On March 4, 2005, GMH Communities Trust (the Trust), through its subsidiary, College Park Investments, LLC, completed the acquisition of a 156 unit/588 bed student housing property located in Lincoln, Nebraska for an aggregate purchase price of approximately $11.9 million. The property serves the University of Nebraska and was acquired from Nebraska Student Housing, L.P., a Texas limited partnership. As previously disclosed by the Trust in a press release dated February 10, 2005, the property is part of a portfolio of three student housing properties under contract, the other two of which are located near the campuses of West Virginia University and Bowling Green State University. The Trust was able to complete the acquisition of the Lincoln, Nebraska property apart from the other portfolio properties upon approval of the placement of approximately $9.2 million in new mortgage debt on the property. The Trust recently received approval from a lender on the assumption of existing mortgage debt on the remaining two student housing properties in the portfolio, and expects to acquire the properties on or around March 15, 2005
