A Merger Proposal - Your Vote Is Very Important

Dear Stockholders of Franklin Street Properties Corp.:

The board of directors of Franklin Street Properties Corp. ("FSP Corp.") has approved and adopted an agreement and plan of merger with 13 real estate investment trusts (the "Target REITs"), providing for FSP Corp. to acquire the Target REITs by merger.

We will hold a special meeting of stockholders at 401 Edgewater Place, Suite 200, Wakefield, Massachusetts, the corporate offices of FSP Corp., on Friday, May 30, 2003 at 9:00 a.m., local time, at which we will ask you to approve the merger agreement. You may vote either by attending the meeting or by signing and returning the enclosed proxy card. This proxy statement and accompanying proxy card are being mailed on or about May 13, 2003 to all stockholders of FSP Corp. entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting. If the merger agreement is approved:

- o The Target REITs will merge with and into FSP Corp., and

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

- o FSP Corp. will issue an aggregate of approximately 25,000,091 shares of common stock, $0.0001 par value per share, to the holders of preferred stock of the Target REITs.

The following questions and answers are intended to help clarify the key issues involved in the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and the mergers. For your convenience, we have included page references parenthetically to direct you to a more complete description of the topics found in the enclosed proxy statement.

Q: Is the business of FSP Corp. changing?

A: No. The business of FSP Corp. immediately before the mergers will be the same as the business of FSP Corp. immediately after the mergers. FSP Corp.'s assets, however, are increasing. FSP Corp. will acquire the real properties owned by the Target REITs. (See pages 73 to 77 of the enclosed proxy statement for additional information.)

Q: Will my proportional interest in FSP Corp. change?

A: Yes. You will incur substantial dilution to your voting power and percentage ownership in FSP Corp. due to the number of shares of FSP common stock being issued to the Target REIT stockholders. The Target REIT stockholders will own 50.37% of the voting power and percentage ownership in FSP Corp. following the consummation of the mergers. Of course, the mergers will also substantially increase the assets owned by FSP Corp. (See page 7 of the enclosed proxy statement for additional information.)

Q: Will the directors and officers of FSP Corp. or their affiliates receive any fees, commissions or other compensation in connection with the merger agreement or the mergers?

A: No. (See page 43 of the enclosed proxy statement for additional information.)

Q: How do I know if the price paid for the Target Stock is fair to me?

A: You should carefully read the information you have received in the enclosed Proxy Statement and make your own determination. Your Board of Directors believes the mergers are fair to you and recommends you vote in favor of them. The members of your Board of Directors have a number of significant conflicts of interest regarding the mergers; however, they believe that they have not been affected by these conflicts and that they have properly exercised their fiduciary duty in recommending approval of the mergers. The FSP Board did not establish a committee of independent representatives to evaluate and approve the mergers on behalf of FSP Corp. Under Maryland law, the FSP Board cannot delegate to a third party its fiduciary duties relating to the determination to approve or not approve the mergers. Because all of the members of the FSP Board have significant conflicts of interest, as described above, and none can, therefore, be considered "independent", the FSP Board determined it could not establish a committee of independent representatives to evaluate and approve the mergers on behalf of FSP Corp. The FSP Board determined that appointing independent representatives to negotiate the terms of the mergers and to make recommendations to the FSP Board would not be worth the anticipated cost, since the FSP Board would still be obligated to make its own independent determinations. (See pages 38 to 43 of the enclosed proxy statement for additional information.)

Q: Will the investment objectives and policies of FSP Corp. change?

A: No. (See pages 74 to 76 of the enclosed proxy statement for additional information.)

Q: Why does FSP Corp. propose to merge with the Target REITs?

A: FSP Corp. believes that the mergers will provide several benefits to FSP Corp. and the FSP stockholders, including:

- o FSP Corp.'s real estate portfolio following the mergers will be substantially larger and more diverse both geographically and by tenant business, reducing the dependence of an investment in FSP Corp. on the performance of a smaller group of assets.
- o FSP Corp.'s business will generate a greater percentage of its revenues from rentals from real properties and a lesser percentage from real estate investment banking/brokerage activities, constituting a more stable income stream than that currently received by FSP Corp.
- o FSP Corp.'s larger portfolio of real estate may produce economies of scale, increase its purchasing power relating to goods and services and reduce the percentage that expenses constitute of gross revenue.
- o FSP Corp.'s increased asset base should give FSP Corp. the flexibility to increase its $50,000,000 line of credit, enabling FSP Corp. to finance the acquisition of real property for itself or to provide larger loans to entities whose syndication it sponsors to finance their acquisition of real property.
- o FSP Corp.'s larger portfolio of real properties and larger equity capitalization should increase the likelihood that FSP Corp. may eventually be able to provide liquidity for its equity investors through the public markets.

(See pages 5 to 6 of the enclosed proxy statement for additional information.)

Q: Will I receive any consideration in the mergers?

A: No. However, if you are a Target REIT stockholder as well as an FSP stockholder, you will receive FSP common stock (in addition to the shares you currently own) for your target stock. (See pages 32 to 34 of the enclosed proxy statement for additional information.)

Q: How will FSP Corp. issue shares of FSP common stock to the Target REIT stockholders?

A: FSP Corp. will issue shares to the Target REIT stockholders in private placements under an exemption from registration under the Securities Act pursuant to Section 4(2) and Rule 506 of Regulation D. (See page 15 of the enclosed proxy statement for additional information.)

Q: When do you expect to complete the mergers?

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

A: We expect to complete the mergers on or about June 1, 2003. (See page 21 of the enclosed proxy statement for additional information.)

Q: Who must approve the mergers?

A: In addition to the approvals of the board of directors of FSP Corp. and the boards of directors of the Target REITs, which have already been obtained, the FSP stockholders and Target REIT stockholders must approve the mergers. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of FSP common stock issued, outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting is required to approve the mergers. If one or more Target REITs does not obtain the vote required for the consummation of the merger with such Target REIT, FSP Corp. will not proceed with the mergers of any other Target REIT. The affirmative vote of a majority of the common stock in each Target REIT is also required to effectuate the applicable merger. FSP Corp. is the sole stockholder of the common stock of each Target REIT, and will vote those shares in favor of the respective mergers. (See page 19 of the enclosed proxy statement for additional information.)

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: FSP Corp. urges you to carefully read the enclosed proxy statement, including its appendices, and to consider how the mergers will affect you as an FSP stockholder.

Q: How do I vote?

A: You may indicate how you want to vote on your proxy card. You may also attend the stockholder meeting and vote in person instead of submitting a proxy. If you fail either to return your proxy card or to vote in person at the stockholder meeting, or if you mark your proxy "abstain," the effect will be a vote against the mergers. If you return your proxy card but fail to indicate your vote on your proxy, your proxy will be counted as a vote for the mergers. (See pages 1 to 2 of the enclosed proxy statement for additional information.)

Q: May I change my vote after I have mailed in my signed proxy card?

A: You may change your vote at any time before the vote takes place at the stockholder meeting by either submitting a later dated proxy card or sending a written notice stating that you would like to revoke your proxy. In addition, you may attend the stockholder meeting and vote in person. However, if you elect to vote in person at the stockholder meeting and your shares are held by a bank or other nominee, you must bring to the stockholder meeting a legal proxy from the bank or other nominee authorizing you to vote the shares. (See pages 1 to 2 of the enclosed proxy statement for additional information.)

Q: Where and when is the special meeting?

A: The special meeting of FSP stockholders will be held at 401 Edgewater Place, Suite 200, Wakefield, Massachusetts, the corporate offices of FSP Corp., at 9:00 a.m., local time, on Friday, May 30,

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

2003. (See page 1 of the enclosed proxy statement for additional information.)

Q: Whom may I contact with any additional questions?

A: You may call your investment executive at FSP Investments at (800) 950-6288.

After careful consideration, including the consideration of significant conflicts of interest in connection with the mergers, the FSP Corp. board of directors unanimously approved and adopted the merger agreement and concluded that the merger agreement is in the best interests of FSP Corp. and its stockholders. The FSP Board unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" approval of the merger agreement.

Please carefully consider all of the information in this proxy statement regarding FSP Corp., the Target REITs and the mergers, including in particular the discussion in the section called "Risk Factors" starting on page 3.

Very truly yours,

/s/ George J. Carter

SUMMARY

This Summary highlights selected information from this document and may not contain all of the information that is important to you. To understand the proposal presented in this proxy statement with respect to the approval of the merger agreement, providing for the mergers and the issuance of shares of FSP common stock, you should read carefully the entire document. For your convenience, a glossary of terms is included in Appendix B to this proxy statement. We have included page references parenthetically to direct you to a more complete description of the topics of the summary.

FSP Corp. (Pages 73 to 77)

FSP Corp. is a Maryland corporation that operates in a manner intended to qualify as a real estate investment trust for federal income tax purposes. It is the successor to Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership, a Massachusetts limited partnership. The FSP Partnership was originally formed as a Massachusetts general partnership in January 1997 as the successor to a Massachusetts general partnership that was formed in 1981 and was subsequently formed as a Massachusetts limited partnership in February 1997. On January 1, 2002, the FSP Partnership merged with and into FSP Corp., which was a wholly owned subsidiary of the FSP Partnership, with FSP Corp. being the surviving entity (the "Conversion"). Pursuant to the Conversion, the FSP Partnership ceased to exist, FSP Corp. succeeded to the business of the FSP Partnership and each unit of both general and limited partnership interests in the FSP Partnership was converted into one share of FSP common stock. As a result of the Conversion, FSP Corp. now holds, directly and indirectly, 100% of the interest in three former subsidiaries of the FSP Partnership: FSP Investments LLC, a

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Massachusetts limited liability company, FSP Property Management LLC, a Massachusetts limited liability company, and FSP Holdings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company. FSP Corp., its subsidiaries and the Target REITs, after giving effect to the consummation of the mergers, are referred to as the "Combined Company". The mergers will not cause the Combined Company to incur any additional fees for management of its investments.

FSP Investments acts as a real estate investment firm and broker/dealer with respect to (a) the organization of investment vehicles which are typically syndicated through private placements exempt from registration under the Securities Act ("Sponsored Entities"), some of which were limited partnerships (the "Sponsored Partnerships") and some of which are corporations intended to qualify for federal income tax purposes as real estate investment trusts, including the Target REITs (the "Sponsored REITs"), (b) the acquisition of real estate by the Sponsored Entities and (c) the sale of equity interests in the Sponsored Entities. FSP Investments derives revenue from commissions received in connection with the sale of equity interests in the Sponsored Entities. FSP Investments also derives revenue from fees paid by the Sponsored Entities for the services of FSP Investments in identifying, inspecting and negotiating to purchase real properties on behalf of the Sponsored Entities. FSP Investments is a registered broker/dealer with the Commission and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. FSP Corp. has made an election to treat FSP Investments as a "taxable REIT subsidiary" for federal income tax purposes.

FSP Property Management asset manages each Sponsored Entity and provides property management services or property accounting services to eight Sponsored Entities. FSP Property Management receives fee income from those Sponsored Entities that have not been acquired by FSP Corp. FSP Property Management does not receive any rental income. As a result of the mergers, fee income received by FSP Property Management from the 13 Target REITs will be eliminated on the consolidated financial statements of the Combined Company for accounting purposes.

FSP Corp. holds all of its interests in real property through the 17 Sponsored Partnerships that it has acquired, each of which owns or owned real property. FSP Holdings, which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of FSP Corp., is the general partner of each Sponsored Partnership, and FSP Corp. is the sole limited partner of each Sponsored Partnership.

FSP Corp. holds a nominal interest in each of the Sponsored REITs through its ownership of 100% of the common stock of each Sponsored REIT. The preferred stock interests in each Sponsored REIT are held by investors who acquired their interests in an offering exempt from registration pursuant to Section 4(2) of the Securities Act and Regulation D promulgated thereunder. The Sponsored REITs include the 13 Target REITs. After the consummation of the mergers, FSP Corp. will continue to own all of the interests in the 17 Sponsored Partnerships. The Target REITs will merge with and into FSP Corp., with FSP Corp. as the surviving corporation, and will therefore no longer exist after the consummation of the mergers. The remaining three Sponsored REITs will be unaffected by the mergers.

FSP Corp.'s principal executive offices are located at 401 Edgewater Place, Suite 200, Wakefield, Massachusetts 01880, and its telephone number is (781) 557-1300. FSP Corp. leases its executive offices.

The Target REITs (Pages 115 to 125)

Each Target REIT is a privately-held real estate investment trust formed as a corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware for the purpose of

Votes Required (Page 19)

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of FSP Common Stock issued, outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting is required to approve the merger agreement, providing for the mergers and the issuance of FSP common stock in exchange for target stock.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the target stock in each of the Target REITs is also required to effectuate the applicable merger. If one or more Target REITs does not obtain the vote required for the consummation of the merger with such Target REIT, FSP Corp. will not proceed with the mergers of any other Target REIT. Each Target REIT will solicit the vote of its stockholders separately. The affirmative vote of a majority of the common stock in each Target REIT is also required to effectuate the applicable merger. FSP

iii

Corp. is the sole stockholder of the common stock of each Target REIT, and will vote those shares in favor of the respective mergers.

Consummation of the mergers is subject to a number of conditions and will not occur unless, among other things, holders of a majority of the shares of stock of each Target REIT vote to approve the mergers.

The executive officers and directors of FSP Corp. hold an aggregate of 3,705,307.01 shares of FSP common stock, constituting approximately 15.04% of the outstanding shares of FSP common stock. The executive officers and directors have indicated that they intend to vote all of their respective shares in favor of the merger agreement.

Barry Silverstein and Dennis J. McGillicuddy, each a director of FSP Corp., own an aggregate of 601.25 and 229 shares of target stock, respectively. Such shares of target stock will convert into 4,130,961.11 and 1,586,343.29 shares of FSP common stock, respectively, upon consummation of the mergers. Messrs. Silverstein and McGillicuddy have indicated that they intend to vote their respective shares of target stock in favor of the merger agreement.

FSP stockholders will incur substantial dilution to their voting power and percentage ownership in FSP Corp. due to the number of shares of FSP common stock being issued to the Target REIT stockholders as a result of the mergers. The Target REIT stockholders will own 50.37% of the voting power and percentage ownership in FSP Corp. following the consummation of the mergers.

Recommendation to FSP Stockholders (Page 19)

The FSP Board, whose members have significant conflicts of interest in connection with the mergers, believes that the merger agreement, providing for the mergers and the issuance of FSP common stock in exchange for target stock, is in the best interest of FSP Corp. and the FSP stockholders and recommends you vote FOR approval of the merger agreement.

The Mergers (Pages 15 to 23)

Overview. As a result of inquiries from members of the FSP Board, the management of FSP Corp. in late July 2002 instructed Hale and Dorr LLP to explore the feasibility of the acquisition of the Target REITs. After reaching an agreement on a methodology to value the proposed transaction, receiving a report from a third party as to the reasonableness of such methodology and reaching agreement on the amount of merger consideration to be paid and the terms of the mergers, the FSP Board and the Boards of Directors of the Target REITs (the "Target Boards") voted to approve the merger agreement and the mergers and recommend to the FSP stockholders and the Target REIT stockholders to vote to approve the mergers.

The Mergers. With respect to each Target REIT, following the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to closing relating to that Target REIT, on the effective date of the mergers, which is expected to be on or about June 1, 2003, each Target REIT will be acquired by merger. Each share of target stock of that Target REIT will be converted into a specified number of shares of FSP common stock.

iv

The following chart sets forth the number of shares of FSP common stock to be received as merger consideration by the Target REIT stockholders for each share of target stock of the respective Target REIT. FSP Corp. will issue the merger consideration to the Target REIT stockholders in private placements, exempt from registration pursuant to Section 4(2) under the Securities Act and Rule 506 of Regulation D promulgated thereunder. FSP Corp. expects to issue fractional shares of FSP common stock as merger consideration.

Target REIT -----	Total Number of Shares of Target Stock Outstanding -----	Shares of FSP Common Stock Issuable in Exchange for Each Share of Target Stock -----	Total Shares of FSP Common Stock Issuable to Target REIT Stockholders -----
Forest Park	78	7,299.59	569,368.02
The Gael	212.50	6,975.59	1,482,312.88
Goldentop	231.50	7,302.58	1,690,547.27
Centennial	158	6,905.56	1,091,078.48
Meadow Point	257.50	6,983.25	1,798,186.88
Timberlake	515	6,787.12	3,495,366.80
Federal Way	200	6,779.66	1,355,932.00
Fair Lakes	480	6,805.36	3,266,572.80
Northwest Point	372.50	6,779.66	2,525,423.35
Timberlake East	250	6,830.85	1,707,712.50
Merrywood	206	6,854.51	1,412,029.06
Plaza Ridge I	400	6,822.03	2,728,812.00
Park Ten	275	6,824.54	1,876,748.50

None of the shares of FSP common stock to be issued as merger consideration to the Target REIT stockholders will be placed into escrow or otherwise withheld as a source of potential compensation to FSP Corp. should the Combined Company discover, after the consummation of the mergers, that any of the Target REITs incurred any undisclosed liabilities prior to the consummation of the mergers.

Consummation of the mergers is subject to a number of conditions and will not occur unless, among other things, holders of a majority of the shares of stock of each Target REIT vote to approve the mergers.

The following table sets forth: (i) the value ascribed to each Target REIT for purposes of the merger consideration, and (ii) the sum of the appraised value of the property held by each Target REIT and the estimated cash reserve balances as of September 30, 2002.

Target REIT -----	Value Ascribed -----	Appraised Value (1) -----
Forest Park	$ 8,398,178.30	$ 7,975,000
The Gael	$ 21,864,114.98	$ 19,475,000
Goldentop	$ 24,935,572.23	$ 23,650,000
Centennial	$ 16,093,407.58	$ 14,120,000
Meadow Point	$ 26,523,256.48	$ 23,600,000
Timberlake	$ 51,556,660.30	$ 44,025,000
Federal Way	$ 19,999,997.00	$ 17,050,000
Fair Lakes	$ 48,181,948.80	$ 41,200,000
Northwest Point	$ 37,249,994.41	$ 31,650,000
Timberlake East	$ 25,188,759.38	$ 21,675,000
Merrywood	$ 20,827,428.64	$ 18,000,000
Plaza Ridge I	$ 40,249,977.00	$ 34,525,000
Park Ten	$ 27,682,040.38	$ 23,750,000
Total	$368,751,335.48	$320,695,000

(1) As of September 30, 2002, includes cash reserve balances and amounts have been rounded to the nearest $25,000.

The FSP Board determined the value ascribed to the Target REITs on the basis of the value the acquisition of the Target REITs would add to FSP Corp. as determined on an "enterprise" or "on-going concern" basis. These aggregate values exceed the aggregate appraised values of the Target REITs by approximately $48 million. FSP Corp. has used the enterprise or on-going concern method of valuing acquisitions in the past and believes that this method, rather than the appraised value method, is the customary method to value REITs.

Conditions Precedent to the Mergers (Pages 35 to 36)

The respective obligations of each party to effect the mergers are subject to the fulfillment on or before the effective date of the mergers of certain conditions, including the following:

- o the approval of the merger agreement and the mergers by the FSP stockholders and the Target REIT stockholders;

- o that FSP Corp. reasonably believes that the number of Target REIT stockholders who are non-accredited investors does not exceed 35 and that each such non-accredited investor has, either alone or with his/her/its purchase representative, such knowledge and experience in business and financial matters that he/she/it is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of FSP common stock;
- o the receipt of all necessary consents, waivers, approvals, authorizations or orders and the making of all required filings;
- o that there shall not have occurred any material adverse change in the overall business or prospects of any of the Target REITs or FSP Corp. or in applicable tax or other regulatory provisions;
- o that the FSP Board shall not have become aware of any facts that, in its reasonable judgment, have or may have a material adverse effect on the Target REITs and FSP Corp., taken as a whole, the mergers or the value of the Combined Company; and
- o that the representations of FSP Corp. and the Target REITs set forth in the merger agreement are true and complete in all material respects as of the closing date of the mergers.

Expected Benefits from the Mergers (Pages 28 to 30)

The following highlights the primary benefits the mergers are expected to generate for FSP Corp. and the FSP stockholders:

- o The Combined Company's real estate portfolio will be substantially larger and more diverse both geographically and by tenant business than that of FSP Corp., reducing the dependence of an investment in the Combined Company on the performance of a smaller group of assets.
- o The Combined Company's business will generate a greater percentage of its revenues from rentals from real properties and a lesser percentage from real estate investment banking/brokerage activities, constituting a more stable income stream than that currently received by FSP Corp.
- o The Combined Company's larger portfolio of real estate may produce economies of scale, increase its purchasing power relating to goods and services and reduce the percentage that expenses constitute of gross revenue.
- o The Combined Company's increased asset base should give FSP Corp. the flexibility to increase its $50,000,000 line of credit, enabling the Combined Company to finance the acquisition of real property for itself or to provide larger loans to Sponsored Entities to finance their acquisition of real property.
- o The Combined Company's larger portfolio of real properties and larger equity capitalization should increase the likelihood that the Combined Company may eventually be able to provide liquidity for its equity investors through the public markets.

Fairness of the Mergers (Pages 38 to 43)

The FSP Board believes that the terms of the merger agreement, when considered as a whole, are fair to the FSP stockholders and the merger consideration offered in exchange for the stock in the Target REITs constitutes fair consideration for the interests of the Target REIT stockholders. The following provides a summary of the factors upon which the FSP Board based its conclusion as to the fairness of the mergers and the merger consideration to be paid by FSP Corp. The FSP Board did not find it practicable to, and did not attempt to, quantify or otherwise assign relative weight to these factors in reaching its determination.

- o FSP Corp.'s management exercised its reasonable judgment to determine an estimated value of FSP Corp. and of the Combined Company and determined the amount of the merger consideration to be the difference between those two values. Given that no member of the FSP Board is "independent" and each member has significant conflicts of interest in connection with the mergers, as described below, the FSP Board determined that it could not establish an independent committee to evaluate and approve the mergers. Under Maryland law, the FSP Board cannot delegate to a third party its fiduciary duties relating to the decision to approve or not approve the mergers. The FSP Board determined that appointing independent representatives to negotiate the terms of the mergers and to make recommendations to the FSP Board would not be worth the anticipated cost, since the FSP Board would still be obligated to make its own independent determinations. The FSP Board did consider obtaining a fairness opinion from a third party but determined that the estimated cost of obtaining such an opinion exceeded its anticipated benefits to FSP Corp. The FSP Board used the same methodology to value FSP Corp. and the Combined Company that FSP Corp.'s predecessor-in-interest, the FSP Partnership, used in connection with its acquisition of Sponsored Partnerships, which involved similar conflicts of interest.
- o FSP Corp.'s management retained A.G. Edwards, Inc. to consult with management regarding the valuation methodology of FSP Corp. and the Combined Company. A.G. Edwards has advised the FSP Board that it believes the methodology used by management to estimate hypothetical values of FSP Corp. and the Combined Company is not unreasonable. A.G. Edwards' report only addressed the methodology used by management to value FSP Corp. and the Combined Company, and did not constitute an opinion as to the fairness of the transaction to the FSP stockholders (a "fairness opinion"). In rendering a fairness opinion, certain additional extrinsic analyses, tasks and judgments necessarily must be undertaken and completed. These include, among other things: an independent review of appraisals; site inspections; analyses of local and national economic conditions, Target REIT properties, past transactions and comparable companies; detailed due diligence; a review of comparable transactions; random interviews with key investors; and analysis of discounted cash flow, pro forma financial statements, synergies upon merger and each party's contribution to such synergies. In addition, A.G. Edwards would have charged substantially more to render a fairness opinion than for a report on the methodology used to value FSP Corp. and Combined Company.

- o The Target Boards obtained independent third-party appraisals of the real property owned by the Target REITs, and FSP Corp.'s management considered these appraisals in allocating the merger consideration among the Target REITs. The FSP Board took into account the relative values set forth in these appraisals in allocating the merger consideration among the Target REITs.

- o The FSP Board considered FSP Corp.'s management's view of the financial condition, results of operations and business of FSP Corp. and each of the Target REITs before and after giving effect to the mergers and considered FSP Corp.'s management's recommendation of ranges of estimated values of FSP Corp. and the Combined Company as set forth in the Valuation Overview attached hereto as Appendix D.
- o The members of the FSP Board have significant conflicts of interest in connection with the mergers, and no unaffiliated representatives were appointed to negotiate the terms of the mergers on behalf of FSP Corp. In particular, Barry Silverstein and Dennis J. McGillicuddy own an aggregate of 601.25 and 229 shares of target stock, respectively. Such shares of target stock will convert into 4,130,961.11 and 1,586,343.29 shares of FSP common stock, respectively, upon consummation of the mergers. Messrs. Silverstein and McGillicuddy also currently own, however, 1,148,878.50 and 990,325.75 shares of FSP common stock, respectively. The FSP Board did not establish a committee of independent representatives to evaluate and approve the mergers on behalf of FSP Corp. Under Maryland law, the FSP Board cannot delegate to a third party its fiduciary duties relating to the determination to approve or not approve the mergers. Because all of the members of the FSP Board have significant conflicts of interest, as described above, and none can, therefore, be considered "independent", the FSP Board determined it could not establish a committee of independent representatives to evaluate and approve the mergers on behalf of FSP Corp. The FSP Board determined that appointing independent representatives to negotiate the terms of the mergers and to make recommendations to the FSP Board would not be worth the anticipated cost, since the FSP Board would still be obligated to make its own independent determinations. No fees or other compensation will be payable to the members of the FSP Board in connection with the mergers, although Messrs. Silverstein and McGillicuddy will participate in the merger consideration to the extent of their ownership of target stock. The FSP Board believes that its determination regarding the fairness of the mergers was based upon the proper exercise of its fiduciary duty, unaffected by these conflicts of interest.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

The FSP Board determined the amount of merger consideration by first estimating a value for FSP Corp. of approximately $363,296,000, which fell within the range of values of $328 million to $416 million submitted to the FSP Board by the management of FSP Corp. The FSP Board then estimated a value for the Combined Company of approximately $732,047,000, which fell within the range of values of $642 million to $815 million submitted to the FSP Board by the management of FSP Corp. In determining these estimated values, the FSP Board took into account the assets and liabilities of FSP Corp. and the Combined Company, their expected cash available for distribution, the multiples to cash available for distribution commonly used in valuing REITs and the limited liquidity of FSP common stock. The FSP Board did not derive these values by applying a mechanical formula, but instead exercised its judgement in good faith after consideration of the relevant factors.

The FSP Board then calculated the difference between the estimated value of FSP Corp. prior to the consummation of the mergers and the estimated value of FSP Corp. following the consummation of the mergers to be approximately $368,751,000. The increase in the estimated value of the Combined Company over the estimated value of FSP Corp. derives from the increased cash available for distribution of the Combined Company and the increased percentage of revenue attributable to real estate assets rather than transactional business. Because both the increased cash available for distribution and the higher percentage of revenue generated by real estate assets are attributable to the Target REITs, the FSP Board determined that it would be fair to the FSP stockholders to fix the merger consideration in an amount equal to the increase in estimated value. The number of shares of FSP common stock issuable to Target REIT stockholders as merger consideration, therefore, is approximately 25,000,091, which is equal to the approximately $368,751,000 estimated value differential divided by the $14.75 per share current estimated value of FSP Corp.

Third Party Reports (Pages 44 to 50)

Valuation. A.G. Edwards advised the FSP Board that it believes the methodology used by FSP Corp.'s management to estimate hypothetical values of FSP Corp. and the Combined Company (as described in "Fairness of the Mergers") is not unreasonable. A.G. Edwards provides many businesses with comprehensive capital raising and financial advisory services and has extensive experience with all types of real estate securities. FSP Corp.'s management provided A.G. Edwards with historical and forecasted financial information describing FSP Corp. and the Target REITs. Such information was not audited, reviewed or compiled by an independent certified public accounting firm and A.G. Edwards takes no responsibility for the accuracy of such information. Forecasted financial information was prepared by FSP Corp.'s management and A.G. Edwards was not asked to consider, nor did it consider, the reasonableness of the assumptions on which such forecasts were based.

In performing its analysis, A.G. Edwards made numerous assumptions with respect to interest rates, dividend rates, market conditions, general business conditions, local and national real estate conditions, economic conditions and government regulations. A.G. Edwards also assumed in all respects material to its analysis that the representations and warranties of each party contained in the merger agreement were true and correct, that each party would perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by it under the merger agreement and that all conditions to the consummation of the mergers would be satisfied without any modification or waiver thereof. A.G. Edwards also assumed that all governmental, regulatory and other consents and approvals contemplated by the merger agreement would be obtained and that in the course of obtaining any of those consents, no restrictions would be imposed or waivers made that would have an adverse effect on the contemplated mergers. A.G. Edwards also assumed that the mergers would be accounted for in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and that the mergers would be consummated on the terms contained in the merger agreement without any waiver or modification of any material terms or conditions by the parties.

In particular, A.G. Edwards received the "Valuation Overview" prepared by FSP Corp, and attached to this proxy statement as Appendix D. FSP Corp. determined the values set forth in the Valuation Overview on August 15, 2002. A.G. Edwards concluded that the methodology techniques used in the Valuation Overview, the range of multiples applied to cash available for distribution and the range of discounts applied for lack of marketability were not unreasonable. The estimated hypothetical value ranges contained in the valuation overview (a range of estimated hypothetical value for FSP Corp. of $328 million to $416 million and a range of estimated hypothetical value for the Combined Company of $642 million to $815 million) represent analysis considering value as of the date specified, do not reflect any changes in value that may have occurred after that date, are subject to certain assumptions and may not represent the true worth or realizable value of FSP Corp. or the Combined Company. A.G. Edwards was not engaged to, nor did it render, a valuation or fairness opinion.

The Appraisals. The respective Target Boards retained independent third party appraisers to appraise the fair market value of each Target REIT's real estate as of a date no earlier than August 23, 2002. The applicable Target REITs obtained appraisals for the properties owned by Merrywood, Plaza Ridge I and Park Ten during the due diligence period in 2002 prior to acquisition of the properties. No new appraisals were ordered by the respective Target Boards for these properties because the respective Target Boards did not believe that there had been material changes in the buildings or real estate markets since the time of the last appraisals, each of which had been prepared within the last twelve calendar months.

In preparing the appraisals, the appraisers collected from the Target REITs information regarding the operating history of the properties, conducted site inspections of all of the Target REITs' properties in August 2002 and September 2002 and interviewed and relied on representations of certain representatives of the Target REITs. The appraisers' conclusions are based upon conditions they observed at the properties during their inspection and assumptions, qualifications and limitations deemed reasonable at the time concerning, among other things, legal title, the absence of physical defects or hazardous materials, future percentage of leased rentable square feet, income and competition with respect to each property. The appraisals reflect the appraisers' valuation of the real estate of the Target REITs as of their respective dates, in the context of the information available on that date. Events occurring subsequent to the dates of the respective appraisals could affect the properties or assumptions used in preparing the appraisals. The Target Boards imposed no limitations on the scope of the appraisers' appraisals. The Target REITs have made the appraisals available to FSP Corp. and have allowed the FSP Board to rely on the appraisals. FSP Corp.'s management took the appraisals into consideration and used them as guides in allocating the merger consideration among the Target REITs.

FSP Corp. took the appraisals into account in allocating the merger consideration among the Target REITs. See "Fairness of the Mergers - Fairness of the Merger Consideration - Allocation of Merger Consideration".

Conflicts of Interest (Pages 51 to 52)

A number of conflicts of interest are inherent in the relationships among the Target REITs, the Target Boards, FSP Corp., the FSP Board and their respective affiliates. These conflicts of interest include, among others:

- o George J. Carter, the President, Chief Executive Officer and a director of FSP Corp., is the President and a director of each Target REIT;
- o Barry Silverstein and Dennis J. McGillicuddy, each a director of FSP Corp., own an aggregate of 601.25 and 229 shares of target stock, respectively. Such shares of target stock will convert into 4,130,961.11 and 1,586,343.29 shares of FSP common stock, respectively, upon consummation of the mergers;
- o Richard R. Norris, an Executive Vice President and a director of FSP Corp., is also a director and an Executive Vice President of each Target REIT;
- o Barbara J. Corinha, Vice President, Chief Operating Officer, Treasurer, Secretary and a director of FSP Corp. is also Vice President, Chief Operating Officer, Treasurer, Secretary and a director of each Target REIT;
- o Janet P. Notopoulos, Vice President and a director of FSP Corp., is also a Vice President of each Target REIT; and
- o Each of R. Scott MacPhee and William W. Gribbell, each an Executive Vice President of FSP Corp., is also each a director and an Executive Vice President of each Target REIT.

No unaffiliated representatives were appointed to negotiate the terms of the mergers on behalf of FSP Corp. Moreover, no committee of independent representatives was established to evaluate and approve the mergers on behalf of FSP Corp. Under Maryland law, the FSP Board cannot delegate to a third party its fiduciary duties relating to the determination to approve or not approve the mergers. Because all of the members of the FSP Board have significant conflicts of interest and none are, therefore, considered "independent", the FSP Board determined it could not establish a committee of independent representatives to evaluate and approve the mergers on behalf of FSP Corp. The FSP Board determined that appointing independent representatives to negotiate the terms of the mergers and to make recommendations to the FSP Board would not be worth the anticipated cost, since the FSP Board still would be obligated to make its own independent determinations.

Mr. Silverstein and Mr. McGillicuddy are the only officers or directors of FSP Corp. who are not also officers or directors of any Target REIT. The remainder of the officers and directors of FSP Corp. serve as a director and/or officer, in the positions listed above, of each Target REIT.

Upon completion of the mergers, Mr. Silverstein's percentage ownership interest of FSP Corp. will increase from 4.66% to 10.68%, Mr. McGillicuddy's percentage ownership interest will increase from 4.02% to 5.21%, and the percentage ownership of the current directors and executive officers as a group will increase from 15.04% to 19.06%.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Dissenters' Rights of FSP Stockholders (Page 114)

No FSP stockholder will be entitled to dissenters' rights in connection with the mergers.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Considerations (Pages 144 to 159)

The mergers are intended to qualify as reorganizations within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. If the mergers qualify as reorganizations, there will be no direct United States federal income tax consequences to FSP Corp. as a result of the mergers. However, as a result of the combination of FSP Corp. with the Target REITs pursuant to the mergers, FSP Corp. might no longer qualify as a real estate investment trust under Section 856 of the Internal Revenue Code. FSP Corp. could lose its ability to so qualify for a variety of reasons relating to the nature of the assets acquired from the Target REITs, the identity of the shareholders of the Target REITs who become shareholders of FSP Corp. or the failure of one or more of the Target REITs to have previously qualified as a real estate investment trust.

There should be no United States federal income tax consequences of the mergers to FSP stockholders, subject to certain risks described more fully in "Material United States Federal Income Tax Considerations."

Accounting Treatment (Pages 19 to 20)

Each of the mergers will be accounted for as a purchase under generally accepted accounting principles.

Dividends in Respect of First Quarter 2003 (Pages 6 to 7)

Each Target REIT expects to declare in the first quarter of 2003 and pay to its Target REIT stockholders thereafter a dividend with respect to its first quarter 2003 operations. Pursuant to the merger agreement, such dividends will be paid in an amount consistent with past practice and custom of the relevant Target REIT. The cash paid out in these dividends will reduce the amount of cash held by each Target REIT and acquired by FSP Corp. upon consummation of the mergers. Because the Target REITs have not yet declared these cash dividends, FSP Corp. cannot estimate the aggregate amount of such dividends. Pursuant to the merger agreement, FSP Corp. has assumed the obligation to pay any such dividends that have been declared but not paid prior to the effective date of the mergers. In addition, FSP Corp. expects to declare in the first quarter of 2003 and pay to its stockholders in the second quarter of 2003 dividends in respect of first quarter 2003 operations. Such dividends will be payable to holders of FSP common stock as of a record date prior to the effective date of the mergers and, therefore, target stockholders will only receive such dividends to the extent that they are also FSP stockholders and only to the extent of their holdings of FSP common stock. The cash available for this dividend and xiii

possibly for future dividends to the FSP stockholders will be reduced by the amount of expenses related to the mergers paid by FSP Corp.

Expenses of the Mergers (Page 23)

The expenses payable by FSP Corp. in connection with the mergers are estimated to be $900,000.

PROXY STATEMENT

For the Special Meeting of Stockholders on Friday, May 30, 2003

This Proxy Statement and Notice of Special Meeting are furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors (the "FSP Board") of Franklin Street Properties Corp. ("FSP Corp.") for use at the Special Meeting of Stockholders of FSP Corp. (the "Meeting"), in connection with the solicitation of votes to approve that certain Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated January 14, 2003 (the "Merger Agreement"). The Merger Agreement provides for the acquisition by FSP Corp. by merger (the "Mergers") of 13 real estate investment trusts (each, a "Target REIT" and, collectively, the "Target REITs"). The Target REITs are FSP Forest Park IV Corp. ("Forest Park"), FSP Gael Apartments Corp. ("The Gael"), FSP Goldentop Technology Center Corp. ("Goldentop"), FSP Centennial Technology Center Corp. ("Centennial"), FSP Meadow Point Corp. ("Meadow Point"), FSP Timberlake Corp. ("Timberlake"), FSP Federal Way Corp. ("Federal Way"), FSP Fair Lakes Corp. ("Fair Lakes"), FSP Northwest Point Corp. ("Northwest Point"), FSP Timberlake East Corp. ("Timberlake East"), FSP Merrywood Apartments Corp. ("Merrywood"), FSP Plaza Ridge I Corp. ("Plaza Ridge I") and FSP Park Ten Corp. ("Park Ten"), each a Delaware corporation. The Merger Agreement also provides for the issuance of FSP Corp.'s shares of common stock, $0.0001 par value per share (the "FSP Common Stock"), to the holders of preferred stock ("Target Stock") of the Target REITs (the "Target REIT Stockholders") as merger consideration (the "Merger Consideration").

The boards of directors of the Target REITs are referred to collectively as the "Target Boards". FSP Corp., its subsidiaries and the Target REITs, after giving effect to the consummation of the Mergers, are referred to as the "Combined Company".

The Merger Agreement provides that upon consummation of the Mergers, each share of Target Stock in the Target REITs will be converted into that number of shares of FSP Common Stock set forth below opposite the name of the applicable Target REIT. FSP Corp. will issue the shares of FSP Common Stock to the Target REIT Stockholders in private placements, exempt from registration under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), and Rule 506 of Regulation D promulgated thereunder. FSP Corp. expects to issue fractional shares of FSP Common Stock as Merger Consideration.

Total			25,000,090.54

Consummation of the Mergers is subject to a number of conditions and will not occur unless, among other things, holders of a majority of the shares of Target Stock of each Target REIT vote to approve the Mergers.

The stockholders of FSP Corp. (the "FSP Stockholders") are being asked to approve the Merger Agreement, providing for the Mergers and the issuance of FSP Common Stock, as described in this Proxy Statement. The directors of FSP Corp., who have significant conflicts of interest in connection with the Mergers, strongly recommend that you vote "FOR" the Merger Agreement set forth as Appendix A hereto.

THE SPECIAL MEETING

General Information

This Proxy Statement and Notice of Special Meeting of Stockholders are furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the FSP Board for use at the Meeting to be held at 401 Edgewater Place, Suite 200, Wakefield, Massachusetts, the corporate offices of FSP Corp., on Friday, May 30, 2003 at 9:00 a.m., local time, or at any adjournments of the Meeting, for the purposes set forth in this Proxy Statement and the foregoing Notice of Special Meeting of FSP Stockholders. This Proxy Statement and accompanying proxy card are being mailed on or about May 13, 2003 to all FSP Stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting. The principal executive offices of FSP Corp. are located at 401 Edgewater Place, Suite 200, Wakefield, Massachusetts 01880, and FSP Corp.'s telephone number is (781) 557-1300.

Solicitation of Proxies

All costs of solicitation of proxies will be borne by FSP Corp. In addition to solicitations by mail, FSP Corp.'s directors, officers and employees, without additional remuneration, may solicit proxies by telephone, telegraph and personal interviews, and FSP Corp. reserves the right to retain outside agencies for the purpose of soliciting proxies. Brokers, custodians and fiduciaries will be requested to forward proxy soliciting material to the owners of stock held in their names, and, as required by law, FSP Corp. will reimburse them for their out-of-pocket expenses in this regard.

Voting Rights, Quorum Requirement and Votes Required

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

At the close of business on May 12, 2003, the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Meeting, there were outstanding and entitled to vote an aggregate of 24,630,247 shares of FSP Common Stock, constituting all of the outstanding voting stock of FSP Corp. Holders of FSP Common Stock are entitled to one vote per share. Under FSP Corp.'s charter and by-laws, the presence, in person or by proxy, of the holders of a majority of the shares of FSP Common Stock entitled to cast votes at a meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum at the Meeting. Votes withheld, abstentions and broker non-votes (where a broker or nominee does not exercise discretionary authority to vote on a matter) are counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business. Abstentions and broker non-votes are not counted, however, for purposes of tabulating the votes cast. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of FSP Common Stock issued, outstanding, and entitled to vote at the Meeting is required to approve the matter scheduled to be voted on at the Meeting. If you fail either to return your proxy card or to vote in person at the shareholder meeting, or if you mark your proxy "abstain," the effect will be a vote against the Mergers.

Revocability of Proxy and Voting of Shares

Any FSP Stockholder giving a proxy has the power to revoke it at any time before it is exercised. It may be revoked by filing with the Secretary of FSP Corp., at the principal executive offices of FSP Corp., 401 Edgewater Place, Suite 200, Wakefield, Massachusetts 01880, an instrument of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date. It may also be revoked by attendance at the Meeting and an election given to the Secretary of FSP Corp. to vote in person. If not revoked, the proxy will be voted at the Meeting in accordance with the FSP Stockholder's instructions indicated on the proxy card. If the proxy card is returned but no instructions are indicated, the proxy will be voted FOR the approval of the Merger Agreement scheduled to be voted on at the Meeting and in accordance with the judgment of the proxies as to any other matter that may be properly brought before the Meeting or any adjournments thereof.

AVAILABLE INFORMATION

FSP Corp. is subject to the informational requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), and, in accordance therewith, files reports and other information with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission"). The reports and other information so filed by FSP Corp. can be inspected and copied at the public reference facilities maintained by the Commission at 450 Fifth Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20549. FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Proxy Statement contains forward-looking statements. In some cases you can identify these statements by forward-looking words such as "anticipate," "believe," "could," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "may," "should," "will," and "would" or similar words. You should read statements that contain these words carefully because they discuss future expectations, contain projections or forecasts of future results of operations or of financial position or state other "forward-looking" information. Forward-looking statements are inherently subject to risks and uncertainties, many of which cannot be predicted with accuracy and some of which might not even be anticipated. Future events and actual results, financial and otherwise, may differ materially from the expectations discussed in the forward-looking statements. Important factors that might cause such a difference include, but are not limited to, those discussed under the caption "Risk Factors" starting on page 3. Accordingly, there can be no assurance that the actual results will conform to the forward-looking statements contained in this Proxy Statement. You should be aware that the occurrence of the events described in these risk factors and elsewhere in this Proxy Statement could have an adverse effect on the business, results of operations and financial condition of FSP Corp.

Any forward-looking statements in this Proxy Statement are not guarantees of future performance, and actual results, developments and business decisions may differ from those envisaged by such forward-looking statements, possibly materially. FSP Corp. disclaims any duty to update any forward-looking statements, all of which are expressly qualified by the statements in this section.

RISK FACTORS

In evaluating the Mergers and the Combined Company, you should carefully consider the following factors, in addition to other matters set forth elsewhere in this Proxy Statement.

Risks Relating to the Mergers

The officers and directors of FSP Corp. have conflicts of interest that may have influenced them to support or approve the Merger Agreement.

A number of conflicts of interest are inherent in the relationships among the Target REITs, the Target Boards, FSP Corp., the FSP Board and their respective affiliates. These conflicts of interest include, among others:

- o George J. Carter, the President, Chief Executive Officer and a director of FSP Corp., is the President and a director of each Target REIT;
- o Barry Silverstein and Dennis J. McGillicuddy, each a director of FSP Corp., own an aggregate of 601.25 and 229 shares of Target Stock, respectively. Such shares of Target Stock will convert into 4,130,961.11 and 1,586,343.29 shares of FSP Common Stock, respectively, upon consummation of the Mergers;
- o Richard R. Norris, an Executive Vice President and a director of FSP Corp., is also a director and an Executive Vice President of each Target REIT;
- o Barbara J. Corinha, Vice President, Chief Operating Officer and a director of FSP Corp. is also Vice President, Chief Operating Officer, Treasurer, Secretary and a director of each Target REIT;

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

- o Janet P. Notopoulos, Vice President and a director of FSP Corp., is also a Vice President of each Target REIT; and
- o R. Scott MacPhee and William W. Gribbell, each an Executive Vice President of FSP Corp., is also each a director and an Executive Vice President of each Target REIT.
- o The Target REITs' properties are managed by FSP Property Management LLC, a Massachusetts limited liability company ("FSP Property Management"), a subsidiary of FSP Corp., pursuant to Management Services Agreements under which FSP Corp. receives certain fees for its management services.

No unaffiliated representatives were appointed to negotiate the terms of the Mergers on behalf of FSP Corp. Moreover, no committee of independent representatives was established to evaluate and approve the Mergers on behalf of FSP Corp. Under Maryland law, the FSP Board cannot delegate to a third party its fiduciary duties relating to the determination to approve or not approve the Mergers. Because all of the members of the FSP Board have significant conflicts of interest and none are, therefore, considered "independent", the FSP Board determined it could not establish a committee of independent representatives to evaluate and approve the Mergers on behalf of FSP Corp. The FSP Board determined that appointing independent representatives to negotiate the terms of the Mergers and to make recommendations to the FSP Board would not be worth the anticipated cost, since the FSP Board would still be obligated to make its own independent determinations.

Mr. Silverstein and Mr. McGillicuddy are the only officers or directors of FSP Corp. who are not also officers or directors of any Target REIT. The remainder of the officers and directors of FSP Corp. serve as a director and/or officer, in the positions listed above, of each Target REIT.

Upon completion of the Mergers, Mr. Silverstein's percentage ownership interest of FSP Corp. will increase from 4.66% to 10.68%, Mr. McGillicuddy's percentage ownership interest will increase from 4.02% to 5.21%, and the percentage ownership of the current directors and executive officers as a group will increase from 15.04% to 19.06%.

The officers and directors of FSP Corp. who are officers and directors of the Target REITs have fiduciary duties to manage the Target REITs in a manner beneficial to the Target REIT Stockholders. Similarly, FSP Corp.'s directors and officers, including Mr. Carter, have fiduciary duties to manage FSP Corp. in a manner beneficial to FSP Corp. and FSP Stockholders. In some circumstances, including the negotiation of the Merger Agreement, Mr. Carter's and the other directors' and officers' duties to the Target REITs and the Target REIT Stockholders and their ownership of Target REIT Stock may conflict with their duties, as directors and officers of FSP Corp., to FSP Corp. and FSP Stockholders. A potential conflict between such fiduciary duties may not be resolved, or if resolved, may be resolved in a manner less favorable to FSP Corp. and FSP Stockholders than would otherwise have been the case if FSP Corp. were dealing with unaffiliated parties.

The terms of the Merger Agreement were not negotiated.

The terms of the Merger Agreement have been established by the directors and officers of FSP Corp., who have significant conflicts of interest as described above, and are not the result of negotiations. The FSP Stockholders were not separately represented in structuring and negotiating the terms of the Merger Agreement by an unaffiliated representative. Had separate representation been arranged for the FSP Stockholders, the terms of the Merger Agreement might have been different and fewer shares of FSP Common Stock might have been allocated for the stock of some or all of the Target REITs, thereby reducing the overall dilution to voting power and percentage ownership FSP Stockholders will incur upon consummation of the Mergers.

The FSP Board did not obtain a fairness opinion from a third party in connection with the Mergers.

The FSP Board did not obtain a fairness opinion from a third party in connection with the Mergers. Had the FSP Board obtained a fairness opinion from a third party, FSP Stockholders would have had some assurance that an independent third party had determined that the Merger Consideration paid to the Target REIT Stockholders was fair to the FSP Stockholders and been able to rely on such opinion in making their decision of whether to vote for the Mergers, rather than only relying on the FSP Board's recommendation. Moreover, it is possible that no independent third party would have delivered a fairness opinion, in which case FSP Stockholders would have been able to consider that fact in their determination to vote for or against the Mergers.

The nature of the FSP Stockholders' investment in FSP Corp. will change upon consummation of the Mergers.

Immediately prior to the consummation of the Mergers, FSP Corp. will own 16 real properties. Immediately following the consummation of the Mergers, FSP Corp. will own 29 real properties. This increase in the number of real estate holdings will change the manner in which FSP Corp. derives its revenues. Following the consummation of the Mergers, FSP Corp. will derive a larger percentage of its revenues from rents and a smaller percentage of its revenues from real estate investment banking fees and brokerage commissions. If rental revenues decrease in the near term, the value of the FSP Stockholders' investment in FSP Corp. may decrease proportionately.

Although FSP Corp. and the Target REITs expect that the Mergers will result in benefits, those benefits may not be realized.

FSP Corp. and the Target REITs entered into the Merger Agreement with the expectation that the Mergers will result in benefits, including:

- o The Combined Company's real estate portfolio will be substantially larger and more diverse both geographically and by tenant business than that of FSP Corp., reducing the dependence of an investment in the Combined Company on the performance of a smaller group of assets.
- o The Combined Company's business will generate a greater percentage of its revenues from rentals from real properties and a lesser percentage from real estate investment banking/brokerage activities, constituting a more stable income stream than that currently received by FSP Corp.
- o The Combined Company's larger portfolio of real estate may produce economies of scale, increase its purchasing power relating to goods and services and reduce the percentage that expenses constitute of gross revenue.

- o The Combined Company's increased asset base should give FSP Corp. the flexibility to increase its $50,000,000 line of credit, enabling the Combined Company to finance the acquisition of real property for itself or to provide larger loans to Sponsored Entities to finance their acquisition of real property.
- o The Combined Company's larger portfolio of real properties and larger equity capitalization should increase the likelihood that the Combined Company may eventually be able to provide liquidity for its equity investors through the public markets.

Achieving the benefits of the Mergers will depend in part on the sustainability of long term tenants in the real properties owned by the Combined Company and the ability of FSP

Corp.'s key personnel to effectively manage the additional 13 properties. If the occupancy levels and creditworthiness of tenants are not maintained, the Combined Company will not achieve the intended benefits of the Mergers and the operating results of the Combined Company may be adversely effected.

If the Combined Company is not able to collect sufficient rents from each of its owned real properties, the Combined Company may suffer significant operating losses.

A substantial portion of the Combined Company's revenues will be generated by the rental income of its real properties. If the additional properties acquired by FSP Corp. in the Mergers or the existing properties owned by FSP Corp. do not provide the Combined Company a steady rental income, the Combined Company's revenues will decrease and may cause the Combined Company to incur operating losses in the future.

The Mergers may affect the level of dividends received by the FSP Stockholders.

The Mergers may affect the level of dividends made to the FSP Stockholders by the Combined Company. The level of dividends after the consummation of the Mergers may be lower than the level of dividends the FSP Stockholders received with respect to their FSP Common Stock prior to the Mergers due to the dilution of their percentage ownership FSP Stockholders will incur upon consummation of the Mergers. Each Target REIT expects to declare in the first quarter of 2003 and pay to its Target REIT Stockholders thereafter a dividend with respect to its first quarter 2003 operations. The cash paid out in these dividends will reduce the amount of cash held by each Target REIT and acquired by FSP Corp. upon consummation of the Mergers. Because the Target REITs have not yet declared these cash dividends, FSP Corp. cannot estimate the aggregate amount of such dividends; however, the Merger Agreement provides that such dividends will be paid in an amount consistent with past practice and custom of the relevant Target REIT. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, FSP Corp. has assumed the obligation to pay any such dividends that have been declared but not paid prior to the effective date of the mergers (the "Effective Date"). In addition, FSP Corp. expects to declare in the first quarter of 2003 and pay to FSP Stockholders in the second quarter of 2003 dividends in respect of first quarter 2003 operations. Such dividends will be payable to holders of FSP Common Stock as of a record date prior to the Effective Date and, therefore, Target

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Stockholders will only receive such dividends to the extent that they are also FSP Stockholders and only to the extent of their holdings of FSP Common Stock. The cash available for this dividend and possibly for future dividends to the FSP Stockholders will be reduced by the amount of expenses related to the Mergers paid by FSP Corp. Regardless of the initial level of the Combined Company's dividends, they could decline in the future to a level at which the FSP Stockholders could receive lower dividends than they received prior to the consummation of the Mergers. Moreover, because FSP Corp.'s investment banking business is transactional in nature, there is no predictable recurring level of revenue for such activities. As a result of this, the amount of cash available for distribution may fluctuate, which may result in FSP Corp.'s not being able to maintain growth in dividend levels in the future.

The real properties held by the Combined Company may significantly decrease in value.

The Combined Company will hold 29 properties as its assets following the consummation of the Mergers. Some or all of these properties may decline in value. To the extent the Combined Company's real properties decline in value, the FSP Stockholders could lose some or all the value of their initial investments.

FSP Stockholders will be diluted upon the consummation of the Mergers.

The issuance of approximately 25,000,091 shares of FSP Common Stock as Merger Consideration will cause FSP Stockholders to be immediately and substantially diluted in percentage ownership. As of May 12, 2003, the record date, there were 24,630,246.71 shares of FSP Common Stock issued and outstanding. Moreover, because the Target REIT Stockholders will become stockholders of the Combined Company immediately following the Mergers, FSP Stockholders will also lose relative voting power relating to matters of the Combined Company to be voted on by all security holders.

The officers and directors of FSP Corp. will have an increased level of voting control after the Mergers.

The officers and directors of FSP Corp. currently own 15.04% of FSP Corp. Specifically, Mr. Silverstein and Mr. McGillicuddy own 4.66% and 4.02%, respectively, of FSP Corp. After the Mergers the directors and officers of the Combined Company will own 19.06% of the Combined Company. Messrs. Silverstein and McGillicuddy will own 10.68% and 5.21%, respectively, of the Combined Company. The greater concentration of ownership in the officers and directors of the Combined Company may make it easier for the Board of Directors, or management, of the Combined Company to obtain in the future shareholder approval of corporate actions or election of the Combined Company's nominees as directors.

The Combined Company may be liable for contingent or undisclosed liabilities of the Target REITs.

Each of the Target REITs has delivered to FSP Corp. its financial statements disclosing all known material liabilities and contingent liabilities. Each Target REIT has represented and warranted that the financial statements fairly present the financial position of each Target REIT, and each Target REIT will represent on the Effective Date that there have been no material adverse changes between the date of the financial statements and the Effective Date. The accuracy and completeness of these representations are conditions to the consummation of the Mergers and if, on or prior to the Effective Date, these representations and warranties are known to be inaccurate, FSP Corp. may elect not to consummate the Mergers with the Target REIT that failed to fully and accurately disclose its financial position. As these representations do not survive the Effective Date, after the Effective Date the Combined Company will have no recourse against the Target REITs or the Target REIT Stockholders for any contingent or undisclosed liabilities which first became known after the Effective Date. If any contingent or undisclosed liabilities are discovered after the Effective Date, the Combined Company's balance sheet may be adversely affected, causing the value of the FSP Stockholders' interests in the Combined Company to decrease.

Following the consummation of the Mergers, the Combined Company may not longer qualify as a REIT.

As a result of the combination of FSP Corp. with the Target REITs pursuant to the Mergers, FSP Corp. might no longer qualify as a real estate investment trust under Section 856 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). FSP Corp. could lose its ability to so qualify for a variety of reasons relating to the nature of the assets acquired from the Target REITs, the identity of the shareholders of the Target REITs who become shareholders of FSP Corp. or the failure of one or more of the Target REITs to have previously qualified as a real estate investment trust.

If the Combined Company's line of credit is substantially increased, the Combined Company may borrow more than it is capable of reasonably repaying.

One expected benefit from the Mergers is that the Combined Company's increased asset base should give it the flexibility to increase FSP Corp.'s $50,000,000 line of credit, enabling the Combined Company to finance the acquisition of real property for itself or to provide larger loans to Sponsored Entities to finance their acquisition of real property. However, if the Combined Company borrows heavily against any increased line of credit, the Combined Company may experience difficulties repaying such line of credit, particularly if the Combined Company's cash flows are substantially reduced for any reason. An increased line of credit may create a greater likelihood that the Combined Company will not be able to sustain its debt obligations under such line of credit and cause a default thereunder.

General Risks

The Combined Company would incur adverse tax consequences if it failed to qualify as a REIT.

The parties intend that the Combined Company will continue to qualify as a real estate investment trust for federal income tax purposes following the consummation of the Mergers. If in any taxable year the Combined Company does not qualify as a real estate investment trust, it would be taxed as a corporation and distributions to its stockholders would not be deductible by the Combined Company in computing its taxable income. In addition, if the Combined Company were to fail to qualify as a real estate investment trust, the Combined Company could be disqualified from treatment as a real estate investment trust in the year in which such failure occurred and for the next four taxable years and, consequently, would be taxed as a corporation during such years. Failure to qualify for even one taxable year could result in a significant reduction of the Combined Company's cash available for distributions to its stockholders or could require the Combined Company to incur indebtedness or liquidate investments in order to generate sufficient funds to pay the resulting federal income tax liabilities. In addition, timing differences between the receipt of income and payment of expenses and the inclusion and deduction of such amounts in arriving at taxable income of the Combined Company could make it necessary for the Combined Company to borrow in order to make certain distributions to its stockholders in satisfaction of the 90% distribution requirement applicable to real estate investment trusts. The provisions of the Internal Revenue Code governing the taxation of real estate investment trusts are very technical and complex, and although the Combined Company expects that it will be organized and will operate in a manner that will enable it to meet such requirements, no assurance can be given that it will succeed in doing so during the entire life of the Combined Company. In addition, you should note that if one or more of the Target REITs did not qualify as a real estate investment trust immediately prior to the consummation of the Mergers, the Combined Company would be disqualified as a REIT as a result of the Mergers.

The Combined Company faces risks in continuing to attract investors for the Sponsored Entities.

The Combined Company will continue FSP Corp.'s investment banking business which will depend upon the Combined Company's ability to attract purchasers of equity interests in Sponsored Entities. The Combined Company's success in this area will depend on the propensity and ability of investors who have previously invested in Sponsored Entities to continue to invest in future Sponsored Entities and on the Combined Company's ability to expand the investor pool for the Sponsored Entities by identifying new potential investors. Moreover, FSP Corp.'s investment banking business may be impacted to the extent existing Sponsored Entities incur losses or have operating results that fail to meet investors' expectations. The Combined Company expects that its investment banking business will account for a smaller percentage of its overall revenue on a going forward basis due to the expected increase in the percentage of revenues derived from rents.

The Combined Company faces risks in owning and operating real property.

An investment in the Combined Company is subject to the risks incident to the ownership and operation of real estate-related assets. These risks include the fact that real estate investments are generally illiquid, which may impact the Combined Company's ability to vary its portfolio in response to changes in economic and other conditions, as well as the risks normally associated with:

- o changes in general and local economic conditions;
- o the supply or demand for particular types of properties in particular markets;
- o changes in market rental rates;
- o the impact of environmental protection laws; and
- o changes in tax, real estate and zoning laws.

Certain significant costs, such as real estate taxes, utilities, insurance and maintenance costs, generally are not reduced even when a property's rental income is reduced. In addition, environmental and tax laws, interest rate levels, the availability of financing and other factors may affect real estate values and property income. Furthermore, the supply of commercial and multi-family residential space fluctuates with market conditions.

The Combined Company faces risks from tenant defaults or bankruptcies.

If any of the Combined Company's tenants defaults on its lease, the Combined Company may experience delays in enforcing its rights as a landlord and may incur substantial costs in protecting its investment. In addition, at any time, a tenant of one of the Combined Company's properties may seek the protection of bankruptcy laws, which could result in the rejection and termination of such tenant's lease and thereby cause a reduction in cash available for distribution to the Combined Company's stockholders.

The Combined Company may encounter significant delays in reletting vacant space, resulting in losses of income.

When leases expire, the Combined Company will incur expenses and may not be able to re-lease the space on the same terms. Certain leases provide tenants the right to terminate early if they pay a fee. If the Combined Company is unable to re-lease space promptly, if the terms are significantly less favorable than anticipated or if the costs are higher, the Combined Company may have to reduce its distributions to its stockholders.

The Combined Company faces risks from geographic concentration.

The properties in the Combined Company's portfolio are distributed among the major geographic segments by aggregate square footage to be owned by the Combined Company, as follows: Southwest - 28%; Northeast - 30%; Midwest - 19%; West - 15%; and Southeast - 8%. However, within certain of those segments, a large concentration exists within a particular city and its immediately surrounding area; specifically, Houston, Texas - 21% and Washington, DC - 13%. The Combined Company is likely to face risks to the extent that any of these areas suffer deteriorating economic conditions.

FSP Corp. competes and the Combined Company will compete with national, regional and local real estate operators and developers, which could adversely affect the Combined Company's cash flow.

Competition exists in every market in which FSP Corp.'s properties are located and in every market in which the Combined Company's properties will be located. The Combined Company will compete with, among others, national, regional and numerous local real estate operators and developers. Such competition may adversely affect the percentage of leased space and the rental revenues of the Combined Company's properties, which could adversely affect the Combined Company's cash flow from operations and its ability to make expected distributions to the FSP Stockholders. Some of the Combined Company's competitors may have more resources than the Combined Company or other competitive advantages. Competition may be accelerated by any increase in availability of funds for investment in real estate. For example, decreases in interest rates tend to increase the availability of funds and therefore can increase competition. The extent to which the Combined Company is affected by competition will depend in significant part on local market conditions.

There is limited potential for an increase in leased space gains in the Combined Company's properties.

The Combined Company anticipates that future increases in revenue from the Combined Company's properties will be primarily the result of scheduled rental rate increases or rental rate increases as leases expire. Thirteen out of the 17 FSP Corp. properties' percentage of rentable square feet leased was in excess of 95% as of December 31, 2002 and 11 out of 13 of the Target REITs' properties percentage of rentable square feet leased was in excess of 95% as of December 31, 2002. Those properties with higher rates of vacancy are located in soft economic markets so that it may be difficult to realize increases in revenue when vacant space is re-leased. To the extent that the properties of the Combined Company continue to operate profitably, this will likely stimulate new development of competing properties.

The Combined Company will be subject to possible liability relating to environmental matters, and FSP Corp. cannot assure you that it has identified all possible liabilities.

Under various federal, state and local laws, ordinances and regulations, an owner or operator of real property may become liable for the costs of removal or remediation of certain hazardous substances released on or in its property. Such laws may impose liability without regard to whether the owner or operator knew of, or caused, the release of such hazardous substances. The presence of hazardous substances on a property may adversely affect the owner's ability to sell such property or to borrow using such property as collateral, and it may cause the owner of the property to incur substantial remediation costs. In addition to claims for cleanup costs, the presence of hazardous substances on a property could result in the owner incurring substantial liabilities as a result of a claim by a private party for personal injury or a claim by an adjacent property owner for property damage. Each Target REIT obtained a Phase I environmental assessment for the property held by it at the time of acquisition of such property. FSP Corp. (through its subsidiaries) has been involved in the operation of each such property since that acquisition, and is not aware of any material changes to the environmental conditions at any of the properties held by the Target REITs since their acquisition. However, FSP Corp. cannot assure you that any environmental assessments of the Target REITs' properties that have been provided to it have revealed all potential environmental liabilities, that any prior owner or operator of the properties did not create any material environmental condition not known to FSP Corp. or the Target REIT, or that an environmental condition does not otherwise exist as to any one or more of the properties that could have a material adverse effect on the Combined Company's financial condition or results of operations. In addition, FSP Corp. cannot assure you that:

- o future laws, ordinances or regulations will not impose any material environmental liability;
- o the current environmental conditions of FSP Corp.'s and the Target REITs' respective properties will not be affected by the condition of properties in the vicinity of such properties (such as the presence of leaking underground storage tanks) or by third parties unrelated to FSP Corp. or the Target REITs;
- o the current environmental conditions of the Target REITs' properties will not be affected by mold or other environmental pollutants that could affect indoor air quality;

- o tenants will not violate their leases by introducing hazardous or toxic substances into the Combined Company's properties that could expose the Combined Company to liability under federal or state environmental laws; or

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

- o environmental conditions, such as the growth of bacteria and toxic mold in heating and ventilation systems or on walls, will not occur at the Combined Company's properties and pose a threat to human health.

The Combined Company will be subject to compliance with the Americans With Disabilities Act and fire and safety regulations which could require the Combined Company to make significant capital expenditures.

All of the Target REITs' properties are required to comply with the Americans With Disabilities Act, and the regulations, rules and orders that may be issued thereunder (the "ADA"). The ADA has separate compliance requirements for "public accommodations" and "commercial facilities," but generally requires that buildings be made accessible to persons with disabilities. Compliance with ADA requirements might require, among other things, removal of access barriers and noncompliance could result in the imposition of fines by the U.S. government, or an award of damages to private litigants. In addition, the Combined Company will be required to operate its properties in compliance with fire and safety regulations, building codes and other land use regulations, as they may be adopted by governmental agencies and bodies and become applicable to the Combined Company's properties. Compliance with such requirements may require the Combined Company to make substantial capital expenditures, which expenditures would reduce cash otherwise available for distribution to its stockholders. The property held by each Target REIT was inspected for compliance with the ADA at the time of acquisition of such property and was found to be in material compliance. FSP Corp. (through its subsidiaries) has been involved in the operation of each such property since that acquisition, and is not aware of any alterations to the properties that were not made in compliance with the ADA.

There are significant conditions to the Combined Company's obligation to redeem shares of FSP Common Stock, and any such redemption will result in the stockholders tendering shares receiving less than their fair market value.

Under the Combined Company's redemption plan, the Combined Company is only obligated to use its best efforts to redeem shares of FSP Common Stock from stockholders wishing to have them redeemed. There are significant conditions to the Combined Company's obligation to redeem shares of FSP Common Stock including:

- o the Combined Company cannot be insolvent or be rendered insolvent by the redemption;
- o redemption cannot impair the capital or operations of the Combined Company;

- o the redemption cannot contravene any provision of federal or state securities laws;
- o the redemption cannot result in the Combined Company's failing to qualify as a REIT; and
- o the Combined Company's management must determine that the redemption is in the best interests of the Combined Company.

Any redemption effected by the Combined Company under this plan would result in the stockholders tendering shares of FSP Common Stock receiving 90% of the fair market value, as determined by the FSP Board in its sole and absolute discretion, of such shares and not their full fair market value.

The Combined Company may lose capital investment or anticipated profits if an uninsured event occurs.

The Combined Company will carry or its tenants carry comprehensive liability, fire and extended coverage with respect to each of the properties owned by the Combined Company, with policy specification and insured limits customarily carried for similar properties. There are, however, certain types of losses, such as from wars, terrorism, pollution or earthquakes, that may be either uninsurable or not economically insurable (although the properties located in California all have earthquake insurance). Should an uninsured material loss occur, the Combined Company could lose both its capital invested in the property and anticipated profits.

The FSP Stockholders may experience greater risks relating to diversification of portfolios following the Mergers.

The assets and liabilities of the Target REITs and of FSP Corp. will be combined in the Mergers. As a result of the Mergers, the geographic diversity of the properties in which FSP Stockholders will own an interest will change. However, because the market for real estate may vary widely from one region of the country to another, the change in geographic diversity may expose FSP Stockholders to different and greater risks than those to which they are presently exposed.

The officers and directors of FSP Corp. may have significant conflicts of interest.

FSP Corp. is subject to potential conflicts of interest arising from the real estate activities of existing and future Sponsored REITs. The officers of FSP Corp., who are also officers of the Sponsored REITs and are expected to be officers of future Sponsored REITs, will not be spending full time in connection with the management of the business of FSP Corp. and will be actively engaged in supervising the acquisition and/or operation of properties that may be acquired by Sponsored REITs and that may be in competition with properties owned by FSP Corp. The fact that these officers will be actively engaged in the operation of Sponsored REITs may affect their ability to perform their respective obligations to FSP Corp. It is possible that FSP Corp. may be presented with business opportunities that might be appropriately pursued by it or by an existing or newly-formed Sponsored REIT. Finally, two of the directors of FSP Corp., Barry Silverstein and Dennis J. McGillicuddy, own a significant number of shares in the Sponsored REITs and may own shares in future Sponsored REITs.

The information contained in this Proxy Statement with respect to the Mergers is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement by and among FSP Corp. and the Target REITs, a copy of which is set forth as Appendix A hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

Overview

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

FSP Corp. entered into the Merger Agreement, dated January 14, 2003, among FSP Corp. and the Target REITs. The Merger Agreement provides for the merger of each Target REIT with and into FSP Corp., with FSP Corp. being the surviving corporation.

The Merger Agreement provides that the Mergers will be effected at the time of the filing of the Certificates of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and with the State Department of Assessment and Taxation of the State of Maryland or at another date as may be specified in the Certificates of Merger. On the Effective Date, FSP Corp. will acquire by merger each Target REIT. The Target REIT Stockholders will be issued shares of FSP Common Stock in an offering exempt from registration under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act and Rule 506 of Registration D promulgated thereunder. The FSP Board expects that the Effective Date will be on or about June 1, 2003. The Mergers will not require any federal or state regulatory approvals.

The Parties

FSP Corp. FSP Corp. is a Maryland corporation that operates in a manner intended to qualify as a real estate investment trust for federal income tax purposes. It is the successor to Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership, a Massachusetts limited partnership (the "FSP Partnership"). On January 1, 2002, the Conversion became effective. Pursuant to the Conversion, the FSP Partnership ceased to exist, FSP Corp. succeeded to the business of the FSP Partnership and each unit of both general and limited partnership interests in the FSP Partnership was converted into one share of FSP Common Stock. As a result of the Conversion, FSP Corp. now holds, directly and indirectly, 100% of the interest in three former subsidiaries of the FSP Partnership: FSP Investments LLC, a Massachusetts limited liability company ("FSP Investments"), FSP Property Management, and FSP Holdings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("FSP Holdings").

FSP Investments acts as a real estate investment firm and broker/dealer with respect to (a) Sponsored Entities, some of which were Sponsored Partnerships and some of which are Sponsored REITs, (b) the acquisition of real estate by the Sponsored Entities and (c) the sale of equity interests in the Sponsored Entities. FSP Investments derives revenue from commissions received in connection with the sale of equity interests in the Sponsored Entities. FSP Investments also derives revenue from fees paid by the Sponsored Entities for the services of FSP Investments in identifying, inspecting and negotiating to purchase real properties on behalf of the Sponsored Entities. The Mergers will not cause the Combined Company to incur any additional fees for management of its investments. FSP Investments is a registered broker/dealer with the Commission and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. FSP Corp. has made an election to treat FSP Investments as a "taxable REIT subsidiary" for federal income tax purposes.

FSP Property Management asset manages each Sponsored Entity and provides property management services or property accounting services to eight Sponsored Entities. FSP Property Management receives fee income from those Sponsored Entities that have not been acquired by FSP Corp. FSP Property Management does not receive any rental income. As a result of the Mergers, fee income received by FSP Property Management from the 13 Target REITs will be eliminated on the consolidated financial statements of the Combined Company for accounting purposes.

As of December 31, 2002, FSP Corp. had sponsored 33 Sponsored Entities, 17

of which are Sponsored Partnerships and 16 of which are Sponsored REITs, and each of which owns or owned real property. In February 2003, FSP Corp. consummated the sale of the property owned by a Sponsored Partnership, thereby reducing to 16 the number of Sponsored Partnerships owning real property. FSP Holdings, which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of FSP Corp., is the general partner of each Sponsored Partnership. The FSP Partnership acquired all limited partners' interest in the Sponsored Partnerships pursuant to mergers effective January 1, 1999, January 1, 2000 and October 1, 2000. In connection with these mergers, the FSP Partnership issued units of the FSP Partnership to the limited partners of the Sponsored Partnerships. As a result of the Conversion, FSP Corp. is now the sole limited partner of each Sponsored Partnership. Reference in this Proxy Statement to FSP Corp.'s properties means the real properties owned by these Sponsored Partnerships.

FSP Corp. holds a nominal interest in each of the Sponsored REITs through its ownership of 100% of the common stock of each Sponsored REIT. The preferred stock interests in each Sponsored REIT are held by investors who acquired their interests in an offering exempt from registration pursuant to Section 4(2) of the Securities Act and Regulation D promulgated thereunder. The Sponsored REITs include the 13 Target REITs. After the consummation of the Mergers, FSP Corp. will continue to own all of the interests in the 17 Sponsored Partnerships. The Target REITs will merge with and into FSP Corp., with FSP Corp. as the surviving corporation, and will therefore no longer exist after the consummation of the Mergers. The remaining three Sponsored REITs will be unaffected by the Mergers.

FSP Corp. has two principal sources of revenue:

- o Investment banking income consisting of brokerage commissions and other related fees paid to FSP Investments in connection with the organization and offering of Sponsored Entities and loan origination fees paid in connection with loans to Sponsored Entities.
- o Rental income from the real properties it owns.

The principal executive offices of FSP Corp. are located at 401 Edgewater Place, Suite 200, Wakefield, Massachusetts 01880, and FSP Corp.'s telephone number is (781) 557-1300. FSP Corp. leases its executive offices.

(1) Beneficial ownership of FSP Common Stock is determined in accordance with the rules of the Commission, and includes shares for which the holder has sole or shared voting or investment power. FSP Corp. does not have any outstanding stock options or other securities convertible into FSP Common Stock. The inclusion herein of shares as beneficially owned does not constitute an admission of beneficial ownership.

(2) See Notes to table entitled "Beneficial Ownership of Voting Stock" on page 105 of this Proxy Statement.

(3) Based upon approximately 49,630,337 shares of FSP Common Stock which will be issued and outstanding after the consummation of the Mergers pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

(4) The FSP Board has exempted Mr. Silverstein from the Ownership Limit of 9.8% of Equity Securities of FSP Corp. to the extent that Mr. Silverstein's ownership exceeds the Ownership Limit as a result of the consummation of the Mergers. See "Description of FSP Corp. Capital Stock - Ownership Limit."

As of the date of this Proxy Statement, FSP Corp. has no commitments to issue any capital stock to any of the persons listed above except as contemplated by the Merger Agreement. The FSP Board has exempted from the application of Section 3-602 of the MGCL (business combinations with interested stockholders and special voting requirements for such transactions) any business combination between FSP Corp. and any entity the syndication of which has been sponsored by FSP Corp., to the extent that Section 3-602 of the MGCL would otherwise be applicable by virtue of Mr. Silverstein being an "interested stockholder" (as the term is defined in Section 3-601 of the MGCL).

FSP Corp. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of FSP Common Stock issued, outstanding and entitled to vote at the Meeting is required to approve the Merger Agreement, providing for the Mergers and the issuance of the Merger Consideration.

The executive officers and directors of FSP Corp. hold an aggregate of 3,705,307.01 shares of FSP Common Stock, constituting approximately 15.04% of the outstanding shares of FSP Common Stock. The executive officers and directors have indicated that they intend to vote their respective shares in favor of the Merger Agreement.

The Target REITs. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the Target Stock in each of the Target REITs is also required to effectuate the applicable Mergers. If one or more Target REITs does not obtain the vote required for the consummation of the Merger with such Target REIT, FSP Corp. will not proceed with the Mergers of any other Target REIT. Each Target REIT will solicit the vote of its Target REIT Stockholders separately. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the common stock in each Target REIT is also required to effectuate the applicable Merger. FSP Corp. is the sole stockholder of the common stock of each Target REIT, and will vote those shares in favor of the respective Mergers.

Barry Silverstein and Dennis J. McGillicuddy, each a director of FSP Corp., own an aggregate of 601.25 and 229 shares of Target Stock, respectively. Such shares of Target Stock will convert into 4,130,961.11 and 1,586,343.29 shares of FSP Common Stock, respectively, upon consummation of the Mergers. Messrs. Silverstein and McGillicuddy have indicated that they intend to vote their respective shares of Target Stock in favor of the Merger Agreement.

FSP Stockholders will incur substantial dilution to their voting power and percentage ownership in FSP Corp. due to the number of shares of FSP Common

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Stock being issued to the Target REIT Stockholders as a result of the Mergers. The Target REIT Stockholders will own 50.37% of the voting power and percentage ownership in FSP Corp. following the consummation of the Mergers.

Board Approvals

The FSP Board has voted to approve the Merger Agreement, providing for the Mergers and the issuance of the Merger Consideration.

The Target Boards have each voted to approve the Merger Agreement, providing for the Mergers and the issuance of the Merger Consideration.

Accounting Treatment

The Mergers will be treated as a purchase pursuant to Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No.141 "Business Combinations".

FSP Corp. believes that the fair value of the real estate assets (appraised value of the properties) plus the other assets and liabilities of each Target REIT acquired is more readily determinable than the fair market value of the consideration being given by FSP Corp. in connection with the Mergers. The assets of each Target REIT are comprised principally of real estate assets. Each Target REIT's other assets and liabilities are those ordinarily occurring in real estate operations. The valuation of FSP Corp.'s stock is more complex as it is based on a model that includes both an investment banking business, which is transactional in nature, as well as an asset-driven real estate business.

Accordingly, upon merger, the assets and liabilities of each Target REIT will be recorded at their fair values. The financial statements of FSP Corp. will reflect the consolidated operations of FSP Corp. and the Target REITs from the date of consummation of the Mergers.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Mergers

A number of conflicts of interest are inherent in the relationships among the Target REITs, the Target Boards, FSP Corp., the FSP Board and their respective affiliates. These conflicts of interest include, among others:

- o George J. Carter, the President, Chief Executive Officer and a director of FSP Corp., is the President and a director of each Target REIT;
- o Barry Silverstein and Dennis J. McGillicuddy, each a director of FSP Corp., own an aggregate of 601.25 and 229 shares of Target Stock, respectively. Such shares of Target Stock will convert into 4,130,961.11 and 1,586,343.29 shares of FSP Common Stock, respectively, upon consummation of the Mergers;
- o Richard R. Norris, an Executive Vice President and a director of FSP Corp., is also a director and an Executive Vice President of each Target REIT;
- o Barbara J. Corinha, Vice President, Chief Operating Officer and a director of FSP Corp. is also Vice President, Chief Operating Officer, Treasurer, Secretary and a director of each Target REIT;

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

- o Janet P. Notopoulos, Vice President and a director of FSP Corp., is also a Vice President of each Target REIT; and
- o R. Scott MacPhee and William W. Gribbell, each an Executive Vice President of FSP Corp., is also each a director and an Executive Vice President of each Target REIT.

No unaffiliated representatives were appointed to negotiate the terms of the Mergers on behalf of FSP Corp. Moreover, no committee of independent representatives was established to evaluate and approve the Mergers on behalf of FSP Corp. Under Maryland law, the FSP Board cannot delegate to a third party its fiduciary duties relating to the determination to approve or not approve the Mergers. Because all of the members of the FSP Board have significant conflicts of interest and none are, therefore, considered "independent", the FSP Board determined it could not establish a committee of independent representatives to evaluate and approve the Mergers on behalf of FSP Corp. The FSP Board determined that appointing independent representatives to negotiate the terms of the Mergers and to make recommendations to the FSP Board would not be worth the anticipated cost, since the FSP Board would still be obligated to make its own independent determinations.

Mr. Silverstein and Mr. McGillicuddy are the only officers or directors of FSP Corp. who are not also officers or directors of any Target REIT. The remainder of the officers and directors of FSP Corp. serve as a director and/or officer, in the positions listed above, of each Target REIT.

Upon completion of the Mergers, Mr. Silverstein's percentage ownership interest will increase from 4.66% to 10.68%, Mr. McGillicuddy's percentage ownership interest will increase from 4.02% to 5.21%, and the percentage ownership of the current directors and executive officers as a group will increase from 15.04% to 19.06%.

Except as described above, no director or executive officer of FSP Corp. who has served in such capacity since January 1, 2000, nor any associate of any of the foregoing persons, has any direct or indirect substantial interest in the Mergers. No affiliate of FSP Corp. and the Target REITs (other than each other) has any direct or indirect material interest in the Mergers.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Considerations

The Mergers are intended to qualify as reorganizations within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). It is a condition to the closing of the Mergers that FSP Corp. shall have received an opinion from Hale and Dorr LLP to the effect that the Mergers should be treated for United States federal income tax purposes as reorganizations within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code and confirming in all material respects that, as of the closing date of the Mergers (the "Closing Date"), the discussion set forth under the heading "Material United States Federal Income Tax Considerations" in the Proxy Statement and the Consent Solicitation/Offering Memorandum, including any opinions expressed therein, to the extent that it involves matters of law, is accurate. If the Mergers qualify as reorganizations, there will be no United States federal income tax consequences to FSP Corp. as a result of the Mergers.

Timing and Effectiveness of the Mergers

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

The Effective Date of the Mergers is expected to occur on or about June 1, 2003.

Comparison of Ownership Rights

The consummation of the Mergers will not change the existing rights of FSP Stockholders, although FSP Stockholders will experience immediate and substantial dilution.

Market Information

There is no established public trading market for FSP Common Stock. The fair market value of FSP Common Stock as determined by the FSP Board was $14.75 per share as of December 31, 2002.

As of May 1, 2003, there were 740 holders of record of FSP Common Stock. This computation is based upon the number of record holders reflected in the corporate records of FSP Corp.

FSP Corp. has declared a dividend of $0.31 per share of FSP Common Stock payable to stockholders of record as of January 24, 2003. Set forth below are the distributions per unit of limited partnership interest (each, a "FSP Unit") that the FSP Partnership or dividends per share of FSP Common Stock that FSP Corp., as the case may be, made in each quarter since the quarter ended March 31, 2000.

Quarter Ended -----	Distribution Amount Per FSP Unit or Dividend Amount Per Share of FSP Common Stock -----
3/31/00	$0.23
6/30/00	$0.24

9/30/02	$0.31
12/31/02	$0.31
3/31/03	$0.31

While not guaranteed, FSP Corp. expects that cash dividends on FSP Common Stock comparable to FSP Corp.'s most recent quarterly dividend will continue to be paid in the future.

Equity Compensation Plan Information

The following table provides information about FSP Common Stock that may be issued under all of FSP Corp.'s equity compensation plans as of January 1, 2003. FSP Corp. only has one equity compensation plan, the 2002 Stock Incentive Plan. FSP Corp.'s stockholders approved this plan in May 2002.

(1) The number of shares is subject to adjustments in the event of stock splits and other similar events.

(2) The 2002 Stock Incentive Plan provides for the granting of awards consisting of shares of FSP Common Stock without reference to vesting periods.

(3) An aggregate of 43,998.54 shares of FSP Common Stock were issued to R. Scott MacPhee, an Executive Vice President of FSP Corp. and an Executive Vice President of each Target REIT, in July 2002 under the 2002 Stock Incentive Plan.

Independent Accountants

It is expected that a representative of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, FSP Corp.'s independent accountants, will be present at the Meeting and will be available to respond to appropriate questions from FSP Stockholders and to make a statement if he or she desires to do so.

In September 2002, Fair Lakes consented to an assignment of its lease with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to International Business Machines Corporation, but PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP remains obligated for payments under the lease. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP has informed FSP Corp. that if the Merger between FSP Corp. and Fair Lakes is consummated, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP will no longer be considered "independent" in connection with providing auditing services to FSP Corp. At that time, FSP Corp. will have to either release PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP from its obligation under the lease or choose another independent accountant.

Expenses of the Mergers

The expenses payable by FSP Corp. in connection with the Mergers are estimated to be $900,000.

BACKGROUND AND REASONS FOR THE MERGERS

History of FSP Corp. and the Target REITs

FSP Corp., a Maryland corporation, is the successor to the FSP Partnership. Pursuant to the Conversion, the FSP Partnership ceased to exist, FSP Corp. succeeded to the business of the FSP Partnership. As a result of the Conversion, FSP Corp. now holds, directly and indirectly, 100% of the interest in three former subsidiaries of the FSP Partnership: FSP Investments, FSP Property Management, and FSP Holdings.

FSP Investments acts as a real estate investment firm and broker/dealer with respect to (a) the organization of investment vehicles which are Sponsored Entities, some of which were Sponsored Partnerships and some of which are Sponsored REITs, (b) the acquisition of real estate by the Sponsored Entities and (c) the sale of equity interests in the Sponsored Entities. As a result of the Mergers, income and expenses directly related to the four Target REITs that were syndicated in 2002 will be eliminated on the pro forma consolidated financial statements of the Combined Company for accounting purposes.

FSP Property Management manages, either directly or through a third party, each Sponsored Entity. FSP Property Management receives fee income from those Sponsored Entities that have not been acquired by FSP Corp. FSP Property Management does not receive any rental income. As a result of the Mergers, fee income received by FSP Property Management and expenses paid by the 13 Target REITs will be eliminated on the pro forma consolidated financial statements of the Combined Company for accounting purposes.

FSP Corp. holds all of its interests in real property through the 17 Sponsored Partnerships that it has acquired, each of which owns or owned real property. FSP Holdings, which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of FSP Corp., is the general partner of each Sponsored Partnership, and FSP Corp. is the sole limited partner of each Sponsored Partnership.

FSP Corp. holds a nominal interest in each of the Sponsored REITs through its ownership of 100% of the common stock of each Sponsored REIT. The preferred stock interests in each Sponsored REIT are held by investors who acquired their interests in an offering exempt from registration pursuant to Section 4(2) of the Securities Act and Regulation D promulgated thereunder. As of December 31, 2002, FSP Investments had consummated the offering of 16 Sponsored REITs, which include the 13 Target REITs. After the consummation of the Mergers, the Target REITs will merge with and into FSP Corp., with FSP Corp. as the surviving corporation, and will therefore no longer exist after the consummation of the Mergers. The remaining four Sponsored REITs will be unaffected by the Mergers. Also unaffected by the Mergers, except for the elimination of any intercompany transactions, are the 17 Sponsored Partnerships, FSP Investments, FSP Holdings and FSP Property Management.

Set forth below is information regarding each of the existing Sponsored Partnerships, each of which has been acquired by FSP Corp., and the Sponsored REITs.

(1) This Sponsored REIT is not a Target REIT

Each of the Target REITs holds its property on an unleveraged basis, and each has paid dividends from property operations to its investors in every quarter since inception.

Three of the Sponsored REITs in existence as of December 31, 2002 are not Target REITs. Syndication of two of these Sponsored REITs had not commenced when the management of FSP Corp. began consideration of a possible transaction in August 2002 and, hence, these two Sponsored REITs were never considered for inclusion as Target REITs. The third Sponsored REIT was considered for a period of time to be included as a Target REIT; however, a tenant leasing 91% of the space at the property owned by that Sponsored REIT declared bankruptcy, and the management of FSP Corp. concluded that this Sponsored REIT was not an appropriate candidate for acquisition.

Background of the Mergers

At a meeting of the FSP Board on July 19, 2002, the management of FSP Corp. presented a report on operating expenses, including the expenses of managing the Sponsored REITs. Messrs. Silverstein and McGillicuddy, who were attending their first meeting of the FSP Board, noted that FSP Corp.'s predecessor, the FSP Partnership, had acquired Sponsored Entities; they inquired whether an acquisition by FSP Corp. of Sponsored Entities would be feasible and whether such an acquisition might cause a reduction in the percentage that operating expenses constitute of revenue, an increase in FSP Corp.'s revenue stream from rental income and/or might produce other benefits.

As a result of these inquiries, management of FSP Corp. began to analyze the potential benefits of acquiring the Target REITs and in late July instructed its counsel, Hale and Dorr LLP, to explore the feasibility of such an acquisition. Hale and Dorr LLP reported in August that such an acquisition was feasible. FSP Corp. engaged A.G. Edwards, Inc. ("A.G. Edwards") to advise it on the reasonableness of the methodology to be used by management in recommending the amount of merger consideration if a transaction were to be proposed.

Those members of FSP Corp.'s management who are also members of the Target REIT Boards began to analyze the potential benefits of a merger transaction to the Target REITs and indicated that they would entertain an acquisition proposal. The Target REIT Boards engaged independent third party appraisers ("the Appraisers") to appraise the fair market value of each Target REIT's real estate as of a date no earlier than August 23, 2002 ("the Appraisals").

In late August the management of FSP Corp. and the management of the Target REITs (who are the same persons) reached an agreement amongst themselves on a methodology to value the proposed transaction. Because the same persons serve in the senior management of FSP Corp. and the Target REITs, no true negotiations occurred. The members of senior management attempted in good faith to fulfill their duties to each of the entities involved. On October 1, 2002, A.G. Edwards delivered its report to the management of FSP Corp.

On December 16, 2002, Messrs. Carter, McGillicuddy, Norris and Silverstein met in Sarasota, Florida to discuss the proposed transaction. Meses. Corinha and Notopolulos determined that their presence was not needed at this meeting as each one had intimate knowledge of the proposed transaction due to their respective roles as executive officers of FSP Corp. Moreover, no formal vote of the FSP Board was scheduled to be taken at this meeting. During the course of the day-long meeting, Messrs. McGillicuddy, Silverstein and Norris asked numerous questions of Mr. Carter relating to the anticipated benefits of the proposed transaction, the proposed detriments of the proposed transaction, the valuation methodology used by FSP Corp.'s management to arrive at the Merger Consideration and the report prepared by A.G. Edwards. Messrs. Carter, McGillicuddy, Norris and Silverstein engaged in several discussions of these matters during the course of the meeting.

From December 17, 2002 through January 9, 2003, the members of the FSP Board discussed the proposed transaction via telephone and e-mail with each other and members of FSP Corp.'s management.

In late December the management of FSP Corp. and the Target REITs reached agreement amongst themselves on the amount of Merger Consideration that would be paid and the terms of the Merger Agreement. Because the same persons serve in the senior management of FSP Corp. and the Target REITs, no true negotiations occurred. The members of senior management attempted in good faith to fulfill their duties to each of the entities involved.

At a telephonic meeting of the FSP Board held on January 10, 2003, Mr. Carter presented an analysis of the anticipated benefits of the proposed transaction and reviewed the methodology used in arriving at the amount of the Merger Consideration. Mr. Carter also reviewed the conclusions of the report prepared by A.G. Edwards. Representatives of Hale and Dorr LLP reviewed with the

FSP Board the material terms of the Merger Agreement and the FSP Board's fiduciary duties. After considering these presentations and the report from A.G. Edwards and after engaging in further discussions of the benefits and detriments of the proposed transactions, the FSP Board unanimously voted to approve the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, determined that the Mergers, taken as a whole, are fair to the FSP Stockholders and resolved to recommend that the FSP Stockholders vote to approve the Mergers. All persons participating on the call could hear each other at all times.

Following this meeting, the Target Boards executed unanimous written consents of directors in lieu of a meeting, whereby each Target Board unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, determined that the Mergers, taken as a whole, were fair to its Target REIT and resolved to recommend that the Target REIT Stockholders of its Target REIT vote to approve the Mergers.

Reasons for the Mergers

FSP Corp. The FSP Board unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement, providing for the Mergers and the issuance of FSP Common Stock in exchange for Target Stock, is fair to, and in the best interests of, FSP Corp. and the FSP Stockholders. No director affiliated with the Target REITs abstained from voting.

The decision was based on several potential benefits of the Mergers that the FSP Board believes will contribute to the success of the Combined Company. These potential benefits include:

- o The Combined Company's real estate portfolio will be substantially larger and more diverse both geographically and by tenant business than that of FSP Corp., reducing the dependence of an investment in the Combined Company on the performance of a smaller group of assets.
- o The Combined Company's business will generate a greater percentage of its revenues from rentals from real properties and a lesser percentage from real estate investment banking/brokerage activities, constituting a more stable income stream than that currently received by FSP Corp.
- o The Combined Company's larger portfolio of real estate may produce economies of scale, increase its purchasing power relating to goods and services and reduce the percentage that expenses constitute of gross revenue.
- o The Combined Company's increased asset base should give FSP Corp. the flexibility to increase its $50,000,000 line of credit, enabling the Combined Company to finance the acquisition of real property for itself or to provide larger loans to Sponsored Entities to finance their acquisition of real property.

- o The Combined Company's larger portfolio of real properties and larger equity capitalization should increase the likelihood that the Combined Company may eventually be able to provide liquidity for its equity investors through the public markets.

The FSP Board reviewed a number of factors in evaluating the Merger

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Agreement, providing for the Mergers and the issuance of the Merger Consideration, including, but not limited to, the following: (i) management's view of the financial condition, results of operations and business of FSP Corp. and each of the Target REITs before and after giving effect to the Mergers, (ii) the differences and similarities between the business and operating strategies of FSP Corp. and each of the Target REITs, (iii) historical financial information concerning the real estate properties owned by FSP Corp. and each of the Target REITs, (iv) current conditions in the REIT market generally, (v) the consideration the Target REIT Stockholders would receive in the Mergers, (vi) the belief that the terms of the Merger Agreement are reasonable, (vii) the impact of the Mergers on the FSP Stockholders, potential investors and employees, (viii) the advice received by the FSP Board from A.G. Edwards that it believes the methodology used by the FSP Board to estimate hypothetical values of FSP Corp. and the Combined Company is not unreasonable and (ix) the Appraisals obtained by each Target REIT.

The FSP Board also identified and considered a number of potentially negative factors in its deliberations concerning the Merger Agreement, providing for the Merger and the issuance of the Merger Agreement, including the following: (i) conflicts of interest inherent between the directors and officers of FSP Corp. and the directors and officers of the Target REITs, (ii) the risks that the benefits sought to be achieved by the Mergers may not be realized, (iii) the immediate and substantial dilution by 50.37% of voting power and percentage ownership to the FSP Stockholders and (iv) the possibility that the real estate holdings of the Target REITs would decline in value.

The FSP Board concluded, however, that, on balance, the potential benefits of the Mergers to FSP Corp. and the FSP Stockholders outweighed the associated risks. The discussion of the information and factors considered by the FSP Board is not intended to be exhaustive. In view of the variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the Merger Agreement, providing for the Mergers and the issuance of the Merger Consideration, the FSP Board did not find it practicable to, and did not quantify or otherwise assign relative weight to, the specific factors considered in reaching its determination.

The FSP Board on an on-going basis evaluates strategic alternatives available to FSP Corp. In seeking to achieve the benefits that the FSP Board expects will result from the Mergers, the FSP Board did not consider any specific alternatives to the Mergers.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of FSP Common Stock issued, outstanding and entitled to vote at the Meeting is required to approve the Merger Agreement.

The FSP Board believes that the Merger Agreement is in the best interests of FSP Corp. and the FSP Stockholders and recommends a vote FOR approval of the Merger Agreement.

The Target REITs. The Target Boards each unanimously concluded that the Merger Agreement, providing for the Merger and the issuance of the Merger Consideration is fair to, and in the best interests of, the Target REITs and the Target REIT Stockholders.

The decision to approve the Merger Agreement is based upon the Target Boards' respective beliefs that (i) the Merger Consideration being offered for the Target Stock constitutes fair consideration for the Target Stock, (ii) the reduced dependence on the performance of investment in a particular asset would reduce the risk to the Target REIT Stockholders of a decline in a particular real estate market, (iii) the Target REITs' real estate holdings complement those of FSP Corp., and (iv) the Mergers would provide Target REIT Stockholders with an equity interest in a company whose stock is registered under the Exchange Act, which may in the future provide the Target REIT Stockholders with liquidity for their investment.

The decision of the individual Target Boards to approve the Merger Agreement resulted from such Target Board's careful consideration of a range of strategic alternatives, including the continuation of such Target REIT, the liquidation of such Target REIT and the creation or support of a secondary market for the Target Stock of such Target REIT through limited cash tender offers or repurchase programs sponsored by such Target REIT. The Target Boards considered a number of factors in evaluating the Mergers, including the following: (i) the Appraisals obtained by each Target REIT, (ii) identifying the strategic alternative that would provide the greatest value to the Target REIT Stockholders, (iii) the potential for a future market for FSP Common Stock, (iv) the relative likelihood of completing the Mergers, (v) the relative risks to the respective Target REITs' business if the Mergers were not completed and (vi) a review of the current and prospective business environment for REITs.

The Target Boards also considered a number of potentially negative factors in their deliberations concerning the Mergers, including: (i) conflicts of interest inherent between the directors and officers of FSP Corp. and the directors and officers of the Target REITs, (ii) the risk that the Mergers might not be consummated, (iii) the lack of a public market for FSP Common Stock, (iv) the increased risk to the value of the Target REIT Stockholders' investment given that the Combined Company's revenues would be derived from a greater number of real estate properties and (v) the risk that the benefits sought to be achieved by the Mergers would not be realized.

Each Target Board concluded, however, that, on balance, the potential benefits of the Mergers to its Target REIT and its Target REIT Stockholders outweighed the associated risks. The discussion of the information and factors considered by the Target Boards is not intended to be exhaustive. In view of the variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the Merger Agreement and the Merger Consideration, the Target Boards did not find it practicable to, and did not, quantify or otherwise assign relative weight to the specific factors considered in reaching its determination.

Consequences if Mergers not Completed

If the Mergers are not completed, FSP Corp. and the Target REITs will continue to operate as separate legal entities with their own assets and liabilities. There will be no change in their investment objectives, policies and restrictions.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of the material provisions of the Merger Agreement, a copy of which is set forth as Appendix A to this Proxy Statement and is incorporated herein by reference.

The Mergers

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, on the Effective Date FSP Corp. will acquire by merger each Target REIT. The FSP Board expects that the Effective Date will be on or about June 1, 2003.

The following chart sets forth the number of shares of FSP Common Stock to be received as Merger Consideration on the Effective Date by Target REIT Stockholders for each share of Target Stock of the respective Target REIT. FSP Corp. will issue the Merger Consideration to Target REIT Stockholders in private placements, exempt from registration under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act and Rule 506 of Regulation D promulgated thereunder. FSP Corp. expects to issue fractional shares of FSP Common Stock as Merger Consideration.

None of the shares of FSP Common Stock to be issued as Merger Consideration to the Target REIT Stockholders will be placed into escrow or otherwise withheld as a source of potential compensation to FSP Corp. should the Combined Company discover, after the consummation of the Mergers, that any of the Target REITs incurred any undisclosed liabilities prior to the consummation of the Mergers.

Consummation of the Mergers is subject to a number of conditions and will not occur unless, among other things, holders of a majority of the shares of Target Stock of each Target REIT vote to approve the Mergers.

The following table sets forth: (i) the value ascribed to each Target REIT for purposes of the Merger Consideration, and (ii) the sum of the appraised

(1) As of September 30, 2002, includes cash reserve balances and amounts have been rounded to the nearest $25,000.

The FSP Board determined the value ascribed to the Target REITs on the basis of the value the acquisition of the Target REITs would add to FSP Corp. as determined on an "enterprise" or "on-going concern" basis. This aggregate value exceeds the aggregate appraised values of the Target REITs by approximately $48 million. FSP Corp. has used the enterprise or on-going concern method of valuing acquisitions in the past and believes that this method, rather than the appraised value method, is the customary method to value REITs.

Representations and Warranties

In the Merger Agreement, FSP Corp. has made various representations and warranties to each Target REIT, including representations and warranties relating to (i) the due organization of FSP Corp. and its authority to enter into the Merger Agreement, (ii) the absence of the need (except as specified) for third-party or governmental consents to the Mergers, (iii) the Mergers' nonviolation of laws and material agreements, (iv) FSP Corp.'s capitalization, (v) the due authorization of the FSP Common Stock to be issued in the Mergers, (vi) financial statements, (vii) required filings with the SEC, (viii) taxes, (ix) full disclosure and (x) the absence of material litigation.

In addition, each Target REIT has made various representations and warranties to FSP Corp., including (i) the due organization of the Target REIT, (ii) its authority to enter into the Merger Agreement, (iii) the absence of the need (except as specified) for third-party or governmental consents to its Merger and its Merger's nonviolation of laws and material agreements, (iv) financial statements, (v) full disclosure, (vi) the absence of defaults under material agreements, (vii) the absence of material litigation, (viii) title to assets and properties and the absence of environmental liabilities, (ix) taxes, (x) the leases of its real property and (xi) its qualification as a real estate investment trust for federal income tax purposes.

Covenants

Each of the parties has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to take all actions necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. FSP Corp. has agreed that the FSP Board will recommend that FSP Stockholders vote in favor of the Merger Agreement. Each Target REIT has agreed that its respective Target Board will recommend that its respective Target REIT Stockholders vote in favor of the Merger Agreement.

The executive officers and directors of FSP Corp. hold an aggregate of 3,705,307.01 shares of FSP Common Stock, constituting approximately 15.04% of the outstanding shares of FSP Common Stock. The executive officers and directors have indicated that they intend to vote all of their respective shares in favor of the Merger Agreement.

Barry Silverstein and Dennis J. McGillicuddy, each a director of FSP Corp., own an aggregate of 601.25 and 229 shares of Target Stock, respectively. Such shares of Target Stock will convert into 4,130,961.11 and 1,586,343.29 shares of FSP Common Stock, respectively, upon consummation of the Mergers. Messrs. Silverstein and McGillicuddy have indicated that they intend to vote their respective shares of Target Stock in favor of the Merger Agreement.

Conduct of Business Pending the Effective Date

Each Target REIT and FSP Corp. has agreed that, prior to the Effective Date or the earlier termination of the Merger Agreement, it will carry on its business in the ordinary course in substantially the same manner as previously conducted and will use its reasonable efforts to preserve intact its present business organization and goodwill, maintain permits, licenses and authorizations and preserve its relationship with third parties. The Merger Agreement permits each Target REIT and FSP Corp. to declare prior to the Effective Date, consistent with past custom and practice, dividends to the pre-Merger Target REIT Stockholders or pre-Merger FSP Stockholders, as the case may be, in respect of each entity's operating results for periods prior to the Effective Date. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, FSP Corp. has assumed the obligation to pay any dividends declared but not paid by the Target REITs prior to the consummation of the Mergers.

Conditions Precedent to the Mergers

The respective obligations of each party to effect the Mergers are subject to the fulfillment on or before the Effective Date of the following conditions:

(a) the approval of the Merger Agreement and the Mergers by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of FSP Common Stock issued, outstanding and entitled to vote at the Meeting;

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

(b) the approval of the Merger Agreement and the Mergers by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of Target Stock of each Target REIT;

(c) FSP Corp. must reasonably believe that the number of Target REIT Stockholders who are Non-Accredited Investors does not exceed 35 and that each such Non-Accredited Investor has, either alone or with his/her/its purchase representative, such knowledge and experience in business and financial matters that he/she/it is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of FSP Common Stock;

(d) the parties must receive all necessary consents, waivers, approvals, authorizations or orders required to be obtained and the making of all filings required to be made by any of the parties for the authorization, execution and delivery of the Merger Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby on or before (and remaining in effect at) the Effective Date;

(e) there shall not have occurred any material adverse change in the overall business or prospects of any of the Target REITs or FSP Corp. or in the tax or other regulatory provisions applicable to the Target REITs, FSP Corp. or the Combined Company, and the FSP Board shall not have become aware of any facts that, in its reasonable judgment, have or may have a material adverse effect on the Target REITs and FSP Corp., taken as a whole, the Mergers or the value of the Combined Company;

(f) receipt, on or prior to the Effective Date, by FSP Corp. of an opinion from FSP Corp's outside legal counsel, Hale and Dorr LLP, to the effect that the Mergers should be treated for federal income tax purposes as reorganizations within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and confirming that in all material respects, as of the Closing Date, the discussion set forth under "Material United States Federal Income Tax Considerations", including any opinions expressed therein, to the extent that it involves matters of law, is accurate;

(g) delivery by the President and Chief Executive Officer of FSP Corp. and the President of each of the Target REITs of certificates to the effect that there have been no material adverse changes in the financial condition of such entity prior to the consummation of the Mergers;

(h) there having been no statute, rule, order, or regulation enacted or issued by the United States or any State thereof, or by a court, which prohibits the consummation of the Mergers; and

(i) the representations of each of FSP Corp. and the Target REITs set forth in the Merger Agreement shall be true and complete in all material respects as of the Closing Date.

The conditions described in clauses (c), (d), (e) and (g) above may be waived by the FSP Board in whole or in part if, in the opinion of the FSP Board, such waiver does not materially affect the terms of the transaction. In the event of such a waiver, FSP Corp. will promptly notify all FSP Stockholders of such waiver. If the waiver has a material adverse effect on the FSP Stockholders, FSP Corp. will resolicit shareholder approval of the Mergers and the Merger Agreement. Certain of the conditions to the consummation of the Mergers are beyond the control of FSP Corp., the Target REITs and the Target Boards; consequently, there can be no assurance that the Mergers will occur.

Termination

The Merger Agreement may be terminated, and the Mergers may be abandoned, at any time before the Effective Date, notwithstanding approval of the Merger Agreement by the FSP Stockholders and/or Target REIT Stockholders.

(a) by the mutual written consent of FSP Corp. and each Target REIT;

(b) by either FSP Corp. or any Target REIT if the Mergers have not been consummated by July 31, 2003 (which date may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties); or

(c) by either FSP Corp. or any Target REIT if the conditions to the Mergers set forth in the Merger Agreement are not satisfied or waived.

If a material casualty occurs with respect to the property owned by a particular Target REIT, the FSP Board has the right to terminate the Merger Agreement with respect to that Target REIT and to consummate the Mergers with the remaining Target REITs.

Effect of Termination

If the Merger Agreement is terminated, there will be no liability or obligation on the part of any party thereto or its respective affiliates, partners, directors or officers, except for payment of expenses each party is liable for and to the extent that such termination results from the willful breach of a party thereto of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements made in or pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

37

FAIRNESS OF THE MERGERS

Conclusions of the FSP Board

The FSP Board believes that the terms of the Merger Agreement, when considered as a whole, are fair to FSP Corp. and the FSP Stockholders and the Merger Consideration offered in exchange for the Target Stock constitutes fair consideration for the interests of the Target REIT Stockholders. This section discusses the factors upon which the FSP Board has based its conclusions as to the fairness of the Merger Agreement and the Merger Consideration and should be carefully reviewed by you. The FSP Board did not find it practicable to, and did not attempt to, quantify the relative importance of these factors, but has, where appropriate, noted which of the factors support or detract from its belief as to the fairness of the Merger Agreement and the Merger Consideration to FSP Corp. and FSP Stockholders.

Determination of Merger Consideration

Methodology Used to Determine Merger Consideration. The FSP Board believes that the methods used to determine the Merger Consideration are fair to FSP Corp. and FSP Stockholders. The FSP Board, however, has significant conflicts of interest; consequently, the determination of the Merger Consideration was not the product of negotiation. In addition, because there is no public market for the stock of FSP Corp., the Target REITs or the Combined Company, the relative values of the companies can only be estimated. Because of these circumstances, the FSP Board concluded that there was no mechanical formula that it could apply to determine the Merger Consideration. The FSP Board considered the factors set forth below and exercised its reasonable judgment to determine an amount of Merger Consideration that it believes is fair to the FSP Stockholders and will be acceptable to a majority of both the FSP Stockholders and the Target REIT Stockholders of each Target REIT. In concluding that the Merger Consideration is fair, the FSP Board relied in part on the advice provided by A.G. Edwards that the methodology (which did not involve the application of a specific formula) used by FSP Corp.'s management to estimate hypothetical values is not unreasonable. A.G. Edwards' report only addressed the methodology used by management to value FSP Corp. and the Combined Company, and did not constitute an opinion as to the fairness of the transaction to the FSP Stockholders (a "fairness opinion"). In rendering a fairness opinion, certain additional extrinsic analyses, tasks and judgments necessarily must be undertaken and completed. These include, among other things: an independent review of appraisals; site inspections; analyses of local and national economic conditions, Target REIT properties, past transactions and comparable companies; detailed due diligence; a review of comparable transactions; random interviews with key investors; and analysis of discounted cash flow, pro forma financial statements, synergies upon merger and each party's contribution to such synergies. In addition, A.G. Edwards would have charged substantially more to render a fairness opinion than for its report on the methodology used to value FSP Corp. and the Combined Company.

The FSP Board recognizes there are alternative methods to value the proposed Mergers. The FSP Board determined, in good faith and after taking into account FSP Corp.'s status as a REIT, that the appropriate method for FSP Corp. was to use the "enterprise" or "on-going concern" method. This method, which uses a cash available for distribution ("CAD") multiple, is a commonly accepted valuation approach used by comparable companies with publicly traded securities. Although neither FSP Corp. nor any of the Target REITs is a publicly traded company, the FSP Board determined that the "enterprise" or "on-going concern" method was still the appropriate method to use as it is the method used by most other REITs. Moreover, this method was the method previously used by FSP Corp.'s predecessor-in-interest, the FSP Partnership, to value itself and its targets in connection with the acquisition of Sponsored Entities. Finally, the FSP Board believes that if FSP's Common Stock is ever listed for trading on an exchange, stock analysts will value the Combined Company based on an enterprise or on-going concern methodology. For all these reasons, the FSP Board did not consider any other method in valuing the proposed Mergers. In determining the allocation of the Merger Consideration among the stockholders of the Target REITs, the FSP Board and FSP Corp.'s management took the individual Appraisals of the real estate owned by the Target REITs into consideration, but used the Appraisals only as guides in making the allocation.

Management's Forecasts. FSP Corp.'s management prepared financial forecasts in order to determine a range of estimated hypothetical values of FSP Corp. prior to the Mergers and of the Combined Company following the consummation of the Mergers. The financial information underlying these forecasts for FSP Corp. and the Combined Company is set forth in the "Valuation Overview" (attached hereto as Appendix D). The financial information analyzed by FSP Corp. for both FSP Corp. and the Target REITs consisted of the following financial elements:

CAD;

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Interest income on excess cash held by FSP Corp. and the Target REITs;

Multiples of CAD commonly used in valuing REITs; and Excess cash held by FSP Corp. and the Target REITs.

CAD represents the estimated cash available for distribution for each of FSP Corp. and the Target REITs determined as of August 15, 2002. Interest income on excess cash represents the (i) estimate of the amount of interest as a percentage paid (based on a monthly average on August 15, 2002, the date of the forecasts) and (ii) the current excess cash of $13.5 million held by FSP Corp. and the amount of cash held respectively by each Target REIT on August 15, 2002, the date of the forecasts. The multiples of CAD commonly used in valuing REITs are multiples derived from standard practice in the REIT industry. FSP Corp.'s management determined that, based on the set of assumptions of CAD multiples and financial forecasts, the Combined Company merited a greater CAD multiple than FSP Corp. because the Combined Company would have a higher relative percentage of rental revenue as opposed to transactional revenue and such rental revenue backed by real estate assets is generally more stable than transactional revenue. Excess cash represents (i) cash balances from operations in excess of current operating expenses and (ii) cash balances established during the original syndication of each Sponsored Entity as capital reserves. The amount of excess cash included in the forecasts was as of August 15, 2002, the date of the forecasts.

In preparing these financial forecasts, FSP Corp. assumed (i) a modest growth in the level of gross proceeds raised by Sponsored REITs in syndicated offerings from 2002 to 2003 and (ii) rental revenue and net income from rental operations of FSP Corp. and the Target REITs that would be consistent with prior years.

Range of Estimated Values. FSP Corp.'s management used these forecasts to determine a range of estimated hypothetical enterprise values of FSP Corp. prior to the consummation of the Mergers and of the Combined Company following the consummation of the Mergers. FSP Corp.'s management determined these ranges by applying multiples of 11, 12 and 13.3 to FSP Corp.'s estimated 2002 CAD (not giving effect to the Mergers) and to the Combined Company's twelve-month pro forma CAD. These multiples are representative of the ranges of multiples applied to estimated 2002 and 2003 CAD for office REITs, apartment REITs and industrial REITs, as set forth in Exhibit B to A.G. Edwards' report attached hereto as Appendix C. Next, FSP Corp.'s management applied market discounts of 5% and 10% to each of the enterprise values derived from the CAD multiples discussed above. FSP Corp.'s management considered these market discounts to constitute a reasonable range of discounts to reflect the lack of liquidity of FSP Common Stock. FSP Corp.'s predecessor-in-interest, the FSP Partnership, used the same range of discounts in valuing itself in connection with the acquisition of Sponsored Entities.

The estimated hypothetical values produced by FSP Corp.'s management and set forth in the Valuation Overview resulted in a range of estimated hypothetical value for FSP Corp. of $328 million to $416 million and a range of estimated hypothetical value for the Combined Company of $642 million to $815 million. In determining the Merger Consideration to recommend to the FSP Board, FSP Corp.'s management reviewed its forecasts as discussed herein and also considered the Appraisals of the Target REITs in recommending allocations of the Merger Consideration among the Target REITs. At no time did FSP Corp.'s management use a mechanical formula to determine either the value of FSP Corp., the Target REITs or the Combined Company.

Fairness of the Merger Consideration

Valuation of the FSP Common Stock and the Combined Company. The FSP Board estimated relative values of FSP Corp. and the various Target REITs based upon its current knowledge and understanding of the financial condition of FSP Corp. and the Target REITs, respectively, and on its reasonable judgment of the benefits expected to accrue to FSP Corp. following consummation of the Mergers. The management of FSP Corp. submitted to the FSP Board a "Valuation Overview" (attached hereto as Appendix D) setting forth a range of possible values for FSP Corp. and the Combined Company. After reviewing the Valuation Overview, the FSP Board first estimated a value for FSP Corp. prior to the consummation of the Mergers. This estimated value was approximately $363,296,000 and falls within the range of $328 million to $416 million set forth in the Valuation Overview. In determining this estimated value, the FSP Board took into account the assets and liabilities of FSP Corp., its expected CAD, the multiples to CAD commonly used in valuing REITs (as set forth in Exhibit B to the A.G. Edwards' report attached to this Proxy Statement as Appendix C) and the limited liquidity of FSP Common Stock. The FSP Board did not derive this value by applying CAD multiples or any other mathematical formula but instead exercised its judgment in good faith after consideration of the relevant factors. Although the FSP Board did not apply a mechanical formula in determining this estimated value, by way of illustration, this value equated to a multiple of approximately 11.3 of forecasted 2002 CAD. From this estimated value, the FSP Board calculated a FSP Common Stock per share value of $14.75.

The FSP Board then estimated a value for FSP Corp. following consummation of the Mergers. This estimated value was approximately $732,047,000 and falls within the range of $642 million and $815 million set forth in the Valuation Overview. In determining this estimated value, the FSP Board took into account the assets and liabilities of the Combined Company, its expected CAD, the application of multiples to CAD commonly used to value REITs (as set forth in Exhibit B to the A.G. Edwards' report attached to this Proxy Statement as Appendix C) and the limited liquidity of FSP Common Stock. The FSP Board did not derive this value by applying CAD multiples or any other mathematical formula but instead exercised its judgment in good faith after consideration of the relevant factors. Although the FSP Board did not apply a mechanical formula in determining this estimated value, by way of illustration, this value equated to a multiple of approximately 11.6 of forecasted pro forma 2003 CAD of the Combined Company. The FSP Board determined that, based on the same set of assumptions (including application of the same discount for lack of liquidity), the Combined Company merited a greater CAD multiple than FSP Corp. because the Combined Company would have a higher relative percentage of rental revenue as opposed to transactional revenue and such rental revenue backed by real estate assets is generally more stable than transactional revenue.

The FSP Board then calculated the difference between the estimated value of FSP Corp. prior to the consummation of the Mergers and the estimated value of FSP Corp. following the consummation of the Mergers to be approximately $368,751,000. The increase in the estimated value of the Combined Company over the estimated value of FSP Corp. derives from the increased CAD of the Combined Company and the increased percentage of revenue attributable to real estate assets rather than transactional business. Because both the increased CAD and the higher percentage of revenue generated by real estate assets are attributable to the Target REITs, the FSP Board determined that it would be fair to the FSP Stockholders to fix the Merger Consideration in an amount equal to the increase in estimated value. The number of shares of FSP Common Stock issuable to Target REIT Stockholders as Merger Consideration, therefore, is approximately 25,000,091 which is equal to the approximately $368,751,000 estimated value differential divided by the $14.75 per share current estimated value of FSP Corp.

The amount of the Merger Consideration exceeds the aggregate of the values set forth in the Appraisals together with the Target REITs' cash reserves by approximately $48 million. This discrepancy between the Merger Consideration and the Appraisals' values is the result of using the enterprise or on-going concern method to value FSP Corp. and the Combined Company. The FSP Board adopted this method for the reasons set forth under "Methodology Used to Determine Merger Consideration" above. Based on the directors' experience in the real estate industry, the FSP Board believes that appraisal values of the type set forth in the Appraisals are not the customary basis on which transactions similar to the Merger are valued. The FSP Board used the Appraisals only in determining the allocation of the Merger Consideration among the Target REITs and not in determining the amount of Merger Consideration.

A.G. Edwards advised the FSP Board that it believes the methodology used by the FSP Board to estimate hypothetical values of FSP Corp. and the Combined Company is not unreasonable. According to A.G. Edwards, the estimated values for FSP Corp. and the Combined Company fall within a range of an "implied hypothetical enterprise value" of FSP Corp. and the Target REITs using the FSP Board's methodology. A.G. Edwards issued the FSP Board a report on its findings. This report is attached to this Proxy Statement as Appendix C.

Because the FSP Board has significant conflicts of interest, the Merger Consideration was not the product of negotiations. In addition, because there is no public market for FSP Corp., the Target REITs or the Combined Company, the relative values of FSP Corp. and the various Target REITs can only be estimates. The values ascribed to FSP Corp., the Target REITs and the Combined Company are the best estimated values according to the reasonable judgment of the FSP Board.

Allocation of Merger Consideration. In allocating the approximately $368,751,000 of Merger Consideration among the Target REITs, the FSP Board and FSP Corp.'s management took into consideration the Appraisals obtained by the Target REITs and prepared by third party independent appraisers to establish the estimated values of the Target REITs' real estate assets. The FSP Board and FSP Corp.'s management also considered the amount of cash held by each Target REIT. Finally, the FSP Board and FSP Corp.'s management considered the nature and quality of the tenants at each Target REIT's property, the projected expirations of leases and the property type (whether it was an office building or a residential apartment building) and location of the property held by each Target REIT. The FSP Board did not allocate the Merger Consideration based solely on the Appraisals and the amount of cash held by each Target REIT because the FSP Board determined that these two factors alone would not adequately reflect the relative value of each Target REIT or take into account the potential future cash flow from each Target REIT or the appreciation in real estate value experienced by each Target REIT following the date of the Appraisals. The FSP Board and FSP Corp.'s management used the Appraisals as guides to the relative value of the Target REITs but not as absolute determinants. Instead, the FSP Board and FSP Corp.'s management each exercised its reasonable judgment to estimate the relative contributions made by each Target REIT to the estimated $368,751,000 increase in the value of FSP Corp. as a result of the Mergers and allocated the Merger Consideration among the Target REITs on the basis of such estimated relative contributions.

Negative Factors Considered. The FSP Board identified and considered a number of potentially negative factors in its deliberations concerning the

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Merger Agreement, including the following: (i) conflicts of interest inherent between the directors and officers of FSP Corp. and the directors and officers of the Target REITs, (ii) the decision of the FSP Board not to obtain a fairness opinion, (iii) the risks that the benefits sought to be achieved by the Mergers may not be realized, (iv) the immediate and substantial dilution in voting power and percentage ownership to the FSP Stockholders, (v) the possibility that the real estate holdings of the Target REITs would decline in value and (vi) the fact that none of the shares of FSP Common Stock constituting the Merger Consideration will be placed in escrow or otherwise withheld as a potential source of compensation should any of the Target REITs have any undisclosed liabilities. The FSP Board concluded, however, that, on balance, the potential benefit of the Mergers to FSP Corp. and the FSP Stockholders outweighed the associated risks.

Fairness in View of Conflicts of Interest. The members of the FSP Board have significant conflicts of interest in connection with the Mergers, and no unaffiliated representatives were appointed to negotiate the terms of the Mergers on behalf of FSP Corp. In particular, Barry Silverstein and Dennis J. McGillicuddy own an aggregate of 601.25 and 229 shares of Target Stock, respectively. Such shares of Target Stock will convert into 4,130,961.11 and 1,586,343.29 shares of FSP Common Stock, respectively, upon consummation of the Mergers. Messrs. Silverstein and McGillicuddy also currently own, however, 1,148,878.50 and 990,325.75 shares of FSP Common Stock, respectively. In addition, Messrs. Carter and Norris and Ms. Corinha are directors of each Target REIT and owe a fiduciary duty to the Target REIT Stockholders, and Ms. Notopoulos is an executive officer of each Target REIT. The FSP Board concluded that retaining independent representatives was not necessary nor cost effective, in part because there are no members of the FSP Board that do not have conflicts of interest in connection with the Mergers and under Maryland law the FSP Board does not have the power to delegate the determination of whether to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement and the Mergers contemplated thereby. The FSP Board determined that appointing independent representatives to negotiate the terms of the Mergers and to make recommendations to the FSP Board would not be worth the anticipated cost, since the FSP Board would still be obligated to make its own independent determinations. This decision was also based, in part, upon the receipt of the advice from A.G. Edwards regarding the methodology used to value FSP Corp. and the Combined Company. Finally, the decision was also based, in part, on the fact that the provision of asset management services by FSP Corp. to the Target REITs has given the FSP Board the opportunity to become familiar with the properties and operations of the Target REITs and, hence, has provided the FSP Board with substantial context in which to exercise its reasonable judgment. No fees or other compensation will be payable to the members of the FSP Board in connection with the Mergers, although Messrs. Silverstein and McGillicuddy will participate in the Merger Consideration to the extent of their ownership of Target Stock. The FSP Board believes that its determination regarding the fairness of the Mergers was based upon the proper exercise of its fiduciary duty, unaffected by these conflicts of interest.

ADVICE OF FINANCIAL ADVISORS AND APPRAISALS

Advice of A.G. Edwards

A.G. Edwards advised the FSP Board that it believes the methodology used by the FSP Board to estimate hypothetical values of FSP Corp. and the Combined

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Company is not unreasonable. In conducting its review, A.G. Edwards analyzed, to the extent it deemed necessary, financial projections of FSP Corp. and the Target REITs, publicly traded securities of companies with operations comparable to those of FSP Corp. and the Target REITs, attributes of FSP Corp. having both negative and positive impacts on FSP Corp's valuation, as well as other financial studies and analyses related to general economic, market and monetary conditions. FSP Corp. provided A.G. Edwards with historical and forecasted financial information describing FSP Corp. Such information was not audited, reviewed or compiled by an independent certified public accounting firm and A.G. Edwards takes no responsibility for the accuracy of such information. Forecasted financial information was prepared by FSP Corp. and A.G. Edwards was not asked to consider, nor did it consider, the reasonableness of the assumptions on which such forecasts were based. A.G. Edwards did not make any independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of FSP Corp. or the Target REITs, nor was it furnished with any such appraisals. A.G. Edwards also did not independently attempt to assess or value any intangible assets (including goodwill) nor did it make any independent assumptions with respect to their application in the Mergers.

In particular, A.G. Edwards received the "Valuation Overview" prepared by FSP Corp, and attached to this Proxy Statement as Appendix D. FSP Corp. determined the values set forth in the "Valuation Overview" on August 15, 2002. A.G. Edwards concluded that the methodology techniques used in the Valuation Overview, the range of multiples applied to CAD and the range of discounts applied for lack of marketability were not unreasonable. The estimated hypothetical value ranges contained in the Valuation Overview (a range of estimated hypothetical value for FSP Corp. of $328 million to $416 million and a range of estimated hypothetical value for the Combined Company of $642 million to $815 million) represent analysis considering value as of the date specified, do not reflect any changes in value that may have occurred after that date, are subject to certain assumptions and may not represent the true worth or realizable value of FSP Corp. or the Combined Company.

In performing its analysis, A.G. Edwards made numerous assumptions with respect to interest rates, dividend rates, market conditions, general business conditions, local and national real estate conditions, economic conditions and government regulations. A.G. Edwards also assumed in all respects material to its analysis that the representations and warranties of each party contained in the Merger Agreement were true and correct, that each party would perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by it under the Merger Agreement and that all conditions to the consummation of the Mergers would be satisfied without any modification or waiver thereof. A.G. Edwards also assumed that all governmental, regulatory and other consents and approvals contemplated by the Merger Agreement would be obtained and that in the course of obtaining any of those consents, no restrictions would be imposed or waivers made that would have an adverse effect on the contemplated Mergers. A.G. Edwards also assumed that the Mergers would be accounted for in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and that the Mergers would be consummated on the terms contained in the Merger Agreement without any waiver or modification of any material terms or conditions by the parties.

A.G. Edwards has furnished a written report to FSP Corp. This report is attached to this Proxy Statement as Appendix C. A.G. Edwards was not engaged to render, and its advice to FSP Corp. will not constitute, nor is it expressing: (i) an independent valuation opinion or appraisal report (as defined in ASA Business Valuation Standards (revised January 1995)) of FSP Corp. or the Target

REITs or (ii) an opinion as to the fairness of the consideration (i.e., a fairness opinion) offered in the Mergers to the Target REIT Stockholders. In preparing either a valuation opinion or appraisal or in rendering a fairness opinion, certain additional extrinsic analyses, tasks and judgments necessarily must be undertaken and completed. Such analyses would include additional due diligence and analytical procedures as outlined in A.G. Edwards' full report, attached as Appendix C to this Proxy Statement. Had such analyses and tasks been undertaken and completed, they may or may not have yielded results similar to the results from the methodology techniques used in the Valuation Overview. A.G. Edwards has not been requested to undertake, nor has A.G. Edwards undertaken, any of these foregoing analyses. In addition, A.G. Edwards did not play any role in determining or selecting the methodology techniques used by the FSP Board in the Valuation Overview, nor does it express any qualitative assessment of the methodology techniques used in the Valuation Overview compared to other methodology techniques that might be used to value FSP Corp. or the Target REITs. A.G. Edwards' written report does not address the merits of the underlying decision by FSP Corp. to engage in the Mergers. A.G. Edwards also played no role in determining the methodology used by the FSP Board to allocate the Merger Consideration among the Target REITs.

Consistent with the scope of A.G. Edwards' engagement, FSP Corp. asked A.G. Edwards to opine only as to the reasonableness of the FSP Board's valuation methodology, provided no instructions to A.G. Edwards other than those indicated above and imposed no limitations as to A.G. Edwards' review. A.G. Edwards has informed FSP Corp. that in the view of A.G. Edwards an opinion that the FSP Board's valuation methodology was "reasonable" would require the equivalent amount of work as a fairness opinion, which, as described above, would be a substantial amount of additional work. A.G. Edwards has also informed FSP Corp. that such an opinion would cost FSP Corp. an additional $475,000. FSP Corp. has considered obtaining such an opinion but concluded that obtaining an opinion that the valuation methodology used was "reasonable" as opposed to "not reasonable" was not worth $475,000.

Solely for the purpose of evaluating FSP Corp.'s methodology and in order to render its report, A.G. Edwards provided FSP Corp. a summary of CAD multiples for national, publicly traded REITs in sectors in which FSP Corp. has operations, which is included as Exhibit B to Appendix C. A.G. Edwards also recommended to the Board certain factors to consider when evaluating the appropriateness of such multiples. A summary of such factors is included as Exhibit C to Appendix C, and includes a company's size, growth rate, liquidity, leverage, quality of management, diversification, market position and share, and ability to raise capital. A.G. Edwards considered FSP Corp.'s evaluation of such factors in FSP Corp.'s determination of a CAD multiple and concluded that, given the applicability of such factors to FSP Corp., FSP Corp.'s determination was not unreasonable. A.G. Edwards also summarized and provided to the FSP Board a list of relevant factors to consider when determining a discount for the lack of a public market for FSP Common Stock, which is included as Exhibit D to Appendix C. Such factors include the "put" right available to FSP Stockholders pursuant to the FSP Corp. Articles of Organization, FSP Corp.'s estimated dividend as a proportion of CAD, the existence of any potential buyers of FSP Common Stock other than FSP Corp., the existence of any blocks of minority interests in FSP Corp., the prospects for a public offering of FSP Common Stock or a sale of FSP Corp., the historical dividend paid by FSP Corp., the growth prospects for FSP Corp., the existence of any "swing vote control," the existence of any buy-sell agreements, the "quality grade" of the FSP Common Stock, FSP Corp.'s general prospects, prospects for the real estate industry and the mood of the investing public as a whole. A.G. Edwards considered FSP Corp.'s evaluation of such factors in FSP Corp.'s determination of a lack of marketability discount and concluded that, given the applicability of such factors to FSP Corp., FSP Corp.'s determination was not unreasonable.

FSP Corp. obtained the services of A.G. Edwards because A.G. Edwards has a national reputation for providing businesses with comprehensive capital raising and financial advisory services and has extensive experience with all types of real estate securities. FSP Corp. selected A.G. Edwards based on this national reputation and its previous experience with A.G. Edwards. FSP Corp. has agreed to pay A.G. Edwards a fee in the amount of $125,000 for its services, together with reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses. Payment of this amount is not contingent on the closing of the Mergers. During the past two years, A.G. Edwards has received from FSP Corp. an aggregate of $300,000 for services performed for FSP Corp. in connection with (i) FSP Corp.'s predecessor-in-interest, the FSP Partnership's, engagement of A.G. Edwards in August 2001 to provide a valuation on a going concern basis of FSP Corp. as of September 30, 2001 for which A.G. Edwards was paid $175,000 and for its expenses and (ii) FSP Corp.'s predecessor-in-interest, the FSP Partnership's, engagement of A.G. Edwards in June 2000 to render a report as to the reasonableness of the methodology used by the management of FSP Corp. in the determination of a value for FSP Corp. prior to and after giving effect to certain mergers for which A.G. Edwards was paid $125,000 and for its expenses, together with reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses.

Appraisals of the Target REITs' Properties

The Target Boards engaged several third-party independent appraisers as set forth in the table below (collectively, the "Appraisers"), to appraise the real estate owned by the respective Target REITs, each of which has delivered a written summary of its analysis, based upon the review, analysis, scope and limitations described therein, as to the fair market value of a particular Target REIT's property as of the date set forth in the table below, respectively (together, the "Appraisals"). Each Appraiser has a national reputation for providing businesses with appraisals of real estate properties of the size and type of the property it appraised. The Target Boards selected the Appraisers to provide the Appraisals because of their experience and reputation in connection with real estate assets. In addition, the Target Boards desired to take advantage of the cost efficiencies associated with having the same party provide each Appraisal as provided the appraisal obtained by each Target REIT in connection with acquiring its property. The Target Boards imposed no limitations on the scope of the Appraisers' appraisals. The Target REITs have made the Appraisals available to FSP Corp. and have allowed the FSP Board to rely on the Appraisals. The FSP Board took the Appraisals into consideration and used them as guides in allocating the Merger Consideration among the Target REITs.

FSP Corp. took the appraisals into account in allocating the Merger Consideration among the Target REITs. See "Fairness of the Mergers - Fairness of the Merger Consideration - Allocation of Merger Consideration".

Set forth below is certain information regarding the Appraisals. These appraised values are for the property owned by the respective Target REIT as of the date of the Appraisal. While the FSP Board took the Appraisals into consideration when allocating the Merger Consideration among the Target REITs, the Merger Consideration reflects the increase in value to FSP Corp. that is expected to be produced by the consummation of the Mergers.

- (1) Amounts are rounded to the nearest $25,000.
- (2) The Appraiser provided a range of values for this Target REIT.
- (3) These Appraisals were obtained during the due diligence period prior to acquisition of the properties by the Target REITs.

The applicable Target REITs obtained appraisals for the properties owned by Merrywood, Plaza Ridge I and Park Ten during the due diligence period in 2002 prior to acquisition of the properties. No new appraisals were ordered by the respective Target Boards for these properties because the respective Target Boards did not believe that there had been material changes in the buildings or real estate markets since the time of the last appraisals, each of which had been prepared within the last twelve calendar months.

The material assumptions, qualifications and limitations to the Appraisals are described below.

Summary of Methodology. At the request of the Target Boards, the Appraisers updated their original appraisals for the purchase of the properties held by the Target REITs and, where appropriate, revised their assumptions to reflect the changed conditions in the market or property. Appraisers typically use three approaches in valuing real property: the cost approach, the income approach and the sales comparison approach. The type and age of a property, market conditions and the quantity and quality of data affect the applicability of each approach in a specific appraisal situation. The value estimated by the cost approach incorporates separate estimates of the value of the unimproved site and the value of improvements, less observed physical wear and tear and functional or economic obsolescence. The income approach estimates a property's capacity to produce income through an analysis of the rental market, operating expenses and net income. Net income may then be processed into a value through either direct capitalization or discounted cash flow analysis, or a combination of these two methods. The sales comparison approach involves a comparative analysis of the subject property with other similar properties that have sold recently or that are currently offered for sale in the market. Nearly all the Appraisers considered or used all three of the approaches to value in their original appraisals.

The Appraisers analyzed the individual properties of each Target REIT. The Appraisers' analysis included (i) reviewing each property's historical operating statements, (ii) reviewing and relying on specific information regarding prospective changes in rents and expenses for each property provided by the applicable Target REIT, (iii) developing information from a variety of sources about market conditions for each individual property (including relevant information about general market conditions and the city, state and neighborhood in which the property is located) and (iv) considering the projected cash flow for each property. Representatives of the Appraisers performed site inspections on all properties during August 2002 and September 2002. In the course of these site visits, the Appraisers inspected the physical facilities, obtained current rental and percentage of leased space information, gathered information on competing properties and the local market, visited primary competing properties and interviewed each local property manager or assistant manager concerning performance of the subject property and other factors.

In conducting the Appraisals, the Appraisers also interviewed and relied upon the Target Boards, executive management and property management personnel to obtain information relating to the condition of each property, including any deferred maintenance, capital budgets, status of ongoing or newly planned property additions, reconfigurations, improvements and other factors affecting the physical condition of the property improvements.

The Appraisers also interviewed property management personnel responsible for the properties and the Target REITs' executive management personnel to discuss competitive conditions, area economic and development trends affecting the properties, historical and budgeted operating revenues and expenses and occupancies. The Appraisers also reviewed historical operating statements and 2002 operating budgets for the subject properties.

To define the percentage of leased space, rental rate and expense escalators to be used in developing property operating projections, the Appraisers reviewed the acquisition criteria and projection parameters in use in the marketplace by major investors, owners and operators of the applicable property types. Further, the Appraisers considered various sources in local markets to identify recent sales of similar properties and derive certain valuation indicators. Sources for data concerning such transactions included local appraisers, property owners, real estate brokers, tax assessors and real estate research firms.

FSP Corp. will make each of the Appraisals available for inspection and copying by the FSP Stockholders or their representatives who have been so designated in writing at the principal executive offices of FSP Corp. during regular business hours.

Conclusions as to Value

Assumptions, Limitations and Qualifications of Property Appraisals. The Appraisers utilized certain assumptions to determine the appraised value of the properties under the income approach and the sales comparison approach. The Appraisals reflect the Appraisers' valuation of the real estate of the Target REITs as of their respective dates, in the context of the information available on such date. Events occurring after the date of an Appraisal and before the closing of the Mergers could affect the properties or assumptions used in preparing the real estate appraisals. The Appraisers have no obligation to update the Appraisals on the basis of subsequent events.

Compensation and Material Relationships. The Appraisers have been paid fees in the aggregate amount of $36,640 to prepare the Appraisals. The fees for the Appraisals were negotiated between the Target Boards and the Appraisers and payment thereof is not dependent upon completion of the Mergers. The respective Appraisers were previously engaged to appraise the properties of the Target REITs prior to their acquisition. Moreover, during the past three years, the Appraisers received an aggregate of $70,650 for appraisals obtained by each Target REIT in connection with the initial acquisition of such Target REITs property.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

A number of conflicts of interest are inherent in the relationships among the Target REITs, the Target Boards, FSP Corp. and the FSP Board. Certain of these conflicts of interest are summarized below.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Common Composition of Directors and Officers

Each executive officer and four directors of FSP Corp. are directors and/or executive officers of each Target REIT. Barry Silverstein and Dennis J. McGillicuddy, each a director of FSP Corp., own an aggregate of 601.25 and 229 shares of Target Stock, respectively. Such shares of Target Stock will convert into 4,130,961.11 and 1,586,343.29 shares of FSP Common Stock, respectively, upon consummation of the Mergers. Each Target Board and the FSP Board have independent obligations to ensure that such Target REIT's or FSP Corp.'s participation, respectively, in the Merger Agreement and the determination of the Merger Consideration is fair and equitable, without regard to whether the Merger Agreement and the determination of the Merger Consideration are fair and equitable to the other participants (including the other Target REITs). The FSP Board and each Target Board have sought to discharge faithfully their respective obligations to FSP Corp. and the applicable Target REIT; however, FSP Stockholders should consider that the executive officers and three of the directors of FSP Corp. serve in a similar capacity with respect to each Target REIT. Accordingly, the terms of the Merger Agreement and the amount of the Merger Consideration were not the product of arms'-length negotiations. If FSP Corp. had a separate board of directors with executive officers who did not serve in similar capacities for any of the Target REITs and directors who did not own Target Stock, these persons would have had an independent perspective which might have led them to advocate positions during the negotiation and structuring of the Merger Agreement and the determination of the Merger Consideration different than those taken by the FSP Board.

The conflicts of interest inherent in the relationships among the Target REITs, the Target Boards, FSP Corp., the FSP Board and their respective affiliates are as follows:

- o George J. Carter, the President, Chief Executive Officer and a director of FSP Corp., is the President and a director of each Target REIT;
 - o Barry Silverstein and Dennis J. McGillicuddy, each a director of FSP Corp., own an aggregate of 601.25 and 229 shares of Target Stock, respectively. Such shares of Target Stock will convert into 4,130,961.11 and 1,586,343.29 shares of FSP Common Stock, respectively, upon consummation of the Mergers;
 - o Richard R. Norris, an Executive Vice President and a director of FSP Corp., is also a director and an Executive Vice President of each Target REIT;
 - o Barbara J. Corinha, Vice President, Chief Operating Officer, Treasurer, Secretary and a director of FSP Corp. is also Vice President, Chief Operating Officer, Treasurer, Secretary and a director of each Target REIT;
- 51
- o Janet P. Notopoulos, Vice President and a director of FSP Corp., is also a Vice President of each Target REIT; and
 - o Each of R. Scott MacPhee and William W. Gribbell, each an Executive Vice President of FSP Corp., is also each a director and an Executive Vice President of each Target REIT.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

No unaffiliated representatives were appointed to negotiate the terms of the Mergers on behalf of FSP Corp. Moreover, no committee of independent representatives was established to evaluate and approve the Mergers on behalf of FSP Corp. Under Maryland law, the FSP Board cannot delegate to a third party its fiduciary duties relating to the determination to approve or not approve the Mergers. Because all of the members of the FSP Board have significant conflicts of interest and none are, therefore, considered "independent", the FSP Board determined it could not establish a committee of independent representatives to evaluate and approve the Mergers on behalf of FSP Corp. The FSP Board determined that appointing independent representatives to negotiate the terms of the Mergers and to make recommendations to the FSP Board would not be worth the anticipated cost, since the FSP Board would still be obligated to make its own independent determinations.

Mr. Silverstein and Mr. McGillicuddy are the only officers or directors of FSP Corp. who are not also officers or directors of any Target REIT. The remainder of the officers and directors of FSP Corp. serve as a director and/or officer, in the positions listed above, of each Target REIT.

Upon completion of the Mergers, Mr. Silverstein's percentage ownership interest will increase from 4.66% to 10.68%, Mr. McGillicuddy's percentage ownership interest will increase from 4.02% to 5.21%, and the percentage ownership of the current directors and executive officers as a group will increase from 15.04% to 19.06%.

Ownership of FSP Stock

The executive officers and directors of FSP Corp. hold an aggregate of 3,705,307.01 shares of FSP Common Stock, constituting approximately 15.04% of the outstanding shares of FSP Common Stock. The executive officers and directors have indicated that they intend to vote all of their respective shares in favor of the Merger Agreement.

Consequences of Merger with Fair Lakes

In September 2002, FSP Fair Lakes consented to an assignment of its lease with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to International Business Machines Corporation, but PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP remains obligated for payments under the lease. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP has informed FSP Corp. that if the Merger between FSP Corp. and Fair Lakes is consummated, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP will no longer be considered "independent" in connection with providing auditing services to FSP Corp. At that time, FSP Corp. will have to either release PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP from its obligation under the lease or choose another independent accountant.

SELECTED PRO FORMA CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL DATA

The following unaudited pro forma financial information has been prepared based upon certain pro forma adjustments to the historical consolidated financial statements of FSP Corp. The pro forma consolidated balance sheets have been presented as if the Mergers occurred as of December 31, 2002. The pro forma consolidated statements of operations for the year ended December 31, 2002 are presented as if the Mergers occurred at the beginning of the period presented.

The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statement data are not necessarily indicative of what the Combined Company's actual financial position or results of operations would have been as of the date or for the period indicated, nor do they purport to represent the Combined Company's financial position or results of operations as of or for any future period. The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statement data should be read in conjunction with all financial statements and pro forma financial statements included elsewhere herein.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the Target Stock in each of the Target REITs is also required to effectuate the applicable Merger. If one or more Target REIT does not obtain the vote required for the consummation of the Merger with such Target REIT, FSP Corp. will not proceed with the Mergers of any other Target REIT.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED PRO FORMA FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Unaudited)

Organization and Operations

FSP Corp. is a corporation formed under the laws of the State of Maryland. FSP Corp. has two principal sources of revenue: investment banking income consisting of brokerage commissions, property acquisition, loan origination and other fees in connection with the organization and offering of interests in entities organized to own real property; and rental income from real property. The Target REITs' principal source of revenue is rental income from real property.

Basis of Presentation

The following unaudited pro forma financial information has been prepared based upon certain pro forma adjustments to the historical consolidated financial statements of FSP Corp. The pro forma balance sheets are presented as if the Mergers occurred as of December 31, 2002. The pro forma Statements of Operations for the year ended December 31, 2002 are presented as if the Mergers occurred as of January 1, 2002.

The data provided in the "Historical FSP Corp." columns are derived from the information provided in the financial statements of FSP Corp. that are included in this Proxy Statement.

The data provided in the "Historical the Target REITs" columns are derived from the information provided in the financial statements of the Target REITs that are included in this Proxy Statement. Schedules summarizing the balance sheets and Statements of Operations for the Target REITs are located on pages 72 to 79 of this Proxy Statement. Four Target REITs were organized in 2002. These four Target REITs show operations from the date the REIT was organized and will reflect less than twelve months operations in the Consolidated Pro forma Statements of Operations for the Year Ended December 31, 2002. In order to reflect a full year of operations for the four Target REITs an entry was made in the "Adjustments" column in the pro forma Statement of Operations to reflect the operation of the predecessor companies.

The Mergers will be treated as purchase of assets and each Target REIT's assets and liabilities will be recorded on FSP Corp.'s books at their fair value as of the Effective Date.

ASSUMPTIONS

Certain assumptions regarding the operations of FSP Corp. have been made in connection with the preparation of the pro forma financial information. These assumptions are as follows:

- (a) FSP Corp. and each of the Target REITs have elected to be, and are qualified as, a real estate investment trust for federal income tax purposes. Each entity has met the various income, asset and distribution tests; therefore, no federal income tax liabilities have been incurred on real estate operations.

- (b) FSP Corp. has a subsidiary which is not in the business of real estate operations. That subsidiary has elected to be a taxable real estate investment trust subsidiary ("TRS") as of January 1, 2002 and is subject to federal income taxes at regular tax rates. The taxes on income shown in the pro forma statements of operations are the taxes on income incurred by the "TRS". There are no material items that would cause a deferred tax asset or a deferred tax liability.
- (c) FSP Corp. converted from a partnership into a corporation effective January 1, 2002. FSP Partnership units were converted to corporate shares on a one-to-one basis. This conversion has no effect on the Pro forma financial statements.
- (d) At the Effective Date, for each Target REIT, the increase between the appraised value of the property and the historical cost of the property has been allocated to real estate investments and leases, including Lease origination costs. Lease origination costs represent the value associated with acquiring an in-place lease (i.e. the market cost to execute a similar lease, including leasing commission, legal, vacancy and other related costs). The value assigned to buildings approximates their replacement cost; the value assigned to land approximates its appraised value; and the value assigned to leases approximates their fair value. Other assets and liabilities are recorded at their historical costs, which approximates fair value.

The following schedule shows the allocation of the aggregate increase of $16,193,000 between the appraised values of the properties and the historical costs. This increase has been allocated to Lease origination costs in the amount of $3,846,000 and to real estate investments in the amount of $12,347,000. Depreciation and amortization for the Target REITs is based on a preliminary allocation of the purchase price to real estate investments and Lease origination costs. The allocation is subject to change as additional information is obtained. An increase in the allocation to lease origination costs will result in an increase in amortization expense. The incremental amount of depreciation and amortization expense for the year ended December 31, 2002 amounts to $866,000. For each $5,000,000 increase in lease origination costs, the related pro forma amortization expense will increase by approximately 20% or $1,000,000.

- (e) Expenses of the Mergers are estimated at $900,000 and are reflected as paid in the year ended December 31, 2002 and are capitalized to real estate assets.
- (f) Management fees of $397,000 charged by FSP Corp. to the Target REITs have been eliminated from revenue and expenses.
- (g) Interest of $160,000 charged by FSP Corp. on loans to the four Target REITs syndicated in 2002 has been eliminated from revenue and expenses. See footnote (h) for additional interest expense incurred during syndications.
- (h) Income and expenses directly related to the syndication of the four Target REITs in 2002 have been eliminated in the pro forma Statement of Operations. A summary of these items is as follows:

Revenue directly related to the syndication of Target REITs in 2002 that is included in FSP Corp.'s financial statements as follows:

Transaction fees		$ 7,068,000
Syndication fees, gross	$ 9,169,000
Syndication fees, rebates	(1,634,000)	(7,535,000)
Total revenue adjustment		$ 14,603,000

The Target REITs have accounted for these fees in their financial statements as follows:

Interest expense		$ 6,572,000
Real estate acquisition costs		496,000
		$ 7,068,000
Gross syndication fees recorded as an offset to additional paid-in capital		$ 9,169,000

In connection with the syndication of the four Target REITs in 2002, FSP Corp. incurred direct expenses of $160,000 relating to interest expense that is eliminated in the pro forma Statement of Operations.

- (i) After a Sponsored REIT purchases a real estate asset but prior to the syndication of the Sponsored REIT, FSP Corp. consolidates the operations of the Sponsored REIT into FSP Corp.'s Statement of Operations as Sponsored REIT income and Sponsored REIT expenses. Subsequent to the syndication, the Sponsored REIT declares and pays a dividend to FSP Corp. This adjustment eliminates the duplicate earnings and expenses in 2002 attributable to FSP Corp. prior to the syndication of the four Sponsored REITs and offsets the dividends. A summary of the adjustment is shown below:

Sponsored REIT income	$	724,000
Sponsored REIT expenses		(453,000)

Dividends paid to FSP Corp.	$	271,000

- (j) Cumulative unbilled straight-line rents of the Target REITs in the amount of $3,199,000 would be eliminated at acquisition.
- (k) The cumulative deficit of the Target REITs in the amount of $24,590,000 would be eliminated at acquisition.
- (l) Four Target REITs were organized in 2002 and reflect less than twelve months of operations in the "Historical (Target REITs)" column. The following schedule reflects the unaudited revenues and expenses of the predecessor companies to these four Target REITs and are included in the "Adjustments" column in order to reflect twelve months of operations in the pro forma statements of operations. These schedules are also included under the caption "Statement of Predecessor's Operations" in the annual financial statements for each of those four Target REITs, which are located elsewhere in this Proxy Statement.

COMPARATIVE PER SHARE DATA

The following tables present on a per share basis:

(a) Basic and diluted net income (loss), book value, and dividends declared for FSP Corp. and each of the Target REITs on a historical basis.

(b) Consolidated pro forma basic and diluted net income (loss) per share, book value per share and dividends per share for FSP Corp. This shows the effect of the Mergers from the perspective of an owner of one share of FSP Common Stock.

(c) Equivalent pro forma basic and diluted net income per share, equivalent pro forma book value per share and equivalent pro forma dividends per share for each of the Target REITs. This shows the effect of the Mergers from the perspective of an owner of one share of stock of a Target REIT. The consolidated pro forma data are multiplied by the number of shares of FSP Common Stock issuable in exchange for each share of Target Stock, as shown on page [(v)] (the "Exchange Ratio").

The pro forma financial data and equivalent pro forma data are unaudited and are not necessarily indicative of the operating results that would have been achieved had the Mergers occurred as of the beginning of the period and should not be construed as representative of future operations.

FSP Corp. calculates historical book value per share by dividing shareholders' equity by the number of shares of common stock (or preferred stock, in the case of the Target REITs) outstanding at the end of each period.

FSP Corp. calculates consolidated pro forma net income per share data for FSP Corp. as if the merger occurred on January 1, 2002 and resulted in weighted average shares of 49,606,000 for the year ended December 31, 2002.

FSP Corp. calculates consolidated pro forma book value per share data for FSP Corp. as if the merger occurred on December 31, 2002 and resulted in an ending number of shares of 49,630,000.

FSP Corp. calculates consolidated pro forma per share by adding the total dividends declared by FSP Corp. ($30,527,000) plus dividends declared by the Target REITs ($25,736,000) and dividing this sum by 49,606,000 shares.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

FSP Corp. calculates equivalent pro forma net income per share for each Target REIT by multiplying the consolidated pro forma net income per share by the Exchange Ratio.

FSP Corp. calculates equivalent pro forma book value per share for each Target REIT by multiplying the consolidated pro forma book value per share by the Exchange Ratio.

FSP Corp. calculates equivalent pro forma dividends per share for each Target REIT by multiplying the consolidated pro forma dividends per share by the Exchange Ratio.

For the purposes of the consolidated pro forma net income per share and book value per share data, FSP Corp.'s historical financial data at and for the year ended December 31, 2002 have been consolidated with the Target REITs' financial data at and for the year ended December 31, 2002.

DESCRIPTION OF FSP CORP.

Business

History

FSP Corp. is a Maryland corporation that operates in a manner intended to qualify as a real estate investment trust for federal income tax purposes. FSP Corp. is self-managed. It is the successor to the FSP Partnership. The FSP Partnership was originally formed as a Massachusetts general partnership in January 1997 as the successor to a Massachusetts general partnership that was formed in 1981. On January 1, 2002, the Conversion became effective. Pursuant to the Conversion, the FSP Partnership ceased to exist, FSP Corp. succeeded to the business of the FSP Partnership and each unit of both general and limited partnership interests in the FSP Partnership was converted into one share of FSP Common Stock. As a result of the Conversion, FSP Corp. now holds, directly and indirectly, 100% of the interest in three former subsidiaries of the FSP Partnership: FSP Investments, FSP Property Management, and FSP Holdings.

Organization

FSP Investments acts as a real estate investment firm and broker/dealer with respect to (a) the organization of investment vehicles which are typically syndicated through private placements exempt from registration under the Securities Act, some of which were Sponsored Partnerships and some of which are Sponsored REITs, (b) the acquisition of real estate by the Sponsored Entities and (c) the sale of equity interests in the Sponsored Entities. FSP Investments derives revenue from commissions received in connection with the sale of equity interests in the Sponsored Entities. FSP Investments also derives revenue from fees paid by the Sponsored Entities for the services of FSP Investments in identifying, inspecting and negotiating to purchase real properties on behalf of the Sponsored Entities. FSP Investments is a registered broker/dealer with the Commission and is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. FSP Corp. has made an election to treat FSP Investments as a "taxable REIT subsidiary" for federal income tax purposes.

On April 1, 1997, FSP Holdings acquired the general partnership interest in four Sponsored Partnerships (the "Prior Entities"), each of which had been organized by the executive officers of the general partner of the FSP Partnership prior to the formation of the FSP Partnership while they were employed by another entity. Between June 1997 and June 2000, FSP Investments completed the offerings of limited partnership interests in 14 Sponsored Partnerships. The sole general partner of each of the Sponsored Partnerships is FSP Holdings. Between June 2000 and December 31, 2002, FSP Investments completed the offerings of preferred stock in 15 Sponsored REITs. Effective January 1, 2001, one of the original 14 Sponsored Partnerships converted from a Sponsored Partnership to a Sponsored REIT. This Sponsored REIT, along with 12 of the other 15 Sponsored REITs, comprise all of the Target REITs. Accordingly, as of December 31, 2002, FSP Corp. had sponsored 33 Sponsored Entities, of which 17 were Sponsored Partnerships and 16 were Sponsored REITs. FSP Corp. expects that future Sponsored Entities will be Sponsored REITs.

Each Sponsored Entity sold its equity interests only to "accredited investors" within the meaning of Regulation D under the Securities Act. The Sponsored Entities (other than a Prior Entity that conducted its offering pursuant to a registration statement on Form S-11) conducted their offerings pursuant to exemptions from registration under Section 4(2) of the Securities Act and Rule 506 of Regulation D promulgated thereunder. The Sponsored Entities issued equity interests for aggregate gross cash proceeds of $690,300,000. Each Sponsored Entity holds a single real property.

Pursuant to mergers effective January 1, 1999, January 1, 2000 and October 1, 2000, respectively, the FSP Partnership acquired all limited partners' interest in the 17 Sponsored Partnerships. In connection with these mergers, the FSP Partnership issued units of the FSP Partnership to the limited partners of the Sponsored Partnerships. The mergers that were effective January 1, 1999 were approved by a vote of limited partners of the FSP Partnership. Neither the FSP Partnership governing documents nor applicable state law required the approval of the limited partners of the FSP Partnership for the mergers that were effective January 1, 2000 and October 1, 2000. Each merger was approved by a vote of the limited partners of the applicable Sponsored Partnerships. Pursuant to the mergers, limited partners in the Sponsored Partnerships exchanged an interest in a finite-life entity for an interest in an infinite-life entity. As a result of the mergers, FSP Holdings is the sole general partner of each

Sponsored Partnership that was acquired and the FSP Partnership was the sole limited partner of each such Sponsored Partnership.

Prior to the Conversion, the FSP Partnership owned, directly or indirectly, 100% of the interest in the 17 Sponsored Partnerships, each of which owns or owned real property. As a result of the Conversion, FSP Corp. is now the sole limited partner of each such Sponsored Partnership and now owns, directly or indirectly, 100% of the interest in the 17 Sponsored Partnerships. Reference in this Proxy Statement to "FSP Corp.'s properties" means the real properties owned by these 17 Sponsored Partnerships. None of FSP Corp.'s properties has a net book value in excess of 10% of FSP Corp.'s total assets or had gross revenues for the most recent fiscal year that accounted for more than 10% of FSP Corp.'s gross revenues for such year. The FSP Board believes that each of FSP Corp.'s properties is adequately covered by insurance given the current conditions in the insurance markets. Terrorism insurance was excluded from FSP Corp.'s master policy as of April 2002. FSP Corp. obtained foreign terrorism insurance as of November 26, 2002, but has not yet obtained domestic terrorism insurance.

FSP Property Management asset manages each Sponsored Entity and provides property management services or property accounting services to eight Sponsored Entities. FSP Property Management receives fee income from those Sponsored Entities that have not been acquired by FSP Corp. FSP Property Management does not receive any rental income.

FSP Holdings acts as the sole general partner of each Sponsored Partnership.

Investment Objectives

FSP Corp. has two principal sources of revenue:

- o investment banking income consisting of brokerage commissions and other related fees paid to FSP Investments in connection with the organization and offering of Sponsored Entities and loan origination fees paid in connection with loans to Sponsored Entities.

- o rental income from the real properties it owns.

FSP Corp.'s investment objective is to increase the cash available for distribution to its stockholders by increasing its revenue from investment banking services and rental income. FSP Corp. expects that, through FSP Investments, it will continue to organize and cause the offering of Sponsored REITs in the future and that it will continue to derive investment banking income from such activities. FSP Corp. also expects that in the future it will acquire additional real properties. FSP Corp. may sell from time to time the real properties it owns as market conditions warrant and either distribute the proceeds to its stockholders or retain some or all of such proceeds for investment in real properties or other corporate activities. FSP Corp. may acquire real properties in any geographic area of the United States and of any property type. Of the 16 properties FSP Corp. owns, three are apartment complexes, 11 are office buildings and two are industrial; three of these properties are located in Texas, three properties are located in Massachusetts, three properties are located in northern California, two properties are located in Maryland, and one property is located in each of southern California, Louisiana, Michigan, North Carolina and South Carolina. FSP Corp. has no restrictions on the percentage of its assets that may be invested in any one real property. FSP Corp. acquires its properties primarily for their rental income and seeks to manage its properties with a goal of increasing their value.

FSP Corp. relies on the following principles in selecting real properties for acquisition by a Sponsored Entity or FSP Corp. and managing them after acquisition:

- o Buying investment properties at a price which produces value for investors and avoiding overpaying for real estate merely to outbid competitors.
- o Buying properties in excellent locations with substantial infrastructure in place around them and avoiding investing in locations where the construction of such infrastructure is speculative.
- o Buying properties that are well-constructed and designed to appeal to a broad base of users and avoiding properties where quality has been sacrificed to cost savings in construction or which appeal only to a narrow group of users.
- o Aggressively managing, maintaining and upgrading a property and refusing to neglect or undercapitalize management, maintenance and capital improvement programs.
- o Having the ability to hold properties through down cycles and avoiding over-leveraging properties and placing them at risk of foreclosure.

FSP Corp. has an unsecured revolving line of credit with Citizens Bank that provides for borrowings of up to $50,000,000. FSP Corp. has drawn on this line of credit, and intends to draw on this line of credit in the future, to obtain funds for the purpose of making interim mortgage loans to

Sponsored Entities. FSP Corp.'s policy is to cause these loans to be secured by a first mortgage of the real property (which may be of any type) owned by the Sponsored Entity. FSP Corp. makes these loans to enable a Sponsored Entity to acquire real property prior to the consummation of the offering of its equity interests, and the loan is repaid out of the offering proceeds. FSP Corp. has no restriction on the percentage of its assets that may be invested in any single mortgage.

Policies

FSP Corp.'s policy is not to invest in the securities of other common stock issuers except short-term investments in money market funds and similar securities and the holding of a nominal interest in Sponsored REITs for the purpose of facilitating the organization and operation of such Sponsored REITs. FSP Corp. does not expect to receive any material amounts of revenue or gain from its nominal interest in any Sponsored REITs.

FSP Corp.'s policy is not to issue senior securities, borrow money (except as described above), make loans to other persons (except as described above), invest in the securities of other issuers for the purpose of exercising control or underwrite the securities of other issuers (except that FSP Investments expects to continue to sell interests in Sponsored Entities on a best efforts basis in offerings exempt from registration under the Securities Act). FSP Corp.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

expects that it will engage in the purchase and sale of real estate investments as market conditions warrant. FSP Corp. may repurchase or otherwise reacquire its securities.

Any of FSP Corp.'s policies may be changed at any time by the FSP Board.

Competition

With respect to its investment banking and brokerage business, FSP Corp. faces competition for the investment dollars of potential purchasers of the Sponsored Entities from every other kind of investment, including stocks, bonds, mutual funds and other real-estate related investments, including other REITs. Some of FSP Corp.'s competitors have significantly more resources than FSP Corp. and are able to advertise their investment products. Because the offerings of the Sponsored Entities are made pursuant to an exemption from registration under the Securities Act, FSP Investments may not advertise the Sponsored Entities or otherwise engage in any general solicitation of investors to purchase interests in the Sponsored Entities.

With respect to its real estate investments, FSP Corp. faces competition in each of the markets where the properties are located. As of December 31, 2002, 12 of FSP Corp.'s 17 properties had a percentage of leased space in excess of 95% and four properties had percentages of leased space ranging from 63-94%. One property became vacant as of November 30, 2002, and was still unleased as of December 31, 2002.

Employees

Prior to the Conversion, the general partner of the FSP Partnership was FSP General Partner LLC, a Massachusetts limited liability company (the "FSP General Partner"). The members of the FSP General Partner and their respective ownership interests therein were George J. Carter (33.94%), R. Scott MacPhee (30.66%), Richard R. Norris (21.40%), William

76

W. Gribbell (11.36%), Barbara J. Corinha (1.60%), Melissa G. Mucciaccio (0.67%), Janet P. Notopoulos (0.26%) and Patricia A. McMullen (0.11%). The FSP General Partner had no other business other than acting as general partner of the FSP Partnership. Prior to the Conversion, the executive officers of the FSP General Partner devoted all of their business activities to the FSP Partnership and its subsidiaries. The former executive officers of the FSP General Partner are now the current executive officers of FSP Corp. and they devote all of their business activities to FSP Corp. and its subsidiaries.

FSP Corp. had 31 employees as of December 31, 2002.

Legal Proceedings

From time to time, FSP Corp. is subject to legal proceedings and claims that arise in the ordinary course of its business. Although occasional adverse decisions (or settlements) may occur, FSP Corp. believes that the final disposition of such matters will not have a material adverse effect on FSP Corp.'s financial position, cash flows or results of operations.

77

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with FSP Corp.'s financial statements and notes thereto appearing elsewhere in this Proxy Statement. Historical results and percentage relationships set forth in the consolidated financial statements contained in the financial statements, including trends which might appear, should not be taken as necessarily indicative of future operations.

Overview

FSP Corp. operates in two business segments: investment banking services and rental operations. The first of these segments involves the provision of real estate investment and broker/dealer services that include: (a) the organization of Sponsored REITs in 2002, 2001 and 2000 and Sponsored Partnerships in 2000 and prior years, which were syndicated through private placements; (b) the acquisition of real estate on behalf of the Sponsored Entities; and (c) the sale of preferred stock in Sponsored REITs or limited partnership interests in the Sponsored Partnerships. The second segment involves the ownership of real property. The following table summarizes property owned by FSP Corp. at the three years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000.

	December 31,
	----- 2002	2001	2000 -----
Residential
Number of Properties.....	4	4	4
Number of Apartment Units.....	642	642	642
Commercial
Number of Properties.....	13	13	13
Square Footage.....	1,433,300	1,433,300	1,433,300

As described in Note 4 to FSP Corp.'s financial statements, FSP Corp.'s predecessor-in-interest, the FSP Partnership, consummated three series of mergers. Prior to the consummation of the first series of mergers, the FSP Partnership operated in the segment of broker/dealer and real estate investment services. The first series of mergers added the real estate operations of certain Sponsored Partnerships to the FSP Partnership business. The nature of the FSP Partnership business was not changed by the second and third series of mergers.

The mergers were accounted for as a purchase, whereby the assets and liabilities of the Sponsored Partnerships were recorded at their fair values and transaction costs were capitalized. In each merger the FSP Partnership acquired the minority interests in the Sponsored Partnerships. None of the merged Sponsored Partnerships was subject to debt financing and no debt was assumed or created at the time of the merger. The investors of the merged entities exchanged their interests for an interest in the FSP Partnership. There were no cash payments and no contingent payments.

The acquisitions have affected FSP Corp. in that the real estate portfolio is more diverse, both geographically and with respect to property type and by tenant business, investment banking services account for a smaller percentage of FSP Corp.'s revenues, and FSP Corp. has a larger borrowing capacity.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

The following table sets forth the identity of each merged Sponsored Partnership, the date of its merger and the estimated value ascribed to that partnership without giving effect to the merger.

- (1) The sale of this Sponsored Partnership was consummated on February 7, 2003.

During 2002, 2001 and 2000, FSP Corp. retained ownership interests in 17, ten and three Sponsored REITs, respectively, for nominal consideration in connection with the organization and syndication of such Sponsored REITs. However, FSP Corp. had completed the syndication of only 16 of the Sponsored REITs of which it retained ownership interests as of December 31, 2002. Additionally, as discussed above, the FSP Partnership's general partner interest in one Sponsored Partnership was exchanged for the common stock in a newly formed Sponsored REIT, in connection with this Sponsored Partnership's reorganization from a limited partnership to a REIT on January 1, 2001. FSP Corp.'s cost of its investment in the Sponsored REITs approximates its share of the underlying equity in the net assets of the REITs. Prior to the completion of the offering of the preferred shares of the Sponsored REITs, FSP Corp.'s share of net income in the Sponsored REITs was $519,000, $255,000, and $0, for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively. Subsequent to the completion of the offering of the preferred shares, FSP Corp. did not share in any of the Sponsored REITs' earnings for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000.

Each Sponsored REIT was organized to acquire real estate property using the proceeds raised through a private offering of its preferred stock. The Sponsored REITs have not obtained and do not contemplate obtaining any long-term financing. The Sponsored REITs issued both common stock and preferred stock. The common stock is ultimately owned solely by FSP Corp. and, except for two non-management directors of FSP Corp., the preferred stock is owned by unaffiliated investors. Following consummation of the offerings, the preferred shareholders in each of the Sponsored REITs are entitled to 100% of the

Sponsored REIT's cash distributions. As a common shareholder, FSP Corp. has no rights to the Sponsored REIT's cash distributions subsequent to the completion of the offering of the preferred shares. However, upon liquidation of a Sponsored REIT, FSP Corp. will be entitled to its percentage interest in any proceeds remaining after the preferred stockholders have recovered their investment. FSP Corp.'s percentage interest in each Sponsored REIT is less than 0.1%. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the Sponsored REIT's preferred stockholders is required for any actions involving merger, sale of property, amendment to charter or issuance of additional capital stock, including the Mergers as contemplated by the Merger Agreement. In addition, all of the Sponsored REITs allow the holders of more than 50% of the outstanding preferred shares to remove, without cause, and replace one or more members of that Sponsored REIT's board of directors.

Critical Accounting Policies

FSP Corp. has certain critical accounting policies that are subject to judgments and estimates by FSP Corp. and uncertainties of outcome that affect the application of these policies. FSP Corp. bases its estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions FSP Corp. believes to be reasonable under the circumstances. On an on-going basis, FSP Corp. evaluates its estimates. In the event estimates or assumptions prove to be different from actual results, adjustments are made in subsequent periods to reflect more current information. The material accounting policies that FSP Corp. believes are most critical to the understanding of its financial position and results of operations that require significant management estimates and judgments are discussed below.

Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements of FSP Corp. include the accounts of the FSP Partnership (as predecessor-in-interest to FSP Corp.), 17 Sponsored Partnerships and wholly and majority-owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. Prior to the mergers, the accounts of the Sponsored Partnerships have been consolidated into the FSP Partnership's financial statements under the principles of accounting applicable to investments in subsidiaries in accordance with SOP 78-9.

Real Estate Assets

Real estate assets are stated at the lower of depreciated cost or fair value. The cost of buildings and improvements include the purchase price of property, legal fees and other acquisition costs. Typical capital improvements include new roofs, site improvements, various exterior building improvements and major renovations. Funding for capital improvements typically is provided by cash reserves.

FSP Corp. periodically reviews its properties to determine if its carrying amounts will be recovered from future operating cash flows. The evaluation of anticipated cash flows is highly subjective and is based in part on assumptions regarding future occupancy, rental rates and capital requirements that could differ materially from actual results in future periods. Since cash flows on properties considered to be "long-lived assets to be held and used" as defined by FAS 144 are considered on an undiscounted basis to determine whether an asset has been impaired, FSP Corp.'s established strategy of holding properties over the long term directly decreases the likelihood of recording an impairment loss. If FSP Corp.'s strategy changes or market conditions otherwise dictate an earlier sale or disposal date, an impairment loss may be recognized. If FSP Corp. determines that impairment has occurred, the affected assets must be reduced to their fair value. No such impairment losses have been recognized to date.

FSP Corp. classifies a property as "held for sale" upon the execution of a purchase and sale agreement provided that there are no significant contingencies to the sale and management believes that the sale or disposition is probable within one year. FSP Corp. reports the results of operations of its properties classified as discontinued operations in its statements of income if no significant continuing involvement exists after the sale or disposition.

FSP Corp. typically retains a common stock ownership in a Sponsored REIT following a syndication, and earns an ongoing asset and/or property management fee; accordingly, transaction fee revenue and the results of operations are not classified as discontinued operations due to its continuing involvement.

Revenue Recognition

Rental revenue is reported on a straight-line basis over the terms of the respective leases. Straight-line rent represents rental income earned in excess of rent payments received pursuant to the terms of the individual lease agreements.

FSP Corp. maintains an allowance against straight-line rent for future potential tenant credit losses. The credit assessment is based on the estimated straight-line rental income that is recoverable over the term of the lease. The computation of this allowance is based on the tenants' payment history and current credit status. If FSP Corp.'s estimates of collectibility differ from the cash received, the timing and amount of its reported revenue would likely be impacted.

Investment banking services revenue (Syndication and Transaction fees) from the syndication of Sponsored REITs is recognized pursuant to the provisions of Statement of Financial Standards No. 66 "Accounting for Sales of Real Estate", and Statement of Position 92-1

"Accounting for Real Estate Syndication Income". Revenue is recognized provided the criteria for sale accounting in SFAS 66 are met.

Depreciation expense

FSP Corp. computes depreciation on its properties using the straight-line method based on an estimated useful life of 27.5 years for residential property and 39 years for non-residential property. The portion of the acquisition cost allocated between land and building for each property may vary based on estimated land value and other factors. FSP Corp. computes depreciation on building improvements on an estimated useful life of 15 to 39 years, and on furniture and fixtures on an estimated useful life of 5-7 years. The allocation of a property's acquisition costs to buildings and the determination of the asset's useful life are based on management's estimates.

Repairs and maintenance expenses

Routine replacements and ordinary maintenance and repairs are expensed as incurred. Typical expense items include residential interior painting, landscaping, minor carpet replacements and residential appliances. The determination to expense an item rather than to capitalize and subsequently depreciate the item is based upon management's judgment of whether the repair extends the useful life of the asset. Funding for routine replacements, repairs and maintenance items are typically provided by cash flows from operating activities.

Recent Accounting Standards

In August 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 143, "Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations," which addresses financial accounting and reporting for obligations associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets and the associated asset retirement costs. This Statement requires that the fair value of a liability for an asset retirement obligation be recognized in the period in which it is incurred if a reasonable estimate of the fair value can be made. The associated asset retirement costs are capitalized as part of the carrying amount of the long-lived asset. This Statement will be effective at the beginning of 2003. FSP Corp. has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 143 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

In October 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 144 "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets". This Statement supersedes SFAS No. 121 and requires that long-lived assets that are to be disposed of by sale be measured at the lower of book value or fair value less costs to sell. SFAS No. 144 retains the fundamental provisions of SFAS 121 for (a) recognition and measurement of the impairment of long-lived assets to be held and used, and (b) measurement of long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale, but broadens the definition of what constitutes a discontinued operation and how the results of a discontinued operation are to be measured and presented. This Statement was effective at the beginning of 2002. The impact of adoption did not have a material impact on FSP Corp.'s financial position, results of operations and cash flows. FSP Corp. does not have any real estate assets that it considers "held for sale" at December 31, 2002.

In April 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 145 "Rescission of FAS Nos. 4, 44, and 64, Amendment of FAS 13, and Technical Corrections". This Statement rescinds FASB No. 4, "Reporting Gains and Losses from Extinguishment of Debt", and an amendment of that Statement, FASB No. 64, "Extinguishments of Debt Made to Satisfy Sinking-Fund Requirements". This Statement amends FASB No. 13, "Accounting for Leases". This Statement also amends other existing authoritative pronouncements to make various technical corrections, clarify meanings or describe their applicability under changed conditions. This statement will be effective for FSP Corp.'s fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. FSP Corp. has reviewed the provisions of FASB 145 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flow.

In July 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146 "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities". This statement will be effective January 1, 2003. SFAS No. 146 replaces current accounting literature and requires the recognition of costs associated with exit or disposal activities when they are incurred rather than at the date of a commitment to an exit or disposal plan. FAS No. 146 supersedes Emerging Issues Task Force Issue No. 94-3, "Liability Recognition for Certain Employee Termination Benefits and Other Costs to Exit an Activity," which in some cases required certain costs to be recognized before a liability was actually incurred. The adoption of this standard is not expected to have a material impact on FSP Corp.'s results of financial position, results of operations or cash flow.

On November 25, 2002, the FASB issued FASB Interpretation No. 45 ("FIN 45") "Guarantors Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others, an Interpretation of FASB Statements No. 5, 57 and 107 and Rescission of FASB Interpretation No. 34". FIN 45 clarifies the requirements of SFAS No. 5 "Accounting for Contingencies", relating to a guarantors accounting for, and disclosure of, the issuance of certain types of guarantees. The disclosure requirements of FIN 45 are effective for the Corporation as of December 31, 2002, and require disclosure of the nature of the guarantee, the maximum potential amount of future payments that the guarantor could be required to make under the guarantee, and the current amount of the liability, if any, for the guarantor's obligations under the guarantee. The recognition requirements of FIN 45 are to be applied prospectively to guarantees issued or modified after December 31, 2002. FSP Corp. has reviewed the provisions of FIN 45 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flow.

In January 2003, the FASB issued FASB Interpretation No. 46 ("FIN 46"), Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities. The objective of this interpretation is to provide guidance on how to identify a variable interest entity ("VIE") and determine when the assets, liabilities, noncontrolling interests, and results of operations of a VIE need to be included in a company's consolidated financial statements. A company that holds variable interests in an entity will need to consolidate the entity if the company's interest in the VIE is such that the company will absorb a majority of the VIE's expected losses and/or receive a majority of the entity's expected residual returns, if they occur. FIN 46 also requires additional disclosures by primary beneficiaries and other significant variable interest holders. The provisions of this interpretation became effective upon issuance. The adoption of this standard is not expected to have a material impact on FSP Corp.'s results of financial position, results of operations or cash flow.

Financing and Other Commitments

FSP Corp. has a revolving line of credit agreement with Citizens Bank providing for borrowings at FSP Corp.'s election up to $50.0 million. Borrowings under the line of credit bear interest at either the bank's base rate or a variable LIBOR rate, as defined. There were no borrowings by FSP Corp. outstanding under the line of credit at December 31, 2002. FSP Corp. is in compliance with all bank covenants required by this line of credit. The maturity date of the line of credit is June 23, 2003. It is FSP Corp.'s intention to seek to renew the line of credit when it matures.

FSP Corp.'s commercial rental operations include the leasing of office buildings and industrial properties subject to leases with terms greater than one year. The leases thereon expire at various dates through 2012. Approximate future minimum rental income on non-cancelable operating leases as of December 31, 2002 are (in thousands): 2003 - $15,189; 2004 - $12,513; 2005 - $8,875; 2006 - $5,715; 2007 - $3,992 and $7,936 thereafter.

FSP Corp. leases its corporate office space under a six-year operating lease that commenced in June 1999. The lease includes a base annual rent and additional rent for FSP Corp.'s share of taxes and operating costs. Approximate future minimum lease payments at December 31, 2002 are (in thousands): 2003 -

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

$203; 2004 - $209; and 2005 - $97.

Investments in Non-consolidated Entities

FSP Corp. typically retains a minimal common stock ownership interest in Sponsored REITs that it has organized. Subsequent to the completion of the offering of preferred shares of such Sponsored REITs, these ownership interests have virtually no economic benefit or risk. At December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, FSP Corp. had ownership interests in 17, ten and three Sponsored REITs, respectively. However, FSP Corp. sponsored only 16 of the Sponsored REITs for which it retained ownership interests as of December 31, 2002. The Sponsored REITs include the 13 Target REITs. During 1999 and 2000, FSP Corp. acquired 100% of the non-owned interests of the Sponsored Partnerships (through a series of mergers) that it had previously organized.

Comparison of the year ended December 31, 2002 to the year ended December 31, 2001

FSP Corp. syndicated six Sponsored REITs with total gross proceeds of $210.1 million in 2002; an increase of $7.0 million compared to six Sponsored REITs syndicated in 2001 with total gross proceeds of $203.1 million. FSP Corp. owned seventeen properties in both years.

Revenue

Total revenues increased $1.8 million, or 3.2%, to $56.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2002, as compared to $55.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2001.

Income from rental operations was $29.9 million for the year ended December 31, 2002, an increase of $0.7 million, or 2.4%, compared to the year ended December 31, 2001. The increase is attributable to:

- o An increase in straight-line rent revenue of $0.9 million, relating to new or renewed leases during the year;
- o An increase in reimbursable expenses of $0.5 million; and
- o An increase of $0.5 million in Sponsored REIT income relating to the revenues of the Sponsored REITs prior to syndication.

The increase was offset by:

- o A decrease in income from leases of $0.7 million as a result of a rental allowance of $0.9 million given to a tenant as part of lease extension, partially offset by a net increase of $0.2 million in rents (less vacancies) in the remaining properties;
- o A decrease in other lease income of $0.1 million; and

- o A decrease of $0.5 million in interest and other income primarily due to lower interest rates in 2002.

Investment banking services revenue (Syndication and Transaction fees) was $26.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2002; an increase of $1.1 million, or 4.1%, compared to the year ended December 31, 2001. This increase is attributable to:

- o An increase in Syndication and Transaction fees of $1.1 million as a result of an increase of $7 million of gross proceeds from offerings of the Sponsored REITs; and
- o No significant change in interest and other income.

Expenses

Total expenses were $28.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2002, a decrease of $0.8 million, or 2.8%, compared to the year ended December 31, 2001.

Expenses for rental operations were $17.2 million for the year ended December 31, 2002, a net decrease of $0.2 million, or 0.9%, compared to the year ended December 31, 2001. The decrease is attributable to:

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

- o A decrease in rental operating expenses of $0.6 million primarily attributable to costs associated with leasing activity in 2001 that did not repeat in 2002; and
- o A decrease in general and administrative expenses of $0.2 million, primarily attributable to reduced professional fees allocated to rental operations.

The decrease was offset by:

- o An increase in real estate taxes and insurance of $0.2 million, as a result of tax rate increases on the existing properties and increases in the price and difficulty of obtaining insurance; and
- o An increase in Sponsored REIT expenses of $0.3 million primarily as a result of increased syndications in 2002 compared with 2001.

There were no significant changes to depreciation and amortization expense or interest expense related to rental operations.

Expenses for Investment banking services were $11.6 million for the year ended December 31, 2002, a net decrease of $0.6 million, or 5.3%, compared to the year ended December 31, 2001. The decrease is attributable to a decrease in expenses relating to shares/units issued as compensation of $1.1 million.

The decrease was offset by:

- o An increase in selling and administrative expenses of $0.1 million, primarily attributable to the increase in syndication proceeds in 2002;
- o An increase in commission expense $0.3 million, attributable to the increase in syndication proceeds in 2002; and
- o An increase in depreciation and amortization expense of $0.1 million.

There was no income applicable to minority interests in 2002.

There was no tax on income in 2001. The tax rate for 2002 on the taxable REIT subsidiary was approximately 22%. This rate included certain benefits that will not occur in the future. FSP Corp. expects a tax rate of approximately 41% for the taxable REIT subsidiary in the future.

Comparison of the year ended December 31, 2001 to the year ended December 31, 2000

FSP Corp. syndicated six Sponsored REITs with total gross proceeds of $203.1 million in 2001, an increase of $95.5 million compared to the syndication in 2000 of three Sponsored REITs with total gross proceeds of $60.2 million and three Sponsored Partnerships with total gross proceeds of $47.1 million. The revenue associated with the syndication of the three Sponsored Partnerships in 2000 with total gross proceeds of $47.4 million has been eliminated in the consolidated statements of income. FSP Corp. owned seventeen properties in 2001 and sixteen properties for all of 2000 and one property for part of 2000.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Revenue

Total revenues increased $20.3 million, or 58%, to $55.1 million for the year ended December 31, 2001, as compared to $34.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2000. Income from rental operations was $29.2 million for the year ended December 31, 2001.

The increase in rental income of $2.1 million, or 7.8%, compared to the year ended December 31, 2000, is attributable to:

- o The acquisition of one commercial property in 2000, which contributed revenue for a full year in 2001, as compared with a partial year in 2000, resulting in $0.5 million in incremental revenues;
- o An increase in revenues of approximately $0.8 million as a result of rent increases on existing properties; and
- o An increase in revenues from the Sponsored REITs of $0.9 million resulting from the fact that there was no rental revenue from Sponsored REITs in 2000.

The increase was offset by a decrease in interest income of less than $0.1 million.

The increase in Investment banking services income (Syndication and Transaction fees) of $18.1 million, or 239%, compared to the year ended December 31, 2000, is attributable to the syndication of six Sponsored REITs (with aggregate gross proceeds of $203.1 million) in 2001 compared to the syndication of three Sponsored REITs (with aggregate gross proceeds of $60.2 million) in 2000.

Interest and other income of $0.1 million was consistent with the previous year.

Expenses

Total expenses increased $5.8 million, or 25%, to $29.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2001, as compared to $23.2 million for the year ended December 31, 2000.

The increase in selling, general and administrative expenses of $2.2 million, or 70%, compared to the year ended December 31, 2000, is attributable to the extra costs associated with the syndication of six Sponsored REITs in 2001 (with aggregate gross proceeds of $203.1 million) compared to the syndication of six Sponsored Entities in 2000 (with aggregate gross proceeds of $107.6 million) including:

- o An increase in payroll and related expenses of $1.5 million;
- o An increase in consulting and professional fees of approximately $0.6 million; and
- o An increase in other costs of approximately $0.1 million.

The increase in commission expense of $3.1 million, or 91%, compared to the year ended December 31, 2000 is attributable to the increase of syndication proceeds of approximately $95 million in 2001 as described above.

The increase in rental expenses of $0.5 million, or 8.3%, compared to the year ended December 31, 2000, is primarily attributable to the acquisition of one commercial property in 2000, which incurred costs for a full year in 2001, as compared with a partial year in 2000.

The increase in depreciation and amortization expenses of $0.2 million, or 4%, compared to the year ended December 31, 2000, is primarily attributable to the acquisition of one commercial property in 2000, which incurred a full year of depreciation and amortization expense in 2001, as compared with a partial year in 2000.

The increase in real estate taxes and insurance expenses of $0.4 million, or 17%, compared to the year ended December 31, 2000, is primarily attributable to:

- o The acquisition of one commercial property in 2000, which incurred costs for a full year in 2001, as compared with a partial year in 2000, resulting in approximately $0.1 million in incremental expenses; and

- o Tax rate increases on FSP Corp.'s existing properties of approximately $0.3 million.

There were no Sponsored REIT expenses in 2000.

Interest expense of $0.8 million was consistent with the prior year.

The decrease in minority interest expense of $2.6 million for the year ended December 31, 2001 compared to the minority interest for the year ended December 31, 2000 is a result of the mergers completed during the year ended December 31, 2000, as described in Note 4 to the financial statements.

Comparison of the year ended December 31, 2000 to the year ended December 31, 1999

FSP Corp. syndicated three Sponsored REITs in 2000 with total gross proceeds of $60.2 million, an increase of $52.4 million compared to the syndication of one unconsolidated partnership in 1999 with total gross proceeds of $7.8 million. The revenue associated with the syndication of three Sponsored Partnerships in 2000 with total gross proceeds of $47.4 million has been eliminated in the consolidated statements of income. The revenue associated with the syndication of five Sponsored Partnerships in 1999 with total gross proceeds of $57.1 million has been eliminated in the consolidated statements of income. FSP Corp. owned sixteen properties for a full year and one property for part of the year in 2000. FSP Corp. owned nine properties for a full year and seven properties for part of the year in 1999.

Revenue

Total revenues increased $16.8 million, or 92.8%, to $34.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2000, as compared to $18.0 million for the year ended December 31, 1999. Income from rental operations was $25.4 million for the year ended December 31, 2000.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

The increase in rental income of $9.1 million, or 55.9%, compared to the year ended December 31, 1999, is attributable to:

- o The acquisition of seven commercial properties in 1999, which contributed revenue for a full year in 2000, as compared with a partial year in 1999, resulting in $8.0 million in incremental revenues;
- o The acquisition of one commercial property in 2000, which contributed revenue for a partial year in 2000, as compared with no revenue in 1999, resulting in approximately $0.6 million in incremental revenues; and
- o An increase in revenue of approximately $0.5 million as a result of rent increases and other miscellaneous fees on existing properties.

The increase in Investment banking services income (Syndication and Transaction fees) of $6.8 million, or 859%, compared to the year ended December 31, 1999, is attributable to the syndication of three Sponsored REITs in 2000 (with aggregate gross proceeds of $60.2 million) compared to the syndication of one Sponsored Partnership in 1999 (with aggregate gross proceeds of $7.8 million).

The increase in interest and other income of $0.8 million, or 89.1%, compared to the year ended December 31, 1999 is attributable to interest earned on higher cash balances, cash equivalents and marketable securities and higher average yields in 2000 compared to 1999.

Expenses

Total expenses increased $8.6 million, or 53.0%, to $23.2 million for the year ended December 31, 2000, as compared to $14.6 million for the year ended December 31, 1999.

The increase in selling, general and administrative expenses of $0.5 million, or 24%, compared to the year ended December 31, 1999, is attributable to the extra costs associated with the syndication of six Sponsored Entities (with aggregate gross proceeds of $107.6 million) in 2000 compared with the syndication of six Sponsored Entities (with aggregate gross proceeds of $64.9 million) in 1999 resulting from an increase in payroll and related expenses of $0.7 million, offset by decreases in other costs of approximately $0.2 million.

The increase in other real estate operating expenses of $2.1 million, or 46.5%, compared to the year ended December 31, 1999, is primarily attributable to the acquisition of seven commercial properties in 1999, which incurred costs for a full year in 2000, as compared with a partial year in 1999.

The increase in commission expense of $0.8 million, or 19%, compared to the year ended December 31, 1999 is attributable to the syndication of six Sponsored Entities (with aggregate gross proceeds of $107.6 million) in 2000 compared with the syndication of six Sponsored Entities (with aggregate gross proceeds of $64.9 million) in 1999 as follows:

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

The increase in depreciation and amortization expenses of $1.3 million or 44.8%, compared to the year ended December 31, 1999, is primarily attributable to:

- o The acquisition of seven commercial properties in 1999, which incurred depreciation and amortization expenses for a full year in 2000, as compared with a partial year in 1999, resulting in $1.2 million in incremental expenses; and
- o The acquisition of one commercial property in 2000, which incurred depreciation and amortization expenses for a partial year in 2000, as compared with no costs in 1999, resulting in approximately $0.1 million in incremental costs;

The increase in real estate taxes and insurance expenses of $1.0 million or 70.8%, compared to the year ended December 31, 1999, is primarily attributable to:

- o The acquisition of seven commercial properties in 1999, which incurred costs for a full year in 2000, as compared with a partial year in 1999, resulting in approximately $0.8 million in incremental expenses; and
- o Tax rate increases on the existing properties of approximately $0.2 million.

The increase in interest expense of $0.6 million, or 187.6%, compared to the year ended December 31, 1999, is primarily attributable to the syndication of three REITs in 2000 compared to the syndication of one unconsolidated Sponsored Partnership in 1999.

The increase in minority interest expense of $0.4 million for the year ended December 31, 2000 compared to the minority interest for the year ended December 31, 1999 is a result of the mergers completed during the year ended December 31, 2000.

Trends and Uncertainties

Rental Operations

During the first six months of 2002, the apartment properties in Houston and Baton Rouge had to struggle to maintain occupancy and to raise rents in the face of the Enron and Andersen layoffs, but there was no material decrease in occupancy, and rents increased slightly. However, during the third and fourth quarters of the year, the occupancy and rents began to decline, in part due to seasonal variations and in part due to overall market conditions. In addition to the decline in overall market conditions, individual properties may suffer in the coming quarters as newly constructed competition in the neighborhood start to lease new units.

During 2002, office vacancy rates in all of FSP Corp.'s major markets continued to increase, making it harder to increase rents or lease vacancies as they occurred. Unless there is a turnaround in the general economy in early 2003, these conditions are likely to remain, and vacancies may increase along with increased costs to lease the vacant space, including in the form of concessions, free rent, and other incentives. When the economy does recover, it is likely to recover unevenly with certain industry segments and geographic areas improving before others. Because of the diversity of FSP Corp.'s portfolio and the long-term nature of its office leases, the financial impact of any recovery or further deterioration may be slow to materialize and is difficult to predict.

During 2002, FSP Corp. had mixed success in leasing vacancies that occurred due to normal lease expirations and as a result of unexpected vacancies that arose because of tenant bankruptcies. In some markets, such as Greenville, South Carolina and Charlotte, North Carolina, space that became vacant in 2001 is still partially vacant, and while new leases have been signed, other tenants continue to reduce their space needs or leave as their leases expire. In contrast, an early lease renewal was negotiated with the major tenant at the Southfield, Michigan property, and a new tenant leased most of a floor in the same building, even though market conditions in the area are softer than in previous years.

There were no material lease expirations in 2002 except for a lease for 99,000 square feet, which expired on November 30, 2002, and was not renewed. FSP Corp. is actively marketing the space to potential users but has not leased the space and cannot predict when a tenant for the space will be found. The only year in which more than 10% of FSP Corp.'s square footage has leases expiring is 2004, during which leases with respect to more than 20% of FSP Corp.'s office square footage will expire. However, tenants whose leases are not scheduled to expire in the near future may go bankrupt, as they did in 2001 and 2002, and add to the vacancies, or leases scheduled to expire in 2004 may be renegotiated earlier.

Real estate taxes are expected to increase in 2003 as municipalities try to compensate for lost revenue by raising tax rates or by taxing commercial property more heavily. Where possible, FSP Corp. intends to protest and file for tax abatements. However, it is not certain that those efforts will be successful.

Insurance costs and deductibles have increased, and coverages have been eliminated across the real estate industry. When FSP Corp.'s policy was renewed in April 2002, its rates increased and coverage for terrorism was excluded from its master policy. FSP Corp. explored obtaining terrorism insurance for all of its properties before the new terrorism insurance bill was signed, but did not find it to be economically reasonable to do so, given that the portfolio does not contain high profile buildings or buildings in central business districts. As a result of the new terrorism bill, as of November 26, 2002, FSP Corp. obtained foreign terrorism coverage at a nominal cost. FSP Corp. is investigating the financial feasibility of obtaining domestic terrorism insurance in 2003. FSP Corp. intends to continue to investigate ways to keep the properties adequately insured at economically reasonable rates until the insurance markets return to a more normal state.

In the course of owning and operating real estate, the potential exists for FSP Corp. to dispose of one or more properties in its portfolio. Market conditions in specific geographic locations could present FSP Corp. with the opportunity to realize significant capital appreciation in an asset's value. FSP Corp. maintains close attention to market conditions in all geographic locations where its properties are located.

Sale of Wesleyan Oaks

In February 2003, FSP Corp. completed the sale of its Wesleyan Oaks

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

apartment complex in Houston, Texas. The net selling price was approximately $6.2 million and FSP Corp. realized a gain of approximately $1.2 million on the sale.

Proposed Sale of Vacant Land in Southfield, Michigan

An offer to sell a parcel of vacant land in Southfield, Michigan was accepted in December, but a purchase and sale agreement is still being negotiated and has not been signed.

Investment Services

Unlike FSP Corp.'s real estate business, which provides a rental revenue stream which is ongoing and recurring in nature, FSP Corp.'s investment banking business is transactional in nature. Trends in 2002 were below expectations in terms of both the number of Sponsored REIT syndications completed and the amount of equity raised. Future business in this area is unpredictable.

FSP Corp.'s acquisition executives are reporting some of the largest spreads between bid and ask prices for properties that they have seen in FSP Corp.'s history. The larger-than-normal spreads may be caused by differing views of the strength and timing of a national economic recovery as well as low interest rate carrying costs on debt-financed properties. Without the ability to acquire properties at attractive prices on behalf of Syndicated REITs, FSP Corp.'s investment banking activities may suffer.

Further, FSP Corp. continues to rely solely on its in-house investment executives to access interested investors who have capital they can afford to place in an illiquid position for an indefinite period of time (i.e., investment in Sponsored REITs). While FSP Corp. continues to expand its in-house sales force, uncertainties always exist as to whether it is capable, either through FSP Corp.'s existing client base or through new clients, of raising the amount of capital invested in Sponsored REITs to achieve future performance objectives. Further setbacks in the stock market or the general economy could have negative effects, and while the tragic events of September 11, 2001 did not disrupt FSP Corp.'s transactional business unit significantly, further terrorist attacks, if they occur, may have a chilling effect on the willingness of investors to purchase interests in future Sponsored REITs.

Liquidity and Capital Resources as of December 31, 2002

Cash and cash equivalents were $22.3 million and $24.3 million at December 31, 2002 and December 31, 2001, respectively. This decrease of $2.0 million is attributable to $30.5 million used for financing activities plus $2.6 million used for investing activities offset by $31.1 million provided by operating activities.

Operating Activities

The cash provided by FSP Corp.'s operating activities of $30.5 million is primarily attributable to net income of $27.3 million plus the add-back of $5.5 million from non-cash activity less a $2.4 million net change in operating assets and liabilities.

Investing Activities

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

FSP Corp.'s cash used for investing activities of $2.0 million is attributable to $1.2 million for the purchase of real estate assets, office computers and furniture and $0.8 million for a deposit on real estate investments.

Financing Activities

FSP Corp.'s cash used by financing activities of $30.5 million is all attributable to distributions to shareholders.

Liquidity and Capital Resources as of December 31, 2001

Cash and cash equivalents were $24.4 million and $13.7 million at December 31, 2001 and December 31, 2000, respectively. This 78% increase of $10.6 million is attributable to $33.4 million generated by operating activities and $21.8 million generated by investing activities, partially offset by $44.5 million used by financing activities.

Operating Activities

FSP Corp.'s cash provided by operating activities of $33.4 million is primarily attributable to $32.0 million from operations, after addback of $6.6 million from non-cash expenses of which $4.8 million relates to depreciation and amortization and $1.7 million relates to equity based compensation, and to $1.5 million from the increase in accounts payable and accrued expenses, partially offset by a net change in other operating assets and liabilities of $0.1 million.

Investing Activities

FSP Corp.'s cash provided by investing activities of $21.8 million is attributable to the decrease in investment of $16.7 million as a result of repayment of a mortgage loan by a Sponsored REIT and $5.3 million as a result of the redemption of marketable securities plus proceeds of $0.4 million received on the sale of land, offset by the purchase of $0.7 million of property and equipment.

Financing Activities

FSP Corp.'s cash used by financing activities of $44.5 million is attributable to repayments of the line of credit of $16.5 million and cash distributions to partners of $27.9 million.

Liquidity and Capital Resources as of December 31, 2000

Cash and cash equivalents were $13.7 million and $18.5 million at December 31, 2000 and 1999, respectively. This 25.9% decrease of $4.8 million is attributable to $31.1 million used in investing activities partially offset by $14.5 million provided by operating activities and $11.7 million provided by financing activities.

Investing Activities

FSP Corp.'s cash used in investing activities of $31.1 million is primarily attributable to $16.7 million relating to advances to a Sponsored REIT which were subsequently repaid in February 2001; $9.9 million for the purchase of property and equipment, partially offset by proceeds of $0.9 million from the sale of land; and $5.3 million for the purchase of marketable securities.

Operating Activities

FSP Corp.'s cash provided by operating activities of $14.5 million is primarily attributable to $18.5 million from operations, after addback of $9.5 million from non-cash expenses of which $4.6 million relates to depreciation and amortization, $2.3 million relates to equity based compensation, and $2.5 million relates to minority interests.

The cash provided by operating activities is partially offset by $2.5 million from the decrease in accounts payable and accrued expenses and by $1.5 million from an aggregate net decrease in other operating assets and liabilities.

Financing Activities

FSP Corp.'s cash provided by financing activities of $11.7 million is attributable to capital contributions of $39.8 million from the issuance of partnership units in connection with the acquisition by merger of three of the merged entities and borrowings under the line of credit of $16.5 million.

The cash provided by financing activities is partially offset by repayments of the line of credit of $23.5 million and cash distributions to partners of $21.0 million.

Sources and Uses of Funds

FSP Corp.'s principal demands for liquidity are cash for operations, dividends to equity holders, debt repayments and expenses associated with indebtedness. As of December 31, 2002 FSP Corp. had approximately $4.8 million in liabilities. FSP Corp. has no permanent, long-term debt. In the near term, liquidity is generated from funds from ongoing real estate operations and transaction fees and commissions received in connection with the sale of shares in Sponsored REITs.

FSP Corp. maintains an unsecured line of credit through Citizens Bank. FSP Corp. has entered into a Master Promissory Note and Loan Agreement which provides for a revolving line of credit of up to $50 million. Borrowings under the loan bear interest at either the bank's base rate or a variable LIBOR rate. FSP Corp. typically uses the unsecured line of credit to provide each newly-formed Sponsored REIT with the funds to purchase a property. FSP Corp.'s loan agreement with the bank includes customary restrictions on property liens and requires compliance with various financial covenants. Financial covenants include maintaining minimum cash balances in operating accounts, tangible net worth of at least $140 million and compliance with other various debt and income ratios. FSP Corp. was in compliance with all covenants as of December 31, 2002.

FSP Corp.'s real properties generate rental income to cover the ordinary, annual operating expenses of the properties and to fund distributions to equity holders. As of December 31, 2002, the rental income covered the expenses for each of FSP Corp.'s real properties. In addition to rental income, FSP Corp. maintains cash reserves that may be used to fund extraordinary expenses or major capital expenses. The cash reserves that were set aside when the Sponsored Partnerships that the FSP Partnership acquired were originally syndicated are in excess of the known needs for extraordinary expenses or capital improvements for the real properties for the next year. There are no external restrictions on these reserves, and they may be used for any corporate purpose.

Although there is no guarantee FSP Corp. will be able to obtain the funds necessary for its future growth, FSP Corp. anticipates generating funds from continuing real estate operations and from fees and commissions from the sale of shares in newly-formed Sponsored REITs. With adequate reserves in place to cover extraordinary expenses or capital improvements, FSP Corp. believes that it has adequate funds for future needs. FSP Corp.'s ability to maintain or increase its level of distributions to stockholders, however, depends upon the level of interest on the part of investors in purchasing shares of Sponsored REITs and the level of rental income from FSP Corp.'s real properties.

Related Party Transactions

FSP Corp. typically retains a non-controlling common stock ownership interest in Sponsored REITs that it has organized. These ownership interests have virtually no economic benefit or risk. At December 31, 2001 and 2000, FSP Corp. had ownership interests in ten and four Sponsored REITs, respectively. At December 31, 2002, FSP Corp. had ownership interests in 17 Sponsored REITs but had only completed the syndication of 16 of these Sponsored REITs. Thirteen of these 16 Sponsored REITs comprise the Target REITs. During 1999 and 2000, FSP Corp. acquired 100% of the non-owned interests of certain Sponsored Partnerships (through a series of mergers) that it had previously organized. Neither FSP Corp. nor any other related entity has an obligation to acquire the non-owned interests in any previously syndicated Sponsored REIT. FSP Corp. will be the sole stockholder of each Target REIT following consummation of the Mergers.

At the request of FSP Corp., certain officers and directors of FSP Corp. serve as officers and directors of Sponsored REITs. All of FSP Corp.'s revenue from investment banking services derives from transactions involving the Sponsored REITs. The terms of the commissions and fees paid by the Sponsored REITs to FSP Corp. and the terms of the mortgage loans made by FSP Corp. to the Sponsored REITs accordingly were not the product of arms-length negotiations. FSP Corp., however, believes that such terms are no less favorable to FSP Corp. than it could have obtained from third parties in arms-length negotiations.

FSP Corp. had an arrangement for Citizens Bank to provide loans to FSP Corp.'s senior officers for the purpose of paying income taxes on the issuance to them of shares of FSP Common Stock as compensation. Each borrower secured the loan by pledging shares of FSP Common Stock having an aggregate fair market value at the time of the loan of no less than twice the principal amount of the loan. FSP Corp. initially agreed to purchase from Citizens Bank any such loan on which the borrower defaults. Following the purchase of the loan, the FSP

Partnership would have the same rights as Citizens Bank, including the right to foreclose on the pledged stock. In order to comply with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, FSP Corp. informed Citizens Bank and its senior officers that it will no longer guarantee any future loans. As of December 31, 2002, all repurchase agreements have been terminated and FSP Corp. has no obligation relating to such loans from Citizens Bank to senior officers. FSP Corp. will not incur any other expenses or pay any amounts on behalf of its officers in connection with such loans from Citizens Bank to FSP Corp.'s senior officers.

DESCRIPTION OF FSP CORP. CAPITAL STOCK

The following summary description of the capital stock of FSP Corp. is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Articles of Organization and the Bylaws of FSP Corp.

General

The authorized capital stock of FSP Corp. consists of 180,000,000 shares of Common Stock and 20,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock, $0.0001 par value per share (the "Preferred Stock"). Upon the consummation of the Mergers, approximately 49,630,338 shares of FSP Common Stock will be issued and outstanding, and no shares of Preferred Stock will be issued and outstanding.

FSP Common Stock

All shares of FSP Common Stock issued in the Mergers will be duly authorized, fully paid and nonassessable. Subject to the preferential rights of any shares of Preferred Stock hereinafter designated by the FSP Board, holders of shares of FSP Common Stock will be entitled to receive dividends on the stock if, as and when authorized and declared by the FSP Board out of assets legally available therefor and to share ratably in the assets of FSP Corp. legally available for distribution to its stockholders in the event of its liquidation, dissolution or winding-up after payment of, or adequate provision for payment of, all known debts and liabilities of FSP Corp. FSP Corp. intends to pay regular quarterly dividends.

Each outstanding share of FSP Common Stock entitles the holder thereof to one vote on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders, including the election of directors and, except as otherwise required by law or except as provided with respect to any other class or series of stock, the holders of shares of FSP Common Stock will possess the exclusive voting power. There is no cumulative voting in the election of directors, which means that the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of FSP Common Stock can elect all of the directors then standing for election and the holders of the remaining shares will not be able to elect any directors. Holders of shares of FSP Common Stock have no conversion, sinking fund or preemptive rights to subscribe for any securities of FSP Corp.

Shares of FSP Common Stock will have equal dividend, distribution, liquidation and other rights and will have no preference or exchange rights.

Pursuant to the Maryland General Corporation Law (the "MGCL"), a corporation generally cannot dissolve, amend its charter, merge, sell all or substantially all of its assets, engage in a share exchange or consolidate unless approved by the holders of at least two-thirds of the shares of stock entitled to vote on the matter unless a lesser percentage (but not less than a majority of all of the votes to be cast on the matter) is set forth in the corporation's charter. The Articles provide that FSP Corp. may amend the Articles, merge, sell all or substantially all of its assets, engage in a share exchange or consolidate, with the approval of the holders of a majority of the shares of stock entitled to vote on the matter.

Preferred Stock

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

The FSP Board may authorize from time to time, without further action by the stockholders, the issuance from time to time of shares of Preferred Stock in one or more separately designated classes. The FSP Board may set the preferences, conversion or other rights, voting powers, restrictions, limitations as to dividends or other distributions, qualifications and terms and conditions of redemption of the shares of each class of Preferred Stock. The FSP Board could authorize the issuance of shares of Preferred Stock with terms and conditions which could have the effect of discouraging a takeover or other transaction in which holders of some, or a majority of, shares of FSP Common Stock might receive a premium for their shares of FSP Common Stock over the then-prevailing market price of those shares of FSP Common Stock.

Ownership Limits

In order for FSP Corp. to maintain its qualification as a real estate investment trust, among other things, not more than 50% in value of FSP Corp.'s outstanding shares of FSP Common Stock and Preferred Stock (the "Equity Securities") may be owned, directly or indirectly, by five or fewer individuals (as defined in the Code to include certain entities). To ensure this standard, the Articles of FSP Corp. provide that holders of Equity Securities cannot beneficially or constructively own (as defined in the Articles) more than 9.8% of the number of shares or value of the outstanding Equity Securities of FSP Corp. (the "Ownership Limit") and that no stockholder will be able to transfer or acquire shares that would result in the outstanding equity shares of FSP Corp. being beneficially owned by fewer than 100 persons.

Any transfer of shares of Equity Securities that would (i) cause any person to beneficially or constructively own shares of Equity Securities in excess of the Ownership Limit, (ii) result in the shares of Equity Securities being owned by fewer than 100 persons, (iii) result in the FSP Corp. being "closely held" within the meaning of section 856(h) of the Code, or (iv) otherwise cause FSP Corp. to fail to qualify as a real estate investment trust, shall be null and void, and the intended transferee will acquire no rights to the shares of Equity Securities.

The restriction on transferability and ownership described in (i) above will not apply if the FSP Board, in its sole and absolute discretion, waives the application of the Ownership Limit to a person subject to such limit, provided that (A) the FSP Board obtains such representations and undertakings from such person and any other person as the FSP Board may deem appropriate and (B) such person agrees in writing that any violation or attempted violation of such representations or undertakings or any other action which is contrary to the restrictions imposed by the Articles will result in the treatment, to the extent necessary to cure such violation or action, of the Equity Shares owned by such person as Excess Shares (as defined below).

If any purported transfer of Equity Securities or other event resulting in an increase in any holder's percentage interest in Equity Securities would cause a purported transferee or holder to be in violation of the Ownership Limit or would cause FSP Corp. to be disqualified as a real estate investment trust, then the purported transferee or holder (the "Prohibited Owner") shall not acquire or shall cease to own, as the case may be, such number of shares in excess of the Ownership Limit (the "Excess Shares"). Any Excess Shares will be transferred automatically to a trust, the beneficiary of which will be one or more qualified charitable organizations selected by FSP Corp. Such automatic transfer shall be deemed to be effective as of the close of business on the business day prior to the date of such violative transfer or event.

FSP Corp. will appoint the trustee of the trust (who will be unaffiliated with FSP Corp. and any Prohibited Owner). The trustee will be required to designate one or more persons who could own such Excess Shares without violating the Ownership Limit or causing FSP Corp. to be disqualified as a company ("Permitted Transferees") and to use best efforts to sell such Excess Shares to such Permitted Transferees.

Excess Shares held in the trust shall be deemed to have been offered for sale to FSP Corp., or its designee, at a price per share equal to the lesser of (i) in the case of Excess Shares resulting from a purchase, the price per share in the transaction that resulted in such purchase or, in the case of Excess Shares resulting from any event other than a purchase, the market price on the date of such event or (ii) the market price on the date FSP Corp., or its designee, accepts such offer. FSP Corp. will have the right to accept such offer for a period ending upon the sale by the trustee to one or more Permitted Transferees.

All certificates representing shares of Equity Securities will bear a legend referring to the restrictions described above.

FSP Corp. is required to keep such records as will disclose the actual ownership of its outstanding shares of Equity Securities. Accordingly, to enable FSP Corp. to comply with such record keeping requirements, each record and beneficial owner of Equity Securities will, upon demand, be required to disclose to FSP Corp. in writing such information as FSP Corp. may request in order to determine FSP Corp.'s status as a real estate investment trust, to comply with the requirements of any taxing authority or governmental agency and to ensure compliance with the Ownership Limit.

The ownership limitations described above could have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change of control of FSP Corp. in which holders of FSP Common Stock might receive a premium for their shares over the then prevailing market price.

Unregistered Shares

The shares of FSP Common Stock to be issued as Merger Consideration have not been registered under the Securities Act, and FSP Corp. has no present plan to effect such registration. Accordingly, the shares of FSP Common Stock to be issued as Merger Consideration must be held indefinitely unless they are subsequently registered under the Securities Act or unless an exemption from such registration is available pursuant to the rules of the Commission.

Redemption

The Articles provide that on an annual basis FSP Corp. will use its best efforts to redeem any shares of FSP Common Stock from holders desiring to sell them. Any holder wishing to take advantage of this opportunity must so request no later than July 1 of any year for a redemption that would be effective the following January 1. The purchase price paid by FSP Corp. will be 90% of the fair market value of the shares purchased, as determined by the FSP

Board in its sole and absolute discretion after consultation with an adviser selected by the FSP Board.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

FSP Corp. will not redeem any shares of FSP Common Stock pursuant to this provision if:

- o FSP Corp. is insolvent or the redemption would render FSP Corp. insolvent;
- o The redemption would impair the capital or operations of FSP Corp.;
- o The redemption would contravene any provision of federal or state securities laws;
- o The redemption would result in FSP Corp.'s failing to qualify as a real estate investment trust; or
- o The Combined Company's management must determine that the redemption is be in the best interests of FSP Corp.

If FSP Corp. is unable to purchase any shares of FSP Common Stock offered for redemption, FSP Corp. will use its best efforts to arrange for a purchase by a third party or parties, each of whom must be an accredited investor within the meaning of Regulation D and must have a pre-existing relationship with FSP Corp. In addition, FSP Corp. will have the right to satisfy its obligation to effect redemption by arranging for a purchase by such a third party or parties at the redemption price.

FSP Corp. has no obligations to redeem shares of FSP Common Stock during any period that the FSP Common Stock is listed for trading on a national securities exchange or the NASDAQ National Market System.

Classification of the FSP Board

The Bylaws provide that the number of directors of FSP Corp. shall be as set forth in the Articles or as may be established by the FSP Board but may not be fewer than one. Any vacancy will be filled, at any regular meeting or at any special meeting called for that purpose, by a majority of the directors then in office. FSP Stockholders may elect a director to fill a vacancy on the FSP Board which results from the removal of a director.

Pursuant to the terms of the Articles, the directors are divided into three classes. One class holds office for a term expiring at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held in 2003, another class holds office for a term expiring at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held in 2004 and another class holds office for a term expiring at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held in 2005. As the term of each class expires, directors in that class will be elected for a term of three years. FSP Corp. believes that classification of the FSP Board will help to assure the continuity and stability of FSP Corp.'s business strategies and policies as determined by the FSP Board.

The classified director provision could have the effect of making the removal of incumbent directors more time-consuming and difficult, which could discourage a third party from making a tender offer or otherwise attempting to obtain control of FSP Corp., even though such an attempt might be beneficial to FSP Corp. and FSP Stockholders. At least two annual meetings of stockholders, instead of one, will generally be required to effect a change in a majority of the FSP Board. Thus, the classified board provision could increase the likelihood that incumbent directors will retain their positions. Further, holders of shares of FSP Common Stock will have no right to cumulative voting for the election of directors. Consequently, at each annual meeting of stockholders, the holders of a majority of shares of FSP Common Stock will be able to elect all of the successors of the class of directors whose term expires at that meeting.

QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

FSP Corp. was not a party to derivative financial instruments at or during the year ended December 31, 2001. FSP Corp. was not a party to derivative financial instruments at or during the year ended December 31, 2002.

FSP Corp. borrows from time to time upon its line of credit. These borrowings bear interest at a variable rate. As of December 31, 2002, $0 was outstanding under the line of credit. FSP Corp. uses the funds it draws on its line of credit only for the purpose of making interim mortgage loans to Sponsored REITs. These mortgage loans bear interest at the same variable rate payable by FSP Corp. under its line of credit. Therefore, FSP Corp. believes that it has mitigated its interest rate risk with respect to its borrowings.

CHANGES IN AND DISAGREEMENTS WITH ACCOUNTANTS ON ACCOUNTING AND FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

On October 11, 2001, the FSP Partnership (the predecessor to FSP Corp.) dismissed BDO Seidman, LLP as its independent certified public accountant. The reports of BDO Seidman on the FSP Partnership's financial statements for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2000 and 1999 did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion, and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles. During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2000 and 1999 and any subsequent interim period preceding the dismissal, there were (i) no disagreements with BDO Seidman on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to the satisfaction of BDO Seidman, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreements in connection with its reports and (ii) no reportable events as defined in Regulation S-K Item 304(a)(1)(iv). The executive officers of the FSP General Partner, the general partner of the FSP Partnership, approved the change of accountants.

The FSP Partnership solicited proposals from various accounting firms and following review of such proposals engaged PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to act as the FSP Partnership's independent certified public accountants effective October 11, 2001. During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2000 and 1999 and any subsequent interim period preceding the engagement, the FSP Partnership did not consult PricewaterhouseCoopers regarding the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the FSP Partnership's financial statements, or any matter that was the subject of a disagreement or a reportable event.

- (1) Amounts reported represent annual compensation paid to the Named Executive Officers by the FSP Partnership, FSP Corp.'s predecessor, for the fiscal years 2000 and 2001.
- (2) Consists of brokerage commissions paid by FSP Investments in respect of the sale of securities of Sponsored REITs and Sponsored Partnerships.
- (3) The FSP Partnership issued FSP Units to all executive officers in April 2000 and July 2001, valued at $10 per FSP Unit and $11.50 per FSP Unit, respectively, as part of their annual compensation. The valuations of $10 and $11.50 per FSP Unit were determined in good faith by the FSP General Partner, the general partner of the FSP Partnership. The value of $10 had been ascribed to each FSP Unit in connection with certain mergers that were effective January 1, 2000 in which the FSP Partnership acquired several of the limited partnerships whose offerings FSP Investments had previously sponsored, and no material changes in the financial condition or results of the FSP Partnership had occurred between that date and April 1, 2000. The value of $11.50 per FSP Unit was determined by the general partner based on the value ascribed to each FSP Unit in connection with certain mergers that were effective October 1, 2000 in which the FSP Partnership acquired several of the limited partnerships whose offerings FSP Investments had previously sponsored, and no material changes in the financial condition or results of the FSP Partnership had occurred between that date and July 1, 2001.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Option Grants, Option Exercises and Holdings

No options or stock appreciation rights ("SARs") were granted to any of the Named Executive Officers during 2002. FSP Corp. does not have any outstanding stock options or SARs, and therefore, there were no stock options or SARs exercised by any of the Named Executive Officers during 2002.

In July 2002, FSP Corp. issued 43,998.54 shares of FSP Common Stock to R. Scott MacPhee, an Executive Vice President of FSP Corp. and an Executive Vice President of each Target REIT, pursuant to FSP Corp.'s 2002 Stock Incentive Plan. All other executive officers of FSP Corp., including executive officers who are also members of the FSP Board, who were also eligible for grants of stock awards requested that they not be considered for such grants due to the current economic climate and FSP Corp.'s current challenges in meeting those challenges for the remainder of fiscal 2002.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

Messrs. Carter, MacPhee, Norris and Gribbell and Meses. Corinha and Notopoulos, each of whom is an executive officer of FSP Corp., serve, at the request of FSP Corp., as executive officers and, except for Ms. Notopoulos, directors of each of the Sponsored REITs. None of such persons receives any remuneration from the Sponsored REITs for such service.

FSP Investments, a wholly owned subsidiary of FSP Corp., provides syndication and real estate acquisition advisory services for the Sponsored REITs. Fees from Sponsored REITs for property acquisition services amounted to approximately $3,082,000 and $1,005,000 for the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2002, respectively. Sales commissions earned from the sale of Sponsored REIT preferred shares amounted to approximately $13,000,000 and $13,720,000 for the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2002, respectively.

During 2001 and 2002, FSP Corp. provided interim financing for the purchase of certain Sponsored REIT properties prior to completion of the Sponsored REITs' private equity offerings. The Sponsored REITs paid FSP Corp. financing commitment fees of approximately $9,618,000 and $12,081,000 for the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2002, respectively. Interest income earned from the Sponsored REITs amounted to approximately $549,000 and $429,000 for the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2002, respectively. The interest rate charged by FSP Corp. to the Sponsored REITs is equal to the interest rate paid by FSP Corp. to Citizens Bank for borrowings under its line of credit. Therefore, FSP Corp. does not realize any significant profit from interest on the loans. All loans to Sponsored REITs were evidenced by promissory notes and were paid in full upon closing of the applicable Sponsored REIT's private equity offering during 2001 or 2002. In addition, one loan which was made to a Sponsored REIT during 2000 and was outstanding at December 31, 2000, was paid in full during 2001. The following table summarizes these interim financing transactions:

Total asset management fee income from the Sponsored REITs amounted to approximately $150,000 and $315,000 for the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2002, respectively. Asset management fees are approximately 1% of collected rents for both periods.

Aggregate fees charged to the Sponsored REITs amounted to approximately $26,399,000 and $27,235,000 for the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2002, respectively.

FSP Corp. had arranged for Citizens Bank to provide a line of credit for FSP Corp.'s senior officers in the maximum aggregate amount of $3,000,000. The borrowings under this line of credit were for the purpose of paying income taxes on equity interests in FSP Corp. issued to such senior officers as compensation. Each borrower secured the loan by pledging shares of FSP's Common Stock having an aggregate fair market value at the time of the loan of no less than twice the principal amount of the loan. FSP Corp. initially agreed to purchase from Citizens Bank any loan on which the borrower defaults. Following the purchase of the loan, FSP Corp. would have the same rights as Citizens Bank, including the right to foreclose on the pledged stock or to recover the outstanding amount of the loan from the officer/borrower. In order to comply with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, FSP Corp. informed Citizens Bank and its senior officers that it will no longer guarantee any future loans. As of December 31, 2002, all repurchase agreements have been terminated and FSP Corp. has no obligation relating to such loans from Citizens Bank to senior officers. FSP Corp. will not incur any other expenses or pay any amounts on behalf of its officers in connection with such loans from Citizens Bank to FSP Corp.'s senior officers.

Mr. Carter's son, Jeffrey B. Carter, is Director of Acquisitions for FSP Investments. During 2001, he received total compensation (including salary, cash bonus and contribution to a Simple IRA plan) of $181,200. For the year ended December 31, 2002, he received total compensation of $226,000 (including salary, cash bonus and contribution to a Simple IRA plan).

Mr. Norris's son, Adam R. Norris, is a sales assistant for FSP Investments. During 2001, he received total compensation (including salary, sales commission, cash bonus and contribution to a Simple IRA plan) of $187,551. For the year ended December 31, 2002, he received total compensation of $287,560 (including salary, sales commission, cash bonus and contribution to a Simple IRA plan).

Employment Agreements

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

FSP Corp. is not a party to any employment agreement with any of the Named Executive Officers.

Compensation of Directors

None of FSP Corp.'s directors receives compensation for his or her services as a director. FSP Corp. reimburses Messrs. McGillicuddy and Silverstein for expenses incurred by them in connection with attendance at Board meetings.

Also, Mr. McGillicuddy is an officer and board member of The Florida Winefest and Auction Inc., a Sarasota-based charity, which provides funding for programs of local charities that deal with disadvantaged children and their families.

Each of the above executive officers has been a full-time employee of FSP Corp. or its predecessor for the past five fiscal years.

There are no family relationships among any of the executive officers and directors.

NO DISSENTERS' APPRAISAL RIGHTS

FSP Stockholders who object to the Mergers will have no dissenters' appraisal rights under state law.

BUSINESS AND PROPERTIES OF THE TARGET REITS

Each Target REIT was formed for the purpose of acquiring, developing and operating its property. The principal investment objectives of the Target REITs are to provide their Target REIT Stockholders with regular quarterly cash distributions; to obtain long-term appreciation in the value of their property; and to preserve and protect their Target REIT Stockholders' capital. The Target REITs share executive offices with FSP Corp. Each Target Board believes the property owned by its related Target REIT is adequately covered by insurance.

There is no established public trading market for the preferred stock of any of the Target REITs.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

The following table indicates the number of holders of record of preferred stock in each of the Target REITs as of December 31, 2002, based upon the number of record holders reflected in the corporate records of FSP Corp.

Each Target REIT expects to declare in the first quarter of 2003 and pay to its Target REIT Stockholders thereafter a dividend with respect to its first quarter 2003 operations. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, such dividends will be paid in an amount consistent with past practice and custom of the relevant Target REIT. The cash paid out in these dividends will reduce the amount of cash held by each Target REIT and acquired by FSP Corp. upon consummation of the Mergers. Because the Target REITs have not yet declared these cash dividends, FSP Corp. cannot estimate the aggregate amount of such dividends. As the Target REITs will cease to exist upon consummation of the Mergers, FSP does not expect that they will continue to pay quarterly dividends after such consummation.

The following table sets forth the average percentage of leased space and average rent per square foot for each property owned by the Target REITs for the years ended December 31, 1999, 2000, 2001 and 2002 (to the extent applicable).

Both apartment properties held by the Gael and Merrywood are located within the greater Houston market, and are exposed to the general economic conditions in that submarket, such as the negative effects of the Enron and Arthur Andersen investigations or the positive effects of increases in oil prices, as well as the construction of new competition in the submarket.

SELECTED FINANCIAL INFORMATION FOR TARGET REITS

DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS OF TARGET REITS

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with the Target REITs' financial statements and notes thereto appearing elsewhere in this Proxy Statement. Historical results and percentage relationships set forth in the respective Target REIT Financial Statements should not be taken as necessarily indicative of future operations. Tables summarizing the results of operations for the Target REITs are located at pages 126 to 133 of this Proxy Statement. The results of the Target REITs are presented on a combined basis rather than for each individual Target REIT. Management believes that this presentation is more useful because the combined results are the basis for the pro forma financial statements located at pages 63 to 64 of this Proxy Statement, FSP Corp. will not proceed with the Mergers unless each Target REIT approves its respective Merger and no Target REIT performed in a manner that would cause the presentation on a combined basis to be misleading.

Results of Operations (of the Target REITs on a combined basis)

The following tables show the variance in dollars between the year ended December 31, 2002 and 2001 and years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000 and the years ended December 31, 2000 and 1999 for the Target REITs on a combined basis.

Revenue

Total revenues increased $23.7 million, to $40.8 million for the year ended December 31, 2002, as compared to $17.1 million for the year ended December 31, 2001.

The increase in rental income of $23.6 million, compared to the year ended December 31, 2001, is attributable to:

- o four Target REITs which were organized in 2002 contributed revenue for various periods in 2002, as compared with no revenue in 2001, resulting in $9.5 million in incremental revenues;
- o five Target REITs which were organized in 2001 contributed revenue for a full year in 2002, as compared to only various periods in 2001, resulting in $14.1 million in incremental revenues; and
- o four Target REITs which were syndicated prior to 2001 and in operation for both full years had no significant changes in rental income.

Interest income increased less than $0.1 million for the year ended December 31, 2002 compared to the year ended December 31, 2001.

Expenses

Total expenses increased $9.1 million for the year ended December 31, 2002, compared to the same period in 2001. The increase for the year is attributable to a $4.2 million increase in rental operating expenses, a $4.2 million increase in depreciation and amortization, and a $3.4 million increase in real estate taxes and insurance, offset by a $2.7 million decrease in interest expense.

The increase in rental operations expenses of $4.3 million, compared to the year ended December 31, 2001, is attributable to:

- o four Target REITs which were organized in 2002 incurred expenses for various periods in 2002, as compared with no expenses in 2001, resulting in $2.0 million in incremental expenses;
- o five Target REITs which were organized in 2001 incurred expenses for a full year in 2002, as compared to only various periods in 2001, resulting in $2.2 million in incremental expenses; and
- o four Target REITs which were syndicated prior to 2001 and in operation for both full years had no significant change in expenses.

The increase in depreciation and amortization expenses of $4.2 million, compared to the year ended December 31, 2001, is attributable to:

- o four Target REITs which were organized in 2002 incurred expenses for various periods in 2002, as compared with no expenses in 2001, resulting in $1.8 million in incremental expenses;
- o five Target REITs which were organized in 2001 incurred expenses for a full year in 2002, as compared to only various periods in 2001, resulting in $2.4 million in incremental expenses; and

- o four Target REITs which were syndicated prior to 2001 and in operation for both full years had no significant change in expenses.

The increase in real estate tax and insurance expenses of $3.4 million, compared to the year ended December 31, 2001, is attributable to:

- o four Target REITs which were organized in 2002 incurred expenses for various periods in 2002, as compared with no expenses in 2001, resulting in $1.1 million in incremental expenses;
- o five Target REITs which were organized in 2001 incurred expenses for a full year in 2002, as compared to only various periods of 2001, resulting in $2.2 million in incremental expenses; and
- o four Target REITs which were syndicated prior to 2001 and in operation for both full years had an increase of less than $0.1 million.

Interest expense is typically incurred when the Target REIT is organized and borrows funds to acquire the real estate. After the completion of the syndication of preferred stock in the Target REIT, the loan is repaid. None of the Target REITs have had to borrow funds after the original real estate loan has been repaid. The decrease in interest expenses of $2.7 million, compared to the year ended December 31, 2001, is attributable to:

- o four Target REITs which were organized in 2002 incurred interest expense in 2002, as compared with no expenses in 2001, resulting in $6.7 million in incremental expenses;
- o offset by $9.4 million of interest expense incurred by five Target REITs which were organized in 2001, which incurred no expenses in 2002, but did incur interest expense in 2001; and
- o four Target REITs which were syndicated prior to 2001 and in operation for both full years which did not incur any interest expense.

Revenue

Total revenues increased $14.2 million, to $17.1 million for the year ended December 31, 2001, as compared to $2.9 million for the year ended December 31, 2000. The increase in rental income of $14.0 million, compared to the year ended December 31, 2001, is attributable to:

- o five Target REITs which were organized in 2001 contributed revenue for various periods in 2001, as compared to no revenue for the comparable period in 2000, resulting in $9.1 million in incremental revenues;

- o three Target REITs which were organized in 2000 contributed revenue for a full year in 2001, as compared to various periods in 2000, resulting in $4.7 million in incremental revenues; and

- o one Target REIT which was syndicated prior to 2000 and in operation for both full years, resulting in $0.2 million increased revenues as a result of a lease of vacant space.

Expenses

Total expenses increased $13.3 million for the year ended December 31, 2001, compared to the same period in 2000. The increase for the twelve months is attributable to a $2.9 million increase in rental operating expenses, a $1.7 million increase in depreciation and amortization, a $1.6 million increase in real estate taxes and insurance, and a $7.1 million increase in interest expense.

The increase in rental operations expenses of $2.9 million, compared to the year ended December 31, 2000, is attributable to:

- o five Target REITs which were organized in 2001 incurred expenses for various periods in 2001, as compared to incurring no expenses for the comparable period in 2000, resulting in $2.4 million in incremental expenses;
- o three Target REITs which were organized in 2000 incurred expenses for a full year in 2001, as compared to various periods in 2000, resulting in $0.5 million in increased expenses; and
- o one Target REIT which was syndicated prior to 2000 and in operation for both full years had no significant change in expenses.

The increase in depreciation and amortization expenses of $1.7 million, compared to the year ended December 31, 2000, is attributable to:

- o five Target REITs which were organized in 2001 incurred expenses for various periods in 2001, as compared to incurring no expenses for the comparable period in 2000, resulting in $0.9 million in incremental expenses;
- o three Target REITs which were organized in 2000 incurred expenses for a full year in 2001, as compared to various periods in 2000, resulting in $0.8 million in increased expenses; and
- o one Target REIT which was syndicated prior to 2000 and in operation for both full years had no significant change in expenses.

The increase in real estate tax and insurance expenses of $1.6 million, compared to the year ended December 31, 2001, is attributable to:

- o five Target REITs which were organized in 2001 incurred expenses for various periods in 2001, as compared to incurring no expenses for the comparable period in 2000, resulting in $0.9 million in incremental expenses;
- o three Target REITs which were organized in 2000 incurred expenses for a full year in 2001, as compared to various periods in 2000, resulting in $0.7 million in increased expenses;

- o one Target REIT which was syndicated prior to 2000 and in operation for both full years had no significant change in expenses.

Interest expense is typically incurred when the Target REIT is organized and borrows funds to acquire the real estate. After the completion of the syndication of preferred stock in the Target REIT, the loan is repaid. None of the Target REITs have had to borrow funds after the original real estate loan has been repaid. The increase in interest expenses of $7.1 million, compared to the year ended December 31, 2000, is attributable to:

- o five Target REITs which were organized in 2001 incurred interest expense in 2001, as compared with no expenses in 2000, resulting in $9.4 million in incremental expenses;
- o offset by $2.3 million of interest expense incurred by three Target REITs which were organized in 2000, which incurred no expenses in 2001, but did incur interest expense in 2000; and
- o one Target REIT which was syndicated prior to 2000 and in operation for both full years did not incur any interest expense.

Total revenues increased $2.6 million, to $2.9 million for the year ended December 31, 2000, as compared to $0.3 million for the year ended December 31, 1999. The increase in rental income of $2.5 million, compared to the year ended December 31, 1999, is attributable to:

- o three Target REITs which were organized in 2000 contributed revenue for various periods in 2000, as compared to no revenue for the comparable period in 1999, resulting in $2.1 million in incremental revenues; and
- o one Target REIT which was organized in 1999 contributed revenue for a full year in 2000, as compared to about six months in 1999, resulting in $0.4 million in increased revenue.

Expenses

Total expenses increased $3.6 million for the year ended December 31, 2000, compared to the same period in 1999. The increase for the twelve months is attributable to a $0.5 million increase in rental operating expenses, a $0.5 million increase in depreciation and amortization, a $0.3 million increase in real estate taxes and insurance, and a $2.3 million increase in interest expense.

138

The increase in rental operations expenses of $0.5 million, compared to the year ended December 31, 1999, is attributable to:

- o three Target REITs which were organized in 2000 incurred expenses for various periods in 2000, as compared to incurring no expenses for the comparable period in 1999, resulting in $0.4 million in incremental expenses; and

- o one Target REIT which was organized in 1999 incurred expenses for a for a full year in 2000, as compared to about six months in 1999, resulting in $0.1 million in increased expenses.

The increase in depreciation and amortization expenses of $0.5 million, compared to the year ended December 31, 2000, is attributable to:

- o three Target REITs which were organized in 2000 incurred expenses for various periods in 2000, as compared to incurring no expenses for the comparable period in 1999, resulting in $0.4 million in incremental expenses; and
- o one Target REIT which was organized in 1999 incurred expenses for a for a full year in 2000, as compared to about six months in 1999, resulting in $0.1 million in increased expenses.

The increase in real estate tax and insurance expenses of $0.3 million, compared to the year ended December 31, 1999, is attributable to:

- o three Target REITs which were organized in 2000 incurred expenses for various periods in 2000, as compared to incurring no expenses for the comparable period in 1999, resulting in $0.3 million in incremental expenses; and
- o one Target REIT which was organized in 1999 incurred expenses for a full year in 2000, as compared to about six months in 1999, resulting in $0.1 million in increased expenses.

Interest expense is typically incurred when the Target REIT is organized and borrows funds to acquire the real estate. After the completion of the syndication of preferred stock in the Target REIT, the loan is repaid. None of the Target REITs have had to borrow funds after the original real estate loan has been repaid. The increase in interest expenses of $2.3 million, compared to the year ended December 31, 1999, is attributable to:

- o three Target REITs which were organized in 2000, incurred interest expense in 2000, as compared with no expenses in 1999, resulting in $2.3 million in incremental expenses;
- o one Target REIT which was organized in 1999 incurred minimal interest expense. Approximately $0.1 million in financing fees were capitalized as organizational costs.

Trends and Uncertainties (for the Target REITs on a combined basis)

All real estate markets have been weaker in 2002 along with the general economy, and it is uncertain when they will improve or if they will get worse in 2003. Each of the Target REITs will be affected by the economic conditions in its submarket as leases expire, or if tenants go bankrupt; however, because most of the Target REITs that hold commercial property have one or two creditworthy tenants with medium-term to long-term leases who occupy the majority of the leased space, they have less exposure to current and short term market conditions. In this weaker economy, however, even large tenants with strong credit seek to reduce expenses, and cuts in tenant operating expenses or staff may decrease the ancillary income to the Target REIT, such as fees received for additional services. Some tenants have cut staff and have excess space, and have asked the management of the applicable Target REIT to consider allowing subletting or to accept termination fees. The leases do not require the Target REIT to do so, and the management of each Target REITs will only approve those subleases or accept those termination offers that make economic sense and improve its position.

Real estate taxes and insurance costs are expected to increase, but all of the office leases pass through most of the operating expenses of the property, including insurance, real estate taxes, and utility costs, to the tenants. Where leases with base stops are the market custom, when new leases are written, the increased costs of taxes, insurance, and utilities are absorbed by the landlord for the base year. If the base rents in the market do not increase to cover increases in base year expenses, then the net income from such properties will decrease.

Both apartment properties owned by Target REITs are located within the greater Houston market, and are exposed to the general economic conditions in that submarket, such as the negative effects of Enron and Arthur Andersen or the positive effects of increases in oil prices, as well as the construction of new competition in the submarket.

In September 2002, Fair Lakes consented to an assignment of the lease with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to International Business Machines Corporation, but PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP remains obligated for payments under the lease. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP has notified FSP Corp. that if the Merger between FSP Corp. and Fair Lakes is approved, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP will have a conflict of interest which would cause it to no longer be considered "independent" relating to its dealings with FSP Corp.. At that time, FSP Corp. will have to either release PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP from its obligation under the lease or choose another auditing firm.

Liquidity and Capital Resources as of December 31, 2002 (for the Target REITs on a combined basis)

Cash and cash equivalents were $10.8 million and $5.5 million at December 31, 2002 and December 31, 2001, respectively. This increase of $5.2 million is attributable to $16.8 million provided by operating activities plus $80.9 million provided by financing activities offset by $92.5 million used for investing activities.

Operating Activities

The cash provided by the Target REITs' operating activities of $16.8 million is primarily attributable to net income of $14.5 million plus the add-back of $7.2 million from non-cash activity less a net change of $4.9 million in operating assets and liabilities, of which $4.0 million was used to establish the "Cash - funded reserve" accounts for the four Target REITs that were organized in 2002.

Investing Activities

The Target REITs' cash used for investing activities of $92.5 million is attributable to the purchase of real estate assets by the four Target REITs organized in 2002.

Financing Activities

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

The Target REITs' cash provided by financing activities of $92.5 million is attributable to $103.8 million of proceeds from the sale of stock for the four Target REITs organized in 2002, offset by $22.8 million of distributions to shareholders.

Liquidity and Capital Resources as of December 31, 2001 (for the Target REITs on a combined basis)

Cash and cash equivalents were $5.5 million and $1.8 million at December 31, 2001 and December 31, 2000, respectively. This increase of $3.7 million is attributable to $159.9 million provided by financing activities offset by $3.7 million used for operating activities and $152.4 million used for investing activities.

Operating Activities

The cash used by the Target REITs' operating activities of $3.7 million is primarily attributable to a net loss of $41,000 plus the add-back of $2.8 million from non-cash activity less a net change of $6.5 million in operating assets and liabilities. The net loss is attributable to an aggregate loss of $4.4 million for the five Target REITs organized in 2001, offset by aggregate net income of $4.4 million for the four Target REITs that were organized prior to 2001. The net change of $6.5 million in operating assets and liabilities is primarily attributable to $7.0 million used to establish the "Cash - funded reserve" account for the five Target REITs organized in 2001.

Investing Activities

The Target REITs' cash used for investing activities of $152.4 million is attributable to the purchase of real estate assets by the five Target REITs organized in 2001.

141

Financing Activities

The Target REITs' cash provided by financing activities of $159.9 million is attributable to $167.4 million of proceeds from the sale of stock for the five Target REITs organized in 2001, offset by $7.5 million of distributions to shareholders.

Liquidity and Capital Resources as of December 31, 2000 (for the Target REITs on a combined basis)

Cash and cash equivalents were $1.8 million and $0.2 million at December 31, 2000 and December 31, 1999, respectively. This increase of $1.6 million is attributable to $54.5 million provided by financing activities offset by $1.7 million used for operating activities and $51.2 million used for investing activities.

Operating Activities

The cash used by the Target REITs' operating activities of $1.7 million is primarily attributable to a net loss of $0.9 million plus the add-back of $0.6 million from non-cash activity less a net change of $1.4 million in operating assets and liabilities. The net loss is attributable to an aggregate loss of $1.3 million for the three Target REITs organized in 2000, offset by net income of $0.4 million for the one Target REITs that were organized in 1999. The net change of $1.4 million in operating assets and liabilities is primarily attributable to $1.9 million used to establish the "Cash - funded reserve" account for the three Target REITs organized in 2000.

Investing Activities

The Target REITs' cash used for investing activities of $51.2 million is attributable to the purchase of real estate assets by the three Target REITs organized in 2000.

Financing Activities

The Target REITs' cash provided by financing activities of $54.5 million is attributable to $54.9 million of proceeds from the sale of stock for the three Target REITs organized in 2000, offset by $0.4 million of distributions to shareholders.

140

Sources and Uses of Funds (for the Target REITs on a combined basis)

The Target REITs' principal demands for liquidity are cash for operations and dividends to equity holders. As of December 31, 2002, the Target REITs had approximately $11.5 million in liabilities of which $7.4 million represents dividends payable to shareholders. The Target REITs have no permanent, long-term debt and have not established a line of credit. Liquidity is generated from funds from ongoing real estate operations.

The Target REITs' sources of funds are proceeds from the sale of preferred stock, proceeds from a loan from FSP Corp. and funds from operations.

Typically, the Target REIT borrows funds in its first year of operations to purchase real estate assets and repays this loan upon the sale of preferred stock in the Target REIT within a few months of borrowing. No Target REIT has borrowed funds subsequent to the repayment of the original loan used to acquire the real estate. No Target REIT had any loans outstanding as of December 31, 2002.

The Target REITs' real properties generate rental income to cover the ordinary, annual operating expenses of the properties and to fund distributions to equity holders. For the year ended December 31, 2002, the rental income exceeded the operating expenses for each of the Target REITs.

In addition to rental income, each Target REIT maintains cash reserves that are typically used to fund capital improvements, leasing commissions or extraordinary expenses. These cash reserves were set aside when each Target REIT was originally syndicated. As of December 31, 2002, each Target REIT has cash reserves in excess of its known needs for extraordinary expenses or capital improvements for its real property for 2003. There are no external restrictions on these reserves and they may be used for any corporate purpose.

Each Target REIT believes that it has adequate funds for future needs and adequate reserves for extraordinary expenses or capital improvements. Each Target REIT's ability to maintain or increase its level of distributions to stockholders, however, depends upon the level of rental income from each Target REIT's real property.

The following is a general summary of the material United States federal income tax considerations associated with the Mergers and with the ownership of the FSP Common Stock. The following summary is not exhaustive of all possible tax considerations. Moreover, the summary contained herein does not address all aspects of taxation that may be relevant to particular FSP Stockholders in light of their personal tax circumstances, or to certain types of stockholders subject to special treatment under federal income tax laws, including insurance companies, tax-exempt organizations (except to the extent discussed in Section 5 below under the heading "Taxation of Tax-Exempt Shareholders"), financial institutions, broker-dealers, and foreign corporations and persons who are not citizens or residents of the United States (except to the extent discussed in Section 6 below under the heading "Taxation of Non-U.S. Shareholders").

The statements in this summary are based upon, and qualified in their entirety by, current provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), existing, temporary, and currently-proposed Treasury Regulations promulgated under the Code, existing administrative rulings and practices of the Internal Revenue Service, and judicial decisions. No assurance can be given that future legislative, administrative, or judicial actions or decisions, which may be retroactive in effect, will not affect the accuracy of any of the statements in this summary.

EACH FSP STOCKHOLDER IS URGED TO CONSULT HIS, HER, OR ITS OWN TAX ADVISOR REGARDING THE SPECIFIC TAX CONSEQUENCES TO THE STOCKHOLDER OF THE MERGERS AND OF THE OWNERSHIP AND SALE OF STOCK IN AN ENTITY ELECTING TO BE TAXED AS A REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT TRUST, INCLUDING FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL, FOREIGN AND OTHER TAX CONSEQUENCES, AS WELL AS POTENTIAL CHANGES IN THE APPLICABLE TAX LAWS.

1. Certain Tax Risks Relating to the Mergers

The Mergers entail certain tax risks which, if realized, may cause the Combined Company to fail to qualify as a real estate investment trust (a "REIT") in the year of the Mergers or in any subsequent year, or may result in substantial penalties (excise taxes) being imposed upon the Combined Company. As a result of the Mergers, for example:

- o the Combined Company may, directly or indirectly, improperly own 10% or more of a tenant from which the Combined Company collects rent causing the rent received from such tenant to fail to qualify as rents from real property, as described below under "3. Tax Consequences of REIT Election - Taxation of the Combined Company - Requirements for Taxation as a Real Estate Investment Trust - Income Tests".
- o the Combined Company may improperly own (i) more than 10% of the outstanding voting securities of any issuer, or (ii) more than 10% of the value of the securities of any issuer causing the Combined Company to fail to satisfy the Asset Tests, as described below under "3. Tax Consequences of REIT Election - Taxation of the Combined Company - Requirements for Taxation as a Real Estate Investment Trust - Asset Tests".

- o the Combined Company would be disqualified as a REIT if any of the Target REITs did not qualify as a REIT and, as a result, had any undistributed "earnings and profits" at the time of the Mergers.

If the Combined Company fails to qualify as a real estate investment trust, the Combined Company could be disqualified from treatment as a real estate investment trust in the year in which such failure occurred and for the next four taxable years and, consequently, would be taxed as a regular corporation during such years. The penalties that may result from the Mergers are described below under "3. Tax Consequences of REIT Election - Taxation of FSP - General."

As part of its due diligence in connection with the Mergers, FSP Corp. has reviewed the specific assets held by the Target REITs, the Target REITs' organizational documents and financial records, and the identity of the shareholders of the Target REITs in order to determine whether the Mergers would potentially cause the Combined Company to fail to qualify as a REIT. In addition, each Target REIT has given extensive representations relating to factual circumstances that could adversely impact the qualification of the Combined Company as a REIT. Nevertheless, because certain REIT-qualification requirements are dependent upon the identity of the shareholders of the Target REIT and the interests they may have in other entities, there can be no certainty that the Mergers would not adversely affect the Combined Company's ability to qualify as a REIT.

2. Tax Consequences of the Mergers.

Assuming no material changes in the applicable federal income tax laws prior to the Effective Date, Hale and Dorr LLP will issue an opinion based upon certain factual representations made by FSP Corp. and the Target REITs that the Mergers will be treated as reorganizations within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. If the Mergers qualify as reorganizations, there will be no United States federal income tax consequences to the Combined Company as a result of the Mergers.

There should be no United States federal income tax consequences of the Mergers to the FSP Stockholders, except as described under "Certain Risks Related to the Mergers".

3. Tax Consequences of REIT Election

Introduction

The Combined Company has elected under Section 856 of the Code to be taxed as a real estate investment trust. Following the Mergers, subject to the risks described herein, the Combined Company intends to continue to be taxed as a REIT. No opinion of Hale and Dorr LLP or other counsel regarding the qualification of FSP Corp. or the Combined Company as a REIT has been requested or will be rendered in connection with the Mergers.

145

Taxation of the Combined Company

General

If the Combined Company continues to qualify as a real estate investment trust, it generally will not be subject to federal corporate income taxes on its net income to the extent that the income is currently distributed to its shareholders ("Shareholders"). The benefit of this tax treatment is that it substantially eliminates the "double taxation" resulting from the taxation at both the corporate and Shareholder levels that generally results from owning stock in a corporation. Accordingly, income earned by the Combined Company generally will be subject to taxation solely at the Shareholder level upon a distribution from the Combined Company. The Combined Company will, however, be required to pay certain federal income taxes, including in the following circumstances:

- o the Combined Company will be subject to federal income tax at regular corporate rates on taxable income, including net capital gain, that the Combined Company does not distribute to Shareholders during, or within a specified time period after, the calendar year in which such income is earned.
- o the Combined Company will be subject to the "alternative minimum tax" on its undistributed items of tax preference.
- o the Combined Company will be subject to a 100% tax on net income from certain sales or other dispositions of property that it holds primarily for sale to customers in the ordinary course of business ("prohibited transactions").
- o if the Combined Company fails to satisfy the 75% gross income test or the 95% gross income test, both described below, but nevertheless qualifies as a real estate investment trust, the Combined Company will be subject to a 100% tax on an amount equal to (i) the gross income attributable to the greater of the amount by which the Combined Company fails the 75% or 95% gross income test multiplied by (ii) a fraction intended to reflect the Combined Company's profitability.
- o if the Combined Company fails to distribute during the calendar year at least the sum of (i) 85% of its real estate investment trust ordinary income for such year, (ii) 95% of its real estate investment trust capital gain net income for such year, and (iii) any undistributed taxable income from prior periods, the Combined Company will pay a 4% excise tax on the excess of such required distribution over the amount actually distributed to its Shareholders.
- o the Combined Company may elect to retain and pay income tax on some or all of its long-term capital gain, as described below.

- o the Combined Company may be subject to a 100% excise tax on transactions with its taxable REIT subsidiary that are not conducted on an arm's-length basis.

Requirements for Qualification as a Real Estate Investment Trust

Introduction

In order to qualify as a real estate investment trust for federal income tax purposes a REIT must elect (or have elected, and have not revoked its election) to be treated as a REIT and must satisfy certain statutory tests relating to, among other things, (i) the sources of its income, (ii) the nature of its assets, (iii) the amount of its distributions, and (iv) the ownership of its stock. The Combined Company has elected to be treated as a REIT and has endeavored to satisfy the tests for REIT qualification.

A real estate investment trust may own a "qualified REIT subsidiary." A qualified REIT subsidiary is a corporation, all of the capital stock of which is owned by a real estate investment trust, and for which subsidiary no election has been made to treat it as a "taxable REIT subsidiary" (as discussed below). A corporation that is a qualified REIT subsidiary is not treated as a corporation separate from its parent real estate investment trust for federal income tax purposes. All assets, liabilities, and items of income, deduction, and credit of a qualified REIT subsidiary are treated as the assets, liabilities, and items of income, deduction and credit of the parent real estate investment trust. Thus, in applying the requirements described herein, any qualified REIT subsidiary of the Combined Company's will be ignored, and all assets, liabilities and items of income, deduction and credit of such subsidiary will be treated as the assets, liabilities, and items of income deduction and credit of the Combined Company.

In the event that the Combined Company becomes a partner in a partnership, the Combined Company will be deemed to own its proportionate share (based upon its share of the capital of the partnership) of the assets of the partnership and will be deemed to be entitled to the income of the partnership attributable to such share. In addition, the assets and income of the partnership attributed to the Combined Company shall retain their same character as in the hands of the partnership for purposes of determining whether the Combined Company satisfies the income and asset tests described below.

A real estate investment trust may own up to 100% of the stock of one or more taxable REIT subsidiaries. A taxable REIT subsidiary may earn income that would not be qualifying income, as described below, if earned directly by the parent real estate investment trust. Both the subsidiary and the parent real estate investment trust must jointly elect to treat the subsidiary as a taxable REIT subsidiary. Overall, not more than 20% of the value of a REIT's assets may consist of securities of one or more taxable REIT subsidiaries. A taxable REIT subsidiary will pay tax at regular corporate rates on any income that it earns. There is a 100% excise tax imposed on transactions involving a taxable REIT subsidiary and its parent real estate investment trust that are not conducted on an arm's-length basis. The Combined Company and FSP Investments have made an election to treat FSP Investments as a taxable REIT subsidiary. FSP

Investments pays corporate income tax on its taxable income and its after tax net income will be available for distribution to the Combined Company.

Income Tests

General. The Combined Company must satisfy annually two tests regarding the sources of its gross income in order to maintain its real estate investment trust status. First, at least 75% of the Combined Company's gross income, excluding gross income from certain "dealer" sales, for each taxable year generally must consist of defined types of income that the Combined Company derives, directly or indirectly, from investments relating to real property or mortgages on real property or temporary investment income (the "75% Gross Income Test"). Qualifying income for purposes of the 75% Gross Income Test generally includes:

- o "rents from real property" (as defined below);
- o interest from debt secured by mortgages on real property or on interests in real property;
- o dividends or other distributions on, and gain from the sale of, shares in other real estate investment trusts;

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

- o gain from the sale or other disposition of real property;
- o amounts (other than amounts the determination of which depends in whole or in part on the income or profits of any person) received as consideration for entering into agreements to make loans secured by mortgages on real property or on interests in real property or agreements to purchase or lease real property; and
- o certain income from temporary investment of recently raised capital.

Second, at least 95% of the Combined Company's gross income, excluding gross income from certain "dealer" sales, for each taxable year generally must consist of income that is qualifying income for purposes of the 75% gross income test, as well as dividends, other types of interest, and gain from the sale or disposition of stock or securities (the "95% Gross Income Test").

Rents from Real Property. Rent that the Combined Company receives from real property that it owns and leases to tenants will qualify as "rents from real property" if the following conditions are satisfied:

- o First, the rent must not be based, in whole or in part, on the income or profits of any person. An amount will not fail to qualify as rent from real property solely by reason of being based on a fixed percentage (or percentages) of sales and receipts.

148

- o Second, neither the Combined Company nor any direct or indirect owner of 10% or more of its Stock may own, actually or constructively, 10% or more of the tenant from which the Combined Company collects the rent.
- o Third, all of the rent received under a lease will not qualify as rents from real property unless the rent attributable to the personal property leased in connection with the real property constitutes no more than 15% of the total rent received under the lease.
- o Finally, the Combined Company generally must not operate or manage its real property or furnish or render services to its tenants, other than through an "independent contractor" who is adequately compensated and from whom the Combined Company does not derive revenue. The Combined Company may provide services directly, however, if the services are "usually or customarily rendered" in connection with the rental of space for occupancy only and are not otherwise considered rendered "primarily for the occupant's convenience." In addition, the Combined Company may render, other than through an independent contractor, a de minimis amount of "non-customary" services to the tenants of a property as long as the Combined Company's income from such services does not exceed 1% of its gross income from the property.

Although no assurances can be given that either of the Gross Income Tests will be satisfied in any given year, the Combined Company anticipates that its operations will allow it to meet each of the 75% Gross Income Test and the 95% Gross Income Test. Such belief is premised in large part on the Combined

Company's expectation that substantially all of the amounts received by it with respect to its properties will qualify as "rents from real property." Shareholders should be aware, however, that there are a variety of circumstances, as described above, in which rent received from a tenant will not be treated as rents from real property.

Failure to Satisfy Gross Income Tests. If the Combined Company fails to satisfy either or both of the 75% or 95% Gross Income Tests for any taxable year, the Combined Company may nevertheless qualify as a real estate investment trust for that year if it is eligible for relief under certain provisions of the federal income tax laws. Those relief provisions generally will be available if:

- o the Combined Company's failure to meet the gross income test was due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect;
- o the Combined Company attaches a schedule of the sources of its income to its federal income tax return; and
- o any incorrect information on the schedule is not due to fraud with intent to evade tax.

149

It is not possible to state whether, in all circumstances, the Combined Company would be entitled to the benefit of the above relief provisions. Furthermore, as discussed above under "3. Tax Consequences of REIT Election - Taxation of the Combined Company- General," even if the relief provisions apply, the Combined Company would incur a 100% tax on the gross income attributable to the greater of the amounts by which it fails the 75% and 95% Gross Income Tests, multiplied by a fraction that reflects the Combined Company's profitability.

Asset Tests

The Combined Company also must satisfy the following four tests relating to the nature of its assets at the close of each quarter of its taxable year.

- o First, at least 75% of the value of the Combined Company's total assets must consist of cash or cash items, including receivables, government securities, "real estate assets," or qualifying temporary investments (the "75% Asset Test");
- o Second, no more than 25% of the value of the Combined Company's total assets may be represented by securities other than those that are qualifying assets for purposes of the 75% Asset Test (the "25% Asset Test");
- o Third, of the investments included in the 25% Asset Test, the value of the securities of any one issuer (other than a "taxable REIT subsidiary") that the Combined Company owns may not exceed 5% of the value of the Combined Company's total assets, and the Combined Company may not own 10% or more of the total combined voting power or 10% or more of the total value of the securities of any issuer (other than a "taxable REIT subsidiary"); and
- o Fourth, while the Combined Company may own up to 100% of the stock of a corporation that elects to be treated as a "taxable REIT subsidiary" for federal income tax purposes, at no time may the total value of the Combined Company's stock ownership of one or more taxable REIT subsidiaries exceed 20% of the value of the Combined Company's gross assets.

The Combined Company intends to operate so that it will not acquire any assets that would cause it to violate the asset tests. If, however, the Combined Company should fail to satisfy any of the asset tests at the end of a calendar quarter, it would not lose its real estate investment trust status if (i) the Combined Company satisfied the asset tests at the end of the close of the preceding calendar quarter, and (ii) the discrepancy between the value of the Combined Company's assets and the asset test requirements arose from changes in the market values of the Combined Company's assets and was not wholly or partly caused by the acquisition of one or more nonqualifying assets. If the Combined Company did not satisfy the condition described in clause (ii) of the preceding sentence, it could still avoid disqualification as a real estate investment trust by eliminating any discrepancy within 30 days after the close of the calendar quarter in which the discrepancy arose.

Distribution Requirements

150

Each taxable year, the Combined Company must distribute dividends to its Shareholders in an amount at least equal to:

- o 90% of the Combined Company's "real estate investment trust taxable income," computed without regard to the dividends paid deduction and the Combined Company's net capital gain or loss; and
- o certain items of noncash income.

The Combined Company must make such distributions in the taxable year to which they relate, or in the following taxable year if the Combined Company declares the distribution before it timely files its federal income tax return for such year and pays the distribution on or before the first regular distribution date after such declaration. Further, if the Combined Company fails to meet the 90% distribution requirement as a result of an adjustment to its tax returns by the Internal Revenue Service, the Combined Company may, if the deficiency is not due to fraud with intent to evade tax or a willful failure to file a timely tax return, and if certain other conditions are met, retroactively cure the failure by paying a deficiency dividend (plus interest) to its Shareholders.

The Combined Company will be subject to federal income tax on its taxable income, including net capital gain that it did not distribute to its Shareholders. Furthermore, if the Combined Company fails to distribute during a calendar year, or, in the case of distributions with declaration and record dates falling within the last three months of the calendar year, by the end of the January following such calendar year, at least the sum of:

- o 85% of the Combined Company's real estate investment trust ordinary income for such year;
- o 95% of the Combined Company's real estate investment trust capital gain income for such year; and
- o any of the Combined Company's undistributed taxable income from prior periods, the Combined Company will be subject to a 4% nondeductible excise tax on the excess of such required distribution over the amount actually distributed. If the Combined Company elects to retain and pay income tax on the net capital gain that it receives in a taxable year, the Combined Company will be deemed to have distributed any such amount for the purposes of the 4% excise tax described in the preceding sentence.

The Combined Company intends to make distributions to holders of its Common Stock in a manner that will allow it to satisfy the distribution requirements described above. It is possible that, from time to time, the Combined Company's pre-distribution taxable income may exceed its cash flow and that the Combined Company may have difficulty satisfying the distribution requirements. The Combined Company intends to monitor closely the relationship between its pre-distribution taxable income and its cash flow and intends to borrow funds or liquidate assets in order to overcome any cash flow shortfalls if necessary to satisfy the distribution requirements imposed by the Code. It is possible, although unlikely, that the Combined Company may decide to terminate its real estate investment trust status as a result of any such cash shortfall. Such a termination would have adverse tax consequences to the stockholders. See "3. Tax Consequences of REIT Election - Taxation of the Combined Company - General".

Recordkeeping Requirements

The Combined Company must maintain records of information specified in applicable Treasury Regulations in order to maintain its qualification as a real estate investment trust. In addition, in order to avoid a monetary penalty, the Combined Company must request on an annual basis certain information from its Shareholders designed to disclose the actual ownership of the Combined Company's outstanding Stock. The Combined Company intends to comply with these recordkeeping requirements.

Ownership Requirements

For the Combined Company to qualify as a real estate investment trust, shares of the Combined Company must be held by a minimum of 100 persons for at least 335 days in each taxable year after the Combined Company's first taxable year. Further, at no time during the second half of any taxable year after the Combined Company's first taxable year may more than 50% of the Combined Company's shares be owned, actually or constructively, by five or fewer "individuals" (which term is defined for this purpose to include certain tax-exempt entities including pension trusts). The Common Stock will be held by 100 or more persons. The Combined Company intends to continue to comply with these ownership requirements. Also, the Combined Company's Charter contains ownership and transfer restrictions designed to prevent violation of these requirements.

Failure to Qualify

If the Combined Company failed to qualify as a real estate investment trust in any taxable year, and no relief provisions applied, the Combined Company would be subject to federal income tax, including any applicable alternative minimum tax, on its taxable income at regular corporate rates. In calculating the Combined Company's taxable income in a year in which it did not qualify as a real estate investment trust, the Combined Company would not be able to deduct amounts paid out to its Shareholders. In fact, the Combined Company would not be required to distribute any amounts to its Shareholders in such taxable year. In such event, to the extent of the Combined Company's current and accumulated earnings and profits, all distributions to Shareholders would be taxable as ordinary income. Moreover, subject to certain limitations under the Code, corporate Shareholders might be eligible for the dividends received deduction. Unless the Combined Company qualified for relief under specific statutory provisions, the Combined Company would be disqualified from taxation as a real estate investment trust for the four taxable years following the year in which it ceased to qualify as a real estate investment trust. The Combined Company cannot predict whether, in all circumstances, it would qualify for such statutory relief.

4. Taxation of Taxable U.S. Shareholders

152

As used herein, the term "Taxable U.S. Shareholder" means a Shareholder that, for United States federal income tax purposes, is:

- o a citizen or resident of the United States;
- o a corporation, partnership, or other entity created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state or political subdivision thereof;
- o an estate the income of which from sources without the United States is includible in gross income for United States federal income tax purposes regardless of its connection with the conduct of a trade or business within the United States; or
- o any trust with respect to which (i) a United States court is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of such trust, and (ii) one or more United States persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust.

For any taxable year in which the Combined Company qualifies as a real estate investment trust, amounts distributed to Taxable U.S. Shareholders will be taxed as follows.

Distributions Generally

Distributions made to the Combined Company's Taxable U.S. Shareholders out of current or accumulated earnings and profits (and not designated as a capital gain dividend) will be taken into account by such Shareholder as ordinary income and will not, in the case of a corporate Taxable U.S. Shareholder, be eligible for the dividends received deduction. To the extent that the Combined Company makes a distribution with respect to the FSP Common Stock that is in excess of its current or accumulated earnings and profits, the distribution will be treated by a Taxable U.S. Shareholder first as a tax-free return of capital, reducing the Taxable U.S. Shareholder's tax basis in the FSP Common Stock, and any portion of the distribution in excess of the Shareholder's tax basis in the FSP Common Stock will then be treated as gain from the sale of such stock. Dividends declared by the Combined Company in October, November, or December of any year payable to a Taxable U.S. Shareholder of record on a specified date in any such month shall be treated as both paid by the Combined Company and received by Shareholders on December 31 of such year, provided that the dividend is actually paid by the Combined Company during January of the following calendar year. Taxable U.S. Shareholders may not include on their federal income tax returns any of the Combined Company's tax losses.

Capital Gain Dividends

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Dividends to Taxable U.S. Shareholders that properly are designated by the Combined Company as capital gain dividends will be treated by such Shareholders as long-term capital gain, to the extent that such dividends do not exceed the Combined Company's actual net capital gain, without regard to the period for which the Taxable U.S. Shareholders have held the FSP Common Stock. Taxable U.S. Shareholders that are corporations may be required, however, to treat up to 20% of particular capital gain dividends as ordinary income. Capital gain dividends, like regular dividends from a real estate investment trust, are not eligible for the dividends received deduction for corporations.

Retained Capital Gains

A real estate investment trust may elect to retain, rather than distribute, its net long-term capital gain received during the tax year. To the extent designated in a notice from the Combined Company to its Taxable U.S. Shareholders, the Combined Company will pay the income tax on such gains and Taxable U.S. Shareholders must include their proportionate share of the undistributed net long-term capital gain so designated in their income for the tax year. Each Taxable U.S. Shareholder will be deemed to have paid its share of the tax paid by the Combined Company, which tax will be credited or refunded to such Taxable U.S. Shareholder.

Passive Activity Loss and Investment Interest Limitations

Distributions, including deemed distributions of undistributed net long-term capital gain, from the Combined Company and gain from the disposition of FSP Common Stock will not be treated as passive activity income, and therefore Taxable U.S. Shareholders who are subject to the passive loss limitation rules of the Code will not be able to apply any passive activity losses against such income. Distributions from the Combined Company, to the extent they do not constitute a return of capital, generally will be treated as investment income for purposes of the investment income limitation on deductibility of investment interest. However, net capital gain from the disposition of FSP Common Stock or capital gain dividends, including deemed distributions of undistributed net long-term capital gains, generally will be excluded from investment income.

Sale of FSP Common Stock

Upon the sale of FSP Common Stock, a Taxable U.S. Shareholder generally will recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount realized on such sale and the holder's tax basis in the stock sold. To the extent that the FSP Common Stock is held as a capital asset by the Taxable U.S. Shareholder, the gain or loss will be a long-term capital gain or loss if the stock has been held for more than a year, and will be a short-term capital gain or loss if the stock has been held for a shorter period. In general, however, any loss upon a sale of the FSP Common Stock by a Taxable U.S. Shareholder who has held such stock for six months or less (after applying certain holding period rules) will be treated as a long-term capital loss to the extent that distributions from the Combined Company were required to be treated as long-term capital gain by that holder.

5. Taxation of Tax-Exempt Shareholders

Tax-exempt entities, including qualified employee pension and profit sharing trusts and individual retirement accounts (collectively, "Exempt Organizations"), generally are exempt from federal income taxation. Exempt

Organizations are subject to tax, however, on their unrelated business taxable income ("UBTI"). UBTI is defined as the gross income derived by an Exempt Organization from an unrelated trade or business, less the deductions directly connected with that trade or business, subject to certain exceptions. While many investments in real estate generate UBTI, the Internal Revenue Service has issued a ruling that dividend distributions from a real estate investment trust to an exempt employee pension trust do not constitute UBTI, provided that the shares of the real estate investment trust are not otherwise used in an unrelated trade or business of the exempt employee pension trust. Based on that ruling, amounts distributed to Exempt Organizations generally should not constitute UBTI. However, if an Exempt Organization finances its acquisition of FSP Common Stock with debt, a portion of its income from the Combined Company will constitute UBTI pursuant to the "debt-financed property" rules.

In addition, in certain circumstances, a pension trust that owns more than 10% of the stock of the Combined Company will be required to treat a percentage of the dividends paid by the Combined Company as UBTI based upon the percentage of the Combined Company's income that would constitute UBTI to the Shareholder if received directly by it. This rule applies to a pension trust holding more than 10% (by value) of the FSP Common Stock only if (i) the percentage of the income from the Combined Company that is UBTI (determined as if the Combined Company were a pension trust) is at least 5% and (ii) the Combined Company is treated as a "pension-held REIT." The Combined Company does not expect to receive significant amounts of income that would be considered UBTI if received directly by a pension trust and does not expect to qualify as a "pension-held REIT."

6. Taxation of Non-U.S. Shareholders

General

The rules governing United States federal income taxation of nonresident alien individuals, foreign corporations, foreign partnerships, foreign trusts and certain other foreign stockholders (collectively, "Non-U.S. Shareholders") are complex and no attempt is made herein to provide more than a general summary of such rules. This discussion does not consider the tax rules applicable to all Non-U.S. Shareholders and, in particular, does not consider the special rules applicable to U.S. branches of foreign banks or insurance companies or certain intermediaries. NON-U.S. SHAREHOLDERS SHOULD CONSULT WITH THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS TO DETERMINE THE IMPACT OF FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND FOREIGN TAX LAWS WITH REGARD TO THE MERGER AND THE OWNERSHIP OF THE FSP COMMON STOCK, INCLUDING ANY REPORTING AND WITHHOLDING REQUIREMENTS.

Ordinary Dividends

General

Distributions to Non-U.S. Shareholders that are not attributable to gain from sales or exchanges by the Combined Company of United States real property interests and are not designated by the Combined Company as capital gain dividends (or deemed distributions of retained capital gains) will be treated as ordinary dividends to the extent that they are made out of current or accumulated earnings and profits of the Combined Company. Any portion of a distribution in excess of current and accumulated earnings and profits of the Combined Company will not be taxable to a Non-U.S. Shareholder to the extent that such distribution does not exceed the adjusted basis of the Shareholder in the FSP Common Stock, but rather will reduce the adjusted basis of such stock. To the extent that the portion of the distribution in excess of current and accumulated earnings and profits exceeds the adjusted basis of a Non-U.S. Shareholder for the FSP Common Stock, such excess generally will be treated as gain from the sale or disposition of the stock and will be taxed as described below.

Withholding

Dividends paid to Non-U.S. Shareholders may be subject to U.S. withholding tax. If an income tax treaty does not apply and the Non-U.S. Shareholder's investment in the FSP Common Stock is not effectively connected with a trade or business conducted by the Non-U.S. Shareholder in the United States (or if a tax treaty does apply and the investment in the FSP Common Stock is not attributable to a United States permanent establishment maintained by the Non-U.S. Shareholder), ordinary dividends (i.e., distributions out of current and accumulated earnings and profits) will be subject to a U.S. withholding tax at a 30% rate, or, if an income tax treaty applies, at a lower treaty rate. Because the Combined Company generally cannot determine at the time that a distribution is made whether or not it will be in excess of earnings and profits, the Combined Company intends to withhold on the gross amount of each distribution at the 30% rate (or lower treaty rate) (other than distributions subject to the 35% FIRPTA withholding rules described below). To receive a reduced treaty rate, a Non-U.S. Shareholder must furnish the Combined Company or its paying agent with a duly completed Form W-8BEN (or authorized substitute form) certifying such holder's qualification for the reduced rate. Generally, a Non-U.S. Shareholder will be entitled to a refund from the Internal Revenue Service to the extent the amount withheld by the Combined Company from a distribution exceeds the amount of United States tax owed by such Shareholder.

In the case of a Non-U.S. Shareholder that is a partnership or a trust, the withholding rules for a distribution to such a partnership or trust will be dependent on numerous factors, including (1) the classification of the type of partnership or trust, (2) the status of the partner or beneficiary, and (3) the activities of the partnership or trust. Non-U.S. Shareholders that are partnerships or trusts are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding the withholding rules applicable to them based on their particular circumstances.

If an income tax treaty does not apply, ordinary dividends that are effectively connected with the conduct of a trade or business within the U.S. by a Non-U.S. Shareholder (and, if a tax treaty applies, ordinary dividends that are attributable to a United States permanent establishment maintained by the Non-U.S. Shareholder) are exempt from U.S. withholding tax. In order to claim such exemption, a Non-U.S. Shareholder must provide the Combined Company or its paying agent with a duly completed Form W-8ECI (or authorized substitute form) certifying such holder's exemption. However, ordinary dividends exempt from U.S. withholding tax because they are effectively connected or are attributable to a United States permanent establishment maintained by the Non-U.S. Shareholder generally are subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis at regular graduated rates. In the case of Non-U.S. Shareholders that are corporations, any effectively connected ordinary dividends or ordinary dividends attributable to a United States permanent establishment maintained by the Non-U.S.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Shareholder may, in certain circumstances, be subject to an additional branch profits tax at a 30% rate, or lower rate specified by an applicable income tax treaty.

Capital Gain Dividends

General

For any year in which the Combined Company qualifies as a real estate investment trust, distributions that are attributable to gain from sales or exchanges by the Combined Company of United States real property interests will be taxed to a Non-U.S. Shareholder under the provisions of the Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act of 1980 ("FIRPTA"). Under FIRPTA, distributions attributable to gain from sales of United States real property are taxed to a Non-U.S. Shareholder as if such gain were effectively connected with a United States trade or business. Non-U.S. Shareholders thus would be taxed at the regular capital gain rates applicable to Taxable U.S. Shareholders (subject to the applicable alternative minimum tax and a special alternative minimum tax in the case of nonresident alien individuals). Distributions subject to FIRPTA also may be subject to a 30% branch profits tax in the hands of a corporate Non-U.S. Shareholder not otherwise entitled to treaty relief or exemption.

Withholding

Under FIRPTA, the Combined Company is required to withhold 35% of any distribution that is designated as a capital gain dividend or which could be designated as a capital gain dividend. Moreover, if the Combined Company designates previously made distributions as capital gain dividends, subsequent distributions (up to the amount of the prior distributions so designated) will be treated as capital gain dividends for purposes of FIRPTA withholding.

Sale of FSP Common Stock

A Non-U.S. Shareholder generally will not be subject to United States federal income tax under FIRPTA with respect to gain recognized upon a sale of FSP Common Stock, provided that the Combined Company is a "domestically-controlled REIT." A domestically-controlled REIT generally is defined as a real estate investment trust in which at all times during a specified testing period less than 50% in value of the stock was held directly or indirectly by non-U.S. persons. Although currently it is anticipated that the Combined Company will be a domestically-controlled REIT, and, therefore, that the sale of FSP Common Stock will not be subject to taxation under FIRPTA, there can be no assurance that the Combined Company will, at all relevant times, be a domestically-controlled REIT. If the gain on the sale of FSP Common Stock were subject to taxation under FIRPTA, a Non-U.S. Shareholder would be subject to the same treatment as Taxable U.S. Shareholders with respect to such gain (subject to the applicable alternative minimum tax and a special alternative minimum tax in the case of nonresident alien individuals). In addition, a purchaser of FSP Common Stock from a Non-U.S. Shareholder subject to taxation under FIRPTA generally would be required to deduct and withhold a tax equal to 10% of the amount realized by a Non-U.S. Shareholder on the disposition. Any amount withheld would be creditable against the Non-U.S. Shareholder's FIRPTA tax liability.

Even if gain recognized by a Non-U.S. Shareholder upon the sale of FSP Common Stock is not subject to FIRPTA, such gain generally will be taxable to such Shareholder if:

- o an income tax treaty does not apply and the gain is effectively connected with a trade or business conducted by the Non-U.S. Shareholder in the United States (or, if an income tax treaty applies and the gain is attributable to a United States permanent establishment maintained by the Non-U.S. Shareholder), in which case, unless an applicable treaty provides otherwise, a Non-U.S. Shareholder will be taxed on his or her net gain from the sale at regular graduated U.S. federal income tax rates. In the case of a Non-U.S. Shareholder that is a corporation, such Shareholder may be subject to an additional branch profits tax at a 30% rate, unless an applicable income tax treaty provides for a lower rate and the Shareholder demonstrates its qualification for such rate; or
- o the Non-U.S. Shareholder is a nonresident alien individual who holds the FSP Common Stock as a capital asset and was present in the United States for 183 days or more during the taxable year (as determined under the Code) and certain other conditions apply, in which case the Non-U.S. Shareholder will be subject to a 30% tax on capital gains.

Estate Tax Considerations

The value of FSP Common Stock owned, or treated as owned, by a Non-U.S. Shareholder who is a nonresident alien individual at the time of his or her death will be included in the individual's gross estate for United States federal estate tax purposes, unless otherwise provided in an applicable estate tax treaty.

7. Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

The Combined Company is required to report to its Shareholders and to the Internal Revenue Service the amount of distributions paid during each tax year, and the amount of tax withheld, if any. These requirements apply even if withholding was not required with respect to payments made to a Shareholder. In the case of Non-U.S. Shareholders, the information reported may also be made available to the tax authorities of the Non-U.S. Shareholder's country of residence, if an applicable income tax treaty so provides.

Backup withholding generally may be imposed at a rate of 30% (the rate is scheduled to decrease to 29% in 2004, and 28% in 2006) on certain payments to a Shareholder unless the Shareholder (i) furnishes certain information, or (ii) is otherwise exempt from backup withholding.

A Shareholder who does not provide the Combined Company with his or her correct taxpayer identification number also may be subject to penalties imposed by the IRS. In addition, the Combined Company may be required to withhold a portion of capital gain distributions to any Shareholders who fail to certify their non-foreign status to the Combined Company

Shareholders should consult their own tax advisors regarding their qualification for an exemption from backup withholding and the procedure for obtaining an exemption. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. Rather, the amount of any backup withholding with respect to a distribution to a Shareholder will be allowed as a credit against such holder's United States federal income tax liability and may entitle the Shareholder to a refund, provided that the required information is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

In general, backup withholding and information reporting will not apply to a payment of the proceeds of the sale of FSP Common Stock by a Non-U.S. Shareholder by or through a foreign office of a foreign broker effected outside of the United States; provided, however, that foreign brokers having certain connections with the United States may be obligated to comply with the backup withholding and information reporting rules. Information reporting (but not backup withholding) will apply, however, to a payment of the proceeds of a sale of FSP Common Stock by foreign offices of certain brokers, including foreign offices of a broker that:

- o is a United States person;
- o derives 50% or more of its gross income for certain periods from the conduct of a trade or business in the United States; or
- o is a "controlled foreign corporation" for United States tax purposes.

Information reporting will not apply in the above cases if the broker has documentary evidence in its records that the holder is a Non-U.S. Shareholder and certain conditions are met, or the Non-U.S. Shareholder otherwise establishes an exemption.

Payment to or through a United States office of a broker of the proceeds of a sale of FSP Common Stock is subject to both backup withholding and information reporting unless the Shareholder certifies in the manner required that he or she is a Non-U.S. Shareholder and satisfies certain other qualifications under penalties of perjury or otherwise establishes an exemption.

8. State and Local Tax

The discussion herein concerns only the United States federal income tax treatment likely to be accorded to the Combined Company and its Shareholders. No consideration has been given to the state and local tax treatment of such parties. The state and local tax treatment may not conform to the federal treatment described above. As a result, a Shareholder should consult his or her own tax advisor regarding the specific state and local tax consequences of the Merger and ownership and sale of FSP Common Stock in the Combined Company.

LEGAL MATTERS

Hale and Dorr LLP, Boston, Massachusetts, will deliver opinions to the effect that (i) upon consummation of the Mergers, the shares of FSP Common Stock in the Combined Company offered pursuant to the Merger Agreement will be validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and (ii) the Mergers should be treated for federal income tax purposes as tax-free transactions and the discussion under "Material United States Federal Income Tax Considerations", to the extent it involves matters of law, is accurate in all material respects.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

Proposals of stockholders intended to be included in FSP Corp.'s proxy statement for the 2004 Annual Meeting of Stockholders must be received by FSP Corp. at its principal office not later than February 6, 2004.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

If a stockholder who wishes to make a proposal at the 2004 Annual Meeting--other than one that will be included in FSP Corp.'s proxy materials--does not notify FSP Corp. by March 7, 2004, the proxies that management solicits for the meeting will have discretionary authority to vote on the stockholder's proposal if it is properly brought before the meeting.

By Order of the FSP Board,

/s/ Barbara J. Corinha

Barbara J. Corinha, Secretary

May 13, 2003

The FSP Board hopes that stockholders will attend the meeting. Whether or not you plan to attend, you are urged to complete, date, sign and return the enclosed Proxy in the accompanying envelope. Prompt response will greatly facilitate arrangements for the meeting and your cooperation will be appreciated. FSP Stockholders who attend the meeting may vote their stock personally even though they have sent in their proxies.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders of Franklin Street Properties Corp.:

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated balance sheets and the related consolidated statements of income and cash flows present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Franklin Street Properties Corp. (the "Company") at December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the two years in the period ended December 31, 2002 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. In addition, in our opinion, the financial statement schedule listed in the accompanying index presents fairly, in all material respects, the information set forth therein when read in conjunction with the related consolidated financial statements. These financial statements and financial statement schedule are the responsibility of the Company's management; our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits of these statements in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, which require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Report of Independent Certified Public Accountants

To the Partners of Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership
Wakefield, Massachusetts

We have audited the accompanying consolidated statements of income and cash flows of Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership and subsidiaries for the year ended December 31, 2000. We have also audited the schedule listed in the accompanying index as it relates to the December 31, 2000 year end. These financial statements and schedule are the responsibility of the Partnership's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those Standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and schedule are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and schedule. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements and schedule. We believe that our audits provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the results of operations and cash flows of Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership and subsidiaries for the year ended December 31, 2000, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Also, in our opinion, the schedule, as it relates to the December 31, 2000 year end, presents fairly, in all material respects, the information set forth therein.

Franklin Street Properties Corp. Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

1. Organization

Franklin Street Properties Corp. (the "Company", formally known as Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership, the "Partnership", prior to January 1, 2002) was formed as a Massachusetts limited partnership on February 4, 1997. Prior to July 1, 2001 the Partnership owned a 99% interest in FSP Investments LLC ("FSP Investments"), a 99% interest in FSP Property Management LLC ("FSP Property Management") and 100% of FSP Holdings LLC ("FSP Holdings"). Effective July 1, 2001, FSP Holdings purchased the remaining 1% interest of FSP Investments and FSP Property Management for approximately $30,000. The Company also has a non-controlling common stock interest in sixteen corporations organized to operate as Real Estate Investment Trusts ("REITs").

The Company operates in two business segments: rental operations and investment services. FSP Investments provides real estate investment and broker/dealer services. FSP Investments' services include: (i) the organization of REIT entities subsequent to July, 2000 (the "Sponsored REITs") and limited partnerships prior to June, 2000 (the "Sponsored Partnerships" and, together with the Sponsored REITs, the "Sponsored Entities"), which are syndicated through private placements; (ii) the acquisition of real estate on behalf of the Sponsored Entities; and (iii) the sale of preferred stock in Sponsored REITs or limited partnership interests in Sponsored Partnerships. FSP Property Management provides asset management and property management services for the Sponsored Entities.

During 1999 and 2000, a total of seventeen Sponsored Partnerships were merged into the Partnership. Prior to the merger transactions, FSP Holdings owned a 5% controlling general partner interest in each of the merged Sponsored Partnerships. Following the consummation of the merger transactions, the Partnership held, directly and indirectly, 100% of the partnership interests in each of the merged Sponsored Partnerships.

In December 2001 the limited partners of the Partnership approved the conversion of the Partnership from a partnership into a corporation and the subsequent election to be taxed as a REIT. As a REIT, the Company is entitled to a tax deduction for dividends paid to its shareholders, thereby effectively subjecting the distributed net income of the Company to taxation at the shareholder level only, provided it annually distributes at least 90% of its taxable income and meets certain other qualifications. The conversion, which was effective January 1, 2002, was accomplished, as a tax-free reorganization, by merging the Partnership with and into a wholly owned subsidiary, Franklin Street Properties Corp., with the subsidiary as the surviving entity. As part of the conversion into a REIT, FSP Investments elected to be a taxable REIT subsidiary and will incur income taxes at normal tax rates.

The REIT will be taxed under Sections 856 through 860 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, commencing with its taxable year ended December 31, 2002.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include all of the accounts of the Company and majority-owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Prior to the mergers in 2000 and 1999, FSP Holdings was the general partner and owned a 5% controlling general partner interest in each of the Sponsored Partnerships. FSP Holdings had the exclusive rights and powers to manage and control the business of each Sponsored Partnership without the consent or approval of the limited partners. The limited partners in the Sponsored Partnerships could not elect to replace the general partner, except for cause. Accordingly, the Sponsored Partnerships were accounted for under the principles of accounting applicable to investments in subsidiaries in accordance with Statement of Position 78-9 and these entities were consolidated into the Partnership's financial statements.

Business Segments

The Company follows Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 131 "Disclosures about Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information," which established standards for the way that public business enterprises report information about operating segments in its financial statements.

F-9

Franklin Street Properties Corp.
Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

2. Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Minority Interests in Consolidated Entities

Minority interests included in the Partnership's consolidated statements of income represents the minority interest holders' share of the income of the consolidated entities. The minority interests in the Partnership's consolidated balance sheets reflects the original investment made by the minority interest holders in the consolidated entities along with their proportional share of the earnings less cash distributions. Cash distributions paid to minority interest holders were approximately $0, $103,000, and $4,506,000 for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001, and 2000, respectively.

Estimates and Assumptions

The Company prepares its financial statements and related notes in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). These principles require management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Reclassifications

Certain balances in the 2001 and 2000 financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the 2002 presentation.

Investments in REITs

Common stock investments in Sponsored REITs are accounted for using the equity method as the Company exercises significant influence over, but does not control, these entities. Under the equity method of accounting, the Company's cost is subsequently adjusted by its share of the Sponsored REITs' earnings. Equity in the losses of Sponsored REITs is not recognized to the extent that the investment balance would become negative. Dividends are recognized as income after the investment balance is reduced to zero.

Subsequent to the completion of the offering of preferred shares, there were no dividends received or income recognized, from the Sponsored REITs for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000.

Real Estate and Depreciation

Real estate assets are stated at the lower of cost, less accumulated depreciation, or fair value, as appropriate, which in the opinion of management are not in excess of an individual property's estimated undiscounted cash flow.

Costs related to property acquisition and improvements are capitalized. Typical capital items include new roofs, site improvements, various exterior building improvements and major interior renovations. Funding for capital improvements typically is provided by cash set aside at the time the property was acquired by the Sponsored Entity.

Routine replacements and ordinary maintenance and repairs that do not extend the life of the asset are expensed as incurred. Typical expense items include interior painting, landscaping, minor carpet replacements and residential appliances. Funding for repairs and maintenance items typically is provided by cash flows from operating activities. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the assets' estimated useful lives as follows:

Category -----	Years -----
Buildings:
Residential	27
Commercial	39
Building Improvements	15-39
Furniture and equipment	5-7

F-10

Franklin Street Properties Corp.
Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

The Company accounts for properties as held for sale under the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets", which typically occurs upon: the execution of a purchase and sale agreement; and, management believes that the sale or disposition is probable of occurrence within one year. Upon determining that a property is held for sale, the Company discontinues depreciating the property and reflects the property at the lower of its carrying amount or fair value less the cost to sell in its consolidated balance sheets. The Company reports the results of operations of its properties classified as discontinued operations in its statements of income if no significant continuing involvement exists after the sale or disposition. As the Company typically retains a common stock ownership in a Sponsored Entity following syndication, and earns an ongoing asset and property management fee, transaction fee revenue and the results of operations are not classified as discontinued operations due to its continuing involvement.

The Company periodically reviews its properties to determine if their carrying amounts will be recovered from future operating cash flows. The evaluation of anticipated cash flows is highly subjective and is based in part on assumptions regarding future occupancy, rental rates and capital requirements that could differ materially from actual results in future periods. Since cash flows are considered on an undiscounted basis in the analysis that the Company conducts to determine whether an asset has been impaired, the Company's strategy of holding properties over the long term directly decreases the likelihood of recording an impairment loss. If the Company's strategy changes or market conditions otherwise dictate an earlier sale date, an impairment loss may be recognized. If the Company determines that an impairment has occurred, the affected assets must be reduced to their fair value. No such impairment losses have been recognized to date.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Restricted Cash

Restricted cash consists of tenant security deposits. Tenant security deposits are refunded when tenants vacate provided that the tenant has not damaged the property.

Marketable Securities

The Company accounts for investments in debt securities under the provisions of SFAS No. 115, "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities". The Company classified its debt securities as available-for-sale.

There were no investments in marketable securities at December 31, 2002 or 2001.

Concentration of Credit Risks

Cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments are financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to a concentration of credit risk. The Company maintains its cash balances and short-term investments principally in one bank which the Company believes to be creditworthy. The Company periodically assesses the financial condition of the bank and believes that the risk of loss is minimal. Cash balances held with various financial institutions frequently exceed the insurance limit of $100,000 provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Financial Instruments

The Company estimates that the carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, restricted cash, marketable securities and the bank note payable approximate their fair values based on their short-term maturity and prevailing interest rates.

F-11

Franklin Street Properties Corp.
Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

2. Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Straight-line Rent Receivable

Certain leases provide for fixed rent increases over the life of the lease. Rental revenue is recognized on a straight-line basis over the related lease term; however, billings by the Company are based on required minimum rentals in accordance with the lease agreements. Straight-line rent receivable, which is the cumulative revenue recognized in excess of amounts billed by the Company, is $3,057,000 and $1,371,000 at December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively. The Company provides an allowance for doubtful accounts based on its estimate of a tenant's ability of its tenants to make future rent payments. The computation of this allowance is based in part on the tenants' payment history and current credit status.

Deferred Leasing Commissions

Deferred leasing commissions represent direct and incremental external leasing costs incurred in the leasing of commercial space. These costs are capitalized and are amortized on a straight-line basis over the terms of the related lease agreements. Amortization expense was approximately $193,000, $222,000 and $146,000 for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

Revenue Recognition

Rental Revenue - Rental revenue includes income from leases, certain reimbursable expenses, straight-line rent adjustments and other income associated with renting the property. A summary of rental revenue is shown in the following table:

(in thousands)	Year Ending December 31,
	2002	2001	2000
Income from leases	$ 22,151	$ 22,832	$ 22,260
Straight-line rent adjustment	1,686	797	185
Reimbursable expenses	3,393	2,875	2,811
Other	178	261	178
Total	$ 27,408	$ 26,765	$ 25,434

Rental Revenue, Commercial Properties -- The Company has retained substantially all of the risks and benefits of ownership of the Company's commercial properties and accounts for its leases as operating leases. Rental income from leases, which include rent concessions (including free rent and tenant improvement allowances) and scheduled increases in rental rates during the lease term, is recognized on a straight-line basis. The Company does not have any percentage rent arrangements with its commercial property tenants. Reimbursable costs are included in rental income in the period earned.

Rental Revenue, Residential Apartments -- The Company's residential property leases are generally for terms of one year or less. Rental income from tenants of residential apartment properties is recognized in the period earned. Rent concessions, including free rent and leasing commissions incurred in connection with residential property leases, are expensed as incurred.

Investment Banking Services -- Syndication fees ranging from 6% to 8% of the gross offering proceeds from the sale of securities in Sponsored Entities are generally recognized upon an investor closing; at that time the Company has provided all required services, the fee is fixed and collected, and no further contingencies exist. Commission expense ranging from 3% to 4% of the gross offering proceeds is recorded in the period the related syndication fee is earned. There is typically more than one investor closing in the syndication of a Sponsored Entity.

F-12

Investment Banking Services -- Transaction fees are generally recognized upon the final investor closing of a Sponsored Entity. The final investor closing is the last admittance of investors into a Sponsored Entity; at that time, required funds have been received from the investors, charges relating to the syndication have been paid or accrued, continuing investment and continuing involvement criteria have been met, and legal and economic rights have been transferred. Third party transaction-related costs are deferred and later expensed to match revenue recognition. Internal costs are expensed as incurred.

The Company follows the requirements for profit recognition as set forth by Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 66 "Accounting for Sales of Real Estate" and Statement of Position 92-1 "Accounting for Real Estate Syndication Income".

Sponsored REIT Income and Expenses

Sponsored REIT rental revenue and Sponsored REIT rental expense represent revenues and expenses from a Sponsored REIT prior to the final syndication of preferred shares.

Interest and Other

Interest income and other income, including property and asset management fees, are recognized when the related services are performed and the earnings process is complete.

Income Taxes

Taxes on income for the year ended December 31, 2002 represent taxes incurred by a subsidiary of the Company that has elected to be a taxable REIT subsidiary. No provision has been made for Federal or state income taxes in the consolidated financial statements in 2001 and 2000 of the Partnership.

Net Income Per Share/Unit

The Company follows Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 128 "Earnings per Share", which specifies the computation, presentation and disclosure requirements for the Company's net income per share/partnership unit. Basic net income per share/unit is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares/units outstanding during period. Diluted net income per share/unit reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue units were exercised or converted into units. There were no potential dilutive units outstanding at December 31, 2002, 2001, and 2000. The denominator used for calculating basic and diluted net income per share/unit is as follows:

Year Ended December 31,

2. Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Recent Accounting Standards

In August 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 143, "Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations," which addresses financial accounting and reporting for obligations associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets and the associated asset retirement costs. This Statement requires that the fair value of a liability for an asset retirement obligation be recognized in the period in which it is incurred if a reasonable estimate of the fair value can be made. The associated asset retirement costs are capitalized as part of the carrying amount of the long-lived asset. This Statement will be effective at the beginning of 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 143 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

In October 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 144 "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets". This Statement supersedes SFAS No. 121 and requires that long-lived assets that are to be disposed of by sale be measured at the lower of book value or fair value less costs to sell. SFAS No. 144 retains the fundamental provisions of SFAS 121 for (a) recognition and measurement of the impairment of long-lived assets to be held and used, and (b) measurement of long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale, but broadens the definition of what constitutes a discontinued operation and how the results of a discontinued operation are to be measured and presented. This Statement was effective at the beginning of 2002. The impact of adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows. The Company does not have any real estate assets that it considers "held for sale" at December 31, 2002.

In April 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 145 "Rescission of FAS Nos. 4, 44, and 64, Amendment of FAS 13, and Technical Corrections". This Statement rescinds FASB No. 4, "Reporting Gains and Losses from Extinguishment of Debt", and an amendment of that Statement, FASB No. 64, "Extinguishments of Debt Made to Satisfy Sinking-Fund Requirements". This Statement amends FASB No. 13, "Accounting for Leases". This Statement also amends other existing authoritative pronouncements to make various technical corrections, clarify meanings or describe their applicability under changed conditions. This statement will be effective for the Company's fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of FASB 145 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flow.

In July 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146 "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities". This statement will be effective January 1, 2003.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

SFAS No. 146 replaces current accounting literature and requires the recognition of costs associated with exit or disposal activities when they are incurred rather than at the date of a commitment to an exit or disposal plan. FAS No. 146 supersedes Emerging Issues Task Force Issue No. 94-3, "Liability Recognition for Certain Employee Termination Benefits and Other Costs to Exit an Activity," which in some cases required certain costs to be recognized before a liability was actually incurred. The adoption of this standard is not expected to have a material impact on the Company's results of financial position, results of operations or cash flow.

On November 25, 2002, the FASB issued FASB Interpretation No. 45 ("FIN 45") "Guarantors Accounting and Disclosure Requirements for Guarantees, Including Indirect Guarantees of Indebtedness of Others, an Interpretation of FASB Statements No. 5, 57 and 107 and Rescission of FASB Interpretation No. 34". FIN 45 clarifies the requirements of SFAS No. 5 "Accounting for Contingencies", relating to a guarantors accounting for, and disclosure of, the issuance of certain types of guarantees. The disclosure requirements of FIN 45 are effective for the Corporation as of December 31, 2002, and require disclosure of the nature of the guarantee, the maximum potential amount of future payments that the guarantor could be required to make under the guarantee, and the current amount of the liability, if any, for the guarantor's obligations under the guarantee. The recognition requirements of FIN 45 are to be applied prospectively to guarantees issued or modified after December 31, 2002. The Company has reviewed the provisions of FIN 45 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flow.

In January 2003, the FASB issued FASB Interpretation No. 46 ("FIN 46"), Consolidation of Variable Interest Entities. The objective of this interpretation is to provide guidance on how to identify a variable interest entity ("VIE") and determine when the assets, liabilities, noncontrolling interests, and results of operations of a VIE need to be included in a company's consolidated financial statements. A company that holds variable interests in an entity will need to consolidate the entity if the company's interest in the VIE is such that the company will absorb a majority of the VIE's expected losses and/or receive a majority of the entity's expected residual returns, if they occur. FIN 46 also requires additional disclosures by primary beneficiaries and other significant variable interest holders. The provisions of this interpretation became effective upon issuance. The adoption of this standard is not expected to have a material impact on the Company's results of financial position, results of operations or cash flow.

3. Business Segments

The Company operates in two business segments: rental operations and investment services (including real estate acquisition, financing and broker/dealer services). The Company has identified these segments because this information is the basis upon which management makes decisions regarding resource allocation and performance assessment. The accounting policies of the reportable segments are the same as those described in the "Significant Accounting Policies". The Company's segments are located in the United States of America. The Company previously reported the performance of its segments based on Funds from

Operations ("FFO"); however, effective October 1, 2001 management changed its evaluation performance measure to Cash Available for Distribution ("CAD") as management believes that CAD represents a more accurate measure of the reportable segment's activity and is the basis for distributions paid to equity holders.

The Company defines CAD as: net income as computed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"); plus certain non-cash items included in the computation of net income (depreciation and amortization, certain non-cash compensation expenses and straight-line rent adjustments); plus investment services proceeds received from controlled partnerships; plus the net proceeds from the sale of land; less purchases of property and equipment ("Capital Expenditures") and payments for deferred leasing commissions, plus proceeds from (payments to) cash reserves established at the acquisition date of the property. Depreciation and amortization, non-cash compensation and straight-line rents are an adjustment to CAD, as these are non-cash items included in net income. Capital Expenditures, payments of deferred leasing commissions and the proceeds from (payments to) the funded reserve are an adjustment to CAD, as they represent cash items not reflected in income.

The funded reserve represents funds that the Company has set aside in anticipation of future capital needs. These reserves are typically used for the payment of Capital Expenditures, deferred leasing commissions and certain tenant allowances; however, there is no legal restrictions on their use and they may be used for any Company purpose. CAD should not be considered as an alternative to net income (determined in accordance with GAAP), as an indicator of the Company's financial performance, nor as an alternative to cash flows from operating activities (determined in accordance with GAAP), nor as a measure of the Company's liquidity, nor is it necessarily indicative of sufficient cash flow to fund all of the Company's needs. Other real estate companies may define CAD in a different manner. It is at the Company's discretion to retain a portion of CAD for operational needs. We believe that in order to facilitate a clear understanding of the results of the Company, CAD should be examined in connection with net income and cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities in the consolidated financial statements.

Cash dividends per share are declared and paid based on the total outstanding shares as of the record date and are typically paid in the quarter following the quarter that CAD is generated.

Cash distributions per partnership unit were based on the total outstanding units at the end of each calendar quarter. Cash available for distribution, as determined at the sole discretion of the general partner, was required to be distributed to unit holders within 90 days following the end of each calendar quarter. The cash distribution of approximately $7,622,000 for the CAD generated in the fourth quarter of 2001 was declared and paid in the first quarter of 2002. The cash distribution of approximately $6,597,000 for the CAD generated in the fourth quarter of 2000 was declared and paid in 2001.

4. Merger Transactions

The merger transactions described below involved the exchange of the Partnership's limited partner units for the minority interest holder's limited partnership units in seventeen Sponsored Partnerships. The Partnership recorded the minority interest acquisitions based on the fair value of assets and liabilities acquired. Costs incurred in connection with the mergers have been reflected as a cost of the minority interest acquisitions. The value of the merged entities' real estate was determined based on independent appraisals.

Effective October 1, 2000, the Partnership and six Sponsored Partnerships consummated a series of mergers pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "October 2000 Merger"). Under the terms of the October 2000 Merger, all limited partnership interests in the six Sponsored Partnerships outstanding on October 1, 2000 were exchanged for 7,204,716 new limited partnership units in the Partnership. The operations of the six merged Sponsored Partnerships consist of six commercial rental properties.

Effective January 1, 2000, the Partnership and three Sponsored Partnerships consummated a series of mergers pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "January 2000 Merger"). Under the terms of the January 2000 Merger, all limited partnership interests in the three Sponsored Partnerships outstanding on January 1, 2000 were exchanged for 4,999,972 new limited partnership units in the Partnership. The operations of the three merged Sponsored Partnerships consist of a residential apartment property and two commercial real estate properties.

Effective January 1, 1999, the Partnership and eight Sponsored Partnerships consummated a series of mergers pursuant to an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "1999 Merger"). Under the terms of the 1999 Merger, all limited partnership interests in the eight Sponsored Partnerships outstanding on January 1, 1999 were exchanged for 10,099,107 new limited partnership units in the Partnership. Additionally, the partnership interests held by the Partnership's existing general partner and limited partners were exchanged for 948,499 new general partnership units and 952,301 new limited partnership units, respectively. The operations of the merged Sponsored Partnerships consist of five commercial rental properties and three residential real estate properties.

4. Merger Transactions (continued)

Following the consummation of the mergers described above, the Partnership owned, directly and indirectly, 100% of the interests in each merged Sponsored Partnership. The merger transactions were structured as exchanges of partnership units and no cash was involved. The Partnership's consolidated financial statements include the full results of operations of the merged Sponsored Partnerships from the date of merger.

The following pro forma consolidated results of operations are presented as if the merger transactions had occurred at the beginning of the period presented:

5. Related Party Transactions

Investment in Affiliated Sponsored REITs

The Company typically retains a non-controlling common stock ownership interest in Sponsored REITs that it has organized. These ownership interests have virtually no economic benefit or risk. At December 31, 2002 and 2001, the Company had ownership interests of $41,000 and $0 in sixteen and ten Sponsored REITs, respectively, and is included in "Prepaid expenses and other assets" in the Consolidated Balance Sheets. During 1999 and 2000, the Company acquired 100% of the non-owned interests of certain Sponsored Partnerships (through a series of mergers) that it had previously organized.

The Company has in the past acquired by merger entities similar to the Sponsored REITs. The Company's business model for growth includes the potential acquisition by merger in the future of Sponsored REITs. However, the Company has no legal or any other enforceable obligation to acquire or to offer to acquire any Sponsored REIT at December 31, 2002. In addition, any offer (and the related terms and conditions) that might be made in the future to acquire any Sponsored REIT would require: the approval of the boards of directors of the Company and the Sponsored REIT; and the approval of the shareholders of the Sponsored REIT; and likely would require the approval of the shareholders of the Company.

Summarized financial information for the Sponsored REITs is as follows:

Interest

The Company is typically entitled to interest on funds advanced to syndicated REITs. The Company recognized interest income of $429,000, $552,000 and $402,000 for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively, relating to these loans.

Sponsored Entity Fees

The Company has provided syndication and real estate acquisition advisory services for the Sponsored REITs in 2002 and 2001 and Sponsored Partnerships prior to June 2000. Syndication and transaction fees from non-consolidated related entities amounted to approximately $26,811,000, $25,701,000 and $7,574,000 for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

Management Fees

Management fees range from 1% to 5% of collected rents and the applicable contracts are cancelable with 30 days' notice. Total management fee income from non-consolidated entities amounted to approximately $503,000, $412,000 and $178,000 for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively, and is included in "Interest and other" in the Consolidated Statements of Income.

6. Bank Note Payable

The Company has a revolving line of credit agreement (the "Loan Agreement") with a bank providing for borrowings at the Company's election up to $50,000,000. Borrowings under the Loan Agreement bear interest at either the bank's base rate or a variable LIBOR rate, as defined. There were no borrowings outstanding under the Loan Agreement as of December 31, 2002 and 2001.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

6. Bank Note Payable (continued)

The Loan Agreement includes restrictions on property liens and requires compliance with various financial covenants. Financial covenants include the maintenance of at least $1,500,000 in operating cash accounts, a minimum tangible net worth of $140,000,000 and compliance with various debt and operating income ratios, as defined in the Loan Agreement. The Company was in compliance with the Loan Agreement's financial covenants as of December 31, 2002 and 2001. The Loan Agreement matures on February 23, 2003.

The Company had arranged for Citizens Bank to provide a line of credit for the Company's senior officers in the maximum aggregate amount of $3 million. The borrowings under this line of credit were for the purpose of paying income taxes on equity interests in the Company issued to such senior officers as compensation. Loans under this line of credit had a term of one year and bear interest at the bank's prime rate plus 50 basis points. Each borrower secured the loan by pledging shares of the Company's Common Stock having an aggregate fair market value at the time of the loan of no less than twice the principal amount of the loan. Borrowings of $0 and $1,625,000 were outstanding to senior officers of the Company at December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively. The Company had agreed to purchase from Citizens Bank any such loan on which the borrower defaults. Following the purchase of the loan, the Company would have the same rights as Citizens Bank, including the right to foreclose on the pledged stock. At December 31, 2002 all repurchase agreements have been terminated and the Company has no obligation relating to such loans.

7. Shareholders' and Partners' Capital

General

In connection with the REIT conversion on January 1, 2002, the Partnership converted to a corporate entity. The changes in partners' capital prior to the REIT conversion were as follows:

7. Shareholders' and Partners' Capital (continued)

Changes in stockholders' equity as a result of and following the conversion to a corporation were as follows:

	Common Shares	Common Amount	Preferred	Additional Paid-in Capital
Balance, December 31, 2001	--	$ --	$ --	$ --
Exchange Partnership units for shares	24,586,249	2	--	199,761

Shares issued as compensation	43,998	--	--	604
Balance, December 31, 2002	24,630,247	$ 2	$ --	$ 192,743

In connection with the conversion to a corporation, 23,637,750 limited partnership units and 948,499 general partnership units were converted into common stock of the Company on a one-for-one basis.

In accordance with the terms of the Partnership's partnership agreement (the "Partnership Agreement"), the general partner was authorized to make quarterly distributions of cash. Cash distributions of approximately $7.6 million consisting of 2001 earnings, which were declared and paid as a common stock dividend in 2002, have been recorded as a reduction of the Company's additional paid in capital.

Partnership

Prior to the conversion of the Partnership into a corporation the Partnership's general partner had the exclusive right to manage the business of the Partnership and make certain amendments to the Partnership Agreement, without the consent or approval of the limited partners. The Partnership's limited partners did not take part in management and did not have any voting rights regarding the Partnership's operations. A majority in interest of the limited partners, with the consent of the general partner, could amend the Partnership Agreement, subject to certain limitations as defined in the Partnership Agreement. Except as provided for under certain Federal tax provisions described in the Partnership Agreement, net income or net losses from operations were allocated to all partners based on their percentage interest in the Partnership. Net profits or losses arising from a sale or other disposition of all or any portion of the Partnership's property or upon liquidation of the Partnership were allocated as follows:

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Net Profit -- The Partnership's net profits were allocated first to the extent of any partner's negative capital account balance, and thereafter in proportion with their percentage interest in the Partnership.

Net Losses -- The Partnership's net losses were allocated first to the extent of any partner's positive capital account balance, and thereafter in proportion with their percentage interest in the Partnership.

The Partnership's cash distributions were distributed to the limited partners and the general partner based on each partner's percentage interest in the Partnership.

General Partner

On December 30, 1999, FSP General Partner LLC (the "General Partner") was organized solely to hold the Partnership's general partner units, which were previously held by eight individuals. The General Partner's financial activities consisted of receiving cash distributions from the Partnership and paying such amounts to its members. The members of the General Partner functioned as officers and/or directors of the Partnership. The Partnership paid no fees or other compensation to the General Partner.

Equity-Based Compensation

In July 2002, July 2001, January 2001 and April 2000, the Company issued 43,998 shares, 149,131 units, 2,522 units and 230,000 units with a fair value of approximately $604,000, $1,715,000, $29,000 and $2,300,000, respectively to certain officers and employees of the Company. These units/shares were fully vested on the date of issuance. Equity-based compensation charges of $604,000, $1,744,000 and $2,300,000 are reported in the accompanying Consolidated Statements of Income for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001, and 2000, respectively.

8. Federal Income Tax Reporting

General

The Company has elected to be taxed as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). As a REIT, the Company generally is entitled to a tax deduction for dividends paid to its shareholders, thereby effectively subjecting the distributed net income of the Company to taxation at the shareholder level only. The Company must comply with a variety of restrictions to maintain its status as a REIT. These restrictions include the type of income it can earn, the type of assets it can hold, the number of shareholders it can have and the concentration of their ownership, and the amount of the Company's taxable income that must be distributed annually.

One such restriction is that the Company generally cannot own more than 10% of the voting power or value of the securities of any one issuer unless the issuer is itself a REIT or a taxable REIT subsidiary ("TRS"). In the case of TRSs, the Company's ownership of securities in all TRSs generally cannot exceed 20% of the value of all of the Company's assets and, when considered together with other non-real estate assets, cannot exceed 25% of the value of all of the Company's assets. Effective January 1, 2001, a subsidiary of the Company, FSP Investments, elected to be treated as a TRS. As a result, FSP Investments operates as a taxable corporation under the Code and has accounted for income taxes in accordance with the provisions of Statement of Financial Accounting Standard ("SFAS") No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes. Taxes are provided when FSP Investments has net profits for both financial statements and income tax purposes.

Income taxes are recorded based on the future tax effects of the difference between the tax and financial reporting bases of the Company's assets and liabilities. In estimating future tax consequences, potential future events are considered except for potential changes in income tax law or in rates.

Tax Components

The income tax expense reflected in the consolidated statement of income relates only to the TRS. The expense differs from the amounts computed by applying the Federal statutory rate of 35% to income before taxes as follows:

(in thousands)	For the Year Ended December 31, 2002
	-----	-----
Federal income tax expense at statutory rate	$ 1,128	35.0%
Increase (decrease) in taxes resulting from:
State income taxes, net of federal impact	197	6.1%
Other	(626)	(19.4%)
	-----	-----
Taxes on income	$ 699	21.7%

"Other" consists primarily of the tax benefit on cash bonuses accrued in 2001 but paid in 2002. Due to the conversion from a partnership into a corporation the bonus is treated as a permanent tax difference.

Taxes on income are a current tax expense. No deferred income taxes were provided as there were no temporary differences between the financial reporting basis and the tax basis of the TRS.

Rent expense was approximately $206,000, $196,000 and $184,000 for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively, and is included in selling, general and administration expenses in the Consolidated Statement of Income.

Retirement Plan

During 1999, the Company formed a retirement savings plan for eligible employees. Under the plan, the Company matches participant contributions up to $6,500 ($6,000 in 2000) annually per participant. The Company's total contribution under the plan amounted to approximately $105,000, $76,000 and $53,000 for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

10. Equity-Based Incentive Compensation Plan

On May 20, 2002, the stockholders of the Company approved the 2002 Stock Incentive Plan (the "Plan"). The Plan is an equity-based incentive compensation plan, and provides for the grants of up to a maximum of 2,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock ("Awards"). All of the Company's employees, officers, directors, consultants and advisors are eligible to be granted awards. Awards under the Plan are made at the discretion of the Company's Board of Directors, and have no vesting requirements.

10. Equity-Based Incentive Compensation Plan (continued)

Upon granting an Award, the Company will recognize compensation cost equal to the fair market value of the Company's common stock, as determined by the Company's Board of Directors, on the date of the grant.

An aggregate 43,998 shares of FSP Common Stock were issued to R. Scott MacPhee, an Executive Vice President of FSP Corp. and an Executive Vice President of each Sponsored REIT, in July 2002 under the 2002 Stock Incentive Plan.

A summary of shares available and granted under the plan and the related compensation costs is shown in the following table:

11. Subsequent Events

Dividends

On January 24, 2003, the Company declared a dividend of $.31 per share of Common Stock payable to stockholders of record as of January 24, 2003.

Merger

In January 2003 the Company entered into a merger agreement with thirteen Sponsored REITs ("Target REITs") providing for the acquisition by the Company of the Target REITs. The merger requires the approval of the shareholders of the Company as well as the shareholders of the Target REITs. If approved, the Company will issue approximately 25 million shares of its common stock for a 100% ownership interest in the Target REITs.

Sale of Property

In February 2003 the Company completed the sale of its Wesleyan Oaks apartment complex in Houston, Texas. The net selling price was approximately $6.2 million and the Company realized a gain of approximately $1.2 million on the sale.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Stockholders
FSP Forest Park IV Corp.
(a Delaware Corporation)

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of FSP Forest Park IV Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows, as well as the financial statement schedule listed in the accompanying index, for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2002. These financial statements and financial statement schedule are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and financial statement schedule based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and financial statement schedule are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and financial statement schedule. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements and financial statement schedule referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FSP Forest Park IV Corp. as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2002 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

FSP Forest Park IV Corp.
Notes to Financial Statements

1. Organization

FSP Forest Park IV Corp. (the "Company") was organized on March 29, 1999 as a Limited Partnership under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to purchase, own and operate a commercial office building located in Charlotte, North Carolina (the "Property"). The Property consists of a single-story modern office building that contains approximately 60,000 square feet of space situated on approximately 7.52 acres of land. The Company acquired the Property on July 8, 1999. The Company subsequently reorganized as a corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware effective January 1, 2001.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

ESTIMATES AND ASSUMPTIONS

The Company prepares its financial statements and related notes in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). These principles require management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

RECLASSIFICATIONS

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Certain balances in the 2001 and 2000 financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the 2002 presentation.

REAL ESTATE AND DEPRECIATION

Real estate assets are stated at the lower of cost or fair value, as appropriate, less accumulated depreciation.

Costs related to property acquisition and improvements are capitalized. Typical capital items include new roofs, site improvements, various exterior building improvements and major interior renovations. Funding for capital improvement typically is provided by cash set aside at the time the property was purchased.

Routine replacements and ordinary maintenance and repairs that do not extend the life of the asset are expensed as incurred. Typical expense items include interior painting, landscaping and minor carpet replacements. Funding for repairs and maintenance items typically is provided by cash flows from operating activities.

Depreciation is computed using the straight line method over the assets' estimated useful lives as follows:

Category	Years
-----	-----
Building - Commercial	39
Building Improvements	15-39
Furniture and equipment	5-7

F-36

FSP Forest Park IV Corp. Notes to Financial Statements

The following schedule reconciles the cost of the property as shown in the Offering Memorandum as to the amounts shown on the Company's Balance Sheet:

(in thousands)

Price per Offering Memorandum	$	6,215
Plus: Acquisition fees		117
Plus: Other		49
Total Acquisition Costs	$	6,381

These costs are reported in the Company's Balance Sheet as follows:

Land	$	1,210
Building		5,171
Total reported in Balance Sheet	$	6,381

The Company evaluates its assets used in operations by identifying indicators of impairment and by comparing the sum of the estimated undiscounted future cash flows for each asset to the asset's carrying value. When indicators of impairment are present and the sum of the undiscounted future cash flows is less than the carrying value of such asset, an impairment loss is recorded equal to the difference between the asset's current carrying value and its fair value based on discounting its estimated future cash flows. At December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000 no such indicators of impairment were identified.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

CASH-FUNDED RESERVES

The Company has set aside funds in anticipation of future capital needs of the property. Although these funds typically are used for the payment of real estate assets and deferred leasing commissions, there is no legal restriction on their use and they may be used for any company purpose.

MARKETABLE SECURITIES

The Company accounts for investments in debt securities under the provisions of SFAS No. 115, "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities". The Company typically has classified its debt securities as available-for-sale.

There were no investments in marketable securities at December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000.

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISKS

Cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments are financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to a concentration of credit risk. The Company maintains its cash balances and short-term investments principally in one bank which the Company believes to be creditworthy. The Company periodically assesses the financial condition of the bank and believes that the risk of loss is minimal. Cash balances held with various financial institutions frequently exceed the insurance limit of $100,000 provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

For the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000 rental income was derived from two tenants, The American Red Cross at 81% and Verizon at 19%. For the year ended December 31, 2000, rental income consisted solely of income received from The American Red Cross. As such, future receipts are dependent upon the financial strength of the lessees and their ability to perform under the lease agreements.

F-37

FSP Forest Park IV Corp.
Notes to Financial Statements

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company estimates that the carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, cash-funded reserves and restricted cash approximate their fair values based on their short-term maturity and prevailing interest rates.

STEP RENT RECEIVABLE

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Certain leases provide for fixed increases over the life of the lease. Rental revenue is recognized on the straight-line basis over the related lease term; however, billings by the Company are based on required minimum rentals in accordance with the lease agreements. Step rent receivable, which is the cumulative revenue recognized in excess of amounts billed by the Company, is $138,000, $111,000 and $68,000 at December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

DEFERRED LEASING COMMISSIONS

Deferred leasing commissions represent external leasing costs incurred in the leasing of commercial space. These costs are capitalized and are amortized on a straight-line basis over the weighted-average remaining life of the related leases. Amortization expense of approximately $9,300, $9,300 and $0 is included in the Company's Statement of Operations for the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

Payments for deferred leasing commissions in 2002, 2001 and 2000 amounted to $0, $0 and $47,000, respectively, which is being amortized over five years in respect of the leases. Details of the deferred leasing commissions as of December 31:

	-----	-----	-----
	(REIT)	(REIT)	(Limited Partnership)
Cost	$ 47,000	$ 47,000	$ 47,000
Accumulated amortization	18,600	9,300	--
Book value	$ 28,400	$ 37,700	$ 47,000
	=====	=====	=====

The estimated annual amortization expense for the five years succeeding December 31, 2002 are as follows:

2003	$	9,300
2004	$	9,300
2005	$	9,300
2006	$	500

SYNDICATION FEES

Syndication fees are selling commissions and other costs associated with the initial offering of the Company's preferred shares. Such costs, in the amount of $685,000 have been reported as a reduction in the Stockholders' Equity in the Company's Balance Sheets.

FSP Forest Park IV Corp.
Notes to Financial Statements

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

REVENUE RECOGNITION

The Company has retained substantially all of the risks and benefits of ownership of the Company's commercial property and accounts for its leases as operating leases. Rental income from leases, which may include rent concession (including free rent and tenant improvement allowances) and scheduled increases in rental rates during the lease term, is recognized on a straight-line basis. The Company does not have any percentage rent arrangements with its commercial property tenants. Reimbursable costs are included in rental income in the period earned. A schedule showing the components of rental revenue is shown below.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

(in thousands)	Year Ended December 31,
	2002	2001	2000
	(REIT)	(REIT)	(Limited Partnership)
Income from leases	$ 780	$ 764	$ 608
Straight-line rent adjustment	27	43	45
Reimbursable expenses	56	45	8
Total	863	852	661

INTEREST AND OTHER

Interest income and other income are recognized when the related services are performed and the earnings process is complete.

INCOME TAXES

The Company has elected to be taxed as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a REIT, the Company generally is entitled to a tax deduction for dividends paid to its shareholders, thereby effectively subjecting the distributed net income of the Company to taxation at the shareholder level only. The Company must comply with a variety of restrictions to maintain its status as a REIT. These restrictions include the type of income it can earn, the type of assets it can hold, the number of shareholders it can have and the concentration of their ownership, and the amount of the Company's taxable income that must be distributed annually.

NET INCOME PER SHARE

The Company follows Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 128 "Earnings per Share", which specifies the computation, presentation and disclosure requirements for the Company's net income per share. Basic net income per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period. Diluted net income per share reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue shares were exercised or converted into shares. There were no potential dilutive shares outstanding at December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000. Subsequent to the completion of the offering of preferred shares, the holders of common stock are not entitled to share in any income. Notes to Financial Statements

3. Recent Accounting Standards

In August 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 143, "Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations," which addresses financial accounting and reporting for obligations associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets and the associated asset retirement costs. This Statement requires that the fair value of a liability for an asset retirement obligation be recognized in the period in which it is incurred if a reasonable estimate of the fair value can be made. The associated asset retirement costs are capitalized as part of the carrying amount of the long-lived asset. This Statement will be effective at the beginning of 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 143 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

In October 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 144 "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets". This Statement supersedes SFAS No. 121 and requires that long-lived assets that are to be disposed of by sale be measured at the lower of book value or fair value less costs to sell. SFAS No. 144 retains the fundamental provisions of SFAS 121 for (a) recognition and measurement of the impairment of long-lived assets to be held and used, and (b) measurement of long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale, but broadens the definition of what constitutes a discontinued operation and how the results of a discontinued operation are to be measured and presented. This Statement was effective at the beginning of 2002. The impact of adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows. The Company does not have any real estate assets that it considers "held for sale" at December 31, 2002.

In April 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 145 "Rescission of FASB Statement Nos. 4, 44, and 64, Amendment of SFAS 13, and Technical Corrections". This Statement rescinds SFAS No. 4, "Reporting Gains and Losses from Extinguishment of Debt", and an amendment of that Statement, SFAS No. 64, "Extinguishments of Debt Made to Satisfy Sinking-Fund Requirements". This Statement amends SFAS No. 13, "Accounting for Leases". This Statement also amends other existing authoritative pronouncements to make various technical corrections, clarify meanings or describe their applicability under changed conditions. This statement will be effective for the Company's fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 145 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

In July 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146 "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities". This statement was effective January 1, 2003. SFAS No. 146 replaces current accounting literature and requires the recognition of costs associated with exit or disposal activities when they are incurred rather than at the date of a commitment to an exit or disposal plan. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of this statement will have a material effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

4. Income Taxes

The Company files as a REIT under Sections 856-860 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. In order to qualify as a REIT, the Company is required to distribute at least 90% of its taxable income to shareholders and to meet certain asset and income tests as well as certain other requirements. The Company will generally not be liable for federal income taxes, provided it satisfies their requirements. Even as a qualified REIT, the Company is subject to certain state and local taxes on its income and property.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

At December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, the Company's net tax basis of its real estate assets approximates the amount set forth in the Company's Balance Sheet.

5. Cash Available for Distribution

The Company evaluates its performance based on Cash Available for Distribution ("CAD") as management believes that CAD represents the most accurate measure of the Company's activity. CAD is the basis for distributions paid to equity holders.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

The Company defines CAD as: net income as computed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"); plus certain non-cash items included in the computation of net income (depreciation and amortization, certain non-cash compensation expenses and straight line rent adjustments); plus funds raised by the issuance of shares; plus the net proceeds from the sale of land; less purchases of real estate assets, property and equipment ("Capital Expenditures") payments for deferred leasing commissions and payments for deferred lease origination costs; plus (less) proceeds from (payments to) cash reserves established at the acquisition date of the property (cash-funded reserves). Depreciation and amortization, non-cash compensation and straight-line rents are an adjustment to CAD, as these are non-cash items included in net income. Capital Expenditures, payments of deferred leasing commissions and payments for deferred lease origination costs and the proceeds from (payments to) the funded reserve are an adjustment to CAD, as they represent cash items not reflected in income. CAD should not be considered as an alternative to net income (determined in accordance with GAAP), as an indicator of the Company's financial performance, nor as an alternative to cash flows from operating activities (determined in accordance with GAAP), nor as a measure of the Company's liquidity, nor is it necessarily indicative of sufficient cash flow to fund all of the Company's needs. Other real estate companies may define CAD in a different manner. It is at the Company's discretion to retain a portion of CAD for operational needs. We believe that in order to facilitate a clear understanding of the results of the Company, CAD should be examined in connection with net income and cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities in the financial statements.

6. Capital Stock

PREFERRED STOCK

Generally, each holder of Shares of Preferred Stock is entitled to receive ratably all income and dividends, if any, declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available. The right to receive dividends shall be non-cumulative, and no right to dividends shall accrue by reason of the fact that no dividend has been declared in any prior year. Each holder of Shares will be entitled to receive, to the extent that funds are available therefore, $100,000 per Share, before any payment to the holder of Common Stock, out of distributions to stockholders upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the Company; the balance of any such funds available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Shares and the holder of Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares held by each; provided, however, that for these purposes, one share of Common Stock will be deemed to equal one-tenth of a share of Preferred Stock.

In addition to certain voting rights provided in the corporate agreements, the holder of Shares, acting by consent of at least 51%, shall have the further right to approve or disapprove a proposed sale of the Property, the merger of the Company with any other entity and amendments to the corporate charter. A vote of the holders of 66.67% of the Shares is required for the issue of any additional shares of capital stock. Holders of Shares have no redemption or conversion rights.

COMMON STOCK

Franklin Street Properties Corp. (FSP), is the sole holder of the Company's Common Stock. FSP has the right, as one class together with the holders of Preferred Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the Company and to vote on all matters except those voted by the holders of Shares of Preferred Stock. Subsequent to the completion of the offering of the preferred shares the holders of common shares are not entitled to receive any income, nor shall the Company declare or pay any cash dividends on shares of Common Stock.

7. Related Party Transactions

The Company executed a management agreement with FSP Property Management LLC, an affiliate of FSP, that provides for a management fee equal to 1% of collected revenues and is cancelable with 30 days notice by either party. For the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000 fees incurred under the agreement were

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

$7,840, $5,730 and $6,073, respectively.

8. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company, as lessor, has minimum future rentals due under non-cancelable operating leases as follows:

	Year Ended December 31, -----	Amount -----
(in thousands)
	2003	$ 796
	2004	813
	2005	830
	2006	678
	2007	691
	Thereafter	763

		$ 4,571

In addition, the lessees are liable for real estate taxes and certain operating expenses of the property.

Upon acquiring the commercial rental property in July, 1999, the Company was assigned the lease agreement between the seller of the Property and the existing tenant. The Company has also signed a new lease since the purchase of the property. The original lease periods range from five to ten years with renewal options.

9. Subsequent Event

The Company has entered into a merger agreement with its common shareholder, Franklin Street Properties Corp ("FSP"). In January 2003 FSP filed a proxy statement with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission indicating its intent to acquire the preferred stock interests of the Company and twelve additional REITs. The merger requires the approval of the shareholders of the Company as well as the shareholders of the twelve additional REITs and the shareholders of FSP. If approved, FSP will issue shares of its common stock in exchange for a 100% ownership interest in the Company.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Stockholders
FSP Forest Park IV Corp.
(a Delaware Corporation)

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of FSP Forest Park IV Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) as of December 31, 2001 and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FSP Forest Park IV Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) at December 31, 2001, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2001, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

FSP FOREST PARK IV CORP.
(A DELAWARE CORPORATION)
NOTES ACCOMPANYING FINANCIAL STATEMENT

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

ORGANIZATION

FSP Forest Park IV was organized on December 26, 2000 as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware to purchase, own and operate an office building located in Charlotte, North Carolina (the "Property"). The Property consists of a single-story modern office building that contains approximately 60,000 square feet of space situated on 7.52 acres of land. The Corporation acquired the Property on July 8, 1999.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

In December 2000, the limited partners of FSP Forest Park IV Limited Partnership approved the conversion from a partnership into a corporation and the subsequent election to be taxed as a real estate investment trust ("REIT"). The conversion, which was effective January 1, 2001, was accomplished by merging FSP Forest Park IV Limited Partnership with and into FSP Forest Park IV Corp. Under the terms of the Plan of Merger dated December 7, 2000, each unit of limited partnership interest was exchanged for one share of preferred stock in the corporation; the 5% general partnership interest was exchanged for one share of common stock in the corporation.

METHOD OF ACCOUNTING

The Company maintains its books and records on the accrual method of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

For purposes of the statements of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

INCOME TAXES

The Company has elected and intends to maintain its election as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a result, the Company generally will not be subject to federal taxation to the extent it distributes 90% of its REIT taxable income to its shareholders and satisfies certain other requirements. Accordingly, no provision for federal or state income taxes has been included in the accompanying financial statements.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

SYNDICATION FEES

Syndication fees are selling commissions and other costs associated with the initial offering of the Company's equity. Such costs, in the amount of $685,199, have been previously reported as a reduction in the stockholders' equity.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

Rental income, which includes scheduled increases over the lease term, is recognized on a straight-line basis. Income recognized on a straight-line basis differed from income that would have accrued in accordance with the leases by $42,817 in 2001.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

NOTES ACCOMPANYING FINANCIAL STATEMENT

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES: (CONTINUED)

PROPERTY AND DEPRECIATION

Rental property is carried at cost. Depreciation is provided for in amounts sufficient to relate the cost of depreciable assets to operations over their estimated service lives of 39 years for real property by use of the straight-line method for financial reporting. Depreciation was $129,996 for the year ended December 31, 2001.

DEFERRED LEASING COSTS

The financial statements include intangible assets, representing leasing commissions, which are amortized over a period of 60 months. Amortization was $9,347 for the year ended December 31, 2001.

2. CAPITAL STOCK:

PREFERRED STOCK

Each holder of Shares of Preferred Stock is entitled to receive ratably all dividends, if any, declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available. The right to receive dividends shall be non-cumulative, and no right to dividends shall accrue by reason of the fact that no dividend has been declared in any prior year. Each holder of Shares will be entitled to receive, to the extent that funds are available therefore, $100,000 per Share, before any payment to the holder of Common Stock, out of distributions to stockholders upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the Company; the balance of any such funds available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Shares and the holder of Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares held by each; provided, however, that for these purposes, one share of Common Stock will be deemed to equal one-tenth of a share of Preferred Stock.

The Company declared a dividend in December 2001 to holders of record on December 31, 2001. These dividends, in the amount of $143,364, were paid in 2002 and have been accrued and reflected in Stockholders' Equity.

In addition to certain voting rights provided in the corporate agreements, the holder of Shares, acting by consent of at least 51%, shall have the further right to approve or disapprove a proposed sale of the Property, the merger of the Company with any other entity and amendments to the corporate charter, and vote on the election and certain changes to the Board of Directors. A vote of the holders of 66.67% of the Shares is required for the issue of any additional shares of capital stock. Holders of Shares have the right, as one class together with the holder of Common Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the company. Holders of Shares have no redemption or conversion rights.

COMMON STOCK

Franklin Street Properties Corp. (FSP), formerly Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership is the sole holder of the Company's Common Stock. FSP has the right, as one class together with the holders of Preferred Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the Company and to vote on all matters except those voted by the holders of Shares of Preferred Stock. The Company shall not declare or pay any cash dividends on shares of Common Stock.

FSP FOREST PARK IV CORP.
 (A DELAWARE CORPORATION)
 NOTES ACCOMPANYING FINANCIAL STATEMENT

3. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS:

A management agreement was executed on December 1, 2001 between the Company and FSP Property Management LLC, an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. The agreement provides for a total management fee equal to 1% of collected revenues. The affiliate's portion of the fees earned and paid was $5,730 for the year ended December 31, 2001.

Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership operated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. On January 1, 2002, the limited partnership merged into Franklin Street Properties Corp (FSP), the Common Shareholder, and will operate in a manner intended to qualify as a real estate investment trust ("REIT") for federal income tax purposes.

4. LEASES:

The Company, as lessor, has minimum future rentals due under noncancellable operating leases as follows:

Year Ended December 31, -----	Amount -----
2002	$ 779,916
2003	796,323
2004	812,936
2005	829,689
2006	678,217
Thereafter	1,512,756

	$5,409,837

In addition, the lessees are liable for real estate taxes and operating expenses as direct expenses to the lessees.

5. CONCENTRATIONS OF RISK:

For the year ended December 31, 2001, 100% of the rental income was derived from two lessees. As such future rental receipts are dependent upon the financial strength of the lessee and its ability to perform under the lease agreement.

The Company maintains their cash accounts at one financial institution. The balances, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. At December 31, 2001, the Company had cash on deposit exceeding the insured limit by $750,378.

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

ORGANIZATION

The Partnership was organized on March 29, 1999 as a Limited Partnership under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to purchase, own and operate an office building located in Charlotte, North Carolina (the "Property"). The Property consists of a single-story modern office building that contains approximately 60,000 square feet of space situated on 7.52 acres of land. The Partnership acquired the Property on July 8, 1999.

In July 1999, the Partnership completed a private offering of 78 Limited Partner units at $100,000 per unit.

METHOD OF ACCOUNTING

The Partnership maintains its books and records on the accrual method of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

For purposes of the statements of cash flows, the Partnership considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

INCOME TAXES

The financial statements do not include a provision for income taxes because the Partnership does not incur federal or state income taxes. Instead, its earnings and losses are included in the partners' respective income tax returns.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

SYNDICATION FEES

Syndication fees are selling commissions and other costs associated with the offering of partnership units. Such costs have been previously reported as a reduction in the Limited Partners' Equity.

F-61

FSP FOREST PARK IV LIMITED PARTNERSHIP (a Massachusetts Limited Partnership)

REVENUE RECOGNITION

Rental income, which includes scheduled increases over the lease term, is recognized on a straight-line basis. Income recognized on a straight-line basis differed from income that would have accrued in accordance with the leases by $44,904. Rental payments received in advance are deferred until earned. Two tenants occupied 88% of the Property at December 31, 2000.

PROPERTY AND DEPRECIATION

Rental property is carried at cost. Depreciation is provided for in amounts sufficient to relate the cost of depreciable assets to operations over their estimated service lives of 39 years for real property by use of the straight-line method for financial reporting. Depreciation was $123,544 for the year ended December 31, 2000.

DEFERRED LEASING COSTS

The financial statements include intangible assets, representing leasing commissions, which are amortized over a period of 60 months.

NOTE 2 - PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT

Cash flow from operations, as defined by the Partnership Agreement, is first used to repay any loans from the General Partner and then 95% to the Limited Partners and 5% to the General Partner. If in any year the 95% distribution to the Limited Partners does not provide an 8% return on their capital contribution, the remaining 5% will be allocated to the Limited Partners in an amount necessary to provide an 8% annual return. In the event that 100% of the cash flow in any year does not provide the Limited Partners with an 8% return, there is no cumulative or make-up feature. Profits and losses will generally be allocated to partners based on their respective ownership interests. If cash flow distributions differ in proportion to respective ownership interests, profits will be allocated in accordance with the Partnership Agreement.

During the period from January 1, 2000 through December 31, 2000, the Partnership made the following distributions to the investor limited partners: $111,072 on February 15, 2000 for the quarter ended December 31, 1999; $102,960 on May 15, 2000 for the quarter ended March 31, 2000; $114,114 on August 15, 2000 for the quarter ended June 30, 2000; and $121,914 on November 29, 2000 for the quarter ended September 30, 2000. Distributions payable of $116,064 for the quarter ended December 31, 2000 were paid on January 30, 2001. Total distributions made to the investor limited partners were $566,124 and include $455,052 for the twelve months ended December 31, 2000 and $111,072 related to the fourth quarter of 1999.

In addition to the voting rights provided for in the Partnership Agreement, the Limited Partners, acting by consent of at least 51%, shall have the further right to approve or disapprove a proposed sale of the Property and, subject to certain conditions, to amend the Partnership Agreement, merge or dissolve the Partnership.

The Partnership shall terminate on December 31, 2035, unless earlier by events described in the Partnership Agreement.

NOTE 3 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

A management agreement was executed on July 8, 1999 between the Partnership and FSP Property Management LLC, an affiliate of the General Partner. The agreement provides for a total management fee equal to 5% of collected revenues. The affiliate's portion of the fee earned was $6,073 for the year with $628 owed at December 31, 2000.

The General Partner did not receive equity distributions for the year ended December 31, 2000.

NOTE 4 - LEASES

The Partnership, as lessor, has minimum future rentals due under noncancellable operating leases as follows:

Year Ended

December 31, -----	Amount -----
2001	$ 764,383
2002	779,916
2003	796,323
2004	812,936
2005	829,689
Thereafter	2,132,200

	$6,115,447

In addition, the lessee is liable for real estate taxes and operating expenses as direct expenses to the lessee.

F-63

FSP FOREST PARK IV LIMITED PARTNERSHIP
(a Massachusetts Limited Partnership)

Notes to Financial Statements

NOTE 5 - CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

The Partnership maintains their cash accounts at one financial institution. The balances, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. At December 31, 2000, the Partnership had cash on deposit exceeding the insured limit by $1,134,683.

NOTE 6 - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS - MERGER

During 2000, the Partnership voted to merge into FSP Forest Park IV Corp. (a Delaware Corporation). The merger was effective on January 1, 2001 whereby all Limited Partner units in the Partnership were exchanged for shares of preferred stock in the Corporation.

The merger will be accounted for as an exchange of securities of companies under common control in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). For federal income tax purposes, the merger will be treated as a "tax free" transaction pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code.

The Corporation plans to make an election to be taxed as a Real Estate Investment Trust (REIT) under Section 856 of the Internal Revenue Code for the year 2001. Although the Company believes that it will be organized and will operate in a manner necessary to satisfy the requirements for taxation as a REIT under the Code, no assurances can be given that the Company will be able to so operate for all future periods.

If the Company qualifies as a REIT, it generally will not be subject to federal corporate income taxes on its net income to the extent that the income is currently distributed to stockholders. In addition, there are numerous qualification requirements relative to sources of income, nature of assets, amount of distributions and the ownership of stock that may affect the taxable income of the Company.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Partners
FSP Forest Park IV Limited Partnership
(a Massachusetts Limited Partnership)
Wakefield, Massachusetts

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of FSP Forest Park IV Limited Partnership (A Massachusetts Limited Partnership), as of December 31, 1999, and the related statements of operations, changes in partners' equity and cash flows for the period March 29, 1999 (date of inception) to December 31, 1999. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Partnership's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FSP Forest Park IV Limited Partnership (a Massachusetts Limited Partnership) as of December 31, 1999, and the results of operations and its cash flows for the period March 29, 1999 (Inception) to December 31, 1999, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

Notes to Financial Statements

1. Organization

FSP Gael Apartments Corp. (the "Company") was organized on May 30, 2000 as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware to purchase, own and operate a luxury apartment complex located in Houston, Texas (the "Property"). The Property consists of 210 luxury apartments that total 187,000 square feet. The company took title to the Property on July 28, 2000 through a newly-formed limited partnership of which the Company is the sole limited partner, and a limited liability company wholly-owned by the Company is the sole general partner. Accordingly, the Company will own, directly or indirectly, all of the beneficial interest in the limited partnership. The Company will operate in a manner intended to qualify as a real estate investment trust ("REIT") for federal income tax purposes.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

ESTIMATES AND ASSUMPTIONS

The Company prepares its financial statements and related notes in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). These principles require management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

RECLASSIFICATIONS

Certain information in the 2001 and 2000 financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the 2002 presentation.

REAL ESTATE AND DEPRECIATION

Real estate assets are stated at the lower of cost or fair value, as appropriate, less accumulated depreciation.

Costs related to property acquisition and improvements are capitalized. Typical capital items include new roofs, site improvements, various exterior building improvements and major interior renovations. Funding for capital improvement typically is provided by cash set aside at the time the property was purchased.

Routine replacements and ordinary maintenance and repairs that do not extend the life of the asset are expensed as incurred. Typical expense items include interior painting, landscaping and minor carpet replacements. Funding for repairs and maintenance items typically is provided by cash flows from operating activities.

Depreciation is computed using the straight line method over the assets' estimated useful lives as follows:

Category	Years
-----	-----
Building - Apartments	27.5
Building Improvements	15 - 27.5
Furniture and equipment	5-7

F-82

FSP Gael Apartments Corp.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

CASH-FUNDED RESERVES

The Company has set aside funds in anticipation of future capital needs of the property. Although these funds typically are used for the payment of real estate assets and deferred leasing commissions, there is no legal restriction on the use and they may be used for any company purpose.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

RESTRICTED CASH

Restricted cash consists of tenant security deposits.

MARKETABLE SECURITIES

The Company accounts for investments in debt securities under the provisions of SFAS No. 115, "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities". The Company typically has classified its debt securities as available-for-sale.

There were no investments in marketable securities at December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000.

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISKS

Cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments are financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to a concentration of credit risk. The Company maintains its cash balances and short-term investments principally in one bank which the Company believes to be creditworthy. The Company periodically assesses the financial condition of the bank and believes that the risk of loss is minimal. Cash balances held with various financial institutions frequently exceed the insurance limit of $100,000 provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company estimates that the carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, cash-funded reserves and restricted cash approximate their fair values based on their short-term maturity and prevailing interest rates.

SYNDICATION FEES

Syndication fees are selling commissions and other costs associated with the initial offering of the Company's preferred shares. Such costs, in the amount of $1,815,141 have been reported as a reduction in the Stockholders' Equity in the Company's Balance Sheets.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

The Company's residential property leases are generally for terms of one year or less. Rental income from tenants of residential apartment properties is recognized in the period earned. Rent concessions, including free rent and leasing commissions are charged as a reduction of rental revenue.

INTEREST AND OTHER

Interest income and other income are recognized when the related services are performed and the earnings process is complete.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

INCOME TAXES

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

The Company has elected to be taxed as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a REIT, the Company generally is entitled to a tax deduction for dividends paid to its shareholders, thereby effectively subjecting the distributed net income of the Company to taxation at the shareholder level only. The Company must comply with a variety of restrictions to maintain its status as a REIT. These restrictions include the type of income it can earn, the type of assets it can hold, the number of shareholders it can have and the concentration of their ownership, and the amount of the Company's taxable income that must be distributed annually.

NET INCOME PER SHARE

The Company follows Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 128 "Earnings per Share", which specifies the computation, presentation and disclosure requirements for the Company's net income per share. Basic net income per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period. Diluted net income per share reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue shares were exercised or converted into shares. There were no potential dilutive shares outstanding at December 31, 2002. The denominator used for calculating basic and diluted net income per share is as follows:

	Year Ended December 31,
Weighted average number of preferred shares outstanding	212.5	212.5	212.5

3. Recent Accounting Standards

In August 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 143, "Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations," which addresses financial accounting and reporting for obligations associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets and the associated asset retirement costs. This Statement requires that the fair value of a liability for an asset retirement obligation be recognized in the period in which it is incurred if a reasonable estimate of the fair value can be made. The associated asset retirement costs are capitalized as part of the carrying amount of the long-lived asset. This Statement will be effective at the beginning of 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 143 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

In October 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 144 "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets". This Statement supersedes SFAS No. 121 and requires that long-lived assets that are to be disposed of by sale be measured at the lower of book value or fair value less costs to sell. SFAS No. 144 retains the fundamental provisions of SFAS 121 for (a) recognition and measurement of the impairment of long-lived assets to be held and used, and (b) measurement of long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale, but broadens the definition of what constitutes a discontinued operation and how the results of a discontinued operation are to be measured and presented. This Statement was effective at the beginning of 2002. The impact of adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows. The Company does not have any real estate assets that it considers "held for sale" at December 31, 2002.

In April 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 145 "Rescission of FASB Statements Nos. 4, 44, and 64, Amendment of SFAS 13, and Technical Corrections". This Statement rescinds SFAS No. 4, "Reporting Gains and Losses from Extinguishment of Debt", and an amendment of that Statement, SFAS No. 64, "Extinguishments of Debt Made to Satisfy Sinking-Fund Requirements". This Statement amends SFAS No. 13, "Accounting for Leases". This Statement also amends other existing authoritative pronouncements to make various technical corrections, clarify meanings or describe their applicability under changed conditions. This statement will be effective for the Company's fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 145 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

F-84

FSP Gael Apartments Corp.

3. Recent Accounting Standards (continued)

In July 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146 "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities". This statement was effective January 1, 2003. SFAS No. 146 replaces current accounting literature and requires the recognition of costs associated with exit or disposal activities when they are incurred rather than at the date of a commitment to an exit or disposal plan. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of this statement will have a material effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

4. Income Taxes

The Company files as a REIT under Sections 856-860 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. In order to qualify as a REIT, the Company is required to distribute at least 90% of its taxable income to shareholders and to meet certain asset and income tests as well as certain other requirements. The Company will generally not be liable for federal income taxes, provided it satisfies their requirements. Even as a qualified REIT, the Company is subject to certain state and local taxes on its income and property.

For the period ended December 31, 2000, the Company incurred a net operating loss for income tax purposes of approximately $416,000 that can be carried forward until it expires in the year 2020.

At December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000 the Company's net tax basis of its real estate assets approximates the amount set forth in the Company's Balance Sheet.

The following schedule reconciles GAAP Net Income to Taxable Income subject to dividend requirements:

5. Cash Available for Distribution

The Company evaluates its performance based on Cash Available for Distribution ("CAD") as management believes that CAD represents the most accurate measure of the Company's activity. CAD is the basis for distributions paid to equity holders.

The Company defines CAD as: net income as computed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"); plus certain non-cash items included in the computation of net income (depreciation and certain non-cash compensation expenses); plus funds raised by the issuance of shares; plus the net proceeds from the sale of land; less purchases of real estate assets, property and equipment ("Capital Expenditures"), plus (less) proceeds from (payments to) cash reserves established at the acquisition date of the property (cash funded reserves). Depreciation and non-cash compensation are an adjustment to CAD, as these are non-cash items included in net income. Capital Expenditures and the proceeds from (payments to) the funded reserve are an adjustment to CAD, as they represent cash items not reflected in income. CAD should not be considered as an alternative to net income (determined in accordance with GAAP), as an indicator of the Company's financial performance, nor as an alternative to cash flows from operating activities (determined in accordance with GAAP), nor as a measure of the Company's liquidity, nor is it necessarily indicative of sufficient cash flow to fund all of the Company's needs. Other real estate companies may define CAD in a different manner. It is at the Company's discretion to retain a portion of CAD for operational needs. We believe that in order to facilitate a clear understanding of the results of the Company, CAD should be examined in connection with net income and cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities in the financial statements.

The calculation of CAD is shown in the following table:

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

(in thousands)	2002	December 31, 2001	2000
Net income (loss)	$ 977	$ 1,006	$ (460)

Purchase of land and building and improvements	--	--	(18,101)
Establish funded reserve	--	--	(616)
Cash Available for Distribution	$ 1,515	$ 1,544	$ 504

The Company's cash distributions are summarized as follows:

(in thousands)	Total Cash Dividends
Quarter Paid	2002	2001	2000
First Quarter	$ 400	$ 372	$ --
Second Quarter	406	370	--
Third Quarter	390	384	--
Fourth Quarter	370	400	157
Dividends paid	$ 1,566	$ 1,526	$ 157

Cash distributions are declared and paid based on the total outstanding shares as of the record date and are typically paid in the quarter following the quarter that CAD is generated.

6. Capital Stock

PREFERRED STOCK

Generally each holder of Shares of Preferred Stock is entitled to receive ratably all income and all dividends, if any, declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available. The right to receive dividends shall be non-cumulative, and no right to dividends shall accrue by reason of the fact that no dividend has been declared in any prior year. Each holder of Shares will be entitled to receive, to the extent that funds are available therefore, $100,000 per Share, before any payment to the holder of Common Stock, out of distributions to stockholders upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the Company; the balance of any such funds available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Shares and the holder of Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares held by each; provided, however, that for these purposes, one share of Common Stock will be deemed to equal one-tenth of a share of Preferred Stock.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

In addition to certain voting rights provided in the corporate agreements, the holder of Shares, acting by consent of at least 51%, shall have the further right to approve or disapprove a proposed sale of the Property, the merger of the Company with any other entity and amendments to the corporate charter. A vote of the holders of 66.67% of the Shares is required for the issue of any additional shares of capital stock. Holders of Shares have no redemption or conversion rights.

COMMON STOCK

Franklin Street Properties Corp. ("FSP"), is the sole holder of the Company's Common Stock. FSP has the right, as one class together with the holders of Preferred Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the Company and to vote on all matters except those voted by the holders of Shares of Preferred Stock. Subsequent to the completion of the offering of the preferred shares the holders of common shares are not entitled to receive any income, nor shall the Company declare or pay any cash dividends on shares of Common Stock.

7. Related Party Transactions

The Company executed a management agreement with FSP Property Management LLC, an affiliate of FSP, that provides for a management fee equal to 1% of collected revenues and is cancelable with 30 days notice by either party. For the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001 and the period ended December 31, 2000, fees incurred under the agreement were $27,000, $26,000 and $10,000, respectively.

An acquisition fee of $425,000 and other costs totaling $141,000 were paid in 2000 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. Such fees were included in the cost of the real estate.

Syndication fees of $1,700,000 were paid in 2000 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder for services related to syndication of the Company's preferred stock.

During 2000, the Company borrowed and repaid in full:

Note payable to FSP, principal of $17,500,000 with interest equal to the Citizens Bank base rate (9.5%). Interest paid to the affiliate was $101,000.

A commitment fee of $691,000 was paid for obtaining the first mortgage loan. Such amount is included in interest expense on the Statement of Operations.

8. Subsequent Event

The Company has entered into a merger agreement with its common shareholder, Franklin Street Properties Corp ("FSP"). In January 2003 FSP filed a proxy statement with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission indicating its intent to acquire the preferred stock interests of the Company and twelve additional REITs. The merger requires the approval of the shareholders of the Company as well as the shareholders of the twelve additional REITs and the shareholders of FSP. If approved, FSP will issue shares of its common stock in exchange for a 100% ownership interest in the Company.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Stockholders
FSP Gael Apartments Corp.
(a Delaware Corporation)

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of FSP Gael Apartments Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) as of December 31, 2001 and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FSP Gael Apartments Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) at December 31, 2001, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2001, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

FSP GAEL APARTMENTS CORP.
(A CORPORATION)
NOTES ACCOMPANYING FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

ORGANIZATION

FSP Gael Apartments Corp. was organized on May 30, 2000 as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware to purchase, own and operate an existing luxury apartment complex, located in Houston, Texas (the "Property"). The Company took title to the Property on July 28, 2000 through a newly-formed limited partnership of which the Company is the sole limited partner, and a limited liability company wholly-owned by the Company is the sole general partner. Accordingly, the Company will own, directly or indirectly all of the beneficial interest in the limited partnership.

The Property consists of 210 luxury apartments that total 187,368 square feet. The Company will operate in a manner intended to qualify as a real estate investment trust ("REIT") for federal income tax purposes.

In October 2000, the Company completed a private offering of 212.5 shares of preferred stock at $100,000 per share.

METHOD OF ACCOUNTING

The Company maintains its books and records on the accrual method of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

For purposes of the statements of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

INCOME TAXES

The Company has elected and intends to maintain its election as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a result, the Company generally will not be subject to federal taxation to the extent it distributes 90% of its REIT taxable income to its shareholders' and satisfies certain other requirements. Accordingly, no provision for federal income taxes has been included in the accompanying financial statements.

For the period ended December 31, 2000, the Company incurred a net operating loss for income tax purposes approximately of $416,000 that can be carried forward until it expires in the year 2020.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

SYNDICATION FEES

Syndication fees are selling commissions and other costs associated with the initial offering of the Company's preferred shares. Such costs, in the amount of $1,815,141 have been reported as a reduction in the Stockholders' Equity.

(A CORPORATION)
NOTES ACCOMPANYING FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES: (CONTINUED)

REVENUE RECOGNITION

Rental income is recognized on an accrual basis. Rental payments received in advance are deferred until earned. All leases between the Company and the tenants of the Property are short-term operating leases.

PROPERTY AND DEPRECIATION

Rental property is carried at cost. Depreciation is provided for in amounts sufficient to relate the cost of depreciable assets to operations over their estimated service lives of 27.5 years for real property by use of the straight-line method for financial reporting. Depreciation was $537,783 for the year ended December 31, 2001.

2. CAPITAL STOCK:

PREFERRED STOCK

Each holder of Shares of Preferred Stock is entitled to receive ratably all dividends, if any, declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available. The right to receive dividends shall be non-cumulative, and no right to dividends shall accrue by reason of the fact that no dividend has been declared in any prior year. Each holder of Shares will be entitled to receive, to the extent that funds are available therefore, $100,000 per Share, before any payment to the holder of Common Stock, out of distributions to stockholders upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the Company; the balance of any such funds available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Shares and the holder of Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares held by each; provided, however, that for these purposes, one share of Common Stock will be deemed to equal one-tenth of a share of Preferred Stock.

The Company declared a dividend in December 2001 to holders of record on December 31, 2001. These dividends, in the amount of $399,500, were paid in 2002 and have been accrued and reflected in Stockholders' Equity.

In addition to certain voting rights provided in the corporate agreements, the holder of Shares, acting by consent of at least 51%, shall have the further right to approve or disapprove a proposed sale of the Property, the merger of the Company with any other entity and amendments to the corporate charter. A vote of the holders of 66.67% of the Shares is required for the issue of any additional shares of capital stock. Holders of Shares have no redemption or conversion rights.

During 2001, a majority interest of Preferred Stockholders voted to amend the corporate charter whereby allowing the Preferred Stockholders the right to elect and make certain changes to the Board of Directors.

COMMON STOCK

Franklin Street Properties Corp. (FSP), formerly Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership is the sole holder of the Company's Common Stock. FSP has the right, as one class together with the Holders of Preferred Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the Company and to vote on all matters except those voted by the holders of Shares of Preferred Stock. The Company shall not declare or pay any cash dividends on shares of Common Stock.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Independent Auditors' Report

To the Shareholders
 FSP Gael Apartments Corp.
 (a Delaware Corporation)
 Wakefield, Massachusetts

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of FSP Gael Apartments Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) as of December 31, 2000 and the related statements of income, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the period from May 30, 2000 (date of inception) to December 31, 2000. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FSP Gael Apartments Corp. NOTE 1 -- SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

ORGANIZATION

FSP Gael Apartments Corp. was organized on May 30, 2000 as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware to purchase, own and operate an existing luxury apartment complex, located in Houston, Texas (the "Property"). The Company took title to the Property on July 28, 2000 through a newly-formed limited partnership of which the Company is the sole limited partner, and a limited liability company wholly-owned by the Company is the sole general partner. Accordingly, the Company will own, directly or indirectly all of the beneficial interest in the limited partnership.

The Property consists of 209 luxury apartments that total 186,713 square feet. The Company acquired the Property on July 28, 2000 and will operate in a manner intended to qualify as a real estate investment trust ("REIT") for federal income tax purposes.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

In October 2000, the Company completed a private offering of 212.5 shares of preferred stock at $100,000 per share.

METHOD OF ACCOUNTING

The Company maintains its books and records on the accrual method of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

For purposes of the statements of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

INCOME TAXES

The Company has maintained and intends to maintain its election as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a result, the Company generally will not be subject to federal taxation to the extent it distributes 95% (90% for 2001) of its REIT taxable income to its shareholders' and satisfies certain other requirements. For the period ended December 31, 2000, the Company incurred a net operating loss for income tax purposes of approximately $416,000 that can be carried forward until it expires in the year 2020. Accordingly, no provision for federal income taxes has been included in the accompanying financial statements.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

FSP Goldentop Technology Center Corp.
Notes to Financial Statements

1. Organization

FSP Goldentop Technology Center Corp. (the "Company") was organized on August 16, 2000 as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware to purchase, own and operate an existing commercial office building located in San Diego, California (the "Property"). The Property consists of a two-story R&D/Office/Corporate Headquarters facility containing 141,000 total square feet of space situated on 8 acres of land. The Company acquired the Property on September 22, 2000.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

ESTIMATES AND ASSUMPTIONS

The Company prepares its financial statements and related notes in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). These principles require management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

RECLASSIFICATIONS

Certain information in the 2001 and 2000 financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the 2002 presentation.

REAL ESTATE AND DEPRECIATION

Real estate assets are stated at the lower of cost or fair value, as appropriate, less accumulated depreciation.

Costs related to property acquisition and improvements are capitalized. Typical capital items include new roofs, site improvements, various exterior building improvements and major interior renovations. Funding for capital improvement typically is provided by cash set aside at the time the property was purchased.

Routine replacements and ordinary maintenance and repairs that do not extend the life of the asset are expensed as incurred. Typical expense items include interior painting, landscaping and minor carpet replacements. Funding for repairs and maintenance items typically is provided by cash flows from operating activities.

Depreciation is computed using the straight line method over the assets' estimated useful lives as follows:

Category	Years

The following schedule reconciles the cost of the property as shown in the Offering Memorandum as to the amounts shown on the Company's Balance Sheet:

(in thousands)

Price per Offering Memorandum	$	18,900
Plus: Acquisition fees		463
Plus: Other acquisition costs		247

Total Acquisition Costs	$	19,610

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

These costs are reported in the Company's Balance Sheet as follows :

Land	$	4,427

The Company evaluates its assets used in operations by identifying indicators of impairment and by comparing the sum of the estimated undiscounted future cash flows for each asset to the asset's carrying value. When indicators of impairment are present and the sum of the undiscounted future cash flows is less than the carrying value of such asset, an impairment loss is recorded equal to the difference between the asset's current carrying value and its fair value based on discounting its estimated future cash flows. At December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, no such indicators of impairment were identified.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

CASH-FUNDED RESERVES

The Company has set aside funds in anticipation of future capital needs of the property. Although these funds typically are used for the payment of real estate assets and deferred leasing commissions, there is no legal restriction on their use and they may be used for any company purpose.

RESTRICTED CASH

Restricted cash consists of tenant security deposits.

MARKETABLE SECURITIES

The Company accounts for investments in debt securities under the provisions of SFAS No. 115, "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities". The Company typically has classified its debt securities as available-for-sale.

There were no investments in marketable securities at December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000.

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISKS

Cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments are financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to a concentration of credit risk. The Company maintains its cash balances and short-term investments principally in one bank which the Company believes to be creditworthy. The Company periodically assesses the financial condition of the bank and believes that the risk of loss is minimal. Cash balances held with various financial institutions frequently exceed the insurance limit of $100,000 provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

For the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001 and the period ended December 31, 2000, rental income was derived from one tenant, Northrup Grumman. As such, future receipts are dependent upon the financial strength of the lessee and its ability to perform under the lease agreement.

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company estimates that the carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, and cash-funded reserves approximate their fair values based on their short-term maturity and prevailing interest rates.

STEP RENT RECEIVABLE

Certain leases provide for fixed increases over the life of the lease. Rental revenue is recognized on the straight-line basis over the related lease term; however, billings by the Company are based on required minimum rentals in accordance with the lease agreements. Step rent receivable, which is the cumulative revenue recognized in excess of amounts billed by the Company, is $289,000, $193,000 and $42,000 at December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

SYNDICATION FEES

Syndication fees are selling commissions and other costs associated with the initial offering of the Company's preferred shares. Such costs, in the amount of $1,929,000 have been reported as a reduction in the Stockholders' Equity in the Company's Balance Sheets.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

The Company has retained substantially all of the risks and benefits of ownership of the Company's commercial property and accounts for its lease as an operating lease. Rental income from the lease, which may include rent concessions (including free rent and tenant improvement allowances) and scheduled increases in rental rates during the lease term, is recognized on a straight-line basis. The Company does not have any percentage rent arrangements with its commercial property tenant. Reimbursable costs are included in rental income in the period earned.

(in thousands)	Year Ended December 31,		Period Ended December, 31
	2002	2001	2000
Income from leases	$ 2,002	$ 1,947	$ 534
Straight-line rent adjustment	96	151	42
Reimbursable expenses	312	341	94
Total	$ 2,410	$ 2,439	$ 670

INTEREST AND OTHER

Interest income and other income are recognized when the related services are performed and the earnings process is complete.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

INCOME TAXES

The Company has elected to be taxed as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a REIT, the Company generally is entitled to a tax deduction for dividends paid to its shareholders, thereby effectively subjecting the distributed net income of the Company to taxation at the shareholder level only. The Company must comply with a variety of restrictions to maintain its status as a REIT. These restrictions include the type of income it can earn, the type of assets it can hold, the number of shareholders it can have and the concentration of their ownership, and the amount of the Company's taxable income that must be distributed annually.

NET INCOME PER SHARE

The Company follows Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 128 "Earnings per Share", which specifies the computation, presentation and disclosure requirements for the Company's net income per share. Basic net income per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period. Diluted net income per share reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue shares were exercised or converted into shares. There were no potential dilutive shares outstanding at December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000. The denominator used for calculating basic and diluted net income per share is as follows:

	Year Ended December 31,		Period Ended December 31,

3. Recent Accounting Standards

In August 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 143, "Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations," which addresses financial accounting and reporting for obligations associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets and the associated asset retirement costs. This Statement requires that the fair value of a liability for an asset retirement obligation be recognized in the period in which it is incurred if a reasonable estimate of the fair value can be made. The associated asset retirement costs are capitalized as part of the carrying amount of the long-lived asset. This Statement will be effective at the beginning of 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 143 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

In October 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 144 "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets". This Statement supersedes SFAS No. 121 and requires that long-lived assets that are to be disposed of by sale be measured at the lower of book value or fair value less costs to sell. SFAS No. 144 retains the fundamental provisions of SFAS 121 for (a) recognition and measurement of the impairment of long-lived assets to be held and used, and (b) measurement of long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale, but broadens the definition of what constitutes a discontinued operation and how the results of a discontinued operation are to be measured and presented. This Statement was effective at the beginning of 2002. The impact of adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows. The Company does not have any real estate assets that it considers "held for sale" at December 31, 2002.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

In April 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 145 "Rescission of FASB Statements Nos. 4, 44, and 64, Amendment of SFAS 13, and Technical Corrections". This Statement rescinds SFAS No. 4, "Reporting Gains and Losses from Extinguishment of Debt", and an amendment of that Statement, SFAS No. 64, "Extinguishments of Debt Made to Satisfy Sinking-Fund Requirements". This Statement amends SFAS No. 13, "Accounting for Leases". This Statement also amends other existing authoritative pronouncements to make various technical corrections, clarify meanings or describe their applicability under changed conditions. This statement will be effective for the Company's fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 145 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

F-118

FSP Goldentop Technology Center Corp. Notes to Financial Statements

3. Recent Accounting Standards (continued)

In July 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146 "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities". This statement was effective January 1, 2003. SFAS No. 146 replaces current accounting literature and requires the recognition of costs associated with exit or disposal activities when they are incurred rather than at the date of a commitment to an exit or disposal plan. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of this statement will have a material effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

4. Income Taxes

The Company files as a REIT under Sections 856-860 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. In order to qualify as a REIT, the Company is required to distribute at least 90% of its taxable income to shareholders and to meet certain asset and income tests as well as certain other requirements. The Company will generally not be liable for federal income taxes, provided it satisfies their requirements. Even as a qualified REIT, the Company is subject to certain state and local taxes on its income and property.

For the period ended December 31, 2000, the Company incurred a net operating loss for income tax purposes of approximately $358,000 that can be carried forward until it expires in the year 2020.

At December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000 the Company's net tax basis of its real estate assets approximates the amount set forth in the Company's Balance Sheets.

5. Cash Available for Distribution

The Company evaluates its performance based on Cash Available for Distribution ("CAD") as management believes that CAD represents the most accurate measure of the Company's activity. CAD is the basis for distributions paid to equity holders.

The Company defines CAD as: net income as computed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"); plus certain non-cash items included in the computation of net income (depreciation and amortization, certain non-cash compensation expenses and straight line rent adjustments); plus funds raised by the issuance of shares; plus the net proceeds from the sale of land; less purchases of real estate assets, property and equipment ("Capital Expenditures"), payments for deferred leasing commissions and payments for deferred lease origination costs; plus (less) proceeds from (payments to) cash reserves established at the acquisition date of the property (cash funded reserve). Depreciation and amortization, non-cash compensation and straight-line rents are an adjustment to CAD, as these are non-cash items included in net income. Capital Expenditures, payments of deferred leasing commissions and payments for deferred lease origination costs and the proceeds from (payments to) the funded reserve are an adjustment to CAD, as they represent cash items not reflected in income. CAD should not be considered as an alternative to net income (determined in accordance with GAAP), as an indicator of the Company's financial performance, nor as an alternative to cash flows from operating activities (determined in accordance with GAAP), nor as a measure of the Company's liquidity, nor is it necessarily indicative of sufficient cash flow to fund all of the Company's needs. Other real estate companies may define CAD in a different manner. It is at the Company's discretion to retain a portion of CAD for operational needs. We believe that in order to facilitate a clear understanding of the results of the Company, CAD should be examined in connection with net income and cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities in the financial statements.

The calculation of CAD is shown in the following table:

(in thousands)	Year Ended December 31,		Period E December
	2002	2001	2000
Net income (loss)	$ 1,627	$ 1,711	$ (38

Purchase of land and building and improvements	-	-	(19,61
Establish funded reserve	11	(16)	(83

Cash Available for Distribution	$ 1,931	$ 1,933	$ 46

The Company's cash distributions are summarized as follows:

(in thousands)	Year Ended December 31,		Period Decemb

First Quarter	$ 480	$ 467	$
Second Quarter	471	482

Fourth Quarter	497	479

Dividends paid	$ 1,915	$ 1,896	$

Cash distributions are declared and paid based on the total outstanding shares as of the record date and are typically paid in the quarter following the quarter that CAD is generated.

6. Capital Stock

PREFERRED STOCK

Generally, each holder of Shares of Preferred Stock is entitled to receive ratably all income and all dividends, if any, declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available. The right to receive dividends shall be non-cumulative, and no right to dividends shall accrue by reason of the fact that no dividend has been declared in any prior year. Each holder of Shares will be entitled to receive, to the extent that funds are available therefore, $100,000 per Share, before any payment to the holder of Common Stock, out of distributions to stockholders upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the Company; the balance of any such funds available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Shares and the holder of Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares held by each; provided, however, that for these purposes, one share of Common Stock will be deemed to equal one-tenth of a share of Preferred Stock.

In addition to certain voting rights provided in the corporate agreements, the holder of Shares, acting by consent of at least 51%, shall have the further right to approve or disapprove a proposed sale of the Property, the merger of the Company with any other entity and amendments to the corporate charter. A vote of the holders of 66.67% of the Shares is required for the issue of any additional shares of capital stock. Holders of Shares have no redemption or conversion rights.

COMMON STOCK

Franklin Street Properties Corp. ("FSP"), is the sole holder of the Company's Common Stock. FSP has the right, as one class together with the holders of Preferred Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the Company and to vote on all matters except those voted by the holders of Shares of Preferred Stock. The holders of common shares are not entitled to receive any income, nor shall the Company declare or pay any cash dividends on shares of Common Stock.

7. Related Party Transactions

The Company executed a management agreement with FSP Property Management LLC, an affiliate of FSP, that provides for a management fee equal to 1% of collected revenues and is cancelable with 30 days notice by either party. For the years ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, fees incurred under the agreement were $20,000, $19,000 and $6,000, respectively.

An acquisition fee of $463,000 and other costs totaling $199,000 were paid in 2000 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. Such fees were included in the cost of the real estate.

Syndication fees of $1,852,000 were paid in 2000 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder for services related to syndication of the Company's preferred stock.

During 2000, the Company borrowed and repaid in full:

Note payable to FSP, principal of $18,900,000 with interest equal to the Citizens Bank base. Interest paid to FSP was $57,000. The average interest rate during the time the loan was outstanding was 9.50%.

A commitment fee of $752,000 was paid to FSP for obtaining the first mortgage loan. Such amount is included in interest expense on the Statement of Operations.

	2005	2,174
	2006	2,235
	2007	1,149

		$ 9,730

In addition, the lessee is liable for real estate taxes and operating expenses as direct expenses to the lessee.

Upon acquiring the commercial rental property in September 2000, the Company was assigned the lease agreement between the seller of the Property and the existing tenant. The original lease period is seven years with renewal options.

9. Subsequent Event

The Company has entered into a merger agreement with its common shareholder, Franklin Street Properties Corp ("FSP"). In January 2003 FSP filed a proxy statement with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission indicating its intent to acquire the preferred stock interests of the Company and twelve additional REITs. The merger requires the approval of the shareholders of the Company as well as the shareholders of the twelve additional REITs and the shareholders of FSP. If approved, FSP will issue shares of its common stock in exchange for a 100% ownership interest in the Company.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Stockholders
FSP Goldentop Technology Center Corp.
(a Delaware Corporation)

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of FSP Goldentop Technology Center Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) as of December 31, 2001 and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FSP Goldentop Technology Center Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) at December 31, 2001, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES ACCOMPANYING FINANCIAL STATEMENT

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

ORGANIZATION

FSP Goldentop Technology Center Corp. was organized on August 16, 2000 as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware to purchase, own and operate an existing commercial building located in San Diego, California (the "Property"). The Property consists of a two-story R&D/Office/Corporate Headquarters facility containing 141,405 total square feet of space situated on 8 acres of land. The Company acquired the Property on September 22, 2000 and will operate in a manner intended to qualify as a real estate investment trust ("REIT") for federal income tax purposes.

In November 2000, the Company completed a private offering of 231.5 shares of preferred stock at $100,000 per share.

METHOD OF ACCOUNTING

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

The Company maintains its books and records on the accrual method of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

For purposes of the statements of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

INCOME TAXES

The Company has elected and intends to maintain its election as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a result, the Company generally will not be subject to federal taxation to the extent it distributes 90% of its REIT taxable income to its shareholders and satisfies certain other requirements. Accordingly, no provision for federal or state income taxes has been included in the accompanying financial statements.

For the period ended December 31, 2000, the Company incurred a net operating loss for income tax purposes approximately of $358,000 that can be carried forward until it expires in the year 2020.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

SYNDICATION FEES

Syndication fees are selling commissions and other costs associated with the initial offering of the Company's preferred shares. Such costs, in the amount of $1,928,647, have been reported as a reduction in the Stockholders' Equity.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

Rental income, which includes scheduled increases over the lease term, is recognized on a straight-line basis. Income recognized on a straight-line basis differed from income that would have accrued in accordance with the lease by $150,995 in 2001

Depreciation was $389,315 for the year ended December 31, 2001.

2. CAPITAL STOCK:

PREFERRED STOCK

Each holder of Shares of Preferred Stock is entitled to receive ratably all dividends, if any, declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available. The right to receive dividends shall be non-cumulative, and no right to dividends shall accrue by reason of the fact that no dividend has been declared in any prior year. Each holder of Shares will be entitled to receive, to the extent that funds are available therefore, $100,000 per Share, before any payment to the holder of Common Stock, out of distributions to stockholders upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the Company; the balance of any such funds available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Shares and the holder of Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares held by each; provided, however, that for these purposes, one share of Common Stock will be deemed to equal one-tenth of a share of Preferred Stock.

The Company declared a dividend in December 2001 to holders of record on December 31, 2001. These dividends, in the amount of $480,363, were paid in 2002 and have been accrued and reflected in Stockholders' Equity.

In addition to certain voting rights provided in the corporate agreements, the holder of Shares, acting by consent of at least 51%, shall have the further right to approve or disapprove a proposed sale of the Property, the merger of the Company with any other entity and amendments to the corporate charter. A vote of the holders of 66.67% of the Shares is required for the issue of any additional shares of capital stock. Holders of Shares have no redemption or conversion rights.

During 2001, a majority interest of Preferred Stockholders voted to amend the corporate charter whereby allowing the Preferred Stockholders the right to elect and make certain changes to the Board of Directors.

COMMON STOCK

Franklin Street Properties Corp. (FSP), formerly Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership, is the sole holder of the Company's Common Stock. FSP has the right, as one class together with the Holders of Preferred Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the Company and to vote on all matters except those voted by the holders of Shares of Preferred Stock. The Company shall not declare or pay any cash dividends on shares of Common Stock.

3. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS:

A management agreement was executed on September 22, 2000 between the Company and FSP Property Management LLC, an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. The agreement provides for a total management fee equal to 3% of collected revenues. The affiliate's portion of the fees earned and paid was $19,471 for the year ended December 31, 2001.

merged into Franklin Street Properties Corp (FSP), the Common Shareholder, and will operate in a manner intended to qualify as a real estate investment trust ("REIT") for federal income tax purposes.

4. LEASES:

The Company, as lessor, has minimum future rentals due under a noncancellable operating lease as follows:

Year Ended December 31, -----	Amount -----
2002	2,002,075
2003	2,057,053
2004	2,115,330
2005	2,173,607
2006	2,235,381
Thereafter	1,148,577

	$11,732,023

In addition, the lessee is liable for real estate taxes and operating expenses as direct expenses to the lessee.

Upon acquiring the commercial rental property in September 2000, the Company was assigned the lease agreement between the seller of the Property and the existing tenant. The lease is from July 1, 2000 to June 30, 2007.

5. CONCENTRATIONS OF RISK:

For the period ended December 31, 2001, all of the rental income was derived from one lessee. As such, future rental receipts are dependent upon the financial strength of the lessees and their ability to perform under the lease agreements.

The Company maintains its cash accounts at two financial institutions. The balances, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company had cash on deposit exceeding the insured limit by $1,293,193 in 2001.

Independent Auditors' Report

To the Stockholders
FSP Goldentop Technology Center Corp.
(a Delaware Corporation)
Wakefield, Massachusetts

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of FSP Goldentop Technology Center Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) as of December 31, 2000 and the related statements of income, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the period from August 16, 2000 (date of inception) to December 31, 2000. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FSP Goldentop Technology Center Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) at December 31, 2000, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the period from August 16, 2000 (date of inception) to December 31, 2000, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTE 1 -- SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

ORGANIZATION

FSP Goldentop Technology Center Corp. was organized on August 16, 2000 as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware to purchase, own and operate an existing commercial building located in San Diego, California (the "Property"). The Property consists of a two-story R&D/Office/Corporate Headquarters facility containing 141,405 total square feet of space situated on 8 acres of land. The Company acquired the Property on September 22, 2000 and will operate in a manner intended to qualify as a real estate investment trust ("REIT") for federal income tax purposes.

In November 2000, the Company completed a private offering of 231.5 shares of preferred stock at $100,000 per share.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

METHOD OF ACCOUNTING

The Company maintains its books and records on the accrual method of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

For purposes of the statements of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

INCOME TAXES

The Company has maintained and intends to maintain its election as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a result, the Company generally will not be subject to federal taxation to the extent it distributes 95% (90% for 2001) of its REIT taxable income to its shareholders and satisfies certain other requirements. For the period ended December 31, 2000, the Company incurred a net operating loss for income tax purposes of approximately $401,000 that can be carried forward until it expires in the year 2020. Accordingly, no provision for federal or state income taxes has been included in the accompanying financial statements.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

FSP GOLDENTOP TECHNOLOGY CENTER CORP.
(a Delaware Corporation)

SYNDICATION FEES

Syndication fees are selling commissions and other costs associated with the offering of the Company's preferred shares. Such costs, in the amount of $1,928,647, have been reported as a reduction of the private offering proceeds on the Statement of Changes in Stockholders' Equity.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

Rental income, which includes scheduled increases over the lease term, is recognized on a straight-line basis. Income recognized on a straight-line basis differed from income that would have accrued in accordance with the lease by $41,524. One tenant occupied 100% of the Property at December 31, 2000.

PROPERTY AND DEPRECIATION

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Rental property is carried at cost. Depreciation is provided for in amounts sufficient to relate the cost of depreciable assets to operations over their estimated service lives of 39 years for real property by use of the straight-line method for financial reporting. Depreciation was $113,550 for the year ended December 31, 2000.

NOTE 2 -- CAPITAL STOCK

PREFERRED STOCK

Each holder of Shares of Preferred Stock is entitled to receive ratably all dividends, if any, declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available. The right to receive dividends shall be non-cumulative, and no right to dividends shall accrue by reason of the fact that no dividend has been declared in any prior year. Each holder of Shares will be entitled to receive, to the extent that funds are available therefore, $100,000 per Share, before any payment to the holder of Common Stock, out of distributions to stockholders upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the Company; the balance of any such funds available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Shares and the holder of Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares held by each; provided, however, that for these purposes, one share of Common Stock will be deemed to equal one-tenth of a share of Preferred Stock.

The Company paid fourth quarter dividends in the amount of $473,668 during January 2001. As such, these dividends have been accrued and reflected in the Statement of Changes in Stockholders' Equity.

In addition to certain voting rights provided in the corporate agreements, the holder of Shares, acting by consent of at least 51%, shall have the further right to approve or disapprove a proposed sale of the Property, the merger of the Company with any other entity and amendments to the corporate charter. A vote of the holders of 66.67% of the Shares is required for the issue of any additional shares of capital stock. Holders of Shares have no redemption or conversion rights.

COMMON STOCK

Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership (FSP) is the sole holder of the Company's Common Stock. FSP has the right to elect the directors of the Company and to vote on all matters except those voted by the holders of Shares of Preferred Stock. The Company shall not declare or pay any cash dividends on shares of Common Stock.

NOTE 3 -- RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

A management agreement was executed on September 22, 2000 between the Company and FSP Property Management LLC, an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. The agreement provides for a total management fee equal to 3% of collected revenues. The affiliate's portion of the fees earned was

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Stockholders
FSP Centennial Technology Center Corp.
(a Delaware Corporation)

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of FSP Centennial Technology Center Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows, as well as the financial statement schedule listed in the accompanying index, for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, and for the period from August 15, 2000 (date of inception) to December 31, 2000. These financial statements and financial statement schedule are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and financial statement schedule based on our audits.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and financial statement schedule are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and financial statement schedule. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements and financial statement schedule referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FSP Centennial Technology Center Corp. as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, and for the initial period ended December 31, 2000 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

FSP Centennial Technology Center Corp. Notes to Financial Statements

1. Organization

FSP Centennial Technology Center Corp. ("the "Company") was organized on August 15, 2000 as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware to purchase, own and operate commercial buildings located in Colorado Springs, Colorado (the "Property"). The Property consists of two single story office buildings containing 110,730 total square feet of space situated on approximately 9 acres of land. The Company acquired the Property on September 28, 2000 and will operate in a manner intended to qualify as a real estate investment trust ("REIT") for federal income tax purposes.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

ESTIMATES AND ASSUMPTIONS

The Company prepares its financial statements and related notes in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). These principles require management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

RECLASSIFICATIONS

Certain information in the 2001 and 2000 financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the 2002 presentation.

REAL ESTATE AND DEPRECIATION

Real estate assets are stated at the lower of cost or fair value, as appropriate, less accumulated depreciation.

Costs related to property acquisition and improvements are capitalized. Typical capital items include new roofs, site improvements, various exterior building improvements and major interior renovations. Funding for capital improvement typically is provided by cash set aside at the time the property was purchased.

Routine replacements and ordinary maintenance and repairs that do not extend the life of the asset are expensed as incurred. Typical expense items include interior painting, landscaping and minor carpet replacements. Funding for repairs and maintenance items typically is provided by cash flows from operating activities.

Depreciation is computed using the straight line method over the assets'

The Company evaluates its assets used in operations by identifying indicators of impairment and by comparing the sum of the estimated undiscounted future cash flows for each asset to the asset's carrying value. When indicators of impairment are present and the sum of the undiscounted future cash flows is less than the carrying value of such asset, an impairment loss is recorded equal to the difference between the asset's current carrying value and its fair value based on discounting its estimated future cash flows. At December 31, 2002, no such indicators of impairment were identified.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

CASH-FUNDED RESERVES

The Company has set aside funds in anticipation of future capital needs of the property. Although these funds typically are used for the payment of real estate assets and deferred leasing commissions, there is no legal restriction on their use and they may be used for any company purpose.

RESTRICTED CASH

Restricted cash consists of tenant security deposits.

MARKETABLE SECURITIES

The Company accounts for investments in debt securities under the provisions of SFAS No. 115, "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities". The Company typically has classified its debt securities as available-for-sale.

There were no investments in marketable securities at December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000.

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISKS

Cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments are financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to a concentration of credit risk. The Company maintains its cash balances and short-term investments principally in one bank which the Company believes to be creditworthy. The Company periodically assesses the financial condition of the bank and believes that the risk of loss is minimal. Cash balances held with various financial institutions frequently exceed the insurance limit of $100,000 provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Corporation.

For the period ended December 31, 2002 rental income was derived from various tenants. As such, future receipts are dependent upon the financial strength of the lessees and their ability to perform under the lease agreements.

The following tenants represent greater than 10% of total revenue:

	2002	2001	2000
Hewlett Packard	81%	74%	78%
Starkey Laboratories, Inc.	12%	11%	12%

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company estimates that the carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, cash-funded reserves and restricted cash approximate their fair values based on their short-term maturity and prevailing interest rates.

STEP RENT RECEIVABLE

Certain leases provide for fixed increases over the life of the lease. Rental revenue is recognized on the straight-line basis over the related lease term; however, billings by the Company are based on required minimum rentals in accordance with the lease agreements. Step rent receivable, which is the cumulative revenue recognized in excess of amounts billed by the Company, is $210,000, $131,000 and $0 at December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

SYNDICATION FEES

Syndication fees are selling commissions and other costs associated with the initial offering of the Company's preferred shares. Such costs, in the amount of $1,340,489 have been reported as a reduction in the Stockholders' Equity in the Company's Balance Sheet.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

The Company has retained substantially all of the risks and benefits of ownership of the Company's commercial property and accounts for its leases as operating leases. Rental income from leases, which may include rent concessions (including free rent and tenant improvement allowances) and scheduled increases in rental rates during the lease term, is recognized on a straight-line basis. The Company does not have any percentage rent arrangements with its commercial property tenants. Reimbursable costs are included in rental income in the period earned. A schedule showing the components of rental revenue is shown below.

INTEREST AND OTHER

Interest income and other income are recognized when the related services are performed and the earnings process is complete.

INCOME TAXES

The Company has elected to be taxed as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a REIT, the Company generally is entitled to a tax deduction for dividends paid to its shareholders, thereby effectively subjecting the distributed net income of the Company to taxation at the shareholder level only. The Company must comply with a variety of restrictions to maintain its status as a REIT. These restrictions include the type of income it can earn, the type of assets it can hold, the number of shareholders it can have and the concentration of their ownership, and the amount of the Company's taxable income that must be distributed annually.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

NET INCOME PER SHARE

The Company follows Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 128 "Earnings per Share", which specifies the computation, presentation and disclosure requirements for the Company's net income per share. Basic net income per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period. Diluted net income per share reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue shares were exercised or converted into shares. There were no potential dilutive shares outstanding at December 31, 2002. Subsequent to the completion of the offering of preferred shares, the holders of common stock are not entitled to share in any income. The denominator used for calculating basic and diluted net income per share is shown for preferred shares only and is as follows:

	Year Ended December 31,		Period Ended December 31,
	2002	2001	2000

3. Recent Accounting Standards

In August 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 143, "Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations," which addresses financial accounting and reporting for obligations associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets and the associated asset retirement costs. This Statement requires that the fair value of a liability for an asset retirement obligation be recognized in the period in which it is incurred if a reasonable estimate of the fair value can be made. The associated asset retirement costs are capitalized as part of the carrying amount of the long-lived asset. This Statement will be effective at the beginning of 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 143 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

In October 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 144 "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets". This Statement supersedes SFAS No. 121 and requires that long-lived assets that are to be disposed of by sale be measured at the lower of book value or fair value less costs to sell. SFAS No. 144 retains the fundamental provisions of SFAS 121 for (a) recognition and measurement of the impairment of long-lived assets to be held and used, and (b) measurement of long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale, but broadens the definition of what constitutes a discontinued operation and how the results of a discontinued operation are to be measured and presented. This Statement was effective at the beginning of 2002. The impact of adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows. The Company does not have any real estate assets that it considers "held for sale" at December 30, 2002.

In April 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 145 "Rescission of FASB Statements Nos. 4, 44, and 64, Amendment of SFAS 13, and Technical Corrections". This Statement rescinds SFAS No. 4, "Reporting Gains and Losses from Extinguishment of Debt", and an amendment of that Statement, SFAS No. 64, "Extinguishments of Debt Made to Satisfy Sinking-Fund Requirements". This Statement amends SFAS No. 13, "Accounting for Leases". This Statement also amends other existing authoritative pronouncements to make various technical corrections, clarify meanings or describe their applicability under changed conditions. This statement will be effective for the Company's fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 145 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flow.

In July 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146 "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities". This statement was effective January 1, 2003. SFAS No. 146 replaces current accounting literature and requires the recognition of costs associated with exit or disposal activities when they are incurred rather than at the date of a commitment to an exit or disposal plan. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of this statement will have a material effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flow.

4. Income Taxes

The Company files as a REIT under Sections 856-860 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. In order to qualify as a REIT, the Company is required to distribute at least 90% of its taxable income to shareholders and to meet certain asset and income tests as well as certain other requirements. The Company will generally not be liable for federal income taxes, provided it satisfies their requirements. Even as a qualified REIT, the Company is subject to certain state and local taxes on its income and property.

For the period ended December 31, 2000, the Company incurred a net operating loss for income tax purposes of approximately $461,000 that can be carried forward until it expires in the year 2020.

At December 31, 2002, 2001 and 2000 the Company's net tax basis of properties approximates the amount set forth in the Company's Balance Sheet.

The following schedule reconciles GAAP net income to taxable income subject to dividend requirements:

5. Cash Available for Distribution

The Company evaluates its performance based on Cash Available for Distribution ("CAD") as management believes that CAD represents the most accurate measure of the Company's activity. CAD is the basis for distributions paid to equity holders.

The Company defines CAD as: net income as computed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"); plus certain non-cash items included in the computation of net income (depreciation and amortization, certain non-cash compensation expenses and straight line rent adjustments); plus funds raised by the issuance of shares; plus the net proceeds from the sale of land; less purchases of real estate assets, property and equipment ("Capital Expenditures") payments for deferred leasing commissions and payments for deferred lease origination costs; plus (less) proceeds from (payments to) cash reserves established at the acquisition date of the property (cash-funded reserves). Depreciation and amortization, non-cash compensation and straight-line rents are an adjustment to CAD, as these are non-cash items included in net income. Capital Expenditures, payments of deferred leasing commissions and payments for deferred lease origination costs and the proceeds from (payments to) the funded reserve are an adjustment to CAD, as they represent cash items not reflected in income. CAD should not be considered as an alternative to net income (determined in accordance with GAAP), as an indicator of the Company's financial performance, nor as an alternative to cash flows from operating activities (determined in accordance with GAAP), nor as a measure of the Company's liquidity, nor is it necessarily indicative of sufficient cash flow to fund all of the Company's needs. Other real estate companies may define CAD in a different manner. It is at the Company's discretion to retain a portion of CAD for operational needs. We believe that in order to facilitate a clear understanding of the results of the Company, CAD should be examined in connection with net income and cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities in the financial statements.

(in thousands)	2002	December 31, 2001	2000
Net income (loss)	$ 1,129	$ 1,168	$ (478)
Depreciation and amortization	312	312	91
Straight line rent	(79)	(131)	--
Proceeds from offering of shares	--	--	14,460
Purchase of land and building	--	--	(13,457)
Establish funded reserve	--	--	(470)
Cash Available for Distribution	$ 1,362	$ 1,349	$ 146

The Company's cash distributions are summarized as follows:

(in thousands)	Total Cash Dividends
Quarter Paid	2002	2001	2000
First Quarter	$ 329	$ 124	$ --
Second Quarter	331	330	--
Third Quarter	341	330	--
Fourth Quarter	344	330	--
Dividends Paid	$ 1,345	$ 1,114	$ --

Cash distributions are declared and paid based on the total outstanding shares as of the record date and are typically paid in the quarter following the quarter that CAD is generated.

6. Capital Stock

PREFERRED STOCK

Generally, each holder of Shares of Preferred Stock is entitled to receive ratably all dividends, if any, declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available. The right to receive dividends shall be non-cumulative, and no right to dividends shall accrue by reason of the fact that no dividend has been declared in any prior year. Each holder of Shares will be entitled to receive, to the extent that funds are available therefore, $100,000 per Share, before any payment to the holder of Common Stock, out of distributions to stockholders upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the Company; the balance of any such funds available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Shares and the holder of Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares held by each; provided, however, that for these purposes, one share of Common Stock will be deemed to equal one-tenth of a share of Preferred Stock.

In addition to certain voting rights provided in the corporate agreements, the holder of Shares, acting by consent of at least 51%, shall have the further right to approve or disapprove a proposed sale of the Property, the merger of the Company with any other entity and amendments to the corporate charter. A vote of the holders of 66.67% of the Shares is required for the issue of any additional shares of capital stock. Holders of Shares have no redemption or conversion rights.

COMMON STOCK

Franklin Street Properties Corp. ("FSP"), is the sole holder of the Company's Common Stock. FSP has the right, as one class together with the holders of Preferred Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the Company and to vote on all matters except those voted by the holders of Shares of Preferred Stock. Subsequent to the completion of the offering of the preferred shares the holders of common shares are not entitled to receive any income, nor shall the Company declare or pay any cash dividends on shares of Common Stock.

7. Related Party Transactions

The Company executed a management agreement with FSP Property Management LLC, an affiliate of FSP, that provides for a management fee equal to 1% of collected revenues and is cancelable with 30 days notice by either party. For the year ended December 31, 2002, 2001 and period ended December 31, 2000, fees incurred under the agreement were $17,886, $21,638 and $4,304, respectively

An acquisition fee of $316,000 and other costs totaling $51,356 were paid in 2000 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. Such fees were included in the cost of the real estate.

Syndication fees of $1,264,000 were paid in 2000 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder for services related to syndication of the Company's preferred stock.

During 2000, the Company borrowed and repaid in full:

Note payable to FSP, principal of $13,000,000 with interest equal to the Citizens Bank base. Interest paid to FSP was $172,744. The average interest rate during the time the loan was outstanding was 7.87%.

A commitment fee of $513,500 was paid to FSP for obtaining the first mortgage loan. Such amount is included in interest expenses on the Statement of Operations.

8. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company, as lessor, has minimum future rentals due under non-cancelable operating leases as follows:

(in thousands)	Year Ended December 31, -----	Amount -----
	2003	$ 1,391
	2004	1,305
	2005	1,177
	2006	1,226
	2007	1,236
	Thereafter	2,802

		$ 9,137

In addition, the lessees are liable for real estate taxes and certain operating expenses of the property.

Upon acquiring the commercial rental property in September, 2000, the Company was assigned the lease agreements between the seller of the Property and the existing tenants. The original lease periods range from four to ten years with renewal options.

9. Subsequent Event

The Company has entered into a merger agreement with its common shareholder, Franklin Street Properties Corp ("FSP"). In January 2003 FSP filed a proxy statement with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission indicating its intent to acquire the preferred stock interests of the Company and twelve additional REITs. The merger requires the approval of the shareholders of the Company as well as the shareholders of the twelve additional REITs and the shareholders of FSP. If approved, FSP will issue shares of its common stock in exchange for a 100% ownership interest in the Company.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Stockholders
FSP Centennial Technology Center Corp.
(a Delaware Corporation)

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of FSP Centennial Technology Center Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) as of December 31, 2001 and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FSP Centennial Technology

FSP CENTENNIAL TECHNOLOGY CENTER CORP.
 (A DELAWARE CORPORATION)
 NOTES ACCOMPANYING FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

ORGANIZATION

FSP Centennial Technology Center Corp. was organized on August 15, 2000 as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware to purchase, own and operate commercial buildings located in Colorado Springs, Colorado (the "Property"). The Property consists of two flex office buildings containing 110,730 total square feet of space situated on approximately 9 acres of land.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

The Company acquired the Property on September 28, 2000 and will operate in a manner intended to qualify as a real estate investment trust ("REIT") for federal income tax purposes.

In December 2000, the Company completed a private offering of 158 shares of preferred stock at $100,000 per share.

METHOD OF ACCOUNTING

The Company maintains its books and records on the accrual method of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

For purposes of the statements of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

INCOME TAXES

The Company has elected and intends to maintain its election as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a result, the Company generally will not be subject to federal taxation to the extent it distributes 90% of its REIT taxable income to its shareholders and satisfies certain other requirements. Accordingly, no provision for federal or state income taxes has been included in the accompanying financial statements.

For the year ended December 31, 2000, the Company incurred a net operating loss for income tax purposes of approximately $461,000 that can be carried forward until it expires in the year 2020.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

SYNDICATION FEES

Syndication fees are selling commissions and other costs associated with the initial offering of the Company's preferred shares. Such costs, in the amount of $1,340,489, have been reported as a reduction in the Stockholders' Equity.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

Rental income, which includes scheduled increases over the lease term, is recognized on a straight-line basis. Income recognized on a straight-line basis differed from income that would have accrued in accordance with the leases by $130,974. Rental payments received in advance are deferred until earned.

NOTES ACCOMPANYING FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES: (CONTINUED)

PROPERTY AND DEPRECIATION

Rental property is carried at cost. Depreciation is provided for in amounts sufficient to relate the cost of depreciable assets to operations over their estimated service lives of 39 years for real property by use of the straight-line method for financial reporting. Depreciation was $311,589 for the year ended December 31, 2001.

2. CAPITAL STOCK:

PREFERRED STOCK

Each holder of Shares of Preferred Stock is entitled to receive ratably all dividends, if any, declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available. The right to receive dividends shall be non-cumulative, and no right to dividends shall accrue by reason of the fact that no dividend has been declared in any prior year. Each holder of Shares will be entitled to receive, to the extent that funds are available therefore, $100,000 per Share, before any payment to the holder of Common Stock, out of distributions to stockholders upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the Company; the balance of any such funds available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Shares and the holder of Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares held by each; provided, however, that for these purposes, one share of Common Stock will be deemed to equal one-tenth of a share of Preferred Stock.

The Company declared a dividend in December 2001 to holders of record on December 31, 2001. These dividends, in the amount of $328,798, were paid in 2002 and have been accrued and reflected in Stockholders' Equity.

In addition to certain voting rights provided in the corporate agreements, the holder of Shares, acting by consent of at least 51%, shall have the further right to approve or disapprove a proposed sale of the Property, the merger of the Company with any other entity and amendments to the corporate charter. A vote of the holders of 66.67% of the Shares is required for the issue of any additional shares of capital stock. Holders of Shares have no redemption or conversion rights.

During 2001, a majority interest of Preferred Stockholders voted to amend the corporate charter whereby allowing the Preferred Stockholders the right to elect and make certain changes to the Board of Directors.

COMMON STOCK

Franklin Street Properties Corp. (FSP), formerly Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership, is the sole holder of the Company's Common Stock. FSP has the right, as one class together with the holders of Preferred Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the Company and to vote on all matters except those voted by the holders of Shares of Preferred Stock. The Company shall not declare or pay any cash dividends on shares of Common Stock.

3. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS:

A management agreement was executed on September 28, 2000 between the Company and FSP Property Management LLC, an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. The agreement provides for a total management fee equal to 1% of collected revenues. The affiliate's portion of the fees earned and paid was $21,638 for the year ended at December 31, 2001.

3. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS: (CONTINUED)

Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership operated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. On January 1, 2002, the limited partnership merged into Franklin Street Properties Corp (FSP), the Common Shareholder, and will operate in a manner intended to qualify as a real estate investment trust ("REIT") for federal income tax purposes.

4. LEASES:

The Company, as lessor, has minimum future rentals due under a noncancellable operating lease as follows:

Year Ended December 31, -----	Amount -----
2002	1,374,415
2003	1,391,207
2004	1,304,652
2005	1,177,155
2006	1,226,393
Thereafter	4,038,384

	$10,512,206

In addition, the lessees are liable for real estate taxes and operating expenses as direct expenses to the lessees.

Upon acquiring the commercial rental property in September 2000, the Company was assigned the lease agreements between the seller of the Property and the existing tenants. The original lease periods range from five to ten years with renewal options.

5. CONCENTRATIONS OF RISK:

For the period ended December 31, 2001, more than 80% of the rental income was derived from one lessee. As such, future rental receipts are dependent upon the financial strength of the lessee and its ability to perform under the lease agreement.

The Company maintains its cash accounts at one financial institution. The balances, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. At December 31, 2001, the Company had cash on deposit exceeding the insured limit by $922,533.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Stockholders
FSP Centennial Technology Center Corp.
(a Delaware Corporation)

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of FSP Centennial Technology Center Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) as of December 31, 2000 and the related statements of income, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the period from August 15, 2000 (date of inception) to December 31, 2000. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FSP Centennial Technology Center Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) at December 31, 2000, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the period from August 15, 2000 (date of inception) to December 31, 2000, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTE 1 -- SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

ORGANIZATION

FSP Centennial Technology Center Corp. was organized on August 15, 2000 as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware to purchase, own and operate commercial buildings located in Colorado Springs, Colorado (the "Property"). The Property consists of two flex office buildings containing 110,730 total square feet of space situated on approximately 9 acres of land. The Company acquired the Property on September 28, 2000 and will operate in a manner intended to qualify as a real estate investment trust ("REIT") for federal income tax purposes. In December 2000, the Company completed a private offering of 158 shares of preferred stock at $100,000 per share.

METHOD OF ACCOUNTING

The Company maintains its books and records on the accrual method of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

For purposes of the statements of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

INCOME TAXES

The Company has maintained and intends to maintain its election as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a result, the Company generally will not be subject to federal taxation to the extent it distributes 95% (90% for 2001) of its REIT taxable income to its shareholders and satisfies certain other requirements. For the period ended December 31, 2000, the Company incurred a net operating loss for income tax purposes of approximately $461,000 that can be carried forward until it expires in the year 2020. Accordingly, no provision for federal or state income taxes has been included in the accompanying financial statements.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

SYNDICATION FEES

Syndication fees are selling commissions and other costs associated with the offering of the Company's preferred shares. Such costs, in the amount of $1,340,489, have been reported as a reduction of the private offering proceeds on the Statement of Changes in Stockholders' Equity.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

Rental income, which includes scheduled increases over the lease term, is recognized on a straight-line basis. Income recognized on a straight-line basis did not materially differ from income that would have accrued in accordance with the leases. Three tenants occupied 100% of the Property with the Company's major tenant leasing over 80% of the space at December 31, 2000.

PROPERTY AND DEPRECIATION

Rental property is carried at cost. Depreciation is provided for in amounts sufficient to relate the cost of depreciable assets to operations over their estimated service lives of 39 years for real property by use of the straight-line method for financial reporting. Depreciation was $90,880 for the period ended December 31, 2000.

NOTE 2 -- CAPITAL STOCK

PREFERRED STOCK

Each holder of Shares of Preferred Stock is entitled to receive ratably all dividends, if any, declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available. The right to receive dividends shall be non-cumulative, and no right to dividends shall accrue by reason of the fact that no dividend has been declared in any prior year. Each holder of Shares will be entitled to receive, to the extent that funds are available therefore, $100,000 per Share, before any payment to the holder of Common Stock, out of distributions to stockholders upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the Company; the balance of any such funds available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Shares and the holder of Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares held by each; provided, however, that for these purposes, one share of Common Stock will be deemed to equal one-tenth of a share of Preferred Stock.

The Company paid fourth quarter dividends in the amount of $124,521 during January 2001. As such, these dividends have been accrued and reflected in the Statement of Changes in Stockholders' Equity.

In addition to certain voting rights provided in the corporate agreements, the holder of Shares, acting by consent of at least 51%, shall have the further right to approve or disapprove a proposed sale of the Property, the merger of the Company with any other entity and amendments to the corporate charter. A vote of the holders of 66.67% of the Shares is required for the issue of any additional shares of capital stock. Holders of Shares have no redemption or conversion rights.

COMMON STOCK

Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership (FSP) is the sole holder of the Company's Common Stock. FSP has the right to elect the directors of the Company and to vote on all matters except those voted by the holders of Shares of Preferred Stock. The Company shall not declare or pay any cash dividends on shares of Common Stock.

NOTE 3 -- RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

A management agreement was executed on September 28, 2000 between the Company and FSP Property Management LLC, an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. The agreement provides for a total management fee equal to 3.75% of collected revenues. The affiliate's portion of the fees earned was $4,304 for the period with $0 owed at December 31, 2000.

An acquisition fee and other costs totaling $367,356 were paid in 2000 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. Such fees were included in the cost of the real estate.

Syndication fees of $1,264,000 were paid in 2000 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder for services related to syndication of the investor's preferred stock interest.

During 2000, the Company borrowed and repaid in full:

Note payable to Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership, the Common Shareholder, principal of $13,000,000 with interest equal to the Citizens Bank base rate (7.870%). Interest paid to the affiliate was $172,744.

A commitment fee of $513,500 was paid for obtaining the first mortgage loan. Such amount is included in interest on the Statement of Operations.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

To the Stockholders
 FSP Meadow Point Corp.
 (a Delaware Corporation)

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of FSP Meadow Point Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows, as well as the financial statement schedule listed in the accompanying index, for the year ended December 31, 2002, and for the period from January 24, 2001 (date of inception) to December 31, 2001. These financial statements and financial statement schedule are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and financial statement schedule based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and financial statement schedule are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and financial statement schedule. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. Notes to Financial Statements

1. Organization

FSP Meadow Point Corp. (the "Company") was organized on January 24, 2001 as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware to purchase, own and operate a commercial office building located in Chantilly, Virginia (the "Property"). The Property consists of a five-story Class "A" suburban office building containing approximately 135,000 square feet located on approximately 6.3 acres of land. The company acquired the Property on March 15, 2001.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

ESTIMATES AND ASSUMPTIONS

The Company prepares its financial statements and related notes in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). These principles require management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

RECLASSIFICATIONS

Certain balances in the 2001 financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the 2002 presentation.

REAL ESTATE AND DEPRECIATION

Real estate assets are stated at the lower of cost or fair value, as appropriate, less accumulated depreciation.

Costs related to property acquisition and improvements are capitalized. Typical capital items include new roofs, site improvements, various exterior building improvements and major interior renovations. Funding for capital improvements typically is provided by cash set aside at the time the property was purchased.

Routine replacements and ordinary maintenance and repairs that do not extend the life of the asset are expensed as incurred. Typical expense items include interior painting, landscaping and minor carpet replacements. Funding for repairs and maintenance items typically is provided by cash flows from operating activities.

Depreciation is computed using the straight line method over the assets' estimated useful lives as follows:

Category -----	Years -----

The following schedule reconciles the cost of the property as shown in the Offering Memorandum as to the amounts shown on the Company's Balance Sheet:

(in thousands)

Price per Offering Memorandum	$ 21,000
Plus: Acquisition fees paid to FSP	515
Plus: Other acquisition costs	236
Total Acquisition Costs	$ 21,751

These costs are reported in the Company's Balance Sheet as follows :

Land	$ 2,126
Building	19,625
Total reported in Balance Sheet	$ 21,751

The Company evaluates its assets used in operations by identifying indicators of impairment and by comparing the sum of the estimated undiscounted future cash flows for each asset to the asset's carrying value. When indicators of impairment are present and the sum of the undiscounted future cash flows is less than the carrying value of such asset, an impairment loss is recorded equal to the difference between the asset's current carrying value and its fair value based on discounting its estimated future cash flows. At December 31, 2002, no such indicators of impairment were identified.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

CASH-FUNDED RESERVES

The Company has set aside funds in anticipation of future capital needs of the property. Although these funds typically are used for the payment of real estate assets and deferred leasing commissions, there is no legal restriction on their use and they may be used for any company purpose.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

RESTRICTED CASH

Restricted cash consists of tenant security deposits.

MARKETABLE SECURITIES

The Company accounts for investments in debt securities under the provisions of SFAS No. 115, "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities". The Company typically has classified its debt securities as available-for-sale.

There were no investments in marketable securities at December 31, 2002 and 2001.

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISKS

Cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments are financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to a concentration of credit risk. The Company maintains its cash balances and short-term investments principally in one bank which the Company believes to be creditworthy. The Company periodically assesses the financial condition of the bank and believes that the risk of loss is minimal. Cash balances held with various financial institutions frequently exceed the insurance limit of $100,000 provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

For the year ended December 31, 2002 rental income was derived principally from one tenant, CACI, Inc. As such, future receipts are dependent upon the financial strength of the lessee and its ability to perform under the lease agreement.

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company estimates that the carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, cash-funded reserves and restricted cash approximate their fair values based on their short-term maturity and prevailing interest rates.

STEP RENT RECEIVABLE

Certain leases provide for fixed increases over the life of the lease. Rental revenue is recognized on the straight-line basis over the related lease term; however, while billings by the Company are based on required minimum rentals in accordance with the lease agreements. Step rent receivable, which is the cumulative revenue recognized in excess of amounts billed by the Company, is $525,000 and $267,000 at December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

SYNDICATION FEES

Syndication fees are selling commissions and other costs associated with the initial offering of the Company's preferred shares. Such costs, in the amount of $2,126,000 have been reported as a reduction in the Stockholders' Equity in the Company's Balance Sheets.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

REVENUE RECOGNITION

The Company has retained substantially all of the risks and benefits of ownership of the Company's commercial property and accounts for its leases as operating leases. Rental income from leases, which may include rent concession (including free rent and tenant improvement allowances) and scheduled increases in rental rates during the lease term, is recognized on a straight-line basis. The Company does not have any percentage rent arrangements with its commercial property tenants. Reimbursable costs are included in rental income in the period earned. A schedule showing the components of rental revenue is shown below.

(in thousands)	Year Ended December 31, 2002	Period Ended December 31, 2001
Income from leases	$ 3,214	$ 2,496
Straight-line rent adjustment	258	267
Reimbursable expenses	145	25
Total	$ 3,617	$ 2,788

INTEREST AND OTHER

Interest income and other income are recognized when the related services are performed and the earnings process is complete.

INCOME TAXES

The Company has elected to be taxed as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a REIT, the Company generally is entitled to a tax deduction for dividends paid to its shareholders, thereby effectively subjecting the distributed net income of the Company to taxation at the shareholder level only. The Company must comply with a variety of restrictions to maintain its status as a REIT. These restrictions include the type of income it can earn, the type of assets it can hold, the number of shareholders it can have and the concentration of their ownership, and the amount of the Company's taxable income that must be distributed annually.

NET INCOME PER SHARE

The Company follows Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 128 "Earnings per Share", which specifies the computation, presentation and disclosure requirements for the Company's net income per share. Basic net income per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period. Diluted net income per share reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue shares were exercised or converted into shares. There were no potential dilutive shares outstanding at December 31, 2002. Subsequent to the completion of the offering of preferred shares, the holders of common stock are not entitled to share in any income. The denominator used for calculating basic and diluted net income per share is shown for preferred shares only and is as follows:

3. Recent Accounting Standards

In August 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 143, "Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations," which addresses financial accounting and reporting for obligations associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets and the associated asset retirement costs. This Statement requires that the fair value of a liability for an asset retirement obligation be recognized in the period in which it is incurred if a reasonable estimate of the fair value can be made. The associated asset retirement costs are capitalized as part of the carrying amount of the long-lived asset. This Statement will be effective at the beginning of 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 143 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

In October 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 144 "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets". This Statement supersedes SFAS No. 121 and requires that long-lived assets that are to be disposed of by sale be measured at the lower of book value or fair value less costs to sell. SFAS No. 144 retains the fundamental provisions of SFAS 121 for (a) recognition and measurement of the impairment of long-lived assets to be held and used, and (b) measurement of long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale, but broadens the definition of what constitutes a discontinued operation and how the results of a discontinued operation are to be measured and presented. This Statement was effective at the beginning of 2002. The impact of adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows. The Company does not have any real estate assets that it considers "held for sale" at December 31, 2002.

In April 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 145 "Rescission of FASB Statements Nos. 4, 44, and 64, Amendment of SFAS 13, and Technical Corrections". This Statement rescinds SFAS No. 4, "Reporting Gains and Losses from Extinguishment of Debt", and an amendment of that Statement, SFAS No. 64, "Extinguishments of Debt Made to Satisfy Sinking-Fund Requirements". This Statement amends SFAS No. 13, "Accounting for Leases". This Statement also amends other existing authoritative pronouncements to make various technical corrections, clarify meanings or describe their applicability under changed conditions. This statement will be effective for the Company's fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 145 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flow.

In July 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146 "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities". This statement will be effective January 1, 2003. SFAS No. 146 replaces current accounting literature and requires the recognition of costs associated with exit or disposal activities when they are incurred rather than at the date of a commitment to an exit or disposal plan. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of this statement will have a material effect on the Company's financial statements.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

4. Income Taxes

The Company files as a REIT under Sections 856-860 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. In order to qualify as a REIT, the Company is required to distribute at least 90% of its taxable income to shareholders and to meet certain asset and income tests as well as certain other requirements. The Company will generally not be liable for federal income taxes, provided it satisfies their requirements. Even as a qualified REIT, the Company is subject to certain state and local taxes on its income and property.

For the period ended December 31, 2001, the Company incurred a net operating loss for income tax purposes of approximately $12,000 that can be carried forward until it expires in the year 2021.

The Company's net tax basis of its real estate assets approximates the amount set forth in the Company's Balance Sheets at December 31, 2002 and 2001.

The following schedule reconciles GAAP Net Income to Taxable Income subject to dividend requirements:

(in thousands)	Year Ended December 31, 2002	Period Ended December 31, 2001
GAAP net income	$ 1,946	$ 418

Less: Tax depreciation	(491)	(388)

Notes to Financial Statements

5. Cash Available for Distribution

The Company evaluates its performance based on Cash Available for Distribution ("CAD") as management believes that CAD represents the most accurate measure of the Company's activity. CAD is the basis for distributions paid to equity holders.

The Company defines CAD as: net income as computed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"); plus certain non-cash items included in the computation of net income (depreciation and amortization, certain non-cash compensation expenses and straight line rent adjustments); plus funds raised by the issuance of shares; plus the net proceeds from the sale of land; less purchases of real estate assets, property and equipment ("Capital Expenditures"), payments for deferred leasing commissions and payments for deferred lease origination costs; plus (less) proceeds from (payments to) cash reserves established at the acquisition date of the property (cash-funded reserves). Depreciation and amortization, non-cash compensation and straight-line rents are an adjustment to CAD, as these are non-cash items included in net income. Capital Expenditures, payments of deferred leasing commissions and payments for deferred lease origination costs and the proceeds from (payments to) the funded reserve are an adjustment to CAD, as they represent cash items not reflected in income. CAD should not be considered as an alternative to net income (determined in accordance with GAAP), as an indicator of the Company's financial performance, nor as an alternative to cash flows from operating activities (determined in accordance with GAAP), nor as a measure of the Company's liquidity, nor is it necessarily indicative of sufficient cash flow to fund all of the Company's needs. Other real estate companies may define CAD in a different manner. It is at the Company's discretion to retain a portion of CAD for operational needs. We believe that in order to facilitate a clear understanding of the results of the Company, CAD should be examined in connection with net income and cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities in the financial statements.

The calculation of CAD is shown in the following table:

(in thousands)	Year Ended December 31, 2002	Period Ended December 31, 2001
Net income	$ 1,946	$ 418
Depreciation	504	398
Straight line rent	(258)	(267)

Purchase of land and building and improvements	--	(21,751)
Proceeds from (establish) funded reserve	--	(896)
Cash Available for Distribution	$ 2,192	$ 1,526

The Company's cash distributions are summarized as follows:

(in thousands)	Year Ended	Period Ended
----------------	------------	--------------

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Quarter Paid	December 31, 2002	December 31, 2001

Second Quarter	523	--
Third Quarter	524	518
Fourth Quarter	522	505

Dividends paid	$ 2,080	$ 1,023

The Company declared a dividend payable to stockholders of record as of December 31, 2002 and 2001 of $562,000 and $511,000, respectively.

Cash distributions are declared and paid based on the total outstanding shares as of the record date and are typically paid in the quarter following the quarter that CAD is generated.

6. Capital Stock

PREFERRED STOCK

Generally, each holder of Shares of Preferred Stock is entitled to receive ratably all income and all dividends, if any, declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available. The right to receive dividends shall be non-cumulative, and no right to dividends shall accrue by reason of the fact that no dividend has been declared in any prior year. Each holder of Shares will be entitled to receive, to the extent that funds are available therefore, $100,000 per Share, before any payment to the holder of Common Stock, out of distributions to stockholders upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the Company; the balance of any such funds available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Shares and the holder of Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares held by each; provided, however, that for these purposes, one share of Common Stock will be deemed to equal one-tenth of a share of Preferred Stock.

In addition to certain voting rights provided in the corporate agreements, the holder of Shares, acting by consent of at least 51%, shall have the further right to approve or disapprove a proposed sale of the Property, the merger of the Company with any other entity and amendments to the corporate charter. A vote of the holders of 66.67% of the Shares is required for the issue of any additional shares of capital stock. Holders of Shares have no redemption or conversion rights.

COMMON STOCK

Franklin Street Properties Corp. (FSP), is the sole holder of the Company's Common Stock. FSP has the right, as one class together with the holders of Preferred Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the Company and to vote on all matters except those voted by the holders of Shares of Preferred Stock. Subsequent to the completion of the offering of the preferred shares the holders of common shares are not entitled to receive any income, nor shall the Company declare or pay any cash dividends on shares of Common Stock.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

7. Related Party Transactions

The Company executed a management agreement with FSP Property Management LLC, an affiliate of FSP, that provides for a management fee equal to 1% of collected revenues and is cancelable with 30 days notice by either party. For the year ended December 31, 2002 and the period ended December 31, 2001, fees incurred under the agreement were $37,000 and $26,000, respectively.

An acquisition fee $515,000 and other costs totaling $108,000 were paid in 2001 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. Such fees were included in the cost of the real estate.

Syndication fees of $2,060,000 were paid in 2001 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder for services related to syndication of the Company's preferred stock.

During 2001, the Company borrowed and repaid in full:

Note payable to FSP, principal of $21,000,000 with interest equal to the Citizens Bank base. Interest paid to FSP was $81,000. The average interest rate during the time the loan was outstanding was 8.25%.

A commitment fee of $966,000 was paid for obtaining the first mortgage loan. Such amount is included in interest expense on the Statement of Operations.

The Company paid a dividend of $13,000 in 2001 to the common shareholder relating to earnings of the Company prior to the completion of the offering of preferred shares.

FSP Meadow Point Corp. Notes to Financial Statements

8. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company, as lessor, has future minimum rentals due under non-cancelable operating leases as follows:

(in thousands)	Year Ended December 31,	Amount
	-----	-----
	2003	$ 3,294
	2004	3,376
	2005	3,461
	2006	3,547
	2007	3,636
	Thereafter	7,230

		$ 24,544

In addition, the lessees are liable for real estate taxes and certain operating expenses.

Upon acquiring the commercial rental property in March, 2001, the Company was assigned the lease agreements between the seller of the Property and the existing tenants. The original lease periods range from five to ten years with renewal options.

The lease periods expire in 2009 and 2010 with renewal options.

9. Subsequent Event

The Company has entered into a merger agreement with its common shareholder, Franklin Street Properties Corp ("FSP"). In January 2003 FSP filed a proxy statement with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission indicating its intent to acquire the preferred stock interests of the Company and twelve additional REITs. The merger requires the approval of the shareholders of the Company as well as the shareholders of the twelve additional REITs and the shareholders of FSP. If approved, FSP will issue shares of its common stock in exchange for a 100% ownership interest in the Company.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Stockholders
 FSP Meadow Point Corp.
 (a Delaware Corporation)

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of FSP Meadow Point Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) as of December 31, 2001 and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the period from January 24, 2001 (date of inception) to December 31, 2001. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FSP Meadow Point Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) at December 31, 2001, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the period from January 24, 2001 (date of inception) to December 31, 2001, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

FSP MEADOW POINT CORP.
(A DELAWARE CORPORATION)
NOTES ACCOMPANYING FINANCIAL STATEMENT

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

ORGANIZATION

FSP Meadow Point Corp. was organized on January 24, 2001 as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware to purchase, own and operate a commercial building located in Chantilly, Virginia (the "Property"). The Property consists of a five-story Class "A" suburban office building containing 134,850 square feet located on approximately 6.3 acres of land. The Company acquired the Property on March 15, 2001 and will operate in a manner intended to qualify as a real estate investment trust ("REIT") for federal income tax purposes.

In March 2001, the Company completed a private offering of 257.5 shares of preferred stock at $100,000 per share.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

METHOD OF ACCOUNTING

The Company maintains its books and records on the accrual method of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

For purposes of the statements of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

INCOME TAXES

The Company has elected and intends to maintain its election as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a result, the Company generally will not be subject to federal taxation to the extent it distributes 90% of its REIT taxable income to its shareholders and satisfies certain other requirements. Accordingly, no provision for federal or state income taxes has been included in the accompanying financial statements.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

SYNDICATION FEES

Syndication fees are selling commissions and other costs associated with the initial offering of the Company's preferred shares. Such costs, in the amount of $2,125,708 have been reported as a reduction in the Stockholders' Equity.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

Rental income, which includes scheduled increases over the lease term, is recognized on a straight-line basis. Income recognized on a straight-line basis, differed from income that would have accrued in accordance with the lease by $267,172 in 2001.

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES: (CONTINUED)

PROPERTY AND DEPRECIATION

Rental property is carried at cost. Depreciation is provided for in amounts sufficient to relate the cost of depreciable assets to operations over their estimated service lives of 39 years for real property by use of the straight-line method for financial reporting. Depreciation was $398,367 for the period ended December 31, 2001.

2. CAPITAL STOCK:

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

PREFERRED STOCK

Each holder of Shares of Preferred Stock is entitled to receive ratably all dividends, if any, declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available. The right to receive dividends shall be non-cumulative, and no right to dividends shall accrue by reason of the fact that no dividend has been declared in any prior year. Each holder of Shares will be entitled to receive, to the extent that funds are available therefore, $100,000 per Share, before any payment to the holder of Common Stock, out of distributions to stockholders upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the Company; the balance of any such funds available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Shares and the holder of Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares held by each; provided, however, that for these purposes, one share of Common Stock will be deemed to equal one-tenth of a share of Preferred Stock.

The Company declared a dividend in December 2001 to holders on record on December 31, 2001. These dividends, in the amount of $511,138, were paid in 2002 and have been accrued and reflected in Stockholders' Equity.

In addition to certain voting rights provided in the corporate agreements, the holder of Shares, acting by consent of at least 51%, shall have the further right to approve or disapprove a proposed sale of the Property, the merger of the Company with any other entity and amendments to the corporate charter, and vote on the election and certain changes to the Board of Directors. A vote of the holders of 66.67% of the Shares is required for the issue of any additional shares of capital stock. Holders of Shares have the right, as one class together with the holder of Common Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the company. Holders of Shares have no redemption or conversion rights.

COMMON STOCK

Franklin Street Properties Corp. (FSP), formerly Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership, is the sole holder of the Company's Common Stock. FSP has the right, as one class together with the holders of Preferred Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the Company and to vote on all matters except those voted by the holders of Shares of Preferred Stock. After completion of the offering of Shares, the Company shall not declare or pay any cash dividends on shares of Common Stock.

3. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS:

A management agreement was executed on March 15, 2001 between the Company and FSP Property Management LLC, an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. The agreement provides for a total management fee equal to 1% of collected revenues. The affiliate's portion of the fees earned and paid was $25,552 for the period ended December 31, 2001.

Acquisition fee and other costs totaling $623,212 were paid in 2001 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. Such fees are included in the cost of the real estate,

Syndication fees of $2,060,000 were paid in 2001 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder for services related to syndication of the investor's preferred stock interest.

A cash dividend in the amount of $13,200 during 2001 was paid to the Common Shareholder prior to the completion of the offering of Shares.

A commitment fee of $965,625 was paid to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder for obtaining the first mortgage loan. Such amount is included in interest on the Statement of Operations.

During 2001, the Company borrowed and repaid in full a note payable to Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership, the Common Shareholder, principal of $21,000,000 with interest equal to the Citizens Bank of Massachusetts base rate. Interest paid to the affiliate was $81,667.

Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership operated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. On January 1, 2002, the limited partnership merged into Franklin Street Properties Corp (FSP), the Common Shareholder, and will operate in a manner intended to qualify as a real estate investment trust ("REIT") for federal income tax purposes.

4. LEASES:

The Company, as lessor, has minimum future rentals due under noncancellable operating leases as follows:

Year Ended December 31, -----	Amount -----
2002	$ 3,213,525
2003	3,294,132
2004	3,376,198
2005	3,460,831
2006	3,546,923
Thereafter	10,866,844

	$27,758,453

In addition, the lessees are liable for real estate taxes and operating expenses as direct operating expenses to the lessees.

Upon acquiring the commercial rental property in March 2001, the Company was assigned the lease agreements between the seller of the Property and the existing tenants. The original lease periods range from five to ten years with renewal options.

5. CONCENTRATIONS OF RISK:

For the period ended December 31, 2001, 99% of the rental income was derived from one lessee. As such, future rental receipts are dependent upon the financial strength of the lessee and its ability to perform under the lease agreement.

The Company maintains its cash accounts at one financial institution. The balances, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. At December 31, 2001, the Company had cash on deposit exceeding the insured limit by $1,688,070.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Stockholders
FSP Timberlake Corp.
(a Delaware Corporation)

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of FSP Timberlake Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows, as well as the financial statement schedule listed in the accompanying index, for the year ended December 31, 2002, and for the period from April 16, 2001 (date of inception) to December 31, 2001. These financial statements and financial statement schedule are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and financial statement schedule based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and financial statement schedule are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and financial statement schedule. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements and financial statement schedule referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FSP Timberlake Corp. as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2002, and for the initial period ended December 31, 2001 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Financial Statements

1. Organization

FSP Timberlake Corp. (the "Company") was organized on April 16, 2001 as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware to purchase, own and operate a commercial office building located in Chesterfield, Missouri (the "Property").

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

The Property consists of two five-story Class "A" suburban office buildings that contains approximately 233,000 square feet of space situated on approximately 11.5 acres of land. The Company acquired the Property on May 24, 2001.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

ESTIMATES AND ASSUMPTIONS

The Company prepares its financial statements and related notes in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). These principles require management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

RECLASSIFICATIONS

Certain balances in the 2001 financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the 2002 presentation.

REAL ESTATE AND DEPRECIATION

Real estate assets are stated at the lower of cost or fair value, as appropriate, less accumulated depreciation.

Costs related to property acquisition and improvements are capitalized. Typical capital items include new roofs, site improvements, various exterior building improvements and major interior renovations. Funding for capital improvement typically is provided by cash set aside at the time the property was purchased.

Routine replacements and ordinary maintenance and repairs that do not extend the life of the asset are expensed as incurred. Typical expense items include interior painting, landscaping and minor carpet replacements. Funding for repairs and maintenance items typically is provided by cash flows from operating activities.

Depreciation is computed using the straight line method over the assets' estimated useful lives as follows:

Category	Years
-----	-----
Building - Commercial	39
Building Improvements	15-39
Furniture and equipment	5-7

REAL ESTATE AND DEPRECIATION (continued)

The following schedule reconciles the cost of the property as shown in the Offering Memorandum as to the amounts shown on the Company's Balance Sheet:

(in thousands)

Price per Offering Memorandum	$	42,150
-------------------------------	----	--------

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Plus: Acquisition fees	1,030
Plus: Other acquisition costs	365

Total Acquisition Costs	$ 43,545

These costs are reported in the Company's Balance Sheet as follows :

Land	$ 2,831
Building	40,714

Total reported in Balance Sheet	$ 43,545

The Company evaluates its assets used in operations by identifying indicators of impairment and by comparing the sum of the estimated undiscounted future cash flows for each asset to the asset's carrying value. When indicators of impairment are present and the sum of the undiscounted future cash flows is less than the carrying value of such asset, an impairment loss is recorded equal to the difference between the asset's current carrying value and its fair value based on discounting its estimated future cash flows. At December 31, 2002, no such indicators of impairment were identified.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

CASH-FUNDED RESERVES

The Company has set aside funds in anticipation of future capital needs of the property. Although these funds typically are used for the payment of real estate assets and deferred leasing commissions, there is no legal restriction on their use and they may be used for any company purpose.

RESTRICTED CASH

Restricted cash consists of tenant security deposits.

MARKETABLE SECURITIES

The Company accounts for investments in debt securities under the provisions of SFAS No. 115, "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities". The Company typically has classified its debt securities as available-for-sale.

There were no investments in marketable securities at December 31, 2002 and 2001.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISKS

Cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments are financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to a concentration of credit risk. The Company maintains its cash balances and short-term investments principally in one bank which the Company believes to be creditworthy. The Company periodically assesses the financial condition of the bank and believes that the risk of loss is minimal. Cash balances held with various financial institutions frequently exceed the insurance limit of $100,000 provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

For the year ended December 31, 2002 and period ended December 31, 2001 rental income was derived from various tenants. As such, future receipts are dependent upon the financial strength of the lessees and their ability to perform under the lease agreements.

The following tenants represent greater than 10% of total revenue:

	2002	2001
AMDOCS, Inc.	57%	51%
ReinsuranceGroup of America, Inc.	41%	41%

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company estimates that the carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, cash-funded reserves and restricted cash approximate their fair values based on their short-term maturity and prevailing interest rates.

STEP RENT RECEIVABLE

Certain leases provide for fixed increases over the life of the lease. Rental revenue is recognized on the straight-line basis over the related lease term; however, billings by the Company are based on required minimum rentals in accordance with the lease agreements. Step rent receivable, which is the cumulative revenue recognized in excess of amounts billed by the Company, is $470,000 and $185,000 at December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

DEFERRED LEASING COMMISSIONS

Deferred leasing commissions represent external leasing costs incurred in the leasing of commercial space. These costs are capitalized and are amortized on a straight-line basis over the remaining life of the related lease. Amortization expense was approximately $4,000 and $0 for the years ended December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

Payments for deferred leasing commission in 2002 amounted to $28,000 which is being amortized over the weighted-average period of four years in respect of the lease. Details of the deferred lease origination costs as of December 31, 2002:

Cost	$ 28,000
Accumulated amortization	4,000

Book value	$ 24,000

The estimated annual amortization expense for the years succeeding December 31, 2002 are as follows:

2003	$ 7,000
2004	$ 7,000
2005	$ 7,000
2006	$ 3,000

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

SYNDICATION FEES

REVENUE RECOGNITION

The Company has retained substantially all of the risks and benefits of ownership of the Company's commercial property and accounts for its leases as operating leases. Rental income from leases, which may include rent concessions (including free rent and tenant improvement allowances) and scheduled increases in rental rates during the lease term, is recognized on a straight-line basis. The Company does not have any percentage rent arrangements with its commercial property tenants. Reimbursable costs are included in rental income in the period earned. A schedule showing the components of rental revenue is shown below.

(in thousands)	Year Ended December 31, 2002	Period Ended December, 31 2001
Income from leases	$ 4,989	$ 2,937
Straight-line rent adjustment	285	185
Reimbursable expenses and other	881	519
Total	$ 6,155	$ 3,641

INTEREST AND OTHER

Interest income and other income are recognized when the related services are performed and the earnings process is complete.

INCOME TAXES

The Company has elected to be taxed as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a REIT, the Company generally is entitled to a tax deduction for dividends paid to its shareholders, thereby effectively subjecting the distributed net income of the Company to taxation at the shareholder level only. The Company must comply with a variety of restrictions to maintain its status as a REIT. These restrictions include the type of income it can earn, the type of assets it can hold, the number of shareholders it can have and the concentration of their ownership, and the amount of the Company's taxable income that must be distributed annually.

NET INCOME PER SHARE

The Company follows Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 128 "Earnings per Share", which specifies the computation, presentation and disclosure requirements for the Company's net income per share. Basic net income per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period. Diluted net income per share reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue shares were exercised or converted into shares. There were no potential dilutive shares outstanding at December 31, 2002 and 2001. Subsequent to the completion of the offering of preferred shares, the holders of common stock are not entitled to share in any income. The denominator used for calculating basic and diluted net income per share is shown for preferred shares only and is as follows:

	Year Ended December 31, 2002	Period Ended December 31, 2001
Weighted average number of preferred shares outstanding	515	515

3. Recent Accounting Standards

In August 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 143, "Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations," which addresses financial accounting and reporting for obligations associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets and the associated asset retirement costs. This Statement requires that the fair value of a liability for an asset retirement obligation be recognized in the period in which it is incurred if a reasonable estimate of the fair value can be made. The associated asset retirement costs are capitalized as part of the carrying amount of the long-lived asset. This Statement will be effective at the beginning of 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 143 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

In October 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 144 "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets". This Statement supersedes SFAS No. 121 and requires that long-lived assets that are to be disposed of by sale be measured at the lower of book value or fair value less costs to sell. SFAS No. 144 retains the fundamental provisions of SFAS 121 for (a) recognition and measurement of the impairment of long-lived assets to be held and used, and (b) measurement of long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale, but broadens the definition of what constitutes a discontinued operation and how the results of a discontinued operation are to be measured and presented. This Statement was effective at the beginning of 2002. The impact of adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows. The Company does not have any real estate assets that it considers "held for sale" at December 31, 2002.

In April 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 145 "Rescission of FASB Statements Nos. 4, 44, and 64, Amendment of SFAS 13, and Technical Corrections". This Statement rescinds SFAS No. 4, "Reporting Gains and Losses from Extinguishment of Debt", and an amendment of that Statement, SFAS No. 64, "Extinguishments of Debt Made to Satisfy Sinking-Fund Requirements". This Statement amends SFAS No. 13, "Accounting for Leases". This Statement also amends other existing authoritative pronouncements to make various technical corrections, clarify meanings or describe their applicability under changed conditions. This statement will be effective for the Company's fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 145 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

In July 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146 "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities". This statement was effective January 1, 2003. SFAS No. 146 replaces current accounting literature and requires the recognition of costs associated with exit or disposal activities when they are incurred rather than at the date of a commitment to an exit or disposal plan. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of this statement will have a material effect on the Company's financial statements.

4. Income Taxes

The Company has elected to be taxed as a REIT under Sections 856-860 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. In order to qualify as a REIT, the Company is required to distribute at least 90% of its taxable income to shareholders and to meet certain asset and income tests as well as certain other requirements. The Company will generally not be liable for federal income taxes, provided it satisfies these requirements. Even as a qualified REIT, the Company is subject to certain state and local taxes on its income and property.

For the period ended December 31, 2001, the Company incurred a net operating loss for income tax purposes of approximately $216,000 that can be carried forward until it expires in the year 2021.

The Company's net tax basis of its real estate assets approximates the amount set forth in the Company's Balance Sheet at December 31, 2002 and 2001.

5. Cash Available for Distribution

The Company evaluates its performance based on Cash Available for Distribution ("CAD") as management believes that CAD represents the most accurate measure of the Company's activity. CAD is the basis for distributions paid to equity holders.

The Company defines CAD as: net income as computed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"); plus certain non-cash items included in the computation of net income (depreciation and amortization, certain non-cash compensation expenses and straight line rent adjustments); plus funds raised by the issuance of shares; plus the net proceeds from the sale of land; less purchases of real estate assets, property and equipment ("Capital Expenditures") payments for deferred leasing commissions and payments for deferred lease origination costs; plus (less) proceeds from (payments to) cash reserves established at the acquisition date of the property (cash-funded reserves). Depreciation and amortization, non-cash compensation and straight-line rents are an adjustment to CAD, as these are non-cash items included in net income. Capital Expenditures, payments of deferred leasing commissions and payments for deferred lease origination costs and the proceeds from (payments to) the funded reserve are an adjustment to CAD, as they represent cash items not reflected in income. CAD should not be considered as an alternative to net income (determined in accordance with GAAP), as an indicator of the Company's financial performance, nor as an alternative to cash flows from operating activities (determined in accordance with GAAP), nor as a measure of the Company's liquidity, nor is it necessarily indicative of sufficient cash flow to fund all of the Company's needs. Other real estate companies may define CAD in a different manner. It is at the Company's discretion to retain a portion of CAD for operational needs. We believe that in order to facilitate a clear understanding of the results of the Company, CAD should be examined in connection with net income and cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities in the financial statements.

PREFERRED STOCK

Generally, each holder of Shares of Preferred Stock is entitled to receive ratably all income and all dividends, if any, declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available. The right to receive dividends shall be non-cumulative, and no right to dividends shall accrue by reason of the fact that no dividend has been declared in any prior year. Each holder of Shares will be entitled to receive, to the extent that funds are available therefore, $100,000 per Share, before any payment to the holder of Common Stock, out of distributions to stockholders upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the Company; the balance of any such funds available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Shares and the holder of Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares held by each; provided, however, that for these purposes, one share of Common Stock will be deemed to equal one-tenth of a share of Preferred Stock.

In addition to certain voting rights provided in the corporate agreements, the holder of Shares, acting by consent of at least 51%, shall have the further right to approve or disapprove a proposed sale of the Property, the merger of the Company with any other entity and amendments to the corporate charter. A vote of the holders of 66.67% of the Shares is required for the issue of any additional shares of capital stock. Holders of Shares have no redemption or conversion rights.

6. Capital Stock (continued)

COMMON STOCK

Franklin Street Properties Corp. ("FSP"), is the sole holder of the Company's Common Stock. FSP has the right, as one class together with the holders of Preferred Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the Company and to vote on all matters except those voted by the holders of Shares of Preferred Stock. Subsequent to the completion of the offering of the preferred shares the holders of common shares are not entitled to receive any income, nor shall the Company declare or pay any cash dividends on shares of Common Stock.

7. Related Party Transactions

The Company executed a management agreement with FSP Property Management LLC, an affiliate of FSP, that provides for a management fee equal to 1% of collected revenues and is cancelable with 30 days notice by either party. For the year ended December 31, 2002 and period ended December 31, 2001, fees incurred under the agreement were $60,000 and $33,000, respectively.

An acquisition fee of $1,030,000 and other costs totaling $240,000 were paid in 2001 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. Such fees were included in the cost of the real estate.

Syndication fees of $4,120,000 were paid in 2001 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder for services related to syndication of the Company's preferred stock.

During 2001, the Company borrowed and repaid in full:

Note payable to FSP, principal of $42,150,000 with interest equal to the Citizens Bank base. Interest paid to FSP was $128,000. The average interest rate during the time the loan was outstanding was 6.25%.

A commitment fee of $1,931,000 was paid for obtaining the first mortgage loan. Such amount is included in interest expense on the Statement of Operations.

The Company paid dividends of $90,000 in 2001, to the common shareholder relating to earnings of the Company prior to the completion of the offering of preferred shares.

8. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company, as lessor, has future minimum rentals due under non-cancelable operating leases as follows:

(in thousands)	Year Ended December 31, -----	Amount -----
	2003	$ 5,263
	2004	5,263

FSP Timberlake Corp.
Notes to Financial Statements

9. Subsequent Event

The Company has entered into a merger agreement with its common shareholder, Franklin Street Properties Corp ("FSP"). In January 2003 FSP filed a proxy statement with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission indicating its intent to acquire the preferred stock interests of the Company and twelve additional REITs. The merger requires the approval of the shareholders of the Company as well as the shareholders of the twelve additional REITs and the shareholders of FSP. If approved, FSP will issue shares of its common stock in exchange for a 100% ownership interest in the Company.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Stockholders
FSP Timberlake Corp.
(a Delaware Corporation)

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of FSP Timberlake Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) as of December 31, 2001 and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the period from April 16, 2001 (date of inception) to December 31, 2001. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FSP Timberlake Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) at December 31, 2001, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the period from April 16, 2001 (date of inception) to December 31, 2001, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

FSP TIMBERLAKE CORP.
(A DELAWARE CORPORATION)
NOTES ACCOMPANYING FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

ORGANIZATION

FSP Timberlake Corp. was organized on April 16, 2001 as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware to purchase, own and operate a commercial building located in Chesterfield, Missouri (the "Property"). The Property consists of two five-story Class "A" suburban office buildings containing 232,722 square feet located on 11.5 acres of land. The Company acquired the Property on May 24, 2001 and will operate in a manner intended to qualify as a real estate investment trust ("REIT") for federal income tax purposes.

In July 2001, the Company completed a private offering of 515 shares of preferred stock at $100,000 per share.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

METHOD OF ACCOUNTING

The Company maintains its books and records on the accrual method of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

For purposes of the statements of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

INCOME TAXES

The Company has elected and intends to maintain its election as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a result, the Company generally will not be subject to federal taxation to the extent it distributes 90% of its REIT taxable income to its shareholders' and satisfies certain other requirements. Accordingly, no provision for federal income taxes has been included in the accompanying financial statements.

For the period ended December 31, 2001, the Company incurred a net operating loss for income tax purposes approximately of $217,000 that can be carried forward until it expires in the year 2021. The primary difference between the financial and taxable net loss is due to timing difference in the recognition of rental revenues. Approximately $185,000 of such revenue is recognized for financial reporting purposes but deferred for tax purposes.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

SYNDICATION FEES

Syndication fees are selling commissions and other costs associated with the initial offering of the Company's preferred shares. Such costs, in the amount of $4,247,004 have been reported as a reduction in Stockholders' Equity.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

Rental income, which includes scheduled increases over the lease term, is recognized on a straight-line basis. Income recognized on a straight-line basis differed from income that would have accrued in accordance with the lease by $185,318 in 2001.

sufficient to relate the cost of depreciable assets to operations over their estimated service lives of 39 years for real property by use of the straight-line method for financial reporting. Depreciation was $652,472 for the period ended December 31, 2001.

2. CAPITAL STOCK:

PREFERRED STOCK

Each holder of Shares of Preferred Stock is entitled to receive ratably all dividends, if any, declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available. The right to receive dividends shall be non-cumulative, and no right to dividends shall accrue by reason of the fact that no dividend has been declared in any prior year. Each holder of Shares will be entitled to receive, to the extent that funds are available therefore, $100,000 per Share, before any payment to the holder of Common Stock, out of distributions to stockholders upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the Company; the balance of any such funds available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Shares and the holder of Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares held by each; provided, however, that for these purposes, one share of Common Stock will be deemed to equal one-tenth of a share of Preferred Stock.

The Company declared a dividend in December 2001 to holders on record on December 31, 2001. These dividends, in the amount of $1,021,245, were paid in 2002 and have been reflected in Stockholders' Equity.

In addition to certain voting rights provided in the corporate agreements, the holder of Shares, acting by consent of at least 51%, shall have the further right to approve or disapprove a proposed sale of the Property, the merger of the Company with any other entity and amendments to the corporate charter, and vote on the election and certain changes to the Board of Directors. A vote of the holders of 66.67% of the Shares is required for the issue of any additional shares of capital stock. Holders of Shares have the right, as one class together with the holder of Common Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the company. Holders of Shares have no redemption or conversion rights.

COMMON STOCK

Franklin Street Properties Corp. (FSP), formerly Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership, is the sole holder of the Company's Common Stock. FSP has the right, as one class together with the holders of Preferred Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the Company and to vote on all matters except those voted by the holders of Shares of Preferred Stock. After completion of the offering of Shares, the Company shall not declare or pay any cash dividends on shares of Common Stock.

3. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS:

A management agreement was executed on May 24, 2001 between the Company and FSP Property Management LLC, an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. The agreement provides for a total management fee equal to 1% of collected revenues. The affiliates portion of the fees earned and paid was $33,076 for the period ended December 31, 2001.

Acquisition fee and other costs totaling $1,269,879 were paid in 2001 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. Such fees were included in the cost of the real estate.

3. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS: (CONTINUED)

Syndication fees of $4,120,000 were paid to an affiliate of the Common Stockholder for services related to syndication of the investor's preferred stock interest.

A cash dividend in the amount of $89,800 during 2001 was paid to the Common Shareholder prior to the completion of the offering of Shares.

A commitment fee of $1,931,250 was paid to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder for obtaining the first mortgage loan. Such amount is included in interest on the Statement of Operations.

During 2001, the Corporation borrowed and repaid in full a note payable to Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership, the Common Shareholder, principal of $42,150,000 with interest equal to the Citizens Bank of Massachusetts base rate. Interest paid to the affiliate was $128,362.

Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership operated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. On January 1, 2002, the limited partnership merged into Franklin Street Properties Corp (FSP), the Common Shareholder, and will operate in a manner intended to qualify as a real estate investment trust ("REIT") for federal income tax purposes.

4. LEASES:

The Company, as lessor, has minimum future rentals due under noncancellable operating leases as follows:

Year Ended December 31, -----	Amount -----
2002	$ 5,040,097
2003	5,260,308
2004	5,256,786
2005	5,310,694
2006	3,484,812
Thereafter	6,253,241

	$30,605,938

In addition, the lessees are liable for real estate taxes and operating expenses as direct expenses to the lessees.

Upon acquiring the commercial rental property in May 2001, the Company was assigned the lease agreements between the seller of the Property and the existing tenants. The original lease periods expire from five to ten years with renewal options.

5. CONCENTRATIONS OF RISK:

For the period ended December 31, 2001, 93% of the rental income was from two lessees. As such, future receipts are dependent upon the financial strength of the lessees and their ability to perform under the lease agreements.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

The Company maintains its cash accounts at two financial institutions. The balances, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. At December 31, 2001, the Company had cash on deposit exceeding the insured limit of $2,746,261.

Notes to Financial Statements

1. Organization

FSP Federal Way Corp. (the "Company") was organized on July 26, 2001 as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware to purchase, own and operate commercial office buildings located in Federal Way, Washington (the "Property"). The Property consists of two Class "A" suburban office buildings containing 117,000 square feet. The company acquired the Property on September 14, 2001.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

ESTIMATES AND ASSUMPTIONS

The Company prepares its financial statements and related notes in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). These principles require management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

RECLASSIFICATIONS

Certain information in the 2001 financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the 2002 presentation.

REAL ESTATE AND DEPRECIATION

Real estate assets are stated at the lower of cost or fair value, as appropriate, less accumulated depreciation.

Costs related to property acquisition and improvements are capitalized. Typical capital items include new roofs, site improvements, various exterior building improvements and major interior renovations. Funding for capital improvement typically is provided by cash set aside at the time the property was purchased.

Routine replacements and ordinary maintenance and repairs that do not extend the life of the asset are expensed as incurred. Typical expense items include interior painting, landscaping and minor carpet replacements. Funding for repairs and maintenance items typically is provided by cash flows from operating activities.

Depreciation is computed using the straight line method over the assets' estimated useful lives as follows:

Category	Years
-----	-----
Building - Commercial	39
Building Improvements	15-39
Furniture and equipment	5-7

REAL ESTATE AND DEPRECIATION (continued)

The following schedule reconciles the cost of the property as shown in the Offering Memorandum as to the amounts shown on the Company's Balance Sheet:

(in thousands)

Price per Offering Memorandum	$	16,000
-------------------------------	----	--------

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Plus: Acquisition fees		111

Total Acquisition Costs	$	16,111

These costs are reported in the Company's Balance Sheet as follows:

Land	$	2,509
Building		13,141
Deferred lease origination costs		461

Total reported in Balance Sheet	$	16,111

The Company evaluates its assets used in operations by identifying indicators of impairment and by comparing the sum of the estimated undiscounted future cash flows for each asset to the asset's carrying value. When indicators of impairment are present and the sum of the undiscounted future cash flows is less than the carrying value of such asset, an impairment loss is recorded equal to the difference between the asset's current carrying value and its fair value based on discounting its estimated future cash flows. At December 31, 2002 and 2001, no such indicators of impairment were identified.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

CASH-FUNDED RESERVES

The Company has set aside funds in anticipation of future capital needs of the property. Although these funds typically are used for the payment of real estate assets and deferred leasing commissions, there is no legal restriction on their use and they may be used for any company purpose.

RESTRICTED CASH

Restricted cash consists of tenant security deposits.

MARKETABLE SECURITIES

The Company accounts for investments in debt securities under the provisions of SFAS No. 115, "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities". The Company typically has classified its debt securities as available-for-sale.

There were no investments in marketable securities at December 31, 2002 and 2001.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISKS

Cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments are financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to a concentration of credit risk. The Company maintains its cash balances and short-term investments principally in one bank which the Company believes to be creditworthy. The Company periodically assesses the financial condition of the bank and believes that the risk of loss is minimal. Cash balances held with various financial institutions frequently exceed the insurance limit of $100,000 provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

For the year ended December 31, 2002 and period ended December 31, 2001, 100% of the rental income was derived from one lessee. As such, future receipts are dependent upon the financial strength of the lessee and its ability to perform under the lease agreement.

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company estimates that the carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, cash-funded reserves and restricted cash, approximate their fair values based on their short-term maturity and prevailing interest rates.

STEP RENT RECEIVABLE

Certain leases provide for fixed increases over the life of the lease. Rental revenue is recognized on the straight-line basis over the related lease term; however, billings by the Company are based on required minimum rentals in accordance with the lease agreements. Step rent receivable, which is the cumulative revenue recognized in excess of amounts billed by the Company, is $142,000 and $26,000 at December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

DEFERRED LEASE ORIGINATION COSTS

Deferred lease origination costs are the estimated value of legal and leasing costs related to acquired leases that were included in the purchase price when the Company acquired the property. Under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 141 "Business Combination" ("SFAS 141"), which was approved by the Financial Accounting Standards Board in June 2001, the Company is required to segregate these costs from its investment in real estate. The Company subsequently amortizes these costs on a straight-line basis over the weighted-average remaining life of the related lease. Amortization expense of approximately $99,000 and $4,000 is included in Depreciation and Amortization in the Company's Statements of Operations for the year ended December 31, 2002 and the period ended December 31, 2001, respectively.

Deferred lease origination costs included in the purchase price of the property were $461,000 and are being amortized over the weighted-average period of five years in respect of the lease assumed. Details of the deferred lease origination costs as of December 31:

	2002	2001
	-----	-----
Cost	$ 461,000	$ 461,000
Accumulated amortization	99,000	4,000
	-----	-----
Book value	$ 362,000	$ 457,000
	=====	=====

The estimated annual amortization expense for the five years succeeding December 31, 2002 are as follows:

2003	$ 99,000
2004	$ 99,000
2005	$ 99,000
2006	$ 65,000

SYNDICATION FEES

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Syndication fees are selling commissions and other costs associated with the initial offering of the Company's preferred shares. Such costs, in the amount of $1,671,000 have been reported as a reduction in the Stockholders' Equity in the Company's Balance Sheets.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

REVENUE RECOGNITION

The Company has retained substantially all of the risks and benefits of ownership of the Company's commercial property and accounts for its lease as an operating lease. Rental income from leases, which may include rent concessions (including free rent and tenant improvement allowances) and scheduled increases in rental rates during the lease term, is recognized on a straight-line basis. The Company does not have any percentage rent arrangements with its commercial property tenants. Reimbursable costs are included in rental income in the period earned. A schedule showing the components of rental revenue is shown below.

(in thousands)	Year Ended December 31, 2002	Period Ended December, 31 2001
Income from lease	$ 1,653	$ 488
Straight-line rent adjustment	116	26
Reimbursable expense	41	14
Total	$ 1,810	$ 528

INTEREST AND OTHER

Interest income and other income are recognized when the related services are performed and the earnings process is complete.

INCOME TAXES

The Company has elected to be taxed as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a REIT, the Company generally is entitled to a tax deduction for dividends paid to its shareholders, thereby effectively subjecting the distributed net income of the Company to taxation at the shareholder level only. The Company must comply with a variety of restrictions to maintain its status as a REIT. These restrictions include the type of income it can earn, the type of assets it can hold, the number of shareholders it can have and the concentration of their ownership, and the amount of the Company's taxable income that must be distributed annually.

NET INCOME PER SHARE

The Company follows Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 128 "Earnings per Share", which specifies the computation, presentation and disclosure requirements for the Company's net income per share. Basic net income per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period. Diluted net income per share reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue shares were exercised or converted into shares. There were no potential dilutive shares outstanding at December 31, 2002 and 2001. Subsequent to the completion of the offering of preferred shares, the holders of common stock are not entitled to share in any income. The denominator used for calculating basic and diluted net income per share is shown for preferred shares only and is as follows:

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

	Year Ended December 31,	Period Ended December 31,
	2002	2001
Weighted average number of preferred shares outstanding	200	200

3. Recent Accounting Standards

In August 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 143, "Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations," which addresses financial accounting and reporting for obligations associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets and the associated asset retirement costs. This Statement requires that the fair value of a liability for an asset retirement obligation be recognized in the period in which it is incurred if a reasonable estimate of the fair value can be made. The associated asset retirement costs are capitalized as part of the carrying amount of the long-lived asset. This Statement will be effective at the beginning of 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 143 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

In October 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 144 "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets". This Statement supersedes SFAS No. 121 and requires that long-lived assets that are to be disposed of by sale be measured at the lower of book value or fair value less costs to sell. SFAS No. 144 retains the fundamental provisions of SFAS 121 for (a) recognition and measurement of the impairment of long-lived assets to be held and used, and (b) measurement of long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale, but broadens the definition of what constitutes a discontinued operation and how the results of a discontinued operation are to be measured and presented. This Statement was effective at the beginning of 2002. The impact of adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows. The Company does not have any real estate assets that it considers "held for sale" at December 31, 2002.

In April 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 145 "Rescission of FASB Statements Nos. 4, 44, and 64, Amendment of SFAS 13, and Technical Corrections". This Statement rescinds SFAS No. 4, "Reporting Gains and Losses from Extinguishment of Debt", and an amendment of that Statement, SFAS No. 64, "Extinguishments of Debt Made to Satisfy Sinking-Fund Requirements". This Statement amends SFAS No. 13, "Accounting for Leases". This Statement also amends other existing authoritative pronouncements to make various technical corrections, clarify meanings or describe their applicability under changed conditions. This statement will be effective for the Company's fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 145 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flow.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

In July 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146 "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities". This statement will be effective January 1, 2003. SFAS No. 146 replaces current accounting literature and requires the recognition of costs associated with exit or disposal activities when they are incurred rather than at the date of a commitment to an exit or disposal plan. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of this statement will have a material effect on the Company's financial statements.

4. Income Taxes

The Company files as a REIT under Sections 856-860 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. In order to qualify as a REIT, the Company is required to distribute at least 90% of its taxable income to shareholders and to meet certain asset and income tests as well as certain other requirements. The Company will generally not be liable for federal income taxes, provided it satisfies their requirements. Even as a qualified REIT, the Company is subject to certain state and local taxes on its income and property.

For the period ended December 31, 2001, the Company incurred a net operating loss for income tax purposes of approximately $662,000 that can be carried forward until it expires in the year 2021.

The Company's net tax basis of its real estate assets is higher than the amount set forth in the Company's Balance Sheet by approximately $449,000.

The following schedule reconciles GAAP Net Income to Taxable Income subject to dividend requirements:

(in thousands)	Year Ended December 31, 2002	Period Ended December 31, 2001

(1) A tax loss is not subject to a dividend requirement.

The following schedule reconciles cash dividends paid to the dividends paid deduction:

5. Cash Available for Distribution

The Company evaluates its performance based on Cash Available for Distribution ("CAD") as management believes that CAD represents the most accurate measure of the Company's activity. CAD is the basis for distributions paid to equity holders.

The Company defines CAD as: net income as computed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"); plus certain non-cash items included in the computation of net income (depreciation and amortization, certain non-cash compensation expenses and straight line rent adjustments); plus funds raised by the issuance of shares; plus the net proceeds from the sale of land; less purchases of real estate assets, property and equipment ("Capital Expenditures"), payments for deferred leasing commissions and payments for deferred lease origination costs; plus (less) proceeds from (payments to) cash reserves established at the acquisition date of the property (cash-funded reserves). Depreciation and amortization, non-cash compensation and straight-line rents are an adjustment to CAD, as these are non-cash items included in net income. Capital Expenditures, payments of deferred leasing commissions and payments for deferred lease origination costs and the proceeds from (payments to) the funded reserve are an adjustment to CAD, as they represent cash items not reflected in income. CAD should not be considered as an alternative to net income (determined in accordance with GAAP), as an indicator of the Company's financial performance, nor as an alternative to cash flows from operating activities (determined in accordance with GAAP), nor as a measure of the Company's liquidity, nor is it necessarily indicative of sufficient cash flow to fund all of the Company's needs. Other real estate companies may define CAD in a different manner. It is at the Company's discretion to retain a portion of CAD for operational needs. We believe that in order to facilitate a clear understanding of the results of the Company, CAD should be examined in connection with net income and cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities in the financial statements.

6. Capital Stock

PREFERRED STOCK

Generally, each holder of Shares of Preferred Stock is entitled to receive ratably all income and all dividends, if any, declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available. The right to receive dividends shall be non-cumulative, and no right to dividends shall accrue by reason of the fact that no dividend has been declared in any prior year. Each holder of Shares will be entitled to receive, to the extent that funds are available therefore, $100,000 per Share, before any payment to the holder of Common Stock, out of distributions to stockholders upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the Company; the balance of any such funds available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Shares and the holder of Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares held by each; provided, however, that for these purposes, one share of Common Stock will be deemed to equal one-tenth of a share of Preferred Stock.

In addition to certain voting rights provided in the corporate agreements, the holder of Shares, acting by consent of at least 51%, shall have the further right to approve or disapprove a proposed sale of the Property, the merger of the Company with any other entity and amendments to the corporate charter. A vote of the holders of 66.67% of the Shares is required for the issue of any additional shares of capital stock. Holders of Shares have no redemption or conversion rights.

FSP Federal Way Corp.

6. Capital Stock (continued)

COMMON STOCK

Franklin Street Properties Corp. ("FSP"), is the sole holder of the Company's Common Stock. FSP has the right, as one class together with the holders of Preferred Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the Company and to vote on all matters except those voted by the holders of Shares of Preferred Stock. Subsequent to the completion of the offering of the preferred shares the holders of common shares are not entitled to receive any income, nor shall the Company declare or pay any cash dividends on shares of Common Stock.

7. Related Party Transactions

The Company executed a management agreement with FSP Property Management LLC, an affiliate of FSP, that provides for a management fee equal to 1% of collected revenues and is cancelable with 30 days notice by either party. For the year ended December 31, 2002 and the period ended December 31, 2001, fees incurred under the agreement were $17,000 and $5,000, respectively.

An acquisition fee of $50,000 was paid in 2001 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. Such fees were included in the cost of the real estate.

Syndication fees of $1,600,000 were paid in 2001 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder for services related to syndication of the Company's preferred stock.

During 2001, the Company borrowed and repaid in full:

Note payable to FSP, principal of $16,000,000 with interest equal to the Citizens Bank base. Interest paid to FSP was $16,000. The average interest rate during the time the loan was outstanding was 4.75%

A commitment fee of $1,150,000 was paid to FSP for obtaining the first mortgage loan. Such amount is included in interest expense on the Statement of Operations.

The Company paid a dividend of $15,000 to the common shareholder relating to earnings of the Company prior to the completion of the offering of preferred shares.

8. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company, as lessor, has future minimum rentals due under a non-cancelable operating lease as follows:

(in thousands)	Year Ended December 31,	Amount
	-----	-----
	2003	$ 1,696
	2004	1,739
	2005	1,782
	2006	1,207

$ 6,424

In addition, the lessee is liable for real estate taxes and certain operating expenses of the property.

Upon acquiring the commercial rental property in September, 2001, the Company was assigned the lease agreement between the seller of the Property and the existing tenant. The original lease period is five years with renewal options.

F-243

FSP Federal Way Corp.
Notes to Financial Statements

9. Subsequent Event

The Company has entered into a merger agreement with its common shareholder, Franklin Street Properties Corp ("FSP"). In January 2003 FSP filed a proxy statement with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission indicating its intent to acquire the preferred stock interests of the Company and twelve additional REITs. The merger requires the approval of the shareholders of the Company as well as the shareholders of the twelve additional REITs and the shareholders of FSP. If approved, FSP will issue shares of its common stock in exchange for a 100% ownership interest in the Company.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Stockholders
FSP Federal Way Corp.
(a Delaware Corporation)

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of FSP Federal Way Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) as of December 31, 2001 and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the period from July 26, 2001 (date of inception) to December 31, 2001. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FSP Federal Way Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) at December 31, 2001, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the period from July 26, 2001 (date of inception) to December 31, 2001 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

FSP FEDERAL WAY CORP.
(A DELAWARE CORPORATION)
NOTES ACCOMPANYING FINANCIAL STATEMENT

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

ORGANIZATION

FSP Federal Way Corp. was organized on July 26, 2001, as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware to purchase, own and operate a commercial building located in Federal Way, Washington (the "Property"). The Property consists of two multi-story Class "A" suburban office buildings containing 117,227 square feet. The Company acquired the Property on September 14, 2001 and will operate in a manner intended to qualify as a real estate investment trust ("REIT") for federal income tax purposes.

In October 2001, the Company completed a private offering of 200 shares of preferred stock at $100,000 per share.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

METHOD OF ACCOUNTING

The Company maintains its books and records on the accrual method of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

For purposes of the statements of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

INCOME TAXES

The Company has elected and intends to maintain its election as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a result, the Company generally will not be subject to federal taxation to the extent it distributes 90% of its REIT taxable income to its shareholders and satisfies certain other requirements. Accordingly, no provision for federal or state income taxes has been included in the accompanying financial statements.

For the period ended December 31, 2001, the Company incurred a net operating loss for income tax purposes of approximately $662,000 that can be carried forward until it expires in the year 2021. The primary difference between the financial and taxable net loss is due to timing difference in the recognition of rental revenue. Approximately $137,000 of such revenue is deferred for financial reporting purposes but included in taxable income.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

SYNDICATION FEES

Syndication fees are selling commissions and other costs associated with the initial offering of the Company's preferred shares. Such costs, in the amount of $1,670,889 have been reported as a reduction in the Stockholders' Equity.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

Rental income, which includes scheduled increases over the lease term, is recognized on a straight-line basis. Income recognized on a straight-line basis, differed from income that would have accrued in accordance with the lease by $25,017 in 2001.

NOTES ACCOMPANYING FINANCIAL STATEMENT

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES: (CONTINUED)

PROPERTY AND DEPRECIATION

Rental property is carried at cost. Depreciation is provided for in amounts sufficient to relate the cost of depreciable assets to operations over their estimated service lives of 39 years for real property by use of the straight-line method for financial reporting. Depreciation was $101,727 for the period ended December 31, 2001.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

2. CAPITAL STOCK:

PREFERRED STOCK

Each holder of Shares of Preferred Stock is entitled to receive ratably all dividends, if any, declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available. The right to receive dividends shall be non-cumulative, and no right to dividends shall accrue by reason of the fact that no dividend has been declared in any prior year. Each holder of Shares will be entitled to receive, to the extent that funds are available therefore, $100,000 per Share, before any payment to the holder of Common Stock, out of distributions to stockholders upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the Company; the balance of any such funds available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Shares and the holder of Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares held by each; provided, however, that for these purposes, one share of Common Stock will be deemed to equal one-tenth of a share of Preferred Stock.

The Company declared a dividend in December 2001 to holders on record on December 31, 2001. These dividends, in the amount of $405,000, were paid in 2002 and have been accrued and reflected in Stockholders' Equity.

In addition to certain voting rights provided in the corporate agreements, the holder of Shares, acting by consent of at least 51%, shall have the further right to approve or disapprove a proposed sale of the Property, the merger of the Company with any other entity and amendments to the corporate charter, and vote on the election and certain changes to the Board of Directors. A vote of the holders of 66.67% of the Shares is required for the issue of any additional shares of capital stock. Holders of Shares have the right, as one class together with the holder of Common Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the company. Holders of Shares have no redemption or conversion rights.

COMMON STOCK

Franklin Street Properties Corp. (FSP), formally Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership, is the sole holder of the Company's Common Stock. FSP has the right, as one class together with the holders of Preferred Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the Company and to vote on all matters except those voted by the holders of Shares of Preferred Stock. After completion of the offering of Shares, the Company shall not declare or pay any cash dividends on shares of Common Stock.

3. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS:

A management agreement was executed on September 14, 2001 between the Company and FSP Property Management LLC, an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. The agreement provides for a total management fee equal to 1% of collected revenues. The affiliate's portion of the fees earned and paid was $4,878 for the period ended December 31, 2001.

Other acquisition costs totaling $50,400 were paid to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

(A DELAWARE CORPORATION)

3. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS: (CONTINUED)

Syndication fees of $1,600,000 were paid in 2001 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder for services related to syndication of the investor's preferred stock interest.

A cash dividend in the amount of $15,359 during 2001 was paid to the Common Shareholder.

A commitment fee of $1,150,000 was paid to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder for obtaining the first mortgage loan. Such amount is included in interest on the Statement of Operations.

During 2001, the Company borrowed and repaid a note payable to Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership, the Common Shareholder, principal of $16,000,000 with interest equal to the Citizens Bank of Massachusetts base rate. Interest paid to the affiliate was $15,675 in 2001.

Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership operated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. On January 1, 2002, the limited partnership merged into Franklin Street Properties Corp (FSP), the Common Shareholder, and will operate in a manner intended to qualify as a real estate investment trust ("REIT") for federal income tax purposes.

4. LEASES:

The Company, as lessor, has minimum future rentals due under noncancellable an operating lease as follows:

Year Ended December 31, -----	Amount -----
2002	$ 1,653,373
2003	1,694,751
2004	1,737,301
2005	1,780,675
2006	1,272,836
Thereafter	--

	$ 8,138,936

In addition, the lessees are liable for real estate taxes and operating expenses as direct operating expenses to the lessee.

Upon acquiring the commercial rental property in September 2001, the Company was assigned the lease agreement between the seller of the Property and the existing tenants. The original lease period is five years with renewal options.

5. CONCENTRATIONS OF RISK:

For the period ended December 31, 2001, 100% of the rental income was derived from one lessee. As such, future rental receipts are dependent upon the financial strength of the lessee and their ability to perform under the lease agreement.

The Company maintains its cash accounts at one financial institution. The balances, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. At December 31, 2001, the Company had cash on deposit exceeding the insured limit by $1,598,062.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Stockholders
FSP Fair Lakes Corp.
(a Delaware Corporation)

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of FSP Fair Lakes Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows, as well as the financial statement schedule listed in the accompanying index, for the year ended December 31, 2002, and for the period from July 24, 2001 (date of inception) to December 31, 2001. These financial statements and financial statement schedule are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and financial statement schedule based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and financial statement schedule are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and financial statement schedule. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements and financial statement schedule referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FSP Fair Lakes Corp. as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2002, and for the initial period ended December 31, 2001 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Financial Statements

1. Organization

FSP Fair Lakes Corp. (the "Company") was organized on July 24, 2001 as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware to purchase, own and operate a commercial office building located in Fairfax, Virginia (the "Property"). The Property consists of a six-story Class "A" suburban office building that contains approximately 211,000 square feet of space situated on approximately 5.8 acres of land. The Company acquired the Property on September 17, 2001.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

ESTIMATES AND ASSUMPTIONS

The Company prepares its financial statements and related notes in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). These principles require management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

RECLASSIFICATIONS

Certain balances in the 2001 financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the 2002 presentation.

REAL ESTATE AND DEPRECIATION

Real estate assets are stated at the lower of cost or fair value, as appropriate, less accumulated depreciation.

Costs related to property acquisition and improvements are capitalized. Typical capital items include new roofs, site improvements, various exterior building improvements and major interior renovations. Funding for capital improvements typically is provided by cash set aside at the time the property was purchased.

Routine replacements and ordinary maintenance and repairs that do not extend the life of the asset are expensed as incurred. Typical expense items include interior painting, landscaping and minor carpet replacements. Funding for repairs and maintenance items typically is provided by cash flows from operating activities.

Depreciation is computed using the straight line method over the assets' estimated useful lives as follows:

Category	Years
-----	-----
Building - Commercial	39
Building Improvements	15-39
Furniture and equipment	5-7

F-262

FSP Fair Lakes Corp. Notes to Financial Statements

The following schedule reconciles the cost of the property as shown in the Offering Memorandum as to the amounts shown on the Company's Balance Sheet:

(in thousands)

Price per Offering Memorandum	$	39,000
Plus: Acquisition fees		--

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Plus: Other acquisition costs	460

Total Acquisition Costs	$ 39,460

These costs are reported in the Company's Balance Sheet as follows :

Land	$ 4,183
Building	33,791
Deferred lease origination costs	1,486

Total reported in Balance Sheet	$ 39,460

The Company evaluates its assets used in operations by identifying indicators of impairment and by comparing the sum of the estimated undiscounted future cash flows for each asset to the asset's carrying value. When indicators of impairment are present and the sum of the undiscounted future cash flows is less than the carrying value of such asset, an impairment loss is recorded equal to the difference between the asset's current carrying value and its fair value based on discounting its estimated future cash flows. At December 31, 2002, no such indicators of impairment were identified.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

CASH-FUNDED RESERVES

The Company has set aside funds in anticipation of future capital needs of the property. Although these funds typically are used for the payment of real estate assets and deferred leasing commissions, there is no legal restriction on their use and they may be used for any company purpose.

RESTRICTED CASH

Restricted cash consists of tenant security deposits.

MARKETABLE SECURITIES

The Company accounts for investments in debt securities under the provisions of SFAS No. 115, "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities". The Company typically has classified its debt securities as available-for-sale.

There were no investments in marketable securities at December 31, 2002 and 2001.

F-263

FSP Fair Lakes Corp.
Notes to Financial Statements

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISKS

Cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments are financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to a concentration of credit risk. The Company maintains its cash balances and short-term investments principally in one bank which the Company believes to be creditworthy. The Company periodically assesses the financial condition of the bank and believes that the risk of loss is minimal. Cash balances held with various financial institutions frequently exceed the insurance limit of $100,000 provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

For the year ended December 31, 2002 and period ended December 31, 2001 rental income was derived from a single tenant. As such, future receipts are dependent upon the financial strength of the lessee and its ability to perform under the lease agreement.

The property was originally leased to PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP ("PWC"). In 2002, PWC sold its consulting practice and assigned the lease to IBM Corporation. However, PWC still remains obligated under the lease in the event IBM Corporation fails to meet the terms of the lease.

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company estimates that the carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, cash-funded reserves and restricted cash approximate their fair values based on their short-term maturity and prevailing interest rates.

STEP RENT RECEIVABLE

Certain leases provide for fixed increases over the life of the lease. Rental revenue is recognized on the straight-line basis over the related lease term; however, billings by the Company are based on required minimum rentals in accordance with the lease agreements. Step rent receivable, which is the cumulative revenue recognized in excess of amounts billed by the Company, is $599,000 and $154,000 at December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

DEFERRED LEASE ORIGINATION COSTS

Deferred lease origination costs are the estimated value of legal and leasing costs related to the acquired lease that was included in the purchase price when the Company acquired the property. Under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 141 "Business Combinations" ("SFAS 141"), which was approved by the Financial Accounting Standards Board in June 2001, the Company is required to segregate these costs from its investment in real estate. The Company subsequently amortizes these costs on a straight-line basis over the remaining life of the related lease. Amortization expense of approximately $184,000 and $11,000 is included in Depreciation and Amortization in the Company's Statements of Operations for the year ended December 31, 2002 and the period ended December 31, 2001, respectively.

Deferred lease origination costs included in the purchase price of the property were $1,486,000 and are being amortized over the weighted-average period of eight years in respect of the lease assumed. Details of the deferred lease origination costs as of December 31:

	2002	2001
Cost	$ 1,486,000	$ 1,486,000
Accumulated amortization	195,000	11,000
Book value	$ 1,291,000	$ 1,475,000

The estimated annual amortization expense for the five years succeeding December 31, 2002 are as follows:

2003	$ 184,000
------	------------

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

2004	$	184,000

SYNDICATION FEES

REVENUE RECOGNITION

The Company has retained substantially all of the risks and benefits of ownership of the Company's commercial property and accounts for its lease as operating lease. Rental income from leases, which may include rent concessions (including free rent and tenant improvement allowances) and scheduled increases in rental rates during the lease term, is recognized on a straight-line basis. The Company does not have any percentage rent arrangements with its commercial property tenant. Reimbursable costs are included in rental income in the period earned. A schedule showing the components of rental revenue is shown below.

(in thousands)	Year Ended December 31, 2002	Period Ended December, 31 2001
Income from leases	$ 3,877	$ 1,117
Straight-line rent adjustment	445	154
Reimbursable expenses	2,192	560
Total	$ 6,514	$ 1,831

INTEREST AND OTHER

Interest income and other income are recognized when the related services are performed and the earnings process is complete.

INCOME TAXES

The Company has elected to be taxed as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a REIT, the Company generally is entitled to a tax deduction for dividends paid to its shareholders, thereby effectively subjecting the distributed net income of the Company to taxation at the shareholder level only. The Company must comply with a variety of restrictions to maintain its status as a REIT. These restrictions include the type of income it can earn, the type of assets it can hold, the number of shareholders it can have and the concentration of their ownership, and the amount of the Company's taxable income that must be distributed annually.

NET INCOME PER SHARE

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

The Company follows Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 128 "Earnings per Share", which specifies the computation, presentation and disclosure requirements for the Company's net income per share. Basic net income per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period. Diluted net income per share reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue shares were exercised or converted into shares. There were no potential dilutive shares outstanding at December 31, 2002 and 2001. Subsequent to the completion of the offering of preferred shares, the holders of common stock are not entitled to share in any income. The denominator used for calculating basic and diluted net income per share is shown for preferred shares only and is as follows:

	Year Ended December 31, 2002	Period Ended December 31, 2001

3. Recent Accounting Standards

In August 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 143, "Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations," which addresses financial accounting and reporting for obligations associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets and the associated asset retirement costs. This Statement requires that the fair value of a liability for an asset retirement obligation be recognized in the period in which it is incurred if a reasonable estimate of the fair value can be made. The associated asset retirement costs are capitalized as part of the carrying amount of the long-lived asset. This Statement will be effective at the beginning of 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 143 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

In October 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 144 "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets". This Statement supersedes SFAS No. 121 and requires that long-lived assets that are to be disposed of by sale be measured at the lower of book value or fair value less costs to sell. SFAS No. 144 retains the fundamental provisions of SFAS 121 for (a) recognition and measurement of the impairment of long-lived assets to be held and used, and (b) measurement of long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale, but broadens the definition of what constitutes a discontinued operation and how the results of a discontinued operation are to be measured and presented. This Statement was effective at the beginning of 2002. The impact of adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows. The Company does not have any real estate assets that it considers "held for sale" at December 31, 2002.

In April 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 145 "Rescission of FASB Statements Nos. 4, 44, and 64, Amendment of SFAS 13, and Technical Corrections". This Statement rescinds SFAS No. 4, "Reporting Gains and Losses from Extinguishment of Debt", and an amendment of that Statement, SFAS No. 64, "Extinguishments of Debt Made to Satisfy Sinking-Fund Requirements". This Statement amends SFAS No. 13, "Accounting for Leases". This Statement also amends other existing authoritative pronouncements to make various technical corrections, clarify meanings or describe their applicability under changed conditions. This statement will be effective for the Company's fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 145 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

In July 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146 "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities". This statement was effective January 1, 2003. SFAS No. 146 replaces current accounting literature and requires the recognition of costs associated with exit or disposal activities when they are incurred rather than at the date of a commitment to an exit or disposal plan. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of this statement will have a material effect on the Company's financial statements.

4. Income Taxes

The Company files as a REIT under Sections 856-860 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. In order to qualify as a REIT, the Company is required to distribute at least 90% of its taxable income to shareholders and to meet certain asset and income tests as well as certain other requirements. The Company will generally not be liable for federal income taxes, provided it satisfies these requirements. Even as a qualified REIT, the Company is subject to certain state and local taxes on its income and property.

For the period ended December 31, 2001, the Company incurred a net operating loss for income tax purposes of approximately $2,137,000 that can be carried forward until it expires in the year 2021.

The Company's net tax basis of its real estate assets is higher than the amount set forth in the Company's Balance Sheet by approximately $1,448,000 at December 31, 2002 and 2001.

5. Cash Available for Distribution

The Company evaluates its performance based on Cash Available for Distribution ("CAD") as management believes that CAD represents the most accurate measure of the Company's activity. CAD is the basis for distributions paid to equity holders.

The Company defines CAD as: net income as computed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"); plus certain non-cash items included in the computation of net income (depreciation and amortization, certain non-cash compensation expenses and straight line rent adjustments); plus funds raised by the issuance of shares; plus the net proceeds from the sale of land; less purchases of real estate assets, property and equipment ("Capital Expenditures"), payments for deferred leasing commissions and payments for deferred lease origination costs; plus (less) proceeds from (payments to) cash reserves established at the acquisition date of the property (Cash-funded reserves). Depreciation and amortization, non-cash compensation and straight-line rents are an adjustment to CAD, as these are non-cash items included in net income. Capital Expenditures, payments of deferred leasing commissions and payments for deferred lease origination costs and the proceeds from (payments to) the funded reserve are an adjustment to CAD, as they represent cash items not reflected in income. CAD should not be considered as an alternative to net income (determined in accordance with GAAP), as an indicator of the Company's financial performance, nor as an alternative to cash flows from operating activities (determined in accordance with GAAP), nor as a measure of the Company's liquidity, nor is it necessarily indicative of sufficient cash flow to fund all of the Company's needs. Other real estate companies may define CAD in a different manner. It is at the Company's discretion to retain a portion of CAD for operational needs. We believe that in order to facilitate a clear understanding of the results of the Company, CAD should be examined in connection with net income and cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities in the consolidated financial statements.

6. Capital Stock

PREFERRED STOCK

Generally, each holder of Shares of Preferred Stock is entitled to receive ratably all income and all dividends, if any, declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available. The right to receive dividends shall be non-cumulative, and no right to dividends shall accrue by reason of the fact that no dividend has been declared in any prior year. Each holder of Shares will be entitled to receive, to the extent that funds are available therefore, $100,000 per Share, before any payment to the holder of Common Stock, out of distributions to stockholders upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the Company; the balance of any such funds available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Shares and the holder of Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares held by each; provided, however, that for these purposes, one share of Common Stock will be deemed to equal one-tenth of a share of Preferred Stock.

In addition to certain voting rights provided in the corporate agreements, the holder of Shares, acting by consent of at least 51%, shall have the further right to approve or disapprove a proposed sale of the Property, the merger of the Company with any other entity and amendments to the corporate charter. A vote of the holders of 66.67% of the Shares is required for the issue of any additional shares of capital stock. Holders of Shares have no redemption or conversion rights.

6. Capital Stock (continued)

COMMON STOCK

Franklin Street Properties Corp. ("FSP"), is the sole holder of the Company's Common Stock. FSP has the right, as one class together with the holders of Preferred Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the Company and to vote on all matters except those voted by the holders of Shares of Preferred Stock. Subsequent to the completion of the offering of the preferred shares the holders of common shares are not entitled to receive any income, nor shall the Company declare or pay any cash dividends on shares of Common Stock.

7. Related Party Transactions

The Company executed a management agreement with FSP Property Management LLC, an affiliate of FSP, that provides for a management fee equal to 1% of collected revenues and is cancelable with 30 days notice by either party. For the year ended December 31, 2002 and the period ended December 31, 2001, fees incurred under the agreement were $66,000 and $17,000, respectively.

An acquisition fee and other costs totaling $280,000 were paid in 2001 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. Such fees were included in the cost of the real estate.

Syndication fees of $3,840,000 were paid in 2001 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder for services related to syndication of the Company's preferred stock.

During 2001, the Company borrowed and repaid in full:

Note payable to FSP, principal of $39,000,000 with interest equal to the Citizens Bank base. Interest paid to FSP was $181,000. The average interest rate during the time the loan was outstanding was 6.0%.

A commitment fee of $2,760,000 was paid to FSP for obtaining the first mortgage loan. Such amount is included in interest expense on the Statement of Operations.

The Company paid dividends of $88,000 and $23,000 in 2002 and 2001, respectively, to the common shareholder relating to earnings of the Company prior to the completion of the offering of preferred shares.

8. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company, as lessor, has future minimum rentals due under a non-cancelable operating lease as follows:

(in thousands)	Year Ended December 31,	Amount
----------------	----------------------------	--------

-----	-----
2003	$ 4,087
2004	4,190
2005	4,294
2006	4,402
2007	4,512
Thereafter	9,364
-----	-----
	$ 30,849

In addition, the lessee is liable for real estate taxes and certain operating expenses of the property.

Upon acquiring the commercial rental property in September, 2001, the Company was assigned the lease agreement between the seller of the Property and the existing tenant.

The original lease expires December 31, 2009 with two five-year options to renew.

9. Subsequent Event

The Company has entered into a merger agreement with its common shareholder, Franklin Street Properties Corp ("FSP"). In January 2003 FSP filed a proxy statement with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission indicating its intent to acquire the preferred stock interests of the Company and twelve additional REITs. The merger requires the approval of the shareholders of the Company as well as the shareholders of the twelve additional REITs and the shareholders of FSP. If approved, FSP will issue shares of its common stock in exchange for a 100% ownership interest in the Company.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Stockholders
FSP Fair Lakes Corp.
(a Delaware Corporation)

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of FSP Fair Lakes Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) as of December 31, 2001 and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the period from July 24, 2001 (date of inception) to December 31, 2001. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FSP Fair Lakes Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) at December 31, 2001, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the period from July 24, 2001 (date of inception) to December 31, 2001, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

FSP FAIR LAKES CORP.
(A DELAWARE CORPORATION)
NOTES ACCOMPANYING FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

ORGANIZATION

FSP Fair Lakes Corp. was organized on July 24, 2001 as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware to purchase, own and operate a commercial building located in Fairfax, Virginia (the "Property"). The Property consists of a six-story Class "A" suburban office building containing 210,993 square feet located on approximately 5.8 acres of land. The Company acquired the Property on September 17, 2001 and will operate in a manner intended to qualify as a real estate investment trust ("REIT") for federal income tax purposes.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

In November 2001, the Company completed a private offering of 480 shares of preferred stock at $100,000 per share.

METHOD OF ACCOUNTING

The Company maintains its books and records on the accrual method of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

For purposes of the statements of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

INCOME TAXES

The Company has elected and intends to maintain its election as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a result, the Company generally will not be subject to federal taxation to the extent it distributes 90% of its REIT taxable income to its shareholders and satisfies certain other requirements. Accordingly, no provision for federal or state income taxes has been included in the accompanying financial statements.

For the period ended December 31, 2001, the Company incurred a net operating loss for income tax purposes approximately of $2,137,000 that can be carried forward until it expires in the year 2021. The primary difference between the financial and taxable net loss is due to timing differences in the recognition of rental revenue. Approximately $154,000 of such revenue is recognized for financial reporting purposes but deferred for tax purposes.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

SYNDICATION FEES

Syndication fees are selling commissions and other costs associated with the initial offering of the Company's preferred shares. Such costs, in the amount of $3,954,574 have been reported as a reduction in the Stockholders' Equity.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

Rental income, which includes scheduled increases over the lease term, is recognized on a straight-line basis. Income recognized on a straight-line basis did materially differ from income that would have accrued in accordance with the leases.

NOTES ACCOMPANYING FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES: (CONTINUED)

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

PROPERTY AND DEPRECIATION

Rental property is carried at cost. Depreciation is provided for in amounts sufficient to relate the cost of depreciable assets to operations over their estimated service lives of 39 years for real property by use of the straight-line method for financial reporting. Depreciation was $263,821 for the period ended December 31, 2001.

2. CAPITAL STOCK:

PREFERRED STOCK

Each holder of Shares of Preferred Stock is entitled to receive ratably all dividends, if any, declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available. The right to receive dividends shall be non-cumulative, and no right to dividends shall accrue by reason of the fact that no dividend has been declared in any prior year. Each holder of Shares will be entitled to receive, to the extent that funds are available therefore, $100,000 per Share, before any payment to the holder of Common Stock, out of distributions to stockholders upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the Company; the balance of any such funds available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Shares and the holder of Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares held by each; provided, however, that for these purposes, one share of Common Stock will be deemed to equal one-tenth of a share of Preferred Stock.

The Company declared a dividend in 2001 to holders on record on December 31, 2001. These dividends, in the amount of $835,503, were paid in 2002 and have been accrued and reflected in Stockholders' Equity.

In addition to certain voting rights provided in the corporate agreements, the holder of Shares, acting by consent of at least 51%, shall have the further right to approve or disapprove a proposed sale of the Property, the merger of the Company with any other entity and amendments to the corporate charter, and vote on the election and certain changes to the Board of Directors. A vote of the holders of 66.67% of the Shares is required for the issue of any additional shares of capital stock. Holders of Shares have the right, as one class together with the holder of Common Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the company. Holders of Shares have no redemption or conversion rights.

COMMON STOCK

Franklin Street Properties Corp. (FSP), formerly Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership, is the sole holder of the Company's Common Stock. FSP has the right, as one class together with the holders of Preferred Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the Company and to vote on all matters except those voted by the holders of Shares of Preferred Stock. After completion of the offering of Shares, the Company shall not declare or pay any cash dividends on shares of Common Stock.

The Company paid dividends of $111,177 of which $88,177 was accrued at December 31, 2001 and paid February 2002.

3. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS:

A management agreement was executed on December 4, 2001 between the Company and FSP Property Management LLC, an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. The agreement provides for a total management fee equal to 1% of collected revenues. The affiliate's portion of the fees earned and paid was $16,508 for the period ended December 31, 2001.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

An acquisition fee and other costs totaling $280,341 were paid in 2001 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. Such fees were included in the cost of the real estate.

3. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS: (CONTINUED)

Syndication fees of $3,840,000 were paid in 2001 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder for services related to syndication of the investor's preferred stock interest.

A commitment fee of $2,760,000 was paid to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder for obtaining the first mortgage loan. Such amount is included in interest on the Statement of Operations.

During 2001, the Company borrowed and repaid in full a note payable to Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership, the Common Shareholder, principal of $39,000,000 with interest equal to the Citizens Bank of Massachusetts base rate. Interest paid to the affiliate was $180,668.

Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership operated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. On January 1, 2002, the limited partnership merged into Franklin Street Properties Corp (FSP), the Common Shareholder, and will operate in a manner intended to qualify as a real estate investment trust ("REIT") for federal income tax purposes.

4. LEASES:

The Company, as lessor, has minimum future rentals due under a noncancellable operating lease as follows:

Year Ended December 31, -----	Amount -----
2002	$ 3,876,732
2003	4,087,345
2004	4,189,541
2005	4,294,279
2006	4,401,637
Thereafter	13,876,229

	$34,725,763

In addition, the lessee is liable for real estate taxes and operating expenses as direct expenses to the lessee.

Upon acquiring the commercial rental property in September 2001, the Company was assigned the lease agreements between the seller of the Property and the existing tenants. The original lease expires December 31, 2009 with two five-year options to renew.

5. CONCENTRATIONS OF RISK:

For the period ended December 31, 2001, 100% of the rental income was derived from one lessee. As such, future rental receipts are dependent upon the financial strength of the lessee and its ability to perform under the lease agreement.

The Company maintains its cash accounts at one financial institution. The balances, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. At December 31, 2001, the Company had cash on deposit exceeding the insured limit by $649,753.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Stockholders
FSP Northwest Point Corp.
(a Delaware Corporation)

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of FSP Northwest Point Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows, as well as the financial statement schedule listed in the accompanying index, for the year ended December 31, 2002, and for the period from October 17, 2001 (date of inception) to December 31, 2001. These financial statements and financial statement schedule are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and financial statement schedule based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and financial statement schedule are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and financial statement schedule. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements and financial statement schedule referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FSP Northwest Point Corp. as of December 31, 2002 and 2001, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year ended December 31, 2002, and for the initial period ended December 31, 2001 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

FSP Northwest Point Corp. Notes to Financial Statements

1. Organization

FSP Northwest Point Corp. (the "Company") was organized on October 17, 2001 as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware to purchase, own and operate a commercial office building located in Elk Grove, Illinois (the "Property"). The Property consists of a six-story Class "A" suburban office building that contains approximately 177,000 square feet of space situated on approximately 5.3 acres of land. The company acquired the Property on December 5, 2001.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

ESTIMATES AND ASSUMPTIONS

The Company prepares its financial statements and related notes in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). These principles require management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

RECLASSIFICATIONS

Certain information in the 2001 financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the 2002 presentation.

REAL ESTATE AND DEPRECIATION

Real estate assets are stated at the lower of cost or fair value, as appropriate, less accumulated depreciation.

Costs related to property acquisition and improvements are capitalized. Typical capital items include new roofs, site improvements, various exterior building improvements and major interior renovations. Funding for capital improvements typically is provided by cash set aside at the time the property was purchased.

Routine replacements and ordinary maintenance and repairs that do not extend the life of the asset are expensed as incurred. Typical expense items include interior painting, landscaping and minor carpet replacements. Funding for repairs and maintenance items typically is provided by cash flows from operating activities.

Depreciation is computed using the straight line method over the assets' estimated useful lives as follows:

Category	Years
-----	-----
Building - Commercial	39
Building Improvements	15-39
Furniture and equipment	5-7

F-288

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

The following schedule reconciles the cost of the property as shown in the Offering Memorandum as to the amounts shown on the Company's Balance Sheet:

(in thousands)

Price per Offering Memorandum	$	30,150
Plus: Acquisition fees		186
Plus: Other acquisition costs		861

Total Acquisition Costs	$	31,197

These costs are reported in the Company's Balance Sheet as follows:

Land	$	3,242
Building		26,555
Deferred lease origination costs		1,400

Total reported in Balance Sheet	$	31,197

The Company evaluates its assets used in operations by identifying indicators of impairment and by comparing the sum of the estimated undiscounted future cash flows for each asset to the asset's carrying value. When indicators of impairment are present and the sum of the undiscounted future cash flows is less than the carrying value of such asset, an impairment loss is recorded equal to the difference between the asset's current carrying value and its fair value based on discounting its estimated future cash flows. At December 31, 2002 and 2001, no such indicators of impairment were identified.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

CASH-FUNDED RESERVES

The Company has set aside funds in anticipation of future capital needs of the property. Although these funds typically are used for the payment of real estate assets and deferred leasing commissions, there is no legal restriction on their use and they may be used for any company purpose.

RESTRICTED CASH

Restricted cash consists of tenant security deposits.

MARKETABLE SECURITIES

The Company accounts for investments in debt securities under the provisions of SFAS No. 115, "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities". The Company typically has classified its debt securities as available-for-sale.

There were no investments in marketable securities at December 31, 2002 and 2001.

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISKS

Cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments are financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to a concentration of credit risk. The Company maintains its cash balances and short-term investments principally in one bank which the Company believes to be creditworthy. The Company periodically assesses the financial condition of the bank and believes that the risk of loss is minimal. Cash balances held with various financial institutions frequently exceed the insurance limit of $100,000 provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Notes to Financial Statements

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISKS (continued)

For the year ended December 31, 2002 and the period ended December 31, 2001, 100% of the rental income was derived from one tenant, Motorola. As such, future receipts are dependent upon the financial strength of the lessee and its ability to perform under the lease agreement.

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company estimates that the carrying value of cash and cash equivalents and cash-funded reserves and restricted cash approximate their fair values based on their short-term maturity and prevailing interest rates.

STEP RENT RECEIVABLE

Certain leases provide for fixed increases over the life of the lease. Rental revenue is recognized on the straight-line basis over the related lease term; however, billings by the Company are based on required minimum rentals in accordance with the lease agreements. Step rent receivable, which is the cumulative revenue recognized in excess of amounts billed by the Company, is $339,000 and $0 at December 31, 2002 and 2001, respectively.

DEFERRED LEASE ORIGINATION COSTS

Deferred lease origination costs are the estimated value of legal and leasing costs related to acquired leases that were included in the purchase price when the Company acquired the property. Under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 141 "Business Combinations" ("SFAS 141"), which was approved by the Financial Accounting Standards Board in June 2001, the Company is required to segregate these costs from its investment in real estate. The Company subsequently amortizes these costs on a straight-line basis over the weighted-average remaining life of the related lease. Amortization expense of approximately $168,000 and $2 is included in Depreciation and Amortization in the Company's Statements of Operations for the year ended December 31, 2002 and the period ended December 31, 2001, respectively.

Deferred lease origination costs included in the purchase price of the property were $1,400,000 and are being amortized over the weighted-average period of six years in respect of the lease assumed. Details of the deferred lease origination costs as of December 31:

2001

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Cost	$ 1,400,000	$ 1,400,000
Accumulated amortization	170,000	2,000
Book value	$ 1,230,000	$ 1,398,000

The estimated annual amortization expense for the years succeeding December 31, 2002 are as follows:

2003	$ 170,000
2004	$ 170,000
2005	$ 170,000
2006	$ 170,000
2007	$ 170,000

SYNDICATION FEES

Syndication fees are selling commissions and other costs associated with the initial offering of the Company's preferred shares. Such costs, in the amount of $3,064,000 have been reported as a reduction in the Stockholders' Equity in the Company's Balance Sheets.

FSP Northwest Point Corp.
Notes to Financial Statements

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

REVENUE RECOGNITION

The Company has retained substantially all of the risks and benefits of ownership of the Company's commercial property and accounts for its lease as an operating lease. Rental income from the lease, which may include rent concession (including free rent and tenant improvement allowances) and scheduled increases in rental rates during the lease term, is recognized on a straight-line basis. The Company does not have any percentage rent arrangements with its commercial property tenants. Reimbursable costs are included in rental income in the period earned. A schedule showing the components of rental revenue is shown below:

(in thousands)	Year Ended December 31, 2002	Period Ended December, 31 2001
Income from lease	$ 2,956	$ 210
Straight-line rent adjustment	339	--
Reimbursable expense	1,832	141
Total	$ 5,127	$ 351

INTEREST AND OTHER

Interest income and other income are recognized when the related services are performed and the earnings process is complete.

INCOME TAXES

The Company has elected to be taxed as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

1986, as amended. As a REIT, the Company generally is entitled to a tax deduction for dividends paid to its shareholders, thereby effectively subjecting the distributed net income of the Company to taxation at the shareholder level only. The Company must comply with a variety of restrictions to maintain its status as a REIT. These restrictions include the type of income it can earn, the type of assets it can hold, the number of shareholders it can have and the concentration of their ownership, and the amount of the Company's taxable income that must be distributed annually.

NET INCOME PER SHARE

The Company follows Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 128 "Earnings per Share", which specifies the computation, presentation and disclosure requirements for the Company's net income per share. Basic net income per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period. Diluted net income per share reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue shares were exercised or converted into shares. There were no potential dilutive shares outstanding at December 31, 2002 and 2001. Subsequent to the completion of the offering of preferred shares, the holders of the common stock are not entitled to share in any income. The denominator used for calculating basic and diluted net income per share is shown for preferred shares only and is as follows:

	Year Ended December 31, 2002	Period Ended December 31, 2001
Weighted average number of preferred shares outstanding	372.5	372.5

F-291

FSP Northwest Point Corp.
Notes to Financial Statement

3. Recent Accounting Standards

In August 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 143, "Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations," which addresses financial accounting and reporting for obligations associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets and the associated asset retirement costs. This Statement requires that the fair value of a liability for an asset retirement obligation be recognized in the period in which it is incurred if a reasonable estimate of the fair value can be made. The associated asset retirement costs are capitalized as part of the carrying amount of the long-lived asset. This Statement will be effective at the beginning of 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 143 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

In October 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 144 "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets". This Statement supersedes SFAS No. 121 and requires that long-lived assets that are to be disposed of by sale be measured at the lower of book value or fair value less costs to sell. SFAS No. 144 retains the fundamental provisions of SFAS 121 for (a) recognition and measurement of the impairment of long-lived assets to be held and used, and (b) measurement of long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale, but broadens the definition of what constitutes a discontinued operation and how the results of a discontinued operation are to be measured and presented. This Statement was effective at the beginning of 2002. The impact of adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows. The Company does not have any real estate assets that it considers "held for sale" at December 31, 2002.

In April 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 145 "Rescission of FASB Statements Nos. 4, 44, and 64, Amendment of SFAS 13, and Technical Corrections". This Statement rescinds SFAS No. 4, "Reporting Gains and Losses from Extinguishment of Debt", and an amendment of that Statement, SFAS No. 64, "Extinguishments of Debt Made to Satisfy Sinking-Fund Requirements". This Statement amends SFAS No. 13, "Accounting for Leases". This Statement also amends other existing authoritative pronouncements to make various technical corrections, clarify meanings or describe their applicability under changed conditions. This statement will be effective for the Company's fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 145 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

In July 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146 "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities". This statement was effective January 1, 2003. SFAS No. 146 replaces current accounting literature and requires the recognition of costs associated with exit or disposal activities when they are incurred rather than at the date of a commitment to an exit or disposal plan. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of this statement will have a material effect on the Company's financial statements.

4. Income Taxes

The Company files as a REIT under Sections 856-860 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. In order to qualify as a REIT, the Company is required to distribute at least 90% of its taxable income to shareholders and to meet certain asset and income tests as well as certain other requirements. The Company will generally not be liable for federal income taxes, provided it satisfies their requirements. Even as a qualified REIT, the Company is subject to certain state and local taxes on its income and property.

For the period ended December 31, 2001, the Company incurred a net operating loss for income tax purposes of approximately $1,593,000 that can be carried forward until it expires in the year 2021.

The Company's net tax basis of its real estate assets is higher than the amount set forth in the Company's Balance Sheet by approximately $1,364,000.

5. Cash Available for Distribution

The Company evaluates its performance based on Cash Available for Distribution ("CAD") as management believes that CAD represents the most accurate measure of the Company's activity. CAD is the basis for distributions paid to equity holders.

The Company defines CAD as: net income as computed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"); plus certain non-cash items included in the computation of net income (depreciation and amortization, certain non-cash compensation expenses and straight line rent adjustments); plus funds raised by the issuance of shares; plus the net proceeds from the sale of land; less purchases of real estate assets, property and equipment ("Capital Expenditures"), payments for deferred leasing commissions and payments for deferred lease origination costs; plus (less) proceeds from (payments to) cash reserves established at the acquisition date of the property (cash-funded reserve). Depreciation and amortization, non-cash compensation and straight-line rents are an adjustment to CAD, as these are non-cash items included in net income. Capital Expenditures, payments of deferred leasing commissions and payments for deferred lease origination costs and the proceeds from (payments to) the funded reserve are an adjustment to CAD, as they represent cash items not reflected in income. CAD should not be considered as an alternative to net income (determined in accordance with GAAP), as an indicator of the Company's financial performance, nor as an alternative to cash flows from operating activities (determined in accordance with GAAP), nor as a measure of the Company's liquidity, nor is it necessarily indicative of sufficient cash flow to fund all of the Company's needs. Other real estate companies may define CAD in a different manner. It is at the Company's discretion to retain a portion of CAD for operational needs. We believe that in order to facilitate a clear understanding of the results of the Company, CAD should be examined in connection with net income and cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities in the financial statements.

6. Capital Stock

PREFERRED STOCK

Generally each holder of Shares of Preferred Stock is entitled to receive ratably all dividends, if any, declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available. The right to receive dividends shall be non-cumulative, and no right to dividends shall accrue by reason of the fact that no dividend has been declared in any prior year. Each holder of Shares will be entitled to receive, to the extent that funds are available therefore, $100,000 per Share, before any payment to the holder of Common Stock, out of distributions to stockholders upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the Company; the balance of any such funds available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Shares and the holder of Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares held by each; provided, however, that for these purposes, one share of Common Stock will be deemed to equal one-tenth of a share of Preferred Stock.

In addition to certain voting rights provided in the corporate agreements, the holder of Shares, acting by consent of at least 51%, shall have the further right to approve or disapprove a proposed sale of the Property, the merger of the Company with any other entity and amendments to the corporate charter. A vote of the holders of 66.67% of the Shares is required for the issue of any additional shares of capital stock. Holders of Shares have no redemption or conversion rights.

COMMON STOCK

Franklin Street Properties Corp. (FSP), is the sole holder of the Company's Common Stock. FSP has the right, as one class together with the holders of Preferred Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the Company and to vote on all matters except those voted by the holders of Shares of Preferred Stock. Subsequent to the completion of the offering of the preferred shares, the holders of common shares are not entitled to receive any income, nor shall the Company declare or pay any cash dividends on shares of Common Stock.

7. Related Party Transactions

The Company executed a management agreement with FSP Property Management LLC, an affiliate of FSP, that provides for a management fee equal to 1% of collected revenues and is cancelable with 30 days notice by either party. For the year ended December 31, 2002 and the period ended December 31, 2001, fees incurred under the agreement were $50,000 and $3,400, respectively.

An acquisition fee of $186,000 was paid in 2001 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. Such fees were included in the cost of the real estate.

Syndication fees of $2,980,000 were paid in 2001 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder for services related to syndication of the Company's preferred stock.

During 2001, the Company borrowed and repaid in full:

Note payable to FSP, principal of $30,150,000 with interest equal to the Citizens Bank base. Interest paid to FSP was $45,000. The average interest rate during the time the loan was outstanding was 4.75%.

A commitment fee of $2,142,000 was paid to FSP for obtaining the first mortgage loan. Such amount is included in interest expense on the Statement of Operations.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

The Company paid a dividend of $26,394 in 2001 to the common shareholder relating to earnings of the Company prior to the completion of the offering of preferred shares.

8. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company, as lessor, has future minimum rentals due under a non-cancelable operating lease as follows:

(in thousands)	Year Ended December 31, -----	Amount -----
	2003	$ 3,021
	2004	3,112
	2005	3,206
	2006	3,302
	2007	3,401
	Thereafter	8,019

		$ 24,061

In addition, the lessee is liable for real estate taxes and certain operating expenses of the property.

Upon acquiring the commercial rental property in December, 2001, the Company was assigned the lease agreement between the seller of the Property and the existing tenant. The original lease period is ten years with renewal options.

Notes to Financial Statements

9. Subsequent Event

The Company has entered into a merger agreement with its common shareholder, Franklin Street Properties Corp ("FSP"). In January 2003 FSP filed a proxy statement with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission indicating its intent to acquire the preferred stock interests of the Company and twelve additional REITs. The merger requires the approval of the shareholders of the Company as well as the shareholders of the twelve additional REITs and the shareholders of FSP. If approved, FSP will issue shares of its common stock in exchange for a 100% ownership interest in the Company.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Stockholders
FSP Northwest Point Corp.
(a Delaware Corporation)

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of FSP Northwest Point Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) as of December 31, 2001 and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the period from October 17, 2001 (date of inception) to December 31, 2001. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FSP Northwest Point Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) at December 31, 2001, and the results of its operations

(A DELAWARE CORPORATION))
NOTES ACCOMPANYING FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

ORGANIZATION

FSP Northwest Point Corp. was organized on October 17, 2001 as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware to purchase, own and operate a commercial building located in Elk Grove Village, Illinois (the "Property"). The Property consists of a six-story Class "A" suburban office building containing 176,848 rentable square feet of space positioned within the campus-like setting of the Park at Northwest Point, a 125-acre planned business park located in metropolitan Chicago's desirable northwest suburb of Elk Grove Village. The Company acquired the Property on December 5, 2001 and will operate in a manner intended to qualify as a real estate investment trust ("REIT") for federal income tax purposes.

In December 2001, the Company completed a private offering of 372.5 shares of preferred stock at $100,000 per share.

METHOD OF ACCOUNTING

The Company maintains its books and records on the accrual method of accounting in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

For purposes of the statements of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

INCOME TAXES

The Company has elected and intends to maintain its election as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a result, the Company generally will not be subject to federal taxation to the extent it distributes 90% of its REIT taxable income to its shareholders and satisfies certain other requirements. Accordingly, no provision for federal or state income taxes has been included in the accompanying financial statements.

For the period ended December 31, 2001, the Company incurred a net operating loss for income tax purposes of approximately $1,593,000 that can be carried forward until it expires in the year 2021. The primary difference between the financial and taxable net loss is due to timing difference in the recognition of rental revenues. Approximately $309,000 of such revenue is deferred for financial reporting purposes but included in taxable income.

USE OF ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

SYNDICATION FEES

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Syndication fees are selling commissions and other costs associated with the initial offering of the Company's preferred shares. Such costs, in the amount of $3,063,644, have been reported as a reduction in the Stockholders' Equity.

F-305

FSP NORTHWEST POINT CORP.
(A DELAWARE CORPORATION)
NOTES ACCOMPANYING FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES: (CONTINUED)

REVENUE RECOGNITION

Rental income, which includes scheduled increases over the lease term, is recognized on a straight-line basis. Income recognized on a straight-line basis did not materially differ from income that would have accrued in accordance with the leases.

PROPERTY AND DEPRECIATION

Rental property is carried at cost. Depreciation is provided for in amounts sufficient to relate the cost of depreciable assets to operations over their estimated service lives of 39 years for real property by use of the straight-line method for financial reporting. Depreciation was $29,866 for the period ended December 31, 2001.

2. CAPITAL STOCK:

PREFERRED STOCK

Each holder of Shares of Preferred Stock is entitled to receive ratably all dividends, if any, declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available. The right to receive dividends shall be non-cumulative, and no right to dividends shall accrue by reason of the fact that no dividend has been declared in any prior year. Each holder of Shares will be entitled to receive, to the extent that funds are available therefore, $100,000 per Share, before any payment to the holder of Common Stock, out of distributions to stockholders upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the Company; the balance of any such funds available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Shares and the holder of Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares held by each; provided, however, that for these purposes, one share of Common Stock will be deemed to equal one-tenth of a share of Preferred Stock.

The Company declared a dividend in December 2001 to holders on record on December 31, 2001. These dividends, in the amount of $132,201, were paid in 2002 and have been accrued and reflected in Stockholders' Equity.

In addition to certain voting rights provided in the corporate agreements, the holder of Shares, acting by consent of at least 51%, shall have the further right to approve or disapprove a proposed sale of the Property, the merger of the Company with any other entity and amendments to the corporate charter, and vote on the election and certain changes to the Board of Directors. A vote of the holders of 66.67% of the Shares is required for the issue of any additional shares of capital stock. Holders of Shares have no redemption or conversion rights.

COMMON STOCK

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Franklin Street Properties Corp. (FSP), formerly Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership, is the sole holder of the Company's Common Stock. FSP has the right, as one class together with the holders of Preferred Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the Company and to vote on all matters except those voted by the holders of Shares of Preferred Stock. After the completion of the offering of Shares, the Company shall not declare or pay any cash dividends on shares of Common Stock.

3. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS:

A management agreement was executed on December 5, 2001 between the Company and FSP Property Management LLC, an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. The agreement provides for a total management fee equal to 1% of gross revenue. The affiliate's portion of the fees earned was $3,400 for 2001, with $3,400 owed at December 31, 2001.

An acquisition fee and other costs totaling $186,250 were paid in 2001 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. Such fees were included in the cost of the real estate.

Syndication fees of $2,980,000 were paid in 2001 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder for services related to syndication of the investor's preferred stock interest.

A commitment fee of $2,141,875 was paid to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder for obtaining the first mortgage loan. Such amount is included in interest on the Statement of Operations.

During 2001, the Company borrowed and repaid in full a note payable to Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership, the Common Shareholder, principal of $30,150,000 with interest equal to the Citizens Bank of Massachusetts base rate. Interest owed at December 31, 2001 to the affiliate was $44,806.

Franklin Street Partners Limited Partnership operated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. On January 1, 2002, the limited partnership merged into Franklin Street Properties Corp (FSP), the Common Shareholder, and will operate in a manner intended to qualify as a real estate investment trust ("REIT") for federal income tax purposes.

4. LEASES:

The Company, as lessor, has minimum future rentals due under a noncancellable operating lease as follows:

Year Ended December 31, -----	Amount -----
2002	$ 2,687,206
2003	2,767,819
2004	2,851,232
2005	2,936,709
2006	3,024,985
Thereafter	10,537,193

 $24,805,144

In addition, the lessee is liable for real estate taxes and operating expenses as direct expenses to the lessee.

Upon acquiring the commercial rental property in December 2001, the Company was assigned the lease agreement between the seller of the Property and the existing tenant. The original lease period is ten years with renewal options.

F-307

FSP NORTHWEST POINT CORP.
 (A DELAWARE CORPORATION)
 NOTES ACCOMPANYING FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

5. CONCENTRATIONS OF RISK:

For the period ended December 31, 2001, 100% of the rental income was derived from one lessee. As such, future rental receipts are dependent upon the financial strength of the lessee and its ability to perform under the lease agreement.

The Company maintains its cash accounts at two financial institutions. The balances, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. At December 31, 2001, the Company had cash on deposit exceeding the insured limit by $2,066,188.

6. ACCRUED EXPENSES:

In conjunction with the purchase of the real estate, the Company assumed $692,219 of real estate taxes to be paid during 2002. This amount has been included in the cost of the property with the related obligation included in accrued expenses.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Stockholders
FSP Timberlake East Corp.
(a Delaware Corporation)

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of FSP Timberlake East Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) as of December 31, 2002, and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows, as well as the financial statement schedule listed in the accompanying index, for the period from January 10, 2002 (date of inception) to December 31, 2002. These financial statements and financial statement schedule are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and financial statement schedule based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and financial statement schedule are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and financial statement schedule. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements and financial statement schedule referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FSP Timberlake East Corp. as of December 31, 2002, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the initial period then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Financial Statements

1. Organization

FSP Timberlake East Corp. (the "Company") was organized on January 10, 2002 as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware to purchase, own and operate a commercial office building located in Chesterfield, Missouri (the "Property"). The Property consists of a five-story Class "A" suburban office building that contains approximately 116,000 square feet of space situated on approximately 8.6 acres of land. The Company acquired the Property on March 4, 2002.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The results of operations from inception to date are not necessarily indicative of the results to be obtained for other interim periods or for the full fiscal year.

ESTIMATES AND ASSUMPTIONS

The Company prepares its financial statements and related notes in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). These principles require management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

REAL ESTATE AND DEPRECIATION

Real estate assets are stated at the lower of cost or fair value, as appropriate, less accumulated depreciation.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Costs related to property acquisition and improvements are capitalized. Typical capital items include new roofs, site improvements, various exterior building improvements and major interior renovations. Funding for capital improvement typically is provided by cash set aside at the time the property was purchased.

Routine replacements and ordinary maintenance and repairs that do not extend the life of the asset are expensed as incurred. Typical expense items include interior painting, landscaping and minor carpet replacements. Funding for repairs and maintenance items typically is provided by cash flows from operating activities.

Depreciation is computed using the straight line method over the assets' estimated useful lives as follows:

Category	Years
-----	-----
Building - Commercial	39
Building Improvements	15-39
Furniture and equipment	5-7

The Company evaluates its assets used in operations by identifying indicators of impairment and by comparing the sum of the estimated undiscounted future cash flows for each asset to the asset's carrying value. When indicators of impairment are present and the sum of the undiscounted future cash flows is less than the carrying value of such asset, an impairment loss is recorded equal to the difference between the asset's current carrying value and its fair value based on discounting its estimated future cash flows. At December 31, 2002, no such indicators of impairment were identified.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

CASH-FUNDED RESERVES

The Company has set aside funds in anticipation of future capital needs of the property. Although these funds typically are used for the payment of real estate assets and deferred leasing commissions, there is no legal restriction on their use and they may be used for any company purpose.

RESTRICTED CASH

Restricted cash consists of tenant security deposits.

MARKETABLE SECURITIES

The Company accounts for investments in debt securities under the provisions of SFAS No. 115, "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities". The Company typically has classified its debt securities as available-for-sale.

There were no investments in marketable securities at December 31, 2002.

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISKS

Cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments are financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to a concentration of credit risk. The Company maintains its cash balances and short-term investments principally in one bank which the Company believes to be creditworthy. The Company periodically assesses the financial condition of the bank and believes that the risk of loss is minimal. Cash balances held with various financial institutions frequently exceed the insurance limit of $100,000 provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

For the period ended December 31, 2002 rental income was derived from various tenants. As such, future receipts are dependent upon the financial strength of the lessees and their ability to perform under the lease agreements.

The following tenants represent greater than 10% of total revenue:

Quest Software, Inc.	22%
Computer Associates International, Inc.	21%
Prudential Securities Incorporated	13%
Reinsurance Group of America, Inc.	12%

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company estimates that the carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, cash-funded reserves and restricted cash approximate their fair values based on their short-term maturity and prevailing interest rates.

STEP RENT RECEIVABLE

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Certain leases provide for fixed increases over the life of the lease. Rental revenue is recognized on the straight-line basis over the related lease term; however, billings by the Company are based on required minimum rentals in accordance with the lease agreements. Step rent receivable, which is the cumulative revenue recognized in excess of amounts billed by the Company, is $108,000 at December 31, 2002.

DEFERRED LEASE ORIGINATION COSTS

Deferred lease origination costs are the estimated value of legal and leasing costs related to acquired leases that were included in the purchase price when the Company acquired the property. Under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 141 "Business Combinations" ("SFAS 141"), which was approved by the Financial Accounting Standards Board in June 2001, the Company is required to segregate these costs from its investment in real estate. The Company subsequently amortizes these costs on a straight-line basis over the weighted-average remaining life of the related leases. Amortization expense of approximately $112,000 is included in Depreciation and Amortization in the Company's Statement of Operations for the period ended December 31, 2002.

Deferred lease origination costs included in the purchase price of the property were $705,000 and are being amortized over the weighted-average period of six years in respect of the leases assumed. Details of the deferred lease origination costs as of December 31, 2002:

Cost	$ 705,000
Accumulated amortization	112,000

Book value	$ 593,000

The estimated annual amortization expense for the five years succeeding December 31, 2002 are as follows:

2003	$ 134,000
2004	$ 134,000
2005	$ 134,000
2006	$ 134,000

DEFERRED LEASING COMMISSIONS

Deferred leasing commissions represent external leasing costs incurred in the leasing of commercial space. These costs are capitalized and are amortized on a straight-line basis over the weighted-average remaining life of the related leases. Amortization expense of approximately $5,000 is included in Depreciation and Amortization in the Company's Statement of Operations for the period ended December 31, 2002.

Payments for deferred leasing commissions in 2002 amounted to $35,000 which is being amortized over the weighted-average period of seven years in respect of the leases. Details of the deferred leasing commissions as of December 31, 2002:

The estimated annual amortization expense for the five years succeeding December 31, 2002 are as follows:

2003	$	5,000
2004	$	5,000
2005	$	5,000
2006	$	5,000
2007	$	5,000

SYNDICATION FEES

REVENUE RECOGNITION

The Company has retained substantially all of the risks and benefits of ownership of the Company's commercial property and accounts for its leases as operating leases. Rental income from leases, which may include rent concessions (including free rent and tenant improvement allowances) and scheduled increases in rental rates during the lease term, is recognized on a straight-line basis. The Company does not have any percentage rent arrangements with its commercial property tenants. Reimbursable costs are included in rental income in the period earned. A schedule showing the components of rental revenue is shown below.

(in thousands)	Period Ended December 31, 2002
Income from leases	$ 2,076
Straight-line rent adjustment	108
Reimbursable expenses	219

INCOME TAXES

The Company has elected to be taxed as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a REIT, the Company generally is entitled to a tax deduction for dividends paid to its shareholders, thereby effectively subjecting the distributed net income of the Company to taxation at the shareholder level only. The Company must comply with a variety of restrictions to maintain its status as a REIT. These restrictions include the type of income it can earn, the type of assets it can hold, the number of shareholders it can have and the concentration of their ownership, and the amount of the Company's taxable income that must be distributed annually.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

NET INCOME PER SHARE

The Company follows Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 128 "Earnings per Share", which specifies the computation, presentation and disclosure requirements for the Company's net income per share. Basic net income per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period. Diluted net income per share reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue shares were exercised or converted into shares. There were no potential dilutive shares outstanding at December 31, 2002. Subsequent to the completion of the offering of preferred shares, the holders of common stock are not entitled to share in any income. The denominator used for calculating basic and diluted net income per share is shown for preferred shares only and is as follows:

	Period Ended December 31, 2002
Weighted average number of preferred shares outstanding	250

3. Recent Accounting Standards

In August 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 143, "Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations," which addresses financial accounting and reporting for obligations associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets and the associated asset retirement costs. This Statement requires that the fair value of a liability for an asset retirement obligation be recognized in the period in which it is incurred if a reasonable estimate of the fair value can be made. The associated asset retirement costs are capitalized as part of the carrying amount of the long-lived asset. This Statement will be effective at the beginning of 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 143 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

In October 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 144 "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets". This Statement supersedes SFAS No. 121 and requires that long-lived assets that are to be disposed of by sale be measured at the lower of book value or fair value less costs to sell. SFAS No. 144 retains the fundamental provisions of SFAS 121 for (a) recognition and measurement of the impairment of long-lived assets to be held and used, and (b) measurement of long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale, but broadens the definition of what constitutes a discontinued operation and how the results of a discontinued operation are to be measured and presented. This Statement was effective at the beginning of 2002. The impact of adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows. The Company does not have any real estate assets that it considers "held for sale" at December 31, 2002.

In April 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 145 "Rescission of FASB Statements Nos. 4, 44, and 64, Amendment of SFAS 13, and Technical Corrections". This Statement rescinds SFAS No. 4, "Reporting Gains and Losses from Extinguishment of Debt", and an amendment of that Statement, SFAS No. 64, "Extinguishments of Debt Made to Satisfy Sinking-Fund Requirements". This Statement amends SFAS No. 13, "Accounting for Leases". This Statement also amends other existing authoritative pronouncements to make various technical corrections, clarify meanings or describe their applicability under changed conditions. This statement will be effective for the Company's fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 145 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

F-319

FSP Timberlake East Corp.

3. Recent Accounting Standards (continued)

In July 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146 "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities". This statement was effective January 1, 2003. SFAS No. 146 replaces current accounting literature and requires the recognition of costs associated with exit or disposal activities when they are incurred rather than at the date of a commitment to an exit or disposal plan. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of this statement will have a material effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

4. Income Taxes

The Company files as a REIT under Sections 856-860 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. In order to qualify as a REIT, the Company is required to distribute at least 90% of its taxable income to shareholders and to meet certain asset and income tests as well as certain other requirements. The Company will generally not be liable for federal income taxes, provided it satisfies their requirements. Even as a qualified REIT, the Company is subject to certain state and local taxes on its income and property.

For the period ended December 31, 2002, the Company incurred a net operating loss for income tax purposes of approximately $300,000 that can be carried forward until it expires in the year 2022.

At December 31, 2002 the Company's net tax basis of its real estate assets is higher than the amount set forth in the Company's Balance Sheet by approximately $691,000.

The following schedule reconciles GAAP Net Income to Taxable Income subject to dividend requirements:

5. Cash Available for Distribution

The Company evaluates its performance based on Cash Available for Distribution ("CAD") as management believes that CAD represents the most accurate measure of the Company's activity. CAD is the basis for distributions paid to equity holders.

The Company defines CAD as: net income as computed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"); plus certain non-cash items included in the computation of net income (depreciation, certain non-cash compensation expenses and straight line rent adjustments); plus funds raised by the issuance of shares; plus the net proceeds from the sale of land; less purchases of real estate assets, property and equipment ("Capital Expenditures") payments for deferred leasing commissions and payments for deferred lease origination costs; plus (less) proceeds from (payments to) cash reserves established at the acquisition date of the property (cash funded reserves). Depreciation and amortization, non-cash compensation and straight-line rents are an adjustment to CAD, as these are non-cash items included in net income. Capital Expenditures, payments of deferred leasing commissions and payments for deferred lease origination costs and the proceeds from (payments to) the funded reserve are an adjustment to CAD, as they represent cash items not reflected in income. CAD should not be considered as an alternative to net income (determined in accordance with GAAP), as an indicator of the Company's financial performance, nor as an alternative to cash flows from operating activities (determined in accordance with GAAP), nor as a measure of the Company's liquidity, nor is it necessarily indicative of sufficient cash flow to fund all of the Company's needs. Other real estate companies may define CAD in a different manner. It is at the Company's discretion to retain a portion of CAD for operational needs. We believe that in order to facilitate a clear understanding of the results of the Company, CAD should be examined in connection with net income and cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities in the financial statements.

The calculation of CAD is shown in the following table:

6. Capital Stock

PREFERRED STOCK

Generally, each holder of Shares of Preferred Stock is entitled to receive ratably all income and all dividends, if any, declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available. The right to receive dividends shall be non-cumulative, and no right to dividends shall accrue by reason of the fact that no dividend has been declared in any prior year. Each holder of Shares will be entitled to receive, to the extent that funds are available therefore, $100,000 per Share, before any payment to the holder of Common Stock, out of distributions to stockholders upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the Company; the balance of any such funds available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Shares and the holder of Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares held by each; provided, however, that for these purposes, one share of Common Stock will be deemed to equal one-tenth of a share of Preferred Stock.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

In addition to certain voting rights provided in the corporate agreements, the holder of Shares, acting by consent of at least 51%, shall have the further right to approve or disapprove a proposed sale of the Property, the merger of the Company with any other entity and amendments to the corporate charter. A vote of the holders of 66.67% of the Shares is required for the issue of any additional shares of capital stock. Holders of Shares have no redemption or conversion rights.

COMMON STOCK

Franklin Street Properties Corp. ("FSP"), is the sole holder of the Company's Common Stock. FSP has the right, as one class together with the holders of Preferred Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the Company and to vote on all matters except those voted by the holders of Shares of Preferred Stock. Subsequent to the completion of the offering of the preferred shares the holders of common shares are not entitled to receive any income, nor shall the Company declare or pay any cash dividends on shares of Common Stock.

7. Related Party Transactions

The Company executed a management agreement with FSP Property Management LLC, an affiliate of FSP, that provides for a management fee equal to 1% of collected revenues and is cancelable with 30 days notice by either party. For the period ended December 31, 2002, fees incurred under the agreement were $22,000.

An acquisition fee of $125,000 and other costs totaling $11,000 were paid in 2002 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. Such fees were included in the cost of the real estate.

Syndication fees of $2,000,000 were paid in 2002 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder for services related to syndication of the Company's preferred stock.

During 2002, the Company borrowed and repaid in full:

Note payable to FSP, principal of $20,360,000 with interest equal to the Citizens Bank base. Interest paid to FSP was $17,000. The average interest rate during the time the loan was outstanding was 4.75%.

A commitment fee of $1,437,000 was paid to FSP for obtaining the first mortgage loan. Such amount is included in interest expense on the Statement of Operations.

The Company paid a dividend of $15,000 to the common shareholder relating to earnings of the Company prior to the completion of the offering of preferred shares.

FSP Timberlake East Corp. Notes to Financial Statements

8. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company, as lessor, has future minimum rentals due under non-cancelable operating leases as follows:

(in thousands)	Year Ended December 31,	Amount
----------------	----------------------------	--------

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

2003	$ 2,588
2004	2,666
2005	2,249
2006	1,559
2007	901
Thereafter	1,971
	$ 11,934

In addition, the lessees are liable for real estate taxes and certain operating expenses of the property.

Upon acquiring the commercial rental property in March, 2002, the Company was assigned the lease agreements between the seller of the Property and the existing tenants. The original lease periods range from four to eleven years with renewal options.

9. Subsequent Event

The Company has entered into a merger agreement with its common shareholder, Franklin Street Properties Corp ("FSP"). In January 2003 FSP filed a proxy statement with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission indicating its intent to acquire the preferred stock interests of the Company and twelve additional REITs. The merger requires the approval of the shareholders of the Company as well as the shareholders of the twelve additional REITs and the shareholders of FSP. If approved, FSP will issue shares of its common stock in exchange for a 100% ownership interest in the Company.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Stockholders
FSP Merrywood Apartments Corp.
(a Delaware Corporation)

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of FSP Merrywood Apartments Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) as of December 31, 2002, and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows, as well as the financial statement schedule listed in the accompanying index, for the period from March 1, 2002 (date of inception) to December 31, 2002. These financial statements and financial statement schedule are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and financial statement schedule based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and financial statement schedule are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and financial statement schedule. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements and financial statement schedule referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FSP Merrywood Apartments Corp. as of December 31, 2002, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the initial period then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Financial Statements

1. Organization

FSP Merrywood Apartments Corp. (the "Company") was organized on March 1, 2002 as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware to purchase, own and operate a newly constructed 228 unit luxury apartment complex in Katy, Texas (the "Property"). The Property consists of thirteen two-story apartment buildings situated on approximately 14.4 acres of land. The company acquired the Property on April 24, 2002.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The results of operations from inception to date are not necessarily indicative of the results to be obtained for other interim periods or for the full fiscal year.

ESTIMATES AND ASSUMPTIONS

The Company prepares its financial statements and related notes in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). These principles require management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

REAL ESTATE AND DEPRECIATION

Real estate assets are stated at the lower of cost or fair value, as appropriate, less accumulated depreciation.

Costs related to property acquisition and improvements are capitalized. Typical capital items include new roofs, site improvements, various exterior building improvements and major interior renovations. Funding for capital improvement typically is provided by cash set aside at the time the property was purchased.

Routine replacements and ordinary maintenance and repairs that do not extend the life of the asset are expensed as incurred. Typical expense items include interior painting, landscaping and minor carpet replacements. Funding for repairs and maintenance items typically is provided by cash flows from operating activities.

Depreciation is computed using the straight line method over the assets' estimated useful lives as follows:

Category	Years
-----	-----
Building - Apartments	27.5
Building Improvements	15-27.5
Furniture and equipment	5-7

F-334

FSP Merrywood Apartments Corp.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

CASH-FUNDED RESERVES

The Company has set aside funds in anticipation of future capital needs of the property. Although these funds typically are used for the payment of real estate assets and deferred leasing commissions, there is no legal restriction on their use and they may be used for any company purpose.

RESTRICTED CASH

Restricted cash consists of tenant security deposits.

MARKETABLE SECURITIES

The Company accounts for investments in debt securities under the provisions of SFAS No. 115, "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities". The Company typically has classified its debt securities as available-for-sale.

There were no investments in marketable securities at December 31, 2002.

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISKS

Cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments are financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to a concentration of credit risk. The Company maintains its cash balances and short-term investments principally in one bank which the Company believes to be creditworthy. The Company periodically assesses the financial condition of the bank and believes that the risk of loss is minimal. Cash balances held with various financial institutions frequently exceed the insurance limit of $100,000 provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company estimates that the carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, cash-funded reserves and restricted cash approximate their fair values based on their short-term maturity and prevailing interest rates.

SYNDICATION FEES

Syndication fees are selling commissions and other costs associated with the initial offering of the Company's preferred shares. Such costs, in the amount of $1,709,000 have been reported as a reduction in the Stockholders' Equity in the Company's Balance Sheet.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

The Company's residential property leases are generally for terms of one year or less. Rental income from tenants of residential apartment properties is recognized in the period earned. Rent concessions, including free rent and leasing commissions are charged as a reduction of rental revenue.

INTEREST AND OTHER

Interest income and other income are recognized when the related services are performed and the earnings process is complete.

F-335

FSP Merrywood Apartments Corp. Notes to Financial Statements

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

INCOME TAXES

The Company has elected to be taxed as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a REIT, the Company generally is entitled to a tax deduction for dividends paid to its shareholders, thereby effectively subjecting the distributed net income of the Company to taxation at the shareholder level only. The Company must comply with a variety of restrictions to maintain its status as a REIT. These restrictions include the type of income it can earn, the type of assets it can hold, the number of shareholders it can have and the concentration of their ownership, and the amount of the Company's taxable income that must be distributed annually.

NET INCOME PER SHARE

The Company follows Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 128 "Earnings per Share", which specifies the computation, presentation and disclosure requirements for the Company's net income per share. Basic net income per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period. Diluted net income per share reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue shares were exercised or converted into shares. There were no potential dilutive shares outstanding at December 31, 2002. The denominator used for calculating basic and diluted net income per share is shown for preferred shares only and is as follows:

3. Recent Accounting Standards

In August 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 143, "Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations," which addresses financial accounting and reporting for obligations associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets and the associated asset retirement costs. This Statement requires that the fair value of a liability for an asset retirement obligation be recognized in the period in which it is incurred if a reasonable estimate of the fair value can be made. The associated asset retirement costs are capitalized as part of the carrying amount of the long-lived asset. This Statement will be effective at the beginning of 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 143 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

In October 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 144 "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets". This Statement supersedes SFAS No. 121 and requires that long-lived assets that are to be disposed of by sale be measured at the lower of book value or fair value less costs to sell. SFAS No. 144 retains the fundamental provisions of SFAS 121 for (a) recognition and measurement of the impairment of long-lived assets to be held and used, and (b) measurement of long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale, but broadens the definition of what constitutes a discontinued operation and how the results of a discontinued operation are to be measured and presented. This Statement was effective at the beginning of 2002. The impact of adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows. The Company does not have any real estate assets that it considers "held for sale" at December 31, 2002.

In April 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 145 "Rescission of FASB Statement Nos. 4, 44, and 64, Amendment of SFAS 13, and Technical Corrections". This Statement rescinds SFAS No. 4, "Reporting Gains and Losses from Extinguishment of Debt", and an amendment of that Statement, SFAS No. 64, "Extinguishments of Debt Made to Satisfy Sinking-Fund Requirements". This Statement amends SFAS No. 13, "Accounting for Leases". This Statement also amends other existing authoritative pronouncements to make various technical corrections, clarify meanings or describe their applicability under changed conditions. This statement will be effective for the Company's fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 145 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

F-336

FSP Merrywood Apartments Corp.

3. Recent Accounting Standards (continued)

In July 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146 "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities". This statement was effective January 1, 2003. SFAS No. 146 replaces current accounting literature and requires the recognition of costs associated with exit or disposal activities when they are incurred rather than at the date of a commitment to an exit or disposal plan. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of this statement will have a material effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

4. Income Taxes

The Company files as a REIT under Sections 856-860 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. In order to qualify as a REIT, the Company is required to distribute at least 90% of its taxable income to shareholders and to meet certain asset and income tests as well as certain other requirements. The Company will generally not be liable for federal income taxes, provided it satisfies their requirements. Even as a qualified REIT, the Company is subject to certain state and local taxes on its income and property.

For the period ended December 31, 2002, the Company incurred a net operating loss for income tax purposes of approximately $565,000 that can be carried forward until it expires in the year 2022.

At December 31, 2002 the Company's net tax basis of its real estate assets approximates the amount set forth in the Company's Balance Sheet.

The following schedule reconciles GAAP Net Income to Taxable Income subject to dividend requirements:

(in thousands)	Period Ended December 31, 2002

5. Cash Available for Distribution

The Company evaluates the performance of its reportable segments based on Cash Available for Distribution ("CAD") as management believes that CAD represents the most accurate measure of the reportable segment's activity and is the basis for distributions paid to equity holders.

The Company defines CAD as: net income as computed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"); plus certain non-cash items included in the computation of net income (depreciation and certain non-cash compensation expenses); plus funds raised by the issuance of shares; plus the net proceeds from the sale of land; less purchases of real estate assets and property and equipment ("Capital Expenditures") plus (less) proceeds from (payments to) cash reserves established at the acquisition date of the property (Cash-funded reserves). Depreciation and non-cash compensation are an adjustment to CAD, as these are non-cash items included in net income. Capital Expenditures and the proceeds from (payments to) the funded reserve are an adjustment to CAD, as they represent cash items not reflected in income. CAD should not be considered as an alternative to net income (determined in accordance with GAAP), as an indicator of the Company's financial performance, nor as an alternative to cash flows from operating activities (determined in accordance with GAAP), nor as a measure of the Company's liquidity, nor is it necessarily indicative of sufficient cash flow to fund all of the Company's needs. Other real estate companies may define CAD in a different manner. It is at the Company's discretion to retain a portion of CAD for operational needs. We believe that in order to facilitate a clear understanding of the results of the Company, CAD should be examined in connection with net income and cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities in the financial statements.

The calculation of CAD is shown in the following table:

(in thousands)	December 31, 2002

6. Capital Stock

PREFERRED STOCK

Generally, each holder of Shares of Preferred Stock is entitled to receive ratably all income and all dividends, if any, declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available. The right to receive dividends shall be non-cumulative, and no right to dividends shall accrue by reason of the fact that no dividend has been declared in any prior year. Each holder of Shares will be entitled to receive, to the extent that funds are available therefore, $100,000 per Share, before any payment to the holder of Common Stock, out of distributions to stockholders upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the Company; the balance of any such funds available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Shares and the holder of Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares held by each; provided, however, that for these purposes, one share of Common Stock will be deemed to equal one-tenth of a share of Preferred Stock.

In addition to certain voting rights provided in the corporate agreements, the holder of Shares, acting by consent of at least 51%, shall have the further right to approve or disapprove a proposed sale of the Property, the merger of the Company with any other entity and amendments to the corporate charter. A vote of the holders of 66.67% of the Shares is required for the issue of any additional shares of capital stock. Holders of Shares have no redemption or conversion rights.

COMMON STOCK

Franklin Street Properties Corp. ("FSP"), is the sole holder of the Company's Common Stock. FSP has the right, as one class together with the holders of Preferred Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the Company and to vote on all matters except those voted by the holders of Shares of Preferred Stock. Subsequent to the completion of the offering of the preferred shares the holders of common shares are not entitled to receive any income, nor shall the Company declare or pay any cash dividends on shares of Common Stock .

7. Related Party Transactions

The Company executed a management agreement with FSP Property Management LLC, an affiliate of FSP, that provides for a management fee equal to 1% of collected revenues and is cancelable with 30 days notice by either party. For the period ended December 31, 2002, fees earned under the agreement were $18,205.

An acquisition fee of $107,000 was paid in 2002 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. Such fees were included in the cost of the real estate.

Syndication fees of $1,648,000 were paid in 2002 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder for services related to syndication of the Company's preferred stock.

During 2002, the Company borrowed and repaid in full:

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Note payable to FSP, principal of $17,000,000 with interest equal to the Citizens Bank base rate (4.75%). Interest paid to the affiliate was $18,371.

A commitment fee of $1,184,500 was paid for obtaining the first mortgage loan. Such amount is included in interest expense on the Statement of Operations.

The Company paid a dividend of $26,000 to the common shareholder relating to earnings of the Company prior to the completion of the offering of preferred shares.

8. Subsequent Event

The Company has entered into a merger agreement with its common shareholder, Franklin Street Properties Corp ("FSP"). In January 2003 FSP filed a proxy statement with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission indicating its intent to acquire the preferred stock interests of the Company and twelve additional REITs. The merger requires the approval of the shareholders of the Company as well as the shareholders of the twelve additional REITs and the shareholders of FSP. If approved, FSP will issue shares of its common stock in exchange for a 100% ownership interest in the Company.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Stockholders
FSP Plaza Ridge Corp.
(a Delaware Corporation)

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of FSP Plaza Ridge Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) as of December 31, 2002, and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows, as well as the financial statement schedule listed in the accompanying index, for the period from February 28, 2002 (date of inception) to December 31, 2002. These financial statements and financial statement schedule are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and financial statement schedule based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and financial statement schedule are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and financial statement schedule. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements and financial statement schedule referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FSP Plaza Ridge Corp. as of December 31, 2002, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the initial period then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Financial Statements

1. Organization

FSP Plaza Ridge Corp. (the "Company") was organized on February 28, 2002 as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware to purchase, own and operate a commercial office building located in Herndon, Virginia (the "Property"). The Property consists of a six-story Class "A" suburban office building that contains approximately 158,000 square feet of space situated on approximately 5.3 acres of land. The company acquired the Property on May 23, 2002.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The results of operations from inception to date are not necessarily indicative of the results to be obtained for other interim periods or for the full fiscal year.

ESTIMATES AND ASSUMPTIONS

The Company prepares its financial statements and related notes in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). These principles require management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

REAL ESTATE AND DEPRECIATION

Real estate assets are stated at the lower of cost or fair value, as appropriate, less accumulated depreciation.

Costs related to property acquisition and improvements are capitalized. Typical capital items include new roofs, site improvements, various exterior building improvements and major interior renovations. Funding for capital improvement typically is provided by cash set aside at the time the property was purchased.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Routine replacements and ordinary maintenance and repairs that do not extend the life of the asset are expensed as incurred. Typical expense items include interior painting, landscaping and minor carpet replacements. Funding for repairs and maintenance items typically is provided by cash flows from operating activities.

Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the assets' estimated useful lives as follows:

Category	Years
-----	-----
Building - Commercial	39
Building Improvements	15-39
Furniture and equipment	5-7

REAL ESTATE AND DEPRECIATION (continued)

The following schedule reconciles the cost of the property as shown in the Offering Memorandum as to the amounts shown of the Company's Balance Sheet:

(in thousands)

Price per Offering Memorandum	$	32,250
Plus: Acquisition fees		200
Plus: Other acquisition costs		198

Total Acquisition Costs	$	32,648
=====

These costs are reported in the Company's Balance Sheet as follows:

Land	$	4,055
Building		25,210
Deferred lease origination costs		1,737
Provision for favorable leases		1,646

Total reported in Balance Sheets	$	32,648

The Company evaluates its assets used in operations by identifying indicators of impairment and by comparing the sum of the estimated undiscounted future cash flows for each asset to the asset's carrying value. When indicators of impairment are present and the sum of the undiscounted future cash flows is less than the carrying value of such asset, an impairment loss is recorded equal to the difference between the asset's current carrying value and its fair value based on discounting its estimated future cash flows. At December 31, 2002, no such indicators of impairment were identified.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

CASH-FUNDED RESERVES

The Company has set aside funds in anticipation of future capital needs of the property. Although these funds typically are used for the payment of real estate assets and deferred leasing commissions, there is no legal restriction on their use and they may be used for any company purpose.

MARKETABLE SECURITIES

The Company accounts for investments in debt securities under the provisions of SFAS No. 115, "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities". The Company typically has classified its debt securities as available-for-sale.

There were no investments in marketable securities at December 31, 2002.

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISKS

Cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments are financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to a concentration of credit risk. The Company maintains its cash balances and short-term investments principally in one bank which the Company believes to be creditworthy. The Company periodically assesses the financial condition of the bank and believes that the risk of loss is minimal. Cash balances held with various financial institutions frequently exceed the insurance limit of $100,000 provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

For the period ended December 31, 2002 rental income was derived from various tenants. As such, future receipts are dependent upon the financial strength of the lessees and their ability to perform under the lease agreements.

The following tenants represent greater than 10% of total revenue:

Scitor Corporation	51%
Juniper Networks, Inc.	30%

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company estimates that the carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, and cash-funded reserves approximate their fair values based on their short-term maturity and prevailing interest rates.

STEP RENT RECEIVABLE

Certain leases provide for fixed increases over the life of the lease. Rental revenue is recognized on the straight-line basis over the related lease term; however, billings by the Company are based on required minimum rentals in accordance with the lease agreements. Step rent receivable, which is the cumulative revenue recognized in excess of amounts billed by the Company, is $299,000 at December 31, 2002.

DEFERRED LEASE ORIGINATION COSTS

Deferred lease origination costs are the estimated value of legal and leasing

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

costs related to acquired leases that were included in the purchase price when the Company acquired the property. Under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 141 "Business Combinations" ("SFAS 141"), which was approved by the Financial Accounting Standards Board in June 2001, the Company is required to segregate these costs from its investment in real estate. The Company subsequently amortizes these costs on a straight-line basis over the weighted-average remaining life of the related leases. Amortization expense of approximately $119,000 is included in Depreciation and Amortization in the Company's Statement of Operations for the period ended December 31, 2002.

Deferred lease origination costs included in the purchase price of the property were $1,737,000 and are being amortized over the weighted-average period of nine years in respect of the leases assumed. Details of the deferred lease origination costs as of December 31, 2002:

Cost	$ 1,737,000
Accumulated amortization	119,000

Book value	$ 1,618,000
	=====

The estimated annual amortization expense for the five years succeeding December 31, 2002 are as follows:

2003	$ 204,000
2004	$ 204,000
2005	$ 204,000

PROVISION FOR FAVORABLE LEASES

The provision for favorable leases is the estimated benefit the Company receives when the lease payments due under a tenant's lease exceed the market rate of the lease at the date the property was acquired. Under SFAS 141 the Company is required to capitalize this difference and report it separately from its investment in real estate. The Company subsequently amortizes this provision on a straight-line basis over the remaining life of the tenant's lease. Amortization of $137,000 is shown as a reduction of rental income in the Company's Statement of Operations for the period ended December 31, 2002.

Provision for favorable leases included in the purchase price of the property were $1,646,000 and are being amortized over the weighted-average period of seven years in respect of the leases assumed. Details of the provision for favorable leases as of December 31, 2002:

Cost	$ 1,646,000
Accumulated amortization	137,000

Book value	$ 1,509,000

The estimated annual amortization expense for the five years succeeding December 31, 2002 are as follows:

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

2003	$	235,000
2004	$	235,000
2005	$	235,000
2006	$	235,000
2007	$	235,000

SYNDICATION FEES

Syndication fees are selling commissions and other costs associated with the initial offering of the Company's preferred shares. Such costs, in the amount of $3,320,000 have been reported as a reduction in the Stockholders' Equity in the Company's Balance Sheet.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

The Company has retained substantially all of the risks and benefits of ownership of the Company's commercial property and accounts for its leases as operating leases. Rental income from leases, which may include rent concession (including free rent and tenant improvement allowances) and scheduled increases in rental rates during the lease term, is recognized on a straight-line basis. The Company does not have any percentage rent arrangements with its commercial property tenants. Reimbursable costs are included in rental income in the period earned. A schedule showing the components of rental revenue is shown below.

(in thousands)	Period Ended December, 31 2002
Income from leases	$ 3,041
Straight-line rent adjustment	299
Reimbursable expenses	155
Amortization of favorable leases	(137)

INCOME TAXES

The Company has elected to be taxed as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a REIT, the Company generally is entitled to a tax deduction for dividends paid to its shareholders, thereby effectively subjecting the distributed net income of the Company to taxation at the shareholder level only. The Company must comply with a variety of restrictions to maintain its status as a REIT. These restrictions include the type of income it can earn, the type of assets it can hold, the number of shareholders it can have and the concentration of their ownership, and the amount of the Company's taxable income that must be distributed annually.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

NET INCOME PER SHARE

The Company follows Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 128 "Earnings per Share", which specifies the computation, presentation and disclosure requirements for the Company's net income per share. Basic net income per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period. Diluted net income per share reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue shares were exercised or converted into shares. There were no potential dilutive shares outstanding at December 31, 2002. Subsequent to the completion of the offering of preferred shares, the holders of common stock are not entitled to share in any income. The denominator used for calculating basic and diluted net income per share is shown for preferred shares only and is as follows:

	Period Ended December 31, 2002
Weighted average number of preferred shares outstanding	400

3. Recent Accounting Standards

In August 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 143, "Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations," which addresses financial accounting and reporting for obligations associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets and the associated asset retirement costs. This Statement requires that the fair value of a liability for an asset retirement obligation be recognized in the period in which it is incurred if a reasonable estimate of the fair value can be made. The associated asset retirement costs are capitalized as part of the carrying amount of the long-lived asset. This Statement will be effective at the beginning of 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 143 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

In October 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 144 "Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets". This Statement supersedes SFAS No. 121 and requires that long-lived assets that are to be disposed of by sale be measured at the lower of book value or fair value less costs to sell. SFAS No. 144 retains the fundamental provisions of SFAS 121 for (a) recognition and measurement of the impairment of long-lived assets to be held and used, and (b) measurement of long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale, but broadens the definition of what constitutes a discontinued operation and how the results of a discontinued operation are to be measured and presented. This Statement was effective at the beginning of 2002. The impact of adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows. The Company does not have any real estate assets that it considers "held for sale" at December 31, 2002.

In April 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 145 "Rescission of FASB Statement Nos. 4, 44, and 64, Amendment of SFAS 13, and Technical Corrections". This Statement rescinds SFAS No. 4, "Reporting Gains and Losses from Extinguishment of Debt", and an amendment of that Statement, SFAS No. 64, "Extinguishments of Debt Made to Satisfy Sinking-Fund Requirements". This Statement amends SFAS No. 13, "Accounting for Leases". This Statement also amends other existing authoritative pronouncements to make various technical corrections, clarify meanings or describe their applicability under changed conditions. This statement will be effective for the Company's fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 145 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

FSP Plaza Ridge Corp.

3. Recent Accounting Standards (continued)

In July 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146 "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities". This statement was effective January 1, 2003. SFAS No. 146 replaces current accounting literature and requires the recognition of costs associated with exit or disposal activities when they are incurred rather than at the date of a commitment to an exit or disposal plan. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of this statement will have a material effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

4. Income Taxes

The Company files as a REIT under Sections 856-860 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. In order to qualify as a REIT, the Company is required to distribute at least 90% of its taxable income to shareholders and to meet certain asset and income tests as well as certain other requirements. The Company will generally not be liable for federal income taxes, provided it satisfies their requirements. Even as a qualified REIT, the Company is subject to certain state and local taxes on its income and property.

For the period ended December 31, 2002, the Company incurred a net operating loss for income tax purposes of approximately $396,000 that can be carried forward until it expires in the year 2022.

At December 31, 2002 the Company's net tax basis of its real estate assets is higher than the amount set forth in the Company's Balance Sheet by approximately $3,329,000.

5. Cash Available for Distribution

The Company evaluates its performance based on Cash Available for Distribution ("CAD") as management believes that CAD represents the most accurate measure of the Company's activity. CAD is the basis for distributions paid to equity holders.

The Company defines CAD as: net income as computed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"); plus certain non-cash items included in the computation of net income (depreciation and amortization, certain non-cash compensation expenses and straight line rent adjustments); plus funds raised by the issuance of shares; plus the net proceeds from the sale of land; less purchases of real estate assets, property and equipment ("Capital Expenditures"), payments for deferred leasing commissions and payments for deferred lease origination costs; plus (less) proceeds from (payments to) cash reserves established at the acquisition date of the property (cash funded reserves). Depreciation and amortization, non-cash compensation and straight-line rents are an adjustment to CAD, as these are non-cash items included in net income. Capital Expenditures, payments of deferred leasing commissions and payments for deferred lease origination costs and the proceeds from (payments to) the funded reserve are an adjustment to CAD, as they represent cash items not reflected in income. CAD should not be considered as an alternative to net income (determined in accordance with GAAP), as an indicator of the Company's financial performance, nor as an alternative to cash flows from operating activities (determined in accordance with GAAP), nor as a measure of the Company's liquidity, nor is it necessarily indicative of sufficient cash flow to fund all of the Company's needs. Other real estate companies may define CAD in a different manner. It is at the Company's discretion to retain a portion of CAD for operational needs. We believe that in order to facilitate a clear understanding of the results of the Company, CAD should be examined in connection with net income and cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities in the financial statements.

The calculation of CAD is shown in the following table:

(in thousands)	December 31, 2002
Net loss	$ (315)

6. Capital Stock

PREFERRED STOCK

Generally each holder of Shares of Preferred Stock is entitled to receive ratably all dividends, if any, declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available. The right to receive dividends shall be non-cumulative, and no right to dividends shall accrue by reason of the fact that no dividend has been declared in any prior year. Each holder of Shares will be entitled to receive, to the extent that funds are available therefore, $100,000 per Share, before any payment to the holder of Common Stock, out of distributions to stockholders upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the Company; the balance of any such funds available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Shares and the holder of Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares held by each; provided, however, that for these purposes, one share of Common Stock will be deemed to equal one-tenth of a share of Preferred Stock.

In addition to certain voting rights provided in the corporate agreements, the holder of Shares, acting by consent of at least 51%, shall have the further right to approve or disapprove a proposed sale of the Property, the merger of the Company with any other entity and amendments to the corporate charter. A vote of the holders of 66.67% of the Shares is required for the issue of any additional shares of capital stock. Holders of Shares have no redemption or conversion rights.

COMMON STOCK

Franklin Street Properties Corp. ("FSP"), is the sole holder of the Company's Common Stock. FSP has the right, as one class together with the holders of Preferred Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the Company and to vote on all matters except those voted by the holders of Shares of Preferred Stock. Subsequent to the completion of the offering of the preferred shares the holders of common shares are not entitled to receive any income, nor shall the Company declare or pay any cash dividends on shares of Common Stock.

7. Related Party Transactions

The Company executed a management agreement with FSP Property Management LLC, an affiliate of FSP, that provides for a management fee equal to 1% of collected revenues and is cancelable with 30 days notice by either party. For the period ended December 31, 2002, fees incurred under the agreement were $35,840.

An acquisition fee of $200,000 and other costs of $37,000 were paid in 2002 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. Such fees were included in the cost of the real estate.

Syndication fees of $3,320,000 were paid in 2002 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder for services related to syndication of the Company's preferred stock.

During 2002, the Company borrowed and repaid in full:

Note payable to FSP, principal of $32,250,000 with interest equal to the Citizens Bank base. Interest paid to the affiliate was $96,960. The average interest rate during the time the loan was outstanding was 4.75%

A commitment fee of $2,300,000 was paid for obtaining the first mortgage loan. Such amount is included in interest expense on the Statement of Operations.

The Company paid a dividend of $99,000 to the common shareholder relating to earnings of the Company prior to the completion of the offering of preferred shares.

8. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company, as lessor, has minimum future rentals due under non-cancelable operating leases as follows:

(in thousands)	Year Ended December 31, -----	Amount -----
	2003	$ 4,760
	2004	4,886
	2005	5,015
	2006	5,147
	2007	5,283
	Thereafter	18,148

 $ 43,239

In addition, the lessees are liable for real estate taxes and certain operating expenses of the property.

Upon acquiring the commercial rental property in May, 2002, the Company was assigned the lease agreements between the seller of the Property and the existing tenants. The original lease periods range from four to eleven years with renewal options.

9. Subsequent Event

The Company has entered into a merger agreement with its common shareholder, Franklin Street Properties Corp ("FSP"). In January 2003 FSP filed a proxy statement with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission indicating its intent to acquire the preferred stock interests of the Company and twelve additional REITs. The merger requires the approval of the shareholders of the Company as well as the shareholders of the twelve additional REITs and the shareholders of FSP. If approved, FSP will issue shares of its common stock in exchange for a 100% ownership interest in the Company.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Stockholders
FSP Park Ten Corp.
(a Delaware Corporation)

We have audited the accompanying balance sheet of FSP Park Ten Corp. (a Delaware Corporation) as of December 31, 2002, and the related statements of operations, changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows, as well as the financial statement schedule listed in the accompanying index, for the period from May 14, 2002 (date of inception) to December 31, 2002. These financial statements and financial statement schedule are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements and financial statement schedule based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements and financial statement schedule are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements and financial statement schedule. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements and financial statement schedule referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FSP Park Ten Corp. as of December 31, 2002, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the initial period then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Financial Statements

1. Organization

FSP Park Ten Corp. (the "Company") was organized on May 14, 2002 as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware to purchase, own and operate a commercial office building located in Houston, TX (the "Property"). The Property consists of a six-story Class "A" suburban office building that contains approximately 155,715 square feet of space situated on approximately 6.325 acres of land. The company acquired the Property on June 27, 2002.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The results of operations from inception to date are not necessarily indicative of the results to be obtained for other interim periods or for the full fiscal year.

ESTIMATES AND ASSUMPTIONS

The Company prepares its financial statements and related notes in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). These principles require management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

REAL ESTATE AND DEPRECIATION

Real estate assets are stated at the lower of cost or fair value, as appropriate, less accumulated depreciation.

Costs related to property acquisition and improvements are capitalized. Typical capital items include new roofs, site improvements, various exterior building improvements and major interior renovations. Funding for capital improvement typically is provided by cash set aside at the time the property was purchased.

Routine replacements and ordinary maintenance and repairs that do not extend the life of the asset are expensed as incurred. Typical expense items include interior painting, landscaping and minor carpet replacements. Funding for repairs and maintenance items typically is provided by cash flows from operating activities.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Depreciation is computed using the straight line method over the assets' estimated useful lives as follows:

Category -----	Years -----
Building - Commercial	39
Building Improvements	15-39
Furniture and equipment	5-7

REAL ESTATE AND DEPRECIATION (continued)

The following schedule reconciles the cost of the property as shown in the Offering Memorandum as to the amounts shown of the Company's Balance Sheet:

(in thousands)

Price per Offering Memorandum	$	22,300
Plus: Acquisition fees		137
Plus: Other acquisition costs		95

Total Acquisition Costs	$	22,532
=====

These costs are reported in the Company's Balance Sheet as follows:

Land	$	1,367
Building		20,509
Deferred lease origination costs		656

Total reported on Balance Sheet	$	22,532

The Company evaluates its assets used in operations by identifying indicators of impairment and by comparing the sum of the estimated undiscounted future cash flows for each asset to the asset's carrying value. When indicators of impairment are present and the sum of the undiscounted future cash flows is less than the carrying value of such asset, an impairment loss is recorded equal to the difference between the asset's current carrying value and its fair value based on discounting its estimated future cash flows. At December 31, 2002, no such indicators of impairment were identified.

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

CASH-FUNDED RESERVES

The Company has set aside funds in anticipation of future capital needs of the property. Although these funds typically are used for the payment of real estate assets and deferred leasing commissions, there is no legal restriction on their use and they may be used for any company purpose.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

RESTRICTED CASH

Restricted cash consists of tenant security deposits.

MARKETABLE SECURITIES

The Company accounts for investments in debt securities under the provisions of SFAS No. 115, "Accounting for Certain Investments in Debt and Equity Securities". The Company typically has classified its debt securities as available-for-sale.

There were no investments in marketable securities at December 31, 2002.

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISKS

Cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments are financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to a concentration of credit risk. The Company maintains its cash balances and short-term investments principally in one bank which the Company believes to be creditworthy. The Company periodically assesses the financial condition of the bank and believes that the risk of loss is minimal. Cash balances held with various financial institutions frequently exceed the insurance limit of $100,000 provided by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

For the period ended December 31, 2002 rental income was derived from various tenants. As such, future receipts are dependent upon the financial strength of the lessees and their ability to perform under the lease agreements.

The following tenant represents greater than 10% of total revenue:

Mustang Engineering, L.P.	94%
---------------------------	-----

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company estimates that the carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, cash-funded reserves and restricted cash approximate their fair values based on their short-term maturity and prevailing interest rates.

STEP RENTS RECEIVABLE

Certain leases provide for fixed increases over the life of the lease. Rental revenue is recognized on the straight-line basis over the related lease term; however, billings by the Company are based on required minimum rentals in accordance with the lease agreements. Step rent receivable which is the cumulative revenue recognized in excess of amounts billed by the Company, is $80,000 at December 31, 2002.

DEFERRED LEASE ORIGINATION COSTS

Deferred origination costs are the estimated value of legal and leasing costs related to acquired leases that were included in the purchase price when the Company acquired the property. Under Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 141 "Business Combinations" ("SFAS 141"), which was approved by the Financial Accounting Standards Board in June 2001, the Company is required to segregate these costs from its investment in real estate. The Company subsequently amortizes these costs on a straight-line basis over the weighted-average remaining life of the related leases. Amortization expense of approximately $76,000 is included in Depreciation and Amortization in the Company's Statement of Operations for the period ended December 31, 2002.

Deferred lease origination cost included in the purchase price of the property were $656,000 and are being amortized over the weighted-average period of five years in respect of the leases assumed. Detail of the deferred lease origination costs as of December 31, 2002:

Cost	$ 656,000
Accumulated amortization	76,000

Book value	$ 580,000
	=====

The estimated annual amortization expense for the four years succeeding December 31, 2002 are as follows:

2003	$ 151,456
2004	$ 151,456
2005	$ 151,456
2006	$ 125,632

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

SYNDICATION FEES

Syndication fees are selling commissions and other costs associated with the initial offering of the Company's preferred shares. Such costs, in the amount of $2,321,000 have been reported as a reduction in the Stockholders' Equity in the Company's Balance Sheet.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

The Company has retained substantially all of the risks and benefits of ownership of the Company's commercial properties and accounts for its leases as operating leases. Rental income from leases, which may include rent concession (including free rent and tenant improvement allowances) and scheduled increases in rental rates during the lease term, is recognized on a straight-line basis. The Company does not have any percentage rent arrangements with its commercial property tenants. Reimbursable costs are included in rental income in the period earned. A schedule showing the components of rental revenue is shown below.

	Period Ended December, 31 2002
(in thousands)	2002

Income from leases	$ 1,755
Straight-line rent adjustment	80
Reimbursable expenses	95

Total	$ 1,930

INTEREST AND OTHER

Interest income and other income are recognized when the related services are performed and the earnings process is complete.

INCOME TAXES

The Company has elected to be taxed as a REIT under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. As a REIT, the Company generally is entitled to a tax deduction for dividends paid to its shareholders, thereby effectively subjecting the distributed net income of the Company to taxation at the shareholder level only. The Company must comply with a variety of restrictions to maintain its status as a REIT. These restrictions include the type of income it can earn, the type of assets it can hold, the number of shareholders it can have and the concentration of their ownership, and the amount of the Company's taxable income that must be distributed annually.

NET INCOME PER SHARE

The Company follows Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 128 "Earnings per Share", which specifies the computation, presentation and disclosure requirements for the Company's net income per share. Basic net income per share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period. Diluted net income per share reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue shares were exercised or converted into shares. There were no potential dilutive shares outstanding at December 31, 2002. Subsequent to the completion of the offering of preferred shares, the holders of common stock are not entitled to share in any income. The denominator used for calculating basic and diluted net income per share is shown for preferred shares only and is as follows:

	Year Ended December 31, 2002

3. Recent Accounting Standards

In August 2001, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 143, "Accounting for Asset Retirement Obligations," which addresses financial accounting and reporting for obligations associated with the retirement of tangible long-lived assets and the associated asset retirement costs. This Statement requires that the fair value of a liability for an asset retirement obligation be recognized in the period in which it is incurred if a reasonable estimate of the fair value can be made. The associated asset retirement costs are capitalized as part of the carrying amount of the long-lived asset. This Statement will be effective at the beginning of 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 143 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

In October 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 144 "Accounting for the Impairment or

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Disposal of Long-Lived Assets". This Statement supersedes SFAS No. 121 and requires that long-lived assets that are to be disposed of by sale be measured at the lower of book value or fair value less costs to sell. SFAS No. 144 retains the fundamental provisions of SFAS 121 for (a) recognition and measurement of the impairment of long-lived assets to be held and used, and (b) measurement of long-lived assets to be disposed of by sale, but broadens the definition of what constitutes a discontinued operation and how the results of a discontinued operation are to be measured and presented. This Statement was effective at the beginning of 2002. The impact of adoption did not have a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flows. The Company does not have any real estate assets that it considers "held for sale" at December 31, 2002.

In April 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 145 "Rescission of FASB Statements Nos. 4, 44, and 64, Amendment of SFAS 13, and Technical Corrections". This Statement rescinds SFAS No. 4, "Reporting Gains and Losses from Extinguishment of Debt", and an amendment of that Statement, SFAS No. 64, "Extinguishments of Debt Made to Satisfy Sinking-Fund Requirements". This Statement amends SFAS No. 13, "Accounting for Leases". This Statement also amends other existing authoritative pronouncements to make various technical corrections, clarify meanings or describe their applicability under changed conditions. This statement will be effective for the Company's fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. The Company has reviewed the provisions of SFAS 145 and believes that the impact of adoption will not be material to its financial position, results of operations and cash flow.

In July 2002, the FASB issued SFAS No. 146 "Accounting for Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities". This statement was effective January 1, 2003. SFAS No. 146 replaces current accounting literature and requires the recognition of costs associated with exit or disposal activities when they are incurred rather than at the date of a commitment to an exit or disposal plan. The Company does not anticipate that the adoption of this statement will have a material effect on the Company's financial position, results of operations and cash flow.

4. Income Taxes

The Company files as a REIT under Sections 856-860 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. In order to qualify as a REIT, the Company is required to distribute at least 90% of its taxable income to shareholders and to meet certain asset and income tests as well as certain other requirements. The Company will generally not be liable for federal income taxes, provided it satisfies their requirements. Even as a qualified REIT, the Company is subject to certain state and local taxes on its income and property.

For the period ended December 31, 2002, the Company incurred a net operating loss for income tax purposes of approximately $790,000 that can be carried forward until it expires in the year 2022.

At December 31, 2002, the Company's net tax basis of its real estate assets is higher than the amount set forth in the Company's Balance Sheet by approximately $646,000.

5. Cash Available for Distribution

The Company evaluates its performance based on Cash Available for Distribution ("CAD") as management believes that CAD represents the most accurate measure of the Company's activity. CAD is the basis for distributions paid to equity holders.

The Company defines CAD as: net income as computed in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"); plus certain non-cash items included in the computation of net income (depreciation and amortization, certain non-cash compensation expenses and straight line rent adjustments); plus funds raised by the issuance of shares; plus the net proceeds from the sale of land; less purchases of real estate assets, property and equipment ("Capital Expenditures"), payments for deferred leasing commissions and payments for deferred lease origination costs; plus (less) proceeds from (payments to) cash reserves established at the acquisition date of the property (cash-funded reserves). Depreciation and amortization, non-cash compensation and straight-line rents are an adjustment to CAD, as these are non-cash items included in net income. Capital Expenditures, payments of deferred leasing commissions and payments for deferred lease origination costs and the proceeds from (payments to) the funded reserve are an adjustment to CAD, as they represent cash items not reflected in income. CAD should not be considered as an alternative to net income (determined in accordance with GAAP), as an indicator of the Company's financial performance, nor as an alternative to cash flows from operating activities (determined in accordance with GAAP), nor as a measure of the Company's liquidity, nor is it necessarily indicative of sufficient cash flow to fund all of the Company's needs. Other real estate companies may define CAD in a different manner. It is at the Company's discretion to retain a portion of CAD for operational needs. We believe that in order to facilitate a clear understanding of the results of the Company, CAD should be examined in connection with net income and cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities in the financial statements.

5. Cash Available for Distribution (continued)

The calculation of CAD is shown in the following table:

(in thousands)	December 31, 2002
Net Income	$ (779)
Depreciation and amortization	405
Straight line rent	(80)
Proceeds from offering of shares	25,189
Purchase of land and building and improvements	(21,876)
Establish funded reserve	(1,061)
Payment of deferred lease origination costs	(656)
Cash Available for Distribution	$ 1,142

The Company's cash distributions for the period ended December 31, 2002 are summarized as follows:

(in thousands)	Total Cash Dividends
Second Quarter of 2002	$ --
Third Quarter of 2002	--
Fourth Quarter of 2002	498
Dividends Paid in 2002	$ 498
First Quarter of 2003	$ 563
Dividends Declared in 2002	$ 1,061

4 The Company declared a dividend payable to stockholders of record as of December 31, 2002.

Cash distributions are declared and paid based on the total outstanding shares as of the record date and are typically paid in the quarter following the quarter that CAD is generated.

6. Capital Stock

PREFERRED STOCK

Generally, each holder of Shares of Preferred Stock is entitled to receive ratably all income and all dividends, if any, declared by the Board of Directors out of funds legally available. The right to receive dividends shall be non-cumulative, and no right to dividends shall accrue by reason of the fact that no dividend has been declared in any prior year. Each holder of Shares will be entitled to receive, to the extent that funds are available therefore, $100,000 per Share, before any payment to the holder of Common Stock, out of distributions to stockholders upon liquidation, dissolution or the winding up of the Company; the balance of any such funds available for distribution will be distributed among the holders of Shares and the holder of Common Stock, pro rata based on the number of shares held by each; provided, however, that for these purposes, one share of Common Stock will be deemed to equal one-tenth of a share of Preferred Stock.

In addition to certain voting rights provided in the corporate agreements, the holder of Shares, acting by consent of at least 51%, shall have the further right to approve or disapprove a proposed sale of the Property, the merger of the Company with any other entity and amendments to the corporate charter. A vote of the holders of 66.67% of the Shares is required for the issue of any additional shares of capital stock. Holders of Shares have no redemption or conversion rights.

6. Capital Stock (continued)

COMMON STOCK

Franklin Street Properties Corp. ("FSP"), is the sole holder of the Company's Common Stock. FSP has the right, as one class together with the holders of Preferred Stock, to vote to elect the directors of the Company and to vote on all matters except those voted by the holders of Shares of Preferred Stock. Subsequent to the completion of the offering of the preferred shares the holders of common shares are not entitled to receive any income, nor shall the Company declare or pay any cash dividends on shares of Common Stock.

7. Related Party Transactions

The Company executed a management agreement with FSP Property Management LLC, an affiliate of FSP, that provides for a management fee equal to 1% of collected revenues and is cancelable with 30 days notice by either party. For the period ended December 31, 2002, fees incurred under the agreement were $18,403.

An acquisition fee of $137,500 and other costs of $11,000 were paid in 2002 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder. Such fees were included in the cost of the real estate.

Syndication fees of $2,321,000 were paid in 2002 to an affiliate of the Common Shareholder for services related to syndication of the Company's preferred stock.

During 2002, the Company borrowed and repaid in full:

Note payable to FSP, principal of $22,300,00 with interest equal to the Citizens Bank base. Interest paid to FSP was $78,123. The average interest rate during the time the loan was outstanding was 4.75%.

A commitment fee of $1,581,250 was paid to FSP for obtaining the first mortgage loan. Such amount is included in interest expenses on the Statement of Operations.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

The Company paid a dividend of $131,000 to the common shareholder relating to earnings of the Company prior to the completion of the offering of preferred shares.

8. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company, as lessor, has minimum future rentals due under a non-cancelable operating lease as follows:

(in thousands)	Year Ended December 31,	Amount
	-----	-----
	2003	$ 3,414
	2004	3,428

	2006	2,983
	2007	850
	Thereafter	1,115

		$ 15,339

In addition, the lessees are liable for real estate taxes and certain operating expenses of the property.

Upon acquiring the commercial rental property in June, 2002, the Company was assigned the lease agreements between the seller of the Property and the existing tenants. The original lease periods range from four to eleven years with renewal options.

F-376

FSP Park Ten Corp.
Notes to Financial Statements

9. Subsequent Event

The Company has entered into a merger agreement with its common shareholder, Franklin Street Properties Corp ("FSP"). In January 2003 FSP filed a proxy statement with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission indicating its intent to acquire the preferred stock interests of the Company and twelve additional REITs. The merger requires the approval of the shareholders of the Company as well as the shareholders of the twelve additional REITs and the shareholders of FSP. If approved, FSP will issue shares of its common stock in exchange for a 100% ownership interest in the Company.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

This AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER (this "Agreement") is made and entered into as of January 14, 2003 by and among Franklin Street Properties Corp. (the "Company"), a Maryland corporation, and the other corporations, each a Delaware corporation (each, a "Target REIT" and, collectively, the "Target REITs"), listed on the signature pages hereto.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, the Target REITs are the owners of certain real properties listed on Exhibit A hereto (each such property, including any buildings, structures or other improvements situated thereon, a "Property" and, collectively, the "Properties");

WHEREAS, the board of directors of the Company (the "Company Board") and the board of the directors of each of the Target REITs (such boards of directors, collectively, the "Target Boards of Directors") believe that it is in the best interests of the Company and each of the Target REITs, respectively, and their respective stockholders, to consummate, and have approved, the business combination transaction provided for herein, pursuant to which each Target REIT will be merged with and into the Company, with the Company continuing as the surviving entity (each such transaction, a "Merger" and, collectively, the "Mergers");

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

WHEREAS, the Company Board and the Target Boards of Directors have agreed to effect the transactions provided for herein upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth herein;

WHEREAS, the Company and the Target REITs desire to make certain representations, warranties and agreements in connection with the Mergers.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and of the representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained herein, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1 THE MERGERS

1.1 The Mergers. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, at the Effective Time (as hereinafter defined), each Target REIT will be merged with and into the Company in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Maryland General Corporation Law ("MGCL") and the Delaware General Corporation Law ("DGCL"), and the separate existence of each Target REIT shall thereupon cease. The Company shall continue as the surviving entity of the Mergers.

1.2 The Closing. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the closing of the Mergers (the "Closing") shall take place at the offices of Hale and Dorr LLP, 60 State Street, Boston, Massachusetts at 9:00 a.m., local time, on April 1, 2003 or at such other time and date following the day on which the last of the conditions set forth in Article 6 shall be fulfilled or waived in accordance herewith as the parties hereto may agree. The holders of preferred stock in the Target REITs ("Target Stock") are hereinafter referred to as the "Target REIT Stockholders." The holders of common stock of the Company, $0.0001 par value per share ("Common Stock"), are hereinafter referred to as the "Company Stockholders." The date on which the Closing occurs is hereinafter referred to as the "Closing Date." After giving effect to the Mergers, the Company is hereinafter referred to as the "Combined Company."

1.3 Effective Time. If all of the conditions to a particular Merger set forth in Article 6 shall have been fulfilled or waived in accordance herewith with respect to the Company and the applicable Target REIT and this Agreement shall not have been terminated as provided in Article 7 or Section 8.2(b), the parties hereto shall promptly cause to be properly executed, verified and delivered for filing on the Closing Date a certificate of merger satisfying the requirements of the MGCL and the DGCL for such Merger (a "Certificate of Merger"). A Merger shall become effective upon the acceptance for record of its Certificate of Merger by (i) the State Department of Assessments and Taxation of the State of Maryland in accordance with the MGCL and (ii) the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware in accordance with the DGCL or at such later time upon which the parties hereto shall have agreed and designated in such filing in accordance with applicable law as the effective time of the Mergers (the "Effective Time").

ARTICLE 2 MERGER CONSIDERATION

2.1 Cancellation of Target Stock. As a result of the Mergers and without any action on the part of the Target REIT Stockholders, all Target Stock in each Target REIT with respect to which a Merger has become effective shall cease to be outstanding, shall be canceled and retired and shall cease to exist and each Target REIT Stockholder shall thereafter cease to have any rights with respect to such Target Stock.

2.2 Merger Consideration. At the Effective Time, by virtue of the Mergers and without any further action by the Company or any Target REIT, each Target REIT Stockholder in each Target REIT with respect to which a Merger has become effective shall receive for each share (or fraction thereof) of Target Stock such Target REIT Stockholder holds of record, that number of shares of Common Stock in the Combined Company set forth on Exhibit B attached hereto opposite the name of the applicable Target REIT or Target REITs (the "Merger Consideration").

ARTICLE 3 REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE COMPANY

The Company represents and warrants to the Target REITs that the statements contained in this Article 3 are true and correct, except as set forth in the disclosure schedule delivered at or prior to the execution hereof to each of the Target REITs (the "Company Disclosure Schedule"). The Company Disclosure Schedule shall be arranged in paragraphs corresponding to the numbered and letter paragraphs contained in this Article 3, and the disclosures in any paragraph of the Company Disclosure Schedule shall also be deemed to qualify all other paragraphs in this Article 3.

3.1 Due Organization; Authority.

(a) The Company is a corporation duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the State of Maryland. The Company (i) has the authority to conduct its business as currently conducted and to own and operate the properties that it now owns and operates, and (ii) is duly licensed or qualified to do business in, and is in good standing under the laws of, all jurisdictions in which the transaction of its business makes such qualification necessary, except where the failure to be so licensed or qualified would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the business, assets, prospects, results of operations or financial condition of the Company (a "Company Material Adverse Effect").

(b) The Company has provided each Target REIT with a true and complete copy of its articles of incorporation and bylaws, each as amended to date.

3.2 Authorization; Validity; Effect of Agreement. The Company has all requisite power, authority and legal right to enter into this Agreement and to consummate the Mergers. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Company and, subject to the approval of this Agreement by the Company Stockholders, the consummation by the Company of the Mergers have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of the Company, and this Agreement is a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Company, enforceable against the Company in accordance with its terms.

3.3 Capitalization. The authorized capital stock of the Company consists of 180,000,000 shares of Common Stock of which approximately 24,630,247 shares are issued and outstanding as of the date hereof and 20,000,000 shares of preferred stock, $0.0001 par value per share, of which no shares are issued and outstanding as of the date hereof. Immediately following the consummation of the Mergers, approximately 49,630,338 shares of Common Stock will be issued and outstanding and no shares of preferred stock will be issued and outstanding.

3.4 No Violation.

(a) Neither the execution and delivery by the Company of this Agreement, nor the consummation by the Company of the Mergers and compliance by the Company with the provisions hereof, will: (i) conflict with or violate any provision of the Company's articles of organization or bylaws, each as amended to date; (ii) require on the part of the Company or any Subsidiary (as defined below) any consent, approval or authorization of, or declaration, filing or registration with, any governmental or regulatory authority, except (x) the filing of the Certificates of Merger or (y) where the failure to obtain any such consent, approval or authorization of, or declaration, filing or registration with, any governmental or regulatory authority would not reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect and would not adversely affect the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby; (iii) conflict with, result in a breach of, constitute (with or without due notice or lapse of time or both) a default under, result in the acceleration of obligations under, create in any party the right to terminate, modify or cancel, or require any notice, consent or waiver under, any contract or instrument to which the Company or any Subsidiary is a party or by which the Company or any Subsidiary is bound or to which any of their assets is subject, except for (A) any conflict, breach, default, acceleration, termination, modification or cancellation which would not have a Company Material Adverse Effect and would not adversely affect the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or (B) any notice, consent or waiver the absence of which would not have a Company Material Adverse Effect and would not adversely affect the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby; (iv) result in the imposition of any mortgage, pledge, security interest, encumbrance, charge or other lien (whether arising by contract or by operation of law) upon any property or assets of the Company or any Subsidiary; or (v) violate any order, writ, injunction, decree, statute, rule or regulation applicable to the Company or any Subsidiary or any of their properties or assets. For purposes of this Agreement, "Subsidiary" shall mean any corporation, partnership, trust, limited liability company or other non-corporate business enterprise in which the Company holds stock or other ownership interests representing more than 50% of the voting power of all outstanding stock or ownership interests of such entity.

(b) Except as expressly contemplated by this Agreement, no other action is required to be taken by the Company to permit the execution, delivery and performance of (i) this Agreement, (ii) all other documents and certificates expressly contemplated hereby, and (iii) the Mergers, and no consent or approval of any third party or governmental authority is or was required or appropriate in connection with the execution of this Agreement, or to consummate the transactions expressly contemplated hereunder, except such as have been obtained or will be obtained prior to the Closing.

3.5 FSP Investments LLC; Due Organization. FSP Investments LLC ("FSP Investments") is a limited liability company duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. FSP Investments is duly registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") as a broker/dealer pursuant to Section 15 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

3.6 Financial Statements.

(a) The Company has previously delivered to each of the Target REITs the following financial statements (collectively, the "Company Financial Statements"): (i) consolidated statements of income for the nine months ended September 30, 2002 (unaudited), (ii) consolidated statements of cash flows for the nine months ended September 30, 2002 (unaudited) and (iii) the consolidated balance sheet as of September 30, 2002 (unaudited) (the "Company Balance Sheet"). The Company Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted auditing principals ("GAAP"), applied on a basis consistent with prior periods (except as otherwise noted therein), and present fairly the financial position and results of operations of the Company as of their respective dates and for the periods presented therein (subject, in the case of unaudited interim financial statements, to normal year-end adjustments).

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

(b) The Company has no liability of any nature, whether known or unknown, accrued or unaccrued, absolute or contingent, asserted or unasserted, except liabilities (i) stated or adequately reserved against on the Company Balance Sheet or the notes thereto, (ii) incurred in the ordinary course of business and not required under GAAP to be reflected on the Company Balance Sheet, (iii) incurred after the date of the Company Balance Sheet in the ordinary course of business consistent with the terms of this Agreement or (iv) which would not reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

3.7 SEC Documents. The Company has filed all SEC Documents (as defined below) on a timely basis. All of the SEC Documents (other than preliminary materials) as of their respective filing dates, complied in all material respects with all applicable requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended and, in each case, the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder applicable to such SEC Documents. None of the SEC Documents, at the time of filing contained any untrue statements of a material fact or omitted to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, except to the extent such statements have been modified or superseded by later SEC Documents filed and publicly available. As used herein, "SEC Documents" shall mean all reports, schedules, forms, statements and other documents required to be filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission on or after January 1, 2002 and prior to the date hereof.

3.8 Litigation. There are (i) no continuing orders, injunctions or decrees of any court, arbitrator or governmental authority to which the Company is a party or by which it is bound or, to the knowledge of the Company, to which any of its directors, officers, employees or agents, in such capacity, is a party or, to the knowledge of the Company, by which any of them is bound, and (ii) no actions, suits, investigations or proceedings pending against the Company, or, to the knowledge of the Company, against any of its directors, officers, employees or agents, in such capacity, or, to the knowledge of the Company, threatened against the Company or any of its directors, officers, employees or agents, in such capacity, at law or in equity, or before or by any federal, state or local commission, board, bureau, agency or instrumentality that would, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect.

3.9 Taxes.

(a) The Company has paid, caused to be paid or accrued all federal, state, local, foreign and other taxes, including without limitation, income taxes, estimated taxes, alternative minimum taxes, excise taxes, sales taxes, use taxes, value-added taxes, gross receipt taxes, franchise taxes, capital stock taxes, employment and payroll-related taxes, withholding taxes, stamp taxes, transfer taxes, windfall profit taxes, property taxes and environmental taxes, whether or not measured in whole or in part by net income, and all deficiencies, or other additions to tax, interest, fines and penalties (collectively, "Taxes"), required to be paid or accrued by it through the date hereof;

A-5

(b) The Company has timely filed all federal, state, local and foreign tax returns required to be filed by it through the date hereof, and all such returns completely and accurately set forth the amount of any Taxes relating to the applicable period;

(c) The Company has withheld and paid all taxes required to have been withheld and paid in connection with amounts paid or owing to any employee, independent contractor, creditor, stockholder or other party;

(d) For all periods from its inception, the Company has qualified to be treated as a "real estate investment trust company" (a "REIT") within the meaning of Sections 856-860 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). For the periods described in the preceding sentence, the Company has met all requirements necessary to be treated as a REIT for purposes of the income tax provisions of those states in which the Company is subject to income tax and which provide for the taxation of a REIT in a manner similar to the treatment of REITs under Sections 856-860 of the Code.

(e) Neither the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") nor any other governmental authority is now asserting by written notice to the Company or, to the knowledge of the Company, threatening to assert against the Company any deficiency or claim for additional Taxes. There is no dispute or claim concerning any tax liability of the Company either claimed or raised in writing by the IRS. There is no dispute or claim of a material nature concerning any tax liability of the Company either claimed or raised in writing by any governmental authority other than the IRS, or, to the knowledge of the Company, which may be claimed or raised by any federal or state governmental authority. No written claim has ever been made by a taxing authority in a jurisdiction where the Company does not file reports and returns asserting that the Company is or may be subject to taxation by that jurisdiction.

3.10 Full Disclosure. The representations of the Company contained in this Agreement do not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements made herein not misleading, and none of the information supplied or to be supplied by the Company for inclusion in the Proxy Statement to be distributed to Company Stockholders (the "Proxy Statement") or in the Consent Solicitation/Offering Memorandum to be distributed to Target REIT Stockholders, each pursuant to Section 5.3 hereof (the "Consent Solicitation/Offering Memorandum") contains any untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading. If at any time prior to the Closing Date any event relating to the Company should occur that is required to be described in an amendment of or supplement to the Proxy Statement or the Consent Solicitation/Offering Memorandum, as the case may be, the Company shall, in the case of the Proxy Statement, prepare, file and disseminate such amendment or supplement and, in the case of the Consent Solicitation/Offering Memorandum, shall, together with the Target REITS, prepare and disseminate such amendment or supplement.

ARTICLE 4 REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF THE TARGET REITS

Each of the Target REITs individually represents and warrants to the Company that the statements contained in this Article 4 are true and correct as to itself, except as set forth in the disclosure schedules delivered at or prior to the execution hereof by each of the Target REITs to the Company (each, a "Target REIT Disclosure Schedule" and, collectively, the "Target REITs Disclosure Schedules"). Each Target REIT Disclosure Schedule shall be arranged in paragraphs corresponding to the numbered and letter paragraphs contained in this Article 4, and the disclosures in any paragraph of any Target REIT Disclosure Schedule shall also be deemed to qualify all other paragraphs in this Article 4 with respect to that Target REIT.

4.1 Due Organization; Authority.

(a) The Target REIT is a corporation duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the State of Delaware. The Target REIT (i) has the authority to conduct its business as currently conducted and to own and operate the properties that it now owns and operates, and (ii) is duly licensed or qualified to do business in, and is in good standing under the laws of, all jurisdictions in which the transaction of its business makes such qualification necessary, except where the failure to be so licensed or qualified would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the business, assets, prospects, results of operations or financial condition of the Target REIT (a "Target REIT Material Adverse Effect").

(b) The Target REIT has provided the Company and each other Target REIT with a true and complete copy of its certificate of incorporation and bylaws, each as amended to date.

4.2 Authorization; Validity; Effect of Agreement.

(a) The Target REIT has all requisite power, authority and legal right to enter into this Agreement and to consummate the Mergers. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Target REIT and, subject to the approval of this Agreement by its Target REIT Stockholders, the consummation by the Target REIT of its Merger have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of the Target REIT, and this Agreement is a legal, valid and binding obligation of the Target REIT, enforceable against the Target REIT in accordance with its terms.

4.3 Financial Statements.

(a) The Target REIT has previously delivered to the Company the following financial statements (collectively, the "Target REIT Financial Statements"): (i) statement of income from date of inception through December 31, 2001 (audited); (ii) statement of cash flows from date of inception through December 31, 2001 (audited), (iii) a statement of income for the nine months ended September 30, 2002 (unaudited), (iv) a statement of cash flows for the nine months ended September 30, 2002 and (v) a balance sheet for the nine months ended September 30, 2002 (unaudited) (the "Target REIT Balance Sheet"), except that the Target REIT Financial Statements for FSP Timberlake East Corp., FSP Merrywood Apartments Corp., FSP Plaza Ridge I

A-7

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

Corp. and FSP Park Ten Corp. consist solely of those financial statements identified in clauses (iii), (iv) and (v) above. The Target REIT Financial Statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP, applied on a basis consistent with prior periods (except as otherwise noted therein), and present fairly the financial position and results of operations of the Target REIT as of their respective dates and for the periods presented therein (subject, in the case of unaudited interim financial statements, to normal year-end adjustments).

(b) The Target REIT has no liability of any nature, whether known or unknown, accrued or unaccrued, absolute or contingent, asserted or unasserted, except liabilities (i) stated or adequately reserved against on the Target REIT Balance Sheet or the notes thereto, (ii) incurred in the ordinary course of business and not required under GAAP to be reflected on the Target REIT Balance Sheet, (iii) incurred after the date of the Target REIT Balance Sheet in the ordinary course of business consistent with the terms of this Agreement or (iv) which would not reasonably be expected to have a Target REIT Material Adverse Effect.

4.4 Contracts and Commitments. The Target REIT has delivered to the Company a correct and complete copy of each contract to which the Target REIT is a party that is material to the Target REIT (each a "Target REIT Material Contract"). Each Target REIT Material Contract is in full force and effect and neither the Target REIT nor, to the knowledge of the Target REIT, the other party thereto is in breach or default thereunder, other than breaches or defaults which would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Target REIT Material Adverse Effect.

4.5 No Violation.

(a) Neither the execution and delivery by the Target REIT of this Agreement, nor the consummation by the Target REIT of its Merger and compliance by the Target REIT with the provisions hereof, will: (i) conflict with or violate any provision of its certificate of incorporation or bylaws; (ii) require on the part of the Target REIT any consent, approval or authorization of, or declaration, filing or registration with, any governmental or regulatory authority, except (x) the filing of the Certificates of Merger or (y) where the failure to obtain any such consent, approval or authorization of, or declaration, filing or registration with, any governmental or regulatory authority would not reasonably be expected to have a Target REIT Material Adverse Effect and would not adversely affect the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby; (iii) conflict with, result in a breach of, constitute (with or without due notice or lapse of time or both) a default under, result in the acceleration of obligations under, create in any party the right to terminate, modify or cancel, or require any notice, consent or waiver under, any contract or instrument to which the Target REIT is a party or by which the

A-8

Target REIT is bound or to which any of its assets is subject, except for (A) any conflict, breach, default, acceleration, termination, modification or cancellation which would not have a Target REIT Material Adverse Effect and would not adversely affect the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or (B) any notice, consent or waiver the absence of which would not have a Target REIT Material Adverse Effect and would not adversely affect the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby; (iv) result in the imposition of any mortgage, pledge, security interest, encumbrance, charge or other lien (whether arising by contract or by operation of law) upon any property or assets of the Target REIT; or (v) violate any order, writ, injunction, decree, statute, rule or regulation applicable to the Target REIT or any of its properties or assets.

(b) Except as expressly contemplated by this Agreement, no other action is required to be taken by the Target REIT to permit the execution, delivery and performance of (i) this Agreement, (ii) all other documents and certificates expressly contemplated hereby, and (iii) the Mergers, and no consent or approval of any third party or governmental authority is or was required or appropriate in connection with the execution of this Agreement, or to consummate the transactions expressly contemplated hereunder, except such as have been obtained or will be obtained prior to the Closing.

4.6 Litigation. There are (i) no continuing orders, injunctions or decrees of any court, arbitrator or governmental authority to which the Target REIT is a party or by which it is bound or, to the knowledge of the Target REIT, to which any of its directors, officers, employees or agents, in such capacity, is a party or, to the knowledge of the Target REIT, by which any of them is bound, and (ii) no actions, suits, investigations or proceedings pending against the Target REIT, or, to the knowledge of the Target REIT, against any of its directors, officers, employees or agents, in such capacity, or, to the knowledge of the Target REIT, threatened against the Target REIT or any of its directors, officers, employees or agents, in such capacity, at law or in equity, or before or by any federal, state or local commission, board, bureau, agency or instrumentality that would, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Target REIT Material Adverse Effect.

4.7 Title to Assets.

(a) The Target REIT has good and marketable title to the assets reflected in the most recent Target REIT Balance Sheet and will hold good and marketable title to such assets, and any assets acquired by the Target REIT prior to the Effective Time, except for assets disposed of in the ordinary course of business (which assets do not include the Property) and except as the failure of the Target REIT to have such good and marketable title is not, in the aggregate, material to the Target REIT. The assets reflected on the Target REIT Balance Sheet include the Property. Except as otherwise disclosed in the Target REIT Balance Sheet or related notes accompanying it, all the assets referred to in the preceding sentence are owned free and clear of any and all material adverse claims, security interests, charges or other encumbrances or restrictions of every nature, except liens for current taxes not yet due and payable or landlords' liens as provided for in the relevant leases, or by applicable law.

4.8 Real Property.

With respect to each parcel of Property owned by the Target REIT:

(a) the Target REIT has good and clear record and marketable title to such parcel, insurable by a recognized national title insurance company at standard rates, free and clear of any security interest, easement, covenant or other restriction, except for recorded easements, covenants and other restrictions which do not impair the uses, occupancy or value of such parcel as an apartment complex, office building or warehouse/distribution center, as the case may be (the "Intended Uses");

(b) there are no (i) pending or, to the knowledge of the Target REIT, threatened condemnation proceedings relating to such parcel, (ii) pending or, to the knowledge of the Target REIT, threatened litigation or administrative actions relating to such parcel, or (iii) other matters affecting adversely the

Intended Uses, occupancy or value thereof;

(c) the legal description for such parcel contained in the deed thereof describes such parcel fully and adequately; the buildings and improvements may be used as of right under applicable zoning and land use laws for the Intended Uses, and such buildings and improvements are located within the boundary lines of the described parcels of land, are not in violation of setback requirements applicable to them, zoning laws and ordinances and do not encroach on any easement which may burden the land; the land does not serve any adjoining property for any purpose inconsistent with the use of the land; and such parcel is not located within any flood plain or subject to any similar type restriction for which any permits or licenses necessary to the use thereof have not been obtained;

(d) there are no leases, subleases, licenses or agreements, written or oral, granting to any party or parties (other than the Target REIT and those tenants under leases described in Section 4.9) the right of use or occupancy of any portion of such parcel, except for leases, subleases, licenses or agreements which do not impair the Intended Uses;

(e) there are no outstanding options or rights of first refusal to purchase such parcel, or any portion thereof or interest therein;

(f) all facilities located on such parcel are supplied with utilities and other services necessary for the operation of such facilities, including gas, electricity, water, telephone, sanitary sewer and storm sewer, all of which services are adequate for the Intended Uses and in accordance with all applicable laws, ordinances, rules and regulations and are provided via public roads or via permanent, irrevocable, appurtenant easements benefiting such parcel;

A-10

(g) such parcel abuts on and has direct vehicular access to a public road or access to a public road via a permanent, irrevocable, appurtenant easement benefiting such parcel;

(h) the Target REIT has received no notice of any, and, to the knowledge of the Target REIT, there is no, proposed or pending proceeding to change or redefine the zoning classification of all or any portion of the parcels;

(i) the improvements constructed on the parcels are in good condition and proper order, free of material roof leaks, untreated insect infestation, and material construction defects, and all mechanical and utility systems servicing such improvements are in good condition and proper working order, free of material defects; and

(j) each parcel is an independent unit which does not rely on any facilities (other than the facilities of public utility and water companies or facilities as to which a permanent, irrevocable appurtenant easement exists benefiting such parcel granting the use of such facilities) located on any other property (i) to fulfill any zoning, building code or other municipal or governmental requirement, (ii) for structural support or the furnishing of any essential building systems or utilities, including, but not limited to electric, plumbing, mechanical, heating, ventilating, and air conditioning systems, or (iii) to fulfill the requirements of any lease. No building or other improvement not included in the parcels relies on any part of the parcels to fulfill any zoning, building code or other municipal or governmental requirement or for structural support or the furnishing of any essential building systems or utilities except with respect to utility or storm water facilities pursuant to recorded easement agreements or declarations of common easements the use of which do not impair the Intended Uses. Each of the parcels is assessed by local property assessors as a tax parcel or parcels separate from all other tax parcels.

4.9 Real Property Leases. The Target REIT has delivered to the Company complete and accurate copies of the leases and subleases (as amended to date) of its Property. With respect to each such lease and sublease:

(a) the lease or sublease is legal, valid, binding, enforceable and in full force and effect;

(b) the lease or sublease will continue to be legal, valid, binding, enforceable and in full force and effect immediately following the Effective Time in accordance with the terms thereof as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time;

(c) neither the Target REIT nor, to the knowledge of the Target REIT, any other party, is in breach or violation of, or default under, any such lease or sublease, and no event has occurred, is pending or, to the knowledge of the Target REIT, is threatened, which, after the giving of notice, with lapse of time, or otherwise, would constitute a breach or default by the

Target REIT or, to the knowledge of the Target REIT, any other party under such lease or sublease;

(d) the Target REIT has not assigned, transferred, conveyed, mortgaged, deeded in trust or encumbered any interest in the leasehold or sublease hold; and

(e) the Target REIT is not aware of any Security Interest, easement, covenant or other restriction applicable to the real property subject to such lease, except for recorded easements, covenants and other restrictions which do not materially impair the current uses or the occupancy by the Target REIT of the property subject thereto.

4.10 Compliance with Laws; Permits; Environmental Matters.

(a) The Target REIT has complied with all applicable Environmental Laws (as defined below), except for violations of Environmental Laws that do not and will not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Target REIT Material Adverse Effect. There is no pending or, to the knowledge of the Target REIT, threatened civil or criminal litigation, written notice of violation, formal administrative proceeding, or investigation, inquiry or information request by any court, arbitrational tribunal, administrative agency or commission or other governmental or regulatory authority or agency (a "Governmental Entity"), relating to any Environmental Law involving the Target REIT, except for litigation, notices of violations, formal administrative proceedings or investigations, inquiries or information requests that will not, individually or in the aggregate, have a Target REIT Material Adverse Effect. For purposes of this Agreement, "Environmental Law" means any federal, state or local law, statute, rule or regulation or the common law relating to the environment or occupational health and safety, including without limitation any statute, regulation, administrative decision or order pertaining to (i) treatment, storage, disposal, generation and transportation of industrial, toxic or hazardous materials or substances or solid or hazardous waste; (ii) air, water and noise pollution; (iii) groundwater and soil contamination; (iv) the release or threatened release into the environment of industrial, toxic or hazardous materials or substances, or solid or hazardous waste, including without limitation emissions, discharges, injections, spills, escapes or dumping of pollutants, contaminants or chemicals; (v) the protection of wild life, marine life and wetlands, including without limitation all endangered and threatened species; (vi) storage tanks, vessels, containers, abandoned or discarded barrels, and other closed receptacles; (vii) health and safety of employees and other persons; and (viii) manufacturing, processing, using, distributing, treating, storing, disposing, transporting or handling of materials regulated under any law as pollutants, contaminants, toxic or hazardous materials or substances or oil or petroleum products or solid or hazardous waste. As used above, the terms "release" and "environment" shall have the meaning set forth in the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act of 1980, as amended ("CERCLA").

(b) There have been no releases in violation of Environmental Laws of any Materials of Environmental Concern (as defined below) into the environment at any parcel of real property or any facility formerly or currently owned, operated or controlled by the Target

REIT. With respect to any such releases of Materials of Environmental Concern, the Target REIT has given all required notices to Governmental Entities (copies of which have been provided to the Company). The Target REIT is not aware of any releases of Materials of Environmental Concern at parcels of real property or facilities other than those owned, operated or controlled by the Target REIT that could reasonably be expected to have an impact on the real property or facilities owned, operated or controlled by the Target REIT. For purposes of this Agreement, "Materials of Environmental Concern" means any chemicals, pollutants or contaminants, hazardous substances (as such term is defined under CERCLA), solid wastes and hazardous wastes (as such terms are defined under the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act), toxic materials, oil or petroleum and petroleum products or any other material subject to regulation under any Environmental Law.

(c) A complete and accurate copy of all documents (whether in hard copy or electronic form) that contain any environmental reports, investigations and audits relating to premises currently or previously owned or operated by the Target REIT (whether conducted by or on behalf of the Target REIT or a third party, and whether done at the initiative of the Target REIT or directed by a Governmental Entity or other third party) which were issued or conducted during the past five years and which the Target REIT has possession of or access to has been provided to the Company.

(d) The Target REIT is not aware of any material environmental liability of any solid or hazardous waste transporter or treatment, storage or disposal facility that has been used by the Target REIT.

4.11 Taxes.

(a) The Target REIT has paid, caused to be paid or accrued all federal, state, local, foreign and other Taxes, required to be paid or accrued by it through the date hereof;

(b) The Target REIT has timely filed all federal, state, local and foreign tax returns required to be filed by it through the date hereof, and all such returns completely and accurately set forth the amount of any Taxes relating to the applicable period;

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

(c) The Target REIT has withheld and paid all taxes required to have been withheld and paid in connection with amounts paid or owing to any employee, independent contractor, creditor, stockholder or other party;

(d) For all periods since its inception, the Target REIT has qualified to be treated as a REIT within the meaning of Sections 856-860 of the Code. For the periods described in the preceding sentence, the Target REIT has met all requirements necessary to be treated as a REIT for purposes of the income tax provisions of those states in which the Target REIT is subject to income tax and which provide for the taxation of a REIT in a manner similar to the treatment of REITs under Sections 856-860 of the Code.

A-13

(e) Neither the IRS nor any other governmental authority is now asserting by written notice to the Target REIT or, to the knowledge of the Target REIT, threatening to assert against the Target REIT any deficiency or claim for additional Taxes. There is no dispute or claim concerning any tax liability of the Target REIT either claimed or raised in writing by the IRS. There is no dispute or claim of a material nature concerning any tax liability of the Target REIT either claimed or raised in writing by any governmental authority other than the IRS, or, to the knowledge of the Target REIT, which may be claimed or raised by any federal or state governmental authority. No written claim has ever been made by a taxing authority in a jurisdiction where the Target REIT does not file reports and returns asserting that the Target REIT is or may be subject to taxation by that jurisdiction.

(f) Each of the representations set forth in Exhibit C is true, accurate and complete.

4.12 Full Disclosure. The representations of the Target REIT contained in this Agreement do not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements made herein not misleading, and none of the information supplied or to be supplied by the Target REIT for inclusion in the Proxy Statement or the Consent Solicitation/Offering Memorandum contains any untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading. If at any time prior to the Closing Date any event relating to the Target REIT should occur that is required to be described in an amendment of or supplement to the Proxy Statement or the Consent Solicitation/Offering Memorandum, as the case may be, the Target REIT promptly shall inform the Company and assist in the preparation, filing (if necessary), dissemination of such amendment or supplement.

ARTICLE 5 COVENANTS

5.1 Conduct of Business. Prior to the Effective Time, or the earlier termination of this Agreement, the Company and each Target REIT shall (i) carry on its business in the ordinary course in substantially the same manner as previously conducted, (ii) use its reasonable efforts to preserve intact its present business organization and goodwill, (iii) maintain permits, licenses and authorizations, (iv) preserve its relationships with third parties and (v) take all actions necessary to continue to qualify as a REIT, including, without limitations, the payment of dividends.

5.2 Other Actions. Neither the Company nor any Target REIT shall take or omit to take any action that would result in any of the representations and warranties of the Company or such Target REIT, respectively, made in or pursuant to this Agreement becoming untrue or incomplete, in any of the covenants and agreements of the Company or such Target REIT, respectively, being breached, or in any of the conditions to the Closing not being satisfied; provided, however, that nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prohibit or restrict the ability of the Company or any Target REIT to declare and/or pay, consistent with past practice and custom, to the Company Stockholders or the Target REIT Stockholders, as the case may be, dividends in respect of operations (collectively, the "Dividends") through the Closing Date, each in accordance with the terms of the distributing entity's organizational documents, each as amended to date; provided, further, that upon the Effective Date, the Company shall assume the obligation to pay any dividend declared but not paid by a Target REIT prior to the Effective Date.

5.3 Approval of Company Stockholders and Target REIT Stockholders. Promptly following the execution of this Agreement, (i) the Company shall prepare and file a Proxy Statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission, and shall as promptly as practicable thereafter distribute the Proxy Statement to the Company Stockholders, and (ii) the Company, together with the Target REITs, shall distribute a Consent Solicitation/Offering Memorandum to the Target REIT Stockholders, asking the Company Stockholders and the Target REIT Stockholders, respectively, to vote upon the adoption of this Agreement and the Mergers. The Proxy Statement shall contain the recommendation of the Company Board that the Company Stockholders approve the adoption of this Agreement and the Mergers. The Consent Solicitation/Offering Memorandum shall contain the recommendation of the Target Boards of Directors that the Target REIT Stockholders approve the adoption of this Agreement and the Mergers. Each of the Company Board and the Target Boards of Directors, subject to and in accordance with applicable law, shall use its respective reasonable best efforts to obtain such approval described in this Section 5.3, including without limitation, by timely mailing the Proxy Statement to the Company Stockholders or the Consent Solicitation/Offering Memorandum to the Target REIT Stockholders of its respective corporation.

5.4 Consents and Approvals. The Company and the Target REITs shall each use all reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions and to do, or cause to be done, all other things necessary, proper or advisable to consummate and make effective as promptly as practicable the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, to obtain in a timely manner all necessary consents, waivers, approvals, authorizations and orders and to make all necessary registrations and filings, and otherwise to satisfy or cause to be satisfied all conditions precedent to its obligations under this Agreement.

ARTICLE 6 CONDITIONS TO EACH PARTY'S OBLIGATIONS TO EFFECT THE MERGERS.

The respective obligations of the parties hereto to consummate the Mergers pursuant to the terms of this Agreement are subject to satisfaction of the following conditions precedent on or prior to the Closing Date. In the event that one or more of these conditions are not satisfied on or prior to the Closing Date, the party or parties whose obligations hereunder are subject to the satisfaction of such condition or conditions may either elect to terminate this Agreement or waive the satisfaction of such condition. The conditions are:

(a) this Agreement and the Mergers shall have been approved by a majority in interest of the Company Stockholders and of the Target REIT Stockholders of each Target REIT

A-15

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

other than a Target REIT with respect to which this Agreement has been terminated in accordance with Section 8.2(b);

(b) (i) the number of Target REIT Stockholders who the Company does not reasonably believe are not Accredited Investors (as defined in Rule 501(a) of Regulation D of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended) shall not exceed 35 and (ii) each such non Accredited Investor has, either alone or with his/her/its purchase representative, such knowledge and experience in business and financial matters that he/she/it is capable of evaluating the merits of risks of the Common Stock;

(c) all necessary consents, waivers, approvals, authorizations or orders required to be obtained and the making of all filings required to be made by any of the parties for the authorization, execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby shall have been obtained or made, as the case may be, on or prior to (and remaining in effect at) the Closing Date;

(d) there shall not have occurred any material adverse change in the overall business or prospects of any of the Company or the Target REITs or in the tax or other regulatory provisions applicable to the Company, the Target REITs or the Combined Company, and neither the Company Board nor the Target Boards of Directors shall have become aware of any facts that, in their respective reasonable judgment, have or are likely to have a material adverse effect on the Company and the Target REITs, taken as a whole, the Mergers, or the value of the Combined Company;

(e) FSP Corp. shall have received, on or prior to the Closing Date, an opinion from Hale and Dorr LLP to the effect that the Mergers should be treated for federal income tax purposes as reorganizations within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code and confirming that in all material respects, as of the Closing Date, the discussion set forth under "Federal Income Tax Considerations" in the Proxy Statement and the Consent Solicitation/Offering Memorandum, including any opinions expressed therein, to the extent that it involves matters of law, is accurate;

(f) the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company shall have delivered to each of the Target REITs a certificate on behalf of the Company, dated as of the Closing Date, to the effect that there have been no material adverse changes in the financial condition of the Company between the date of the most recent Company Financial Statements and the Closing Date, and the President of each of the Target REITs shall have delivered to the Company a certificate on behalf of each Target REIT, each dated as of the Closing Date, to the effect that there have been no material adverse changes in the financial condition of such Target REIT between the date of the most recent Target REIT Financial Statements for such Target REIT and the Closing Date;

A-16

(g) there shall have been no statute, rule, order or regulation enacted or issued by the United States or any State thereof, or by a court, that prohibits the consummation of the Mergers; and

(h) The representations set forth in Section 3 and Section 4 hereof are true and complete in all material respects.

The conditions described in clauses (b), (c), (d) and (f), above, may be waived by either the Company or the Target REITs, as the case may be, in whole or in part if, in the opinion of either the Company or the Target REITs, as the case may be, such waiver does not materially affect the terms of the transaction.

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

ARTICLE 7 TERMINATION AND WAIVER

7.1 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated, and the Mergers may be abandoned, at any time before the Closing Date, notwithstanding approval of the Mergers by the Company Stockholders and/or the Target REIT Stockholders:

(a) by the mutual written consent of the parties;

(b) by the Company or any Target REIT if the Mergers have not been consummated by July 31, 2003 (which date may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties);

(c) by the Company or any Target REIT if the conditions to the Mergers set forth in Article 6 of this Agreement are not satisfied or waived.

If a material casualty occurs with respect to the Property owned by a particular Target REIT, the Company Board has the right to terminate the Agreement with respect to such Target REIT and to consummate the Mergers with the remaining Target REITs.

7.2 Effect of Termination. In the event of termination of this Agreement as provided in Section 8.1 hereof, this Agreement shall become void and there shall be no liability or obligation on the part of any party hereto or its respective affiliates, partners, directors or officers, except (i) with respect to payment of expenses as described in Section 8.3 and (ii) to the extent that such termination results from the willful breach of a party hereto of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements made in or pursuant to this Agreement.

7.3 Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to the Closing Date, the parties hereto may, to the extent legally allowed, (i) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other parties hereto, (ii) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the other parties hereto contained herein or made in connection herewith, and (iii) waive compliance with any of the agreements of the other parties hereto contained herein. Any agreement on the part of a party hereto to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party.

7.4 No Survival of Representations and Warranties. None of the representations and warranties contained in this Agreement shall survive the Closing Date.

ARTICLE 8 MISCELLANEOUS

8.1 Assignment. The Company may not assign its rights under this Agreement without the consent of the applicable Target REIT. None of the Target REITs may assign their rights under this Agreement.

8.2 Risk of Loss.

(a) Risk of loss or damage to the assets owned by each Target REIT

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

(the "Assets") by condemnation, eminent domain or similar proceedings (or deed in lieu thereof), or by fire or any other casualty, from the date hereof through the Closing Date, will be on the Target REIT owning such Assets, and thereafter will be on the Combined Company.

(b) In the event of loss or damage to the Assets that occurs prior to the Closing Date, the applicable Target REIT shall use its best efforts to effect a timely cure of such loss or damage prior to the Closing Date. If the Target REIT is unable to effect such a timely cure, the Target REIT shall so notify the Company, and thereafter, the Company may, at its option: (i) elect to terminate this Agreement; (ii) unilaterally amend this Agreement to (A) reflect a decrease in the amount of Merger Consideration to be issued with respect to Target Stock in such Target REIT and (B) extend the term of this Agreement, and resolicit the stockholders of such Target REIT with respect to participation in the Mergers with the Merger Consideration adjusted to reflect such loss or damage; or (iii) unilaterally amend this Agreement to terminate this Agreement with respect to such Target REIT and consummate the Mergers with the remaining Target REITs.

8.3 Fees and Expenses. The costs associated with each independent third-party appraisal of the fair market value of each Target REIT's real estate ("Appraisal") obtained by the respective Target Boards of Directors shall be paid by the Target REIT owning the real estate that is the subject of the Appraisal. All other expenses related to the Mergers and the transactions contemplated hereby, including, without limitation, consulting, legal, accounting and administrative expenses, shall be paid by the Company.

8.4 Entire Agreement; Modifications; Amendments.

(a) This Agreement embodies and constitutes the entire understanding between the parties with respect to the transactions contemplated herein, and all prior or contemporaneous agreements, understandings, representations and statements, oral or written, are merged into this Agreement. Except as expressly otherwise provided herein, neither this

A-18

Agreement nor any provision hereof may be waived, modified, amended, discharged or terminated except by an instrument in writing signed by the party against which the enforcement of such waiver, modification, amendment, discharge or termination is sought, and then only to the extent set forth in such instrument.

(b) Subject to applicable law, this Agreement may be amended by the Company and the Target REITs at any time prior to the filing of the Certificates of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and the State Department of Assessment and Taxation of the State of Maryland; provided, however, that after approval by Target REIT Stockholders holding a majority of the Target Stock of a Target REIT, without further approval of the Target REIT Stockholders of such Target REIT, no amendment may be made that alters or changes (i) the amount or kind of Merger Consideration which the Target REIT Stockholders in such Target REIT shall be entitled to receive, (ii) the certificate of organization or bylaws of such Target REIT or (iii) the terms and conditions of this Agreement, if such alteration or change would have a material adverse effect on such Target REIT Stockholders.

8.5 Notices. All notices, demands or other writings in this Agreement provided to be given or made or sent, or which may be given or made or sent, by either party hereto to the other may be given personally or may be delivered by depositing the same in the U.S. mail, certified, return receipt requested, postage prepaid or by delivering the same to an air courier service, postage prepaid, properly addressed and sent to the address of such party as set forth below, or such other address as either party may from time to time designate by written notice to the other. Notice given by mail shall be considered effective upon the expiration of five business days after deposit. Notice given in any other manner shall be effective only if and when received by the addressee.

8.6 Interpretation. Words of any gender used in this Agreement shall be held and construed to include any other gender, and words of a singular number shall be held to include the plural and vice versa, unless the context requires otherwise.

8.7 Captions. The captions used in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not be deemed to construe or to limit the meaning of the language of this Agreement.

8.8 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of identical counterparts. If so executed, each of such counterparts is to be deemed an original for all purposes, and all such counterparts shall collectively constitute one agreement, but in making proof of this Agreement it shall not be necessary to produce or account for more than one such counterpart.

8.9 Binding Effect. Subject to the restrictions on assignment contained in Section 8.1 hereof, this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective heirs, legal representatives, successors and assigns.

8.10 Attorneys' Fees. Subject to the requirements of Section 8.12 hereof, should any party hereto employ an attorney or attorneys to enforce any of the provisions hereof or to protect its interest in any manner arising under this Agreement, or to recover damages for the breach hereof, the nonprevailing party or parties in any action pursued in courts of competent jurisdiction (the finality of which action is not legally contested) agrees to pay to the prevailing party or parties all reasonable costs, damages and expenses, including attorneys' fees, expended or incurred in connection therewith; provided, however, that if more than one item is disputed and the final decision is against each party as to one or more of the disputed items, then such costs, expenses and attorneys' fees shall be apportioned in accordance with the monetary values of the items decided against each party.

8.11 No Waiver; Severability. The failure of any party hereto to enforce at any time any of the provisions of this Agreement shall in no way be construed to be a waiver of any such provision, and shall in no way affect the validity of this Agreement or any part hereof or the right of any party thereafter to enforce each and every such provision. No waiver of any breach of this Agreement shall be held to be a waiver of any other or subsequent breach. If any provision of this Agreement, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall, for any reason and to any extent, be invalid or unenforceable, but the extent of the invalidity or unenforceability does not destroy the basis of the bargain between the parties as contained herein, the remainder of this Agreement and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby but rather shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

8.12 No Joint and Several Liability. If one of the Target REITs defaults under, or is in breach of, any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained in this Agreement, such Target REIT shall be accountable to the Company and shall be liable for the damages caused by such default or breach as provided in this Agreement. Each Target REIT hereunder has undertaken obligations and made representations, warranties, disclosures and covenants herein and in and pursuant to the exhibits hereto solely with respect to itself and the Property owned by it. Nothing contained herein, however, is intended to make any of the Target REITs jointly and severally liable for the default or breach by any of the other Target REITs, and with respect to any such default and breach such shall be solely the obligation and responsibility of the Target REIT responsible for the default or breach.

8.13 Applicable Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

APPENDIX C

[LETTERHEAD OF A.G. EDWARDS & SONS, INC.]

October 1, 2002

The Board of Directors
Franklin Street Properties Corp.
401 Edgewater Place
Wakefield, MA 01880

Ladies and Gentlemen:

In accordance with our arrangement, we have reviewed the reasonableness of the methodology ("Methodology") used in estimating a hypothetical range of values for Franklin Street Properties Corp. ("FSP Corp." or the "Company") both prior to and after giving effect to the possible acquisition by merger (the "Mergers") to FSP Corp. of FSP Forest Park IV Corp., FSP Gael Apartments Corp., FSP Goldentop Technology Center Corp., FSP Centennial Technology Center Corp., FSP Meadow Point Corp., FSP Timberlake Corp., FSP Federal Way Corp., FSP Fair Lakes Corp., FSP Northwest Point Corp., FSP Timberlake East Corp., FSP Merrywood Apartments Corp., FSP Plaza Ridge I Corp. and FSP Park Ten Corp (collectively, the "Target REITs"). The range of values is hypothetical in that it is prospective and is limited to information available as of the date of this report. Any values computed herein are based on economic, market, geopolitical and company specific data as of September 10, 2002. Any changes in any one of these items subsequent to September 10, 2002 could materially impact any conclusion derived from utilizing any unadjusted Methodology. We understand that the purpose of FSP Corp.'s determination of the range of values is to assist the shareholders in their review of a potential Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement") by and among FSP Corp. and the Target REITs and the issuance of common stock in FSP Corp. to existing shareholders of the Target REITs. We further understand that the Transaction is expected to be consummated on or about April 1, 2003.

A.G. Edwards & Sons, Inc. ("Edwards"), as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive biddings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate or other purposes. The Company has agreed to indemnify Edwards for certain liabilities that may arise out of the rendering of this report and any related activities as advisor to the Board of Directors. Edwards has also performed and may continue to perform certain investment banking services for the Company. Edwards is not aware of any present or contemplated relationship between Edwards and the Company or any of the Company's affiliates, directors, officers or shareholders or between Edwards and the Target REITs, their respective affiliates, directors, officers or shareholders, which in our opinion would affect our ability to render fair and independent advice in this matter.

In connection with this report, Edwards has reviewed and considered such financial and other matters as we have deemed relevant, including, among other things: financial projections of FSP Corp. and the Target REITs, publicly traded REITs, attributes of the Company both positive and negative as well as other financial studies and analyses related to general economic, market and monetary conditions and such other studies and analyses that Edwards considered appropriate.

In preparing its report, Edwards has assumed and relied upon, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all financial and other information publicly available or that was supplied or otherwise made available to it by the Company and its representatives. Edwards has not been engaged to, and therefore it has not, verified the accuracy or completeness of any of such information. Edwards has relied upon the assurances of the management of the Company that they are not aware of any facts that would make such information materially inaccurate or misleading. Edwards has been informed and assumed that the financial projections supplied to, discussed with or otherwise made available to it reflect the best currently available estimates and judgment of the management of the Company as to the expected future financial performance of the Company and the Target REITs, in each case on a stand-alone basis and after giving effect to the Mergers. Edwards has not independently verified such information or assumptions, nor does it express any opinion with respect thereto. Edwards has not made any independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of the Company or the Target REITs, nor has it been furnished with any such appraisals. Edwards also did not independently attempt to assess or value any intangible assets (including goodwill) nor did it make any independent assumptions with respect to their application in the Mergers. Edwards understands that with respect to all legal and tax matters you have been advised by various legal and tax advisors to the Board of Directors. Edwards has assumed that no legal or regulatory changes that occur after the date hereof will have a material impact on the Company's operations, financial condition and future prospects.

In performing its analysis, Edwards made numerous assumptions with respect to interest rates, dividend rates, market conditions, general business conditions, local and national real estate conditions, economic conditions and government regulations, all as of September 10, 2002, which are beyond the control of the Company and the Target REITs. The analysis performed by Edwards is not necessarily indicative of actual values or actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analysis. Such analysis was prepared solely as part of Edwards' analysis of the reasonableness of the Methodology.

For the purposes of rendering its report, Edwards has assumed in all respects material to its analysis that the representations and warranties of each party contained in the Merger Agreement are true and correct, that each party will perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by it under the Merger Agreement and that all conditions to the consummation of the Transaction will be satisfied without any modification or waiver thereof. Edwards has also assumed that all governmental, regulatory and other consents and approvals contemplated by the Merger Agreement will be obtained and that in the course of obtaining any of those consents, no restrictions will be imposed or waivers made that would have an adverse effect on the contemplated Mergers.

Edwards was not engaged to render, and its advice to you will not constitute, nor is it expressing: (i) an independent valuation opinion or appraisal report (as defined in ASA Business Valuation Standards (revised January, 1995)) of the Company or the Target REITs or (ii) an opinion as to the fairness (a fairness opinion) of the consideration offered in the Mergers to the shareholders of the Company or the Target REITs. In preparing either a valuation opinion or appraisal or in rendering a fairness opinion, certain additional extrinsic analyses, tasks and judgments necessarily must be undertaken and completed. Such analyses may include, but would not be limited to, the following: (1) review of appraisals, prepared by independent appraisers, of each real property asset owned by the Company and each of the Target REITs; (2) site inspections of all owned properties to be contributed to the parent; (3) analyses of present national and local economic conditions; (4) market analysis for properties held in the Target REITs; (5) detailed due diligence on past results, current operations, and future prospects of the business; (6) analysis of terms and conditions on past sales of interests in the business enterprise and each of the Target REITs; (7) a search and review of sales of similar businesses or interests therein, whether closely-held or publicly-held; (8) random interviews with key investors; (9) additional comparable company analysis; (10) discounted cash flow analysis; (11) pro forma combination analysis; (12) analysis of synergies; and (13) contribution analysis. Had such analyses and tasks been undertaken and completed, they may or may not have results similar to the results from the Methodology. We have not been requested by you to undertake, nor have we undertaken, any of these foregoing analyses. In addition, we do not express any qualitative assessment of the Methodology compared to other methodologies that might be used to value the Company or the Target REITs, nor does this report address the merits of the underlying decision by the Company to engage in the Mergers.

In rendering its report, Edwards assumed that (a) the Mergers will be accounted for in accordance with U.S. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles and (b) the Mergers will be consummated on the terms contained in the Merger Agreement without any waiver or modification of any material terms or conditions by the parties.

Edwards' report is necessarily based on economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to it, as of September 10, 2002. Edwards' opinion as expressed herein, in any event, is limited to the reasonableness of the Methodology. It should be understood that, although subsequent developments may affect Edwards' opinion, Edwards does not have any obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion and it expressly disclaims any responsibility to do so.

This letter does not constitute a recommendation as to how any member of the Board or shareholder should vote with respect to the Transaction. This opinion may not be reproduced, summarized, described, characterized, excerpted from, referred to or given to any other person for any purpose without Edwards' prior written consent, except that this opinion may be included in its entirety and the procedures followed in rendering this opinion may be summarized (subject to the review and approval thereof by Edwards and its counsel) in a proxy statement to be distributed to the shareholders of the Company and each of the Target REITs regarding the Mergers.

The Methodology, attached as Exhibit A and included in the Proxy Statement as Appendix D, which we have been asked to review, is principally based on two assumptions: (1) applying a range of valuation multiples of national, publicly traded REITs in sectors in which the Company has operations ("Public Company Multiples") and (2) applying a discount factor for lack of marketability of the Company's shares (the "Lack of Marketability Discount"). Edwards provided the Company a summary of Public Company Multiples attached hereto as Exhibit B, as well as a summary of various factors Edwards recommended the Board consider when evaluating the appropriateness of such multiples attached hereto as Exhibit C. Additionally, Edwards provided the Board a summary of the relevant factors, attached as Exhibit D, to consider when determining an appropriate Lack of Marketability Discount. Exhibits B, Exhibit C and Exhibit D were performed by Edwards solely to evaluate the Company's Methodology for purposes of rendering this report.

Subject to the foregoing and on the basis of the information that we gained in the course of the performance of the services described herein, nothing that came to our attention in the course of our review has caused us to believe that the Methodology used to derive the range of values is unreasonable. We appreciate the opportunity to be of service to Franklin Street Properties Corp. in this matter, and look forward to working with you again in the future.

Sincerely,

A.G. EDWARDS & SONS, INC.

Exhibit C

MARKET MULTIPLE ANALYSIS

The Company's Methodology, as found in Exhibit A, uses a mean next fiscal year Price/Cash Available for Distribution ("CAD") multiple of approximately 12.0x and a range of mean Price/CAD multiples of 11.0x to 13.3x.

A.G. Edwards provided FSP Corp. Price/CAD multiples for several national, publicly traded REITs in sectors in which FSP Corp. has operations as found in Exhibit B. The sectors provided were based on the property holdings of FSP Corp. and include the Apartment, Industrial, Office and Office/Industrial sectors. The public market's CAD multiples for these REIT sectors range from a mean of 11.0x for the Office sector to a mean of 13.3x for the Industrial sector. A combination of the Apartment, Office, Industrial and Office/Industrial sectors yields a mean CAD multiple of 12.0x. However, the above multiple assumes the Company's shares would be publicly traded based on CAD without taking into consideration adjustments, whether positive or negative, for FSP Corp. specific factors, relative to the selected REITs, which would impact the Company's valuation. Below are several factors that Edwards recommends FSP Corp.'s Board consider when arriving at an adjusted CAD multiple for use in the Company's Methodology.

Quantitative Factors

Edgar Filing: FRANKLIN STREET PROPERTIES CORP /MA/ - Form DEFM14A

- o Size. The equity market capitalization of the Company is about average when compared to the broader real estate investment trust universe but smaller when compared to the selected REITs. Adjustment: Negative.
- o Growth. The Company has experienced a decline in its growth rate yet the current and projected growth rates for FSP Corp., in today's weak economic environment, still remain above average. In the REIT industry as with other industries, there is a correlation between the implied future growth rate and the CAD multiple. Adjustment: Positive.
- o Liquidity. The Company has cash and cash reserves on the balance sheet. Adjustment: Positive.
- o Leverage. The Company has no debt. This gives the Company flexibility versus other leveraged companies. Adjustment: Positive.

Qualitative Factors

- o Management. The Company appears to have an experienced management team. Adjustment: Positive.
- o Diversification. The Company is diversified by both product type and by geography. This can be viewed both positively and negatively as the positive attributes of diversification across real estate markets in several different product types is offset by the negative attributes of investing throughout the country. Real estate is still a local business and Edwards believes that it is difficult to be an expert in each locale and across multiple product types. Adjustment: Neutral.

C-7

- o Market Position/Share. The Company is a niche player and does not command a dominant position in any single market. Adjustment: Negative.
- o Ability to Raise Growth Capital. FSP Corp. has a substantial investor base consisting of high-net-worth individuals. These investors have in the past committed significant equity capital during market downturns, when other sources of capital have been unavailable. FSP Corp. has consistently demonstrated the ability to retain its existing investor base with a significant number of repeat investors. FSP Corp. has also demonstrated its ability and desire to attract a substantial number of new investors by designating a portion of each deal to first-time investors and consistently filling that allocation with new investor's equity. Adjustment: Positive.

Based on the above factors, Edwards believes the Company's determination to use a range of CAD multiples of 11.0x to 13.3x is not unreasonable.

C-8

Exhibit D

LACK OF MARKETABILITY DISCOUNT

Since FSP Corp. is not publicly traded and ownership is widely held, its shareholders have no immediate access to an active liquid market in which to dispose of their shares. Further, minority shareholders cannot force registration to provide marketability. Without market access, a shareholder's ability to control the timing of potential gains, to avoid losses and to minimize the opportunity costs associated with the inability to direct funds to more promising investments is impaired. However, in an attempt to increase shareholders' liquidity, the Company has instituted a redemption plan whereby shareholders are able, subject to available funds, to tender their shares once each year for 90% of the fair market value of the shares as determined by the Company. Outlined below, Edwards has summarized relevant factors that should be considered in determining the amount of any discount from a publicly traded security that may be afforded to FSP Corp.'s restricted securities to account for lack of a "ready market" and the degree of illiquidity.

- o "Put" Rights. FSP Corp. has incorporated a put right feature into their investment structure. This right is a positive step in providing some liquidity to shareholders. Shareholders have the right to "put" their shares, once each year, to the Company for 90% of the fair market value of their shares as determined by the Company. While shareholders only have the ability to exercise this right infrequently and this right is subject to available funds and may only be exercised at a discount, the availability of this right is a positive relative to other private securities. Adjustment: Positive.
- o Dividend Payments. Very high payout of Cash Available for Distribution (2003 estimated CAD payout ratio of 91.9%). Adjustment: Positive.
- o Potential Buyers/Investors. Uncertainty exists regarding reception of the Company's business model in the public markets. Currently, the only potential buyer of an investor's shares is the Company. Adjustment: Negative.
- o Size of Block of Minority Shares. The Company has small blocks of minority stock. Adjustment: Negative.
- o Prospect of Public Offering or Sale of Company. The Company has indicated its intent to list shares on a national exchange and allow them to become publicly traded in the short to medium term assuming market reception. Adjustment: Positive.
- o High Dividend. The Company has a track record of paying a very high dividend. Adjustment: Positive.
- o Growth Prospects. While the Company's growth rate has moderated and the growth prospects for the broader real estate market have declined due to the economic slowdown, FSP Corp. has continued to achieve above average growth relative to other REITs. Adjustment: Positive.

C-9

- o Degree of Control, Swing Value. The shares subject to the Company's Methodology are assumed to be minority shares and are widely held. Individual shares of the Company do not possess any attributes of control and are not distributed in such a way as to generate swing vote control (i.e. the ability to control decisions based on the ability to be the swing vote between two opposing sides). Adjustment: Negative.
- o Buy-Sell Agreements. None. Adjustment: Negative.
- o Stock's Quality Grade. Good profitability and growth prospects with a core base of stable real estate revenues; average company size; no leverage. Adjustment: Positive.

- o Prospects for the Company. The Company seems to have found a niche in the real estate market by syndicating unleveraged, single assets REIT shares. The Company is lead by an experienced management team and has a history of raising growth capital in both good and bad environments. Adjustment: Positive.
- o Prospects for the Real Estate Industry. The real estate market appears to be as weak as is the overall economic environment. Adjustment: Negative.
- o Prevailing Mood of Investing Public. The market for real estate securities has gained increasing attention and credibility among non-dedicated investors during the economic slowdown due to the sector's consistent growth in cash flows and dividends. The sector also posted total returns that outpaced the broader market in 2001 and has continued to do so in 2002. Adjustment: Positive.

A typical discount for the lack of marketability for a privately held company would be approximately 35%. However, when taking into account the factors discussed above, Edwards believes the Company's determination to use a lower discount is not unreasonable. These factors include the low leverage and thus higher quality income stream of FSP Corp., the redemption plan initiated by the Company providing shareholders limited liquidity for their shares, the potential liquidity event within the short to medium term and the high dividend payout ratio.

Based on the above factors, Edwards believes the Company's determination to use a lack of marketability discount of 5% to 10% of the Company's marketable minority equity value is not unreasonable.
