May 17, 2005

The enclosed proxy is solicited by and on behalf of the Board of Directors of CONMED Corporation (the "Company") for use at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on Tuesday, May 17, 2005, at 3:30 p.m. (New York time), at the offices of the Company at 525 French Road, Utica, New York, and any adjournment thereof. The matters to be considered and acted upon at such meeting are described in the foregoing notice of the meeting and this proxy statement. This proxy statement, the related form of proxy and the Company's Annual Report to Shareholders are being mailed on or about April 15, 2005, to all shareholders of record on March 30, 2005. Shares of the Company's common stock, par value $.01 per share ("Common Stock") represented in person or by proxy will be voted as described in this proxy statement or as otherwise specified by the shareholder. Any proxy given by a shareholder may be revoked by the shareholder at any time prior to the voting of the proxy by delivering a written notice to the Secretary of the Company, by executing and delivering a later-dated proxy or by attending the meeting and voting in person.

The persons named as proxies are Eugene R. Corasanti and Daniel S. Jonas, who are, respectively, the Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board, and the Vice President - Legal Affairs and General Counsel of the Company. The cost of preparing, assembling and mailing the proxy, this proxy statement and other material enclosed, and all clerical and other expenses of solicitations, will be borne by the Company. In addition to the solicitation of proxies by use of the mails, directors, officers and employees of the Company and its subsidiaries may solicit proxies by telephone, telegram or personal interview. The Company also will request brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward soliciting material to the beneficial owners of Common Stock held of record by such parties and will reimburse such parties for their expenses in forwarding soliciting material.

Votes at the 2005 Annual Meeting will be tabulated by a representative of Registrar and Transfer Company, which has been appointed by the Company's Board of Directors to serve as inspector of election.

VOTING RIGHTS

The holders of record of the 29,399,296 shares of Common Stock outstanding on March 30, 2005 will be entitled to one vote for each share held on all matters coming before the meeting. The holders of record of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock present in person or by proxy will constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the meeting. Shareholders are not entitled to cumulative voting rights. Under the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, or the SEC, boxes and a designated blank space are provided on the proxy card for shareholders if they wish either to abstain on one or more of the proposals or to withhold authority to vote for one or more nominees for director. In accordance with New York State law, such abstentions are not counted in determining the votes cast at the meeting. With respect to Proposal (1), the director nominees who receive the greatest number of votes at the meeting will be elected to the Board of Directors of the Company. Votes against, and votes withheld in respect of, a candidate have no legal effect. Proposal (2) requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the votes cast at the meeting in order to be approved by the shareholders.

When properly executed, a proxy will be voted as specified by the shareholder. If no choice is specified by the shareholder, a proxy will be voted for all portions of items (1) and (2) and in the proxies discretion on any other matters coming before the meeting.

Under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange, Inc., which effectively govern the voting by any brokerage firm holding shares registered in its name or in the name of its nominee on behalf of a beneficial owner, Proposals (1) and (2) are considered discretionary items upon which brokerage firms may vote in their discretion on behalf of their clients if such clients have not furnished voting instructions within ten days prior to the Annual Meeting. Broker non-votes will be treated in the same manner as votes present.

PROPOSALS TO BE SUBMITTED AT THE SHAREHOLDERS MEETING

There are two proposals expected to be submitted for shareholder approval. The first concerns the election of directors. The second concerns ratifying the appointment of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm (independent accountants). These proposals are more fully described below.

PROPOSAL ONE: ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

At the meeting, seven directors are to be elected to serve on the Company's Board of Directors. The shares represented by proxies will be voted as specified by the shareholder. If the shareholder does not specify his or her choice, the shares will be voted in favor of the election of the nominees listed on the proxy card, except that in the event any nominee should not continue to be available for election, such proxies will be voted for the election of such other persons as the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee of the Board of Directors may recommend. The Company does not presently contemplate that any of the nominees will become unavailable for election for any reason. The director nominees who receive the greatest number of votes at the meeting will be elected to the Board of Directors of the Company. Votes against, and votes withheld in respect of, a candidate have no legal effect. Shareholders are not entitled to cumulative voting rights.

The Board of Directors presently consists of seven directors. Directors hold office for terms expiring at the next annual meeting of shareholders and until their successors are duly elected and qualified. Each of the nominees proposed for election at the Annual Meeting is presently a member of the Board of Directors and has been elected by the shareholders.

The following table sets forth certain information regarding the members of, and nominees for, the Board of Directors:

PROPOSAL TWO: INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS

The independent accountants for the Company have been PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP since 1982. The Audit Committee appointed PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to be nominated as independent accountants for 2005, subject to shareholder ratification.

Unless otherwise specified, shares represented by proxies will be voted for the ratification of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as independent accountants for 2005. Neither our certificate of incorporation nor our by-laws require that the shareholders ratify the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as our independent accountants. We are doing so because we believe it is a matter of good corporate governance. If the shareholders do not ratify the appointment, the Audit Committee will reconsider whether to retain PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, but may elect to retain them. Even if the appointment is ratified, the Audit Committee in its discretion may change the appointment at any time during the year if it determines that such change would be in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders.

Representatives of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP are expected to be present at the meeting. Such representatives will have the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so and are expected to be available to respond to appropriate questions.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of votes cast at the meeting is necessary for the ratification of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as independent accountants for the Company for 2005.

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR this proposal.

On March 30, 2005, the closing price of the Common Stock on the Nasdaq Stock Market was $30.03 per share.

OTHER BUSINESS

Management knows of no other business which will be presented for consideration at the Annual Meeting, but should any other matters be brought before the meeting, it is intended that the persons named in the accompanying proxy will vote such proxy at their discretion.

In addition, the Audit Committee and Board of Directors have determined that Ms. Golden qualifies as an audit committee financial expert within the meaning of Section 407 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the implementing regulations. The Audit Committee operates pursuant to a Charter that was last amended and restated by the Board of Directors on March 17, 2004. A copy of the amended and restated charter is attached to the 2004 proxy statement.

Management is responsible for CONMED's internal controls, financial reporting process and compliance with laws and regulations. The independent accountants are responsible for performing an integrated audit of CONMED's consolidated financial statements and of its internal control over financial reporting in accordance the standards of the Public Company of Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB). The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes, as well as to attend to the matters set forth in the amended and restated charter.

In this context, the Audit Committee has met on several occasions and held discussions with management and with the independent auditors, including executive meetings without management present. Management represented to the Audit Committee that the Company's consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and the Committee has reviewed and discussed the consolidated financial statements with management and the independent auditors. The Audit Committee discussed with the independent auditors matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards Nos. 61, 89 and 90 (Communication with Audit Committees).

CONMED's independent auditors also provided to the Audit Committee the written disclosures and the letter required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1 (Independence Discussions with Audit Committees), and the Audit Committee discussed with the independent accountants their independence. In this regard, the Audit Committee has determined that the provision of non-audit services by the independent auditors is compatible with the auditor's independence in light of the nature and extent of permissible non-audit services provided to the Company.

Members of the Audit Committee rely without independent verification on the information provided to them and on the representations made by management and the independent accountants. Accordingly, the Audit Committee's oversight does not provide an independent basis to determine that management has maintained appropriate accounting and financial reporting principles or appropriate internal control and procedures designed to assure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations. Furthermore, the Audit Committee's considerations and discussions referred to above do not assure that the audit of the Company's financial statements has been carried out in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, that the financial statements are presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles or that the Company's auditors are in fact independent.

Based upon the Audit Committee's review and discussions referred to above, and subject to the limitations on the role and responsibilities of the Audit Committee referred to above and in the Charter, the Audit Committee recommended that the Board of Directors include the Company's audited consolidated financial statements in CONMED's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004 filed with the SEC.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE AND NOMINATING COMMITTEE REPORT

The role of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee is to recommend individuals to the Board for nomination as members of the Board and its committees and to develop and recommend to the Board a set of corporate governance principles applicable to the Company. The Board of Directors, in its business judgment, has determined that all members of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee are independent, as required by applicable listing standards of the Nasdaq Stock Market, in that no member of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee has received any payments, other than compensation for Board services, from the Company. The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee operates pursuant to a Charter that was last amended and restated by the Board of Directors on February 29, 2004. A copy of the amended and restated charter is attached to the 2004 proxy statement.

The Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee has no fixed process for identifying and evaluating potential candidates to be nominees. To date, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee has not retained the services of any third party to assist in the process of identifying or evaluating candidates, although this could change should circumstances warrant the services of a third party. Likewise, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee has no fixed set of qualifications that must be satisfied before a candidate will be considered. Rather, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee has opted to retain the flexibility to consider such factors as it deems appropriate. These factors may include judgment, skill, diversity, experience with businesses and other organizations of comparable size, the interplay of the candidate's experience with the experience of other Board members, and the extent to which the candidate would be a desirable addition to the Board and any committees of the Board.

The Committee may consider candidates proposed by management, but is not required to do so. As previously disclosed, the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee will consider any nominees submitted to the Company by shareholders wishing to propose nominees for election as directors at the 2006 Annual Meeting, provided that the shareholders proposing any such nominees have adhered to specified advance notice procedures contained in the Company's by-laws, a copy of which is available on request to the General Counsel of the Company, CONMED Corporation, 525 French Road, Utica, New York 13502 (Telephone (315) 797-8375).

Shareholders who wish to communicate with the Board of Directors may do so by sending correspondence to the attention of the General Counsel of the Company at 525 French Road, Utica New York 13502 with a cover letter explaining that the correspondence is intended for the Board of Directors. In addition, questions may be posed to directors during the question and answer period at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders. The Company has no formal policy requiring that directors attend the Annual Meeting of Shareholders, although the Company's expectation is that all directors will attend absent exceptional circumstances. Historically, all directors have attended the Annual Meeting of Shareholders, and all directors were present at the 2004 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

- (1) Annual Compensation - Bonus includes cash bonuses in year earned even if paid after the fiscal year end.
 - (2) Amounts represent deferred compensation and accrued interest for Messrs. E. and J. Corasanti. See the discussion of the employment agreements for Messrs. E. and J. Corasanti, below.
 - (3) All Other Compensation consists of company contributions, if any, to employee 401(k) plan accounts on the same terms offered to all other employees, payments for supplemental insurance policies and other payments relating to automobile leases and/or allowances and dues payments. In addition, with respect to Mr. J. Corasanti, All Other Compensation also includes reimbursements for certain insurance policies as provided for in his Amended and Restated Employment Agreement, which is further described below.

Eugene R. Corasanti has a five-year employment agreement (the "CEO Employment Agreement") with the Company, which originally extended through December 31, 2001, and was extended through December 31, 2006. The CEO Employment Agreement provides for Mr. E. Corasanti to serve as chief executive officer of the Company for five years at an annual salary not less than $300,000, as determined by the Board of Directors. Mr. E. Corasanti also receives deferred compensation of $100,000 per year (which the Board increased to $200,000 for 2000 and subsequent years) with interest at 10% per annum, payable in 120 equal monthly installments upon his retirement or to his beneficiaries at death, and is entitled to participate in the Company's employee stock option plan, pension and other employee benefit plans and such bonus or other compensatory arrangements as may be determined by the Board of Directors. In the event that the Board of Directors should fail to re-elect Mr. E. Corasanti as chief executive officer or should terminate his employment for reasons other than just cause, Mr. E. Corasanti will become entitled to receive the greater of three years' base annual salary or the balance of his base annual salary plus the average of the bonuses, deferred compensation and incentive compensation awarded to Mr. E. Corasanti during the three years prior to such termination for the five-term employment term, and shall continue to receive other employment benefits, for the greater of three years or the balance of the CEO Employment Agreement's five-year term. In the event of Mr. E. Corasanti's death or disability, Mr. E. Corasanti or his estate or beneficiaries will be entitled to receive 100% of his base annual salary and other employment benefits (other than deferred compensation) for the balance of the CEO Employment Agreement's term. If, during the term of Mr. E. Corasanti's employment under the Employment Agreement and within two years after a Change in Control, his employment with the Company is terminated by the Company, other than for Cause or by him for Good Reason (as such capitalized terms are defined in the Employment Agreement), Mr. E. Corasanti will be entitled to receive (a) a lump sum payment equal to three times the sum of (i) his base salary on the date of such termination or his base salary in effect immediately prior to the Change in Control, whichever is higher, plus (ii) the average of the bonuses, deferred compensation and incentive compensation awarded to Mr. E. Corasanti during the three years prior to such termination; (b) continued coverage under the benefit plans in which he participates for a period of two years from the date of such early termination; (c) a lump sum payment equal to the aggregate amount credited to his deferred compensation account; and (d) awards for the calendar year of such termination under incentive plans maintained by the Company as though any performance or objective criteria used in determining such awards were satisfied. The Board of Directors determined that Mr. E. Corasanti's base annualized salary would be $425,000 for 2004.

Joseph J. Corasanti has an employment agreement (the "COO Employment Agreement") with the Company, extending from January 1, 2000 through December 31, 2009. The COO Employment Agreement, which was amended and restated as of November 12, 2004, provides for Mr. J. Corasanti to serve as chief operating officer of the Company for at an annual salary originally not less than $200,000, and not less than $375,000 since November 12, 2004, as determined by the Board of Directors. Mr. J. Corasanti also receives deferred compensation of $100,000 per year with interest at 10% per annum for payments accrued through December 31, 2004, with payments of $125,000 to accrue in each year commencing December 31, 2005 with interest at two percent above prime per annum, payable upon his departure or retirement, or to his beneficiaries at death. Mr. J. Corasanti is entitled to participate in the Company's employee stock option plan and pension and other employee benefit plans and such bonus or other compensatory arrangements as may be determined by the Board of Directors. Mr. J. Corasanti is also entitled to be paid an amount sufficient after the payment of applicable taxes to permit Mr. J. Corasanti to purchase certain insurance policies. In the event that the Board of Directors should fail to re-elect Mr. J. Corasanti as chief operating officer or should terminate his employment for reasons other than just cause, Mr. J. Corasanti will become entitled to receive the greater of three years' base annual salary or the balance of his base annual salary plus the average of the bonuses, deferred compensation and incentive compensation awarded to Mr. Corasanti during the three years prior to such termination for the remaining term of his employment contract, and shall continue to receive other employment benefits, for the greater of three years or the balance of the COO Employment Agreement's term. In the event of Mr. J. Corasanti's death or disability, Mr. J. Corasanti or his estate or beneficiaries will be entitled to receive 100% of his base annual salary and other employment benefits (other than deferred compensation) for the balance of the COO Employment Agreement's term. If, during the term of Mr. Corasanti's employment under the COO Employment Agreement and within two years after a Change in Control, his employment with the Company is terminated by the Company, other than for Cause or by him for Good Reason (as such capitalized terms are defined in the Employment Agreement), Mr. J. Corasanti will be entitled to receive (a) a lump sum payment equal to three times the sum of (i) his base salary on the date of such termination or his base salary in effect immediately prior to the Change in Control, whichever is higher, plus (ii) the average of the bonuses, deferred compensation and incentive compensation awarded to Mr. J. Corasanti during the three years prior to such termination; (b) continued coverage under the benefit plans in which he participates for a period of two years from the date of such early termination; (c) a lump sum payment equal to the aggregate amount credited to his deferred compensation account; and (d) awards for the calendar year of such termination under incentive plans maintained by the Company as though any performance or objective criteria used in determining such awards were satisfied. During 2004, the Board of Directors determined that Mr. J. Corasanti's base annualized salary would be $375,000.

The Company paid the premiums on three split-dollar life insurance policies for Eugene R. Corasanti through July 2002, at which time the Board of Directors and management elected to halt such payments in light of the enactment of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, as further described below. In 2003 and 2004, there were no premiums paid on these policies by the Company. In addition, there were no premiums paid by the Company for a split-dollar life insurance policy for Mr. J. Corasanti in 2004. These matters are described below under Board of Directors Interlocks and Insider Participation; Certain Relationships and Related Transactions.

PENSION PLANS

The Company maintains a broadly based defined benefit pension plan (the Pension Plan) for all employees. Effective January 1, 2004, the ConMed Electrosurgery and Linvatec Retirement Income Plans were merged into the ConMed Corporation Pension Plan D, with the resulting plan being renamed the ConMed Corporation Retirement Pension Plan.

The Pension Plan entitles a participant to a normal monthly retirement benefit equal to one-twelfth of 1.65% of five year average earnings multiplied by years of service offset by 0.65% of social security covered compensation multiplied by years of service to a maximum of 35 years. The deferred compensation for Messrs. E. and J. Corasanti is not included in the calculation of retirement benefits. Benefits are fully vested after five years of service, starting from date of hire. Upon reaching normal retirement age, generally age 65 with five years of credited service, participants are entitled to receive vested benefits under the Pension Plan in a monthly retirement benefit.

As of December 31, 2004, Messrs. E. Corasanti, J. Corasanti, Abraham, Woodard and Shallish had three, twelve, three, five and fifteen years of credited service, respectively in the Conmed Pension Plan. The first table presents information concerning the annual pension payable under the Pension Plan based upon various assumed levels of annual compensation and years of service.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The Company's Board of Directors, pursuant to the terms of the CEO and COO Employment Agreements, establishes the annual salary of Eugene R. Corasanti and Joseph J. Corasanti. The Compensation Committee establishes the compensation plans and specific compensation levels for the Company's other executive and senior officers. The Compensation Committee administers the Company's stock option plans. The Compensation Committee is presently composed of Messrs. Matthews, Daniels and Mandia.

The Board of Directors believes that the compensation of Eugene R. Corasanti, the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, should be heavily influenced by company performance, long-term growth and strategic positioning. Therefore, although there is necessarily some subjectivity in setting the CEO's salary, major elements of the compensation package are directly tied to company performance, long-term growth and strategic positioning. This philosophy is reflected in Mr. E. Corasanti's current five-year employment contract, which provides for a base annual salary of $300,000 and permits the Board of Directors, in its discretion, to establish a higher salary for him. The current annualized base salary for Mr. E. Corasanti is $425,000, with annual deferred compensation of $200,000 per annum before interest.

The Board of Directors believes that the compensation of Joseph J. Corasanti, the President and Chief Operating Officer (COO), should also be heavily influenced by company performance, long-term growth and strategic positioning. This philosophy is reflected in the employment contract for the COO which is generally similar to the contract provided to the CEO, and which provides for a base annual salary on a prospective basis of $375,000 and permits the Board of Directors to determine a higher salary for the COO in its discretion. The current base salary for Mr. J. Corasanti is $375,000 plus annual deferred compensation of $125,000 per annum before interest.

In 2002, the Company focused on internal growth, through the introduction of a number of new products and improved distribution. In addition, the Company completed a number of strategic acquisitions and continued to integrate completed acquisitions. While the Company experienced record revenues and earnings, the results recognized at the end of the year were nonetheless lower than expected. In light of the continued trend toward increasing revenues and earnings, as well as the improvements to the Company's balance sheet, the Board of Directors, with Messrs. E. Corasanti and J. Corasanti abstaining, approved an increase in base compensation for Mr. E. Corasanti to $350,000, and approved an increase in base compensation for Mr. J. Corasanti to $275,000. In light of the year-end results proving to be lower than expected, no bonuses were paid to Messrs. E. Corasanti and J. Corasanti. Likewise, no officers were awarded any bonus in light of the final year-end performance.

During 2003, the Company continued its focus on internal growth, through the introduction of a number of new products and an increase in the number of sales representatives representing its orthopedic products. In addition, the Company completed strategic acquisitions and continued to integrate completed acquisitions. The Company experienced record revenues and net income, before certain charges. Further, the Company lowered its debt to total capitalization ratio despite one significant acquisition at the beginning of the year, and reduced its interest cost for outstanding debt. Moreover, the Company resolved significant litigation on favorable terms. In light of the continued trend toward increasing revenues and earnings, as well as the improvements to the Company's balance sheet, the Board of Directors, with Messrs. E. Corasanti and J. Corasanti abstaining, approved an increase in base compensation for Mr. E. Corasanti to $400,000, and approved an increase in base compensation for Mr. J. Corasanti to $305,000. These increases were effective on or about June 1, 2003. In addition, in light of the uncertainty surrounding split-dollar life insurance premiums following the enactment of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and its implementing regulations, and because the Company had a prior contractual commitment to provide such insurance, the Company agreed to provide payments to Mr. J. Corasanti in an amount sufficient to allow him to continue to pay the premiums due on a split-dollar life insurance policy in which the Company no longer has any interest. In light of the Company's year-end results, a bonus of $120,000 was awarded to Mr. E. Corasanti and a bonus of $91,500 was awarded to Mr. J. Corasanti. Likewise, certain other officers were awarded bonuses in light of the final year-end performance.

During 2004, the Company maintained its focus on internal growth, through the introduction of a number of new products. In addition, the Company completed a significant distribution arrangement and completed a significant acquisition which added a new division and sales force. The Company experienced record revenues, net income and cash flow, before certain charges. Further, the Company reduced its interest cost for outstanding debt through the issuance of convertible notes at a lower, fixed interest rate. In light of the continued trend toward increasing revenues and earnings, as well as the improvements to the Company's balance sheet, following the recommendation of the Compensation Committee, the Board of Directors, with Messrs. E. Corasanti and J. Corasanti abstaining, approved an increase in base compensation for Mr. E. Corasanti to $425,000, and approved an increase in base compensation for Mr. J. Corasanti to $375,000. These increases were effective on or about June 1, 2004. With respect to Mr. J. Corasanti's employment contract, the Committee determined that, in light of the increase in the size of the organization which Mr. J. Corasanti was managing, as well as the record of consistent growth in revenues and earnings, it was appropriate to extend the term of the contract for an additional five year period with a base salary of $375,000, a base deferred compensation level of $125,000, and certain other benefits with respect to certain life insurance policies as reflected in the Amended and Restated Employment Agreement. In addition, the Committee concluded that, in light of the current interest rate environment, additional deferred compensation payments should accrue interest at a rate equal to the prime rate plus two percent, rather than a fixed rate of 10 percent. Following the recommendation of the Compensation Committee, the Board of Directors, with Messrs. E. Corasanti and J. Corasanti abstaining, approved the Amended and Restated Employment Agreement upon the terms as described above.

The Compensation Committee has adopted similar policies with respect to compensation of the other executive officers of the Company. The Company's performance, long-term growth and strategic positioning and the individual's past performance and future potential are considered in establishing the base salaries of executive officers. The policy regarding other elements of the compensation package for executive officers is similar to the CEO's in that the package is tied to achievement of performance targets. In light of the Company's performance during 2004, Mr. E. Corasanti was granted options relating to 125,000 shares, and Mr. J. Corasanti was granted options relating to 125,000 shares. In 2004, the Compensation Committee also granted options to certain other executive officers.

Stock options are granted to the Company's executive officers primarily based on the executive's ability to influence the Company's long-term growth and profitability. The number of options granted is determined by using the same subjective criteria. All options are granted at the current market price. Since the value of an option bears a direct relationship to the Company's stock price, it is an effective incentive for managers to create value for shareholders. The Committee therefore views stock options as an important component of its long-term, performance-based compensation philosophy.

Although the Company's Board of Directors, including its Compensation Committee, retains full discretion to structure executive compensation in the best overall interests of the Company, the Board of Directors will consider the implications of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and the regulations thereunder in structuring and managing executive compensation. The Board's consideration of Section 162(m) may include, among other things, structuring compensation as qualified performance-based compensation, requesting that executive officers defer compensation in excess of $1 million per year, and requesting that executive officers delay the exercise of stock options if such exercise would lead to the related compensation being non-deductible under Section 162(m).

BOARD OF DIRECTORS INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION; CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

The Company's Board of Directors, which is presently composed of Eugene R. Corasanti, Joseph J. Corasanti, Bruce F. Daniels, Jo Ann Golden, William D. Matthews, Stuart J. Schwartz, and Stephen M. Mandia establishes the compensation plans and specific compensation levels for Eugene R. Corasanti directly (with Messrs. E. Corasanti and J. Corasanti abstaining) and for other executive officers through the Compensation Committee, and administers the Company's stock option plans through the Compensation Committee. As disclosed above, Eugene R. Corasanti, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, is the Chief Executive Officer of the Company and also serves as an officer of the Company's subsidiaries. Joseph J. Corasanti, a director of the Company, is the President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company, and also serves as an officer of several of the Company's subsidiaries and is the son of Eugene R. Corasanti.

During 2004, the Company made aggregate payments of $91,500 to George A. Nole & Son, Inc., a construction company, in connection with certain renovations being made to the Company's Central New York facilities. The sole shareholder of George A. Nole & Son, Inc., a New York corporation, is Angelo Nole, who is the brother-in-law of Eugene R. Corasanti. The contracts were awarded following a competitive bidding process, except for certain contracts the expected value of which was under $40,000. This work was pre-approved pursuant to the procedures of the Audit Committee.

Together with other health-care oriented companies with operations in Central New York, CONMED is a founder of both CNY MedTech Association, Inc., and CNY MedTech Foundation, Inc., whose purposes are generally to promote medical device companies and technologies in Central New York. During 2004, CONMED contributed $10,000 in membership dues to CNY MedTech Association. Daniel Jonas is a director on the Board of Directors of both entities.

The Company employs the following persons, who are related to certain officers of the Company in the manner indicated below. Employees who are related to officers and/or directors whose total compensation is less than $60,000 are not listed below.

Employee Name and Position	Officer(s) and/or Directors to whom Employee is Related	Relationship of Employee to Officer
David Corasanti, Program Sales Manager, Endosurgery	Eugene R. Corasanti	Son
	Joseph J. Corasanti	Brother
Paul Sandock, Marketing Manager, Endosurgery	William W. Abraham	Son-in-law
Alan Rust, Manager, Purchasing and Logistics	William W. Abraham	Son-in-law

Compensation for the above-referenced employees, consisting solely of salary and bonus, ranged from $95,000 to $125,000 during 2004. Option grants to these employees did not exceed 2,500 shares during 2004.

Through December 31, 2001, the Company had paid all premiums on certain split-dollar life insurance policies with face amounts totaling $4,397,567 for the benefit of Eugene R. Corasanti. The Company did not pay or accrue premiums in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004. Premiums paid by the Company in prior years are treated by the Company as a loan to Mr. Eugene Corasanti, and at December 31, 2004, the aggregate amount due the Company from Mr. E. Corasanti related to these split-dollar life insurance policies is $835,825. This amount (and loans, if any, for future premiums) will be repaid to the Company on Mr. E. Corasanti's death and the balance of the policy will be paid to Mr. E. Corasanti's estate or beneficiaries.

The Company likewise paid certain premiums associated with a split-dollar life insurance policy totaling $1,000,000 for the benefit of Joseph J. Corasanti. The Company did not pay or accrue premiums in the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004. Premiums paid by the Company in prior years are treated by the Company as a loan to Mr. J. Corasanti, and at December 31, 2004, the aggregate amount due the Company from Mr. J. Corasanti related to these split-dollar life insurance policies is $36,390. This amount (and loans, if any, for future premiums) will be repaid to the Company on Mr. J. Corasanti's death and the balance of the policy will be paid to Mr. J. Corasanti's estate or beneficiaries.

In connection with the enactment of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 (the "Act") and the general prohibition against loans to officers, subject to an exception for certain pre-existing loan arrangements, the Board of Directors and management opted, as of October 2002, to stop making the premium payments which previously had been accounted for as loans pending further clarification of the regulations and interpretation of the Act. The policies for which the Company had previously been funding premium payments have cash balances sufficient to permit the payment of premiums. The Board of Directors and management may, however, elect to resume such payments if management and the Board of Directors conclude that the obligation to make such payments was maintained by the Company on the date of the enactment of the Act and was not materially modified pursuant to Section 402 of the Act and the implementing regulations, or if such payments are otherwise permitted.

INSURANCE FOR DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

The Company has entered into directors and officers insurance policies with National Union Fire Insurance Company of Pittsburgh, PA and certain excess insurers covering the period from March 31, 2005 through March 30, 2006 at a total cost of $507,500, which covers directors and officers of the Company and its subsidiaries.
