Each item in this summary refers to the pages where that subject is discussed in greater detail elsewhere in the information statement-prospectus. Union Bank of Florida is a Florida state bank that provides commercial and retail banking services principally in Broward, Dade and Palm Beach Counties, Florida and surrounding areas. As of September 30, 2004, Union's total assets were about $1.0 billion, deposits were about $716.9 million and stockholders' equity was about $80.2 million.

The Transaction (page 9)

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANCGROUP INC - Form S-4

The stock purchase agreement is the document that controls the anticipated sale of all of the stock of Union to Colonial BancGroup. We encourage you to read the entire stock purchase agreement, which is attached as Appendix A.

The stock purchase agreement provides for the following:

UB Financial Corporation will sell all of the stock of Union Bank of Florida to Colonial BancGroup. The total purchase price for Union's stock will consist of $174,750,000 in cash and approximately $58,250,000 in BancGroup common stock. The amount of stock that BancGroup will issue is subject to a minimum number of 2,647,727 shares and a maximum number of 3,236,111 shares.

Table of Contents

Additionally, in the event that the transaction is not completed prior to March 16, 2005, then the total consideration will be increased on a per diem basis in a manner designed to pay UB Financial an agreed rate of return on the total purchase consideration up and until the transaction is completed.

Colonial BancGroup will not issue fractional shares in the transaction. If the number of shares UB Financial is to receive is not a whole number, it will receive cash instead of the fractional share based on the market value of Colonial BancGroup common stock. The market value of Colonial BancGroup common stock is determined by an average of closing prices for Colonial BancGroup stock during a fixed period before the transaction.

Comparative Market Prices (page 21)

Colonial BancGroup's common stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange. On September 27, 2004, the last trading day before we announced the signing of the stock purchase agreement, the closing price of Colonial BancGroup's common stock was $20.17.

There is no trading of Union's common stock. Therefore, the value of the stock can only be determined from information contained in Union's financial statements. The book value of a share of Union's stock on September 27, 2004, the date we signed the stock purchase agreement, was approximately $82,585 per share.

The following table summarizes the comparative values of the two stocks just before the stock purchase agreement was signed and the Colonial BancGroup equivalent price per share of Union common stock.

	Colonial BancGroup(1)	Union(2)	Equivalent price per Union share(3)
	$20.17	$ 82,585.00	$ 239,958.80

(1) Closing price on September 27, 2004.

(2) Book value of a share of Union Bank stock on September 27, 2004.

(3) If the transaction had closed on September 27, 2004, UB Financial would have received 2,974 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock and a cash payment of approximately $179,973.24 for each share of Union common stock.

Our Reasons for the Transaction (page 9)

We believe that the sale of Union is in your best interest. We considered a number of factors in deciding to approve and recommend the terms of the stock purchase agreement to you. These factors include the following:

The overall terms of the proposed transaction, including consideration consisting of approximately 75% cash and 25% Colonial BancGroup stock.

Colonial BancGroup has paid dividends to its stockholders for the past 15 years and its stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange.

If the stock sale is delayed and does not close prior to March 16, 2005, the total consideration paid to UB Financial will be increased so that UB Financial will receive an agreed upon rate of return on the total consideration until the stock sale is completed.

As is the case with all community banks, Union has been subject to increased regulatory burdens and subject to increased expenses for risk management, training and compliance. With economies of scale, larger banking organizations, such as Colonial BancGroup, have the necessary software and centrally imbedded systems to be compliant with increasing banking regulation in a more economical manner than Union.

Colonial BancGroup has completed approximately 50 mergers and has significant experience in making the transaction seamless for customers and stockholders.

Although the stock purchase agreement provides for a $10,000,000 break-up fee if the transaction is not consummated and Union is acquired by another company, the board reserves the right to consider and negotiate any superior offer.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the UB Financial board is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered. In view of the variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the transaction and the offer price, the UB Financial board did not find it practicable to, and did not, quantify or otherwise assign relative weight to the specific factors considered in reaching its determinations and recommendations, and individual directors may have given differing weight to different factors.

The Approval (page 8)

We have obtained approval of the stock purchase agreement from the shareholders of UB Financial by unanimous written consent dated September 27, 2004.

Vote Required (page 8)

The affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding voting shares will be sufficient to approve the stock purchase agreement, however we anticipate that the approval will be unanimous. There are presently outstanding 1,064 shares of UB Financial common stock, 53 of which are outstanding shares of voting common stock. All of the shareholders of UB Financial have voted their shares in favor of the stock purchase agreement.

Exchange of Certificates (page 12)

At the closing of the transaction, UB Financial will transfer the Union stock certificates to Colonial BancGroup. Either at the closing or shortly thereafter, Colonial BancGroup will issue stock certificates to UB Financial.

Conditions to Completion of the Transaction (page 13)

The completion of the transaction depends on meeting a number of conditions, including the following:

all required regulatory approvals must be received, and any waiting periods must have passed;

there must be no governmental order blocking completion of the transaction, and no proceedings by a government body trying to block the transaction;

the New York Stock Exchange must approve the Colonial BancGroup common stock to be issued in the transaction for listing;

the completion of the transaction before June 30, 2005; and the receipt of certain professional opinions.

Unless prohibited by law, either UB Financial or Colonial BancGroup could elect to waive a condition that has not been satisfied and complete the transaction anyway. We cannot be certain whether or when any of these conditions will be satisfied, or waived where permissible, or that we will complete the transaction.

Termination of the Stock Purchase Agreement (page 14)

Colonial BancGroup and UB Financial can agree at any time to terminate the stock purchase agreement before completing the transaction, even if the stockholders of UB Financial have already voted to approve it.

Either company can also terminate the stock purchase agreement:

if the other party has materially breached the stock purchase agreement and has not cured the breach;

if the transaction has not been completed by June 30, 2005 (provided that the failure to complete has not been caused by the breach of the company electing to terminate); or if UB Financial enters into a binding agreement with any third party to merge with, or sell control to, that third party. In that event, Colonial BancGroup will have the right to receive a payment of $10,000,000 from UB Financial or its acquirer.

Federal Income Tax Consequences (page 12)

We expect that UB Financial will recognize gain for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of the transaction. Because UB Financial is a Subchapter S corporation, this gain will flow through to the shareholders of UB Financial.

Determining the actual tax consequences to you as an individual taxpayer can be complicated. The overall tax treatment applicable to you will depend on your specific situation and many variables not within our control. You should consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the transaction's tax consequences to you.

The transaction will be accounted for as a purchase by Colonial BancGroup. The purchase price will be allocated to the fair value of the net tangible and identifiable intangible assets acquired, with any amounts in excess thereof being assigned to goodwill. Goodwill will be capitalized unless and until it is deemed to be impaired, in which case the impairment will be measured and any such amount will be charged against current earnings.

Interests of Persons Involved in the Transaction that are Different from Yours (page 10)

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANCGROUP INC - Form S-4

Certain directors, executive officers and employees of Union have interests in the transaction that are different from your interests. These differing interests include the following:

Union currently indemnifies its directors and officers against loss from claims arising out of their position with Union. Colonial BancGroup will, subject to some limitations, continue to indemnify those persons against claims made within six years after the completion of the transaction that arise out of actions or omissions occurring upon or prior to the completion of the transaction.

Upon completion of the transaction, Union employees will either become employees of Colonial BancGroup or one of its subsidiaries and become eligible for Colonial BancGroup's employee benefits. For employees of Union other than the one named below who will be subject to separate employment agreements with Colonial BancGroup, former Union employees who are terminated after the completion of the transaction will be eligible to receive severance benefits under Colonial BancGroup's severance policy.

Lynne Wines has entered into an employment agreement with Colonial Bank that will become effective when and if the transaction is completed.

Table of Contents

Each of Lynne Wines, Russ Holland, Bill Kelly, Jim Kidder, Rita Lowman, Carla Pollard and Raul Valdez-Fauli is a party to a Change in Control Agreement with Union pursuant to which each of them will receive a change of control payment upon completion of the transaction.

Dissenters Rights

A sale of substantially all of the assets of a corporation triggers dissenters rights of appraisal under Florida law for all shareholders entitled to vote on the transaction. Accordingly, under Florida law, the shareholders of UB Financial entitled to vote on the stock sale, which constitutes a sale by UB Financial of substantially all of its assets, would have dissenters rights. However, UB Financial has only one shareholder entitled to vote on the transaction (the Voting Shareholder). Because the Voting Shareholder is the only shareholder entitled to vote on the transaction and because the Voting Shareholder has already approved the stock purchase agreement, no dissenters rights are triggered by the stock sale.

Information

Colonial BancGroup has supplied all information contained or incorporated by reference in this information statement-prospectus relating to Colonial BancGroup, as well as all pro forma financial information, and UB Financial has supplied all relevant information relating to Union.

BancGroup expects to use the net proceeds it receives from any offering of these securities to fund one or more acquisitions or for general corporate purposes, which may include funding its operating units and subsidiaries, financing business expansion, refinancing or extending the maturity of existing debt obligations, investments at the holding company level and stock repurchases.

When considering those forward-looking statements, you should keep in mind the risks, uncertainties and other cautionary statements made in this information statement-prospectus. changes which may occur in the regulatory environment;

a significant rate of inflation or deflation; acts of terrorism, such as the events of September 11, 2001, and war; and changes in the securities markets.

Many of these factors are beyond our control and beyond the control of Colonial BancGroup. For a discussion of factors that could cause Colonial BancGroup's actual results to differ, please see the discussions in the sections entitled "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2003 and its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the periods ended March 31, 2004, June 30, 2004 and September 30, 2004.

THE TRANSACTION

The following sets forth a summary of the material provisions of the stock purchase agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. The description does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the stock purchase agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Appendix A. All UB Financial stockholders are urged to read the stock purchase agreement and the Appendix in their entirety.

General

The stock purchase agreement provides that, subject to approval by the stockholders of UB Financial, receipt of necessary regulatory approvals and satisfaction of certain other conditions described below at Conditions to Consummation of the Transaction, all of the stock of Union will be sold to Colonial BancGroup. Upon completion of the transaction, Union will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Colonial BancGroup.

Background of the Transaction

The UB Financial Board of Directors has periodically reviewed strategic options for UB Financial as part of its corporate governance responsibilities, including strategies to grow UB Financial's business through new business initiatives and through acquisitions of other financial institutions. These strategic discussions also included the possibility of business combinations involving UB Financial and larger financial institutions, particularly in view of the increasing competition, continuing consolidation and other developments in the financial services industry.

In June, 2004, two investment banking firms presented the current condition of the financial institution merger and acquisition market and Union's strategic options to the UB Financial Board of Directors. Among other items, the Board discussed Union's ability to enhance profitability and shareholder investment, Union's historical and future growth opportunities and the possible sale or merger with another financial institution. Based on the analysis and recommendations and based on the values that the UB Financial Board believed might be obtainable in a business combination transaction with Union, UB Financial engaged Hovde Financial LLC (Hovde) to act as financial advisor in connection with the potential sale of interest in Union to, or affiliation with another entity or financial institution.

Pursuant to this engagement, in July and August, Hovde prepared materials describing Union and the value it presented to a potential acquiror. During that period, the identity of potential acquirors was discussed and a list finalized of those companies that would be contacted by Hovde. These companies were provided information (pursuant to a confidentiality agreement) and various levels of discussions were held with each regarding the potential for a suitable transaction with such company and Union. Thereafter, certain of these companies conveyed to UB Financial and its representative their interest in pursuing a transaction with Union. After receipt of these indications of interest, and giving careful consideration to the entirety of the proposals, including the consideration proposed to be paid in connection with the transaction (and the form and characteristics thereof), UB Financial believed its overall objectives were most likely to be achieved by pursuing a transaction with Colonial.

In September, Colonial BancGroup began a comprehensive due diligence review and Union's management together with its legal and financial advisors began discussions with Colonial BancGroup's management and its legal and financial advisors concerning the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement. On September 27, 2004, the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement and a potential merger agreement between Colonial

Bank and Union were presented and approved by UB Financial's and Union's Boards of Directors. The transaction was announced on September 28, 2004 by a joint press release issued by Colonial BancGroup and Union prior to the open of trading on the NYSE.

UB Financial's Reasons for the Transaction

On September 27, 2004, the board of directors of UB Financial and the Voting Shareholder unanimously approved and adopted the stock purchase agreement. The board of directors of UB Financial believes that the stock sale and the terms and provisions of the stock purchase agreement are fair to and in the best interests of the UB Financial stockholders.

Table of Contents

In reaching its decision to adopt and recommend approval of the stock purchase agreement, the board of directors considered a number of factors, including the following:

The overall terms of the proposed transaction, including consideration consisting of approximately 75% cash and 25% Colonial BancGroup stock.

Colonial BancGroup has paid dividends to its stockholders for the past 15 years and its stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange.

If the stock sale is delayed and does not close prior to March 16, 2005, the total consideration paid to UB Financial will be increased so that UB Financial will receive an agreed upon rate of return on the total consideration until the stock sale is completed.

As is the case with all community banks, Union has been subject to increased regulatory burdens and subject to increased expenses for risk management, training and compliance. With economies of scale, larger banking organizations, such as Colonial BancGroup, have the necessary software and centrally imbedded systems to be compliant with increasing banking regulation in a more economical manner than Union.

Colonial BancGroup has completed approximately 50 mergers and has significant experience in making the transaction as seamless as possible for customers and stockholders.

Although the stock purchase agreement provides for a $10,000,000 break-up fee if the transaction is not consummated and Union is acquired by another company, the board reserves the right to consider and negotiate any superior offer.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the UB Financial board is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered. In view of the variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the transaction and the offer price, the UB Financial board did not find it practicable to, and did not, quantify or otherwise assign relative weight to the specific factors considered in reaching its determinations and recommendations, and individual directors may have given differing weight to different factors.

Colonial BancGroup's Reasons for the Transaction

The Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of Colonial BancGroup has unanimously approved the transaction and the stock purchase agreement. The transaction will allow Colonial BancGroup to expand its banking operations in the Dade, Broward and Palm Beach market areas. Colonial BancGroup currently operates a commercial bank with 123 branches in Florida. The Board of Directors of Colonial BancGroup believes that the acquisition of Union is consistent with its current expansion strategy.

In approving the transaction and the stock purchase agreement, the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of Colonial BancGroup took into account: (i) the financial performance and condition of Union, including its capital and asset quality; (ii) similarities in the philosophies of Colonial BancGroup and Union, including the commitment of Union to delivering high quality personalized financial services to its customers; and (iii) the extensive knowledge of, and experience in, the Broward, Miami-Dade and Palm Beach Florida market areas that has been demonstrated by the management of Union.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Transaction

Certain members of the management and the Boards of Directors of Union or UB Financial may be deemed to have certain interests in the transaction in addition to any interest as stockholders of UB Financial generally. The Board of Directors of UB Financial was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in unanimously approving the stock purchase agreement.

Employees. Upon completion of the transaction, Union employees will either become employees of Colonial BancGroup or one of its subsidiaries and become eligible for Colonial BancGroup's employee benefits. If an employee of Union is terminated, such employee will generally be entitled to receive severance benefits under Colonial BancGroup's severance policy.

Colonial Bank has entered into an employment agreement with Lynne Wines that will become effective when and if the transaction is completed. The agreement provides for a initial term of employment of four years, but renews itself each year for one year at the end of the initial term, and a base annual salary of not less than $400,000. Ms. Wines will be eligible to receive discretionary bonuses. The employment agreement provides that Ms. Wines will be entitled to receive such benefits and perquisites that are typically provided to senior regional executives of Colonial Bank, and that Colonial Bank's management will recommend to the compensation committee of Colonial BancGroup an award to Ms. Wines of options to purchase 50,000 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock at the market value on the date of grant. The employment agreement contains a covenant generally prohibiting Ms. Wines from competing against Colonial Bank in certain market areas or soliciting Colonial Bank's customers and employees for a period ending at the later of one year following the termination of her employment or four years following the completion of the transaction.

Each of Lynne Wines, Russ Holland, Bill Kelly, Jim Kidder, Rita Lowman, Carla Pollard and Raul Valdez-Fauli is a party to a Change in Control Agreement with Union pursuant to which each of them will receive a change of control payment upon completion of the transaction. The aggregate amount that will be paid pursuant to these Change of Control Agreements is approximately $9,201,375.

Indemnification. Under the stock purchase agreement, Colonial BancGroup has agreed to indemnify the directors and officers of Union against claims made within six years after the completion of the transaction that arise out of actions or omissions occurring upon or prior to the completion of the transaction, to the extent that Union would have been authorized under Florida law, or under its Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, to indemnify such persons.

Purchase of Union Common Stock

The stock purchase agreement provides for the sale of all of the stock of Union to Colonial BancGroup. At the completion of the transaction, each share of Union common stock outstanding will be owned by Colonial BancGroup. As consideration for the transaction, Colonial BancGroup will pay UB Financial $174,750,000 in cash and approximately $58,250,000 in Colonial BancGroup common stock for all of the stock of Union. Assuming that Union has 971 shares of common stock issued and outstanding, then, for each share of Union common stock, UB Financial will receive approximately $179,969.10 in cash and $59,989.70 divided by the Market Value in shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock. The Market Value is determined by calculating the average of the closing prices of the BancGroup common stock as reported by the New York Stock Exchange on each of the fifteen consecutive trading days ending on the trading day five trading days immediately preceding the closing date. Regardless of the Market Value, however, the maximum number of shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock to be issued in the transaction shall be 3,236,111 (based upon a minimum Market Value of $18.00) and the minimum number of shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock to be issued in the transaction shall be 2,647,727 (based upon a maximum Market Value of $22.00).

Additionally, in the event that the transaction is not completed prior to March 16, 2005, then on the date that the transaction is completed, the cash consideration will be increased by an amount equal to the sum of (a) $58,250,000 times 3.1% divided by 360 which equals approximately $5,015.97 times the number of days from March 15, 2005 to the date that the transaction is completed plus (b) $174,750,000 times the prime rate as determined by the Wall Street Journal on a daily basis divided by 360 times the number of days from March 15, 2005 to the date that the transaction is completed.

No fractional shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock will be issued in connection with the transaction. If UB Financial is otherwise entitled to receive a fractional share of Colonial BancGroup common stock, it will receive instead a cash payment (without interest) equal to such fractional interest multiplied by the Market Value of the Colonial BancGroup common stock at the time of the transaction.

The stock purchase agreement provides that if, prior to the date the transaction is effective, Colonial BancGroup common stock is changed into a different number of shares or a different class of shares by reason of any recapitalization or reclassification, stock dividend, combination, stock split, or reverse stock split of the Colonial BancGroup common stock, an appropriate and proportionate adjustment will be made in the number of shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock that are issued pursuant to the stock purchase agreement.

Surrender of Union Common Stock Certificates

On the date the transaction is completed and subject to the conditions described at Conditions to Consummation of the Transaction, UB Financial will deliver all of the stock certificates representing the outstanding shares of Union to Colonial BancGroup.

Certain Federal Income Tax Consequences

The transaction described in the Stock Purchase Agreement will be a taxable transaction for federal income tax purposes. Although Colonial BancGroup will, in fact, purchase all the stock of Union, for federal income tax purposes, the transaction will be treated as an asset sale under Section 1.1361-5(b)(3), example 9 of the Treasury Regulations (the Regulations) as described further below.

UB Financial is a Subchapter S corporation as defined in Section 1361 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code). Union is a Qualified Subchapter S Subsidiary (QSub) under Section 1361(b)(3) of the Code. The Regulations provide that when a Subchapter S corporation makes a valid QSub election with respect to a subsidiary, the subsidiary is deemed to have liquidated into the parent Subchapter S corporation. Consequently, as a QSub, all of Union's assets, liabilities, and items of income, deduction, and credit are treated as assets, liabilities and such items (as the case may be) of UB Financial.

The Code and Regulations further provide for the tax treatment of a sale of the stock of a QSub. First, under Section 1361(b)(3)(C) of the Code, Union's QSub status will terminate. Union would be treated as a new corporation acquiring all of its assets (and assuming all of its liabilities) from U. B. Financial in exchange for stock of Union immediately before the termination. Second, under the Regulations the tax treatment of this transaction is determined under the Code and general principles of tax law, including the step transaction doctrine.

Under Section 1.1361-5(b)(3), example 9 of the Regulations when an S corporation such as UB Financial sells 100% of its stock in a QSub to an unrelated C corporation such as Colonial BancGroup, the deemed formation of the new subsidiary by UB Financial (as a consequence of the termination of Union's QSub status) is disregarded for federal income tax purposes. Rather the transaction is treated as a sale by U. B. financial of the assets of Union to Colonial BancGroup, followed by a transfer by Colonial BancGroup of these assets to the capital of Union in exchange for the stock of Union Bank. Thus, while Colonial BancGroup is purchasing the stock of Union from UB Financial, the transaction will be treated as an asset sale by UB Financial, followed by a transfer by BancGroup of these assets to Union in exchange for Union stock.

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANCGROUP INC - Form S-4

As a general rule, Subchapter S corporations, such as UB Financial, are not subject to a corporate level federal income tax. Rather, under Section 1366(a)(1) of the Code an S corporation's items of income, loss, deduction or credit are allocated to the shareholders of the S corporation, pro rata. Thus, the gain or loss recognized by UB Financial on the sale of the Union assets will be allocated to the shareholders of UB Financial, pro rata. Each UB Financial stockholder will be required to report on such stockholder's federal income tax return the gain or loss allocated to that stockholder. The character of the gain or loss will be based on the character of each of the Union assets. The amount of the gain or loss will be measured by the difference between the sum of the cash and the fair market value of Colonial BancGroup common stock received by UB Financial, and the tax basis of the Union assets.

As noted above, the general rule is that Subchapter S corporations, such as UB Financial, are not liable for a corporate level tax. An exception to this rule is the built in gain (BIG) tax of Section 1374 of the Code. Section 1374 provides that, if a corporation operates as a C corporation, and then elects to be treated as a Subchapter S corporation, the corporation will be liable for a corporate level tax on the sale of any appreciated assets held on the day of the conversion from a C corporation to a Subchapter S corporation, if the sale occurs within ten (10) years of the conversion. Thus, UB Financial which originally operated as a C corporation, and subsequently converted to a Subchapter S corporation, will be subject to the BIG tax of Section 1374 of the Code with respect to certain of its assets.

Although Colonial BancGroup is purchasing the stock of Union, the basis of the Union assets subsequent to said purchase should be equal to the sum of the amount of cash and the fair market value of the Colonial BancGroup common stock paid by Colonial BancGroup for said Union stock. As noted above, Section 1.1361-5(b)(3), example 9 of the Regulations provides that for federal income tax purposes, the transaction contemplated in the Stock Purchase Agreement should be treated as a sale of the Union assets from UB Financial to Colonial BancGroup followed by a transfer of these assets to Union Bank in exchange for Union stock. Thus, the basis of the Union assets subsequent to this transaction should be the cost basis of said assets as provided under Section 1012 of the Code. Such cost basis will be allocated among the Union assets in accordance with Section 1060 of the Code. Consequently, some portion of the cost basis likely will be allocated to Goodwill, which may be amortized for tax purposes, over fifteen (15) years, on a straight line basis.

THE FORGOING DISCUSSION IS INTENDED ONLY AS A SUMMARY OF MATERIAL FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THE STOCKHOLDERS OF UB FINANCIAL, TO UB FINANCIAL AND TO BANGROUP OF THE SALE BY U.B. FINANCIAL OF ITS STOCK IN UNION TO COLONIAL BANGROUP AND DOES NOT PURPORT TO BE A COMPLETE DESCRIPTION OF ALL POTENTIAL TAX EFFECTS OF THE TRANSACTION. THE DISCUSSION DOES NOT ADDRESS THE TAX CONSEQUENCES THAT MAY BE RELEVANT TO A PARTICULAR STOCKHOLDER SUBJECT TO SPECIAL TREATMENT UNDER CERTAIN FEDERAL INCOME TAX LAWS, SUCH AS DEALERS IN SECURITIES, BANKS, INSURANCE COMPANIES, TAX EXEMPT ORGANIZATIONS, NON-UNITED STATES PERSONS, STOCKHOLDERS WHO DO NOT HOLD THEIR SHARES OF UB FINANCIAL COMMON STOCK AS CAPITAL ASSETS WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 1221 OF THE CODE, AND STOCKHOLDERS WHO ACQUIRED THEIR SHARES OF UB FINANCIAL COMMON STOCK PURSUANT TO THE EXERCISE OF OPTIONS OR OTHERWISE AS COMPENSATION, NOR ANY CONSEQUENCES ARISING UNDER THE LAWS OF ANY STATE, LOCALITY OR FOREIGN JURISDICTION.

THE DISCUSSION IS BASED UPON THE CODE, TREASURY REGULATIONS THEREUNDER AND ADMINISTRATIVE RULINGS AND COURT DECISIONS AS OF THE DATE HEREOF. ALL OF THE FOREGOING IS SUBJECT TO CHANGE, AND ANY SUCH CHANGE COULD AFFECT THE CONTINUING VALIDITY OF THIS DISCUSSION. UB FINANCIAL STOCKHOLDERS ARE URGED TO CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS CONCERNING THE PARTICULAR FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND FOREIGN TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE TRANSACTION TO THEM.

Other Possible Consequences

If the transaction is consummated, the stockholder of Union will become a stockholder of Colonial BancGroup. For a discussion of the differences, if any, in the rights, preferences, and privileges attaching to Union common stock as compared with Colonial BancGroup common stock, see Comparative Rights of Stockholders.

Conditions to Consummation of the Transaction

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANGROUP INC - Form S-4

The parties' respective obligations to consummate the transaction are subject to the satisfaction (or waiver, to the extent permitted by law) of various conditions set forth in the stock purchase agreement.

Table of Contents

The obligations of UB Financial and Colonial BancGroup to consummate the transaction are conditioned upon, among other things, (i) the notification to, or approval of the transaction by, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency and the Florida Department of Financial Regulation; (ii) the absence of pending or threatened litigation with a view to restraining or prohibiting consummation of the transaction or to obtain divestiture, rescission or damages in connection with the transaction; (iii) the absence of any investigation by any governmental agency which might result in any such proceeding; (iv) consummation of the transaction no later than June 30, 2005; and (v) receipt of opinions of counsel regarding certain matters. The stock purchase agreement permits the parties to waive, in writing, conditions for the consummation of the transaction other than those required by law.

The obligation of UB Financial to consummate the transaction is further subject to several other conditions, including: (i) the absence of any material adverse change in the financial condition or affairs of Colonial BancGroup; (ii) the shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock to be issued under the stock purchase agreement being approved for listing on the NYSE; and (iii) the accuracy in all material respects of the representations and warranties of Colonial BancGroup contained in the stock purchase agreement and the performance by Colonial BancGroup of all of its covenants and agreements under the stock purchase agreement.

The obligation of Colonial BancGroup to consummate the transaction is subject to several other conditions, including: (i) the absence of any material adverse change in the financial condition or affairs of Union; (ii) the accuracy in all material respects of the representations and warranties of Union and UB Financial contained in the stock purchase agreement, (iv) the performance by Union and UB Financial of all of their covenants and agreements under the stock purchase agreement, including certain restrictions on Union's conduct of its business; and (v) the receipt of the consent to the transaction and assignment of leases of Union's offices.

It is anticipated that the foregoing conditions, as well as certain other conditions contained in the stock purchase agreement, such as the receipt of certificates of officers of each party as to compliance with the stock purchase agreement and satisfaction of each party of all representations, warranties and covenants, will either be satisfied or waived by the parties. The stock purchase agreement provides that each of UB Financial and Colonial BancGroup may waive all conditions to its respective obligation to consummate the transaction, other than the receipt of the requisite approvals of regulatory authorities. In making any decision regarding a waiver of one or more conditions to consummation of the transaction or an amendment of the stock purchase agreement, the Boards of Directors of UB Financial and Colonial BancGroup would be subject to the fiduciary duty standards imposed upon such boards by relevant law that would require such boards to act in the best interests of their respective stockholders.

Amendment or Termination of the Stock Purchase Agreement

To the extent permitted by law, the stock purchase agreement may be amended by a subsequent writing signed by each of the parties upon the approval of the Boards of Directors of each of the parties. However, after approval of the stock purchase agreement by the holders of UB Financial common stock, no amendment decreasing the consideration to be received by UB Financial may be made without the further approval of such stockholders. The stock purchase agreement may be terminated at any time prior to or on the date the transaction is to be completed, whether before or after approval of the stock purchase agreement by the stockholders of UB Financial, by the mutual consent of the respective Boards of Directors of UB Financial and Colonial BancGroup or by the Board of Directors of either Colonial BancGroup or UB Financial under certain circumstances including, but not limited to: (i) a material breach which cannot or has not been cured within 30 days of notice of such breach being given by the non-breaching party, (ii) failure to consummate the transactions contemplated under the stock purchase agreement by June 30, 2005, provided that such failure to consummate is not caused by any breach of the stock purchase agreement by the party electing to terminate and (iii) if UB Financial or Union enters into a binding agreement with any third party to merge with, or sell control to, that third party, in which event Colonial BancGroup will have the right to receive a payment of $10,000,000 from UB Financial.

Commitment with Respect to Other Offers

Until the earlier of the date the transaction is effective or, subject to certain limitations, the termination of the stock purchase agreement, neither UB Financial, Union nor any of their directors or officers (or any person representing any of the foregoing) may solicit or encourage inquiries or proposals with respect to, furnish any information relating to or participate in any negotiations or discussions concerning, any acquisition or purchase of all or of a substantial portion of the assets of, or of a substantial equity interest in, Union or any business combination involving UB Financial or Union (collectively, an Acquisition Proposal) other than as contemplated by the stock purchase agreement. UB Financial is required to notify Colonial BancGroup immediately if any such inquiries or proposals are received by UB Financial or Union, if any such information is requested from UB Financial or Union, or if any such negotiations or discussions are sought to be initiated with UB Financial or Union. UB Financial and Union are required to instruct their officers, directors, agents or affiliates or their subsidiaries to refrain from doing any of the above. UB Financial may communicate information about an Acquisition Proposal to its stockholders if and to the extent that UB Financial's legal counsel advises UB Financial that it is required to do so in order to comply with its legal obligations.

If UB Financial or Union enters into a letter of intent or a definitive agreement to be acquired by any party other than Colonial BancGroup prior to the closing of the transaction or the termination of the stock purchase agreement, or, under certain circumstances, if UB Financial or Union is acquired by a party other than Colonial BancGroup within 18 months after the termination of the stock purchase agreement, then Colonial BancGroup will be entitled to receive a payment of $10,000,000. Such payment will compensate Colonial BancGroup for its direct and indirect costs and expenses associated with pursuing the transaction and Colonial BancGroup's loss as a result of the failure to complete the transaction. The termination fee may also have the effect of increasing the likelihood that the transaction will be consummated by making it more difficult and expensive for any third party to acquire control of UB Financial or Union while Colonial BancGroup is seeking to consummate the transaction.

Regulatory Approvals

Section 6.2 of the stock purchase agreement provides that as a condition to closing, approvals, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Colonial BancGroup and UB Financial, shall have been entered by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System and other appropriate bank regulatory agencies granting the authority necessary for the consummation of the stock purchase transaction contemplated by the stock purchase agreement and the possible merger of Union with and into Colonial Bank (the Bank Merger), if such Bank Merger is desired by Colonial Bank.

An application must be filed with the Federal Reserve pursuant to Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended (the BHCA) and the regulations promulgated pursuant thereto for its prior approval of Colonial BancGroup's acquisition of the stock of Union. In addition, approval of Colonial BancGroup's acquisition of the stock of Union must be obtained from the Florida Department of Financial Services (the Florida Department). It is anticipated that these applications will be filed on or about November 10, 2004.

In order to be in a position to consummate the Bank Merger should Colonial BancGroup decide to effect it, it will be necessary to obtain the prior approval of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (the OCC) and notice of the Bank Merger must be filed with the Florida Department. With respect to the Bank Merger, it is anticipated that an application will be filed with the OCC, and a notification will be filed with the Florida Department, on or about November 10, 2004.

Federal Reserve Approval. Pursuant to Section 3 of the BHCA, and the regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, the approval of the Federal Reserve must be obtained prior to Colonial BancGroup acquiring the stock of Union. The Federal Reserve must withhold approval of the transaction if it finds that the transaction will result in a monopoly or be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or attempt to monopolize the business of banking in any part of the United States. In addition, the Federal Reserve may not approve the transaction if it finds that the effect thereof may be substantially to lessen competition in any section of the country, or tend to create a monopoly, or would in any other manner be in restraint of trade, unless it finds that the anti-competitive effects of the transaction are clearly outweighed by the probable effect of the transaction in meeting the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. The Federal Reserve will also take into consideration, among other factors, the financial condition, managerial resources and effectiveness in combating money laundering activities of Colonial BancGroup, its subsidiaries, and Union. The Federal Reserve will consider the convenience and needs of the communities to be served and the compliance records of Colonial Bank and Union under the Community Reinvestment Act.

In addition, the Federal Reserve is expressly permitted to approve applications under Section 3 of the BHCA for a bank holding company that is adequately capitalized and adequately managed to acquire control of a bank located in a state other than the home state of such bank holding company (an Interstate Acquisition), without regard to whether such transaction is prohibited under the law of any state.

The Federal Reserve is prohibited from approving an Interstate Acquisition under certain circumstances. For example, it may not approve an Interstate Acquisition if the acquiring bank holding company controls, or upon consummation of the acquisition, would control, more than 10% of the total amount of deposits of insured depository institutions in the United States. Subject to certain exceptions, the Federal Reserve may not approve an application pertaining to an Interstate Acquisition if, among other things, the bank holding company, upon consummation of the acquisition, would control 30% or more of the total amount of deposits of insured depository institutions in the state where the target bank is located.

The Federal Reserve's regulations provide for the publication of notice and public comment on the application and authorize the Federal Reserve to permit interested parties to intervene in the proceedings. If an interested party is permitted to intervene, such intervention could delay the regulatory approval required for consummation of the transaction. Section 11 of the BHCA imposes a waiting period which prohibits the consummation of the transaction, in ordinary circumstances, for a period ranging from 15 to 30 days following the Federal Reserve's approval of the transaction. During such period, the United States Department of Justice, should it object to the transaction for antitrust reasons, may challenge the consummation of the transaction.

Florida Department Approval. The Florida Department must approve the change of control of Union which would result from Colonial BancGroup's acquisition of the stock of Union from UB Financial. Under section 658.28 of the Florida Banking Code, the Florida Department shall issue a Certificate of Approval for a change in control of a Florida state bank only after it has made an investigation and has determined that the proposed new owner of a controlling interest of such Florida state bank is qualified by reputation, character, experience and financial responsibility to control and operate the bank in a legal and proper manner and that the interest of the other shareholders, if any, and the depositors and creditors of the bank and the interest of the public generally will not be jeopardized by the proposed change in ownership, controlling interest or management.

OCC Approval. Pursuant to Section 18(c) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (the Bank Merger Act) and OCC regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, the OCC's prior approval of the Bank Merger must be obtained should Colonial BancGroup decide to directly merge Union with and into Colonial Bank. The OCC is prohibited from approving the Bank Merger if it would result in a monopoly or would be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or to attempt to monopolize the business of banking in any part of the United States. In addition, the OCC is prohibited from approving the Bank Merger if its effect, in any section of the country, would be substantially to lessen competition, or to tend to create a monopoly, or which in any other manner would be in restraint of trade, unless it finds that the anti-competitive effects of the Bank Merger are clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of the Bank Merger in meeting the convenience and needs of the community to be served. The OCC is required to take into consideration the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of the existing and proposed institutions, and the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. The OCC will consider the compliance records of the applicant bank and target bank under the Community Reinvestment Act and the effectiveness of the institutions in combating money laundering activities.

In that the Bank Merger constitutes an interstate bank merger, certain additional requirements are applicable to the Bank Merger. For example, the OCC is prohibited from approving the Bank Merger if the bank resulting from the Bank Merger, including all insured depository institutions which are affiliates of such resulting bank, upon consummation of the transaction, would control more than 10% of the total amount of deposits of insured depository institutions in the United States. The OCC is also prohibited from approving the Bank Merger if either party to the Bank Merger has a branch in any state in which any other bank involved in the Bank Merger has a branch, and the resulting bank, upon consummation of the Bank Merger, would control 30% or more of the total amount of deposits of insured depository institutions in any such state. Finally, the OCC may approve the interstate bank merger only if each bank involved in the transaction is adequately capitalized as of the date the application is filed, and the OCC determines that the resulting bank will continue to be adequately capitalized and adequately managed upon consummation of the Bank Merger.

The Bank Merger Act and the OCC regulations promulgated pursuant thereto provide for the publication of notice and public comment on the application and authorize the OCC to permit interested parties to intervene in the proceedings. If an interested party is permitted to intervene, such intervention could delay the regulatory approval required for consummation of the Bank Merger. The Bank Merger Act imposes a waiting period which prohibits consummation of the Bank Merger, in ordinary circumstances, for a period ranging from 15 to 30 days following the OCC's approval of the Bank Merger. During such period, the United States Department of Justice, should it object to the Bank Merger for antitrust reasons, may challenge the consummation of the Bank Merger.

The stock purchase agreement provides that the obligation of each of Colonial BancGroup and UB Financial to consummate the transaction is conditioned upon the receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals. There can be no assurance that the applications necessary for Colonial BancGroup to consummate the transaction will be approved, and, if such approvals are received, that such approvals will not be conditioned upon terms and conditions that would cause the parties to abandon the transaction.

Any approval received from bank regulatory agencies reflects only their view that the transaction does not contravene applicable competitive standards imposed by law, and that the transaction is consistent with regulatory policies relating to safety and soundness. THE APPROVAL OF THE BANK REGULATORY AGENCIES IS NOT AN ENDORSEMENT OR RECOMMENDATION OF THE TRANSACTION.

Colonial BancGroup is not aware of any governmental approvals or actions that may be required for consummation of the transaction except for the approvals described above. Should any such approval or action be required, it is presently contemplated that such approval or action would be sought.

Conduct of Business Pending the Transaction

The stock purchase agreement contains certain restrictions on the conduct of the business of Union pending completion of the transaction. The stock purchase agreement prohibits Union from taking, without the prior written consent of Colonial BancGroup, any of the following actions, prior to the completion of the transaction, subject to certain limited exceptions previously agreed to by Colonial BancGroup and Union:

(i) Issuing, delivering or agreeing to issue or deliver any stock, bonds or other corporate securities (whether authorized and unissued or held in the treasury);

(iv) Declaring or making or agreeing to declare or make, any payment of dividends or distributions of any assets of any kind whatsoever to stockholders, or purchasing or redeeming or agreeing to purchase or redeem, any of its outstanding securities, except that (a) Union may pay such dividends up to 40% of its Core Operating Earnings (as defined in the stock purchase agreement) as long as the payment of such dividends will not impair Union's ability to achieve the capital target referenced in section 8.10 of the stock purchase agreement by December 31, 2004, and (ii) Union may pay a dividend equal to 40% of its Core Operating Earnings for each full calendar month beginning on January 1, 2005 and ending on the Closing Date;

(v) Except in the ordinary course of business, selling or transferring or agreeing to sell or transfer, any of its assets, property or rights or canceling, or agreeing to cancel, any debts or claims;

(vi) Except in the ordinary course of business, entering or agreeing to enter into any agreement or arrangement granting any preferential rights to purchase any of its assets, property or rights or requiring the consent of any party to the transfer and assignment of any of its assets, property or rights;

(vii) Waiving any rights of value which in the aggregate are material considering the business as a whole;

(viii) Except in the ordinary course of business, making or permitting any amendment or termination of any contract, agreement or license to which it is a party if such amendment or termination is material considering its business as a whole;

(ix) Except in accordance with past practice, making any accrual or arrangement for or payment of bonuses or special compensation of any kind or any severance or termination pay to any present or former officer or employee;

(xi) Failing to operate its business in the ordinary course;

(xii) Entering into any other material transaction other than in the ordinary course of business; and (xiii) Agreeing in writing, or otherwise, to take any action described in clauses (i) through (xii) above.

The stock purchase agreement provides that, with certain exceptions, prior to the completion of the transaction, no director or officer of Union or UB Financial or any of its subsidiaries shall, directly or indirectly, own, manage, operate, join, control, be employed by or participate in the ownership, proposed ownership, management, operation or control of or be connected in any manner with, any business, corporation or partnership which is competitive to the business of Union.

The stock purchase agreement also provides that (i) at the request of Colonial BancGroup, Union will consult with Colonial BancGroup and advise Colonial BancGroup in advance of all loan requests outside the ordinary course of business or in excess of $1,000,000 that are not single-family residential loan requests; and (ii) Union will consult with Colonial BancGroup to coordinate various business issues.

Closing Date

Unless otherwise agreed, the transaction will be completed within ten business days following the last to occur of: (i) the effective date of the last order, approval, or exemption of any federal or state regulatory agency approving or exempting the transactions contemplated hereby, if such action is required; (ii) the expiration of all required waiting periods after the filing of all notices to all federal or state regulatory agencies required for consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, (iii) the effectiveness of the registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission of the common stock to be issued by Colonial BancGroup as part of the purchase consideration, (iv) the completion of any corporate approvals (including that approval of the shareholders of UB Financial) required for the consummation of the transaction, and (v) the listing of the common stock to be issued pursuant to the transaction with the New York Stock Exchange.

Management and Operations After the Transaction

As a result of the transaction, Union will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Colonial BancGroup. No changes in the members of the board of directors or executive officers of Colonial BancGroup will occur as a result of the transaction. The members of the boards of directors and the officers of Union will continue to serve in such capacities at the discretion of Colonial BancGroup, other than anyone who may have entered into an employment agreement with Colonial Bank, who would be expected to serve pursuant to the terms of the applicable agreement.

Indemnification

Colonial BancGroup has agreed to indemnify the directors and officers of Union against claims made within six years after the completion of the transaction that arise out of actions or omissions occurring upon or prior to the completion of the transaction, to the extent that Union would have been authorized under Florida law, or under its Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, to indemnify such persons.

Rights of Dissenting Stockholders

A sale of substantially all of the assets of a corporation triggers dissenters' rights of appraisal under Florida law for all shareholders entitled to vote on the transaction. Accordingly, under Florida law, the shareholders of UB Financial entitled to vote on the stock sale, which constitutes a sale by UB Financial of substantially all of its assets, would have dissenters' rights. However, UB Financial has only one shareholder entitled to vote on the transaction. Because the Voting Shareholder is the only shareholder entitled to vote on the transaction and because the Voting Shareholder has already approved the stock purchase agreement, no dissenters' rights are triggered by the stock sale. Holders of UB Financial non-voting common stock are not entitled to dissenters' rights as a result of the stock sale.

Resale of Colonial BancGroup Common Stock Issued in the Transaction

The issuance of the shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock pursuant to the transaction has been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 (the Securities Act). As a result, UB Financial and its shareholders, who will be deemed to be affiliates of UB Financial (as such term is defined under the Securities Act) may resell the shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock which will be issued in connection with the transaction, but are subject to the restrictions on resale as provided in Rule 145 of the Securities Act.

The Colonial BancGroup common stock received by affiliates of UB Financial (primarily officers, directors and principal stockholders) who do not also become affiliates of Colonial BancGroup after the consummation of the transaction may not be sold except pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act covering such shares or in compliance with Rule 145 under the Securities Act or another applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. Generally, Rule 145 permits Colonial BancGroup common stock held by such stockholders to be sold in accordance with certain provisions of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. In general, these provisions of Rule 144 permit a person to sell on the open market in brokers or certain other transactions within any three-month period a number of shares that does not exceed the greater of 1% of the then outstanding shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock or the average weekly trading volume in Colonial BancGroup common stock reported on the NYSE during the four calendar weeks preceding such sale. Sales under Rule 144 are also subject to the availability of current public information about Colonial BancGroup. The restrictions on sales will cease to apply under most circumstances once the former affiliate has held the Colonial BancGroup common stock for at least one year. Colonial BancGroup common stock held by affiliates of UB Financial who become affiliates of Colonial BancGroup, if any, will be subject to additional restrictions on the ability of such persons to resell such shares.

Accounting Treatment

Colonial BancGroup will account for the transaction as a purchase transaction in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Under this accounting treatment, and in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 141, Business Combinations, the purchase price will be assigned to the fair value of the net tangible and identifiable intangible assets acquired, with any amounts in excess thereof being assigned to goodwill. The valuation of intangibles, if any, will be made as of the effective date of the transaction. In accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, qualifying intangibles, such as core deposit intangibles, will be amortized by charges to future earnings over their expected useful lives. The remaining goodwill will be capitalized and evaluated for impairment on an annual basis, or if circumstances arise in which it is more likely than not the fair value of the related reporting unit has been reduced. If such goodwill were to be deemed impaired, such impairment would be measured and any such amount would be charged against current earnings.

Changes in Control

Certain provisions of the Colonial BancGroup Certificate and the Colonial BancGroup Bylaws may have the effect of preventing, discouraging or delaying any change in control of Colonial BancGroup. The Colonial BancGroup Board of Directors has the authority to issue Colonial BancGroup preferred stock with such rights and privileges, including voting rights, as it may deem appropriate. This would allow the Board of Directors to prevent a change in control despite a shift in ownership of the Colonial BancGroup common stock. See Preferred Stock. In addition, the power of Colonial BancGroup's Board of Directors to issue additional shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock may help delay or deter a change in control by increasing the number of shares needed to gain control. See Colonial BancGroup Common Stock. The following provisions also may deter any change in control of Colonial BancGroup.

Classified Board. Colonial BancGroup's Board of Directors is classified into three classes, as nearly equal in number as possible, with the members of each class elected to three-year terms. Thus, one-third of Colonial BancGroup's Board of Directors is elected by stockholders each year. With this provision, two annual elections are required in order to change a majority of the Board of Directors. There are currently 18 directors of Colonial BancGroup. This provision of the Colonial BancGroup Certificate also stipulates that (i) directors can be removed only for cause upon a vote of 80% of the voting power of the outstanding shares entitled to vote in the election of directors, voting as a class, (ii) vacancies in the Board of Directors may only be filled by a majority vote of the directors remaining in office, (iii) the maximum number of directors shall be fixed by resolution of the Board of Directors, and (iv) the provisions relating to the classified Board of Directors can only be amended by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the voting power of the outstanding shares entitled to vote in the election of directors, voting as a class.

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANGROUP INC - Form S-4

Business Combinations. Certain Business Combinations of Colonial BancGroup with a Related Person may only be undertaken with the affirmative vote of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of Voting Stock, plus the affirmative vote of at least 67% of the outstanding shares of Voting Stock, not counting shares owned by the Related Person, unless the Continuing Directors of Colonial BancGroup approve such Business Combination. A Related Person is a person, or group, who owns or acquires 10% or more of the outstanding shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock, provided that no person shall be a Related Person if such person would have been a Related Person on the date of approval of this provision by Colonial BancGroup's Board of Directors, i.e., April 20, 1994. An effect of this provision may be to exclude Robert E. Lowder, the current Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Colonial BancGroup, and certain members of his family from the definition of Related Person. A Continuing Director is a director who was a member of the Board of Directors immediately prior to the time a person became a Related Person. This provision may not be amended without the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 75% of the outstanding shares of Voting Stock, plus the affirmative vote of the outstanding shares of at least 67% of the outstanding Voting Stock, excluding shares held by a Related Person. This provision may have the effect of giving the incumbent Board of Directors a veto over a transaction or other Business Combination that could be desired by a majority of Colonial BancGroup's stockholders. As of February 24, 2004, the Board of Directors of Colonial BancGroup owned approximately 7.1% of the outstanding shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock.

Board Evaluation of Mergers. The Colonial BancGroup Certificate permits the Board of Directors to consider certain factors such as the character and financial stability of the other party, the projected social, legal, and economic effects of a proposed transaction upon the employees, suppliers, regulatory agencies and customers and communities of Colonial BancGroup, and other factors when considering whether Colonial BancGroup should undertake a merger, sale of assets, or other similar transaction with another party. This provision may not be amended except by the affirmative vote of at least 80% of the outstanding shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock. This provision may give greater latitude to the Board of Directors in terms of the factors which the board may consider in recommending or rejecting a merger or other Business Combination of Colonial BancGroup.

Director Authority. The Colonial BancGroup Certificate prohibits stockholders from calling special stockholders' meetings and acting by written consent. It also provides that only Colonial BancGroup's Board of Directors has the authority to undertake certain actions with respect to governing Colonial BancGroup such as appointing committees, electing officers, and establishing compensation of officers, and it allows the Board of Directors to act by majority vote.

Bylaw Provisions. The Colonial BancGroup Bylaws provide that stockholders wishing to propose nominees for the Board of Directors or other business to be taken up at an annual meeting of Colonial BancGroup stockholders must comply with certain advance written notice provisions. These bylaw provisions are intended to provide for the more orderly conduct of stockholders' meetings but could make it more difficult for stockholders to nominate directors or introduce business at stockholders' meetings.

Delaware Business Combination Statute. Subject to some exceptions, Delaware law prohibits Colonial BancGroup from entering into certain business combinations (as defined) involving persons beneficially owning 15% or more of the outstanding Colonial BancGroup common stock (or one who is an affiliate of Colonial BancGroup and has over the past three years beneficially owned 15% or more of such stock) (either, for the purpose of this paragraph, an Interested Stockholder), unless the Board of Directors has approved either (i) the business combination or (ii) prior to the stock acquisition by which such person's beneficial ownership interest reached 15% (a Stock Acquisition), the Stock Acquisition. The prohibition lasts for three years from the date of the Stock Acquisition. Notwithstanding the preceding, Delaware law allows Colonial BancGroup to enter into a business combination with an Interested Stockholder if (i) the business combination is approved by Colonial BancGroup's Board of Directors and authorized by an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding voting stock of Colonial BancGroup which is not owned by the Interested Stockholder or (ii) upon consummation of the transaction which resulted in the stockholder becoming an Interested Stockholder, such stockholder owned at least 85% of the outstanding Colonial BancGroup common stock (excluding Colonial BancGroup common stock held by officers and directors of Colonial BancGroup or by certain Colonial BancGroup stock plans). These provisions of Delaware law apply simultaneously with the provisions of the Colonial BancGroup Certificate relating to business combinations with a related person, described above at Business Combinations, but they are generally less restrictive than the Colonial BancGroup Certificate.

Control Acquisitions. As it relates to Colonial BancGroup, the Change in Bank Control Act of 1978 prohibits a person or group of persons from acquiring control of a bank holding company unless the Federal Reserve has been given 60 days prior written notice of such proposed acquisition and within that time period the Federal Reserve has not issued a notice disapproving the proposed acquisition or extending for up to another 30 days the period during which such a disapproval may be issued. An acquisition may be made prior to the expiration of the disapproval period if the Federal Reserve issues written notice of its intent not to disapprove the action. Under a rebuttable presumption established by the Federal Reserve, the acquisition of more than 10% of a class of voting stock of a bank holding company with a class of securities registered under Section 12 of the Exchange Act, such as Colonial BancGroup, would, under the circumstances set forth in the presumption, constitute the acquisition of control. The receipt of revocable proxies, provided the proxies terminate within a reasonable time after the meeting to which they relate, is not included in determining percentages for change in control purposes.

Table of ContentsDirectors Liability

Union. Pursuant to the FBCA, a director of Union will have no personal liability to Union or any other person for any statement, vote, decision, or failure to act, regarding corporate management or policy, by a director, unless: (a) the director breached or failed to perform his or her duties as a director; and (b) the director's breach of, or failure to perform, those duties constitutes: (i) a violation of the criminal law, unless the director had reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful; (ii) a transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit; (iii) a circumstance under which the director would be liable for an unlawful distribution by Union; (iv) in a proceeding by or in the right of Union to procure a judgment in its favor or by or in the right of a stockholder, conscious disregard for the best interest of Union, or willful misconduct; or (v) in a proceeding by or in the right of someone other than Union or a stockholder, recklessness or an act or omission which was committed in bad faith or with malicious purpose or in a manner exhibiting wanton and willful disregard of human rights, safety, or property. This statute would absolve directors of personal liability for negligence in the performance of duties, including gross negligence. It would not permit a director to be exculpated, however, for liability for actions involving conflicts of interest, and it does not affect the availability of injunctive or other equitable relief as a remedy.

Colonial BancGroup. The Colonial BancGroup Certificate provides that a director of Colonial BancGroup will have no personal liability to Colonial BancGroup or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director except (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) for the payment of certain unlawful dividends and the making of certain stock purchases or redemptions, or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. This provision would absolve directors of personal liability for negligence in the performance of duties, including gross negligence. It would not permit a director to be exculpated, however, for liability for actions involving conflicts of interest or breaches of the traditional duty of loyalty to Colonial BancGroup and its stockholders, and it would not affect the availability of injunctive or other equitable relief as a remedy.

Indemnification

Union. Under the FBCA, Union is required to indemnify an officer or director who has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any proceeding or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, against expenses actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith. The FBCA also contains detailed and comprehensive provisions regarding when Union is permitted, although not required, to indemnify its officers and directors against expenses, judgments, fines and other expenses in connection with litigation.

Colonial BancGroup. The Colonial BancGroup Certificate provides that directors, officers, employees and agents of Colonial BancGroup shall be indemnified to the full extent permitted under the DGCL. Section 145 of the DGCL contains detailed and comprehensive provisions providing for indemnification of directors and officers of Delaware corporations against expenses, judgments, fines and settlements in connection with litigation. Under the DGCL, other than an action brought by or in the right of Colonial BancGroup, such indemnification is available if it is determined that the proposed indemnity acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of Colonial BancGroup and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. In actions brought by or in the right of Colonial BancGroup, such indemnification is limited to expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred in the defense or settlement of such action if the indemnity acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of Colonial BancGroup and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person has been adjudged to be liable to Colonial BancGroup unless and only to the extent that the Delaware Court of Chancery or the court in which the action was brought determines upon application that in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court deems proper.

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANGROUP INC - Form S-4

To the extent that the proposed indemnity has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding (or any claim, issue or matter therein), he or she must be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

Table of Contents

Colonial BancGroup maintains an officers and directors insurance policy and a separate indemnification agreement pursuant to which officers and directors of Colonial BancGroup would be entitled to indemnification against certain liabilities, including reimbursement of certain expenses that extends beyond the minimum indemnification provided by Section 145 of the DGCL.

Special Meetings of Stockholders; Action Without a Meeting

Union. Under Union's by-laws, a special meeting of Union's stockholders may be called by the Chairman of the Board of Directors or the President or by stockholders owning 25% of the outstanding stock of Union and entitled to vote.

Colonial BancGroup. Under the Colonial BancGroup Certificate, a special meeting of Colonial BancGroup's stockholders may only be called by a majority of the Colonial BancGroup Board of Directors or by the chairman of the Board of Directors of Colonial BancGroup. Holders of Colonial BancGroup common stock may not call special meetings or act by written consent.

Quorum Requirements for Meetings Of Stockholders

Union. At a meeting of the stockholders of Union, a quorum consists of stockholders holding a majority of the capital stock of Union outstanding and entitled to vote, represented either in person or by proxy.

Colonial BancGroup. At a meeting of the stockholders of Colonial BancGroup, the holders of a majority of the votes entitled to vote and represented in person or by proxy constitute a quorum.

Mergers, Share Exchanges and Sales of Assets

Union. The FBCA provides that mergers, share exchanges and sales of substantially all of the assets of Florida corporations outside of the ordinary course of business must be approved by a majority of the outstanding stock of the corporation entitled to vote thereon. The FBCA also provides, however, that the stockholders of the corporation surviving a merger need not approve the transaction, unless such approval is required under its Articles of Incorporation, if: (i) the agreement of merger does not make any amendments to the articles of incorporation of such corporation that are required to be approved by the stockholders; and (ii) each stockholder of the surviving corporation whose shares were outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the merger will hold the same number of shares, with identical designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights, immediately after the merger. The Articles of Incorporation of Union do not require that the stockholders of Union approve a merger if such conditions are met.

Colonial BancGroup. The DGCL provides that mergers and sales of substantially all of the assets of Delaware corporations must be approved by a majority of the outstanding stock of the corporation entitled to vote thereon. The DGCL also provides, however, that the stockholders of the corporation surviving a merger need not approve the transaction if: (i) the agreement of merger does not amend in any respect the certificate of incorporation of such corporation; (ii) each share of stock of such corporation outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the merger is to be an identical outstanding or treasury share of the surviving corporation after the effective date of the merger; and (iii) either no shares of common stock of the surviving corporation and no shares, securities or obligations convertible into such stock are to be issued or delivered under the plan of merger, or the authorized unissued shares or the treasury shares of common stock of the surviving corporation to be issued or delivered under the plan of merger plus those initially issuable upon conversion of any other shares, securities or obligations to be issued or delivered under such plan do not exceed 20% of the shares of common stock of such corporation outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the merger. See also Colonial BancGroup Capital Stock and Long Term Debt Changes in Control for a description of the statutory provisions and the provisions of the Colonial BancGroup Certificate relating to changes of control of Colonial BancGroup.

Amendment of Articles or Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws

Union. Unless the FBCA, the Articles of Incorporation of Union, or the board of directors in a particular case requires a greater vote or a vote by voting groups, to be adopted, an amendment to the Articles of Incorporation of Union must be approved by a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the amendment by any voting group with respect to which the amendment would create dissenters' rights under the FBCA, and with respect to every other voting group entitled to vote on the amendment, the amendment must receive more votes in favor of adoption than against adoption. As is permitted by the FBCA, the By-laws of Union provide that the Bylaws may be amended at any stockholders' meeting by a majority of the stockholders entitled to vote or by the board of directors by a vote of two-thirds of those present at the meeting at which the amendment is considered.

Colonial BancGroup. Under the DGCL, a Delaware corporation's certificate of incorporation may be amended by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon, and a majority of the outstanding stock of each class entitled to vote as a class, unless the certificate requires the vote of a larger portion of the stock. The Colonial BancGroup Certificate requires super-majority stockholder approval to amend or repeal any provision of, or adopt any provision inconsistent with, certain provisions in the Colonial BancGroup Certificate governing (i) the election or removal of directors, (ii) business combinations between Colonial BancGroup and a Related Person, and (iii) board of directors evaluation of business combination procedures. See Colonial BancGroup Capital Stock and Long Term Debt Changes in Control.

As is permitted by the DGCL, the Certificate gives the Board of Directors the power to adopt, amend or repeal the Colonial BancGroup Bylaws. The stockholders entitled to vote have concurrent power to adopt, amend or repeal the Colonial BancGroup Bylaws.

Rights of Dissenting Stockholders

Union. Under the FBCA, a stockholder has the right, in certain circumstances, to dissent from certain corporate transactions and receive the fair value of his or her shares in cash in lieu of the consideration he or she otherwise would have received in the transaction. For this purpose, fair value means the value of the corporation's shares determined immediately before the effectuation of the corporate action to which the stockholder objects, using customary and current valuation concepts and techniques generally employed for similar businesses in the context of the transaction requiring appraisal, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the corporate action unless exclusion would be inequitable to the corporation and its remaining stockholders. Stockholders also are not permitted appraisal rights in a merger if such corporation is the surviving corporation and no vote of its stockholders is required.

Colonial BancGroup. Under the DGCL, a stockholder has the right, in certain circumstances, to dissent from certain corporate transactions and receive the fair value of his or her shares in cash in lieu of the consideration he or she otherwise would have received in the transaction. For this purpose, fair value may be determined by all generally accepted techniques of valuation used in the financial community, excluding any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the transaction, but including elements of future value that are known or susceptible of proof. Such fair value is determined by the Delaware Court of Chancery, if a petition for appraisal is timely filed. Appraisal rights are not available, however, to stockholders of a corporation (i) if the shares are listed on a national securities exchange (as is Colonial BancGroup common stock) or quoted on the Nasdaq National Market System, or held of record by more than 2,000 stockholders (as is Colonial BancGroup common stock), and (ii) stockholders are permitted by the terms of the merger or consolidation to accept in exchange for their shares (a) shares of stock of the surviving or resulting corporation, (b) shares of stock of another corporation listed on a national securities exchange or held of record by more than 2,000 stockholders, (c) cash in lieu of fractional shares of such stock, or (d) any combination thereof. Stockholders are not permitted appraisal rights in a merger if such corporation is the surviving corporation and no vote of its stockholders is required.

Preferred Stock

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANGROUP INC - Form S-4

Union. Union is not authorized to issue any preferred stock. Union is authorized to issue 120,000 shares of voting common stock and 120,000 shares of non-voting common stock, which are identical in all respects except that voting common stock has one vote per share and non-voting common stock has no voting rights except as required by applicable law.

Table of Contents

Colonial BancGroup. The Colonial BancGroup Certificate authorizes the issuance of 1,000,000 shares of Preference Stock from time to time by resolution of the Board of Directors of Colonial BancGroup. Currently, no shares of Preference Stock are issued and outstanding. See Colonial BancGroup Capital Stock and Long Term Debt Preferred Stock.

Control Share Acquisitions

Union. Union is subject to the Control Share Acquisition statute under the FBCA (Section 607.0902). Unless a control share acquisition has been made in accordance with certain specified requirements, the FBCA prohibits the voting of shares that are acquired in the control share acquisition unless the holders of a majority of the corporation's voting shares (exclusive of shares held by officers of the corporation, directors who are also employees of the corporation, and the acquiring party) approve the granting of voting rights as to the shares acquired in the control share acquisition. A control share acquisition is defined as an acquisition that immediately thereafter entitles the acquiring party to vote in the election of directors within each of the following ranges of voting power: (i) one-fifth or more but less than one-third of such voting power, (ii) one-third or more but less than a majority of such voting power, and (iii) a majority or more of such voting power.

Colonial BancGroup. For information with respect to provisions under Colonial BancGroup's governing documents and the DGCL regarding provisions which may have the effect of presenting, discouraging or delaying any change in control of Colonial BancGroup, see Colonial BancGroup Capital Stock and Long Term Debt Changes in Control.

Transactions with Interested Persons

Union. The FBCA contains an Affiliated Transaction statute that prohibits certain Florida corporations from engaging in a broad range of business combinations or other extraordinary corporate transactions with an interested stockholder unless certain conditions are met, or the transaction is approved by the holders of two-thirds of the corporation's voting shares other than those owned by the interested stockholder. An interested stockholder is defined as a person who together with affiliates and associates beneficially owns more than 10% of the corporation's outstanding voting shares. However, the Articles of Incorporation of PCB contain a provision opting out of the coverage of the statute.

Colonial BancGroup. For information with respect to provisions under Colonial BancGroup's governing documents and the DGCL regarding provisions which may have the effect of presenting, discouraging or delaying any change in control of Colonial BancGroup, see Colonial BancGroup Capital Stock and Long Term Debt Changes in Control.

Effect of the Transaction on UB Financial

UB Financial currently owns all of the stock of Union. At the completion of the transaction, a minimum of 2,647,727 and a maximum of 3,236,111 shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock will be issued to UB Financial. These shares would represent approximately from 1.94% to 2.36% of the total shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock outstanding after the transaction, not counting any shares of Colonial BancGroup common stock to be issued to persons other than UB Financial.

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANGROUP INC - Form S-4

The issuance of the Colonial BancGroup common stock pursuant to the transaction will reduce the percentage interest of the Colonial BancGroup common stock currently held by each principal stockholder and each director and officer of Colonial BancGroup. The directors and executive officers of Colonial BancGroup who owned approximately 7.3% of Colonial BancGroup's outstanding shares as of February 24, 2004 would own approximately from 7.1% to 7.2% after the transaction. See Business of Colonial BancGroup Voting Securities and Principal Stockholders.

BUSINESS OF UNION

General

Union began operations in 1971 and is a state chartered commercial bank headquartered in Sunrise, Florida. The Bank is a wholly owned subsidiary of UB Financial. Union is engaged in the general commercial banking business and provides a variety of related financial products and services through its 18 branch network. In addition, Union originates residential mortgage loans for sale in the secondary market through its division doing business as Union Bank Mortgage Corporation. As of September 30, 2004 Union had total assets of $1.0 billion, net loans of $632.7 million, total deposits of $716.9 million and total equity of $80.2 million.

As a community bank, Union offers a broad range of financial services including traditional commercial and consumer deposit and loan products, residential mortgage products and cash management services.

Union is subject to supervision, examination and regulation by the Florida Department and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Market Areas

Union's principal market areas are Broward, Miami-Dade and Palm Beach Counties, Florida with 12 full service branches in Broward, 3 in Miami-Dade and 3 in Palm Beach. In addition, the Bank conducts loan production operations in Jacksonville, Florida. Union's client profile consists of real estate related businesses, professionals, small and medium size businesses and consumers.

Lending Activities

Lending activities generate Union's single largest source of revenue. While the Bank engages in a full complement of lending activities including commercial, consumer and residential loans, particular emphasis is placed on commercial real estate and construction lending. Commercial real estate and construction loans comprise 72% of the total loan portfolio at September 30, 2004. Commercial real estate loans are made for land acquisition and development, construction, income producing and owner occupied properties. The collateral held in the commercial real estate and construction portfolios consists of various property types including residential, industrial, retail and office. Commercial lending focuses on providing commercial and industrial loans to professionals and small to mid-size businesses and includes commercial lines of credit, working capital loans and equipment loans. Consumer lending offers primarily home equity loans and lines of credit but also provides personal, auto and boat loan products. The residential loan portfolio consists of originated single family first mortgage loans and purchased whole loan pools. The majority of all loans are made with a floating or variable interest rate.

Union employs sound underwriting practices and considers, among other items, creditworthiness of the borrowers and guarantors, cash flows from the business that support loan repayment, collateral values, economic feasibility of the project, reputation and past experiences with principals.

At September 30, 2004, gross loans totaled $638.9 million consisting of 72% commercial real estate, 15% residential real estate, 10% commercial and 3% consumer.

Competition

Union experiences strong competition both in attracting deposits and originating loans in its market area. Direct competition comes from other commercial banks, savings and loan associations, credit unions, mutual funds, brokerage and insurance companies and other providers of financial services. Many of these competitors have greater financial resources, larger branch networks, better name recognition, greater economies of scale, less regulatory burdens and larger employee bases than Union. The primary methods used to attract deposit accounts include variety and quality of services, convenience and interest rates. Union competes for loans through interest rates, loan fees and efficient, quality service provided to clients.

Table of ContentsEmployees

Union employed 199 employees including 87 officers at September 30, 2004.

STOCK PURCHASE AGREEMENT (including the Exhibits and Schedules hereto, this Agreement) dated as of September 27, 2004 by and among UB Financial Corporation, a bank holding company and a Florida corporation (Seller), Union Bank of Florida and The Colonial BancGroup, Inc., a financial holding company and a Delaware corporation (BancGroup).

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Seller is the sole shareholder of Union Bank of Florida, a Florida state chartered bank and a Qualified Subchapter S Subsidiary (Union); and

WHEREAS, BancGroup is a bank holding company with a Subsidiary bank, Colonial Bank, N.A. (Colonial Bank), operating in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Nevada, Tennessee and Texas; and

WHEREAS, BancGroup wishes to acquire Union upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement; and

WHEREAS, Seller wishes to sell Union upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises hereinafter set forth and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

PURCHASE AND SALE OF SHARES

1.1 General. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, at the Closing (as hereinafter defined), Seller shall sell, assign, transfer and convey unto BancGroup all of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock, par value $2.00 per share, of Union (the Shares), and BancGroup shall purchase all of the Shares for an aggregate purchase price of $233 million in cash and BancGroup common stock (the Purchase Consideration), payable in cash in the amount of $174,750,000 and in BancGroup common stock in the amount of $58,250,000, with such amount of stock subject to adjustment as described herein.

1.2 Purchase Consideration. The Purchase Consideration shall consist of $174,750,000 in cash (the Cash Consideration) and approximately $58,250,000 in BancGroup Common Stock (the Stock Consideration). Assuming that Union has 971 shares of common stock issued and outstanding, then, for each share of Union common stock, Seller will receive approximately $179,969.10 in cash and $59,989.70 divided by the Market Value in shares of BancGroup Common Stock. The Market Value shall represent the per share market value of the BancGroup common stock at the Closing Date and shall be determined by calculating the average of the closing prices of the BancGroup Common Stock as reported by the NYSE on each of the fifteen consecutive trading days ending on the trading day five trading days immediately preceding the Closing Date. Regardless of the Market Value, however, the maximum number of shares of BancGroup Common Stock to be issued as Stock Consideration shall be 3,236,111 (based upon a minimum Market Value of $18.00) and the minimum number of shares of BancGroup Common Stock to be issued as stock Consideration shall be 2,647,727 (based upon a maximum Market Value of $22.00).

1.3 Manner of Payment. The Cash Consideration shall be paid by BancGroup on the Closing Date by wire transfer of immediately available funds to the account or accounts designated by Seller. The Stock Consideration shall be issued by BancGroup and delivered by BancGroup's transfer agent to Seller or its designee within three business days of the Closing Date.

1.4 Delivery of Certificates. Against receipt of the Purchase Consideration, at the Closing, Seller shall deliver to BancGroup the certificates for the Shares, together with such stock powers as will entitle BancGroup to immediate registration of the transfer of the Shares in its name and as will convey the Shares to BancGroup free and clear of all liens and encumbrances (other than transfer restrictions imposed by applicable securities laws).

1.5 Time and Place of Closing. The closing of the transactions contemplated hereby (the Closing) shall take place at 10:00 a.m. on the Closing Date at the offices of BancGroup in Miami, Florida or at such other time and place as may be mutually agreed upon by the parties.

1.6 Closing Date. Unless otherwise mutually agreed upon in writing by the parties, subject to the terms and conditions hereof, the Closing Date shall be within ten business days following the last to occur of: (i) the effective date of the last order, approval, or exemption of any federal or state regulatory agency approving or exempting the transactions contemplated hereby, if such action is required; (ii) the expiration of all required waiting periods after the filing of all notices to all federal or state regulatory agencies required for consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, (iii) the effectiveness of the registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission of the common stock to be issued by BancGroup as part of the Purchase Consideration, (iv) the completion of any corporate approvals (including a meeting of the shareholders of the Seller's shareholders, if necessary) required for the consummation of the transaction contemplated by Section 1.1 hereto, and (v) the listing of the common stock to be issued pursuant to this Agreement with the New York Stock Exchange. The Parties shall use reasonable efforts to cause the Closing Date to occur on or before December 31, 2004.

1.7 Fractional Shares. No fractional shares of BancGroup Common Stock shall be issued as part of the Stock Consideration, and if the final calculation of the Stock Consideration would result in a fractional share, then Seller will be paid by BancGroup an amount in cash equal to the Market Value of such fractional share.

1.8 Adjustments. In the event that prior to the Closing Date, BancGroup Common Stock shall be changed into a different number of shares or a different class of shares by reason of any recapitalization or reclassification, stock dividend, combination, stock split, or reverse stock split of the BancGroup Common Stock, an appropriate and proportionate adjustment shall be made in the amount of Stock Consideration to be issued as part of the Purchase Consideration as well as the maximum and minimum Market Value amounts set forth in this Agreement.

ARTICLE II

No representation or warranty contained in this Article II shall be deemed untrue or incorrect, and BancGroup shall not be deemed to have breached a representation or warranty as a consequence of the existence or absence of any fact, event or circumstance, unless such fact, event or circumstance is not set forth in the BancGroup Disclosure Schedule and, whether individually or in the aggregate with all other facts, events or circumstances that have not been set forth in the BancGroup Disclosure Schedule, has had or is reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect and was not a willful act on the part of BancGroup.

Except as disclosed in the document of even date herewith delivered by BancGroup to Seller prior to the execution and delivery of this Agreement and referring to the representations and warranties in this Agreement (the BancGroup Disclosure Schedule), BancGroup represents, warrants and covenants to and with Seller as follows:

BancGroup has withheld from its employees (and timely paid to the appropriate governmental entity) proper and accurate amounts for all periods in material compliance with all Tax withholding provisions of applicable federal, state, foreign and local Laws (including without limitation, income, social security and employment Tax withholding for all types of compensation).

2.4 No Conflict with Other Instrument. The consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will not result in a breach of or constitute a Default (without regard to the giving of notice or the passage of time) under any material Contract, indenture, mortgage, deed of trust or other material agreement or instrument to which BancGroup or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or by which they or their Assets may be bound; will not conflict with any provision of the restated certificate of incorporation or bylaws of BancGroup or the articles of incorporation or bylaws of any of its Subsidiaries; and will not violate any provision of any Law, regulation, judgment or decree binding on them or any of their Assets.

2.5 Absence of Material Adverse Change. BancGroup has no Knowledge of any fact or circumstance under which the appropriate regulatory approvals required by section 6.2 will not be granted without the imposition of material conditions or material delays.

2.7 Title and Related Matters. BancGroup has good and marketable title to all the properties, interests in properties and Assets, real and personal, that are material to the business of BancGroup, reflected in the most recent balance sheet referred to in section 2.3(a), or acquired after the date of such balance sheet (except properties, interests and Assets sold or otherwise disposed of since such date, in the ordinary course of business), free and clear of all mortgages, Liens, pledges, charges or encumbrances except (i) mortgages and other encumbrances referred to in the notes of such balance sheet, (ii) liens for current Taxes not yet due and payable and (iii) such imperfections of title and easements as do not materially detract from or interfere with the present use of the properties subject thereto or affected thereby, or otherwise materially impair present business operations at such properties. Subsidiary has its deposits fully insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation to the extent provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance Act; and the businesses of the non-bank Subsidiaries of BancGroup are permitted businesses of registered bank holding companies that are financial holding companies.

2.9 Contracts. Neither BancGroup nor any of its Significant Subsidiaries is in violation of its respective certificate of incorporation or bylaws or in Default in the performance or observance of any material obligation, agreement, covenant or condition contained in any Contract, indenture, mortgage, loan agreement, note, lease or other instrument to which it is a party or by which it or its property may be bound.

2.10 Litigation. Except as disclosed in or reserved for in BancGroup's financial statements, there is no Litigation before or by any court or Agency, domestic or foreign, now pending, or, to the Knowledge of BancGroup, threatened against or affecting BancGroup or any of its Subsidiaries (nor is BancGroup aware of any facts which could give rise to any such Litigation) which is required to be disclosed in the Registration Statement (other than as disclosed therein), or which is likely to have any Material Adverse Effect or prospective Material Adverse Effect, or which is likely to materially and adversely affect the properties or Assets thereof or which is likely to materially affect or delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; all pending legal or governmental proceedings to which BancGroup or any Subsidiary is a party or of which any of their properties is the subject which are not described in the Registration Statement, including ordinary routine litigation incidental to the business, are, considered in the aggregate, not material; and neither BancGroup nor any of its Subsidiaries have any contingent obligations which could be considered material to BancGroup and its Subsidiaries considered as one enterprise which are not disclosed in the Registration Statement as it may be amended or supplemented.

2.11 Compliance. BancGroup and its Subsidiaries, in the conduct of their businesses, are to the Knowledge of BancGroup, in compliance with all federal, state or local Laws applicable to the conduct of their businesses except where non-compliance could not be reasonably expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on BancGroup.

2.12 Registration Statement. At the time the Registration Statement becomes effective and at the time of the Shareholders' Meeting, the Registration Statement, including the Information Statement which shall constitute a part thereof, will comply in all material respects with the requirements of the 1933 Act and the rules and regulations thereunder, will not contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; provided, however, that the representations and warranties in this subsection shall not apply to statements in or omissions from the Information Statement made in reliance upon and in conformity with information furnished in writing to BancGroup by Seller or any of its representatives expressly for use in the Information Statement or information included in the Information Statement regarding the business of Seller, its operations, Assets and capital.

2.13 SEC Filings. (a) BancGroup has heretofore delivered or made available to Seller copies of BancGroup's: (i) Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003; (ii) 2003 Annual Report to Shareholders, (iii) Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, 2004 and June 30, 2004 and (iv) any reports on Form 8-K, filed by BancGroup with the SEC since December 31, 2003. As of the respective filing and effective dates, none of such reports or registration statements or other documents contained any untrue statement of a material fact or omitted to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading.

(b) The documents to be incorporated by reference into the Registration Statement, at the time they were filed with the SEC, complied in all material respects with the requirements of the 1934 Act and Regulations thereunder and when read together and with the other information in the Registration Statement will not contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading at the time the Registration Statement becomes effective or at the time of the Shareholders Meeting.

2.14 Form S-4. The conditions for use of a registration statement on SEC Form S-4 set forth in the General Instructions on Form S-4 have been or will be satisfied with respect to BancGroup and the Registration Statement.

2.15 Brokers. Except for negotiations with Hovde Financial LLC as referenced in Section 3.18 of this Agreement and Lehman Brothers, all negotiations relative to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement have been carried on by BancGroup directly with Seller and without the intervention of any other person, either as a result of any act of BancGroup or otherwise in such manner as to give rights to any valid claim against BancGroup for finders fees, brokerage commissions or other like payments.

2.16 Government Authorization. BancGroup and its Subsidiaries have all Permits that are or will be legally required to enable BancGroup or any of its Subsidiaries to conduct their businesses in all material respects as now conducted by each of them.

2.17 Absence of Regulatory Communications. Neither BancGroup nor any of its Subsidiaries is subject to, or has received during the past three (3) years or at anytime that has a current adverse effect, any written communication directed specifically to it from any Agency to which it is subject or pursuant to which such Agency has imposed or has indicated it may impose any material restrictions on the operations of it or the business conducted by it or in which such Agency has raised a material question concerning the condition, financial or otherwise, of such company.

2.18 Disclosure. No representation or warranty, or any statement or certificate furnished or to be furnished to Seller by BancGroup, contains or will contain any untrue statement of a material fact, or omits or will omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements contained in this Agreement or in any such statement or certificate not misleading.

ARTICLE III

REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES AND COVENANTS OF SELLER AND UNION

No representation or warranty contained in this Article III shall be deemed untrue or incorrect, and neither Seller nor Union shall be deemed to have breached a representation or warranty as a consequence of the existence or absence of any fact, event or circumstance, unless such fact, event or circumstance is not set forth in the Seller Disclosure Schedule and, whether individually or in the aggregate with all other facts, events or circumstances that have not been set forth in the Seller Disclosure Schedule, has had or is reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect and was not a willful act on the part of either Seller or Union.

Except as disclosed in the document of even date herewith delivered by Seller and Union to BancGroup prior to the execution and delivery of this Agreement and referring to the representations and warranties in this Agreement (the Seller Disclosure Schedule), Seller and Union each

3.9 Litigation. Other than as set forth on Schedule 3.9 or with regard to Union's collection of loans in the normal course of business, there is no Litigation (whether or not purportedly on behalf of an Acquired Corporation Company) pending or, to the Knowledge of Seller and Union, threatened against or affecting any Acquired Corporation Company (nor does each of Seller and Union have Knowledge of any facts which are reasonably likely to give rise to any such Litigation) at law or in equity, or before or by any governmental department, commission, board, bureau, agency or instrumentality, domestic or foreign, or before any arbitrator of any kind, which involves the possibility of any judgment or Liability not fully covered by insurance in excess of a reasonable deductible amount or which may have a Material Adverse Effect on Union, and no Acquired Corporation Company is in Default with respect to any judgment, order, writ, injunction, decree, award, rule or regulation of any court, arbitrator or governmental department, commission, board, bureau, agency or instrumentality, which Default would have a Material Adverse Effect on Union. 3.11 No Conflict with Other Instrument. Except as disclosed on Schedule 3.11, the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement will not result in the breach of any term or provision of or constitute a Default under any material Contract, indenture, mortgage, deed of trust or other material agreement or instrument to which Seller or any Acquired Corporation Company is a party and will not conflict with any provision of the charter or bylaws of any Acquired Corporation Company.

3.12 Governmental Authorization. Each Acquired Corporation Company has all Permits that, to the Knowledge of Seller and Union, are or will be legally required to enable any Acquired Corporation Company to conduct its business in all material respects as now conducted by each Acquired Corporation Company.

Except as set forth on Schedule 3.15, within the last three years, no Acquired Corporation Company has been refused any insurance coverage which it has sought or applied for, and nothing has come to its attention which would lead it to believe that existing insurance coverage cannot be renewed as and when the same shall expire, upon terms and conditions as favorable as those presently in effect, other than possible increases in premiums that do not result from any extraordinary loss experience. To the Knowledge of Seller and Union, all policies of insurance presently held or policies containing substantially equivalent coverage will be outstanding and in full force with respect to each Acquired Corporation Company at all times from the date hereof to the Closing Date.

3.16 Pension and Employee Benefit Plans.

All reserves for loan losses shown on the most recent financial statements furnished by Seller and Union have been calculated in accordance with applicable guidance established by the Agencies. Neither Seller nor Union has any Knowledge of any fact which is likely to require a future material increase in the provision for loan losses or a material decrease in the loan loss reserve reflected in such financial statements. To the Knowledge of Seller and Union, each loan reflected as an Asset on the financial statements of Union is the legal, valid and binding obligation of the obligor of each loan, enforceable in accordance with its terms subject to the effect of bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, or other similar laws relating to creditors' rights generally and to general equitable principles and complies in all material respects with all Laws to which it is subject. (v) Each of Seller and Union hereby represents and warrants to BancGroup that it has no Knowledge of any claim, pending or threatened, or of any facts or circumstances that could give rise to any obligation by BancGroup to provide the indemnification required by this section 4.1(h) other than as disclosed in the letters of the directors and officers referred to in section 4.1(h)(iv) hereof or described in any schedule to this Agreement and claims arising from any transaction contemplated by this Agreement.

No Acquired Corporation Company will engage in any material transaction outside the ordinary course of business or make any material change in its accounting policies or methods of operation, nor will Seller or Union permit the occurrence of any change or event which would render any of the representations and warranties in Article III hereof untrue in any material respect at and as of the Closing Date with the same effect as though such representations and warranties had been made at and as of such Closing Date. Except as provided on Schedule 4.2(a), Seller shall cause Union to postpone all branch relocation and/or expansion plans prior to the Closing Date or the date of termination pursuant to this Agreement.

(b) Registration Statement and Shareholders Meeting. Seller and Union will cooperate with BancGroup in the preparation of the Registration Statement and any regulatory filings and will afford the shareholders of Seller an opportunity to approve the transactions contemplated by this Agreement as soon as practicable after the effective date of the Registration Statement, and will use commercially reasonable efforts to bring about the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, as soon as practicable unless this Agreement is terminated as provided herein.

(c) Prohibited Negotiations. (i) Except with respect to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, neither Seller nor any Acquired Corporation Company nor any affiliate thereof nor any investment banker, attorney, accountant, or other representative (collectively, Representatives) retained by Seller or an Acquired Corporation Company shall directly or indirectly solicit any Acquisition Proposal by any Person. Except to the extent necessary to comply with the fiduciary duties of Seller's Board of Directors as advised by counsel to such Board of Directors, neither Seller nor any Acquired Corporation Company or any Representative thereof shall furnish any non-public information that it is not legally obligated to furnish, negotiate with respect to, or enter into any Contract with respect to, any Acquisition Proposal, and each Acquired Corporation Company shall direct and use its reasonable efforts to cause all of its Representatives not to engage in any of the foregoing, but Seller may communicate information about such an Acquisition Proposal to its shareholders if and to the extent that it is required to do so in order to comply with its legal obligations as advised in writing by counsel to such Board of Directors. Seller and/or Union shall promptly notify BancGroup orally and in writing in the event that Seller or any Acquired Corporation Company receives any inquiry or proposal relating to any such Acquisition Proposal. Seller and

(ii) If Seller or Union (A) willfully breaches this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement are not consummated, (B) enters into a letter of intent or definitive agreement regarding an Acquisition Proposal with any third party (other than BancGroup or any of its Subsidiaries) prior to the earlier of (i) the Closing Date or (ii) the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article XI hereof, or (C) receives or is the subject of an Acquisition Proposal from a third party (other than BancGroup or its Subsidiaries) prior to the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article XI hereof, and within eighteen (18) months after termination of this Agreement pursuant to Article XI hereof (other than a termination pursuant to paragraph (a) or d of section 11.2 hereof or by Seller pursuant to paragraphs (b) or (c) of section 11.2 hereof) an Acquisition Proposal is consummated with such third party, Seller covenants and agrees that it shall pay to BancGroup on the date of consummation of such Acquisition Proposal or 270 days after entering into such letter of intent, definitive agreement or being subject to such Acquisition Proposal, whichever ever is the first to occur, the principal sum of $10,000,000 in immediately available funds. Such payment shall compensate BancGroup for its direct and indirect costs and expenses in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including BancGroup's management time devoted to negotiation and preparation for the acquisition of Union and BancGroup's loss as a result of such transactions not being consummated. The Parties acknowledge and agree that it would be impracticable or extremely difficult to fix the actual damages resulting from the foregoing events and, therefore, the Parties have agreed upon the foregoing payment as liquidated damages which shall not be deemed to be in the nature of a penalty. Other than the payment provided for in this section 4.2(c)(ii) and any Liability for expenses as set forth in Section 13.10 hereof, there shall be no other Liability or obligation on the part of any Acquired Corporation Company or their respective directors or officers resulting from any of the events described in this Section 4.2(c)(ii).

(d) Intentionally left blank.

(g) Fiduciary Duties. Except as disclosed in Schedule 4.2(g), prior to the Closing Date, each of Seller and Union will use its commercially reasonable efforts so that (i) no director or officer (each an Executive) of any Acquired Corporation Company shall, directly or indirectly, own, manage, operate, join, control, be employed by or participate in the ownership, proposed ownership, management, operation or control of or be connected in any manner with, any banking business (for the purposes of this Agreement, the term banking business shall mean the business of a depository institution, including savings and loan institutions and credit unions but not the financial planning or investment advisory business if not conducted as an employee, consultant or agent of a financial institution); provided that the ownership of such Executive as an investor of not more than one percent of the outstanding securities of stock of any corporation whose stock is listed for trading on any securities exchange or is quoted on the automated quotation system of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., or the shares of any investment company as defined in Section 3 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended, shall not in itself constitute a violation of Executive's obligations under this Section 4.2(g); (ii) all Executives, at all times, shall satisfy their fiduciary duties to Seller, Union and its Subsidiaries, and (iii) such Executives shall not (except as required in the course of his or her employment with any Acquired Corporation Company) communicate or divulge to, or use for the benefit of himself or herself or any other person, firm, association or corporation, without the express written consent of Seller, any confidential information which is possessed, owned or used by or licensed by or to any Acquired Corporation Company or confidential information belonging to third parties which any Acquired Corporation Company shall be under obligation to keep secret or which may be communicated to, acquired by or learned of by the Executive in the course of or as a result of his or her employment with any Acquired Corporation Company.

Seller and Union shall not be required to undertake any of such activities, however, except as such activities may be in compliance with existing Law and Regulations.

(i) Charter Sale. BancGroup contemplates that it may enter into agreements with another financial institution to undertake a transaction or a series of transactions that would have the effect of transferring Union's banking charter to such other financial institution thus allowing such other financial institution to enter the State of Florida and conduct a banking business (a Charter Sale). Such agreement will not become effective until after the Closing Date, and if this Agreement is not consummated, then BancGroup will reimburse Seller and Union such reasonable expenses as were incurred in connection with the negotiation and preparation of such agreements and any regulatory applications required to effect the Charter Sale. Seller and Union each agrees that it will take all commercially reasonable actions to assist BancGroup in such a Charter Sale, including, without limitation, approving such transactions as shareholder of Union, causing Union to prepare and execute such regulatory applications as may be required and to enter into such agreements and to effectuate such transactions as may be required to consummate a Charter Sale.

(j) Prior to the earlier of December 31, 2004 or the Closing Date, Union shall pay or accrue any and all liabilities associated with the lawsuit styled Post-Confirmation Creditors Committee of Financial Federated Title & Trust, Inc., et al v. (b) Nothing contained in this Section 13.1 shall constitute or shall be deemed to constitute liquidated damages for the willful breach by a Party of the terms of this Agreement or otherwise limit the rights of the nonbreaching Party.

13.2 Benefit and Assignment. Except as expressly contemplated hereby, neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests, or obligations hereunder shall be assigned by any Party hereto (whether by operation of Law or otherwise) without the prior written consent of the other Party. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement will be binding upon, inure to the benefit of, and be enforceable by, the Parties and their respective successors and assigns, and such other persons or parties as may be expressly provided herein.

13.3 Governing Law. Except to the extent the Laws of the State of Delaware and the State of Florida apply to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, this Agreement shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with the Laws of the State of Florida without regard to any conflict of Laws.

13.4 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to constitute an original. Each such counterpart shall become effective when one counterpart has been signed by each Party thereto.

13.5 Headings. The headings of the various articles and sections of this Agreement are for convenience of reference only and shall not be deemed a part of this Agreement or considered in construing the provisions thereof.

13.6 Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining terms and provisions thereof or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction, and if any term or provision of this Agreement is held by any court of competent jurisdiction to be void, voidable, invalid or unenforceable in any given circumstance or situation, then all other terms and provisions, being severable, shall remain in full force and effect in such circumstance or situation and the term or provision shall remain valid and in effect in any other circumstances or situation, except if such omitted term or provision would so materially adversely impact the economic benefits of the transaction to a Party as contemplated by this Agreement so as to render inadvisable the consummation of such transactions.

Use of the masculine pronoun herein shall be deemed to refer to the feminine and neuter genders and the use of singular references shall be deemed to include the plural and vice versa, as appropriate. No inference in favor of or against any Party shall be drawn from the fact that such Party or such Party's counsel has drafted any portion of this Agreement.

In the event of termination of this Agreement prior to the Closing Date, each Party shall return to the other, without retaining copies thereof, all confidential or non-public documents, work papers and other materials obtained from the other Party in connection with the transactions contemplated in this Agreement and shall keep such information confidential, not disclose such information to any other person or entity, and not use such information in connection with its business.

13.9 Equitable Remedies. The parties hereto agree that, in the event of a breach of this Agreement by either Party, the other Party may be without an adequate remedy at law owing to the unique nature of the contemplated transactions. In recognition thereof, in addition to (and not in lieu of) any remedies at law that may be available to the non-breaching Party, the non-breaching Party shall be entitled to obtain equitable relief, including the remedies of specific performance and injunction, in the event of a breach of this Agreement by the other Party, and no attempt on the part of the non-breaching Party to obtain such equitable relief shall be deemed to constitute an election of remedies by the non-breaching Party that would preclude the non-breaching Party from obtaining any remedies at law to which it would otherwise be entitled.

13.10 Attorneys Fees. If any Party hereto shall bring an action at law or in equity to enforce its rights under this Agreement (including an action based upon a misrepresentation or the breach of any warranty, covenant, agreement or obligation contained herein), the prevailing Party in such action shall be entitled to recover from the other Party its costs and expenses incurred in connection with such action (including fees, disbursements and expenses of attorneys and costs of investigation).

13.11 No Waiver. No failure, delay or omission of or by any Party in exercising any right, power or remedy upon any breach or Default of any other Party shall impair any such rights, powers or remedies of the Party not in breach or Default, nor shall it be construed to be a waiver of any such right, power or remedy, or an acquiescence in any similar breach or Default; nor shall any waiver of any single breach or Default be deemed a waiver of any other breach or default theretofore or thereafter occurring. Any waiver, permit, consent or approval of any kind or character on the part of any Party of any provisions of this Agreement must be in writing and be executed by the Parties to this Agreement and shall be effective only to the extent specifically set forth in such writing.

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Pursuant to section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, as amended, and the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of the Registrant, officers, directors, employees, and agents of the Registrant are entitled to indemnification against liabilities incurred while acting in such capacities on behalf of the Registrant, including reimbursement of certain expenses. In addition, the Registrant maintains an officers and directors insurance policy pursuant to which certain officers and all directors of the Registrant are entitled to indemnification against certain liabilities, including reimbursement of certain expenses, and the Registrant has indemnity agreements (Indemnification Agreements) with certain officers and all of its directors pursuant to which such persons may be indemnified by the Registrant against certain liabilities, including expenses.

The Indemnification Agreements are intended to provide additional indemnification to directors and officers of Colonial BancGroup beyond the specific provisions of the Delaware General Corporation Law. Under the Delaware General Corporation Law, a company may indemnify its directors and officers in circumstances other than those under which indemnification and the advance of expenses are expressly permitted by applicable statutory provisions.

Under the Delaware General Corporation Law, a director, officer, employee or agent of a corporation (i) must be indemnified by the corporation for all expenses incurred by him (including attorneys' fees) when he is successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding brought by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, (ii) may be indemnified by the corporation against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement of any such proceeding (other than a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation) even if he is not successful on the merits if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interest of the corporation (and, in the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful), and (iii) may be indemnified by the corporation for expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by him in the defense or settlement of a proceeding brought by or in the right of the corporation, if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation; provided that no indemnification may be made under the circumstances described in clause (iii) if the director, officer, employee or agent is adjudged liable to the corporation, unless a court determines that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all of the circumstances, he is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification for the expenses which the court shall deem proper. The indemnification described in clauses (ii) and (iii) above (unless ordered by a court) may be made only as authorized in a specific case upon determination by (i) a majority of a quorum of disinterested directors, (ii) independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (iii) the stock holders, that indemnification is proper in the circumstances because the applicable standard of conduct has been met. Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by an officer or director in defending a proceeding may be advanced by the corporation prior to the final disposition of the proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation. Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by other employees and agents may be advanced by the corporation upon terms and conditions deemed appropriate by the board of directors.

The indemnification provided by the Delaware General Corporation Law has at least two limitations that are addressed by the Indemnification Agreements: (i) Colonial BancGroup is under no obligation to advance expenses to a director or officer, and (ii) except in the case of a proceeding in which a director or officer is successful on the merits or otherwise, indemnification of a director or officer is discretionary rather than mandatory.

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANGROUP INC - Form S-4

The Indemnification Agreements, therefore, cover any and all expenses (including attorneys' fees and all other charges paid or payable in connection therewith) incurred in connection with investigating, defending, being a witness or participating in (including an appeal), or preparing to defend, be a witness in or participate in, any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, or any inquiry or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or otherwise, related to the fact that such director or officer is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of Colonial BancGroup or is or was serving at the request of Colonial BancGroup as a director, officer, employee, agent, partner, committee member or fiduciary of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, employee benefit plan, trust or other enterprise, or by reason of anything done or not done by such director or officer in any such capacity.

II-1

The Indemnification Agreements also provide for the prompt advancement of all expenses incurred in connection with any proceeding and obligate the director or officer to reimburse Colonial BancGroup for all amounts so advanced if it is subsequently determined, as provided in the Indemnification Agreements, that the director or officer is not entitled to indemnification.

The Indemnification Agreements further provide that the director or officer is entitled to indemnification for, and advancement of, all expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in any proceeding seeking to collect from Colonial BancGroup an indemnity claim or advancement of expenses under the Indemnification Agreements, Colonial BancGroup's Certificate of Incorporation, or the Delaware General Corporation Law, regardless of whether the director or officer is successful in such proceeding.

The Indemnification Agreements impose upon Colonial BancGroup the burden of proving that the director or officer is not entitled to indemnification in any particular case, and the Indemnification Agreements negate certain presumptions which might otherwise be drawn against a director or officer in certain circumstances. Further, the Indemnification Agreements provide that if Colonial BancGroup pays a director or officer pursuant to an Indemnification Agreement, Colonial BancGroup will be subrogated to such director's or officer's rights to recover from third parties.

The Indemnification Agreements stipulate that a director's or officer's rights under such contracts are not exclusive of any other indemnity rights a director or officer may have; however, the Indemnification Agreements prevent double payment. The Indemnification Agreements require the maintenance of directors' and officers' liability insurance if such insurance can be maintained on terms, including rates, satisfactory to Colonial BancGroup.

The benefits of the Indemnification Agreements would not be available if (i) the action with respect to which indemnification is sought was initiated or brought voluntarily by the officer or director (other than an action to enforce the right to indemnification under the Indemnification Agreements); (ii) the officer or director is paid for such expense or liability under an insurance policy; (iii) the proceeding is for an accounting of profits pursuant to Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended; (iv) the conduct of the officer or director is adjudged as constituting an unlawful personal benefit, or active or deliberate dishonesty or willful fraud or illegality; or (v) a court determines that indemnification or advancement of expenses is unlawful under the circumstances.

The Indemnification Agreements would provide indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Colonial BancGroup has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in such act and is, therefore, unenforceable.

Item 22. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned hereby undertakes as follows as required by Item 512 of Regulation S-K:

(1) That prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this Registration Statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other Items of the applicable form.

Edgar Filing: COLONIAL BANGROUP INC - Form S-4

(2) That every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (1) immediately above, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the Registration Statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to such securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Act may be permitted to directors, officers, and controlling persons of the Registrant, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(b) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of Form S-4, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the Registration Statement through the date of responding to the request.

(c) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the Registration Statement when it became effective.

(d) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement;

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(e) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
