PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The management of Citizens, Inc. (the "Company"), in consultation with the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors, determined that the Company is unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2017 (the "2017 Form 10-K") within the prescribed time period due to the fact the Company requires additional time to complete, and its independent registered public accounting firm requires additional time to review, certain items necessary for the audit of the Company's financial statements and the assessment of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. At present, the Company expects to file its 2017 Form 10-K with the Securities and Exchange Commission on or before April 2, 2018, the first business day after the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date.

4. If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain matters discussed in this Form 12b-25 constitute forward-looking statements under the federal securities laws. These forward-looking statements are based on our current beliefs, assumptions and expectations regarding future events, which in turn are based on information currently available to us. Such forward-looking statements include the anticipated timing of the filing of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the period ended December 31, 2017. We caution you not to place undue reliance on any such forward-looking statements. Several factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in or contemplated by the forward-looking statements. Such factors include, but are not limited to, the fact that the Company is continuing to complete certain items necessary for the audit of its financial statements and its assessment of internal controls and the risk that additional information may arise or different conclusions may be reached prior to the expected filing. Other risk factors affecting the Company are discussed in detail in the Company's filings with the SEC, including its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by law.
