Item 2.02. Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

On April 10, 2017, Lennar Corporation (the "Company") issued a press release reporting that due to recent events which have transpired in litigation since the Company issued its earnings release, it has recorded a litigation accrual which will result in first quarter net earnings being lower than the $130.8 million, or $0.56 per diluted share, stated in its first quarter earnings press release on March 21, 2017. Subsequent to the earnings release, on March 23, 2017, the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit held oral argument in an appeal in connection with litigation in which the Company is involved. Based on the Court hearing, the Company's assessment of the probable outcome of the litigation has changed, and it now believes it is appropriate to record a one-time charge of $140 million for this litigation. The accrual represents the high end of the range of expected liability associated with the litigation. The Company was required to record the litigation accrual as a charge against pre-tax earnings in its first quarter because the determination that an accrual should be recorded was made before the Company filed its Form 10-Q for the first quarter. In addition to the accrual, the Company would purchase the property which is the subject of the litigation for $114 million, which approximates the Company's estimate of the fair value of the property. As a result of this accrual, the Company's first quarter net earnings reported in its Form 10-Q filed on April 10, 2017 are $38.1 million or $0.16 per diluted share. The press release is attached to this Report as Exhibit 99.1.
