Who is Entitled to Vote?

We have fixed the close of business on September 13, 2007 as the record date for shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Southern Missouri Bancorp annual meeting. Only holders of record of Southern Missouri Bancorp common stock on that record date are entitled to notice of and to vote at the annual meeting. You are entitled to one vote for each share of Southern Missouri Bancorp common stock you own. On September 13, 2007, 2,200,776 shares of Southern Missouri Bancorp common stock were outstanding and entitled to vote at the annual meeting.

What if My Shares are Held in "Street Name" by a Broker?

If you are the beneficial owner of shares held in "street name" by a broker, your broker, as the record holder of the shares, is required to vote the shares in accordance with your instructions. If you do not give instructions to your broker, your broker may nevertheless vote the shares with respect to "discretionary" items, but will not be permitted to vote your shares with respect to "non-discretionary" items, pursuant to current industry practice. In the case of non-discretionary items, the shares not voted will be treated as "broker non-votes." The proposals to elect directors and ratify auditors described in this proxy statement are considered "discretionary" items under the Nasdaq Stock Market rules.

How Will My Shares of Common Stock Held in the Employee Stock Ownership Plan be Voted?

We maintain an employee stock ownership plan ("ESOP") which owns 7.28% of Southern Missouri Bancorp common stock. Employees of Southern Missouri Bancorp and Southern Missouri Bank and Trust participate in the ESOP. Each ESOP participant instructs the trustee of the plan how to vote the shares of Southern Missouri Bancorp common stock allocated to his or her account under the ESOP. If an ESOP participant properly executes the voting instruction card distributed by the ESOP trustee, the ESOP trustee will vote the participant's shares in accordance with the participant's instructions. Shares of Southern Missouri Bancorp common stock held in the ESOP but not allocated to any participant's account, and allocated shares for which no voting instructions are received from participants, will be voted by the trustee in the same proportion as shares for which the trustees have received voting instructions.

How Many Shares Must Be Present to Hold the Meeting?

A quorum must be present at the meeting for any business to be conducted. The presence at the meeting, in person or by proxy, of at least a majority of the shares of Southern Missouri Bancorp common stock entitled to vote at the annual meeting as of the record date will constitute a quorum. Proxies received but marked as abstentions or broker non-votes will be included in the calculation of the number of shares considered to be present at the meeting.

What If a Quorum Is Not Present at the Meeting?

If a quorum is not present at the scheduled time of the meeting, a majority of the shareholders present or represented by proxy may adjourn the meeting until a quorum is present. The time and place of the adjourned meeting will be announced at the time the adjournment is taken, and no other notice will be given unless the adjourned meeting is set to be held after November 15, 2007. An adjournment will have no effect on the business that may be conducted at the meeting.

Vote Required to Approve Proposal I: Election of Directors.

Directors are elected by a majority of the votes cast, in person or by proxy, at the annual meeting by holders of Southern Missouri Bancorp common stock. Pursuant to our Articles of Incorporation, stockholders are not permitted to cumulate their votes for the election of directors. Votes may be cast for or withheld from each nominee. Votes that are withheld and broker non-votes for a particular nominee will have the same effect as a vote against the respective nominee. Our Board of Directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" the election of each of management's director nominees.

Vote Required to Approve Proposal II: Ratification of the Appointment of Our Independent Auditors.

Ratification of the appointment of BKD, LLP as our independent auditors for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2008 requires the affirmative vote of the majority of shares cast, in person or by proxy, at the annual meeting by holders of Southern Missouri Bancorp common stock. Abstentions and broker non-votes on the proposal to ratify the appointment of BKD, LLP as our independent auditors, will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal. Our Board of Directors unanimously recommends that you vote "FOR" the proposal to ratify BKD, LLP as our independent auditors for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2008.

How Do I Vote at the Annual Meeting?

Proxies are solicited to provide all shareholders of record on the voting record date an opportunity to vote on matters scheduled for the annual meeting and described in these materials. Shares of Southern Missouri Bancorp common stock can only be voted if the shareholder is present in person at the annual meeting or by proxy. To ensure your representation at the annual meeting, we recommend you vote by proxy even if you plan to attend the annual meeting. You can always change your vote at the meeting.

Voting instructions are included on your proxy card. Shares of Southern Missouri Bancorp common stock represented by properly executed proxies will be voted by the individuals named on the proxy card in accordance with the shareholder's instructions. Where properly executed proxies are returned to Southern Missouri Bancorp with no specific instruction as how to vote at the annual meeting, the persons named in the proxy will vote the shares "FOR" the election of each of management's director nominees and "FOR" ratification of the appointment of BKD, LLP as our independent auditors for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2008. Should any other matters be properly presented at the annual meeting for action, the persons named in the enclosed proxy and acting thereunder will have the discretion to vote on these matters in accordance with their best judgment. No other matters are currently expected by the Board of Directors to be properly presented at the Annual Meeting.

You may receive more than one proxy card depending on how your shares are held. For example, you may hold some of your shares individually, some jointly with your spouse and some in trust for your children -- in which case you will receive three separate proxy cards to vote.

May I Revoke My Proxy?

You may revoke your proxy before it is voted by:

- submitting a new proxy with a later date;
- notifying the Corporate Secretary of Southern Missouri Bancorp in writing before the annual meeting that you have revoked your proxy; or

- voting in person at the annual meeting.

If you plan to attend the annual meeting and wish to vote in person, we will give you a ballot at the annual meeting. However, if your shares are held in the name of your broker, bank or other nominee, you must bring a validly executed proxy from the nominee indicating that you have the right to vote your shares.

Proxy Solicitation Costs.

We will pay the cost of soliciting proxies. In addition to this mailing, our directors, officers and employees may also solicit proxies personally, electronically or by telephone. We will also reimburse brokers and other nominees for their expenses in sending these materials to you and obtaining your voting instructions.

All directors of the Company attended more than 75 percent of the aggregate of the total number of Board meetings. The Compensation Committee is comprised of three independent directors, including Directors Brooks, Bagby and Smith. The Compensation Committee is responsible for:

- overseeing the administration of the employee benefit plans covering employees generally; and
- reviewing our compensation policies and the Compensation Discussion and Analysis included in this proxy statement.

The Compensation Committee does not designate its authority to any one of its members or any other person, however, Mr. Steffens does make recommendations to the Committee for all compensation, except his own. This Committee also administers the Company's Stock Option and Incentive Plan and the Management Recognition and Development Plan and reviews overall compensation policies for the Company. The Company's Compensation Committee met two times during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2007.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

None of the three members of the Compensation Committee are an officer, employee or former officer of the Company or the Bank. None of our executive officers serve as a member of the compensation committee of any other company that has an executive officer serving as a member of our Board of Directors or serve as a member of the board of directors of any other company that has an executive officer serving as a member of our Compensation Committee.

Nominating Committee

The Nominating Committee is composed of Directors Schalk (Chairman), Bagby, Tatum and Brooks. The committee is primarily responsible for selecting nominees for election to the Board. The Nominating Committee generally meets once per year to make nominations. The Nominating Committee will consider nominees recommended by stockholders in accordance with the procedures in the Company's bylaws, but the Nominating Committee has not actively solicited such nominations. The Nominating Committee has the following responsibilities:

- recommend to the Board the appropriate size of the Board and assist in identifying, interviewing and recruiting candidates for the Board;
- recommend candidates (including incumbents) for election and appointment to the Board of Directors, subject to the provisions set forth in the Company's charter and bylaws relating to the nomination or appointment of directors, based on the following criteria: business experience, education, integrity and reputation, independence, conflicts of interest, diversity, age, number of other directorships and commitments (including charitable obligations), tenure on the Board, attendance at Board and committee meetings, stock ownership, specialized knowledge (such as an understanding of banking, accounting, marketing, finance, regulation and public policy) and a commitment to the Company's communities and shared values, as well as overall experience in the context of the needs of the Board as a whole;
- review nominations submitted by stockholders, which have been addressed to the Corporate Secretary, and which comply with the requirements of the Company's charter and bylaws;
- consider and evaluate nominations from stockholders using the same criteria as all other nominations;
- annually recommend to the Board committee assignments and committee chairs on all committees of the Board, and recommend committee members to fill vacancies on committees as necessary; and
- perform any other duties or responsibilities expressly delegated to the Committee by the Board.

Nominations, other than those made by the Nominating Committee, must be made pursuant to timely notice in writing to the Corporate Secretary as set forth in the Company's bylaws. In general, to be timely, a stockholder's notice must be received by the Company not less than 90 days nor more than 20 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting; however, if less than 100 days' notice of the date of the scheduled annual meeting is given by the Company, the stockholder has until the close of business on the tenth day following the day on which notice of the date of the scheduled annual meeting was made.

The stockholder's notice must include certain other information set forth in the Company's bylaws. This description is a summary of our nominating process. Any stockholder wishing to propose a director candidate to the Company should review and must comply in full with the procedures set forth in the Company's charter and bylaws and in Missouri law. During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2007, the Nominating Committee was responsible for selecting director nominees and met two times with respect to the selection of director nominees.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Overview. Our executive compensation program and policies are administered by the Compensation Committee. See "Board of Directors' Meeting and Committees and Corporate Governance Matters - Compensation Committee." This Compensation Discussion and Analysis provides an overview of our compensation program and our objectives in establishing the base salary, short-term cash incentives, long-term equity incentives and retirement components of our executive compensation.

The Compensation Committee has full responsibility and discretion to evaluate and compensate our executive officers within the parameters of our compensation principles and philosophy. It oversees or administers all Company and Bank compensation plans and reviews Mr. Steffens' performance on an annual basis. Though the overall responsibility for setting compensation belongs to the Compensation Committee, Mr. Steffens assists the Committee in establishing compensation levels and forms for all employees and officers, except himself. Mr. Steffens reviews all the other executive officers and non-executive employees and provides the Compensation Committee with those reviews and compensation recommendations for those individuals. Only the Committee establishes Mr. Steffens' compensation.

The Compensation Committee reviews surveys of executive compensation for financial institutions with asset sizes between $100.0 million and $1.0 billion, which are publicly-traded SEC registrants headquartered in Missouri and contiguous states. The Committee reviewed this data for financial institutions which were most comparable in terms of asset size, financial performance, and location in rural versus urban markets. This information enabled the Committee to compare the Bank's compensation with that of similarly-situated financial institutions when setting compensation for fiscal 2007 and fiscal 2008. The committee will review additional surveys when setting compensation levels for fiscal 2008 and fiscal 2009.

Philosophy and Objectives of Compensation Program. The Compensation Committee has established a broad-based compensation program to address compensation for directors, executive officers and other employees. The overall goal of this compensation program is to help the Company and the Bank attract, motivate and retain talented and dedicated executives, orient its executives toward the achievement of business goals, and link the compensation of its executives to the Company's success. The Compensation Committee seeks to establish compensation levels that attract highly effective executives who work well as a team. Our compensation philosophy is based on established principles for all pay practices and aligns with our corporate values, which is to conduct our business with a high level of customer service with real tangible results in mind. We reflect these values in our compensation by ensuring competitive and fair practices. A primary focus of our compensation program is to compensate actual performance, using realistic incentive thresholds. Our overriding principles in setting types and amounts of compensation are:

- Merit/Performance Based - Individual compensation is linked to the successful achievement of performance objectives.
- Market Competition - Total compensation attracts, retains and motivates our top performers at a competitive level in our market.
- Stockholder Balance - Compensation components that align the interests of key management, especially the named executive officers, with those of our stockholders in furtherance of our goal to increase stockholder value.

In setting executive compensation and benefits in line with this philosophy, the Compensation Committee has established a full compensation package that includes base salary, annual incentive bonus compensation, equity compensation, benefits and perquisites. The Compensation Committee uses quantitative and qualitative factors in setting the types and amounts of these compensation components granted to each named executive officer and other employees. Our compensation program seeks to reach an appropriate balance between base salary, (to provide competitive fixed compensation) incentive opportunities in performance-based cash bonuses (to provide short-term rewards for meeting performance goals) and equity compensation (to align our executives' interests with the our stockholders' interests).

We provide the opportunity for certain of our executive officers to be protected under employment agreements with severance and change in control provisions. These agreements assist us in attracting and retaining qualified officers. See "Overview of Executive Officer Compensation - Employment Agreements" and "Potential Termination and Change in Control Payments."

Components of Executive Compensation. The components of our compensation program are as follows:

Base Salary. A base salary is established for each executive to reflect the potential contribution of the executive to the achievement of the Bank's business objectives and to be competitive with base salaries paid by other institutions. The level of each executive officer's base salary is designed to reward performance for carrying out the required day-to-day activities and responsibilities of each officer's position. The Committee also is cognizant of the salaries paid by other non-financial institution companies in the Bank's market area with which it believes the Bank competes for executives. The Bank increases salaries based upon competitive market needs, the Bank's past and expected financial performance and the individual employee's performance. Base salary is the largest element of the Company's compensation program because it fairly compensates individuals for fulfilling their daily responsibilities and obligations.

Annual Incentive Cash Bonus Compensation. The annual incentive cash bonus is designed to reward the named executive officers and non-executive officer for the achievement of performance objectives established each year consistent with our strategic plan. For the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Lending Officer, there is no formal, written plan. However, the committee strives to reward executives for achieving Company performance above a baseline or threshold level of performance in designated areas. It also strives to reward them for performance beyond that for which they earn their salary. The designated areas of growth, profit, quality, and productivity are balanced to build stockholder value. The amount of bonus awarded to these individuals on an annual basis can vary based on the individual's position. For the Company's market area presidents listed as named executive officers, a formal bonus plan based on individual and market area targets for loan and deposit growth, asset quality, and overall Company performance is available. The amount of bonus awarded to these individuals on an annual basis can vary based on the individual's position, and is generally calculated as a percentage of base salary. There is no annual cap on the annual incentive cash bonus available to any one employee or all employees in the aggregate.

Equity Compensation. The Company has utilized equity compensation in the form of stock options and restricted stock to align the interests of our named executive officers with our shareholders and to reward those individuals' contributions to our franchise value over time.

The Company established a Management Recognition and Development Plan providing for the award of shares of Company common stock to eligible participants, including our named executive officers and directors. By granting these individuals shares of restricted stock, the Company rewards them for their contribution to the Company's value over time. The delayed vesting of these awards over five or more years has provided an incentive for continued service. As of June 30, 2007, 5,336 shares remained available for award under this plan. The Compensation Committee may consider establishing a new, similar equity plan in the future.

In 1994, the Company established a Stock Option and Incentive Plan. Under that Plan, there were 357,080 shares authorized for awards (amount adjusted for 2-for-1 stock split). The Plan has since expired, with 273,216 shares the subject of awards and 83,864 shares remaining that were never awarded. The Company established a 2003 Stock Option and Incentive Plan providing for the award of options for up to 100,000 shares of Company common stock to eligible participants, including our named executive officers and directors. By granting these individuals options, the Company gives them a personal incentive to increase our stock value. Options were granted at the market value for the stock on the grant date. The delayed vesting of these awards over five years has provided an incentive for continued service. Options to purchase 27,500 shares remain available for award under the Plan. The Compensation Committee may consider establishing a new, similar option plan in the future.

Benefits. The Company provides benefits to all employees with an opportunity to maintain a quality standard of living over time and to have access to health care. These benefits help us to attract and retain highly effective executives and other employees. These welfare benefits are administered consistently to all levels of the organization. All employees share in the cost of health benefits based on the coverage they elect. Available health care benefits are commensurate with that available in our market area.

The Company has designed retirement plans or programs to ensure our employees have adequate income levels after employment. The Company maintains a 401(k) Retirement Savings Plan, which is subject to Department of Labor and IRS requirements. The Company does not contribute to or match employee contributions to the 401(k) plan. The Company also maintains an Employee Stock Ownership Plan ("ESOP") designed to ensure that all employees have a vested interest in the success of the Company. The Company makes annual cash contributions to the ESOP, which trustees then use to purchase shares of the Company for allocation to plan participants. Allocations to the ESOP (as valued at the allocation date) have averaged 8.59% of participant compensation over the last three years.

Greg Steffens, our President and CEO has a one-year employment agreement that provides for a special payment in case of a change in control of the Company or an involuntary termination of the executive for other than cause (as defined in the agreements). This agreement is a common benefit for executives of publicly traded financial institutions, and the Company believes it is important in order to attract and retain qualified executive management. Certain of our benefit plans also provide for accelerated payments or other benefits upon a change in control of the Company or an involuntary termination of the executive for other than cause. See "Potential Termination and Change in Control Payments."

Perquisites. The Company provides perquisites designed to enhance the success of the Company. Executive officer education is provided at industry conferences, seminars and schools, sometimes with spousal travel expenses. Dues to country clubs, social clubs and service organizations are paid to encourage community involvement and build business relationships.

Accounting and Tax Considerations

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, generally disallows a tax deduction for compensation in excess of $1 million paid to any employee. Qualifying performance-based compensation will not be subject to the deduction limitation if certain requirements are met. The Compensation Committee reviews and considers the potential consequences of Section 162(m) to the Company. The Company reserves the right to use our judgment to authorize compensation to any employee that does not comply with the Section 162(m) exemptions for compensation we believe is appropriate.

Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code provides that severance payments that equal or exceed three times the individual's base amount are deemed to be "excess parachute payments" if they are conditioned upon a change in control. Individuals receiving parachute payments in excess of three times their base amount are subject to a 20% excise tax on the amount of the excess payments. If excess parachute payments are made, the Company and the Bank would not be entitled to deduct the amount of the excess payments. Each employment agreement provides that severance and other payments that are subject to a change in control will be reduced as much as necessary to ensure that no amounts payable to the executive will be considered excess parachute payments.

The federal tax laws applicable to nonqualified deferred compensation arrangements were changed effective January 1, 2005; however the Internal Revenue Service has not issued final regulations. The Company believes it is operating in good faith compliance with these new statutory provisions.

Beginning July 1, 2005, the Company began accounting for stock-based payments, including its 2003 Stock Option and Incentive Plan, in accordance with the requirements of FASB 123R.

Overview of Executive Officer Compensation

The Company also uses a combination of cash and stock-based compensation to attract and retain qualified persons to serve as executive officers of the Company and the Bank. Mr. Steffens, the only executive officer of the Company, is also an executive officer of the Bank. Mr. Steffens does not receive compensation for his service to the Company. However, he does receive $10,800 for his service on the board of directors. As described in more detail in our Compensation Discussion and Analysis, in setting compensation for executive officers, the Compensation Committee considers the significant amount of time and level of skill required to perform the required duties of each person's position, taking into account the complexity of our business as a regulated public company and financial institution.

Employment Agreements. The Bank has entered into a one-year employment agreement with Mr. Steffens, which provide for annual one-year extensions, unless the Board decides not to authorize the extension. Under this agreement, Mr. Steffens' salary is reviewed annually. Mr. Steffens' base salary under this agreement is $180,608. Under this agreement, Mr. Steffens is entitled to equitably participate in discretionary bonuses awarded to executive employees and in the Bank's other employee benefit plans, including medical, dental group life, disability and accidental death and dismemberment insurance benefits. These benefits also include participation in the Bank's 401(k) plan and ESOP. The agreement provides that Mr. Steffens' employment may be terminated by the Bank or by the executive at any time, and also provides for termination upon the occurrence of certain events specified by federal regulations. If Mr. Steffens' employment is terminated due to disability, he would receive his salary and other benefits for the remainder of the one-year term, with a reduction in his salary for disability insurance payments from insurance purchased by the Bank. If Mr. Steffens' employment is terminated due to death, his estate would receive all benefits under the agreement through the end of the period. If Mr. Steffens' employment is terminated for cause or voluntarily by him, he would receive all benefits under the agreement through that termination date. See "Potential Termination and Change in Control Payments" for additional benefits under this agreements if Mr. Steffens is terminated without cause, in a constructive termination or in connection with a change in control of the Company or the Bank. Mr. Steffens has no responsibility to mitigate amounts owed to him under the agreements nor does any compensation received from another employer reduce post-termination compensation under the agreements.

2007 Summary Compensation Table

The following table sets forth information concerning the compensation earned in 2007 by: (i) our principal executive officer and principal financial officer; and (ii) the two other most highly compensated officers whose salary and bonus during the fiscal year ended June 30, 2007, exceeded $100,000. We will use the term "named executive officers" in this proxy statement to refer to the officers listed in the table.

Name and Principal Position	Fiscal Year	Salary	Bonus	Stock Awards	Option Awards	All Other Compensation ⁽¹⁾	Total
Greg A. Steffens President and Chief Financial Officer	2007	$180,608	$ ---	$2,990	$ ---	$25,714	$204,312
William Hribovsek Chief Lending Officer	2007	$134,844	$ ---	$2,990	$ ---	$11,135	$148,974
William Aslin Market Area President	2007	$112,471	$ 550	$ ---	$ ---	$ 9,287	$122,308

(1) Amount includes ESOP allocations and board fees for Mr. Steffens and ESOP allocations for Messrs. Hribovsek and Aslin. The reported ESOP allocations are based on 2007 compensation and were made in 2007. This amount does not include personal benefits or perquisites, because none of the named executive officers received more than $10,000 worth of such benefits in the aggregate.

Management Recognition and Development Plan, 2003 Stock Option and Incentive Plan

In 2003, stockholders approved the 2003 Stock Option and Incentive Plan. In 1994 stockholders approved the Management Recognition and Development Plan. The Compensation Committee administers these two long-term incentive stock plans, determines employee eligibility and grants share awards.

Management Recognition and Development Plan. Management Recognition and Development Plan is a stock-based compensation plan designed to reward directors, officers and employees for service with a proprietary interest in the Company in a manner designed to encourage such individuals to remain with the Company. The Company reserved 71,416 shares for stock awards under this plan. Awards are discretionary and are based on an assessment of the participant's position, years of service, and contribution to the success and growth of the Company. Stock awards under the plan generally have vested in equal installments over five years from the date of grant. Prior to the vesting of the shares, the recipient has voting and dividend rights and no transfer rights over the shares. One award of 1,000 shares was made under this plan in 2007, and 5,336 remain available for awards as of June 30, 2007. See "Potential Termination and Change in Control Payments" for benefits under the plan upon termination without cause or a change in control.

2003 Stock Option and Incentive Plan. The purpose of the 2003 Stock Option and Incentive Plan is to promote the long-term success of the Company and increase stockholder value by attracting and retaining key employees and directors and encouraging directors and key employees to focus on long-range objectives. The Company reserved 100,000 shares for option awards under this plan, plus additional shares repurchased with the proceeds of exercised options or surrendered to pay an option exercise price. Option awards are discretionary and are based on an assessment of the participant's position, years of service, and contribution to the success and growth of the Company. The plan provides for the award of incentive stock options to qualifying employees under the federal tax laws. Stock awards under the plan generally have vested in equal installments over five years from the date of grant and must be exercised within 10 years. The exercise price of options awarded always has been the fair market value of a share of the Company's common stock on the date of grant. No awards were made under this plan in 2007, and 27,500 options remain available for award under this plan. See "Potential Termination and Change in Control Payments" for benefits under the plan upon termination without cause or a change in control.

Option Exercises and Stock Vested in Fiscal 2007

The following table sets forth certain information with respect to the exercise of stock options and vesting of restricted stock for each named executive officer during the year ended June 30, 2007.

Name	Option Awards		Stock Awards
	Number of Shares Acquired on Exercise	Value Realized on Exercise ⁽¹⁾	Number of Shares Acquired on Vesting	Value Realized on Vesting ⁽²⁾
Greg A. Steffens	---	---	200	$2,942
William Hribovsek	---	---	200	$2,942
William Aslin	---	---	---	---

(1) Value realized on exercise represents the excess of the fair market value of the shares acquired at exercise over the exercise price of the option.

(2) Value realized on vesting represents the fair market value of the shares on the vesting date.

Potential Termination and Change in Control Payments

In addition to the payments and benefits provided to the named executive officers upon their regular retirement, disability or death or upon the termination of their employment by the Bank for cause or by the officer voluntarily, which are described in this proxy statement, the named executive officers are entitled to additional or accelerated payments, benefits or vesting under our compensation plans upon a termination by the Bank without cause, a constructive termination or a termination in connection with a change in control of the Company or the Bank.

Employment Agreements. Under his one year employment agreement with the Bank, Mr. Steffens is entitled to continued payments and benefits subsequent to an involuntary termination or a termination in connection with a change in control of the Bank or the Company.

Under the agreement, an involuntary termination is a termination without cause or a constructive termination. A termination is deemed to be for cause if it is based on personal dishonesty, incompetence, willful misconduct, breach of fiduciary duty involving personal profit, intentional failure to perform stated duties, willful violation of law, regulation, regulatory order or the employment agreement. In addition, a termination required under the federal banking laws is treated as a termination for cause.

Under the employment agreements, a change in control is deemed to have occurred if: (i) there is a change in control under regulations of the Federal Reserve; (ii) the event would have to be reported on a Form 8-K; (iii) a person acquires beneficial ownership of at least 20% of the Company's securities; (iv) a majority of the board is no longer the current members or chosen by the current members; or (v) any reorganization, acquisition or sale of substantial assets in which the Company or Bank is not the resulting entity. If Mr. Steffens' employment is terminated or constructively terminated under the guidelines described in the previous paragraph in connection with or within 12 months of a change of control, the Bank would be required to pay to Mr. Steffens in a lump sum 299% of his Section 280G base amount (which is Mr. Steffens's average annual W-2 compensation during the five full calendar year periods prior to the effective date of the termination) and continue to provide health benefits for the remainder of the term of the agreement.

Management Recognition and Development Plan. Under the Management Recognition and Development Plan, restricted stock awards that have not yet vested become immediately fully vested and no longer restricted at the time of a change in control or of a tender or exchange offer for the Company's shares. There are no special benefits for a termination of the executive, and a termination of service results in a loss of unvested shares.

2003 Stock Option and Incentive Plan. Under the 2003 Stock Option and Incentive Plan, options that are not exercisable become immediately exercisable at the time of a change in control or of a tender or exchange offer for the Company's shares. Upon any termination of service, unexercised options remain exercisable for the lesser of three years or the remaining term of the option and all unvested options are lost. Based on the stock price at June 30, 2007, Messrs. Steffens' and Hribovsek's unvested options were not in-the-money and therefore are not included in the table below.

The following table summarizes the additional or accelerated payments, benefits or vesting for named executive officers in the event of that person's termination by the Bank without cause, a constructive termination or a termination in connection with a change in control of the Company or the Bank, assuming it had occurred on June 30, 2007.

Name	Name of Compensation Component or Plan	Termination Without Cause or Constructive Termination	Change-in-Control With No Termination	Termination in Connection With or Following a Change in Control
Greg A. Steffens	Employment Agreement(1)	$181,106(2)	---	$487,471(3)
	Restricted stock plan	---	$5,980(4)	$ 5,980(4)
William Hribovsek	Restricted stock plan	---	$5,980(4)	$ 5,980(4)
William Aslin	2003 Stock Option Plan	---	$2,760(5)	$ 2,760(5)

(1) Presumes that the employment agreement has a full one-year term on June 30, 2007 termination date and that the payout is based on 2007 compensation levels.

(2) Represents average of Mr. Steffens's 2007 and 2006 base salary ($176,047), plus $5,059 for health benefits. These amounts would be paid out over the one-year term.

(3) Represents 299% of Mr. Steffens's Section 280G base amount as of the termination date, in a lump sum, a portion of which may be applied towards health related benefits over three years.

(4) Amount represents the value of the executive's unvested shares of restricted stock based on the $14.95 closing price of a share of the Company's stock on June 30, 2007, which shares would no longer be restricted.

(5) Represents the difference between the fair market value of Southern Missouri Bancorp common stock on June 30, 2007 and the exercise price of the options.

Director Compensation

The Company uses a combination of cash and stock-based compensation to attract and retain qualified persons to serve as non-employee directors of the Company and the Bank. Each director of the Company also is a director of the Bank. Directors are compensated $900 per month for their service on the Company's Board of Directors. In setting director compensation, the Board of Directors considers the significant amount of time and level of skill required for service on the Boards of the Company and the Bank, particularly due to the duties imposed on directors of public companies and financial institutions. The types and levels of director compensation are annually reviewed and set by the Compensation Committee and ratified by the full Board of Directors.

For the fiscal year ended June 30, 2007, each director received a monthly fee of $1,000 for serving on the Bank's Board of Directors, except for Director Steffens, who was compensated as an executive officer of the Bank and is not separately compensated as a director.

Director Compensation Table for 2007

The following table provides compensation information for each member of our board of directors during the year ended June 30, 2007 (except for Mr. Steffens whose compensation is reported as a named executive officer). No stock options were awarded to directors during 2007.

Directors' Retirement Agreements

Southern Missouri Bank and Trust has entered into individual retirement agreements with each of its directors. These agreements were entered into in recognition of the directors' past service to the Bank and to ensure their continued service on the Board. Each agreement provides that, following a director's termination of service on the Board on or after age 60, other than termination for cause, the director will receive five annual payments equal to the product of the cash fees paid to the director during the calendar year preceding his retirement and the director's vested percentage. The vested percentage is determined as follows: 50% after five years of service, 75% after 10 years of service, and 100% after 15 years of service. The benefits payable under the director's retirement agreements are unfunded and unsecured obligations of Southern Missouri Bank and Trust that is payable solely out of the general assets of Southern Missouri Bank and Trust. Payments are required to be made under former director Seifert's agreement.

PROPOSAL II -- RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The Audit Committee has appointed BKD as the independent public accounting firm to audit the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2008. In making its determination to appoint BKD as the Company's independent auditors for the 2008 fiscal year, the Audit Committee considered whether the providing of services (and the aggregate fees billed for those services) by BKD, other than audit services, is compatible with maintaining the independence of the outside accountants. Our shareholders are asked to ratify this appointment at the annual meeting. If the appointment of BKD is not ratified by the shareholders, the Audit Committee may appoint other independent auditors or may decide to maintain its appointment of BKD.

A representative of BKD is expected to attend the meeting to respond to appropriate questions and will have an opportunity to make a statement if he or she so desires.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE COMPANY UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT YOU VOTE "FOR" THE RATIFICATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF BKD, LLP AS INDEPENDENT AUDITORS FOR THE COMPANY FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 2008.
