NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (UNAUDITED)

NOTE 1 - BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information. Accordingly, such statements do not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. Operating results for the three and six month periods ended December 31, 2000 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2001. For further information, refer to the financial statements and footnotes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K with respect to the fiscal year ended June 30, 2000.

NOTE 2 - MANDATORILY REDEEMABLE CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED STOCK

During October 2000, iPlace, Inc. ("iPlace"), a majority-owned subsidiary of the company, authorized the sale and issuance of 184,000 shares of Series A Preferred Stock at a purchase price of $5,000,000. The Series A Preferred Stock has a par value per share of $0.01, and pays cumulative dividends at an annual rate of 8.0%. Such dividends are accrued from the original issuance date.

The Series A Preferred Stock is convertible at the option of the holder, in whole or part, at any time into iPlace's common stock at an initial conversion rate of one for one. Upon the demand of at least a majority of holders on or after October 10, 2004, all shares of Series A preferred stock could be redeemed at a value of the initial purchase price plus any declared and unpaid dividends.

Series A Preferred Stock holders are entitled to vote upon all matters brought before the iPlace stockholders and are entitled one vote per share. In the event of the liquidation of iPlace, the preferred shareholders will receive $27.23 per share plus all declared and unpaid dividends. As of December 31, 2000 the amount of unpaid dividends totaled $89,000.

NOTE 3 - EARNINGS PER SHARE

Basic and diluted (loss) earnings per share amounts are determined in accordance with the provisions of FASB Statement No. 128 "Earnings Per Share". The following table sets forth the reconciliation of the numerators and denominators in the computation of basic and diluted (loss) earnings per share (in thousands, except per share data):

	Three months ended December 31,
	2000	1999
Numerator for basic and diluted (loss) earnings per share:
Net (loss) income before cumulative effect of accounting change	$ (7,267)	$ 3,008	$
Cumulative effect of accounting change	-	-
Net (loss) income	$ (7,267)	$ 3,008	$
Denominator for basic (loss) earnings per share:
Weighted average number of common shares outstanding- basic	15,274	15,287
Effect of dilutive securities:
Options and warrants	-	1,695
Weighted average number of common shares outstanding- diluted	15,274	16,982
Basic (loss) earnings per share	$ (0.48)	$ 0.20	$
Diluted (loss) earnings per share	$ (0.48)	$ 0.18	$

The diluted net income per common share calculation excludes the effect of potentially dilutive shares when their effect is antidilutive. Excluded from the diluted share calculation above for the three and six months ended December 31, 2000 are incremental weighted average stock option shares of approximately 3,075,000 and 3,041,000, respectively.

NOTE 4 - ALLOWANCE FOR MEMBERSHIP CANCELLATIONS

Accrued liabilities set forth in the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2000 and June 30, 2000 include an allowance for membership cancellations of $40,593,000 and $33,477,000, respectively.

NOTE 5 - CUMULATIVE EFFECT OF ACCOUNTING CHANGE

For over a year, the Company has disclosed in its public reporting that the Securities and Exchange Commission staff (the "Staff") planned to issue guidance on revenue recognition and that such guidance could have a material impact on the way the Company has historically recognized revenue. The Staff issued SAB 101 in December 1999.

SAB 101 establishes the Staff's preference that membership fees should not be recognized in earnings prior to the expiration of refund privileges.

Edgar Filing: MEMBERWORKS INC - Form 10-Q

Notwithstanding the Staff's preference described above, it is also stated in SAB 101 that the Staff will not object to the recognition of refundable membership fees, net of estimated refunds, as earned revenue over the membership period (the Company's historical method) in limited circumstances where all of certain criteria set forth in SAB 101 have been met.

MEMBERWORKS INCORPORATED

NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (UNAUDITED)

Effective July 1, 2000, the Company changed its method of accounting for membership fee revenue to comply with the Staff's preferred method as outlined in SAB 101. Membership fees, and the related direct costs associated with acquiring the underlying memberships, are no longer recognized on a pro-rata basis over the corresponding membership period, but instead are recognized in earnings upon the expiration of membership refund privileges. The cumulative effect of this change in accounting principle as of July 1, 2000 of $25,730,000 was recorded in the fiscal quarter ended September 30, 2000. The membership fees, net of estimated refunds and associated direct costs, which are deferred as part of the cumulative effect adjustment at July 1, 2000 will be recognized in earnings during fiscal year 2001 as the underlying refund privileges expire. During the three and six months ended December 31, 2000, the Company recognized $22,142,000 and $53,877,000, respectively, of revenue which was included as a component of the cumulative effect of accounting change booked July 1, 2000. The effect of the adoption of SAB 101 on reported revenue, net loss before the cumulative effect of accounting change and net loss per share before the cumulative effect of accounting change for the three months ended December 31, 2000 is an increase of $6,539,000, and a decrease of $617,000 and $0.04, respectively. The effect of the adoption of SAB 101 on reported revenue, net loss before the cumulative effect of accounting change and net loss per share before the cumulative effect of accounting change for the six months ended December 31, 2000 is a decrease of $1,844,000, and an increase of $2,154,000 and $0.14, respectively.

The following pro forma net (loss) income and (loss) earnings per share have been prepared assuming SAB 101 was adopted as of July 1, 1999 (in thousands, except per share data).

	Three months ended December 31,		Six months ended December 31,
	2000	1999	2000
Net (loss) income	$ (7,267)	$ 10,351	$ (14,351)
Basic (loss) earnings per share	$ (0.48)	$ 0.68	$ (0.14)
Diluted (loss) earnings per share	$ (0.48)	$ 0.61	$ (0.14)

This change in accounting for the recognition of membership fees in income has no impact on the Company's cash flows or on the value of the underlying memberships.

NOTE 6 - BUSINESS COMBINATIONS

Edgar Filing: MEMBERWORKS INC - Form 10-Q

In October 2000, the Company increased its ownership in Discount Development Services, L.L.C. and its subsidiary Uni-Care, Inc. ("DDS") from 19% to 100%. The Company paid $8,150,000 in cash and 425,232 shares of MemberWorks Common Stock with an approximate fair market value of $13,641,000 as of the date the Company entered into the purchase agreement. ### NOTE 9 - LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

Except as set forth below, in management's opinion, there are no significant legal proceedings, to which the Company or any of its subsidiaries is a party or to which any of their properties is subject. The Company is involved in other lawsuits and claims generally incidental to its business. The Company may be involved in other litigation or proceedings regarding claims arising in the normal course of business, the adverse outcome of which, could potentially require substantial payments by the Company. In addition, from time to time, and in the regular course of its business, the Company receives inquiries from various federal and/or state regulatory authorities.

On July 7, 1999, a purported class action was instituted by plaintiffs Kathryn Rosebear and Anne Bergman against the Company and other defendants in the United States District Court, District of Minnesota. The suit, which seeks unspecified monetary damages, alleges that the Company and the other defendants violated their privacy policies and Minnesota consumer law. The Company believes that the allegations made in this lawsuit are unfounded and the Company will vigorously defend its interests against this suit.

In January 2001, a purported class action was instituted by plaintiff Brandy L. Ritt against the Company and other defendants in the Court of Common Pleas in Cuyahoga County, Ohio. The suit, which seeks unspecified monetary damages, alleges that the Company and the other defendants violated various provisions of Ohio's consumer protection laws in connection with the marketing of certain membership programs offered by the Company. The Company believes that the claims asserted against it are unfounded and the Company will vigorously defend its interests against this suit.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

OVERVIEW

MemberWorks addresses the needs of organizations seeking to leverage the expertise of an outside provider in offering membership service programs. Membership service programs offer selected products and services from a variety of vendors intended to enhance existing relationships between businesses and consumers. The Company derives its revenues principally from annually renewable membership fees. The Company receives full payment of annual fees at or near the beginning of the membership period, but recognizes revenue as the member's refund privilege expires. Similarly, the costs associated with soliciting each new member, as well as the cost of royalties, are recognized as the related revenue is recognized. Profitability and cash flow generated from renewal memberships exceed that of new memberships due to the absence of solicitation costs associated with new member procurement.

THREE MONTHS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2000 VS. THREE MONTHS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 1999

REVENUES. Revenues increased 49% to $117.6 million for the quarter ended December 31, 2000 from $78.9 million for the quarter ended December 31, 1999 due to an increase in the Company's membership base, an increase in the weighted average program fee and the impact of SAB 101. Excluding the effects of "Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 101-Revenue Recognition in Financial Statements" ("SAB 101"), revenues would have increased 41% to $111.1 million in 2000. The Company's membership base increased to approximately 7.8 million members at December 31, 2000 from 5.8 million members at December 31, 1999. The increase in the Company's membership base was due to increased demand for the Company's existing programs, as well as the introduction of new programs. The increase in the weighted average program fee was due to an increase in program pricing and introduction of new programs with higher fees. Revenues from renewals increased to $43.7 million in 2000 from $29.7 million in 1999. As a percentage of individual membership revenues, these amounts represented 41% in both periods.

OPERATING EXPENSES. Operating expenses increased 53% to $21.7 million in 2000 from $14.2 million in 1999 due to the servicing requirements of the larger membership base. As a percentage of revenues, operating expenses increased to 18.5% in 2000 from 18.0% in 1999. Excluding the effect of SAB 101, operating expenses would have been 19.5% of revenues in 2000. Operating expenses, as a percentage of revenues, increased primarily due to expansion of the call center capacity as well as increased cost of membership benefits.

MARKETING EXPENSES. Marketing expenses increased 67% to $76.6 million in 2000 from $45.9 million in 1999 due to increased expenses required to grow the membership base. As a percentage of revenues, marketing expenses increased to 65.2% in 2000 from 58.1% in 1999. Excluding the effect of SAB 101, marketing expenses would have been 63.7% of revenues in 2000. Marketing expenses, as a percentage of revenues, increased primarily due to the expansion of our online business initiatives and higher cancellation rates.

GENERAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES. General and administrative expenses increased 63% to $24.0 million in 2000 from $14.7 million in 1999. As a percentage of revenues, general and administrative expenses increased to 20.4% in 2000 from 18.7% in 1999. Excluding the effect of SAB 101, general and administrative expenses would have been 21.6% of revenues in 2000. Expenses increased in 2000 compared to 1999 due to higher staff related expenses and occupancy costs related to the expansion of our online and international business initiatives.

AMORTIZATION OF GOODWILL AND OTHER INTANGIBLES. Intangible amortization increased to $2.8 million in 2000 from $1.4 million in 1999 due to the acquisition of three additional businesses since December 30, 1999.

The Company's capital expenditures for the six months ended December 31, 2000 were $8.0 million in 2000. Investing activities during the six months ended December 31, 1999 include the use of $15.9 million in cash for the acquisition of the remaining 81% of ConsumerInfo.Com and capital expenditures of $7.2 million.

Net cash provided by financing activities was $0.3 million in 2000 and net cash used in financing activities was $19.1 million in 1999. The increase in cash provided by financing activities was due to a reduction in treasury shares acquired under the Company's stock repurchase program. The Company purchased 181,000 shares for $5.1 million during the six months ended December 31, 2000 and 727,000 shares for $20.0 million during the six months ended December 31, 1999. In addition, the Company received $5.0 million in proceeds from the sale of its subsidiary's Preferred Stock during the December 2000 quarter.

As of December 31, 2000, the Company had cash and cash equivalents of $31.6 million. In addition, the Company has a $20 million bank credit facility which bears interest at the higher of the base commercial lending rate for the bank or the Federal Funds Rate plus 0.5% per annum. There was no outstanding balance under this bank credit facility as of December 31, 2000. The Company believes that existing cash balances, together with its available bank credit facility, will be sufficient to meet its funding requirements for at least the next twelve months.

IMPACT OF RECENTLY ISSUED ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

For over a year, the Company has disclosed in its public reporting that the Securities and Exchange Commission staff (the "Staff") planned to issue guidance on revenue recognition and that such guidance could have a material impact on the way the Company has historically recognized revenue. The Staff issued SAB 101 in December 1999. SAB 101 establishes the Staff's preference that membership fees should not be recognized in earnings prior to the expiration of refund privileges. Notwithstanding the Staff's preference described above, it is also stated in SAB 101 that the Staff will not object to the recognition of refundable membership fees, net of estimated refunds, as earned revenue over the membership period (the Company's historical method) in limited circumstances where all of certain criteria set forth in SAB 101 have been met.

Edgar Filing: MEMBERWORKS INC - Form 10-Q

Effective July 1, 2000, the Company changed its method of accounting for membership fee revenue to comply with the Staff's preferred method as outlined in SAB 101. Membership fees, and the related direct costs associated with acquiring the underlying memberships, are no longer recognized on a pro-rata basis over the corresponding membership period, but instead will be recognized in earnings upon the expiration of membership refund privileges. The cumulative effect of this change in accounting principle as of July 1, 2000 of $25.7 million was recorded in the fiscal quarter ended September 30, 2000. The membership fees, net of estimated refunds and associated direct costs, which will be deferred as part of the cumulative effect adjustment at July 1, 2000, will be recognized in earnings during fiscal year 2001 as the underlying refund privileges expire. During the three and six months ended December 31, 2000, the Company recognized $22.1 million and $53.9 million, respectively, of revenue which was included as a component of the cumulative effect of accounting change booked July 1, 2000. The effect of the adoption of SAB 101 on reported revenue, net loss before the cumulative effect of accounting change and net loss per share before the cumulative effect of accounting change for the three months ended December 31, 2000 is an increase of $6.5 million, and a decrease of $0.6 million and $0.04, respectively. The effect of the adoption of SAB 101 on reported revenue, net loss before the cumulative effect of accounting change and net loss per share before the cumulative effect of accounting change for the six months ended December 31, 2000 is a decrease of $1.8 million, and an increase of $2.2 million and $0.14, respectively.

This change in accounting for the recognition of membership fees in income has no impact on the Company's cash flows or on the value of the underlying memberships.

Among the many factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements are:

- The Company's ability to integrate into the Company's management and operations and to successfully operate acquired businesses, including iPlace and DDS;
- Economic conditions in areas outside the United States;
- Continued growth within the United States;
- The Company's ability to develop and implement operational and financial systems to manage rapidly growing operations;
- The Company's ability to obtain financing on acceptable terms to finance the Company's growth strategy and to operate within the limitations imposed by financing arrangements;

- New accounting pronouncements.

The Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statement as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

Interest Rate

The Company has a $20.0 million bank credit facility which bears interest at the higher of the base commercial lending rate for the bank or the Federal Funds Rate plus 0.5% per annum. There were no borrowings outstanding under this bank credit facility as of December 31, 2000. Management believes that an increase in the commercial lending rate or the Federal Funds rate would not be material to the Company's financial position or its results of operations. If the Company is not able to renew its existing credit facility agreement, which matures on August 31, 2001, it is possible that any replacement lending facility obtained by the Company may be more sensitive to interest rate changes. The Company does not currently hedge interest rates with respect to its outstanding debt.

Foreign Currency

The Company has international sales and facilities and is, therefore, subject to foreign currency rate exposure. Historically, its international sales have been denominated in British pounds sterling. However, with the acquisition of a Canadian subsidiary, certain sales are denominated in the Canadian dollar. The functional currencies of the Company's foreign operations are the local currencies. Assets and liabilities of these subsidiaries are translated into U.S. dollars at exchange rates in effect at the balance sheet date. Income and expense items are translated at average exchange rates for the period. Accumulated net translation adjustments are recorded in shareholders' equity. Foreign exchange transaction gains and losses are included in the results of operations, and were not material for all periods presented. As a result, the Company's financial results could be affected by factors such as changes in foreign currency exchange rates or weak economic condition. To the extent the Company incurs expenses that are based on locally denominated sales volume paid in local currency, the exposure to foreign exchange risk is reduced. The Company has determined that the impact of a near-term 10% appreciation or depreciation of the U.S. dollar would have an insignificant effect on its financial position, results of operations and cash flows. The Company does not maintain any derivative instruments to mitigate the exposure to translation and transaction risk. However, this does not preclude the Company's adoption of specific hedging strategies in the future. MemberWorks will assess the need to utilize financial instruments to hedge currency exposures on an ongoing basis.

Fair Value

MemberWorks does not use derivative financial instruments for speculative or trading purposes. In February 2000, the Company sold its equity interest in AwardTrack, Inc. in exchange for stock in 24/7 Media, Inc. ("24/7"). The carrying value of this investment is affected by changes in the quoted market prices of 24/7 common stock. The Company determines, on a quarterly basis, the fair market value of the 24/7 shares and records an unrealized gain or loss resulting from the change in the fair market value from the previous quarter to the measurement date. If the Company sells all or a portion of this stock, any unrealized gain or loss on the date of the sale will be recorded as a realized gain or loss in the Company's results of operations. As of December 31, 2000, the value recorded for this investment is $0.

ITEM 1. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

Except as set forth below, in management's opinion, there are no significant legal proceedings to which the Company or any of its subsidiaries is a party or to which any of their properties are subject. The Company is involved in other lawsuits and claims generally incidental to its business. In addition, from time to time, and in the regular course of its business, the Company receives inquiries from various federal and/or state regulatory authorities.

On July 7, 1999, a purported class action was instituted by plaintiffs Kathryn Rosebear and Anne Bergman against the Company and other defendants in the United States District Court, District of Minnesota. The suit, which seeks unspecified monetary damages, alleges that the Company and the other defendants violated their privacy policies and Minnesota consumer law. The Company believes that the allegations made in this lawsuit are unfounded and the Company will vigorously defend its interests against this suit.

In January 2001, a purported class action was instituted by plaintiff Brandy L. Ritt against the Company and other defendants in the Court of Common Pleas in Cuyahoga County, Ohio. The suit, which seeks unspecified monetary damages, alleges that the Company and the other defendants violated various provisions of Ohio's consumer protection laws in connection with the marketing of certain membership programs offered by the Company. The Company believes that the claims asserted against it are unfounded and the Company will vigorously defend its interests against this suit.
