Prior to that, Mr. Lisman was Business Unit Manager for the Air & Fuel Valves business unit at Aero Fluid Products, a TransDigm operating company (January 2017 - January 2018) and Director of Mergers and Acquisitions of the Company (November 2015 - January 2017). Prior to that, Mr. Lisman was Vice President at Warburg Pincus from 2011 to 2015. Previous experience includes private equity and investment banking roles at The Carlyle Group and Morgan Stanley.

In addition, on July 26, 2018, the Company appointed Mr. James Skulina, who was previously serving as Interim Chief Financial Officer, as Senior Vice President of Finance for a transition period. Mr. Skulina’s compensation and employment arrangements will remain unchanged. Mr. Skulina will serve as the Company’s chief accounting officer.

Employment Agreement with Michael Lisman

In connection with the foregoing, on July 27, 2018, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Lisman. The employment agreement is substantially in the form as those of the Company’s other executive officers. Unless earlier terminated by the Company or Mr. Lisman, the term of the employment agreement expires on December 31, 2023. Under the terms of the employment agreement, Mr. Lisman is entitled to receive an annual base salary of not less than $460,000 and is eligible to participate in the Company’s annual incentive plan with an incentive target set at 80% of his annual base salary. In addition, under the terms of the employment agreement, Mr. Lisman is entitled to participate in employee benefit plans, programs and arrangements that the Company may maintain from time to time for its senior officers.

The employment agreement provides that if Mr. Lisman is terminated for any reason, he will be entitled to payment of any accrued but unpaid base salary through the termination date, any unreimbursed expenses, an amount for accrued but unused sick and vacation days, and benefits owing to him under the benefit plans and programs sponsored by the Company. In addition, if Mr. Lisman’s employment is terminated without cause, if he terminates his employment for customary good reasons, or if his employment terminates due to his death or disability, the Company will pay him, in substantially equal installments over a 12-month period, an amount equal to one times his salary plus one times the greater of the all of the bonuses paid or payable to him for the prior fiscal year (excluding any extraordinary bonus) or the target bonuses for the year in which his employment terminates, determined in accordance with the Company’s bonus program(s) if any.

During the term of employment and following any termination thereof, for a period of 12 or 24 months (depending on the type of termination), Mr. Lisman will be prohibited from engaging in any business that competes with any business of the Company or its subsidiaries. In addition, during the term of his employment and for the two-year period following the termination of his employment for any reason, he will be prohibited from soliciting or inducing any person who is or was employed by, or providing consulting services to, the Company or any of its subsidiaries during the 12-month period prior to the date of the termination of his employment, to terminate their employment or consulting relationship with the Company or such subsidiary. Under the terms of his employment agreement, Mr. Lisman is also subject to certain confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations, and the Company has agreed, so long as the applicable executive is not in breach of certain of his obligations under his employment agreement, to, among other things, indemnify him to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law against all costs, charges and expenses incurred or sustained by him in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which he may be made a party by reason of his being or having been a director, officer or employee of ours or his serving or having served any other enterprise as a director, officer or employee at our request.
