ITEM 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On May 7, 2007, SkyWest, Inc. (the Company) entered into a Separation Agreement and Release of All Claims (the Agreement) together with SkyWest Airlines, Inc. (SkyWest Airlines), a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, and Ron B. Reber. Mr. Reber served as President and Chief Operating Officer of SkyWest Airlines prior to his retirement effective April 2, 2007.

Under the terms of the Agreement, the Company has agreed to pay to Mr. Reber in the amount of $250,000 on or before March 15, 2008, and to cause certain options to purchase shares of the Company's common stock to vest and become exercisable. Mr. Reber has agreed to provide consulting services to SkyWest Airlines for a period of one year and to release the Company, SkyWest Airlines, and their affiliates from claims arising from his employment. The Agreement contains non-compete and non-solicitation covenants as well as other standard covenants and representations typically found in such agreements.

ITEM 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers

On May 9, 2007, the Company announced that James L. Welch was appointed to serve as a director of the Company. A copy of the press release announcing Mr. Welch's appointment as a director of the Company is attached as Exhibit 99.1 to this report and is incorporated by reference into this Item 5.02.

Forward-Looking Statements

In addition to historical information, this Report contains forward-looking statements. The Company may, from time to time, make written or oral forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements encompass the Company's beliefs, expectations, hopes or intentions regarding future events. Words such as expects, intends, believes, anticipates, should, and similar expressions identify forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements included in this Report are made as of the date hereof and are based on information available to the Company as of such date. The Company assumes no obligation to update any forward-looking statement. Actual results will vary, and may vary materially, from those anticipated, estimated, projected or expected for a number of reasons, including, among others, the failure of SkyWest Airlines to operate as anticipated under the terms of the Services Agreement. Other factors that may cause actual results to vary from the Company's expectations include: the troubled financial condition and restructurings of Delta Air Lines, Inc. and United Air Lines, Inc.; the development of a new code-sharing relationship with Midwest Airlines, Inc.; the Company's continuing efforts to efficiently integrate the operations and employees of Atlantic Southeast Airlines, Inc. (ASA), which the Company acquired in September 2005; the impact of negotiations with ASA's organized labor forces and the impact of the costs of such labor forces on the Company's operations and financial condition; the challenges of competing successfully in a highly competitive and rapidly changing industry; developments associated with fluctuations in the economy and the demand for air travel; ongoing negotiations between the Company and its major partners regarding their contractual relationships; variations in market and economic conditions; employee relations and labor costs; rapidly escalating fuel costs; the degree and nature of competition; potential fuel shortages in markets where SkyWest Airlines or ASA operates; the impact of weather-related or other natural disasters on air travel and airline costs; the ability of SkyWest Airlines and ASA to expand services in new and existing
