PROXY STATEMENT

This proxy statement is provided to shareholders of UCN, Inc. in connection with special meeting of shareholders and any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting. The special meeting will be held at 1:00 p.m., on October 9, 2008, at 7730 South Union Park Avenue, Suite 500, Midvale, UT 84047.

ABOUT THE MEETING, VOTING, AND COMPANY INFORMATION

When were proxy materials mailed?

This proxy statement and proxy card were first mailed on or about September 10, 2008, to owners of voting shares of UCN in connection with the solicitation of proxies by our Board of Directors for a special meeting of Shareholders in Midvale, Utah. A proxy is your legal designation of another person to vote the stock you own. That other person is called a proxy. If you designate someone as your proxy in a written document, that document also is called a proxy or a proxy card. Proxies are solicited to give all shareholders of record at the close of business on September 5, 2008, an opportunity to vote on the matters that are to be considered at the special meeting.

What am I voting on?

The Board is soliciting your vote for approval of an amendment to UCN's Certificate of Incorporation to change the name of the company from UCN, Inc. to inContact, Inc. The Board recommends a vote FOR the amendment because it believes promoting inContact as our identity reflects the development of our business as a Software as a Service provider.

Who is entitled to vote?

Shareholders of record at the close of business on September 5, 2008, the record date, are entitled to vote on matters that come before the meeting. Shares can be voted only if the shareholder is present in person or is represented by proxy.

How many votes do I have?

Each share of UCN common stock that you own as of the record date entitles you to one vote. On September 5, 2008, there were 31,065,228 outstanding shares of our common stock.

How do I vote?

All shareholders may vote by mail. To vote by mail, please sign, date, and mail your proxy card in the envelope provided. If you own your shares through a bank or broker, you should follow the separate instructions they provide you. Although most banks and brokers now offer telephone and Internet voting, availability and specific processes will depend on their voting arrangements. If you attend the special meeting in person, you may request a ballot when you arrive and vote at the meeting.

What if I return my proxy but do not mark it to show how I am voting?

If your proxy card is signed and returned without specifying your choices, the shares will be voted as recommended by the Board.

Can other items be considered at the special meeting?

The Board does not anticipate any other matters coming before the special meeting; however, UCN's Bylaws provide that a shareholder may properly make a proposal to bring business before a special meeting by giving notice to the Secretary of UCN not more than five business days after UCN has provided the notice of the special meeting to its shareholders.

What if other items come up at the special meeting and I am not there to vote?

When you return a signed and dated proxy card, you give the persons specified as proxies the discretionary authority to vote on your behalf on any other matter that is properly brought before the special meeting.

Can I change my vote?

You can change your vote by revoking your proxy at any time before it is exercised in one of three ways:

notify our Corporate Secretary in writing before the special meeting that you are revoking your proxy;
submit another proxy with a later date; or vote in person at the special meeting.

What does it mean if I receive more than one proxy card?

Your shares are likely registered differently or are in more than one account. You should vote each of your accounts. If you mail your proxy cards, please sign, date, and return each proxy card to guarantee that all of your shares are voted. If you wish to combine your shareholder accounts in the future, you should contact our transfer agent, Interwest Transfer Inc., Co., at 1-801-272-9294. Combining accounts reduces excess printing and mailing costs, resulting in savings for us that benefits you as a shareholder.

When and where will a list of stockholders be available?

We will make a list of stockholders available for examination during ordinary business hours at our corporate headquarters during the ten days preceding the special meeting. We will also make the list available for examination at the special meeting.

What constitutes a quorum?

Voting can take place at the special meeting only if shareholders owning shares representing a majority of the shares entitled to vote are present, which constitutes a quorum. Presence may be in person or by proxy. You will be considered part of the quorum if you return a signed and dated proxy card or if you vote at the special meeting. Abstentions and shares voted by a broker or bank holding shares for a beneficial owner are counted as present and entitled to vote for determining a quorum.

What vote is required to approve the proposal?

Amendment of the Certificate of Incorporation requires the affirmative vote of shareholders owning shares representing a majority of the issued and outstanding shares. Therefore, approval of the name change requires the affirmative vote of 15,532,615 shares.

How do I access proxy materials on the Internet and find more information on UCN?

Our corporate website is <http://www.ucn.net>. We make available on this website, free of charge, access to our Annual Report on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, Current Reports on Form 8-K, Proxy Statements on Schedule 14A and amendments to those materials filed or furnished pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as soon as reasonably practicable after we electronically submit such material to the Commission. The Commission makes available on its website, free of charge, reports, proxy and information statements, and other information regarding issuers, such as us, that file electronically with the Commission. The Commission's website is <http://www.sec.gov>.

PROPOSAL FOR SPECIAL MEETING CORPORATE NAME CHANGE

On August 21, 2008, our Board adopted a resolution to approve an amendment to the company's Certificate of Incorporation to change its name from UCN, Inc. to inContact, Inc. The name change was approved by our Board to more closely identify us with our software product and services, which is referred to as the inContact suite of services. Our inContact application suite includes an integrated package of advanced contact handling, reporting and administration applications as well as performance monitoring and management tools. We are continuing its shift from being a telecom services providers to a Software as a Service provider, which we refer to as SaaS, and believe that the change of name will more closely identify us with our business of being a SaaS provider.

The exact proposal is to amend Article I of our Delaware certificate of incorporation by deleting all of Article I and inserting the following provision in lieu thereof:

ARTICLE I

NAME

The name of the Corporation is inContact, Inc.

Vote and Recommendation

Approval of the amendment to change our name requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock. Abstentions as to this proposal will be treated as votes against the proposal. Broker non-votes, however, will be treated as unvoted for purposes of determining approval of this proposal and will not be counted as votes for or against the proposal. Properly executed, unrevoked Proxies will be voted FOR the proposal unless a vote against the proposal or abstention is specifically indicated in the individual Proxy.
