On February 16, 2018, Avid Technology, Inc. (the "Company") entered into a standstill agreement (the "Agreement") with Cove Street Capital, LLC ("Cove Street"), attached as Exhibit 99.1. Under the Agreement, the Company has agreed, prior to the filing of the Company's definitive proxy statement for its 2018 annual meeting of stockholders (the "2018 Annual Meeting"), to (i) increase the size of its board of directors (the "Board") from eight to nine directors and (ii) appoint Daniel B. Silvers as a Class III director to serve for a term expiring at the Company's 2020 annual meeting of stockholders. Upon his appointment as a director, Mr. Silvers will be offered the opportunity to become a member of the Strategy Committee of the Board. Upon serving as a director for one year, Mr. Silvers will be considered for assignment to either the Company's Compensation Committee or Nominating and Governance Committee. Under the Agreement, Cove Street has agreed that neither it nor any of its affiliates will pay any compensation to Mr. Silvers with respect to his service on the Board or any committee thereof.

In addition, Cove Street has agreed that Mr. Silvers will promptly tender his resignation from the Board (i) upon written notice from the Company that Cove Street materially breached any of its commitments under the Agreement

Pursuant to the Agreement, Cove Street is subject to certain standstill restrictions, which prohibit it from, among other things, (i) engaging in any solicitation of proxies or consents with respect to the election or removal of directors; (ii) forming or joining a “group” (within the meaning of Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”)) with respect to the voting securities of the Company; (iii) making or participating in any tender offer, exchange offer, merger, consolidation, acquisition, business combination, sale of a division, sale of substantially all assets, recapitalization, restructuring, liquidation, dissolution or extraordinary transaction involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries; (iv) seeking, alone or in concert with others, representation on the Board or the removal of any member of the Board; (v) making any stockholder proposal; or (vi) calling a special meeting of stockholders, in each case, subject to certain limited exceptions.

These standstill restrictions terminate upon the earliest to occur of (i) the end of the initial term for which Mr. Silvers is appointed (or such longer period as Mr. Silvers or, in certain circumstances, a replacement director selected pursuant to the Agreement, continues to serve on the Board), (ii) ten calendar days prior to the deadline for the submission of shareholder nominations for the Company’s 2019 annual meeting of stockholders (but only in the event that Mr. Silvers has tendered his resignation on or before such date and such resignation is due to a disagreement with the Board that has been set forth in writing) and (iii) five business days after such date, if any, that Cove Street provides written notice to the Company that the Company materially breached any of its commitments under the Agreement where the Company has not cured such breach within 15 business days after such written notice (such period, the “Standstill Period”). During the Standstill Period, Cove Street has also agreed to vote its shares in favor of the Company’s nominees of existing directors for election to the Board and in accordance with any recommendations of the Board on certain other matters.

The Agreement will terminate upon the expiration of the Standstill Period.
