Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On March 11, 2008, the Board of Directors of ThermoGenesis Corp. (the "Company") increased the number of board members to six (6), and elected Dr. Mahendra S. Rao as a new member of the Board of Directors of the Company. Dr. Rao is expected to be appointed to one or more committees of the Board at future meetings, but currently serves on no committee.

Mahendra S. Rao is Vice President, Stem Cells and Regenerative Medicine for Invitrogen Corporation. From 2001 to 2005 he was Stem Cell Section Chief and Senior Investigator at the National Institute of Aging's Laboratory of Neuroscience. He holds an M.D. in Medicine from Bombay University and a Ph.D. in Dev. Neurobiology from California Institute of Technology. He has authored over twenty submitted, five issued patents and 250 scientific publications in the field of stem cell therapies and has chaired the US FDA cell and gene therapy advisory committee.

Dr. Rao will receive an annual board retainer of $24,000 paid quarterly. Dr. Rao will also be awarded options to purchase 25,000 shares of the Company's common stock, which will vest immediately, and will receive $1,500 per board meeting attended.

Dr. Rao has not previously held any positions with the Company and there have been no related party transactions between Dr. Rao and the Company. Dr. Rao has no family relationships with any director or executive officer of the Company, or persons nominated or chosen by the Company to become directors or executive officers. There are no other arrangements or understandings with Dr. Rao with respect to his appointment as a director.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
