted resolutions whereby it has (1) determined that the merger consideration constitutes no less than fair value for each ordinary share in accordance with the Companies Act, that the preference shares of the surviving company constitutes fair value for each of the preference shares of Aspen in accordance with the Companies Act and that the merger, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the merger agreement, is fair to, and in the best interests of, Aspen, (2) approved the merger, the merger agreement and the statutory merger agreement and (3) resolved to recommend approval of the merger proposal to Aspen's shareholders for their consideration at the special general meeting.

Each ordinary share and preference share issued and outstanding as of the record date will carry the right to vote on this proposal. Holders of ordinary shares and preference shares will vote on the merger proposal as a single class.

If the bye-law amendment proposal is approved, the bye-law amendment will be effective immediately and prior to the vote on the merger proposal, so that the approval of the merger proposal will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by holders of ordinary shares and preference shares, voting as one class, at the special general meeting or any adjournment thereof in accordance with Aspen's bye-laws. If the bye-law amendment proposal is not approved, the approval of the merger proposal will require the affirmative vote of at least 66% of the voting power of ordinary shares and preference shares, voting as one class, at the special general meeting or any adjournment thereof in accordance with Aspen's bye-laws.

Approval of this proposal is a condition to consummation of the merger.

The Board unanimously, by all directors present at a duly called meeting, recommends a vote FOR Proposal 2.

PROPOSAL 3-APPROVAL OF THE COMPENSATION ADVISORY PROPOSAL

Aspen is providing the holders of ordinary shares with the opportunity to cast an advisory (non-binding) vote to approve the golden parachute compensation payments that will or may be made by Aspen to its named executive officers in connection with the merger, as required by the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act of 2010 and Rule 14a-21(c) under the Exchange Act. This proposal, commonly known as say-on-golden parachute, gives the holders of ordinary shares the opportunity to vote on an advisory (non-binding) basis on the golden parachute compensation payments that will or may be paid by Aspen to its named executive officers in connection with the merger.

The golden parachute compensation that Aspen's named executive officers may be entitled to receive from Aspen in connection with the merger is summarized in the table titled Golden Parachute Compensation, which can be found in the section of this proxy statement titled The Merger Interests of Aspen's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger Quantification of Payments and Benefits to Aspen's Named Executive Officers. Such summary, in table form, includes all compensation and benefits that may or will be paid by Aspen to its named executive officers in connection with the merger.

The Board encourages you to review carefully the golden parachute compensation information disclosed in this proxy statement.

The Board unanimously, by all directors present at a duly called meeting, recommends that the holders of ordinary shares approve the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that the holders of ordinary shares approve, on an advisory (non-binding) basis, the compensation that will or may become payable by Aspen to its named executive officers in connection with the merger, as disclosed pursuant to Item 402(t) of Regulation S-K in the Golden Parachute Compensation table and the related narrative disclosures.

Only ordinary shares issued and outstanding as of the record date may vote on the compensation advisory proposal. Preference shares do not have a right to vote on this proposal.

The approval of the compensation advisory proposal requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by holders of ordinary shares at the special general meeting in accordance with Aspen's bye-laws.

The vote on the compensation advisory proposal is a vote separate and apart from the vote on the merger proposal. Since the vote on the compensation advisory proposal is advisory only, it will not be binding on either Parent or Aspen. Accordingly, if the merger proposal is approved and the merger is consummated, the compensation payments that are contractually required to be paid by Aspen to its named executive officers will or may be paid, subject only to the conditions applicable thereto, regardless of the outcome of the advisory (non-binding) vote of the holders of ordinary shares.

Approval of this proposal is not a condition to consummation of the merger.

The Board unanimously, by all directors present at a duly called meeting, recommends a vote FOR Proposal 3.

Table of Contents

PROPOSAL 4-APPROVAL OF THE ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL

The special general meeting may be adjourned to another time or place, if necessary or appropriate, to permit, among other things, further solicitation of proxies if necessary to obtain additional votes in favor of the bye-law amendment proposal or the merger proposal.

If, at the special general meeting, the number of ordinary shares and preference shares present or represented by proxy and voting in favor of the merger proposal is insufficient to approve such proposals, Aspen intends to move to adjourn the special general meeting in order to solicit additional proxies for the approval of the bye-law amendment proposal or the merger proposal. Aspen does not intend to call a vote on this proposal if the merger proposal has been approved at the special general meeting.

In this proposal, Aspen is asking its shareholders to authorize the holder of any proxy solicited by the Board to vote in favor of granting discretionary authority to proxy holders, and each of them individually, to adjourn the special general meeting to another time and place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies. If Aspen shareholders approve this adjournment proposal, Aspen could adjourn the special general meeting and use the additional time to solicit additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from Aspen shareholders who have previously voted.

Each ordinary share and preference share issued and outstanding as of the record date will carry the right to vote on the adjournment proposal. Holders of ordinary shares and preference shares will vote on the adjournment proposal as a single class.

Approval of this proposal is not a condition to consummation of the merger.

The Board unanimously, by all directors present at a duly called meeting, recommends a vote FOR Proposal 4.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following is a general summary of certain material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger applicable to U.S. holders (as defined below) of ordinary shares and to U.S. holders of preference shares. This discussion does not address any aspect of U.S. taxation other than U.S. federal income taxation, is not a complete analysis or description of all potential U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger (e.g., it does not address the U.S. federal income tax consequences to U.S. holders of ordinary shares of any election under Section 338(g) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, that may be made by Parent or any of its affiliates with respect to the Company or any of its subsidiaries in connection with the consummation of the merger), and does not address all tax consequences that may be relevant to U.S. holders of ordinary shares and to U.S. holders of preference shares in light of their particular circumstances. This discussion does not address tax considerations under state, local and non-U.S. laws or other U.S. federal taxes (such as gift or estate taxes or liability for the alternative minimum tax). This discussion also does not address the tax consequences to holders of preference shares of holding preference shares of the surviving company.

The following discussion is based upon the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, U.S. Treasury regulations, judicial authorities, published positions of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (the IRS) and other applicable authorities, all as currently in effect on the date of this proxy statement and all of which are subject to change or differing interpretations (possibly with retroactive effect). This discussion is limited to holders that hold their ordinary or preference shares as capital assets for U.S. federal income tax purposes (generally, assets held for investment). This discussion does not address all of the tax consequences that may be relevant to a particular shareholder, such as the application of the Medicare contribution tax, or to shareholders that are subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax laws, such as:

banks or other financial institutions;

mutual funds;

tax-exempt organizations;

insurance companies;

regulated investment companies and real estate investment trusts;

entities or arrangements treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as S corporations, partnerships or other pass-through entities (and investors in such entities or arrangements);

dealers or brokers in stocks and securities or currencies; traders in securities who elect the mark-to-market method of accounting for their securities;

shareholders that hold their Aspen shares as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale, conversion transaction, or other risk reduction strategy or integrated transaction;

shareholders who acquired their Aspen shares pursuant to the exercise of employee share options, restricted share units, through tax qualified retirement plans, or otherwise in connection with the performance of services;

shareholders who have a functional currency other than the United States dollar; shareholders who own, or have owned, directly, indirectly or constructively, 10% or more of the total combined voting power or value of all classes of issued and outstanding shares of Aspen;

shareholders who own, directly, indirectly or constructively 5% or more of ordinary shares;

cooperatives;

controlled foreign corporations, passive foreign investment companies, or corporations that accumulate earnings to avoid U.S. federal income tax;

shareholders who are not U.S. holders;

U.S. expatriates; and shareholders who exercise their appraisal rights.

THIS DISCUSSION IS INTENDED ONLY AS A GENERAL SUMMARY OF CERTAIN ANTICIPATED MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES TO U.S. HOLDERS OF ORDINARY OR PREFERENCE SHARES. ASPEN URGES BENEFICIAL OWNERS OF ORDINARY SHARES OR PREFERENCE SHARES TO CONSULT THEIR TAX ADVISORS WITH RESPECT TO THE SPECIFIC TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER IN LIGHT OF THEIR PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES, INCLUDING U.S. FEDERAL ESTATE, GIFT AND OTHER NON-INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES, AND TAX CONSEQUENCES UNDER STATE, LOCAL OR NON-U.S. TAX LAWS, INCLUDING POSSIBLE CHANGES IN SUCH LAWS.

If a partnership (or other entity or arrangement treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is an Aspen shareholder, the U.S. federal income tax treatment of a partner in the partnership will generally depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. A partner in a partnership holding Aspen shares should consult its tax advisors with respect to the tax consequences of the transaction.

For purposes of this discussion, the term "U.S. holder" means a beneficial owner of ordinary or preference shares that is (i) an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States as determined for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (ii) a corporation (or other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia, (iii) an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source, or (iv) a trust that (A) is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and the authority of one or more U.S. persons to control all substantial decisions of the trust or (B) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury Department regulations to be treated as a U.S. person.

Holders of ordinary and preference shares are urged to consult their tax advisors as to the particular U.S. federal income tax consequences of the transaction to them, as well as any tax consequences arising under any state, local and non-U.S. tax laws or any other U.S. federal tax laws. Holders of preference shares are urged to consult their tax advisors as to the consequences of continuing to hold their preference shares as preference shares of Aspen as the surviving company in the merger, as well as any tax consequences arising under any state, local and non-U.S. tax laws or any other U.S. federal tax law. This discussion is based upon the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, applicable regulations, published positions of the IRS, judicial decisions and other applicable authorities, as in effect on the date of this proxy. There can be no assurance that future legislative, administrative or judicial changes or interpretations, which changes or interpretations could apply retroactively, will not affect the accuracy of this discussion. No rulings have been or will be sought from the IRS concerning the tax consequences of the merger. This discussion will not be binding on the IRS or any court. Tax Consequences to U.S. Holders of Ordinary Shares

The exchange of ordinary shares for the merger consideration pursuant to the merger agreement will be a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Subject to the discussion titled Passive Foreign Investment Company, a U.S. holder generally will recognize capital gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes upon the receipt of the merger consideration in exchange for ordinary shares in an amount equal to the difference, if any, between the cash received and the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the ordinary shares exchanged. Such gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss provided that a U.S. holder's holding period for such shares exceeds one (1) year on the date of the exchange. Long-term capital gains recognized by certain non-corporate holders, including individuals, are generally eligible for reduced rates of taxation. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to certain limitations. Any such gain or loss recognized by U.S. holders generally will be treated as U.S.-source gain or loss.

Table of Contents

If a U.S. holder acquired different blocks of ordinary shares at different times and different prices, such U.S. holder must determine its, his or her gain or loss, adjusted tax basis and holding period separately with respect to each block of ordinary shares.

Passive Foreign Investment Company (PFIC)

In general, a foreign corporation will be treated as a PFIC during a given taxable year, if, after the application of certain look-through rules (described in the immediately succeeding sentence), (i) 75% or more of its gross income constitutes passive income (described below) or (ii) 50% or more of its assets produce (or are held for the production of) passive income. For purposes of the PFIC determination, a non-U.S. corporation is generally treated as owning a proportionate share of the assets and income of any other corporation in which it owns, directly or indirectly, more than 25% (by value) of the corporation's shares. Passive income generally includes interest, dividends, annuities and other investment income. The PFIC statutory provisions, however, contain an express exception for income derived in the active conduct of an insurance business by certain insurance companies. Aspen does not believe that it is, or ever has been, a PFIC. However, the determination of PFIC status is factual in nature, depends on the application of complex U.S. federal income tax rules that are subject to differing interpretations, and generally cannot be determined until the close of the taxable year in question. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that Aspen is or was not a PFIC for its current or any prior taxable year.

If Aspen were a PFIC for the taxable year of the merger or any prior taxable year in which the U.S. holder held ordinary shares, unless the U.S. holder had made a valid mark-to-market election with respect to their ordinary shares or an election to treat Aspen as a qualified electing fund with respect to the U.S. holder (a QEF election), any gain recognized by a U.S. holder on the exchange of ordinary shares for the merger consideration pursuant to the merger generally would be allocated ratably over such U.S. holder's holding period for the ordinary shares. The amount allocated to the taxable year of the merger and to any taxable year before Aspen became a PFIC would be treated as ordinary income. The amount allocated to each other taxable year would be subject to tax at the highest rate in effect for that year and the interest charge generally applicable to underpayments of tax would be imposed on the resulting tax attributable to such year. If the U.S. holder had made a valid mark-to-market election with respect to their ordinary shares, any gain recognized by the U.S. holder would be treated as ordinary income and any loss would be treated as ordinary loss, but only to the extent of the net amount previously included in income as a result of the mark-to-market election. The application of the QEF election rules are complex and depends on when a U.S. holder made any such QEF election and whether the U.S. holder made any other elections, if applicable, in connection with such QEF election.

If Aspen is a PFIC for the taxable year of the merger or has been a PFIC during any prior year in which a U.S. holder held ordinary shares, a U.S. holder generally would be required to file IRS Form 8621 with respect to the ordinary shares.

THE PFIC RULES ARE COMPLEX, PARTICULARLY IN THEIR APPLICATION TO INSURANCE COMPANIES, AND EACH U.S. HOLDER SHOULD CONSULT ITS OWN TAX ADVISOR REGARDING THE

Tax Consequences of the Merger to U.S. Holders of Preference Shares

The continuation of preference shares as preference shares of Aspen as the surviving company in the merger will not be a taxable event for U.S. federal income tax purposes. U.S. holders of preference shares will not recognize any income, gain or loss upon the continuation of their preference shares as preference shares of Aspen as the surviving company in the merger, and will retain an adjusted tax basis and holding period in their surviving company preference shares equal to the adjusted tax basis and holding period such U.S. holder had in their preference shares prior to the merger.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting

A U.S. holder may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding of tax at the rate specified in the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (currently 24%), with respect to the amount of cash received in the merger. A U.S. holder may be subject to backup withholding unless the U.S. holder is an exempt recipient and, when required, demonstrates this fact or provides a taxpayer identification number, makes certain certifications on IRS Form W-9 and otherwise complies with the applicable requirements. A U.S. holder that does not provide its correct taxpayer identification number may be subject to backup withholding and penalties imposed by the IRS.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Any amount withheld under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a refund or credit against the holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely and properly furnished to the IRS. U.S. holders are urged to consult their tax advisors as to qualifications for exemption from backup withholding and the procedure for obtaining the exemption.

THE FOREGOING SUMMARY DOES NOT DISCUSS ALL ASPECTS OF U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAXATION THAT MAY BE RELEVANT TO PARTICULAR U.S. HOLDERS OF ORDINARY OR PREFERENCE SHARES. U.S. HOLDERS OF ORDINARY OR PREFERENCE SHARES ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR TAX ADVISORS AS TO THE PARTICULAR TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THEM OF THE RECEIPT OF CASH FOR THEIR ORDINARY SHARES PURSUANT TO THE MERGER UNDER ANY U.S. FEDERAL, STATE OR LOCAL, NON-U.S. OR OTHER TAX LAWS. U.S. HOLDERS OF ORDINARY SHARES SHOULD ALSO CONSULT WITH THEIR TAX ADVISORS REGARDING THE TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THEM AND THE EFFECT OF ANY ELECTION UNDER SECTION 338(G) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF 1986, AS AMENDED, THAT MAY BE MADE BY PARENT OR ANY OF ITS AFFILIATES WITH RESPECT TO THE COMPANY OR ANY OF ITS SUBSIDIARIES IN CONNECTION WITH THE CONSUMMATION OF THE MERGER, AS WELL AS ANY ALTERNATIVES FOR MITIGATING ANY ADVERSE TAX CONSEQUENCES TO SUCH U.S. HOLDERS POTENTIALLY RESULTING THEREFROM (INCLUDING THE DESIRABILITY OF SELLING THEIR ORDINARY SHARES PRIOR TO THE CONSUMMATION OF THE MERGER).

HOUSEHOLDING OF THE PROXY MATERIALS

The SEC has adopted rules that permit companies and intermediaries such as brokers to satisfy delivery requirements for proxy statements and annual reports with respect to two or more shareholders sharing the same address by delivering a single proxy statement or annual report, as applicable, addressed to those shareholders. As permitted by the Exchange Act, only one copy of this proxy statement is being delivered to shareholders residing at the same address, unless shareholders have notified Aspen of their desire to receive multiple copies of this proxy statement. This process, which is commonly referred to as householding, potentially provides extra convenience for shareholders, reduces Aspen's postage and printing costs and reduces the environmental impact of the special general meeting.

If, at any time, you no longer wish to participate in householding and would prefer to receive a separate proxy statement, or if you are receiving multiple copies of this proxy statement and wish to receive only one, please contact Aspen at the address identified below:

At any time following the first anniversary of the Closing Date, the Surviving Company shall be entitled to require the Paying Agent to deliver to it any portion of the Exchange Fund (including any interest received with respect thereto) that had been delivered to the Paying Agent and which has not been disbursed to former holders of Company Shares, and thereafter such former holders shall be entitled to look only to Parent and the Surviving Company for, and Parent and the Surviving Company shall remain liable for, payment of their claims of the Merger Consideration. Any amounts remaining unclaimed by such holders at such time at which such amounts would otherwise escheat to or become property of any Governmental Authority shall become, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, the property of Parent or its designee, free and clear of all claims or interest of any Person previously entitled thereto.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, none of the parties, the Surviving Company, or the Paying Agent shall be liable in any way whatsoever to any Person for Merger Consideration delivered to a public official or Governmental Authority pursuant to any applicable state, federal, or other abandoned property, escheat, or similar Law.

Any amounts that are deducted and withheld from the amounts otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement pursuant to the preceding sentence shall be timely paid over to the appropriate Governmental Authority. ARTICLE V.REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF PARENT AND MERGER SUB

Parent and Merger Sub hereby jointly and severally represent and warrant to the Company that, as of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date, except as set forth in the disclosure letter delivered by Parent and Merger Sub to the Company on the date of this Agreement (the Parent Disclosure Letter) (it being understood that any information set forth on one section or subsection of the Parent Disclosure Letter shall be deemed to apply to and qualify the section or subsection of this Agreement to which it corresponds in number and each other section or subsection of this Agreement or the Parent Disclosure Letter to the extent that it is reasonably apparent on the face of such disclosure that such information is relevant to such other section or subsection):

Section 5.01 Organization; Standing. Each of Parent and Merger Sub is an exempted company duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the Laws of Bermuda. Each of Parent and Merger Sub has all requisite power and authority necessary to carry on its business as it is now being conducted and to own, lease, and operate its assets and properties in all material respects. Section 5.02 Authority; Noncontravention.

(a) Each of Parent and Merger Sub has all necessary power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and the Statutory Merger Agreement and, subject to obtaining the Merger Sub Shareholder Approval, to perform its obligations hereunder and to consummate the Transactions. The execution, delivery, and performance by Parent and Merger Sub of this Agreement and the Statutory Merger Agreement, and the consummation by Parent and Merger Sub of the Transactions, have been duly authorized and approved by the Parent Board and the Merger Sub Board, as applicable, and, except for executing and delivering the Statutory Merger Agreement, filing the Merger Application with the Registrar pursuant to the Bermuda Companies Act and obtaining the Merger Sub Shareholder Approval (which approval shall be provided by the written consent of Parent immediately following the execution of this Agreement), no other action (including any shareholder vote or other action) on the part of Parent or Merger Sub is necessary to authorize the execution, delivery, and performance by Parent and Merger Sub of this Agreement and the Statutory Merger Agreement and the consummation by Parent and Merger Sub of the Transactions. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Parent and Merger Sub and, assuming due authorization, execution, and delivery hereof by the Company, constitutes a legal, valid, and binding obligation of each of Parent and Merger Sub, enforceable against each of them in accordance with its terms, except that such enforceability may be limited by and is subject to the Bankruptcy and Equity Exception.

(b) Each of the Parent Board and the Merger Sub Board have adopted resolutions that have approved the Merger, this Agreement and the Statutory Merger Agreement.

(c) Neither the execution and delivery of this Agreement or the Statutory Merger Agreement by Parent and Merger Sub, nor the consummation by Parent or Merger Sub of the Transactions, nor performance or compliance by Parent or Merger Sub with any of the terms or provisions hereof, will (i) contravene, conflict with, or violate any provision of Organizational Documents of (A) Parent or Merger Sub or (B) any of Parent's other Subsidiaries or (ii) assuming (A) compliance with the matters set forth in Section 4.03(c) (other than Section 4.03(c)(ii)(A)) (and assuming the accuracy of the representations and warranties made in such Section 4.03(c)), (B) that the actions described in Section 5.02(a) have been completed, (C) that the Consents referred to in Section 5.03 are, and, in the case of Merger Sub, the Merger Sub Shareholder Approval is, obtained, and (D) that the filings referred to in Section 5.03 are made and any waiting periods thereunder have terminated or expired, in the case of each of the foregoing clauses (A) through (D), prior to the Effective Time, (x) violate any Law, writ, injunction, directive, judgment, decree, or order applicable to Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, (y) violate or constitute a breach of or default (with or without notice or lapse of time or both) under any of the terms, conditions, or provisions of, or give rise to a right of termination, modification, acceleration, or cancellation under, any material Contract to which Parent or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or accelerate Parent or, if applicable, any of its Subsidiaries' rights or obligations under any such material Contract, or (z) result in the creation of any Lien on any properties or assets of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, except, in the case of clauses (i)(B) and (ii), as would not constitute a Parent Material Adverse Effect.

(d) The Merger Sub Shareholder Approval (which approval shall be provided by the written consent of Parent as contemplated by Section 6.12) is the only vote or approval of the holders of any class or series of shares of Parent, Merger Sub, or any of its other Subsidiaries that is necessary to approve this Agreement, the Statutory Merger Agreement, and the Merger.

applicable state securities or blue sky Laws, (g) approvals, filings, and notices under all applicable Insurance Laws as set forth in Section 5.03 of the Parent Disclosure Letter (the Parent Insurance Approvals), and (h) the Company Insurance Approvals (assuming the accuracy of the representations and warranties made in Section 4.04(g) and the completeness of Section 4.04 of the Company Disclosure Letter), no Consent of, or filing, declaration, or registration with, or notification to, or waiver from, any Governmental Authority is necessary for the execution and delivery of this Agreement by Parent and Merger Sub, the performance by Parent and Merger Sub of their obligations hereunder, and the consummation by Parent and Merger Sub of the Transactions, other than such other Consents, filings, declarations, or registrations that, if not obtained, made, or given, would not constitute a Parent Material Adverse Effect. As of the date of this Agreement, Parent has a reasonable basis to believe that the Parent Insurance Approvals set forth on Section 5.03 of the Parent Disclosure Letter will be obtained prior to the Walk-Away Date.

Section 5.04 Ownership and Operations of Merger Sub. Parent owns beneficially and of record all of the issued and outstanding shares of Merger Sub, free and clear of all Liens. Merger Sub was formed solely for the purpose of engaging in the Transactions, has no assets, liabilities or obligations of any nature, other than those incident to its formation and pursuant to the Transactions, and, prior to the Effective Time, will not have engaged in any business activities other than those relating to the Transactions.

Section 5.05 Sufficiency of Funds.

(a) Parent has delivered to the Company a true and complete copy of the executed Equity Commitment Letter. Assuming the Equity Financing is funded in accordance with the Equity Commitment Letter, at the Closing, Parent will have sufficient funds to pay the Merger Consideration and all other amounts required to be paid by Parent at Closing under this Agreement, and all related fees and expenses required to be paid at the Closing by Parent in connection with the Transactions (collectively, the Financing Uses). As of the date hereof, there are no side letters or other Contracts relating to the funding of the Equity Financing, other than as expressly set forth in the Equity Commitment Letter.

(b) As of the date hereof, the Equity Commitment Letter is in full force and effect and has not been withdrawn, terminated, or rescinded or otherwise amended, supplemented, or modified in any respect and no such amendment, supplement, or modification is contemplated by Parent or, to the Knowledge of Parent, by the other parties thereto. As of the date hereof, the Equity Commitment Letter, in the form delivered to the Company, is a legal, valid, and binding obligation of each of Parent and, to the Knowledge of Parent, the other parties thereto, enforceable against Parent and, to the Knowledge of Parent, such other parties thereto in accordance with its terms and conditions, subject to the Bankruptcy and Equity Exception. As of the date hereof, to the Knowledge of Parent, no event has occurred which, with or without notice, lapse of time, or both, would, or would reasonably be expected to, constitute a material default or breach on the part of Parent or any Investor under any term, or a failure to satisfy a condition, of the Equity Commitment Letter or otherwise result in any portion of the Equity Financing necessary to satisfy the Financing Uses contemplated thereby being unavailable on the date on which the Closing should occur pursuant to Section 2.06. As of the date hereof, assuming the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Section 7.01 and Section 7.02, Parent has no reason to believe that it or any Investor would be unable to satisfy on a timely basis any term or condition of the Equity Commitment Letter required to be satisfied by it or that the full amount of the Equity Financing will not be available to it at the Closing.

Section 5.06 Certain Arrangements. As of the date of this Agreement, there are no Contracts or commitments to enter into Contracts (a) between Parent, Merger Sub, or any of their Affiliates, on the one hand, and any member of the Company's management or the Company Board, on the other hand, that relate in any way to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or the Transactions, (b) pursuant to which any shareholder of the Company would be entitled to receive consideration of a different amount or nature than the Merger Consideration or pursuant to which any shareholder of the Company agrees to vote to approve the Merger and this Agreement or agrees to vote against any Superior Proposal, or (c) between Parent, Merger Sub, or any of Section 5.07 Information Supplied. None of the information supplied or to be supplied by or on behalf of Parent or Merger Sub for inclusion or incorporation by reference in the Proxy Statement to be sent to the holders of Company Shares in connection with the Company Shareholders Meeting (including any amendment or supplement thereto or document incorporated by reference therein) shall, on the date the Proxy Statement is first mailed to the holders of Company Shares, at the time of any amendment thereof or supplement thereto, and at the time of the Company Shareholders Meeting, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading or omit to state a material fact necessary to correct any statement in any earlier communication with respect to the solicitation of proxies for the Company Shareholders Meeting which has become false or misleading.

Section 5.08 Legal Proceedings. Except as would not constitute a Parent Material Adverse Effect, as of the date of this Agreement, there is no (a) pending or, to the Knowledge of Parent, threatened legal or administrative proceeding, suit, arbitration, action, claim, controversy, dispute, hearing, charge, complaint, examination, indictment, litigation, or, to the Knowledge of Parent, investigation against Parent or any of its Subsidiaries (other than ordinary course claims made under or in connection with Contracts of insurance issued by Parent or any of its Subsidiaries) or (b) outstanding injunction, order, judgment, ruling, decree, or writ imposed upon Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, in each case, by or before any Governmental Authority.

Section 5.09 Ownership of Company Shares, 5.95% Preference Shares or 5.625% Preference Shares. None of Parent, Merger Sub or any of their Affiliates beneficially own (within the meaning of Section 13 of the Exchange Act), or will prior to the Closing Date beneficially own, any Company Shares, 5.95% Preference Shares, or 5.625% Preference Shares, or is a party, or will prior to the Closing Date become a party, to any Contract (other than this Agreement) for the purpose of acquiring, holding, voting, or disposing of any Company Shares, 5.95% Preference Shares or 5.625% Preference Shares.

Section 5.10 Brokers and Other Advisors. Except for Willis Towers Watson and Libero Ventures, the fees and expenses of which will be paid by Parent, no broker, investment banker, financial advisor, or other Person is entitled to any broker's, finder's, financial advisor's, or other similar fee or commission or the reimbursement of expenses in connection therewith, in connection with the Transactions based upon arrangements made by or on behalf of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries.

Section 5.11 Guarantee. Concurrently with the execution of this Agreement, Parent and Merger Sub have caused Guarantors to deliver the Guarantee, dated as of the date hereof, to the Company. The Guarantee is in full force and effect (assuming the due authorization, execution, and delivery thereof by the other parties thereto). The Guarantee constitutes the valid and binding obligation of the Guarantors and is enforceable against the Guarantors, subject to the Bankruptcy and Equity Exception. There is no default under the Guarantee by the Guarantors, and no event has occurred that with the lapse of time or the giving of notice or both would constitute a default thereunder by Guarantors.

Section 5.12 No Other Representations or Warranties.

(a) Except for the representations and warranties made by Parent and Merger Sub in this Article V and in the Equity Commitment Letter and the Guarantee, neither Parent, Merger Sub, nor any other Person makes any other express or implied representation or warranty with respect to Parent or Merger Sub or any of their Subsidiaries or their respective businesses, operations, assets, liabilities, conditions (financial or otherwise), or prospects, notwithstanding the delivery or disclosure to the Company or any of its Representatives or Affiliates of any documentation, forecasts, or other information with respect to any one or more of the foregoing, and the Company acknowledges the foregoing.

Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else in this Agreement to the contrary, the Company may waive, and may choose not to enforce, any provision of any standstill or confidentiality agreement with any Person that would prohibit such Person from communicating confidentially a Takeover Proposal to the Company Board, if and only to the extent that the Company Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its financial advisors and outside legal counsel, that the failure to do so would be inconsistent with its fiduciary duties under applicable Law.

basis. For the avoidance of doubt, all information provided to Parent pursuant to this Section 6.02 will be subject to the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement.

(d) Neither the Company Board nor any committee thereof shall (x) (A) withhold or withdraw or publicly propose to withdraw or withhold the Company Board Recommendation, (B) modify, qualify, or amend or publicly propose to modify, qualify or amend the Company Board Recommendation in a manner adverse to Parent, (C) fail to include the Company Board Recommendation in the Proxy Statement, (D) approve, publicly endorse, or recommend or propose to approve, publicly endorse, or recommend any Takeover Proposal, (E) make any recommendation in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer, other than a recommendation against such offer, or fail to recommend against acceptance of such a tender or exchange offer, including by taking no position with respect to acceptance of such tender or exchange offer, by the close of business on the earlier of (i) the tenth (10th) business day after the commencement of such tender offer or exchange offer pursuant to Rule 14d-2 under the Exchange Act and (ii) the second (2nd) business day prior to the date of the Company Shareholders Meeting (if such tender or exchange offer is commenced prior to the fourth (4th) business day prior to the Company Shareholders Meeting) or the date and time of the Company Shareholders Meeting (if such tender or exchange offer is commenced on or after the fourth (4th) business day prior to the Company Shareholders Meeting), or (F) fail to publicly reaffirm the Company Board Recommendation within five (5) business days after receipt of a written request by Parent to make such public reaffirmation following the receipt by the Company of a public Takeover Proposal (other than in the case of a Takeover Proposal in the form of a tender offer or exchange offer, which shall be governed by clause (E)) that has not been withdrawn; provided that Parent may make any such request only once in any ten (10) business day period and only once for each such public Takeover Proposal and once for each public material amendment to such Takeover Proposal (any prohibited action described in this clause (x) being referred to as an Adverse Recommendation Change) or (y) authorize, cause, or permit or publicly propose to authorize, cause or permit the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to execute or enter into any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, merger agreement, acquisition agreement, stock purchase agreement, asset purchase agreement, option agreement, amalgamation agreement, or other agreement related to any Takeover Proposal (other than any Acceptable Confidentiality Agreement pursuant to Section 6.02(b)) (each, a Company Acquisition Agreement) or requiring, directly or indirectly, the Company to abandon, terminate, or fail to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. Notwithstanding the foregoing or any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary, prior to the time the Company Shareholder Approval is obtained, the Company Board may:

Each of the Company and Parent shall notify the other promptly in writing after the receipt of any comments from the SEC and of any request by the SEC for amendments or supplements to the Proxy Statement or for additional information and shall supply the other with copies of all written correspondence between such party or any of its Representatives, on the one hand, and the SEC, on the other hand, with respect to the Proxy Statement. Each of the Company and Parent shall use their respective reasonable best efforts to respond as promptly as reasonably practicable to any comments received from the SEC concerning the Proxy Statement and to resolve such comments with the SEC, and the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Proxy Statement to be disseminated to its shareholders as promptly as reasonably practicable after the resolution of any such comments. Prior to the filing of the Proxy Statement (or any amendment or supplement thereto) or any dissemination thereof to the holders of Company Shares, or responding to any comments with a reasonable opportunity to review and to propose comments on such document or response, which the Company shall consider in good faith.

(b) Subject to Section 6.03(a), the Company shall take all necessary actions, including in accordance with applicable Law, the Company Organizational Documents, and the rules of the New York Stock Exchange, to duly call, give notice of, convene, and hold a meeting of its shareholders (including any adjournment, recess, reconvening, or postponement thereof, the Company Shareholders Meeting) for the purpose of obtaining approval of the Bye-Law Amendment and Company Shareholder Approval, as soon as reasonably practicable after the SEC confirms that it has no further comments on the Proxy Statement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Company agrees that its obligations pursuant to the first sentence of this Section 6.03 shall not be affected by (i) the commencement, public proposal, public disclosure or communication to the Company of any Takeover Proposal or (ii) the Company Board of Directors making an Adverse Recommendation Change. The Bye-Law Amendment proposal shall appear first on the proxy card in the Proxy Statement ahead of the proposals to obtain the Company Shareholder Approval. The Company shall not include in the Proxy Statement any proposal to vote upon or consider any Takeover Proposal. Subject to Section 6.02, the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain approval of the Bye-Law Amendment and the Company Shareholder Approval. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the Company shall not, without Parent's consent, adjourn, recess, reconvene, or postpone the Company Shareholders Meeting, if after reasonable consultation with Parent, the Company reasonably believes that (i) such adjournment, recess, reconvening, or postponement is necessary to ensure that any required supplement or amendment to the Proxy Statement is provided to the holders of Company Shares within a reasonable amount of time in advance of the Company Shareholders Meeting, (ii) as of the time for which the Company Shareholders Meeting is originally scheduled (as set forth in the Proxy Statement), (A) there will be an insufficient number of Company Shares present (either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of the Company Shareholders Meeting or (B) there will be an insufficient number of proxies to obtain approval of the Bye-Law Amendment or the Company Shareholder Approval or (iii) such adjournment, recess, reconvening or postponement is required by Law or a court or other Governmental Authority of competent jurisdiction in connection with any Actions in connection with this Agreement or the Transactions or has been requested by the SEC or its staff. The Company shall adjourn or postpone the Company Shareholders Meeting once, for a period of up to fourteen (14) days, if requested by Parent (in Parent's sole discretion) to permit additional time to solicit the Company Shareholder Approval, if sufficient proxies constituting the Company Shareholder Approval have not been received by the Company. If requested by Parent, the Company shall advise Parent at least on a daily basis on each of the last seven (7) days prior to the date of the Company Shareholders Meeting (and any reconvening thereof) as to the aggregate tally of proxies received by the Company with respect to the Company Shareholder Approval and whether such proxies have been voted affirmatively or negatively with respect to each of the proposals to be presented at the Company Shareholders Meeting.

(b) Without limiting the foregoing and subject to Section 6.04(e) and Section 6.04(f), each party hereto shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, and Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause its control persons under applicable Law to, if applicable, use reasonable best efforts to avoid each and every impediment under any applicable Law that may be asserted by, or judgment, decree, and order that may be entered with, any Governmental Authority with respect to this Agreement, the Merger, or any other Transaction, so as to enable the Closing to occur in the most expeditious manner reasonably practicable, including using reasonable best efforts to (i) obtain all Consents of Governmental Authorities necessary, proper, or advisable to consummate the Transactions and secure the expiration or termination of any applicable waiting period under the HSR Act and any other applicable Antitrust Laws, (ii) resolve any objections that may be asserted by any Governmental Authority with respect to the Merger or any other transaction contemplated hereby, and (iii) prevent the entry of, and have vacated, lifted, reversed, or overturned, any judgment, decree, or order of Governmental Authorities that would prevent, prohibit, restrict, or delay the consummation of the Merger or any other Transaction contemplated hereby.

(c) In furtherance of and without limiting the foregoing, (i) Parent shall, and shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause each of its control persons under applicable Law, if applicable, to, file a Form A Acquisition of Control with the Insurance Commissioner of the States of Texas and North Dakota, within twenty (20) business days after the date hereof, which filings shall include a business plan that is consistent in all material respects with the Summary Business Plan, (ii) Parent shall file any pre-acquisition notifications on Form E or similar market share notifications to be filed in each jurisdiction where required by applicable Insurance Laws within twenty (20) business days after the date hereof; (iii) each of Parent and the Company shall file a notification and report form pursuant to the HSR Act with the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice with respect to the Transactions and requesting early termination of the waiting period under the HSR Act, within twenty (20) business days after the date hereof, (iv) Parent shall file an application with the Bermuda Monetary Authority within twenty (20) business days after the date hereof, (v) Parent shall, and shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause each of its control persons under applicable Law, if applicable, to, file a notification under section 178 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 to the Prudential Regulation Authority and the Financial Conduct Authority within twenty (20) business days after the date hereof, (vi) Parent or, where appropriate, the Company Subsidiary that is a Lloyd's managing agent, shall, following the provision of a draft approved by Parent, file a notification requesting the written consent of the Franchise Board as required by paragraph 43 of the Lloyd's Underwriting Bye-Law within twenty (20) business days after the date hereof, (vii) Parent shall, and shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause each of its control persons under applicable Law, if applicable, to, file a notification requesting the written consent of the Council as required by paragraph 12 of the Lloyd's Membership Bye-law to Lloyd's within twenty (20) business days after the date hereof, (viii) Parent or the Company, as applicable, shall, and shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause each of their control persons under applicable Law, if applicable, to, make any other necessary, proper, or advisable registrations, filings, and notices under non-U.S. Insurance Laws within twenty (20) business days after the date hereof, (ix) Parent or the Company, as applicable, shall make any necessary, proper, or advisable registrations, draft filings and notices under non-U.S. Antitrust Laws within twenty (20) business days after the Company provides the information necessary to determine what filings are required under any applicable Antitrust Laws, and (x) Parent or the Company, as applicable, shall, and shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause each of their control persons under applicable Law, if applicable, to, make any other necessary, proper, or advisable registrations, filings, and notices within twenty (20) business days after the date hereof. (d) Each of the Company, Parent, and Merger Sub shall consult with one another with respect to the obtaining of all Consents of Governmental Authorities necessary, proper, or advisable to consummate the Transactions and each of the Company, Parent, and Merger Sub shall keep the others reasonably apprised on a prompt basis of the status of matters relating to such Consents. The Company shall supply all information reasonably requested by Parent to prepare any necessary filings and to make a determination of what filings under the Antitrust Laws are necessary. Parent and the Company shall have the right to review in advance and, to the extent practicable, and subject to any restrictions under applicable Law, each shall consult the other with respect to, any filing made with, or written materials submitted to, any Governmental Authority or any third party in connection with the Transactions and each party agrees to in good faith consider comments of the other parties thereon. Parent and the Company shall promptly furnish to each other copies of all such filings and written materials after their filing or submission, in each case subject to applicable Laws. Parent and the Company shall promptly advise each other upon receiving any communication from any Governmental Authority whose Consent is required to consummate the Transactions, including promptly furnishing each other copies of any written or electronic communication (redacted or on an outside counsel basis as necessary), and shall promptly advise each other when any such communication causes such party to believe that there is a reasonable likelihood that any such Consent will not be obtained or that the receipt of any such Consent will be materially delayed or conditioned. Parent, Merger Sub, and the Company shall not, and shall cause their respective Affiliates not to, permit any of their respective Representatives to participate in any live or telephonic meeting with any Governmental Authority (other than routine or ministerial matters) in respect of any filing, investigation, or other inquiry relating to the Transactions, unless, to the extent practicable, (i) it consults with the other party in advance and, (ii) to the extent permitted by applicable Law and by such Governmental Authority, gives the other party the opportunity to attend and participate in such meeting. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else contained in this Agreement, no party shall be obligated to provide information to another party, if such party determines, in its reasonable judgment, that (i) doing so would violate applicable Law or a Contract, agreement, privilege or obligation of confidentiality owing to a third party, jeopardize the protection of an attorney-client privilege, or expose such party to risk of liability for disclosure of sensitive or personal information (it being understood that the parties shall, and shall cause their respective Affiliates to, use commercially reasonable efforts to enable such information to be furnished or made available to the requesting party or its Representatives without so jeopardizing privilege or protection, incurring liability, or contravening applicable Law or Contract, agreement, or obligation, including by entering into a customary joint defense agreement or common interest agreement with the requesting party, to the extent such an agreement would preserve the applicable privilege or protection) or (ii) such information is not directly related to the Transactions. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 6.04(d) (except for the immediately preceding sentence) shall not apply with respect to Tax matters.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, in no event shall a party or any of its Affiliates be required by a Governmental Authority to agree to take, or enter into any action, which action is not conditioned upon the Closing.

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, in no event shall Parent or any of its Affiliates be required to (and in no event shall the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company without the prior written consent of Parent agree to) take or refrain from taking, or agree to take or refrain from taking, any action, including entering into any consent decree, hold separate order, or other arrangement, or permit or suffer to exist any condition, limitation, restriction or requirement (i) that would, or would reasonably be expected to, have a material adverse effect on the business, results of operations, or financial condition of (A) the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or (B) Parent or any of its Affiliates (provided that, for this purpose, that the business and the financial condition, results of operations and other financial metrics of Parent or any of its Affiliates that is of a smaller scale than the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, shall be deemed to be of the same scale as those of the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole), (ii) relating to the contribution of capital, or any guaranty, keep-well, capital maintenance or similar arrangement, by Parent or any of its Affiliates (other than the Company and its Subsidiaries) to or of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or any restrictions on dividends or distributions that, in any case, has or would reasonably be expected to have a non-de minimis adverse economic impact on Parent or any of its Affiliates or (iii) that requires or involves any adverse deviation in any material respect from any key term of the Summary Business Plan with respect to the Company and the Company Insurance Subsidiaries in connection with the Merger identified in Section 6.04(f) of the Parent Disclosure Letter (any such requirement, individually or together with all other such requirements, a Parent Burdensome Condition). Except as approved by Parent, the Company shall not, and shall not permit any of its Subsidiaries to, make or agree to any concessions with a Governmental Authority in order to obtain the approvals set forth in Schedule I. Prior to Parent being entitled to invoke a Parent Burdensome Condition, the parties and their respective Representatives shall promptly confer in good faith in order to (i) exchange and review their respective views and positions as to any Parent Burdensome Condition or potential Parent Burdensome Condition and (ii) discuss and present to, and engage with, the applicable Governmental Authority regarding any approaches or actions that would avoid the imposition of a Parent Burdensome Condition or mitigate its impact so that it is no longer a Parent Burdensome Condition.

(g) If requested by Parent, (i) the Company shall reasonably cooperate with Parent in preparing and implementing a communications strategy with respect to Producers, reinsurers and other Persons with material relationships with the Company and (ii) the parties shall, and shall cause their respective Subsidiaries to, use reasonable best efforts to obtain all consents and approvals under any Contracts to which the Company or any of its Subsidiaries is a party in order to avoid any breach or loss of any right thereunder by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or any right of termination by any counterparty thereto arising solely as a result of the entry into this Agreement or the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby; provided, however, that (A) without the prior written consent of Parent, the Company shall not (and shall cause its Subsidiaries not to) make any concessions to any such Persons in connection with their efforts to obtain such consents and approvals, (B) the Company and its Subsidiaries shall not be required to make any concessions to the counterparty to such Contracts that would result in any of them incurring any cost or making any payment in connection with obtaining any such consent (unless Parent agrees to make such payment or incur such cost on behalf of the Company or to indemnify the Company therefore, or such payment or cost is not required to be paid or incurred until after the Effective Time), (C) the Company and its Subsidiaries shall not be required to agree to take or enter into any action that is not conditioned upon the Closing, and (D) Parent shall not be required to agree to make any concessions to the counterparty to any such Contract (unless Parent agrees to make any payments in connection with such concessions on behalf of the Company or to indemnify the Company therefore, or such concessions would not be effective until after the Effective Time).

Section 6.05 Transfer Taxes. Subject to Section 3.02, all share transfer, real estate transfer, documentary, stamp, recording and other similar Taxes (including interest, penalties, and additions to any such Taxes) (Transfer Taxes) incurred in connection with the Transactions shall be paid by Parent or the Surviving Company, and, prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall cooperate with Parent in preparing, executing, and filing any applicable Tax Returns with respect to such Transfer Taxes.

Section 6.06 Public Announcements. Parent and Merger Sub, on the one hand, and the Company, on the other hand, shall consult with each other before issuing, and give each other reasonable opportunity to review and comment upon, any press release or other public statement with respect to the Transactions, and shall not (and shall not cause or permit their respective Subsidiaries or Representatives to) issue any such press release or make any such public statement prior to such consultation, except (i) as may be required by applicable Law, court process, or the rules and regulations of any national securities exchange or national securities quotation system, (ii) as otherwise explicitly provided in Section 6.02, or (iii) to enforce its rights and remedies under this Agreement. The parties agree that the initial press release to be issued with respect to the Transactions following execution of this Agreement shall be in the form heretofore agreed to by the parties. The Company shall not make any internal announcements or other communications to its employees, customers, brokers or reinsurance providers with respect to this Agreement or the Transactions without Parent's prior written consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Parent and the Company may make any oral or written public or internal announcements, releases or statements without complying with the foregoing requirements, if the substance of such announcements, releases or statements, was publicly or internally disclosed and previously subject to the foregoing requirements.

Section 6.07 Access to Information. Subject to applicable Law, upon reasonable notice, the Company shall afford to Parent and Parent's Representatives reasonable access during normal business hours to the Company's officers, employees, agents, properties, books, Contracts, and records and the Company shall furnish promptly to Parent and Parent's Representatives such information concerning its business, personnel, assets, liabilities, and properties as Parent may reasonably request; provided that Parent and its Representatives shall conduct any such activities in such a manner as not to interfere unreasonably with the business or operations of the Company; provided further, however, that, notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall not be obligated to provide such access or information, if the Company determines, in its reasonable judgment, that doing so could violate applicable Law or a Contract or obligation of confidentiality owing to a third party, waive the protection of an attorney-client privilege or other legal privilege, or expose the Company to risk of liability for disclosure of sensitive or personal information. Without limiting the foregoing, in the event that the Company does not provide access or information in reliance on the immediately preceding sentence, it shall provide notice to Parent that it is withholding such access or information and the basis for such withholding and shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to enable such information to be furnished or made available to the requesting party or its Representatives without so jeopardizing privilege or protection, incurring liability, or contravening applicable Law or Contract or obligation, including by entering into a customary joint defense agreement or common interest agreement with the requesting party, to the extent such an agreement would preserve the applicable privilege or protection. All requests for information made pursuant to this Section 6.07 shall be directed to the Person designated by the Company. In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, during the period from the date of this Agreement through the earlier of the Closing and the termination of this Agreement, except as required by applicable Law, the Company shall cause its applicable officers and employees, including its Chief Financial Officer and Head of Reinsurance, to meet (which may be by electronic means) on a regular basis, and in any event no less than weekly, unless otherwise agreed by the Company and the Designated Representative, with representatives of Parent and its Affiliates designated by Parent (the Designated Representatives) to discuss the Company's ceded reinsurance plan for 2019 and future periods. Among other things, the Company and the Designated Representatives will cooperate and consider in good faith modifications to the Company's 2019 reinsurance program that may result in a different overall mix of reinsurance protection than in past periods, with a focus on downside protection with greater emphasis on excess of loss and catastrophe coverage and less overall emphasis on quota-share reinsurance. The Company shall consult with, and consider in good faith any recommendations of, the Designated Representatives in regard to the development of the overall reinsurance plan for the Company and its Subsidiaries, as well as on any determination to enter into, renew and modify any Ceded Reinsurance Contract.

Section 6.08 Indemnification and Insurance.

(a) From and after the Effective Time, the Surviving Company shall, and Parent shall cause the Surviving Company to, (i) indemnify and hold harmless each individual who at the Effective Time is, or at any time prior to the Effective Time was, a director or officer of the Company, a Subsidiary of the Company, or any other Person in which the Company or any of its Subsidiaries owns any equity interests at the request of the Company (each, together with such Person's heirs, executors and administrators, an Indemnitee and, collectively, the Indemnitees) with respect to all claims, liabilities, losses, damages, judgments, fines, penalties, costs (including amounts paid in settlement or compromise), and expenses (including fees and expenses of legal counsel) in connection with any Action (whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative), whenever asserted, based on or arising out of, in whole or in part, (A) the fact that an Indemnitee is or was a director or officer of the Company or such Subsidiary or (B) acts or omissions by an Indemnitee in the Indemnitee's capacity as a director, officer, employee, or agent of the Company or such Subsidiary or taken at the request of the Company or such Subsidiary (including in connection with serving at the request of the Company or such Subsidiary as a director, officer, employee, agent, trustee, or fiduciary of another Person (including any employee benefit plan)), in each case under clause (A) or (B), at, or at any time prior to, the Effective Time (including any Action relating in whole or in part to the Transactions or relating to the enforcement of this provision or any other indemnification or advancement right of any Indemnitee), to the fullest extent permitted under applicable Law; provided that no Indemnitee shall be indemnified against any liability that by virtue of any rule of law attaches to such Indemnitee in respect of any fraud or dishonesty of which such Indemnitee is guilty in relation to the Company, as finally determined by the Supreme Court of Bermuda; and (ii) assume all obligations of the Company and such Subsidiaries to the Indemnitees in respect of indemnification and exculpation from liabilities for acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time (and rights for advancement of expenses) as provided in the Company Organizational Documents and the Organizational Documents of such Subsidiaries as in effect on the date of this Agreement or in any agreement in existence as of the date of this Agreement providing for indemnification between the Company and any Indemnitee. Without limiting the foregoing, Parent, from and after the Effective Time, shall cause, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable Law, the memorandum of association and bye-laws of the Surviving Company to contain provisions no less favorable to the Indemnitees with respect to limitation of liabilities of directors and officers, advancement of expenses and indemnification than are set forth as of the date of this Agreement in the Company Organizational Documents, which provisions shall not be amended, repealed, or otherwise modified for a period of six (6) years from the Effective Time in a manner that would adversely affect the rights thereunder of the Indemnitees, except as amendments may be required by applicable Law during such period.

(b) For the six-year period commencing immediately after the Effective Time, the Surviving Company shall maintain in effect directors and officers liability insurance from an insurance carrier with the same or better financial strength of the Company's current carrier with respect to directors and officers liability insurance covering acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time with respect to Indemnitees on terms and scope with respect to such coverage, and in amount, no less favorable to such individuals than those of such policies in effect on the date of this Agreement; provided, however, that, if the annual premium for such insurance shall exceed 300% of the current annual premium (such 300% threshold, the Maximum Premium), which Maximum Premium is set forth in Section 6.08(b) of the Company Disclosure Letter, then Parent shall provide or cause to be provided a policy for the applicable individuals with the best coverage as shall then be available at an annual premium not in excess of the Maximum Premium. The Company may prior to the Effective Time purchase, for an aggregate amount not to exceed the aggregate Maximum Premium for six (6) years, a six-year prepaid tail policy on terms and conditions providing at least substantially equivalent benefits as the current policies of directors and officers liability insurance maintained by the Company and its Subsidiaries with respect to matters existing or occurring prior to the Effective Time, including the Transactions. If such prepaid tail policy has been obtained by the Company, it shall be deemed to satisfy all obligations to obtain insurance pursuant to this Section 6.08(b) and the Surviving Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause such policy to be maintained in full force and effect, for its full term, and to honor all of its obligations thereunder.

(c) The provisions of this Section 6.08 are (i) intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnitee, his or her heirs, and his or her Representatives and (ii) in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other rights to indemnification or contribution that any such individual may have under the Company Organizational Documents, by Contract, or otherwise. The obligations of Parent and the Surviving Company under this Section 6.08 shall not be terminated or modified in such a manner as to adversely affect the rights of any Indemnitee to whom this Section 6.08 applies, unless (x) such termination or modification is required by applicable Law or (y) the affected Indemnitee shall have consented in writing to such termination or modification (it being expressly agreed that the Indemnitees to whom this Section 6.08 applies shall be third party beneficiaries of this Section 6.08).

(d) In the event that Parent, the Surviving Company, or any of their respective successors or assigns (i) consolidates or amalgamates with or merges into any other Person and is not the continuing or surviving company or entity of such consolidation, amalgamation, or merger or (ii) transfers or conveys all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of Parent or the Surviving Company shall assume all of the obligations thereof set forth in this Section 6.08.

(e) Nothing in this Agreement is intended to, shall be construed to, or shall release, waive, or impair any rights to directors and officers insurance claims under any policy that is or has been in existence with respect to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries for any of their respective directors, officers, or other employees, it being understood and agreed that the indemnification provided for in this Section 6.08 is not prior to or in substitution for any such claims under such policies.

Section 6.09 Rule 16b-3. Prior to the Effective Time, the Company and Parent shall take such steps as may be reasonably necessary or advisable to cause dispositions of Company equity securities (including derivative securities) and acquisitions of Parent equity securities (including derivative securities) pursuant to the Transactions by each individual who is a director or officer of the Company subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act.

Section 6.10 Employee Matters.

(a) From and after the Effective Time through the end of the calendar year following the year in which the Effective Time occurs (the Continuation Period), Parent shall provide, or shall cause the Surviving Company to provide, each individual who is employed by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries immediately prior to the Effective Time (each, a Company Employee) with a base salary or wage rate, target annual incentive compensation opportunity and other compensation and employee benefits (excluding special, one-time or transaction-based compensation and benefits, defined benefit plan benefits, retiree welfare and long-term incentive compensation opportunities) that are not materially less favorable, in the aggregate, than those provided to such Company Employee by the Company and any of its Subsidiaries immediately prior to the Effective Time. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Parent shall provide, or shall cause the Surviving Company to provide, each Company Employee whose employment is terminated by Parent, the Surviving Company or any of their respective Affiliates during the Continuation Period (other than for cause) with severance benefits that are no less favorable, in the aggregate, than those set forth on Section 6.10(a) of the Company Disclosure Letter.

(b) Without limiting the generality of Section 6.10(a), from and after the Effective Time, Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Company to, honor and continue all of the Company's employment, severance, retention, termination and change-in-control plans, policies, programs, agreements and arrangements maintained by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries as set forth in Section 6.10(b) of the Company Disclosure Letter, in each case, as in effect at the Effective Time, including with respect to any payments, benefits or rights arising as a result of the Transactions (either alone or in combination with any other event), subject, in each case, to the terms and conditions of such arrangements including any provisions related to amendment, modification, termination and discontinuance.

(c) With respect to all employee benefit plans of Parent, the Surviving Company and its Subsidiaries, including any employee benefit plan (as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA) (including any paid time off and severance plans) in which Company Employees are first eligible to participate following the Effective Time (the New Benefit Plans), for purposes of determining eligibility to participate, level of benefits and vesting, each Company Employee's service with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries (as well as service with any predecessor employer of the Company or any such Subsidiary, to the extent service with the predecessor employer was recognized by the Company or such Subsidiary) shall be treated as service with Parent, the Surviving Company or any of its Subsidiaries (or in the case of a transfer of all or substantially all the assets and business of the Surviving Company, its successors and assigns); provided, however, that for the avoidance of doubt such service need not be recognized for purposes of any retiree health or welfare arrangements, any frozen benefit plan, benefit accrual under any defined benefit pension plan or to the extent that such recognition would result in any duplication of benefits for the same period of service.

(d) Without limiting the generality of Section 6.10(a), Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Company to, use commercially reasonable efforts to waive, or cause to be waived, any pre-existing condition limitations, exclusions, actively-at-work requirements and waiting periods under any New Benefit Plan that is a welfare benefit plan in which

Company Employees (and their eligible dependents) will be eligible to participate from and after the Effective Time, except to the extent that such pre-existing condition limitations, exclusions, actively-at-work requirements and waiting periods would not have been satisfied or waived under the comparable Company Plan immediately prior to the Effective Time. With respect to such New Benefit Plans, Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Company to, use commercially reasonable efforts to recognize the dollar amount of all co-payments, deductibles and similar expenses incurred by each Company Employee (and his or her eligible dependents) prior to the Effective Time during the calendar year in which the Effective Time occurs for purposes of satisfying such year's deductible and co-payment limitations under the relevant welfare benefit plans in which they will be eligible to participate from and after the Effective Time.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, for purposes of any Company Plan containing a definition of "change in control" or "change of control" (or term of similar import) that relates to the Company, the occurrence of the Closing shall be deemed to constitute a "change in control" or "change of control" (or such term of similar import) of the Company under such Company Plan.

(f) With respect to any Company Employee whose principal place of employment is outside of the United States, Parent's obligations under this Section 6.10 shall be modified to the extent necessary to comply with applicable Law of the foreign countries and political subdivisions thereof in which such Company Employee primarily performs his duties.

(g) Company shall provide an accurate and complete list upon the Closing of each Company Employee whose employment with the Company terminated within the ninety (90) days prior to the Closing Date, stating for each such employee the date of termination, the employee's position and work location, and whether such termination was voluntary or involuntary, and if involuntary, whether it was for cause.

(h) The provisions of this Section 6.10 are solely for the benefit of the parties to this Agreement, and no provision of this Section 6.10 is intended to, or shall, constitute the establishment or adoption of or an amendment to any employee benefit plan for purposes of ERISA or otherwise and, except as otherwise explicitly provided for in this Agreement, no current or former employee or any other individual associated therewith shall be regarded for any purpose as a third-party beneficiary of this Agreement or have the right to enforce the provisions hereof. Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended to prevent Parent, the Surviving Company or any of their Affiliates from, after the Effective Time, (i) amending or terminating any of their benefit plans in accordance with their terms or (ii) terminating the employment of any Company Employee.

Section 6.11 Notification of Certain Matters: Shareholder Litigation. During the period from the date of this Agreement through the earlier of the Closing and the termination of this Agreement, Parent shall give prompt notice to the Company, and the Company shall give prompt notice to Parent, of any Actions commenced or, to such party's Knowledge, threatened against such party which relates to this Agreement, the Statutory Merger Agreement, or the Transactions and such party shall keep the other party reasonably informed regarding any such Action. Subject to applicable Law, the Company shall give due consideration to Parent's advice with respect to such Action and shall give Parent the opportunity to participate, at Parent's sole cost and expense, in the defense and settlement of any such Action, and no such settlement shall be agreed to without Parent's prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

Section 6.12 Merger Sub Shareholder Approval. Immediately following the execution of this Agreement, Parent shall execute and deliver, in accordance with Section 106 of the Bermuda Companies Act and in its capacity as the sole shareholder of Merger Sub, a written consent approving this Agreement, the Statutory Merger Agreement, and the Merger (the Merger Sub Shareholder Approval).

Section 6.13 Client Consents. The Company shall, or shall cause the IA Subsidiary to, use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the consent (which consent may take the form of negative consent, to the extent written consent is not required by such Client's Advisory Contract or, if the Client is a Private Fund, the Private Fund's Organizational Documents) of each Client to the deemed assignment of such Client's Advisory Contract in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby (the Advisory Client Consents). In connection with obtaining the Advisory Client Consents, (a) the Company shall take reasonable steps to keep Parent reasonably informed of the status of obtaining such Advisory Client Consents and such other actions and, upon Parent's request, make available to Parent copies of all such executed Advisory Client Consents and other records relating to the Advisory Client Consent process and (b) Parent shall have the right to review in advance of distribution the general forms of any notices or other materials to be distributed by the IA Subsidiary to Clients (or, if the Client is a Private Fund, any limited partner, member or beneficial owner of the Private Fund) and shall have the right to have its reasonable comments considered by the Company in a commercially reasonable manner prior to distribution.

Section 6.14 Financing Cooperation.

(a) The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to provide, and to cause each of its Subsidiaries and their respective advisors, legal counsel, accountants, and representatives to use reasonable best efforts to provide, such reasonable cooperation (provided that, in each case, the requested cooperation does not unreasonably interfere with the ongoing operations of the Company and/or any of its Subsidiaries) that is customary in connection with the arrangement of the Debt Financing contemplated by the Debt Commitment Letter, including using reasonable best efforts to:

(i) assist in preparation for and participate in marketing efforts and lender presentations in connection with the Debt Financing at reasonable times and locations mutually agreed;

(ii) assist Parent with the preparation by Parent and the Debt Financing Sources of bank information memoranda and similar marketing documents required in connection with the Debt Financing, including the execution and delivery of customary representation letters in connection with bank information memoranda;

(iii) cooperate reasonably with the Debt Financing Sources due diligence, to the extent customary and reasonable;

(iv) execute and deliver as of (but not prior to) the Closing any pledge and security documents, account control agreements, mortgages, other definitive financing documents, currency or interest hedging arrangements, or other certificates or documents as may be reasonably requested by Parent (including a certificate of the chief financial officer (or other comparable officer) of the Company with respect to solvency matters after giving effect to the transactions contemplated hereby) (provided that, other than with respect to any customary representation letters referred to in clause (ii) above, (A) none of the documents or certificates shall be executed or delivered, except in connection with the Closing, and (B) the effectiveness thereof shall be conditioned upon, or become operative after, the occurrence of the Closing) and otherwise reasonably facilitate the pledging of collateral and the granting of security interests in respect of the Debt Financing; and

(v) provide all documentation and other information about the Company and its Subsidiaries as is reasonably required under applicable know your customer and anti-money laundering rules and regulations including the USA PATRIOT Act, to the extent required by the Debt Commitment Letter.

(b) In connection with such cooperation, neither the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries shall be required to (i) pay any commitment or similar fee in connection with the Debt Financing prior to the Closing Date or bear or reimburse any costs or expenses or make any payment to obtain consent or to incur any other actual or potential liability or cause or permit any Lien to be placed on any of its assets in connection with the Debt Financing prior to Closing, in each case, for which it has not received prior reimbursement or is not otherwise fully indemnified by or on behalf of Parent, (ii) become an issuer or other obligor with respect to the Debt Financing, unless and until the Closing occurs, or (iii) execute or deliver, or take any corporate or other action to adopt or approve, any document, agreement, certificate or instrument with respect to the Financing that will be effective before the Closing Date. Parent shall, promptly, upon fees, costs, and expenses incurred by any the Company and its Subsidiaries or any of their respective representatives (including those of their accounting firms engaged to assist in connection with the Debt Financing and legal counsel) in connection with the cooperation required by this Section 6.14, and shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company and its Subsidiaries and each of their respective representatives from and against all losses, damages, claims, costs, or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) suffered or incurred by any of them directly or indirectly in connection with such Person complying with their obligations under this Section 6.14 and any information used in connection therewith.

(c) The Company hereby consents to the use of its logos solely in connection with the Financing; provided that Parent and Merger Sub shall ensure that such logos are used solely in a manner that would not harm or disparage the Company or the Company's reputation, goodwill or marks and will comply with the Company's reasonable usage requirements.

(d) Nothing in this Section 6.14 shall require such cooperation to the extent it would (i) cause any condition to Closing set forth in Article VII to fail to be satisfied or otherwise cause any breach of this Agreement (unless, in each case, waived by Parent), (ii) require the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to waive or amend any terms of this Agreement or take any action that would reasonably be expected to conflict with, or result in any violation or breach of, or default (with or without notice or lapse of time, or both) under any of their respective Organizational Documents, any applicable Laws or the Existing Debt Documents or (iii) result in any officer, director employee, agent or other representative of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries incurring any personal liability (as opposed to liability in his or her capacity as officer) with respect to any matters relating to the Debt Financing.

Section 6.15 Existing Indebtedness. If requested by Parent, the Company shall use reasonable best efforts to cooperate with Parent and Merger Sub in taking such actions as are necessary under (x) the indentures listed in item (iii) of Section 4.16 of the Company Disclosure Letter and (y) the credit agreements listed in Section 4.03(c) of the Company Disclosure Letter (collectively, Existing Debt Documents) in respect of the Transactions, including delivering or causing a Subsidiary to deliver any such notices, agreements, documents, or instruments necessary, proper, or advisable to comply with the terms thereof, including the delivery of any officer certificates and opinions of counsel required to be delivered thereunder in connection with the Transactions. If and to the extent reasonably requested by Parent in writing, the Company shall use reasonable best efforts to cooperate with Parent and Merger Sub in either (a) arranging for the termination of Existing Debt Documents (or redemption of the relevant notes or debentures) at the Closing (or such other date thereafter as agreed to by Parent and the Company), which redemption shall be the sole responsibility of Parent, and the procurement of customary payoff letters and other customary release documentation in connection therewith (including with respect to the Existing Revolving Credit Facility) or (b) obtaining any consents required under any Existing Debt Documents to permit the consummation of the Transactions thereunder and obtaining any amendments to or other consents under the Existing Debt Documents as may be reasonably requested by Parent, and in each case, if reasonably requested by Parent, the Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, execute and deliver such customary notices, agreements, documents, or instruments necessary in connection therewith. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 6.15 to the contrary, in no event shall the Company be required in connection with its obligations under this Section 6.15 to (i) incur or agree to incur any out-of-pocket expenses, unless they are promptly reimbursed by Parent, (ii) incur or agree to incur any commitment, tender, consent, amendment fee or any fee similar to any of the foregoing, unless Parent provides the funding to the Company therefor, (iii) amend or agree to amend any Existing Debt Document, which amendment is not conditioned on the Closing, (iv) incur any liability in connection therewith prior to the Closing Date, unless contingent upon the occurrence of the Closing, (v) take any action that would unreasonably interfere with or unreasonably disrupt the normal operations and management of the Company and its Subsidiaries, (vi) take any action that the Company reasonably believes could (A) violate its or its Subsidiaries' certificate of incorporation or bye-laws (or comparable documents), (B) violate any applicable Law, (C) constitute a default or violation under, or give rise to any right of termination, cancellation, or acceleration of any right or obligation of the Company or its Subsidiaries or to a loss of any benefit to which the Company or its Subsidiaries is entitled under any provision of any Contract, or

(D) result in the creation or imposition of any Lien on any asset of the Company or its Subsidiaries, (vii) waive or amend any terms of this Agreement, (viii) take any action that could reasonably be expected to cause any representation or warranty or covenant contained in this Agreement to be breached or to cause any condition to the Closing set forth in Article VII to fail to be satisfied or otherwise cause any breach of this Agreement, (ix) provide access to or disclose information that the Company determines would jeopardize any attorney-client privilege of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, (x) fund any repayment, redemption, cash collateralization, or provide any backstop letters of credit prior to the Closing, or (xi) result in any of the Company's or any of its Subsidiaries Representatives incurring any personal liability with respect to any matters relating to this Section 6.15. Parent shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless the Company, any of its Subsidiaries, and any of their respective Representatives from, against, and in respect of any and all claims, liabilities, losses, damages, judgments, fines, penalties, costs, and expenses (including fees of legal counsel) resulting from or incurred in connection with the cooperation hereunder or any information utilized in connection therewith. Notwithstanding this Section 6.15 or anything in this Agreement to the contrary, each of the parties hereto agrees that it is not a condition to the Closing that the Debt Financing, payoff letters, consents, amendments, or other similar actions described in this Section 6.15 and Section 6.14 be obtained.

Section 6.16 Equity Financing.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, prior to the Closing, Parent shall use its reasonable best efforts to consummate and obtain the Equity Financing on the terms and conditions set forth in the Equity Commitment Letter no later than the date that the Closing is required to occur in accordance with Article II, including using reasonable best efforts to: (i) maintain in full force and effect the Equity Commitment Letter; (ii) satisfy all conditions to the funding of the Equity Commitment Letter that are within its control; (iii) comply on a timely basis with its obligations under the Equity Commitment Letter; (iv) consummate the Equity Financing at or prior to the date that the Closing is required to occur in accordance with Section 2.06; and (v) enforce its rights under the Equity Commitment Letter. Nothing in this Agreement shall require, and in no event shall the reasonable best efforts of Parent or Merger Sub be deemed or construed to require, either Parent or Merger Sub to seek the Equity Financing from any source other than the Investors counterparty to, or in any amount in excess of that contemplated by, the Equity Commitment Letter.

(b) Parent shall not, without the prior written consent of the Company (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), permit any amendment or modification to be made to or waiver of any rights under the Equity Commitment Letter. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) nothing herein shall prohibit or prevent Parent from exercising any of its rights under the Equity Commitment Letter without the consent of the Company, including the right to assign any of its rights or obligations thereunder in accordance with the terms thereof, and (ii) nothing in this Agreement shall prohibit the assignment by any Investor of any of its rights or obligations under the Equity Commitment Letter in accordance with its terms. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or the Confidentiality Agreement, Parent and Merger Sub may enter discussions regarding, and may enter into arrangements and agreements relating to the Equity Financing to add other equity providers, so long as in respect of any such arrangements and agreements, the following conditions are met: (i) the aggregate amount of the Equity Financing is not reduced; (ii) the arrangements and agreements, individually or in the aggregate, would not be reasonably likely to delay or prevent the Closing; (iii) the arrangements and agreements would not diminish or release the pre-Closing obligations of the parties to the Equity Commitment Letter, adversely affect the rights of Parent or Merger Sub to enforce its rights against the other parties to the Equity Commitment Letter, or otherwise constitute a waiver or reduction of Parent's or Merger Sub's rights under the Equity Commitment Letter; and (iv) no such additional equity provider would (A) acquire ten percent (10%) or more of the equity securities of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries or (B) be granted a right to designate any member of the board of directors or other governing body of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries. Upon the consummation of the Equity Financing to Parent, in accordance with the Equity

Commitment Letter, Parent shall draw down at Closing such amount of such Equity Financing as is required to make the full amount of payments it is required to make pursuant to Article III.

Section 6.17 Ratings. Subject to the other rights and terms of this Agreement, Parent shall not, and shall use its reasonable efforts to cause its control persons under applicable Law not to, knowingly take any action or knowingly fail to take any action with respect to the Transactions or the Company or any of its Subsidiaries that Parent, acting reasonably and assuming due consideration of the matter, believes is reasonably likely to result in a downgrade by A.M. Best or S&P of the financial strength ratings of the Company Insurance Subsidiaries. Parent shall ensure that all of the actions taken by it or any of its control persons under applicable Law, or on behalf of any of them, with respect to the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or the Transactions, will be consistent with the Summary Business Plan.

Section 6.18 Net CAT Losses.

(a) If, as of any time on or prior to March 3, 2019, one or more CAT Events has occurred during the Measurement Period and Parent, acting in accordance with the Agreed Standard, believes that Net CAT Losses arising from such CAT Events exceed the Specified Amount, then Parent may initiate the procedures contemplated by this Section 6.18 to determine the amount of Net CAT Losses by delivering a written notice to such effect to the Company. If Parent validly exercises its right to initiate such procedures pursuant to this Section 6.18 (the Determination Right), then the parties shall comply with the procedures set forth in clause (b) of Section 6.18 below. Parent may not exercise the Determination Right more than once, and may not exercise the Determination Right after March 3, 2019. If the Determination Right has been exercised, then the Closing will not occur until the Loss Report (as defined below) has been finally determined pursuant to this Section 6.18. If, after the Loss Report (as defined below) has been finally determined pursuant to this Section 6.18, all conditions to the Closing have been satisfied or waived (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing, but subject to the satisfaction or waiver of those conditions at such time), then, unless the parties otherwise agree in writing, the Closing will occur on the 15th business day after the date on which the Loss Report is finally determined pursuant to this Section 6.18.

(i) If Parent exercises the Determination Right in accordance with Section 6.18(a) above, then the Company, acting in accordance with the Agreed Standard, shall within five Business Days after the Determination Right has been exercised deliver to Parent a written report (the Loss Report) setting forth the Company's reasonable and good faith estimated calculation of Net CAT Losses as of the end of the month immediately preceding the month in which the Determination Right was exercised. In all cases, the amounts set forth on the Loss Report shall be determined, and the calculation of Net CAT Losses as reflected therein shall be made, in accordance with Applicable SAP and the Company's historical practice for setting reserves and determining similar amounts.

(ii) Parent shall have ten business days to review the Loss Report and the calculations set forth therein (the Review Period). In furtherance of such review, the Company shall provide Parent and its Representatives with such reasonable access to the employees and Representatives of the Company, and to such documentation, records and other information of the Company relating to the information set forth on the Loss Report, as Parent may reasonably request.

(iii) If Parent, acting in accordance with the Agreed Standard (and based on then available information), disagrees with the Company's Loss Report (including any amount or computation set forth therein) on the basis that the Loss Report is inaccurate and that, if the Loss Report were accurate, Net CAT Losses as reflected on such Loss Report would be greater than the Specified Amount, Parent may, on or prior to the last day of the Review Period, deliver a notice to the Company setting forth, in reasonable detail, each disputed item or amount and the basis for Parent's disagreement therewith (the Dispute Notice). The Dispute Notice shall set forth, with respect to each disputed item, Parent's position as to the correct amount or computation that should have been included in the Loss Report.

(iv) If no Dispute Notice is received by the Company with respect to any item in the Loss Report on or prior to the last day of the Review Period, the amount or computation with respect to such items as set forth in the Loss Report shall be deemed accepted by Parent, whereupon the amount or computation of such item or items shall be final and binding on the parties.

(v) For a period of ten business days beginning on the date that the Company receives a Dispute Notice, if any, the Company and the Parent, each acting in accordance with the Agreed Standard, shall endeavor in good faith to resolve by mutual agreement all matters identified in the Dispute Notice. In the event that the parties are unable to resolve by mutual agreement any matter in the Dispute Notice within such two business-day period, the Company and Parent shall jointly engage a mutually agreeable independent nationally recognized third party actuarial or accounting firm (the Independent Actuary) to resolve the dispute.

(vi) Parent and the Company will direct the Independent Actuary to render a determination within fifteen business days after its retention, and Parent, the Company and their respective employees and Representatives will cooperate with the Independent Actuary, as applicable, during its engagement. The Company, on the one hand, and Parent, on the other hand, shall promptly (and in any event within three business days) after the Independent Actuary's engagement, as applicable, each submit to the Independent Actuary their respective computations of the disputed items identified in the Dispute Notice and information, arguments and support for their respective positions, and shall concurrently deliver a copy of such materials to the other party. Each party shall then be given an opportunity to supplement the information, arguments and support included in its initial submission with one additional submission to respond to any arguments or positions taken by the other party in such other party's initial submission, which supplemental information shall be submitted to the Independent Actuary (with a copy thereof to the other party) within five business days after the first date on which both parties have submitted their respective initial submissions to the Independent Actuary. The Independent Actuary, as applicable, shall thereafter be permitted to request additional or clarifying information from the parties, and each of the parties shall cooperate and shall cause their Representatives to cooperate with such requests of the Independent Actuary. The Independent Actuary, as applicable, shall determine, based solely on the materials so presented by the parties and upon information received in response to such requests for additional or clarifying information and not by independent review, only those issues in dispute specifically set forth in the Dispute Notice and shall render a written report to Parent and the Company (each, an Actuary Report) in which the Independent Actuary, as applicable shall, after considering all matters set forth in the Dispute Notice, determine what adjustments, if any, should be made to the amounts and computations set forth in the Loss Report.

(vii) The Actuary Report shall set forth, in reasonable detail, the Independent Actuary's determination with respect to each of the disputed items or amounts specified in the Dispute Notice, and the revisions, if any, to be made to the Loss Report, together with supporting calculations. In resolving any disputed item, the Independent Actuary (i) shall be bound to the principles of this Section 6.18 and the terms of this Agreement (including that the amounts set forth in the Loss Report shall be determined in accordance with the Agreed Standard, Applicable SAP and the Company's historical practice for setting reserves and similar amounts; provided that the Independent Actuary may also review whether the amounts set forth on the Loss Report are reasonable based on industry practice and the nature of and circumstances surrounding any particular CAT Event or CAT Events), but (ii) shall limit its review to matters specifically set forth in the Dispute Notice and (iii) shall not assign a value to any item higher than the highest value for such item claimed by either party or less than the lowest value for such item claimed by either party.

(viii) All fees and expenses relating to the work of the Independent Actuary shall be paid by the party (that is, the Company or Parent) whose position with respect to the matter in dispute is furthest from the Independent Actuary's final determination.

(b) Obligations and Agreements. The Company shall have performed or complied in all material respects with the obligations and agreements required to be performed or complied with by it under this Agreement at or prior to the Effective Time, and Parent shall have received a certificate dated as of the Closing Date signed on behalf of the

(b) by either of the Company or Parent:

(i) if the Merger shall not have been consummated on or prior to May 31, 2019 (as such date may be extended pursuant to the first proviso to this Section 8.01(b)(i) or, if applicable, Section 9.08, the Walk-Away Date); provided, however, that, if on such date the condition precedent to the

(iv) (iv) if (A) Parent has validly and timely exercised the Determination Right pursuant to Section 6.18, (B) the Loss Report has been finally determined pursuant to Section 6.18 and (C) Net CAT Losses as reflected on such finally determined Loss Report are greater than the Specified Amount; provided that, if this termination right becomes effective in accordance with its terms, then Parent may only terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.01(c)(iv) on or prior to the 10th business day after the Loss Report has been finally determined pursuant to

In no event shall the Company be required to pay the Company Termination Fee more than once. In no event shall Parent be required to pay the Parent Termination Fee more than once.

(b) Each of the parties acknowledges and hereby agrees that the agreements contained in this Section 8.03 are an integral part of the Transactions, and that, without these agreements, the other parties would not enter into this Agreement; accordingly, if the Company or Parent fails to timely pay any amount due pursuant to this Section 8.03, and, in order to obtain the payment, the other party commences an Action that results in a judgment against the non-paying party for the payment set forth in this Section 8.03, the non-paying party shall pay the other party for its reasonable and documented costs and expenses (including reasonable and documented attorneys' fees) in connection with such Action, together with interest on such amount at the prime rate as published in The Wall Street Journal in effect on the date such payment was required to be made through the date such payment was actually received, subject in all respects to the limitations set forth in Section 8.03(e). (c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, any other Transaction Document or any other agreement referenced herein or therein or otherwise, but subject in all respects to this Section 8.03, Section 9.08 and Section 9.13 (including, in each case, the limitations set forth therein), if Parent or Merger Sub fails to effect the Closing when required by Section 2.06 for any or no reason or otherwise breaches this Agreement or any Transaction Document (whether such breach is intentional, unintentional, willful (including a Willful Breach) or otherwise) or fails to perform hereunder or thereunder or fails to perform any obligation under Law (in each case, whether such failure is intentional, unintentional, willful (including a Willful Breach) or otherwise), then the Company's right to seek (but never receive more than one of) (i) a decree or order of specific performance or any injunction or injunctions or other equitable relief if and to the extent permitted by Section 9.08 to cause the Merger Consideration to be paid and the Closing to occur, (ii) terminate the Agreement pursuant to Section 8.01 and seek monetary damages solely on the basis of actual, knowing fraud by Parent or Merger Sub with the intent to deceive or mislead the Company, regarding Parent's or Merger Sub's representations and warranties (subject in all respects to the limitations set forth in Section 8.03(e)) and (iii) terminate the Agreement pursuant to Section 8.01(d)(iii) and if, as, and when required pursuant to Section 8.03(a)(v), receive payment of the Parent Termination Fee, and, subject to the limitation set forth in clause (B) of Section 8.03(e), the costs and expenses of the Company pursuant to Section 8.03(b), and the reimbursement obligations set forth in Section 6.14(b) and Section 6.15 and the obligations to pay fees and expenses of the Independent Actuary pursuant to Section 6.18, be the sole and exclusive remedies (whether at Law, in equity, in Contract, in tort or otherwise) of the Company Related Parties, Representatives of the Company and any other person against the Parent Related Parties for any breach, liability, cost, expense, obligation, loss or damage suffered as a result thereof or in connection therewith or related thereto. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, under no circumstances can the Company receive more than one of the three remedies set forth in clauses (i), (ii) or (iii) of the previous sentence.

(d) Except (i) as provided in Section 8.03(c) or (ii) claims, if any, against any Person that is party to, and solely pursuant to the terms and conditions of, the Confidentiality Agreement, no Parent Related Party will have any liability or obligation to the Company Related Parties, the Representatives of the Company, or any other Person, including any multiple, consequential, indirect, special, statutory, exemplary, or punitive damages, relating to or arising out of this Agreement or any other Transaction Document or any documents or certificates referenced herein or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby or any breach of any representation, warranty, or covenant contained herein or therein, or the failure of such transactions to be consummated, or, in respect of any other Contract, document, or theory of Law or equity or in respect of any representations made or alleged to be made in connection herewith or therewith, whether in equity or at Law, in Contract, in tort, or otherwise. The Company acknowledges and agrees that none of the Debt Financing Sources Related Parties nor any of their former, current, and future equity holders, controlling persons, directors, officers, employees, agents, attorneys, affiliates, members, managers, general or limited partners, stockholders, or assignees shall have any liability or obligation to the Company Related Parties, the Representatives of the Company, or any other Person arising out of their breach or failure to perform (whether willfully, intentionally, unintentionally, or otherwise) any of their obligations under the Debt Commitment Letters. Without limiting the foregoing, upon payment of the Parent Termination Fee, if, as, and when required pursuant to Section 8.03(a)(v) and the amounts, if any, as and when due pursuant to Section 8.03(b), no Parent Related Party shall have any further liability or obligation to the Company Related Parties, the Representatives of the Company, or any other Person, including any multiple, consequential, indirect, special, statutory, exemplary, or punitive damages, relating to or arising out of this Agreement, any other Transaction Document, or any other documents referenced herein or therein or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby or in respect of any representation, warranty, or covenant contained herein or therein, or the failure of such transactions to be consummated, or in respect of any other Contract, document, or theory of Law or equity or in respect of any representations made or alleged to be made in connection herewith or therewith, whether in equity or at Law, in Contract, in tort, or otherwise.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, any other Transaction Document, or any other agreement referenced herein or therein or otherwise, subject to Section 9.08, the maximum aggregate liability of the Parent Related Parties under the Transaction Documents or otherwise, collectively (including monetary damages for breach, whether willful, intentional, unintentional, or otherwise, or monetary damages in lieu of specific performance), or in connection with the failure of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby (including the Financing) to be consummated, or in respect of any representation made or alleged to have been made in connection herewith or therewith, whether in equity or at Law, in Contract, in tort or otherwise, together with any payment of the Parent Termination Fee and any other payment in connection with any Transaction Document or otherwise, shall not exceed under any circumstances an amount equal to the sum of (i) the Parent Termination Fee, if any, due and owing to the Company pursuant to Section 8.03(a)(v), plus (ii) the amounts, if any, due and owing to the Company pursuant to Section 8.03(b) and as a result of the reimbursement obligations set forth in Section 6.14(b) and Section 6.15 and the obligations to pay fees and expenses of the Independent Actuary pursuant to Section 6.18; provided that (A) in no event shall the aggregate amount of Parent's obligations described in clause (i) of this Section 8.03(e) together with the aggregate amount of Parent's obligations described in clause (b) of Section 8.02 exceed the amount of the Parent Termination Fee and (B) in no event shall the aggregate amount of Parent's obligations described in clause (ii) of this Section 8.03(e) exceed $1,500,000, and in no event shall the Company Related Parties and the Representatives of the Company seek, directly or indirectly, to recover against the Parent Related Parties, or compel payment by the Parent Related Parties of, any damages or other payments whatsoever (including multiple, consequential, indirect, special, statutory, exemplary or punitive damages) in excess of the Parent Termination Fee or any of the foregoing limitations (as applicable); provided, further, that the parties acknowledge and agree that the foregoing shall not apply to claims, if any, against any Person that is party to, and solely pursuant to the terms and conditions of, the Confidentiality Agreement.

ARTICLE IX.MISCELLANEOUS

Section 9.01 No Survival of Representations and Warranties. This Article IX and the agreements of the Company, Parent, and Merger Sub contained in Article III, Section 6.08 and Section 6.10 shall survive the Effective Time. No other representations, warranties, obligations or agreements in this Agreement shall survive the Effective Time.

Section 9.02 Amendment or Supplement. At any time prior to the Effective Time, this Agreement may be amended or supplemented in any and all respects, whether before or after receipt of the Company Shareholder Approval, by written agreement of the parties, by action taken by the Parent Board and the Company Board; provided, however, that, (a) following receipt of the Company Shareholder Approval, there shall be no amendment or change to the provisions hereof which by applicable Law would require further approval by the shareholders of the Company without such approval and (b) any modification or amendment of Section 8.02 (solely to the extent that it relates to the Debt Financing Sources Related Parties), clause (b) of this proviso of Section 9.02, clause (iv) of Section 9.06, Section 9.07(c), Section 9.09 (solely to the extent that it relates to the Debt Financing Sources Related Parties), Section 9.13 (solely to the extent that it relates to the Debt Financing Sources Related Parties) and the definitions of Debt Commitment Letter, Debt Financing, Debt Financing Sources, and Debt Financing Sources Related Parties that is adverse to the interests of the Debt Financing Sources Related Parties will not be effective against the Debt Financing Sources Related Parties without the prior written consent of the Debt Financing Sources.

Section 9.03 Extension of Time, Waiver, Etc. At any time prior to the Effective Time, Parent and the Company may, subject to applicable Law, (a) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the other party, (b) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or acts of the other party, or (c) subject to the requirements of applicable Law, waive compliance by the other party with any of the agreements contained herein or, except as otherwise provided herein, waive any of such party's conditions (it being understood that Parent and Merger Sub shall be deemed a single party for purposes of the foregoing). Notwithstanding the foregoing, no failure or delay by the Company, Parent, or Merger Sub in exercising any right hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right hereunder. Any agreement on the part of a party to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party.

Section 9.04 Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests, or obligations hereunder shall be assigned, in whole or in part, by operation of Law or otherwise, by any of the parties without the prior written consent of the other parties. No assignment by any party shall relieve such party of any of its obligations hereunder. Subject to the immediately preceding two sentences, this Agreement shall be binding upon, inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by the parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Any purported assignment not permitted under this Section 9.04 shall be null and void.

Section 9.05 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts (including by facsimile or electronic mail), each of which shall be deemed to be an original but all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same agreement, and shall become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other parties.

Section 9.06 Entire Agreement; No Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement, the Equity Commitment Letter, the Guarantee and the Confidentiality Agreement constitute the entire agreement, and supersede all other prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, among the parties and their Affiliates, or any of them, with respect to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement is not intended to and shall not confer upon any Person, other than the parties, any rights or remedies hereunder, except for (i) if the Effective Time occurs, the right of the holders of Company Shares to receive the Merger Consideration payable in accordance with Article III, (ii) the provisions set forth in Section 6.08 of this Agreement, (iii) from and after the Effective Time, the rights of the holders of Company Awards to receive the payments contemplated by the applicable provisions of Section 3.03 in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement and (iv) each Debt Financing Sources Related Party shall be a third-party beneficiary of Section 8.02 (solely to the extent that it relates to the Debt Financing Sources Related Parties), clause (b) of the proviso of Section 9.02, this clause (iv) of Section 9.06, Section 9.07(c), Section 9.09 (solely to the extent that it relates to the Debt Financing Sources Related Parties), and Section 9.13 (solely to the extent that it relates to the Debt Financing Sources Related Parties). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall have the right to recover, following termination by the Company of this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.01(d)(i), through an Action brought by the Company, damages from Parent to the extent arising out of a Willful Breach of this Agreement by Parent subject in all respects to the limitations set forth in Section 8.03(e), in which event the damages recoverable by the Company for itself and on behalf of the holders of Company Shares shall be determined by reference to the total amount that would have been recoverable under the circumstances of such breach by such holders if all such holders brought an action against Parent and were recognized as third-party beneficiaries hereunder. The representations, warranties, covenants, and agreements in this Agreement are the product of negotiations among the parties and are for the sole benefit of the parties and may, in certain instances, be qualified, limited or changed by confidential disclosure letters. Any inaccuracies in such representations or warranties or failure to perform or breach of such covenants or agreements are subject to waiver by the parties in accordance with Section 9.03 without notice or liability to any other Person. In some instances, the representations, warranties, covenants, and agreements in this Agreement may represent an allocation among the parties of risk associated with particular matters, regardless of the knowledge of any of the parties. Consequently, Persons, other than the parties, may not rely upon the representations, warranties, covenants, and agreements in this Agreement as characterizations of actual facts or circumstances as of the date of this Agreement or as of any other date.

Table of ContentsSection 9.07 Governing Law; Jurisdiction.

(a) This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware applicable to contracts executed in and to be performed entirely within that state, regardless of the laws that might otherwise govern under any applicable conflict of laws principles, except to the extent the provisions of the laws of Bermuda are mandatorily applicable to the Merger.

(b) All Actions arising out of or relating to the interpretation and enforcement of the provisions of this Agreement and in respect of the Transactions (except to the extent any such proceeding mandatorily must be brought in Bermuda) shall be heard and determined in the Delaware Court of Chancery, or, if the Delaware Court of Chancery declines to accept jurisdiction over a particular matter, any federal court within the State of Delaware, or, if both the Delaware Court of Chancery and the federal courts within the State of Delaware decline to accept jurisdiction over a particular matter, any other state court within the State of Delaware, and, in each case, any appellate court therefrom. The parties hereby irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of such courts in any such Actions and irrevocably waive the defense of an inconvenient forum or lack of jurisdiction to the maintenance of any such Action. The consents to jurisdiction and venue set forth in this Section 9.07(b) shall not constitute general consents to service of process in the State of Delaware and shall have no effect for any purpose, except as provided in this paragraph and shall not be deemed to confer rights on any Person other than the parties. Each party agrees that service of process upon such party in any Action arising out of or relating to this Agreement shall be effective if notice is given by overnight courier at the address set forth in Section 9.10 of this Agreement. The parties agree that a final judgment in any such Action shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by applicable Law; provided, however, that nothing contained in the foregoing shall restrict any party's rights to seek any post-judgment relief regarding, or any appeal from, a final trial court judgment.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 9.07, each party to this Agreement acknowledges and irrevocably agrees (i) that any legal action, whether at law or in equity, whether in contract or in tort or otherwise, against any Debt Financing Sources Related Party arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the Debt Commitment Letter or the performance thereunder shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of New York, or, if under applicable Law exclusive jurisdiction is vested in Federal courts, the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (and appellate courts thereof), (ii) that, except to the extent relating to the interpretation of any provisions in this Agreement and/or the Equity Commitment Letter, any legal action, whether at law or in equity, whether in contract or in tort or otherwise, against any Debt Financing Sources Related Party shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the Laws of the State of New York, (iii) not to bring or permit any of their Affiliates to bring any such legal action in any other court, and (iv) that the provisions of this Section 9.07(c) shall apply to any such legal action.

Section 9.08 Specific Enforcement. The parties agree that irreparable damage for which monetary relief, even if available, would not be an adequate remedy, would occur in the event that any provision of this Agreement is not performed in accordance with its specific terms or is otherwise breached, including if the parties fail to take any action required of them hereunder to consummate this Agreement, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The parties acknowledge and agree that (a) the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions, specific performance, or other equitable relief to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the right of the Company to cause the Merger to be consummated on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this Agreement) in the courts described in Section 9.07(b) without proof of damages or otherwise, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled under this Agreement, and (b) the right of specific enforcement is an integral part of the Transactions and without that right, neither the Company nor Parent would have entered into this Agreement. The parties agree not to assert that a remedy of specific enforcement is unenforceable, invalid, contrary to Law or inequitable for any reason, and not to assert that a remedy of monetary damages would provide an adequate remedy or that the parties otherwise have an adequate remedy at law. The parties acknowledge and agree that any party seeking an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement in accordance with this Section 9.08 shall not be required to provide any bond or other security in connection with any such order or injunction. If, prior to the Walk-Away Date (or following the Walk-Away Date if, (i) in the case of the Company, the termination right in Section 8.01(b)(i) is unavailable to Parent or (ii) in the case of Parent, the termination right in Section 8.01(b)(i) is unavailable to the Company), any party brings any action, in each case, in accordance with this Section 9.08, to enforce specifically the performance of the terms and provisions hereof by any other party, or any party brings any action (whether in accordance with this Section 9.08 or otherwise) with respect to Section 2.07 or Section 6.18, or initiates any procedure to resolve disputes with respect to the Loss Report as contemplated by Section 6.18, the Walk-Away Date shall automatically be extended (x) for the period during which such action is pending, plus ten (10) business days or (y) by such other time period established by the court presiding over such action, as the case may be. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, and for the avoidance of doubt, subject in all respects to this Section 9.08, Section 8.02, Section 8.03, and Section 9.13 (and, in each case, the limitations set forth herein or therein), any and all remedies expressly conferred upon a party will be deemed cumulative with and not exclusive of any other remedy conferred by this Agreement or by applicable Law on such party, and the exercise by a party of any one remedy will not preclude the exercise of any other remedy. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary in any Transaction Document or otherwise, for the avoidance of doubt, while the Company may, subject in all respects to Section 8.02, Section 8.03 and this Section 9.08, concurrently seek (A) specific performance or other equitable relief, subject in all respects to this Section 9.08, and (B) payment of monetary damages pursuant to clause (b) of Section 8.02 or the Parent Termination Fee, if, as, and when required pursuant to Section 8.03(a)(v), under no circumstances shall the Company, directly or indirectly, be permitted or entitled to receive (1) both a grant of specific performance to cause the Equity Financing to be funded (whether under this Agreement or the Equity Commitment Letter) or other equitable relief to cause the Merger Consideration to be paid and the Closing to occur, on the one hand, and payment of any monetary damages whatsoever and/or the payment of the Parent Termination Fee, on the other hand, or (2) both payment of any monetary damages whatsoever, on the one hand, and payment of any of the Parent Termination Fee, on the other hand. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or any other agreement referenced herein or otherwise to the contrary, it is acknowledged and agreed that Parent has an obligation hereunder to cause the Equity Financing to be funded, including by exercising its rights under the Equity Commitment Letter, and such obligation of Parent, and the right of the Company to specific performance in connection with enforcing such obligation of Parent (whether under this Agreement or the Equity Commitment Letter), and the obligation of Parent to consummate the Merger, will be subject to the requirements that (I) all of the conditions set forth in Section 7.01 and Section 7.02 have been and continue to be satisfied or waived (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing and that would be satisfied if there were a Closing at such time); (II) Parent and Merger Sub fail to consummate the Closing on the date required pursuant to Section 2.06; and (III) the Company has irrevocably confirmed in a written notice to Parent that, if specific performance is granted and the Equity Financing is funded, then the Company would take such actions that are required of it by this Agreement to cause the Closing to occur (and the Company has not revoked, withdrawn, modified, or conditioned such irrevocable confirmation), and Parent and Merger Sub fail to complete the Closing within three (3) business days after delivery of the Company's irrevocable written confirmation.

Section 9.09 WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY THAT MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES AND, THEREFORE, IT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT AND ANY OF THE AGREEMENTS DELIVERED IN CONNECTION HERewith OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY (INCLUDING THE FINANCING). EACH PARTY CERTIFIES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT (A) NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT, OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER, (B) IT

UNDERSTANDS AND HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF SUCH WAIVER, (C) IT MAKES SUCH WAIVER VOLUNTARILY, AND (D) IT HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVER AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 9.09.

Section 9.11 Severability. If any term, condition, or other provision of this Agreement is finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal, or incapable of being enforced by any applicable Law or public policy, all other terms, provisions and conditions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect, so long as the economic or legal substance of the Transactions is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any party or such party waives its rights under this Section 9.11 with respect thereto. Upon such determination that any term, condition, or other provision is invalid, illegal, or incapable of being enforced, the parties shall negotiate to attempt to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law in an acceptable manner to the end that the Transactions are fulfilled to the extent possible.

Section 9.12 Fees and Expenses. Whether or not the Merger is consummated, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger, this Agreement, and the other Transactions shall be paid by the party incurring or required to incur such fees or expenses, except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement.

Section 9.13 Non-Recourse. Each party agrees, on behalf of itself and its Affiliates (and, in the case of the Company, the Company Related Parties, and, in the case of Parent, the Parent Related Parties), that all Actions, claims, obligations, liabilities, or causes of action (whether in contract or in tort, in Law, or in equity or otherwise, or granted by statute or otherwise, whether by or through attempted piercing of the corporate, limited partnership, or limited liability company veil or any other theory or doctrine, including alter ego or otherwise) that may be based upon, in respect of, arise under, out or by reason of, be connected with, or relate to: (A) this Agreement, any other Transaction Document or any other agreement referenced herein or therein or the transactions contemplated hereunder or thereunder (including the Financing), (B) the negotiation, execution or performance this Agreement, any other Transaction Document or any other agreement referenced herein or therein (including any representation or warranty made in, in connection with, or as an inducement to this Agreement, any other Transaction Document or such other agreement), (C) any breach or violation of this Agreement, any other Transaction Document or any other agreement referenced herein or therein, and (D) any failure of the transactions contemplated hereunder or under any Transaction Document or any other agreement referenced herein or therein (including the Financing) to be consummated, in each case, may be made only against (and are those solely of) the Persons that are expressly identified as parties to this Agreement in accordance with, and subject to the terms and conditions of, this Agreement (but subject to the exceptions set forth in the next sentence). Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement, any other Transaction Document or any other agreement referenced herein or therein or otherwise to the contrary, each party hereto covenants, agrees, and acknowledges, on behalf of itself and its respective Affiliates (and, in the case of the Company, the Company Related Parties, and, in the case of Parent, the Parent Related Parties), that no recourse under this Agreement, any other Transaction Document, or any other agreement referenced herein or therein or in connection with any transactions contemplated hereby or thereby (including the Financing) shall be sought or had against any other Person, including any Company Related Party, any Parent Related Party, and any Debt Financing Sources Related Party, and no other Person, including any Company Related Party, any Parent Related Party, and any Debt Financing Sources Related Party, shall have any liabilities or obligations (whether in contract or in tort, in Law, or in equity or otherwise, or granted by statute or otherwise, whether by or through attempted piercing of the corporate, limited partnership, or limited liability company veil or any other theory or doctrine, including alter ego or otherwise) for any claims, causes of action, obligations, or liabilities arising under, out of, in connection with, or related to the items in the immediately preceding clauses (A) through (D), it being expressly agreed and acknowledged that no personal liability or losses whatsoever shall attach to, be imposed on, or otherwise be incurred by any of the aforementioned, as such, arising under, out of, in connection with, or related to the items in the immediately preceding clauses (A) through (D), in each case, except for claims that (1) the Company, Parent, or

Merger Sub, as applicable, may assert (subject with respect to the following clauses (ii) and (iii), in all respects to the limitations set forth in Section 8.02 and this Section 9.13): (i) against any Person that is party to, and solely pursuant to the terms and conditions of, the Confidentiality Agreement;
