Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 –
A Caution Concerning Forward-Looking Statements

This Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements intended to qualify for the safe harbor from liability established by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including, but not limited to, statements about the Offer. The Company cautions that forward-looking statements, including these, are based on the current beliefs and expectations of our management and are subject to significant risks, uncertainties and assumptions, many of which are beyond the Company's control, that may cause actual results, performance or achievements to differ materially from those expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements for a number of reasons, including, without limitation, risks and uncertainties relating to the Offer. Detailed descriptions of other risks relating to the Company are discussed in the our annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2015 and subsequent filings with the Securities Exchange Commission. The Company intends the forward looking statements to speak only as of the time made and, except as required by law, do not undertake to update or revise them as more information becomes available.
