Other Events

On December 3, 2009, Varian Medical Systems, Inc. (“Varian”) learned that a Swedish court ruled that the tender for a proton therapy system at Skandion Kliniken (“Skandion”) be recommenced. Varian will maintain the $62 million order for this system on its books pending Skandion’s decision on which of several options under Swedish law it may elect to pursue in response to the ruling.

Skandion awarded Varian the contract for the proton therapy system following a public tender process that was subsequently challenged by a competitor. The Swedish court ruled in favor of the challenge on December 3.

Varian does not believe that the ruling will have an effect on its previously announced revenue and earnings guidance for fiscal year 2010.
