On September 11, 2011, Global Industries, Ltd., a Louisiana corporation (the Company), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) among the Company, Technip S.A., a société anonyme organized under the laws of France (Parent), and Apollon Merger Sub B, Inc., a Louisiana corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Subsidiary).

The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Merger Subsidiary will merge with and into the Company (the Merger), with the Company surviving the Merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent. At the effective time of the Merger, each outstanding share of common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company (Common Stock) (other than shares held in the treasury of the Company or owned by Parent, Merger Subsidiary or any of their affiliates) will be automatically cancelled and converted into the right to receive $8.00 in cash (the Merger Consideration), (a) each option to purchase shares of Common Stock (whether or not vested, each a Stock Option) will be converted into the right to receive, less applicable withholding taxes, an amount in cash determined by multiplying (i) the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration over the applicable exercise price per share of Common Stock subject to the Stock Option by (ii) the number of shares of Common Stock the holder could have purchased (assuming full vesting of the Stock Option) had such holder exercised such option in full immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, (b) each share of restricted stock will vest and be treated as a share of Common Stock entitled to receive the Merger Consideration, and (c) each performance stock unit with respect of Common Stock (a Performance Unit) will be converted into the right to receive an amount in cash determined by multiplying (i) the Merger Consideration by (ii) the number of shares of Common Stock issuable pursuant to such Performance Unit assuming attainment of the target level of performance (or such other level of performance if provided for in the award agreement underlying such Performance Unit).

The Company has made various representations and warranties and agreed to certain covenants in the Merger Agreement, including covenants relating to the Company's conduct of its business between the date of the Merger Agreement and the effective time of the Merger, public disclosures and other matters.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including (a) approval of the Merger Agreement by the Company's stockholders, (b) expiration or termination of applicable waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, (c) antitrust clearance in Mexico, (d) approval by the Committee on Foreign Investments in the United States under the Exon-Florio Amendment, as amended, (e) the absence of any material adverse effect on the Company's business and (f) other customary closing conditions. Moreover, each party's obligation to consummate the Merger is subject to certain other conditions, including the accuracy of the other party's representations and warranties (subject to certain materiality qualifiers) and the other party's compliance with its covenants and agreements contained in the Merger Agreement (subject to certain materiality qualifiers).

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for the parties, including the right of the Company in certain circumstances to terminate the Merger Agreement and accept a Superior Proposal (as defined in the Merger Agreement). The Merger Agreement also provides that, in certain circumstances, the Company would be required to pay Parent a termination fee of $30 million.

The Merger Agreement has been unanimously approved by the Board of Directors of the Company, and the Board has resolved to recommend that the stockholders of the Company vote in favor of the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated therein.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Merger Agreement has been included to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of that agreement and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company, Parent or Merger Subsidiary or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's public disclosures.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On September 12, 2011, the Company issued a press release relating to the proposed Merger. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Forward-Looking Statements

Statements made in this Current Report on Form 8-K that are forward-looking in nature are intended to be forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements relate to a variety of matters, including but not limited to: the timing and anticipated completion of the proposed transaction and other statements that are not purely statements of historical fact. These forward-looking statements are made on the basis of the current beliefs, expectations and assumptions of the management of the Company and Parent and are subject to significant risks and uncertainty. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on any such forward-looking statements. All such forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made, and, except as required by law, neither the Company nor Parent undertakes any obligation to update or revise such statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements contained herein include, but are not limited to: any operational or cultural difficulties associated with the integration of the businesses of the Company and Parent; potential adverse reactions or changes to business relationships resulting from the announcement or completion of the proposed transaction; unexpected costs, charges or expenses resulting from the proposed transaction; litigation or adverse judgments relating to the proposed transaction; risks relating to the consummation of the contemplated transaction, including the risk that the required stockholder approval might not be obtained in a timely manner or at all or that other closing conditions will not be satisfied; the failure to realize synergies and cost savings from the transaction or delay in realization thereof; any difficulties associated with requests or directions from governmental authorities resulting from their reviews of the transaction; and any changes in general economic and/or industry-specific conditions. Additional factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements are set forth in the documents filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), including the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2010, which identify significant risk factors that could cause actual results to differ from those contained in the forward-looking statements.

Important Additional Information Will Be Filed with the SEC

In connection with the proposed transaction, the Company intends to file a proxy statement and other relevant documents concerning the transaction with the SEC. COMPANY STOCKHOLDERS ARE URGED TO READ THE PROXY STATEMENT AND ANY OTHER RELEVANT DOCUMENTS FILED WITH THE SEC WHEN THEY BECOME AVAILABLE BECAUSE THEY WILL CONTAIN IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THE COMPANY AND THE MERGER. The proxy statement and other documents incorporated by reference in the proxy statement will be available free of charge at the SEC's website at www.sec.gov or by directing a request to Global Industries, Ltd., 11490 Westheimer, Suite 400, Houston, Texas 77077, Attention: Secretary.

The Company and its directors and officers may be deemed participants in the solicitation of proxies in connection with the proposed transaction. Information about the directors and executive officers of the Company is set forth in the Company's most recent definitive proxy statement, which was filed with the SEC on April 5, 2011. Certain directors and executive officers of the Company may have direct or indirect interests in the proposed transaction that may be different from those of the Company's stockholders generally. Investors may obtain additional information regarding such interests by reading the proxy statement and other relevant documents that the Company will file with the SEC when they become available.
