PROSPECTUS OF FCB FINANCIAL HOLDINGS, INC. FOR UP TO 1,933,415 SHARES OF CLASS A COMMON STOCK AND PROXY STATEMENT OF FLORIDIAN COMMUNITY HOLDINGS, INC.
MERGER PROPOSED YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

The Board of Directors of FCB Financial Holdings, Inc. (FCB) and the Board of Directors of Floridian Community Holdings, Inc. (Floridian Community) have unanimously approved and adopted an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement), by and among FCB, Flamingo Sub, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of FCB (Merger Sub), and Floridian Community. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will be merged with and into Floridian Community (the Merger), with Floridian Community becoming wholly owned by FCB. Immediately thereafter, Floridian Community will merge with and into FCB (the Parent Merger), with FCB as the surviving corporation in the Parent Merger. In addition, following the Merger, Floridian Community Bank, a Florida-chartered bank and wholly owned subsidiary of Floridian Community (Floridian Community Bank), will merge with and into Florida Community Bank, N.A., a wholly owned subsidiary of FCB (FCB Bank) (the Bank Merger), with FCB Bank being the surviving bank in the Bank Merger.

If the Merger Agreement is approved by the holders of a majority of the shares of Floridian Community and the Merger is subsequently completed, each share of Floridian Community common stock owned by each Floridian Community shareholder will be converted into the right to receive 0.4584 shares (the Exchange Ratio) of FCB Class A common stock. FCB will pay cash for any fractional shares resulting from application of the Exchange Ratio. The Exchange Ratio is subject to adjustments for stock splits, stock dividends, recapitalization, or similar transactions. Based on the number of shares of Floridian Community common stock outstanding on January 9, 2018 (including shares which may be delivered pursuant to options exercised prior to closing), we expect that the payment of the Merger consideration will require FCB to issue approximately 1,933,415 shares of FCB Class A common stock. Based on the number of issued and outstanding shares of FCB Class A common stock and Floridian Community common stock as of January 9, 2018, and based on the Exchange Ratio of 0.4584, holders of shares of Floridian Community common stock as of immediately prior to the closing of the Merger will hold, in the aggregate, approximately 4.3% of the issued and outstanding shares of FCB Class A common stock immediately following the effectiveness of the Merger.

FCB Class A common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE) under the symbol FCB. On November 24, 2017, the last business day prior to the public announcement of the Merger, the closing price of a share of FCB Class A common stock was $48.55, which, after giving effect to the Exchange Ratio of 0.4584, results in an implied value of approximately $22.26 per share of Floridian Community common stock as of such date. On January 9, 2018, the latest practicable date before the date of this proxy statement and prospectus, the closing price of a share of FCB Class A common stock was $53.15, which, after giving effect to the Exchange Ratio of 0.4584, results in an implied value of approximately $24.36 per share of Floridian Community common stock as of such date. You should obtain a current market quotation for FCB Class A common stock before you vote.

The Merger cannot be completed unless the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of Floridian Community vote to approve the Merger Agreement. Floridian Community will hold a special meeting of its shareholders to vote on this Merger proposal. Your vote is very important. Whether or not you plan to attend the shareholder meeting, please take the time to vote by completing the enclosed proxy card and mailing it in the enclosed envelope. If you sign, date and mail your proxy card without indicating how you want to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote in favor of the Merger Agreement. Not returning your card will have the same effect as a vote against the Merger Agreement.

The date, time and place of the meeting are as follows:

February 20, 2018, at 9:00 a.m., local time

Floridian Community Bank s Delray Beach Branch Office

4850 West Atlantic Avenue

Delray Beach, Florida 33445

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE FLORIDIAN COMMUNITY SHAREHOLDER MEETING

Q: What am I voting on?

A: You are being asked to vote to approve the Merger Agreement, pursuant to which Merger Sub will be merged with and into Floridian Community, with Floridian Community becoming wholly owned by FCB, and to approve the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement (which we refer to as the Merger Proposal). Immediately after the Merger, Floridian Community will merge with and into FCB, with FCB as the surviving corporation, and Floridian Community would no longer be a separate company. You are also being asked to vote on a proposal to adjourn the Floridian Community special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the Merger Proposal (which we refer to as the Adjournment Proposal).

Q: Why are FCB and Floridian Community proposing to merge?

A: We believe the Merger is in the best interests of both companies and our respective shareholders. Floridian Community and FCB believe that the Merger will bring together two complementary institutions to create a strategically, operationally and financially strong company that is positioned for further growth. The Merger will give the combined company greater scale, not only for serving existing customers more efficiently, but also for future expansion. We believe the Merger will enhance our capabilities to provide banking and financial services to our customers and strengthen the competitive position of the combined organization.

You should review the background of and reasons for the Merger described in greater detail beginning on page 30.

Q: What will Floridian Community shareholders receive in the Merger?

A: If the Merger Agreement is approved by the shareholders of Floridian Community and the Merger is subsequently completed, each share of Floridian Community common stock will be converted into 0.4584 shares (the Exchange Ratio) of FCB Class A common stock (the Merger Consideration). Each Floridian Community shareholder that would otherwise be entitled to receive a fractional share of FCB Class A common stock will receive cash in lieu of such fractional share. The Exchange Ratio is subject to adjustments for stock splits, stock dividends, recapitalization, or similar transactions.

Because the Exchange Ratio is fixed (except for customary anti-dilution adjustments), the value of the Merger Consideration that you will receive will depend on the market price of FCB Class A common stock when you receive your shares of FCB Class A common stock. The implied per share value of the Merger Consideration, based upon FCB's closing stock price on January 9, 2018, the most recent practicable trading day before the date of this proxy statement and prospectus, was $24.36 per share. No assurance can be given that the current market price of FCB Class A common stock will be equivalent to the market price of FCB Class A common stock on the date that shares of FCB Class A common stock are received by a Floridian Community shareholder or at any other time.

You should obtain current market prices for shares of FCB Class A common stock, which are listed on the NYSE under the symbol FCB.

Q: What risks should I consider before I vote on the Merger Proposal?

A: You should carefully review the section captioned RISK FACTORS beginning on page 19.

Q: Will FCB shareholders receive any shares or cash as a result of the Merger?

A: No. After the Merger, FCB shareholders will continue to own the same number of FCB shares they owned before the Merger.

Table of Contents

Q: When is the Merger expected to be completed?

A: We are working to complete the Merger as quickly as practicable. We must first obtain the necessary regulatory approvals and the approval of Floridian Community shareholders at the special meeting. We currently expect to complete the Merger during the first or second quarter of 2018.

Q: What are the tax consequences of the Merger to me?

A: The Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Internal Revenue Code). A U.S. Holder (as defined in the section captioned MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES beginning on page 70) who exchanges all of its shares of Floridian Community common stock for shares of FCB Class A common stock pursuant to the Merger will not recognize any gain or loss on the exchange for federal income tax purposes, except with respect to any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of FCB Class A common stock. A U.S. Holder who receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of FCB Class A common stock will be treated as having received such fractional share of FCB Class A common stock pursuant to the Merger and then as having sold that fractional share of FCB Class A common stock for cash. As a result, a U.S. Holder will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the U.S. Holder's basis in the fractional share of FCB Class A common stock determined as described above. At the closing of the Merger, FCB will receive an opinion from its tax attorneys confirming these tax consequences and Floridian Community will receive an opinion from its tax attorneys confirming these tax consequences. Under the Merger Agreement, receipt of the tax opinions may be waived by FCB and Floridian Community, respectively, prior to the closing of the Merger. However, if receipt of such opinions were waived, Floridian Community would resolicit its shareholders if any change in the tax consequences were material and disclose the reasons for the waiver and the change in tax consequences. Such resolicitation would require an amendment to the Registration Statement on Form S-4, of which this proxy statement and prospectus is a part. See MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES beginning on page 70. Your individual tax consequences will depend on your personal situation. You should consult your tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the Merger to you.

Q: Will I have dissenters' rights?

A: The shareholders of Floridian Community are entitled to dissenters' rights of appraisal in connection with the Merger under Sections 607.1301 – 607.1333 of the Florida Business Corporation Act (the FBCA), a copy of which is included as Annex D to this proxy statement and prospectus. If you wish to assert dissenters' rights of appraisal, you must deliver to Floridian Community written notice of your intent to assert such rights before the vote is taken at the special meeting. In addition, you must not vote in favor of the Merger either in person or by proxy. The procedure for dissenting is explained more fully under THE MERGER Dissenters Rights of Appraisal of Holders of Floridian Community Common Stock beginning on page 47 and in Annex D to this proxy statement and prospectus.

Q: What do I need to do now?

- A: You should carefully read and consider the information contained in this document and any information incorporated herein by reference. Then, please submit your proxy by completing, signing, and dating the enclosed proxy card and returning it as soon as possible using the enclosed postage-prepaid envelope so that your shares can be voted at the special shareholder meeting. If a returned proxy card is signed but does not specify how you wish to vote your shares, your proxy will be voted FOR the: (1) approval of the Merger Proposal; and (2) approval of the Adjournment Proposal.

Table of Contents

Q: What if I don't vote or if I abstain from voting?

A: If you do not vote or if you abstain from voting, your abstention will count as a vote AGAINST the Merger Proposal and the Adjournment Proposal.

Q: If my shares are held by my broker in street name, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: If you hold shares of Floridian Community common stock indirectly through a broker, you are considered a beneficial owner of those shares but are not the shareholder of record. In this circumstance, you are a shareholder whose shares are held in street name and your broker is considered the shareholder of record. We sent copies of this proxy statement and prospectus directly to all shareholders of record. If you are a beneficial owner whose shares are held in street name, these materials were sent to you by the broker through which you hold your shares. As the beneficial owner, you may direct your broker how to vote your shares at the Floridian Community special meeting, and the broker is obligated to provide you with a voting instruction form for you to use for this purpose. Your broker will vote any shares you hold in street name only if you provide instructions to your broker on how to vote your shares. You should follow the directions provided by your broker to vote your shares. If you do not provide your broker with instructions on how to vote your shares held in street name, your broker will not be permitted to vote your shares, which will have the effect of a vote AGAINST the Merger Proposal and the Adjournment Proposal.

Q: May I change my vote after I have submitted my proxy?

A: Yes. You can change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the special meeting. You can do this in one of three ways. First, you can send a written notice stating that you revoke your proxy. Second, you can complete and submit a new proxy, dated at a date later than your most recent proxy. Please submit your notice of revocation and/or new proxy card to Floridian Community Holdings, Inc., 5599 South University Drive, Davie, Florida 33328, Attention: Ulises I. Alonso, Assistant Corporate Secretary. Third, you may attend the special meeting and vote in person. Simply attending the special meeting, however, will not revoke your proxy. You must request a ballot and vote the ballot at the meeting.

Q: What constitutes a quorum?

A: The presence, in person or by proxy, of shareholders holding at least a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Floridian Community entitled to vote as of January 10, 2018, the record date for the special meeting, will constitute a quorum for the special meeting. Abstentions will be treated as present for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for all matters voted on at the Floridian Community special meeting. Shares represented by a proxy from a broker indicating that such person has not received instructions from the beneficial owner or other person entitled to vote the shares, which we refer to as broker non-votes, will not be counted as shares present. On the record date, there were 3,411,801 shares of Floridian Community common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificate(s) now?

A: No. After the Merger is completed, Floridian Community shareholders will receive written instructions from FCB for exchanging their stock certificates for shares of FCB Class A common stock and cash for fractional shares to be received by them in the Merger. If you are a FCB shareholder, you should retain your certificates, as you will continue to hold the FCB shares you currently own.

and stock performance, its management, the likelihood of the successful execution of the Merger, and the attractiveness of FCB's offer from a financial perspective. In addition, the Board of Directors considered the fairness opinion of Hovde Group, LLC (Hovde), described below.

Opinion of Hovde (page 37)

Floridian Community's Board of Directors retained Hovde to render a fairness opinion in connection with the proposed Merger. At the meeting of Floridian Community's Board of Directors on November 17, 2017, Hovde delivered to Floridian Community's Board of Directors an oral opinion, which was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion, dated November 27, 2017, to the effect that, as of the date of the opinion and based upon and subject to the conditions, limitations, qualifications and assumptions set forth in the opinion, the right of the holders of Floridian Community common shares to receive 0.4584 shares (the Exchange Ratio) of FCB Class A common was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders of Floridian Community common stock, other than any holders who properly perfect their right to dissent under applicable law (the Excluded Holders).

The full text of the written opinion of Hovde, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion of Hovde, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement and prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. Floridian Community shareholders are urged to read Hovde's written opinion carefully and in its entirety. Hovde's opinion is limited solely to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Exchange Ratio to be received in the Merger by the holders of Floridian Community common stock (other than any Excluded Holders) and does not address Floridian Community's underlying business decision to effect the Merger or the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any alternative business strategies or transactions that might be available with respect to Floridian Community. Hovde's opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Floridian Community as to how such shareholder should vote or act with respect to any matter relating to the Merger or otherwise.

What Floridian Community Shareholders Will Receive (page 29)

If the Merger Agreement is approved and the Merger is subsequently completed, each outstanding share of Floridian Community common stock will be converted into the right to receive the Exchange Ratio of 0.4584 shares of FCB Class A common stock. The Exchange Ratio is subject to adjustment for stock splits, stock dividends, recapitalization or similar transactions. Each Floridian Community shareholder that would otherwise be entitled to receive a fractional share of FCB Class A common stock will receive cash in lieu of such fractional share.

Because the Exchange Ratio is fixed (except for customary anti-dilution adjustments), the value of the Merger Consideration that you will receive will depend on the market price of FCB Class A common stock when you receive your shares of FCB Class A common stock. The implied per share value of the Merger Consideration, based upon FCB's closing stock price on January 9, 2018, the most recent practicable trading day before the date of this proxy statement and prospectus, was $24.36 per share. No assurance can be given that the current market price of FCB Class A common stock will be equivalent to the market price of FCB Class A common stock on the date that shares of FCB Class A common stock are received by a Floridian Community shareholder or at any other time.

Within five (5) business days following the effective date of the Merger, FCB will mail a letter of transmittal to each person who was, immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, a holder of record of Floridian Community common stock. The letter of transmittal will contain instructions for use in effecting the surrender of Floridian Community stock certificates (or shares held in book-entry form) in exchange for the consideration to which such person may be entitled pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

What FCB Shareholders Will Receive (page 30)

FCB shareholders will not receive any consideration in the Merger. After the Merger, FCB shareholders will continue to own the same number of FCB shares owned before the Merger.

The Floridian Community Special Shareholders Meeting (page 25)

The special meeting of Floridian Community shareholders will be held on February 20, 2018, at 9:00 a.m. local time, at Floridian Community Bank's Delray Beach Branch Office at 4850 West Atlantic Avenue, Delray Beach, Florida 33445.

At the special meeting, Floridian Community shareholders will be asked:

1. Merger Proposal. To consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the Merger Agreement and to approve the transactions contemplated thereby. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will be merged with and into Floridian Community, with Floridian Community becoming wholly owned by FCB. Immediately thereafter, Floridian Community will merge with and into FCB, with FCB as the surviving corporation. In addition, following the Merger, Floridian Community Bank will merge with and into FCB Bank.
2. Adjournment Proposal. To approve one (1) or more adjournments of the Floridian Community special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the Merger Proposal.

Floridian Community Recommendation to Shareholders (page 35)

Floridian Community's Board of Directors unanimously approved and adopted the Merger Agreement and approved and authorized the proposed Merger. Floridian Community's Board of Directors concluded that entering into the Merger Agreement and completing the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are in the best interest of Floridian Community and the Floridian Community shareholders. Floridian Community's Board of Directors recommends that Floridian Community shareholders vote FOR (1) approval of the Merger Proposal, and (2) approval of the Adjournment Proposal. In reaching its determination, Floridian Community's Board of Directors considered a number of factors, which are described in the section captioned THE MERGER Floridian Community's Reasons for the Merger and the Recommendation of Floridian Community's Board of Directors beginning on page 35. Because of the wide variety of factors considered, Floridian Community's Board of Directors did not believe it practicable, nor did it attempt, to quantify or otherwise assign relative weight to the specific factors it considered in reaching its decision.

Floridian Community Special Meeting Record Date; Vote Required (page 25)

Only Floridian Community shareholders of record as of the close of business on January 10, 2018, are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Floridian Community special meeting and any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting. As of the record date, there were 3,411,801 shares of Floridian Community common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the meeting. Approval of the Merger Proposal requires the affirmative vote of holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Floridian Community common stock entitled to vote. Approval of the Adjournment Proposal requires the affirmative vote of holders of those shares represented and entitled to vote at the special meeting where a quorum is present. You can vote your shares by attending the Floridian Community special meeting and voting in person, or you can vote by proxy by marking the enclosed proxy card with your vote, signing it and mailing it in the enclosed return envelope. You can revoke your proxy at any time before the special meeting by sending a written notice of revocation, submitting a new proxy or by attending the special meeting and voting in person.

The holder of Floridian Community non-voting common stock is not being solicited by this proxy statement and prospectus to vote for the Merger Proposal. That holder will vote its shares as a separate class and is bound by a voting agreement, as described below.

Table of Contents

No approval by FCB shareholders is required.

Voting Agreement (page 69)

As of the Floridian Community record date, Floridian Community's directors and executive officers and their affiliates held approximately 36.81% of the outstanding shares of Floridian Community common stock entitled to vote at the Floridian Community special meeting. All of the directors, certain officers and certain significant shareholders of Floridian Community, as of November 27, 2017, entered into a voting agreement with FCB to cause all Floridian Community common stock owned by each of them of record or beneficially to be voted in favor of the Merger Proposal. A copy of the form of these voting agreements is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement and prospectus. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Voting Agreement on page 69. As of the record date, the directors, officers and the shareholders of Floridian Community that executed such voting agreements had the power to vote, or caused to be voted, an aggregate of 1,185,183.92 shares of Floridian Community voting common stock outstanding, representing 34.74% of Floridian Community's voting common stock outstanding on that date, and an aggregate of 372,195 shares of Floridian Community non-voting common stock outstanding, representing approximately 89.55% of Floridian Community's outstanding non-voting common stock on that date. Other than directors and certain officers of Floridian Community, the only shareholders that executed the voting agreement owned five percent or more of Floridian Community's outstanding common stock as of November 27, 2017.

For a list of the number of shares of Floridian Community common stock held by (i) each director of Floridian Community, (ii) each shareholder that is known to Floridian Community as of the date of this proxy statement and prospectus to beneficially own more than 5% percent of the outstanding shares of Floridian Community common stock and (iii) all directors and executive officers of Floridian Community as a group, see THE FLORIDIAN COMMUNITY SPECIAL MEETING Beneficial Ownership of Floridian Community Common Stock by Certain Shareholders.

What We Need to Do to Complete the Merger (page 65)

Completion of the Merger depends on a number of conditions being met or waived. In addition to our compliance with the Merger Agreement, these conditions include among others:

the approval of the Merger Agreement at the special meeting by the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Floridian Community common stock;

the approval of the Merger and the Bank Merger by certain regulatory agencies and the expiration of any regulatory waiting periods;

the approval for listing of the shares of FCB Class A common stock to be issued in the Merger on the NYSE (subject to official notice of issuance);

the Registration Statement on Form S-4, of which this proxy statement and prospectus is a part, relating to the FCB shares to be issued pursuant to the Merger Agreement, must have become effective under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Registration Statement shall have been issued and be in effect and no proceedings for that purpose shall have been initiated by the SEC and not withdrawn;

there must be no statute, rule, regulation, judgment, decree, injunction or other order of a court or agency of competent jurisdiction which prohibits the consummation of the Merger or the Bank Merger;

the representations and warranties made by the parties in the Merger Agreement must be true and correct in all material respects on and as of the effective date of the Merger, except that representations and warranties that are qualified by materiality or a Material Adverse Effect (as defined below in THE MERGER AGREEMENT Conditions to Completion of the Merger) must be true and correct in all respects, and provided that for those representations and warranties which address matters only as of an earlier date, they shall be tested as of such earlier date;

the covenants made by the parties must have been complied with in all material respects from the date of the Merger Agreement through and as of the effective date of the Merger;

Floridian Community must have received an opinion of Iglar and Pearlman, P.A. that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code;

FCB must have received an opinion of Sullivan & Cromwell LLP that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code;

the number of shares of common stock of Floridian Community held by shareholders who have properly exercised and perfected their statutory appraisal rights must not exceed 5% of the outstanding shares of common stock of Floridian Community;

Floridian Community shall have fully paid any outstanding balances under its line of credit from a trust controlled by Harvey Sorkin, a member of Floridian Community's Board of Directors and such line of credit shall have been terminated; and other customary conditions and obligations of the parties set forth in the Merger Agreement.

Under the Merger Agreement, receipt of the tax opinions referred to above may be waived by FCB and Floridian Community, respectively, prior to the closing of the Merger. However, if receipt of such opinions were waived, Floridian Community would resolicit its shareholders if any change in the tax consequences were material and disclose the reasons for the waiver and the change in tax consequences. Such resolicitation would require an amendment to the Registration Statement on Form S-4, of which this proxy statement and prospectus is a part.

Regulatory Approvals (page 50)

The Merger and the Bank Merger are subject to various regulatory approvals, including approvals from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the Federal Reserve) and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC). Notifications and/or applications requesting approvals for the Merger or for the Bank Merger may also be submitted to other federal and state regulatory authorities and self-regulatory organizations. On December 22, 2017, FCB filed all such notices and applications to obtain the necessary regulatory approvals. Although FCB currently believes it should be able to obtain all regulatory approvals in a timely manner, FCB cannot be certain when or if it will obtain them or, if obtained, whether they will contain terms, conditions or restrictions not currently contemplated that will be detrimental to or have a material adverse effect on the combined company after the completion of the Merger. We make no assurance that the regulatory approvals received will not contain any condition, or carryover of any condition applicable to Floridian Community or any of its subsidiaries, that would be a burdensome condition (as defined below in THE MERGER AGREEMENT Conditions to Completion of the Merger) on FCB following the Merger or on FCB Bank following the Bank Merger. It is a condition to FCB's obligation to complete the Merger that no such burdensome condition be imposed.

Conduct of Business Pending Merger (page 59)

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, Floridian Community and FCB must carry on their respective businesses in the ordinary course and, subject to certain limited exceptions, may not take certain extraordinary actions without first obtaining the other party's consent.

Table of Contents

Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal of Holders of Floridian Community Common Stock (page 47)

The shareholders of Floridian Community are entitled to dissenters' rights of appraisal in connection with the Merger under the FBCA. If you wish to assert dissenters' rights of appraisal, you must deliver to Floridian Community written notice of your intent to assert such rights before the vote is taken at the special meeting. In addition, you must not vote in favor of the Merger Proposal either in person or by proxy. If the Merger Proposal is approved and the Merger is completed, and you have dissented and followed the required procedures, then you will not receive any shares of FCB Class A common stock. Instead, you will be entitled to receive the fair value of your Floridian Community common stock in cash as determined through the dissenters' rights procedures. The procedure for dissenting is explained more fully under THE MERGER Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal of Holders of Floridian Community Common Stock beginning on page 47 and in Annex D to this proxy statement and prospectus.

We Have Agreed When and How Floridian Community Can Consider Third-Party Acquisition Proposals (page 62)

We have agreed that Floridian Community will not, and will cause its subsidiaries and its and its subsidiaries representatives, agents, advisors and affiliates not to, solicit or encourage proposals from other parties regarding acquiring Floridian Community or its businesses. In addition, we have agreed that Floridian Community will not engage in negotiations with or provide confidential information to a third party regarding acquiring Floridian Community or its businesses. However, if Floridian Community receives an unsolicited Acquisition Proposal (as defined below in THE MERGER AGREEMENT Acquisition Proposals by Third Parties) from a third party, Floridian Community can participate in negotiations with and provide confidential information to the third party if, among other steps, Floridian Community's Board of Directors concludes in good faith that the proposal is superior to the FCB Merger Proposal. Floridian Community's receipt of a Superior Proposal (as defined below in THE MERGER AGREEMENT Acquisition Proposals by Third Parties) or participation in such negotiations does not give Floridian Community the right to terminate the Merger Agreement.

Interests of Directors and Officers in the Merger That Are Different From Your Interests (page 52)

You should be aware that some directors and executive officers of Floridian Community and Floridian Community Bank may have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, their interests as shareholders. Both Floridian Community's Board of Directors and FCB's Board of Directors were aware of these interests and took them into consideration in approving the Merger Agreement and the Merger. These interests are as follows:

FCB Bank has entered into employment and consulting agreements with each of Joseph S. Marzouca, the Chief Executive Officer of Floridian Community, and Ulises I. Alonso, the Chief Financial Officer of Floridian Community, and an employment agreement with Lee A. Frankhouser, the President of Floridian Community. These agreements will become effective as of the effective date of the Merger and that provide for certain transitional employment and compensation arrangements for each of those executives, who will serve as Senior Advisors to FCB Bank during an integration period.

All of the directors, certain officers and large shareholders of Floridian Community, as of November 27, 2017, the date the Merger Agreement was executed, entered into a voting agreement with FCB to cause all Floridian Community common stock owned by each of them of record or beneficially on such date to be voted in favor of the Merger Proposal.

To the extent a director or executive officer holds outstanding Floridian Community stock options immediately prior to the completion of the Merger, the Floridian Community stock options will be cancelled and terminated in exchange for a cash payment.

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, directors and officers of Floridian Community will be entitled to certain ongoing indemnification and coverage under directors and officers liability insurance policies following the Merger.

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, Floridian Community shall have fully paid any outstanding balances under that certain line of credit between Floridian Community and a trust controlled by Harvey Sorkin, a member of Floridian Community's Board of Directors, and such line of credit shall have been terminated pursuant to its terms.

Termination of the Merger (page 66)

Both FCB and Floridian Community can mutually agree to terminate the Merger Agreement before we complete the Merger. In addition, the Merger Agreement may also be terminated and the Merger abandoned at any time prior to the effective time of the merger, as follows:

If there is a continuing breach of the Merger Agreement by a party, and the breaching party has not cured the breach within the earlier of 270 days of the date of the signing of the Merger Agreement and 15 days' written notice to the breaching party, as long as that breach would entitle the non-breaching party not to complete the merger;

If holders of Floridian Community common stock fail to approve the Merger Proposal;

If there is a final denial of a required regulatory approval or an application for a required regulatory approval has been withdrawn upon the request or recommendation of the applicable governmental authority and such governmental authority would not accept the refiling of such application;

By FCB, if the Floridian Community Board of Directors (1) submits the Merger Agreement to its shareholders without a recommendation for approval or makes an adverse recommendation (or publicly proposes an adverse recommendation), (2) recommends an alternative acquisition proposal, or (3) commences negotiations regarding an alternative acquisition proposal;

By FCB, if the number of dissenting shares exceeds 5% of the outstanding shares of Floridian Community common stock; or

By Floridian Community, if FCB's stock price falls below thresholds set forth in the Merger Agreement and FCB does not increase the exchange ratio pursuant to a prescribed formula.

Floridian Community has agreed to pay FCB a termination fee of $3,100,000 if the Merger Agreement is terminated as a result of:

The Board of Directors of Floridian Community submitting the Merger Agreement to its shareholders without a recommendation for approval or with material and adverse conditions on such approval, or otherwise withdrawing or materially and adversely modifying its recommendation (or disclosing its intention to do so);

Floridian Community entering into an agreement to engage in an acquisition transaction with any person other than FCB;

Floridian Community authorizing, recommending or proposing an agreement to engage in an acquisition transaction with any person other than FCB (or publicly announcing its intention to do so);

The Board of Directors of Floridian Community recommending to its shareholders an acquisition transaction other than the Merger;

Floridian Community failing to convene a shareholder meeting to approve the Merger Agreement;

Floridian Community breaching its covenant not to solicit alternative Acquisition Proposals;

Any member of the Board of Directors of Floridian Community and certain principal shareholders breaching such person's obligations under the voting agreement entered into by such person in connection with the Merger Agreement, after being provided with notice of such breach and a 30 day period in which to cure such breach; or Floridian Community terminating the Merger Agreement as a result of not receiving the required approval of Floridian Community shareholders.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences (page 70)

It is a condition to the closing of the Merger that Sullivan & Cromwell LLP deliver an opinion to FCB and Iglar and Pearlman, P.A. deliver an opinion to Floridian Community, in each case, effective as of the date of the Merger, and substantially to the effect that, for United States federal income tax purposes, the Merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. This opinion will not, however, bind the Internal Revenue Service (the IRS) which could take a different view. Under the Merger Agreement, receipt of the tax opinions may be waived by FCB and Floridian Community, respectively, prior to the closing of the Merger. However, if receipt of such opinions were waived, Floridian Community would resolicit its shareholders if any change in the tax consequences were material and disclose the reasons for the waiver and the change in tax consequences. Such resolicitation would require an amendment to the Registration Statement on Form S-4, of which this proxy statement and prospectus is a part.

Determining the actual tax consequences of the Merger to you can be complicated. We suggest you consult with your own tax advisors with respect to the tax consequences of the Merger to you.

For a more detailed description of the material federal income tax consequences of the Merger to FCB and Floridian Community shareholders, see MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES on page 70.

Comparative Rights of FCB and Floridian Community Shareholders (page 85)

The rights of shareholders of FCB and Floridian Community differ in many respects. The rights of holders of FCB Class A common stock are governed by the laws of the State of Delaware, including the Delaware General Corporation Law (the DGCL), and FCB's restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws (as amended). The rights of holders of Floridian Community common stock are governed by the laws of the State of Florida, including the FBCA, and Floridian Community's articles of incorporation (as amended) and bylaws. Upon completion of the Merger, Floridian Community shareholders who receive FCB Class A common stock will take such stock subject to FCB's restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws (as amended).

Completion of the Merger (page 51)

The Merger will become effective when we file Articles of Merger with the Secretary of the State of Florida, or at such later date and time as may be set forth in the Articles of Merger. We expect the Merger to become effective during the first or second quarter of 2018.

Such forward-looking statements can often, but not always, be identified by the use of words like believe, continue, pattern, estimate, project, intend, anticipate, expect and similar expressions, or future or conditional verbs such as will, should, could, might, can, may, or similar expressions. These forward-looking statements are subject to significant risks, assumptions and uncertainties that may cause results to differ materially from those set forth in forward-looking statements, including, among other things:

the risk that the business of FCB and Floridian Community will not be integrated successfully or such integration may be more difficult, time consuming or costly than expected;

expected revenue synergies, cost savings and other financial or other benefits of the proposed transaction between FCB and Floridian Community might not be realized within the expected time frames or might be less than projected;

revenues following the Merger may be lower than expected;

deposit attrition, operating costs, customer loss and business disruption following the Merger, including, without limitation, difficulties in maintaining relationships with employees, may be greater than expected;

the ability to obtain regulatory approvals of the Merger, or the ability to obtain such regulatory approvals in a timely manner;

the potential impact of announcement or completion of the Merger on relationships with third parties, including customers, employees, and competitors;

business disruption following the Merger, including diversion of management's attention from ongoing business operations and opportunities;

the failure of holders of Floridian Community common stock to approve the Merger Proposal;

the failure of FCB to obtain requisite regulatory approvals for the Merger;

changes in the level of non-performing assets and charge offs;

FCB's potential exposure to unknown contingent liabilities of Floridian Community;

any interruption or breach of security resulting in failures or disruptions in customer account management, general ledger, deposit, loan, or other systems;

changes in estimates of future reserve requirements based upon the periodic review thereof under relevant regulatory and accounting requirements; changes in FCB's stock price before closing, including as a result of the financial performance of Floridian Community prior to closing;

inflation, interest rate, securities market and monetary fluctuations;

credit and interest rate risks associated with FCB's and Floridian Community's respective businesses, customer borrowing, repayment, investment and deposit practices;

general economic conditions, either internationally, nationally or in the market areas in which FCB and Floridian Community operate or anticipate doing business, may be less favorable than expected;

changes in the economic environment, competition or other factors that may influence the anticipated growth of loans and deposits, the quality of the loan portfolio and loan and deposit pricing;

changes in the competitive environment among financial holding companies and banks;

new regulatory or legal requirements or obligations with which FCB and Floridian Community must comply; and other economic, competitive, governmental, regulatory and technological factors affecting FCB's and Floridian Community's operations, products, services and prices.

The foregoing list of important factors may not be all inclusive, and we specifically decline to undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances after the date on which such statement is made, or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events. For a further discussion of these and other risks, uncertainties and other factors applicable to FCB and Floridian Community, see "Risk Factors" in this proxy statement and prospectus and FCB's other filings with the SEC incorporated by reference into this proxy statement and prospectus.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to general investment risks and the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement and prospectus, including the matters addressed under the section FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS, you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding how to vote for the Merger Proposal presented in this proxy statement and prospectus. You should also consider the other information in this proxy statement and prospectus and the other documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement and prospectus. See WHERE YOU CAN FIND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION on page 94.

Risk Factors Relating to the Merged Company and Its Industry

Combining the two companies may be more difficult, costly or time consuming than expected and the anticipated benefits and costs savings of the Merger may not be realized.

Even though FCB has acquired other financial services businesses in the past, the success of the Merger with Floridian Community will depend on a number of factors, including, but not limited to, the merged company's ability to:

integrate Floridian Community's operations with the operations of FCB; maintain existing relationships with FCB's depositors and Floridian Community's depositors to minimize withdrawals of deposits subsequent to the acquisition;

maintain and enhance existing relationships with borrowers of FCB and Floridian Community; achieve projected net income of FCB Bank and expected cost savings and revenue enhancements from the merged company;

control the incremental non-interest expense to maintain overall operating efficiencies; retain and attract key and qualified management, lending and other banking personnel; and compete effectively in the communities served by FCB and Floridian Community, and in nearby communities.

FCB's failure to successfully integrate Floridian Community into its business may adversely affect its financial condition and results of operations.

The value of the consideration to be received by Floridian Community shareholders in the Merger will fluctuate.

If the Merger is completed, Floridian Community shareholders will receive a number of shares of FCB Class A common stock based on a fixed Exchange Ratio of 0.4584 shares of FCB Class A common stock for each share of Floridian Community common stock. Because the market value of FCB Class A common stock may (and likely will) fluctuate, the value of the stock consideration you receive for your shares may also fluctuate. The market value of FCB Class A common stock could fluctuate for any number of reasons, including those specific to FCB and those that influence trading prices of equity securities generally. As a result, you will not know the exact value of the shares of FCB Class A common stock you will receive at the time you must vote your shares. The value of FCB Class A common stock on the closing date of the Merger may be greater or less than the market price of FCB Class A common stock on the record date, on the date of this proxy statement and prospectus or on the date of the special meeting. Moreover, the fairness opinion of Hovde is dated November 27, 2017, and speaks only as of that date. Changes in the operations and prospects of FCB and Floridian Community, general market and economic conditions and other factors which are both within and outside of the control of FCB and Floridian Community, on which the fairness opinion is based, may alter the relative value of the companies. Therefore, the fairness opinion does not address the fairness of the Exchange Ratio at the time the Merger will be completed.

We encourage you to obtain a current market quotation for FCB Class A common stock because the value of any FCB shares you receive may be more or less than the value of such shares as of the date of this document.

The merged company's allowance for loan losses may not be adequate to cover actual loan losses.

The merged company's loan customers may not repay their loans according to their terms, and the customers' collateral securing the payment of their loans may be insufficient to assure repayment. As of September 30, 2017, approximately 48.9% of the merged company's loans are comprised of commercial real estate and commercial lines of credit and term and development loans, which can result in higher loan loss experience than residential loans in economic downturns. The underwriting, review and monitoring that will be performed by the merged company's officers and directors cannot eliminate all of the risks related to these loans.

Each of FCB and Floridian Community make various assumptions and judgments about the collectability of their respective loan portfolios and provide an allowance for loan losses based on a number of factors. If the assumptions are wrong or the facts and circumstances subsequently and materially change, the allowance for loan losses and reductions to the value of Floridian Community's assets recorded by FCB at the time of the Merger may not be sufficient to cover the merged company's loan losses. The merged company may have to increase its allowance for loan losses in the future, which could decrease its net income.

Deterioration in loan quality will adversely affect the merged company's results of operations and financial condition.

Each of FCB and Floridian Community seek to mitigate the risks inherent in their respective loan portfolios by adhering to sound underwriting practices. Their lending strategies also include emphasizing diversification on a geographic, industry and customer level, regular credit quality reviews and management reviews of large credit exposures and loans experiencing deterioration of credit quality. There is regular review of their loan portfolios, including internally administered loan watch lists and independent loan reviews. These evaluations take into consideration identified credit problems, as well as the possibility of losses inherent in the loan portfolio that are not specifically identified. Although FCB and Floridian Community each believe its underwriting and loan review procedures are appropriate for the various kinds of loans they make, the merged company's results of operation and financial condition will be adversely affected in the event the quality of their respective loan portfolios deteriorates. As of September 30, 2017, FCB had $19.8 million and Floridian Community had $1.3 million in non-performing loans.

Changes in interest rates may reduce the merged company's net interest income.

Like other financial institutions, the merged company's net interest income will be its primary revenue source. Net interest income is the difference between interest earned on loans and investments and interest expense incurred on deposits and other borrowings. The merged company's net interest income will be affected by changes in market rates of interest, the interest rate sensitivity of its assets and liabilities, prepayments on its loans and investments and limits on increases in the rates of interest charged on its residential real estate loans.

The merged company will not be able to predict or control changes in market rates of interest. Market rates of interest are affected by regional and local economic conditions, as well as monetary policies of the Federal Reserve. The following factors also may affect market interest rates:

inflation;

slow or stagnant economic growth or recession;

unemployment;

money supply;

international disorders;

Table of Contents

instability in domestic and foreign financial markets; and other factors beyond the merged company's control.

Each of FCB and Floridian Community has policies and procedures designed to manage the risks from changes in market interest rates; however, despite risk management, changes in interest rates could adversely affect the merged company's results of operations and financial condition.

Changes in economic conditions and the geographic concentration of the merged company's markets could adversely affect the merged company's financial condition.

The merged company's success will depend to a great extent upon the general economic conditions of south and central Florida. Unlike larger banks that are more geographically diversified, the merged company will provide banking and financial services to customers primarily located in these areas. Favorable economic conditions may not exist in the merged company's markets.

A continued economic slowdown could have the following consequences:

loan delinquencies may increase;

problem assets and foreclosures may increase;

demand for the products and services of Floridian Community and FCB may decline; and collateral for loans made by Floridian Community and FCB may decline in value, in turn reducing customers borrowing power, and reducing the value of assets and collateral associated with existing loans.

Anti-takeover defenses may delay or prevent future mergers.

Provisions contained in FCB's restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws (as amended) and certain provisions of Delaware law could make it more difficult for a third party to acquire FCB, even if doing so might be beneficial to FCB shareholders. See DESCRIPTION OF FCB CAPITAL STOCK Anti-Takeover Considerations and Special Provisions of FCB's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, Bylaws (as amended) and Delaware Law on page 82. These provisions could limit the price that some investors might be willing to pay in the future for shares of FCB Class A common stock and may have the effect of delaying or preventing a change in control.

If the Merger is not completed, the parties will have incurred substantial expenses without realizing the expected benefits.

FCB and Floridian Community have incurred substantial expenses in connection with the transactions described in this proxy statement and prospectus. The completion of the Merger depends on the satisfaction of several conditions. We cannot guarantee that these conditions will be met. Floridian Community expects to incur approximately $1.6 million in pre-tax Merger-related expenses and FCB expects to incur approximately $9.2 million in pre-tax Merger-related expenses, which include legal, accounting and financial advisory expenses and which excludes any termination fees, if applicable. Although some of these expenses will not be incurred if the Merger is not completed, others will and such expenses could have a material adverse impact on the financial condition of FCB and Floridian Community because they would not have realized the expected benefits of the Merger. There can be no assurance that the Merger will be completed.

The Merger Agreement may be terminated in accordance with its terms and the Merger may not be completed, which could have a negative impact on Floridian Community.

The Merger Agreement with FCB is subject to a number of conditions which must be fulfilled in order to close. Those conditions include: Floridian Community shareholder approval, regulatory approvals, the continued accuracy of certain representations and warranties by both parties and the performance by both parties of certain covenants and agreements. There can be no assurance that the Merger will be completed.

In addition, certain circumstances exist where Floridian Community may choose to terminate the Merger Agreement, including the acceptance of a Superior Proposal. See THE MERGER Exchange of Floridian Community Common Stock for a more complete discussion of the consideration to be paid in the Merger and THE MERGER AGREEMENT Termination of the Merger Agreement for a more complete discussion of the circumstances under which the Merger Agreement could be terminated. There can be no assurance that the conditions to closing the Merger will be fulfilled or that the Merger will be completed.

If the Merger Agreement is terminated, there may be various consequences to Floridian Community, including:

Floridian Community's businesses may have been adversely impacted by the failure to pursue other beneficial opportunities due to the focus of management on the Merger, without realizing any of the anticipated benefits of completing the Merger; and Floridian Community will have incurred substantial expenses in connection with the Merger, without realizing any of the anticipated benefits of completing the Merger.

If the Merger Agreement is terminated by Floridian Community due to its acceptance of a Superior Proposal or by FCB due to the failure of Floridian Community's Board of Directors to recommend approval of the Merger Agreement to its shareholders by reason of a Superior Proposal or for certain related reasons, then Floridian Community has agreed pay to FCB a $3,100,000 termination fee. The payment of the termination fee could have a material adverse effect on Floridian Community's financial condition, and there can be no assurance that Floridian Community would be able to complete a transaction with a party willing to pay an equivalent or more attractive price than the price FCB has agreed to pay in the Merger.

The termination fee and the restrictions on solicitation contained in the Merger Agreement may discourage other companies from trying to acquire Floridian Community.

Until the completion of the Merger, with some exceptions, Floridian Community is prohibited from soliciting, initiating, encouraging or participating in any discussion of or otherwise considering any inquiries or proposals that may lead to an Acquisition Proposal, such as a Merger or other business combination transaction, with any person other than FCB. In addition, Floridian Community has agreed to pay a termination fee of $3,100,000 to FCB if the Floridian Community Board of Directors does not recommend approval of the Merger Agreement to the Floridian Community shareholders by reason of a Superior Proposal. These provisions could discourage other companies from trying to acquire Floridian Community even though such other companies might be willing to offer greater value to Floridian Community's shareholders than FCB has offered in the Merger Agreement. The payment of the termination fee also could have a material adverse effect on Floridian Community's financial condition.

The market price of FCB Class A common stock after the Merger may be affected by factors different from those affecting the shares of Floridian Community or FCB currently.

Upon completion of the Merger, holders of Floridian Community common stock will become holders of FCB Class A common stock. FCB's business differs in important respects from that of Floridian Community, and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of FCB Class A common stock after the completion of the Merger may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations of each of FCB and Floridian Community. FCB is, and will continue to be, subject to the risks described in FCB's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016, as updated by subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K, all of which are filed with the SEC and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement and prospectus. See the documents incorporated by reference in this proxy statement and prospectus and referred to under WHERE YOU CAN FIND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION on page 94.

Floridian Community shareholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the Merger and will exercise less influence over management.

Floridian Community's shareholders currently have the right to vote in the election of the Floridian Community Board of Directors and on other matters affecting Floridian Community. When the Merger occurs, each Floridian Community shareholder will become a shareholder of FCB with a percentage ownership of the combined organization that is smaller than the shareholder's percentage ownership of Floridian Community. Because of this, Floridian Community's shareholders will have less influence over the management and policies of FCB than they now have over the management and policies of Floridian Community.

Risk Factors Relating to the Merger

Regulatory approvals may not be received, may take longer than expected or may impose conditions that are not presently anticipated or that could have an adverse effect on the combined company following the Merger.

The transactions contemplated in the Merger Agreement cannot be completed until FCB receives necessary regulatory approvals, which include the approval of the Federal Reserve and the OCC under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended (the BHC Act) and the Bank Merger Act, respectively. In determining whether to grant these approvals, the regulators consider a variety of factors, including the regulatory standing of each party and the factors described under THE MERGER Regulatory Approvals. An adverse development in either party's regulatory standing or these factors could result in an inability to obtain approvals or delay their receipt. These regulators may impose conditions on the completion of the Merger or the Bank Merger or require changes to the terms of the Merger or the Bank Merger. Such conditions or changes could have the effect of delaying or preventing completion of the Merger or the Bank Merger or imposing additional costs on or limiting the revenues of the combined company following the Merger and the Bank Merger, any of which might have an adverse effect on the combined company following the Merger. Regulatory approvals could also be impacted based on the status of any ongoing investigation of either party or its customers, including subpoenas to provide information or investigations, by a federal, state or local governmental agency. We cannot guarantee that we will be able to obtain all required regulatory approvals, the timing of those approvals or whether any conditions will be imposed.

Certain of Floridian Community's directors and executive officers have interests in the Merger that may differ from the interests of Floridian Community's shareholders.

Floridian Community shareholders should be aware that some of Floridian Community's executive officers and directors have interests in the Merger and have arrangements that are different from, or in addition to, those of Floridian Community shareholders generally. Floridian Community's Board of Directors was aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, when making its decision to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement, and in recommending that Floridian Community shareholders vote in favor of approving the Merger Agreement. For a description of these interests, see THE MERGER Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger on page 52.

Floridian Community and FCB will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the Merger is pending.

Uncertainty about the effect of the Merger on employees and customers may have an adverse effect on Floridian Community or FCB. These uncertainties may impair Floridian Community's or FCB's ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the Merger is completed, and could cause customers and others that deal with Floridian Community or FCB to seek to change existing business relationships with Floridian Community or FCB. Retention of certain employees by Floridian Community or FCB may be challenging while the Merger is pending, as certain employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles with Floridian Community or FCB. If key employees depart because of issues relating to the uncertainty and difficulty of integration or a desire not to remain with Floridian Community or FCB, Floridian Community's and/or FCB's business could be harmed. In addition, subject to certain exceptions, each of Floridian Community and FCB has agreed to operate its business in the ordinary course prior to closing. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Conduct of Business Pending the Merger on page 59 for a description of the restrictive covenants applicable to Floridian Community and FCB while the Merger is pending.

The shares of FCB Class A common stock to be received by Floridian Community shareholders as a result of the Merger will have different rights from the shares of Floridian Community common stock.

Upon completion of the Merger, Floridian Community shareholders will become FCB shareholders and their rights as shareholders will be governed by the FCB restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws (as amended). The rights associated with Floridian Community common stock may be different from the rights associated with FCB Class A common stock. Please see COMPARISON OF SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS beginning on page 85 for a discussion of the different rights associated with FCB Class A common stock.

The Merger may fail to qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal tax purposes, resulting in your recognition of taxable gain or loss in respect of your shares of Floridian Community common stock.

Floridian Community and FCB intends the Merger to qualify as a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Although the IRS will not provide a ruling on the matter, each of FCB and Floridian Community will, as a condition to closing, obtain an opinion from their respective legal counsel that the Merger will constitute a reorganization for federal income tax purposes. These opinions will not bind the IRS or prevent the IRS from adopting a contrary position. If the Merger fails to qualify as a reorganization, you generally would recognize gain or loss on each share of Floridian Community common share surrendered in an amount equal to the difference between your adjusted tax basis in that share and the fair market value of the Merger Consideration received in exchange for that share upon completion of the Merger.

Floridian Community shareholders will have dissenters' rights of appraisal in the Merger.

Dissenters' rights are statutory rights that, if applicable under law, enable shareholders to dissent from an extraordinary transaction, such as a Merger, and to demand that the corporation pay the fair value for their shares as determined by a court in a judicial proceeding instead of receiving the consideration offered to shareholders in connection with the extraordinary transaction. The shareholders of Floridian Community will have the rights accorded to dissenting shareholders under Sections 607.1301 – 607.1333 of the FBCA. The fair value determined through a judicial proceeding may be more or less than the consideration offered under the Merger Agreement. As a result, FCB bears the risk that payments owed to dissenting shareholders may exceed the consideration outlined in this proxy statement and prospectus.

THE FLORIDIAN COMMUNITY SPECIAL MEETING

Floridian Community

General Information

We are furnishing this document to the shareholders of Floridian Community in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of Floridian Community of proxies for use at the Floridian Community special meeting of shareholders to be held on February 20, 2018, at 9:00 a.m. local time, at Floridian Community Bank's Delray Beach Branch Office at 4850 West Atlantic Avenue, Delray Beach, Florida 33445. This document is first being mailed to Floridian Community shareholders on or about January 19, 2018, and includes the notice of Floridian Community special meeting, and is accompanied by a form of proxy.

Matters To Be Considered

The purposes of the special meeting are as follows:

1. Merger Proposal. To consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the Merger Agreement and to approve the transactions contemplated thereby. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will be merged with and into Floridian Community, with Floridian Community becoming wholly owned by FCB. Immediately thereafter, Floridian Community will merge with and into FCB, with FCB as the surviving corporation. In addition, following the Merger, Floridian Community Bank will merge with and into FCB Bank.
2. Adjournment Proposal. To approve one (1) or more adjournments of the Floridian Community special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the Merger Proposal.

The Merger Agreement is attached to this document as Annex A and is incorporated in this document by reference. For a description of the Merger Agreement, see THE MERGER AGREEMENT, beginning on page 56.

Vote Required

Approval of the Merger Proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Floridian Community common stock. Approval of the Adjournment Proposal requires the affirmative vote of holders of those shares represented and entitled to vote at the special meeting where a quorum is present. Floridian Community has fixed January 10, 2018, as the record date for determining those Floridian Community shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting. Accordingly, if you were a Floridian Community shareholder of record at the close of business on January 10, 2018, you are entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting. Each share of Floridian Community common stock you own on the record date entitles you to one (1) vote on each matter presented at the special meeting. At the close of business on the record date of January 10, 2018, there were 3,411,801 shares of Floridian Community common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the meeting held by approximately 309 shareholders of record.

The holder of Floridian Community non-voting common stock is not being solicited by this proxy statement and prospectus to vote for the Merger Proposal. That holder will vote its shares as a separate class and is bound by a voting agreement, as described below.

Voting Agreement

All of the directors, certain officers and certain significant shareholders of Floridian Community entered into a voting agreement with FCB to cause all shares of Floridian Community common stock owned by them of record or beneficially to be voted in favor of the Merger Proposal. As of the record date, the directors, officers and the shareholders of Floridian Community that executed such voting agreements had the power to vote, or caused to be voted, an aggregate of 1,185,183.92 shares of Floridian Community voting common stock outstanding, representing approximately 34.74% of Floridian Community's voting common stock outstanding on that date, and an aggregate of 372,195 shares of Floridian Community non-voting common stock outstanding, representing approximately 89.55% of Floridian Community's outstanding non-voting common stock on that date. A copy of the form of these voting agreements is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement and prospectus. Other than directors and certain officers of Floridian Community, the only shareholders that executed the Voting Agreement owned five percent or more of Floridian Community's outstanding common stock, as of November 27, 2017. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Voting Agreement on page 69.

Proxies

If you are a Floridian Community shareholder, you should have received a proxy card for use at the Floridian Community special meeting with this proxy statement and prospectus. The accompanying proxy card is for your use in voting at the special meeting if you are unable or do not wish to attend the special meeting in person. The shares represented by proxies properly signed and returned will be voted at the special meeting as instructed by the Floridian Community shareholder giving the proxies. Proxy cards that are properly signed and returned but do not have voting instructions will be voted FOR approval of the Merger Proposal and FOR approval of the Adjournment Proposal.

If you deliver a properly signed proxy card, you may revoke your proxy at any time before it is exercised by:

delivering to Floridian Community at or prior to the special meeting a written notice of revocation addressed to Floridian Community, 5599 South University Drive, Davie, Florida 33328, Attention: Ulises I. Alonso, Assistant Corporate Secretary; or delivering to Floridian Community at or prior to the special meeting a properly completed proxy card having a later date; or voting in person by ballot at the special shareholders meeting.

Because approval of each of the Merger Proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Floridian Community common stock, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as voting AGAINST approval of the Merger. Accordingly, your Board of Directors urges all Floridian Community shareholders to vote by proxy by completing, dating and signing the accompanying proxy and returning it promptly in the enclosed postage-paid envelope. You should not send stock certificates with your proxy card.

Solicitation of Proxies

Floridian Community and FCB each bear and pay one-half of the costs (excluding the fees and disbursements of counsel, financial advisors and accountants) incurred in connection with the copying, printing and distributing the proxy statement and prospectus. In addition to solicitation of proxies by mail, proxies may be solicited personally or by telephone by directors, officers and certain employees of Floridian Community, who will not be specially compensated for such soliciting.

In soliciting proxies, no one has any authority to make any representations and warranties about the Merger or the Merger Proposal in addition to or contrary to the provisions stated in this document. No statement regarding the Merger, the Merger Agreement or the Merger Proposal should be relied upon except as expressly stated in this document.

Recommendation of the Floridian Community Board of Directors

Floridian Community's Board of Directors has unanimously approved the Merger Agreement. Floridian Community's Board of Directors believes that the Merger is fair to and in the best interests of Floridian Community and its shareholders. The Floridian Community Board of Directors recommends that the Floridian Community shareholders vote FOR approval of the Merger Proposal and FOR approval of the Adjournment Proposal. See THE MERGER Floridian Community's Reasons for the Merger and the Recommendation of Floridian's Board of Directors on page 35.

Other Matters

In accordance with Florida law, no matters other than the Merger Proposal and the Adjournment Proposal may be voted on at the special meeting.

MERGER PROPOSAL

Floridian Community is asking its shareholders to approve the Merger Proposal. Holders of Floridian Community common stock should read this proxy statement and prospectus carefully and in its entirety, including the annexes, for more detailed information concerning the Merger Agreement and the Merger. A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached to this proxy statement and prospectus as Annex A.

After careful consideration, the Board of Directors of Floridian Community unanimously approved and adopted the Merger Agreement and determined it to be advisable and in the best interest of Floridian Community and its shareholders. See THE MERGER Floridian Community's Reasons for the Merger and the Recommendation of Floridian's Board of Directors included elsewhere in this proxy statement and prospectus for a more detailed discussion of the Floridian Community Board of Directors' recommendation.

For the reasons discussed in this proxy statement and prospectus, the Board of Directors of Floridian Community determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are advisable and in the best interests of Floridian Community and its shareholders, and unanimously adopted and approved the Merger Agreement. The Board of Directors of Floridian Community recommends that Floridian Community shareholders vote FOR approval of the Merger Proposal.

ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL

The Floridian Community special meeting may be adjourned to another time or place, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the Floridian Community special meeting to approve the Merger Proposal.

If, at the Floridian Community special meeting, the number of shares of Floridian Community common stock present or represented and voting in favor of the Merger Proposal is insufficient to approve the Merger Proposal, Floridian Community intends to move to adjourn the Floridian Community special meeting in order to enable the Board of Directors of Floridian Community to solicit additional proxies for approval of the Merger Proposal. In that event, Floridian Community will ask its shareholders to vote upon the Adjournment Proposal, but not the Merger Proposal.

In this Adjournment Proposal, Floridian Community is asking its shareholders to authorize the holder of any proxy solicited by the Board of Directors of Floridian Community, on a discretionary basis, to vote in favor of adjourning the Floridian Community special meeting to another time and place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from Floridian Community shareholders who have previously voted.

The Board of Directors of Floridian Community recommends a vote FOR the Adjournment Proposal.

THE MERGER

At the special meeting, the shareholders of Floridian Community will consider and vote upon approval of the Merger Agreement. The following summary highlights certain information about the Merger. To understand the Merger, you should read carefully this entire proxy statement and prospectus, including the Merger Agreement, which is attached to this document as Annex A.

Description of the Merger

Under the terms and subject to the conditions of the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will be merged with and into Floridian Community, with Floridian Community becoming wholly owned by FCB. Immediately thereafter, Floridian Community will merge with and into FCB and the separate corporate existence of Floridian Community will cease. In addition, following the Merger, Floridian Community Bank will merge with and into FCB Bank and Floridian Community Bank will cease to exist as a separate entity. The restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws (as amended) of FCB, as in effect prior to the Merger, will be the restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws (as amended) of FCB after the Merger.

Exchange of Floridian Community Common Stock

The Merger Agreement provides that Floridian Community shareholders will have the right, with respect to each of their shares of Floridian Community common stock, to receive, without interest, 0.4584 shares (the Exchange Ratio) of FCB Class A common stock (the Merger Consideration), subject to the payment of cash instead of fractional shares.

If FCB changes the number of outstanding shares of FCB Class A common stock before the Merger through any stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization or similar transaction, then the Exchange Ratio will be proportionately adjusted so that Floridian Community shareholders will receive such number of shares of FCB Class A common stock as represents the same percentage of outstanding shares of FCB Class A common stock at the effective date of the Merger as would have been represented by the number of shares of FCB Class A common stock such shareholder would have received if the recapitalization had not occurred.

FCB will not issue fractional shares to Floridian Community shareholders. Instead, holders of Floridian Community common stock will receive for each fractional share an amount in cash (without interest and rounded to the nearest cent) determined by multiplying (i) the fractional interest by (ii) the per share volume weighted average price of the Class A common stock of FCB on the NYSE from 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the ten (10) trading days immediately preceding the closing date of the Merger as found on Bloomberg page FCB UN EQUITY VWAP (or its equivalent successor page if such page is not available) (the Merger Consideration Value Per Share).

If you are a Floridian Community shareholder and you receive FCB Class A common stock as Merger Consideration for your shares of Floridian Community common stock, the value of the consideration that you will receive in the Merger will depend on the market price of FCB Class A common stock when you receive your shares of FCB Class A common stock. The implied per share value of the stock consideration, based upon FCB's closing stock price on January 9, 2018, the most recent practicable trading day before the date of this proxy statement and prospectus, was $24.36 per share. No assurance can be given (and it is not likely) that the current market price of FCB Class A common stock will be equivalent to the market price of FCB Class A common stock on the date that shares of FCB Class A common stock are received by a Floridian Community shareholder or at any other time.

On or prior to the effective date of the Merger, FCB will deposit with the exchange agent for the Merger (the Exchange Agent), stock certificates or, at FCB's option, shares in book entry form of FCB Class A common stock, each to be given to the holders of Floridian Community common stock in exchange for old certificates (or shares in book entry form) representing shares of Floridian Community common stock. Within five (5) business days following the effective date of the Merger, FCB will mail a letter of transmittal to each person who was, immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, a holder of record of Floridian Community common stock. The letter of transmittal will contain instructions for use in effecting the surrender of Floridian Community stock certificates (or shares in book entry form) in exchange for the consideration to which such person may be entitled pursuant to the Merger Agreement. Following the effective date of the Merger and the surrender to the Exchange Agent of the old certificate(s) representing shares of Floridian Community common stock for cancellation, together with such letter of transmittal duly executed and completed, the holder of such old certificate(s) (or shares in book entry form) will be provided certificates, or at FCB's option, evidence of shares in book entry form representing shares of FCB Class A common stock and/or a check in the amount to which such holder is entitled pursuant to the Merger Agreement, and the old certificate will be canceled.

Until you surrender your Floridian Community stock certificates (or shares in book entry form) for exchange, you will accrue, but will not be paid, any dividends or other distributions declared after the effective time of the Merger with respect to FCB Class A common stock into which any of your shares may have been converted. When you surrender your Floridian Community stock certificates (or shares in book entry form), FCB will pay any unpaid dividends or other distributions, without interest. After the completion of the Merger, there will be no transfers on the stock transfer books of Floridian Community of any shares of Floridian Community common stock.

If a certificate for Floridian Community common stock has been lost, stolen or destroyed, FCB will issue the consideration properly payable under the Merger Agreement to the registered owner of such certificate upon receipt of an affidavit of lost stock certificate, in form and substance satisfactory to FCB, and upon compliance by the Floridian Community's shareholder with all procedures historically required by Floridian Community in connection with lost, stolen or destroyed certificates.

Effect of the Merger on Floridian Community Stock Options

Upon completion of the Merger, each outstanding Floridian Community stock option (vested or unvested) will be cancelled and terminated in exchange for the right to receive cash, without any interest and subject to any required withholding tax, in an amount equal to the Merger Consideration Value Per Share minus the applicable exercise price per share of such outstanding stock option. In the event that the exercise price of any Floridian Community stock option outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the Merger is greater than or equal to the Merger Consideration Value Per Share, no cash payment or other consideration for such stock option will be due or payable in respect thereof and such stock option will be cancelled as of the completion of the Merger.

Pursuant to the terms of Floridian Community's 2012 Stock Compensation Plan, upon the approval by Floridian Community's shareholders of the Merger and the Merger Agreement, all outstanding Floridian Community stock options (whether vested or unvested) shall become immediately exercisable, non-forfeitable, or otherwise vest and become irrevocable.

Effect of the Merger on FCB Shareholders

The approval of the FCB shareholders of the Merger Agreement is not required in order to complete the Merger. FCB shareholders will also not be entitled to exchange their shares of FCB Class A common stock for any consideration as a result of the Merger. After the Merger, FCB shareholders will continue to own the same number of FCB shares they owned before the Merger.

Background of the Merger

The Board of Directors of Floridian Community has regularly reviewed and discussed Floridian Community's long-term objectives and strategies, including how Floridian Community could increase shareholder value in light of economic, regulatory, competitive, and other relevant factors. These discussions have included strategies to enhance Floridian Community's operations and profitability, as well as opportunities to engage in merger or acquisition transactions, as either a buyer or a seller. Since May 2015, when Floridian Community raised $12.6 million in equity capital, these discussions became more frequent and focused on either acquiring another financial institution, engaging in a merger-of-equals, or merging with and into a larger bank.

As a result of those discussions, beginning in the first quarter of 2016, Floridian Community's Board of Directors began to actively evaluate the potential of engaging in a merger-of-equals with certain other banks located in Floridian Community's market areas. After meeting with representatives of two such other financial institutions, the Board of Directors ultimately concluded that such a transaction was unlikely to be successful due to differences in corporate culture, board and management structure, or the financial metrics of those institutions relative to Floridian Community's.

On March 20, 2017, representatives of investment banking firm and financial advisors, Hovde, met with Floridian Community's Board of Directors. At this meeting, the Hovde representatives presented their analysis of Floridian Community's strategic options and suggested that it might be a favorable time to begin casually meeting with potential acquirers.

In April and May, 2017, Hovde arranged introductory meetings between Joseph S. Marzouca, Chief Executive Officer of Floridian Community, and representatives of three publicly traded bank holding companies, including FCB. In August, 2017, Mr. Marzouca met with a representative of Hovde to discuss the results of these meetings and the outlook for Florida bank mergers in the near future.

On August 23, 2017, FCB contacted Hovde and expressed an interest in exploring the possibility of acquiring Floridian Community and requested some preliminary due diligence information in order to formulate an offer price. On August 24, 2017, Mr. Marzouca met with Messrs. Kent Ellert, Jim Baiter, Matthew Paluch and Jon Kiessling at FCB. On August 25, 2017, Floridian Community entered into a Non-Disclosure Agreement with FCB and Floridian Community began to provide to FCB information about Floridian Community's business and financial performance and projections.

In August and September, 2017, Mr. Marzouca held a number of meetings with Mr. Ellert, Mr. Baiter and Mr. Paluch. At these meetings, the participants discussed how Floridian Community's business could be integrated into FCB's, including the potential for cost savings as a result of branch office and operational overlap.

During this period, the other two publicly traded holding companies declined to proceed with exploring a transaction with Floridian Community.

In September 2017, an out-of-state bank contacted Hovde to express an interest in meeting Mr. Marzouca to discuss the possibility of acquiring Floridian Community. On September 20, 2017, Mr. Marzouca met with a representative of that bank. Following that meeting, the out-of-state bank elected not to proceed towards an acquisition due to market conditions.

Also on September 20, 2017, Floridian Community formally engaged Hovde to serve as Floridian Community's financial advisor with respect to a potential acquisition by FCB. On September 26, 2017, FCB submitted an initial non-binding indication of interest to Floridian Community. The proposed letter of intent proposed merger consideration of $21.00 to $22.00 per share, payable in shares of FCB Class A common stock, and also included other typical provisions.

On October 2, 2017, Floridian Community's Board of Directors met with a representative of Hovde to discuss the initial indication of interest. The Board of Directors elected to proceed with direct negotiations with FCB, because:

- (i) the Board viewed them as the most likely to be capable and interested in acquiring Floridian

Community; (ii) the Board wanted to be able to propose to Floridian Community's shareholders a transaction that would be qualified as a tax-free reorganization under Federal income tax laws and provide the shareholders with the liquidity afforded by a publicly-traded stock; and (iii) the Board wanted to provide the shareholders with an opportunity to remain invested in a community banking institution with a perceived potential for future stock appreciation, which would be composed, in part, with Floridian Community's assets, liabilities, and operations. The Board of Directors also advised the Hovde representative that it would only consider a transaction with merger consideration at or above $22.00 per share.

On October 4, 2017, Floridian Community entered into an exclusivity agreement in favor of FCB and for a term ending on October 27, 2017. During this time, Floridian Community established a virtual data room to facilitate due diligence. At this time, FCB began conducting extensive due diligence of non-public information related to Floridian Community, including through in person meetings and conference calls between FCB management and selected officers of Floridian Community who were responsible for various aspects of Floridian Community's operations. These meetings and conference calls included discussions of credit, management, and other matters concerning Floridian Community. During this period, Floridian Community engaged Saltmarsh, Cleaveland & Gund, P.A. (Saltmarsh) to assist in reverse due diligence concerning FCB, which included meetings with management, accountants, and legal officers of FCB and further documentary due diligence including both non-public and public information. Floridian Community's long time outside corporate counsel, Iglar and Pearlman, P.A. (Iglar and Pearlman), also assisted in the reverse due diligence process.

On October 11, 2017, Mr. Marzouca and Mr. Ellert met for lunch and to discuss the status of due diligence. On October 20, 2017, at FCB's request, Floridian Community agreed to extend the term of the exclusivity agreement to November 15, 2017.

On October 28, 2017, Sullivan & Cromwell LLP (Sullivan & Cromwell), FCB's legal counsel, sent a draft merger agreement to FCB. This draft was ultimately distributed to Floridian Community and Iglar and Pearlman. This draft contemplated per share merger consideration equal to $22.00 divided by the average of the per share closing prices of FCB Class A common stock on the NYSE for 20 trading days ending on the fifth business day prior to execution of the Merger Agreement. The draft Merger Agreement also included a draft of a form of voting agreement, pursuant to which Floridian Community directors, officers and certain large shareholders would agree to vote in favor of the merger. Following receipt of the initial drafts, the parties began negotiating the terms of the Merger Agreement and the Voting Agreements.

On November 1, 2017, during a regularly scheduled meeting of the FCB Board of Directors, FCB management and a representative from Evercore discussed the potential transaction with Floridian Community with the FCB Board of Directors. During the meeting, FCB management described the discussions, meetings and activities relating to the potential transaction to date, including due diligence findings and meetings, and provided the FCB Board of Directors with a high level overview of Floridian Community. The FCB Board of Directors determined that FCB should work towards a potential transaction with Floridian Community.

On November 3, 2017, Mr. Marzouca and Mr. Ellert spoke by telephone regarding the negotiations of the Merger Agreement and the status of due diligence.

On November 13, 2017, Sullivan & Cromwell sent an initial draft of a form employment agreement, which included provisions regarding confidentiality, non-solicitation and non-competition, to Gunster, Yoakley & Stewart, P.A. (Gunster), counsel to Messrs. Marzouca, Lee A. Frankhouser, President of Floridian Community, and Ulises I. Alonso, Chief Financial Officer of Floridian Community. Following receipt of the initial draft, Gunster worked with Sullivan & Cromwell towards negotiating the employment agreements.

On November 14, 2017, again at FCB's request, Floridian Community agreed to extend the term of the exclusivity agreement until November 27, 2017.

Table of Contents

Throughout November, the parties negotiated drafts of the transaction documents and Iglar and Pearlman and Gunster coordinated the review of the proposed documents by Floridian Community, Floridian Community's officers and directors and certain large shareholders of Floridian Community.

On November 17, 2017, Floridian Community's Board of Directors met with its counsel and a representative of Hovde. A representative of Saltmarsh attended the meeting by telephone. The Saltmarsh representative presented a summary of its extensive reverse due diligence review of FCB, which included, among other things, a review of FCB's financial statements, management, record of compliance, litigation and the potential effect of the Merger on future acquisitions by FCB. The Saltmarsh representative also responded to various questions from directors. Management reported favorably regarding the complementary business objectives of FCB and Floridian Community, noting that the respective customer focus, geographic coverage and historical relationships with borrowers and customers of FCB and Floridian Community evidenced that the companies shared a similar business orientation.

Following this discussion, the Hovde representative then presented an analysis of the Merger, including an overview of the Merger, a valuation analysis using the market approach and an income approach, an analysis of FCB, and an analysis of accretion and dilution of book value and earnings. He also explained in detail the assumptions used in these analyses. The Hovde representative then discussed the independence of Hovde employees who performed the analysis from the investment banking team. The Board reviewed the analysis in detail and the Hovde representative responded to several questions relating to deal structure on previous transactions and pricing considerations. At this meeting, Hovde delivered its oral opinion to the Floridian Community Board of Directors, subsequently confirmed in writing, to the effect that as of November 17, 2017, assuming a per share merger consideration equal to $22.00 divided by the average of the per share closing prices of FCB Class A common stock on the NYSE for 20 trading days ending on the previous business day, and based upon and subject to various assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken described in its opinion, the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to Floridian Community's shareholders, as described under "Opinion of Floridian Community's Financial Advisor".

A representative of Iglar and Pearlman then discussed the Board's fiduciary duties and presented a summary of the Merger Agreement which the Board reviewed. He next provided a review of the Merger Agreement. He explained that the Merger Agreement includes all of the technical information regarding the Merger. He explained the shareholders dissenters' rights under Florida law. He then reviewed how fractional shares would be redeemed for cash and the process by which Floridian Community stock certificates would be exchanged for FCB stock certificates. He then reviewed the representations and warranties to be made by Floridian Community and by FCB, the covenants of both parties, the conditions to closing, and the termination provisions. In particular, he discussed in detail Floridian Community's commitment not to market itself, the process by which it could consider a superior, unsolicited offer and the terms of the termination fee. He also discussed the voting agreements required by the Merger Agreement.

Mr. Marzouca next presented a formal resolution to approve the proposal by FCB to acquire Floridian Community and Floridian Community Bank through a series of mergers, approve the Merger Agreement, and recommend that Floridian Community's shareholders approve the Merger and the Merger Agreement. Following extensive discussion at the November 17, 2017 meeting and after considering the foregoing and the proposed terms of the transaction documents, and taking into consideration the factors described under "The Merger - Floridian's Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of Floridian Community's Board of Directors," the Floridian Community Board of Directors, having determined that the terms of FCB's proposal, the related Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, were fair to and in the best interests of Floridian Community and its shareholders, approved and declared advisable the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, and a motion to approve the resolution was unanimously approved. Floridian Community's Board of Directors directed that the Merger Agreement be submitted to Floridian Community's shareholders for approval, and recommended that shareholders vote in favor of the approval of the Merger Agreement.

Table of Contents

On November 22, 2017, as FCB assessed its due diligence findings and the recent trading prices of FCB Class A common stock and as part of the final negotiations of the Merger Agreement, Floridian Community and FCB reached an agreement to set an exchange ratio of 0.4584 shares of FCB Class A common stock per share of Floridian Community common stock. Application of the exchange ratio formula contained in the October 28, 2017 draft of the Merger Agreement would have resulted in an exchange ratio of 0.4649 shares of FCB Class A common stock per share of Floridian Community common stock. Hovde then confirmed that the lower exchange ratio was fair, from a financial point of view, to Floridian Community's shareholders. Later that evening, Floridian Community's Board of Directors unanimously adopted an amendment to its resolution of November 17, 2017, which approved the Merger Agreement with the final exchange ratio included.

On November 27, 2017, the FCB Board of Directors met with members of FCB's executive management team and its financial and legal advisors to review the proposed transaction. Members of FCB's executive management discussed with FCB's Board of Directors the strategic rationale, financial terms, consideration and integration risk for the proposed transaction with Floridian Community. Representatives of Evercore presented to the FCB Board of Directors on the financial aspects of the proposed transaction. Sullivan & Cromwell reviewed the key terms of the draft merger agreement and other transaction documents.

Following these discussions, as well as review and discussion among FCB's directors, including consideration of the factors described under FCB's Reasons for the Merger, and consideration of the above referenced presentations, the FCB Board of Directors unanimously approved and adopted the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, and declared the merger and other transaction contemplated by the Merger Agreement to be advisable and in the best interests of FCB and its stockholders.

On November 27, 2017, Hovde issued its formal written fairness opinion to Floridian Community. The Merger Agreement and related documents were executed by the parties on November 27, 2017. The transaction was publicly announced that evening.

FCB's Reasons for the Merger

In reaching its decision to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the FCB Board of Directors consulted with FCB management and considered a number of factors, including the following material factors:

each of FCB's and Floridian Community's business, operations, financial condition, asset quality, earnings and prospects. In reviewing these factors, the FCB Board of Directors considered that the Merger (1) will expand FCB's business within demographically attractive markets in southeast Florida; (2) will increase FCB's core deposit base, an important funding source; (3) will provide FCB with an experienced management team and quality bank branches in and around southeast Florida; and (4) will provide FCB with the opportunity to sell FCB's broad array of products to Floridian Community's client base; its understanding of the current and prospective environment in which FCB and Floridian Community operate, including national and local economic conditions, the competitive environment for financial institutions generally, and the likely effect of these factors on FCB both with and without the proposed transaction;

its review and discussions with FCB's management concerning the due diligence examination of Floridian Community;

the complementary nature of the cultures of the two companies, which management believes should facilitate integration and implementation of the transaction;

the financial and other terms of the Merger Agreement, including the fixed Exchange Ratio, tax treatment and deal protection and termination fee provisions, which it reviewed with its outside financial and legal advisors;

the potential risk of diverting management attention and resources from the operation of FCB's business towards the completion of the Merger; and the regulatory and other approvals required in connection with the Merger and the expectation that such regulatory approvals will be received in a timely manner and without the imposition of unacceptable conditions.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the FCB Board of Directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by the FCB Board of Directors. In reaching its decision to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the FCB Board of Directors did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The FCB Board of Directors considered all these factors as a whole, including discussions with, and questioning of, FCB's management and FCB's financial and legal advisors, and overall considered the factors to be favorable to, and to support, its determination.

For the reasons set forth above, the FCB Board of Directors unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are advisable and in the best interests of FCB and its shareholders, and unanimously approved and adopted the Merger Agreement.

Floridian Community's Reasons for the Merger and the Recommendation of Floridian Community's Board of Directors

Floridian Community's Board of Directors believes that the Merger presents an opportunity for Floridian Community and its shareholders to become part of a large and strong commercial bank, operating in Floridian Community's current markets and other significant markets within Florida. Floridian Community's Board of Directors believes that the Merger will afford FCB the opportunity to expand and diversify its revenue sources, provide for earnings per share accretion due to cost savings opportunities, and sustain its robust loan and deposit origination trends in the markets where both Floridian Community and FCB currently have offices.

The terms of the Merger, including the Merger Consideration, are the result of substantive arm's-length negotiations between representatives of Floridian Community and FCB, including financial, accounting, and legal advisors. In reaching its decision to approve the Merger, Floridian Community's Board of Directors consulted with those advisors regarding the terms of the transaction and conducted negotiations with FCB's management. In approving the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, Floridian Community's Board of Directors considered, among other things, the following factors:

the value of the consideration to be received by Floridian Community's shareholders relative to recent book value and earnings per share of Floridian Community common stock, including the relationship between the consideration and Floridian Community's book value and earnings per share, and the book value and earnings per share of FCB;

the exchange ratio of 0.4584 shares of FCB Class A common stock for each share of Floridian Community common stock is fixed and will not fluctuate based on the trading prices of FCB Class A common stock prior to closing, which will allow Floridian Community's shareholders to benefit from any increase in the market price of FCB Class A common stock;

Floridian Community's right to terminate the Merger Agreement, if, subject to FCB's ability to increase the exchange ratio, the average of the daily closing sales prices of a share of FCB Class A common stock for the ten consecutive trading days preceding the later of the date on which all required regulatory approvals have been obtained or the date on which Floridian Community's shareholders approve the Merger is less than $41.6075 per share (subject to customary anti-dilution adjustments) and certain other per share valuation metrics described in the Merger Agreement are met;

information about FCB and Floridian Community, including, but not limited to, the business and financial condition, results of operations, earnings, business prospects, and financial obligations, including financial obligations to be incurred in connection with the Merger;

the fact that the Merger Consideration will consist of shares of FCB Class A common stock, which will allow Floridian Community shareholders to participate in the future performance of FCB's business and synergies resulting from the Merger;

the potential that FCB will receive greater attention from investors and potential strategic partners or acquirers due to its larger size;

the competence, experience, and integrity of the management of FCB;

the prospects of the successful execution of the proposed transactions;

the financial terms of recent merger and acquisition transactions involving banks and bank holding companies, particularly in Florida, and a comparison of the financial metrics of such transactions with the terms of the proposed Merger with FCB;

the alternatives to the Merger, including Floridian Community's prospects as an independent financial institution;

the need for additional capital to support Floridian Community's future growth and operations, including the expenses associated with raising such capital and the terms on, and prices at, which Floridian Community could obtain such capital;

the competitive and regulatory environment for Floridian Community and financial institutions generally;

the fact that the Merger is intended to be structured as a tax-free exchange, providing certain tax benefits to the extent that shareholders receive FCB Class A common stock in the Merger;

FCB's history of successful integration of other acquired financial institutions;

FCB's larger size, which should allow it to compete more effectively through broader product offerings and a larger legal lending limit; and the opinion of Hovde that the Merger Consideration is fair, from a financial point of view, to the shareholders of Floridian Community.

Floridian Community's Board of Directors also considered potential risks associated with the Merger in connection with its deliberations, including the following:

the potential diversion of management attention and resources from the operation of Floridian Community's business towards the completion of the Merger;

the requirement that Floridian Community conduct its business in the ordinary course and subject to certain restrictions prior to the completion of the Merger, which may delay or prevent Floridian Community from exploiting business opportunities that may arise pending completion of the Merger;

the potential for other delays in receiving necessary regulatory approvals and in obtaining an order of effectiveness for the Registration Statement of which this proxy statement and prospectus is a part;

the possibility that FCB will not be able to achieve anticipated cost savings or successfully integrate Floridian Community's business, operations, and employees with those of FCB;

the possibility that the $3.1 million termination fee will discourage other parties that might be interested in making a superior offer to Floridian Community from proposing such a transaction and the fact that Floridian Community does not have the right to terminate the Merger Agreement if it receives such a proposal; and the impact of Floridian Community's Merger-related costs, which Floridian Community will incur regardless of whether the Merger is consummated, on its financial condition.

Floridian Community's Board of Directors considered all of these factors and risks as a whole and believes that the opportunities created by the Merger cause the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement to be in the best interests of Floridian Community and its shareholders.

The foregoing discussion of the factors and risks considered by Floridian Community's Board of Directors is not exhaustive, but includes the most significant factors and risks considered by the Board of Directors. In view of the wide variety of factors and risks considered by Floridian Community's Board of Directors in connection with its evaluation of the Merger and the complexity of those matters, the Board of Directors did not consider it practical to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank, or otherwise assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its decision. In considering the factors and risks described above, individual members of Floridian Community's Board of Directors may have given different priority to different factors.

Floridian Community's entry into the Merger Agreement was unanimously approved by Floridian Community's Board of Directors on November 17, 2017 and the final exchange ratio was unanimously approved on November 22, 2017.

The Board of Directors of Floridian Community unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and recommends that Floridian Community's shareholders vote FOR the approval of the Merger Proposal and FOR the Adjournment Proposal. Floridian Community shareholders should be aware that Floridian Community's directors and executive officers have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, those of other Floridian Community shareholders. The Board of Directors of Floridian Community was aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the Merger Agreement, and in recommending that the Merger Proposal be approved by the shareholders of Floridian Community. See THE MERGER Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger on page 52.

This summary of the reasoning of the Board of Directors of Floridian Community and other information presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under the heading FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS.

Opinion of Hovde

The fairness opinion and a summary of the underlying financial analyses of Floridian Community's financial advisor, Hovde, are described below. The summary and description contains projections, estimates and other forward-looking statements about the future earnings or other measures of the future performance of Floridian Community. The projections were based on numerous variables and assumptions, which are inherently uncertain, including factors related to general economic and competitive conditions. Accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those set forth in the projections. You should not rely on any of these statements as having been made or adopted by Floridian Community or FCB. You should review the copy of the fairness opinion, which is attached as Annex C.

Hovde is a nationally recognized investment banking firm with substantial experience in transactions similar to the Merger and is familiar with Floridian Community and its operations. Hovde has experience in, and knowledge of, banks, thrifts and their respective holding companies and is familiar with Floridian Community. as its financial advisor in connection with the Merger on the basis of the firm's reputation and expertise in transactions such as the Merger.

Hovde reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed Merger with Floridian Community's Board of Directors and, on November 27, 2017, delivered a written opinion to Floridian Community's Board of Directors that the Per Common Share Consideration (as defined below) to be received by the shareholders of Floridian Community in connection with the total value of the Merger is fair to the shareholders of Floridian Community from a financial point of view. In requesting Hovde's advice and opinion, no limitations were imposed by Floridian Community upon Hovde with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed by it in rendering its opinion.

The full text of Hovde's written opinion is included in this proxy statement and prospectus as Annex C and is incorporated herein by reference. You are urged to read the opinion in its entirety for a description of the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Hovde. The summary of the Hovde's opinion included in this proxy statement and prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such opinion.

Hovde's opinion was directed to Floridian Community's Board of Directors and addresses only the fairness of the Per Common Share Consideration to be paid to Floridian Community's shareholders in connection with the Merger. Hovde did not opine on any individual stock, cash, or other components of consideration payable in connection with the Merger. Hovde's opinion does not constitute a recommendation to Floridian Community as to whether or not Floridian Community should enter into the Merger Agreement or to any shareholders of Floridian Community as to how such shareholders should vote at any meetings of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the Merger. Hovde's opinion does not address the underlying business decision to proceed with the Merger or the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation, if any, to be received by any of the officers, directors or employees of Floridian Community relative to the amount of consideration to be paid with respect to the Merger. Hovde's opinion should not be construed as implying that the Per Common Share Consideration is necessarily the highest or best price that could be obtained in a sale, merger, or combination transaction with a third party. Hovde does not express any opinion as to the value of FCB's Class A common stock following the announcement of the proposed Merger, or the value of FCB's Class A common stock following the consummation of the Merger, or the prices at which shares of FCB's Class A common stock may be purchased or sold at any time. Other than as specifically set forth herein, Hovde is not expressing any opinion with respect to the terms and provisions of the Merger Agreement or the enforceability of any such terms or provisions. Hovde's opinion is not a solvency opinion and does not in any way address the solvency or financial condition of Floridian Community or FCB.

Floridian Community engaged Hovde on September 20, 2017, to serve as a financial advisor to Floridian Community in connection with the proposed Merger and to issue a fairness opinion to Floridian Community's Board of Directors in connection with such proposed transaction. Pursuant to Floridian Community's engagement agreement with Hovde, Hovde received from Floridian Community and Floridian Community Bank a fairness opinion fee due upon the delivery of the fairness opinion to Floridian Community's Board of Directors. Additionally, Hovde will receive a completion fee that is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger. The opinion fee will be credited in full towards the completion fee which will become payable to Hovde upon the consummation of the Merger. Floridian Community has also agreed to indemnify Hovde and its affiliates for certain liabilities that may arise out of Hovde's engagement.

Other than in connection with this present engagement, in the past two years, Hovde has not provided investment banking or financial advisory services to Floridian Community. During the past two years preceding the date of this opinion Hovde has not provided any investment banking or financial advisory services to FCB for which it received a fee. Hovde or its affiliates may presently or in the future seek or receive compensation from FCB in connection with future transactions or in connection with potential advisory services and corporate transactions, although to Hovde's knowledge none are expected at this time. In the ordinary course of its business as a broker/dealer, Hovde may from time to time purchase securities from, and sell securities to, Floridian Community or FCB or their affiliates, and as a market maker in securities, Hovde may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of Floridian Community or FCB for its own accounts and for the accounts of customers. Except for the foregoing, during the past two years there have not been, and there currently are, no mutual understandings contemplating in the future, any material relationships between Hovde and Floridian Community or FCB.

Pursuant and subject to the terms of the Merger Agreement, each share of Floridian Community common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, other than Excluded Common Shares and Dissenting Common Shares, will be converted into and constitute the right to receive 0.4584 shares of FCB Class A common stock, rounded to four decimal places (the Per Common Share Consideration) and cash in lieu of any fractional shares. Consequently, the value of the Per Common Share Consideration will be the product of the Per Common Share Consideration and the closing price of FCB Class A common stock as of the Closing Date. For purposes of the analysis and opinion, Hovde has assumed that the closing price of FCB Class A common stock as of the Closing Date is $48.55 (the closing price as of November 24, 2017) which results in the assumed value of the Per Common Stock Consideration of $22.26 per share of Floridian Community common stock. Therefore, based upon there being 3,824,248 shares of Floridian Community s common stock outstanding as of November 24, 2017, Hovde has assumed for purposes of the analysis and opinion that the total value of the Per Common Share Consideration is $85,109,841 (the Total Value of Per Common Share Consideration).

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, each holder of a Floridian Community Stock Option outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time the exercise price per share of which is less than the product of (a) the Per Common Share Consideration and (b) the per share volume weighted average price of FCB Class A common stock for the ten trading days immediately preceding the Closing Date (the product being the Merger Consideration Value Per Share), shall be entitled to receive an amount in cash, without any interest and subject to any required Tax withholding, equal to the product of: (i) the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration Value Per Share over the exercise price per share of Floridian Community common stock subject to such Floridian Community Stock Option; and (ii) the number of shares of Floridian Community common stock subject to such Floridian Community Stock Option. In the event that the exercise price of any Floridian Community Stock Option outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time is equal to or greater than the Merger Consideration Value Per Share, no cash payment or other consideration for such Floridian Community Stock Option shall be due and payable in respect thereof, and the Floridian Community Stock Option shall be cancelled as of the Effective Time. For purposes of its analysis and opinion Hovde assumed that the Merger Consideration Value Per Share is equal to the value of the Per Common Share Consideration of $22.26. As of November 24, 2017, there were 393,500 Floridian Community Stock Options outstanding with a weighted average exercise price of $11.99; therefore, Hovde has assumed, based upon the assumed value of the Merger Consideration Value Per Share of $22.26 as set forth above, that the total value of the Floridian Community Stock Option Payment is $4,037,310 (the Total Floridian Community Stock Option Payment). Consequently, the total value of the Merger which has been assumed for purposes of the analysis and opinion is $89,147,151, which is equal to the sum of the Total Value of Per Common Share Consideration of $85,109,841 and the Total Floridian Community Stock Option Payment of $4,037,310.

Pursuant to Section 8.1(h) of the Merger Agreement, the Merger Agreement may be terminated by Floridian Community, at any time during the five-day period commencing on the Determination Date (as defined in Section 8.1 of the Merger Agreement), if both of the following conditions are satisfied: (a) the quotient obtained by dividing the average closing price of FCB Class A common stock for the ten trading days ending on the trading day immediately prior to the Determination Date (the FCB Average Stock Price) by the Initial FCB Market Price of $48.95 (such quotient being the FCB Ratio), shall be less than 0.85; and (b) the FCB Ratio shall be less than 85% of the quotient of (i) the average closing prices of the KBW Regional Bank Index (the Index Group) for the ten trading days ending on the trading day immediately prior to the Determination Date (the Final Index Price) divided by (ii) the Initial Index Price of $108.27 (such quotient being the Index Ratio). However, if Floridian Community elects to exercise its termination right pursuant to these conditions, FCB shall have the option to increase the consideration to be received by the holders of Floridian Community common stock either (i) by adjusting the Per Common Share Consideration, or (ii) by providing a cash payment so that the Per Common Share Consideration or the combination of such cash payment plus the Per Common Share Consideration, equals the lesser of: (x) a number (rounded to the nearest one one-thousandth) obtained by dividing (a) the product of the Initial FCB Market Price, 0.85 and the Per Common Share Consideration by (b) the FCB Average Stock Price; or (y) a number (rounded to the nearest one one-thousandth) obtained by dividing (i) the product of the Index Ratio and the Per Common Share Consideration by (ii) the FCB Ratio. For purposes of the analysis and opinion, Hovde has assumed that the provisions of Section 8.1(h) of the Merger Agreement will not be invoked and will not result in any adjustment to the total assumed value of the Merger of $89,147,151 as set forth above. In addition to the provisions of Section 8.1(h), the Merger Agreement may be terminated by either or both Floridian Community and FCB under certain circumstances as set forth in Section 8.1 of the Merger Agreement. Hovde has assumed for purposes of its analysis and opinion that the Merger Agreement will not be terminated and the Merger will be consummated on the terms set forth in the Merger Agreement.

This opinion addresses only the fairness of the Per Common Share Consideration to be paid in connection with the Merger, and Hovde is not opining on any individual stock, cash, option, or other components of the consideration.

During the course of its engagement and for the purpose of rendering its opinion, Hovde:

- (i) reviewed a draft of the Merger Agreement dated November 26, 2017, as provided to Hovde by Floridian Community;

(xiii) taken into consideration Hovde's experience in other similar transactions and securities valuations as well as Hovde's knowledge of the banking and financial services industry;

(xiv) reviewed historical market prices and trading volumes of FCB's common stock;

(xv) reviewed certain publicly available financial and stock market data relating to selected public companies that Hovde deemed relevant to its analysis; and

(xvi) performed such other analyses and considered such other factors as Hovde deemed appropriate.

Hovde assumed, without investigation, that there have been, and from the date hereof through the Effective Date there will be, no material changes in the financial condition and results of operations of Floridian Community or FCB since the date of the latest financial information described above. Hovde assumed, without independent verification, that the representations and financial and other information included in the Merger Agreement and all other related documents and instruments that are referred to therein or otherwise provided to Hovde by Floridian Community and FCB are true and complete. Hovde relied upon the management of Floridian Community and FCB as to the reasonableness and achievability of the financial forecasts, projections and other forward-looking information provided to Hovde by Floridian Community and FCB, and Hovde assumed such forecasts, projections and other forward-looking information have been reasonably prepared by Floridian Community and FCB on a basis reflecting the best currently available information and Floridian Community's and FCB's judgments and estimates. Hovde assumed that such forecasts, projections and other forward-looking information would be realized in the amounts and at the times contemplated thereby, and Hovde does not assume any responsibility for the accuracy or reasonableness thereof. Hovde has been authorized by Floridian Community to rely upon such forecasts, projections and other information and data, and Hovde expresses no view as to any such forecasts, projections or other forward-looking information or data, or the bases or assumptions on which they were prepared.

In performing its review, Hovde relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to Hovde from public sources, that was provided to Hovde by Floridian Community or FCB or their respective representatives or that was otherwise reviewed by Hovde for purposes of rendering this opinion. Hovde relied on the assurances of the respective managements of Floridian Community and FCB that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. Hovde has not been asked to undertake, and has not undertaken, an independent verification of any of such information, and Hovde does not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. Hovde assumed that each party to the Merger Agreement would advise them promptly if any information previously provided to them became inaccurate or was required to be updated during the period of Hovde's review.

Hovde is not expert in the evaluation of loan and lease portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances for losses with respect thereto. Hovde assumed that such allowances for Floridian Community and FCB are, in the aggregate, adequate to cover such losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity. Hovde was not requested to make, and has not made, an independent evaluation, physical inspection or appraisal of the assets, properties, facilities, or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Floridian Community or FCB, the collateral securing any such assets or liabilities, or the collectability of any such assets, and Hovde was not furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals nor did Hovde review any loan or credit files of Floridian Community or FCB.

Hovde has undertaken no independent analysis of any pending or threatened litigation, regulatory action, possible unasserted claims or other contingent liabilities to which Floridian Community or FCB is a party or may be subject, and Hovde's opinion makes no assumption concerning, and therefore does not consider, the possible assertion of claims, outcomes or damages arising out of any such matters. Hovde assumed that neither Floridian Community nor FCB is party to any material pending transaction, including without limitation any financing, recapitalization, acquisition or merger, divestiture or spin-off, other than the Merger contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

Hovde assumed that the Merger will be consummated substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the Merger Agreement, without any waiver of material terms or conditions by Floridian Community or any other party to the Merger Agreement and that the final Agreement will not differ materially from the draft Hovde reviewed. Hovde assumed that the Merger will be consummated in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations. Floridian Community has advised us that they are not aware of any factors that would impede any necessary regulatory or governmental approval of the Merger. Hovde assumed that the necessary regulatory and governmental approvals as granted will not be subject to any conditions that would be unduly burdensome on Floridian Community or FCB or would have a material adverse effect on the contemplated benefits of the Merger.

Hovde's opinion does not consider, include or address: (i) the legal, tax, accounting, or regulatory consequences of the Merger on Floridian Community, or its shareholders; (ii) any advice or opinions provided by any other advisor to the Board of Directors or Floridian Community; (iii) any other strategic alternatives that might be available to Floridian Community; or (iv) whether FCB has sufficient cash or other sources of funds to enable it to pay the consideration contemplated by the Merger.

The following is a summary of the analyses performed and matters considered by Hovde in connection with its fairness opinion. The summary set forth below does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Hovde in rendering its opinion, but it does summarize all of the material analyses performed by Hovde.

Hovde's opinion is based solely upon the information available to them and described above, and the economic, market and other circumstances as they exist as of the date of the opinion. Events occurring and information that becomes available after the date of the opinion could materially affect the assumptions and analyses used in preparing the opinion. Hovde has not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw the opinion or to otherwise comment upon events occurring or information that becomes available after the date of the opinion.

In arriving at the opinion, Hovde did not attribute any particular weight to any single analysis or factor considered by it, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Accordingly, Hovde believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, without considering all analyses, would create an incomplete view of the process underlying this opinion.

The following is a summary of the material analyses prepared by Hovde and delivered to Floridian Community's Board of Directors on November 27, 2017 in connection with the delivery of its fairness opinion. This summary is not a complete description of the analyses underlying the fairness opinion or the presentation prepared by Hovde, but it summarizes the material analyses performed and presented in connection with such opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex analytical process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances of the contemplated Merger. Therefore, a fairness opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Hovde did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. The analyses and the summary of the analyses must be considered as a whole, and selecting portions of the analyses and factors or focusing on the information presented below in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the process underlying the analyses and opinion of Hovde. The tables alone are not a complete description of the financial analyses.

Market Approach Comparable Transactions. As part of its analysis, Hovde reviewed publicly available information related to two comparable groups (a Regional Group and a Nationwide Group) of select acquisition transactions of banks. The Regional Group consisted of acquisition transactions where targets were headquartered in Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, and West Virginia announced since January 1, 2015, in which the target's total assets were between $350 million and $1 billion, last-twelve-months (LTM) return on average assets (ROAA) were between 0.00% and 1.00%, and non-performing assets (NPA's) to total assets were less than 2.00%. The Nationwide Group consisted of acquisition transactions of banks in the United States announced since January 1, 2015, in which the target's total assets were between $400 million and $800 million, last-twelve-months return on average assets were between 0.30% and 0.70%, and non-performing assets to total assets were less than 2.00%. In each case, for which financial information was available, no transaction that fit the above selection criteria was excluded. Information for the target institutions was based on balance sheet data as of, and income statement data for, the twelve months preceding the most recent quarter prior to announcement of the transactions. The resulting two groups consisted of the following transactions (13 transactions for the Regional Group and 14 transactions for the Nationwide Group):

the multiple of the difference between the purchase consideration and the acquired company's tangible book value to the acquired company's core deposits (the Premium-to-Core Deposits Multiple).

The results of the analysis are set forth in the table below. Transaction multiples for the Merger were based upon the total value of the Merger of $89,147,151 for Floridian Community and were based on September 30, 2017 financial results for Floridian Community.

- (1) Price-to-Adjusted Common Tangible Book Value equals the adjusted purchase price divided by core capital where: (a) core capital equals total tangible assets multiplied by 8%; (b) excess capital equals total tangible book value less core capital; and (c) adjusted purchase price equals implied value of the Merger less excess capital (assumes dollar-for-dollar payment on excess capital).
- (2) Price-to-LTM EPS multiples are considered non-meaningful for values greater than 40.0x.
- (3) Core deposits are defined as total deposits less foreign deposits and time deposit accounts greater than $100,000. Using publicly available information, Hovde compared the financial performance of Floridian Community with that of the median of the precedent transactions from both the Regional and Nationwide Groups. The performance highlights are based on September 30, 2017 financial results of Floridian Community.

No company or transaction used as a comparison in the above transaction analyses is identical to Floridian Community, and no transaction was consummated on terms identical to the terms of the Merger Agreement. Accordingly, an analysis of these results is not strictly mathematical. Rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies. The resulting values of the Precedent Transactions Regional Group using the median values for the four valuation metrics set forth above indicated an implied aggregate valuation ranging between $60.7 million and $80.1 million compared to the total value of the Merger of $89.1 million. The resulting values of the Precedent Transactions Nationwide Group using the median values for the four valuation metrics set forth above indicated an implied aggregate valuation ranging between $68.7 million and $76.4 million compared to the total value of the Merger of $89.1 million.

Income Approach Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Taking into account various factors including, but not limited to, Floridian Community's recent performance, the current banking environment and the local economy in which Floridian Community operates, Hovde determined, in consultation with and based on information provided by management of Floridian Community, earnings estimates for Floridian Community over a forward looking six year period, and in consultation with Floridian Community management, developed the forward-looking projections and key assumptions which formed the basis for the discounted cash flow analyses. The resulting projected Floridian Community net income numbers used for the analysis were $3.0 million for 2017, $4.0 million for 2018, $4.6 million for 2019, $5.2 million for 2020, $5.9 million for 2021, and $6.6 million for 2022.

To determine present values of Floridian Community based on these projections, Hovde utilized two discounted cash flow models, each of which capitalized terminal values using different multiples: (1) Terminal Price/Earnings Multiple (DCF Terminal P/E Multiple); and, (2) Terminal Price/Tangible Book Value Multiple (DCF Terminal P/TBV Multiple).

In the DCF Terminal P/E Multiple analysis, an estimated value of Floridian Community's common stock was calculated based on the present value of Floridian Community's after-tax net income based on Floridian Community management's forward-looking projections. Hovde utilized a terminal value at the end of 2022 by applying a five point range of price-to-earnings multiples of 19.6x to 23.6x, which range is based around the median price-to-earnings multiple derived from transactions in the Regional Group of 21.6x. The present value of Floridian Community's projected dividends, of which there were none projected, plus the terminal value was then calculated assuming a range of discount rates between 12.35% and 14.35%, with a midpoint of 13.35% discounted over a period of 5.09 years. This range of discount rates was chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding the required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of Floridian Community's common stock. The range of discount rates utilized the buildup method to determine such required rates of return and was based upon the risk-free interest rate, an equity risk premium, an industry risk premium, and a size premium which resulted in a discount rate of 13.35% used as the midpoint of the five point range of discount rates of 12.35% to 14.35%. The resulting aggregate values of Floridian Community's common stock based on the DCF Terminal P/E Multiple applied to the 2022 projected earnings of $6.6 million and then discounted over a 5.09 year period utilizing the five point range of discount rates set forth above resulted in implied aggregate values between $65.5 million and $86.3 million with a midpoint of $75.5 million.

In the DCF Terminal P/TBV Multiple model, the same earnings estimates and projected net income were used as in the preceding DCF Terminal P/E Multiple analysis to determine the projected tangible book value for Floridian Community as of December 31, 2022. In arriving at the terminal value at the end of 2022, Hovde applied a five point range of price-to-tangible book value multiples of 1.49x to 1.69x utilizing as a midpoint of the range the median price-to-tangible book value multiple derived from transactions in the Regional Group of 1.59x. The present value of projected dividends, of which there were none projected, plus the terminal value was then calculated assuming the range of discount rates between 12.35% and 14.35%, with a midpoint of 13.35% discounted over a period of 5.09 years as was applied in the DCF Terminal P/E Multiple analysis set forth above. The resulting implied aggregate values of Floridian Community's common stock based on the DCF Terminal P/TBV Multiple analysis ranged between $57.6 million and $71.4 million with a midpoint of $64.2 million.

These analyses and their underlying assumptions yielded a range of implied multiple values for Floridian Community's common stock which are outlined in the table below:

Implied Multiple Value for Floridian Community Common Stock Based On:	Total Merger Value	Price-to-Tangible Book Value Multiple	Price-to-LTM Earnings Multiple	Premium-to-Core Deposits Multiple⁽¹⁾⁽³⁾
Total Merger Value	$ 89,147	182.2%	31.7x	15.2%
DCF Analysis Terminal P/E Multiple⁽¹⁾⁽⁴⁾
Midpoint Value	$ 75,457	154.2%	26.8x	10.0%
DCF Analysis Terminal P/TBV Multiple⁽¹⁾⁽⁴⁾
Midpoint Value	$ 64,217	131.2%	22.8x	5.8%

- (1) Pricing multiples based on the total Merger value of $89,147,151; DCF Analysis Terminal P/E Multiple median Merger value of $75,457,000; and a DCF Analysis Terminal P/TBV Multiple median deal value of $64,217,000.
(2) Price to LTM EPS multiples are considered non-meaningful for values greater than 40.0x.
(3) Core deposits are defined as total deposits less foreign deposits and time deposit accounts greater than $100,000.
(4) DCF Analysis utilizes a 13.35% discount rate over a period of 5.09 years.

Hovde noted that while the discounted cash flow present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, it relies on numerous assumptions, including asset and earnings growth rates, projected dividend payouts, terminal values and discount rates. Hovde's analysis does not purport to be indicative of the actual values or expected aggregate values of Floridian Community's common stock.

it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies.

Accretion / Dilution Analysis: Hovde performed a pro forma merger analysis that combined projected income statement and balance sheet information of Floridian Community and FCB. Assumptions regarding the accounting treatment, acquisition adjustments, cost savings and synergies were used to calculate the financial impact what the Merger would have on certain projected financial results of FCB. For purposes of this analysis, Hovde used the S&P Cap IQ mean of analyst earnings estimates for FCB for the years ending December 31, 2017, December 31, 2018, December 31, 2019, and an earnings growth rate of 7.50% was assumed for December 31, 2020. Additionally, Hovde used earnings estimates provided by Floridian Community's management for Floridian Community for the years ending December 31, 2017, December 31, 2018, and December 31, 2019. This analysis indicated that the Merger is expected to be accretive by $0.03 per share to FCB's consensus estimated earnings per share of $3.17 in 2018, accretive by $0.03 per share to FCB's consensus estimated earnings per share of $3.66 in 2019, and accretive by $0.04 per share to FCB's consensus estimated earnings per share of $3.94 in 2020. The analysis also indicated that the Merger is expected to: (i) be dilutive to tangible book value per share for FCB by $0.06 per share in 2018, dilutive by $0.02 per share in 2019, and accretive by $0.02 per share in 2020; (ii) result in a tangible book value payback period of 2.4 years; and (iii) result in FCB maintaining capital ratios in excess of those required for FCB to be considered well-capitalized under existing regulations. For all of the above analyses, the actual results achieved by Floridian Community and FCB prior to and following the Merger may vary from the projected results, and the variations may be material.

Other Factors and Analyses. Hovde took into consideration various other factors and analyses, including but not limited to: current market environment; merger and acquisition environment; movements in the common stock valuations of selected publicly-traded banking companies; and movements in the S&P 500 Index.

Conclusion. Based upon the foregoing analyses and other investigations and assumptions as set forth in its opinion, without giving specific weightings to any one factor, analysis or comparison, Hovde determined that, as of the date of the its opinion, the Per Common Share Consideration to be paid in connection with the Merger is fair to the holders of Floridian Community common stock from a financial point of view. Each Floridian Community shareholder is encouraged to read Hovde's fairness opinion in its entirety. The full text of this fairness opinion is included as Annex C to this proxy statement and prospectus.

Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal of Holders of Floridian Community Common Stock

Holders of Floridian Community common stock as of the record date are entitled to appraisal rights under the FBCA. Pursuant to Sections 607.1301-607.133, a Floridian Community shareholder who does not wish to accept the consideration to be received pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement may dissent from the Merger and elect to receive the fair value of his or her shares of Floridian Community common stock immediately prior to the date of the Floridian Community special meeting to vote on the proposal to approve the Merger Agreement, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the Merger unless exclusion would be inequitable. You should note that a condition to the closing of the Merger is that less than 5% of the outstanding shares of Floridian Community common stock validly exercise, or remain entitled to exercise, their appraisal rights.

In order to exercise appraisal rights, a dissenting Floridian Community shareholder must strictly comply with the statutory procedures of Sections 607.1302 and 607.1323 of the FBCA, which are summarized below. A copy of the full text of Sections 607.1301 through 607.1333 of the FBCA, including Sections 607.1302 and 607.1323, are included as Annex D to this proxy statement and prospectus. Floridian Community shareholders are urged to read Annex D in its entirety and to consult with their legal advisors. Each Floridian Community shareholder who desires to assert his or her appraisal rights is cautioned that failure on his or her part to adhere strictly to the requirements of Florida law in any regard will cause a forfeiture of any appraisal rights.

Procedures for Exercising Dissenters' Rights of Appraisal

The following summary of Florida law is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the applicable provisions of the FBCA, a copy of which are included as Annex D to this proxy statement and prospectus.

A dissenting shareholder, who desires to exercise his or her appraisal rights, must file with Floridian Community, prior to the taking of the vote on the Merger, a written notice of intent to demand payment for his or her shares if the Merger is effectuated. A vote against the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement will not alone be deemed to be the written notice of intent to demand payment and will not be deemed to satisfy the notice requirements under the FBCA. A dissenting shareholder need not vote against the Merger Agreement, but cannot vote, or allow any nominee who holds such shares for the dissenting shareholder to vote, any of his or her shares of Floridian Community common stock in favor of adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement. A vote in favor of adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement will constitute a waiver of the shareholder's appraisal rights. Such written notification should be delivered either in person or by mail (certified mail, return receipt requested, being the recommended form of transmittal) to:

Floridian Community Holdings, Inc.

5599 South University Drive

Davie, Florida 33328

Attention: Ulises I. Alonso, Assistant Corporate Secretary

All such notices must be signed in the same manner as the shares are registered on the books of Floridian Community. If a Floridian Community shareholder has not provided written notice of intent to demand fair value before the vote on the proposal to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement is taken at the Floridian Community special meeting, then the Floridian Community shareholder will be deemed to have waived his or her appraisal rights.

Within 10 days after the completion of the Merger, FCB must provide to each Floridian Community shareholder who filed a notice of intent to demand payment for his or her shares a written appraisal notice and an appraisal election form that specifies, among other things:

the date of the completion of the Merger;

FCB's estimate of the fair value of the shares of Floridian Community common stock;

where to return the completed appraisal election form and the shareholder's stock certificates and the date by which they must be received by FCB or its agent, which date may not be fewer than 40, nor more than 60, days after the date FCB sent the appraisal notice and appraisal election form to the shareholder; and the date by which a notice from the Floridian Community shareholder of his or her desire to withdraw his or her appraisal election must be received by FCB, which date must be within 20 days after the date set for receipt by FCB of the appraisal election form from the Floridian Community shareholder.

The form must also contain FCB's offer to pay to the Floridian Community shareholder the amount that it has estimated as the fair value of the shares of Floridian Community common stock, and request certain information from the Floridian Community shareholder, including:

the shareholder's name and address;

the number of shares as to which the shareholder is asserting appraisal rights;

that the shareholder did not vote for the Merger;

whether the shareholder accepts the offer of FCB to pay its estimate of the fair value of the shares of Floridian Community common stock to the shareholder; and if the shareholder does not accept the offer of FCB, the shareholder's estimated fair value of the shares of Floridian Community common stock and a demand for payment of the shareholder's estimated value plus interest.

A dissenting shareholder must submit the certificate(s) representing his or her shares with the appraisal election form. Any dissenting shareholder failing to return a properly completed appraisal election form and his or her stock certificates within the period stated in the form will lose his or her appraisal rights and be bound by the terms of the Merger Agreement.

Upon returning the appraisal election form, a dissenting shareholder will be entitled only to payment pursuant to the procedure set forth in the applicable sections of the FBCA and will not be entitled to vote or to exercise any other rights of a shareholder, unless the dissenting shareholder withdraws his or her demand for appraisal within the time period specified in the appraisal election form.

A dissenting shareholder who has delivered the appraisal election form and his or her Floridian Community common stock certificates may decline to exercise appraisal rights and withdraw from the appraisal process by giving written notice to FCB within the time period specified in the appraisal election form. Thereafter, a dissenting shareholder may not withdraw from the appraisal process without the written consent of FCB. Upon such withdrawal, the right of the dissenting shareholder to be paid the fair value of his or her shares will cease, and he or she will be reinstated as a shareholder and will be entitled to receive the Merger Consideration.

If the dissenting shareholder accepts the offer of FCB in the appraisal election form to pay FCB's estimate of the fair value of the shares of Floridian Community common stock, payment for the shares of the dissenting shareholder is to be made within 90 days after the receipt of the appraisal election form by FCB or its agent. Upon payment of the agreed value, the dissenting shareholder will cease to have any interest in such shares.

A shareholder must demand appraisal rights with respect to all of the shares registered in his or her name, except that a record shareholder may assert appraisal rights as to fewer than all of the shares registered in the record shareholder's name but which are owned by a beneficial shareholder, if the record shareholder objects with respect to all shares owned by the beneficial shareholder. A record shareholder must notify Floridian Community in writing of the name and address of each beneficial shareholder on whose behalf appraisal rights are being asserted. A beneficial shareholder may assert appraisal rights as to any shares held on behalf of the beneficial shareholder only if the beneficial shareholder submits to Floridian Community the record shareholder's written consent to the assertion of such rights before the date specified in the appraisal notice, and does so with respect to all shares that are beneficially owned by the beneficial shareholder.

Section 607.1330 of the FBCA addresses what should occur if a dissenting shareholder fails to accept the offer of FCB to pay the value of the shares as estimated by FCB, and FCB fails to comply with the demand of the dissenting shareholder to pay the value of the shares as estimated by the dissenting shareholder, plus interest.

If a dissenting shareholder refuses to accept the offer of FCB to pay the value of the shares as estimated by FCB, and FCB fails to comply with the demand of the dissenting shareholder to pay the value of the shares as estimated by the dissenting shareholder, plus interest, then within 60 days after receipt of a written demand from any dissenting shareholder given within 60 days after the date on which the Merger was effected, FCB shall, or at its election at any time within such period of 60 days may, file an action in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county in Florida where the registered office of FCB, maintained pursuant to Florida law, is located requesting that the fair value of such shares be determined by the court.

If FCB fails to institute a proceeding within the above-prescribed period, any dissenting shareholder may do so in the name of FCB. A copy of the initial pleading will be served on each dissenting shareholder. FCB is required to pay each dissenting shareholder the amount found to be due within 10 days after final determination of the proceedings, which amount may, in the discretion of the court, include a fair rate of interest, which will also be determined by the court. Upon payment of the judgment, the dissenting shareholder ceases to have any interest in such shares.

Section 607.1331 of the FBCA provides that the costs of a court appraisal proceeding, including reasonable compensation for, and expenses of, appraisers appointed by the court, will be determined by the court and assessed against FCB, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the dissenting shareholders, in amounts determined by the court, to the extent that the court finds such shareholders acted arbitrarily, vexatiously or not in good faith with respect to their appraisal rights. The court also may assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts determined by the court, against: (i) FCB and in favor of any or all dissenting shareholders if the court finds FCB did not substantially comply with the notification provisions set forth in Sections 607.1320 and 607.1322 of the FBCA; or (ii) either FCB or a dissenting shareholder, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the appraisal rights. If the court in an appraisal proceeding finds that the services of counsel for any dissenting shareholder were of substantial benefit to other dissenting shareholders, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against FCB, the court may award to such counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the dissenting shareholders who were benefited. To the extent that FCB fails to make a required payment when a dissenting shareholder accepts FCB's offer to pay the value of the shares as estimated by FCB, the dissenting shareholder may sue directly for the amount owed and, to the extent successful, shall be entitled to recover from FCB all costs and expenses of the suit, including counsel fees.

If a Floridian Community shareholder does not strictly comply with each of the conditions described above, the shareholder will not be entitled to dissenters' rights under the FBCA. If you execute and return the enclosed proxy but do not specify a choice on the Merger Proposal, you will be deemed to have voted in favor of the Merger and, accordingly, to have waived your dissenters' rights, unless you revoke the proxy prior to its being voted. Accordingly, if you return the enclosed proxy and wish to dissent from the Merger, you must vote your Floridian Community shares against the Merger Proposal or abstain from voting.

This summary of the rights of dissenting shareholders addresses all material features of the applicable Florida dissenters' rights statute, but does not contain a description of all requirements of the dissenters' rights statute and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the statutory provisions attached to this document as Annex D.

If you wish to exercise dissenters' rights with respect to the Merger and you fail to comply with the statutory requirements for exercising dissenters' rights, you will lose such rights. Accordingly, Floridian Community shareholders who may wish to exercise dissenters' rights should consider seeking legal counsel.

Registration of FCB Class A Common Stock and Restrictions on Resales by Affiliates

FCB has registered its shares of Class A common stock to be issued in the Merger with the SEC under the Securities Act. No restrictions on the sale or other transfer of shares of FCB Class A common stock issued in the Merger will be imposed solely as a result of the Merger, except for restrictions on the transfer of shares of FCB Class A common stock issued to any Floridian Community shareholder who is or becomes an affiliate of FCB for purposes of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. The term affiliate is defined in Rule 144 under the Securities Act as a person that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, FCB or the combined company, as the case may be, and generally includes executive officers, directors and shareholders beneficially owning 10% or more of FCB's outstanding common stock.

Regulatory Approvals

Under federal law, the Merger must be approved by the Federal Reserve and the Bank Merger must be approved by the OCC. Notifications and/or applications requesting approval may also be submitted to various other federal and state regulatory authorities and self-regulatory organizations. On December 22, 2017, FCB filed all applications and notifications to obtain these regulatory approvals.

Although FCB currently believes that it should be able to obtain all required regulatory approvals in a timely manner, FCB cannot be certain when or if it will obtain them or, if obtained, whether they will contain terms, conditions or restrictions not currently contemplated that will be detrimental to FCB after the completion of the Merger or will contain a burdensome condition (as defined below in THE MERGER AGREEMENT Conditions to Completion of the Merger).

Federal Reserve. Completion of the Merger requires approval by the Federal Reserve pursuant to Sections 3 and 4 of the BHC Act.

The Federal Reserve is prohibited from approving any merger transaction under Section 3 of the BHC Act (i) that would result in a monopoly or be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize, or to attempt to monopolize, the business of banking in any part of the United States, or (ii) whose effect in any section of the United States may be to substantially lessen competition, or to tend to create a monopoly or in any other manner restrain trade, unless the Federal Reserve finds that the anti-competitive effects of the Merger transaction are clearly outweighed in the public interest by the probable effect of the Merger transaction in meeting the convenience and needs of the communities to be served.

In addition, among other things, in reviewing the Merger , the Federal Reserve must consider (i) the effect of the proposal on competition, (ii) the financial condition and future prospects of FCB, Floridian Community and their respective subsidiary banks, (iii) the competence, experience, and integrity of the officers, directors and principal shareholders of FCB, Floridian Community and their respective subsidiary banks, (iv) the convenience and needs of the communities to be served, including the record of performance under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, as amended, (v) the companies effectiveness in combating money-laundering activities, (vi) FCB s and its subsidiaries record of compliance with applicable community reinvestment laws and (vii) the risk to the stability of the United States banking or financial system presented by the Merger and the related transactions. In connection with its review, the Federal Reserve provides an opportunity for public comment on the application and is authorized to hold a public meeting or other proceeding if it determines that would be appropriate.

OCC. Completion of the Bank Merger requires approval by the OCC pursuant to the Bank Merger Act. In evaluating an application filed under the Bank Merger Act, the OCC uses substantially the same criteria as used by the Federal Reserve when evaluating applications filed pursuant to the BHC Act as described above. In connection with its review, the OCC also provides an opportunity for public comment on the application and is authorized to hold a public meeting or other proceeding if it determines that would be appropriate.

Pursuant to the BHC Act and the Bank Merger Act, transactions approved by the Federal Reserve and the OCC generally may not be completed until 30 days after the approval is received, during which time the DOJ may challenge the transaction on antitrust grounds. With the approval of the Federal Reserve or the OCC, as the case may be, and the concurrence of the DOJ, the waiting period may be reduced to no less than 15 days. The commencement of an antitrust action would stay the effectiveness of such an approval unless a court specifically ordered otherwise. In reviewing the Merger, the DOJ could analyze the Merger s effect on competition differently than the Federal Reserve or the OCC, and thus it is possible that the DOJ could reach a different conclusion than the Federal Reserve or the OCC does regarding the Merger s effects on competition. A determination by the DOJ not to object to the Merger may not prevent the filing of antitrust actions by private persons or state attorneys general.

Effective Date of the Merger

The Merger will be consummated if the Merger Proposal is approved by the Floridian Community shareholders, all required consents and approvals are obtained and all other conditions to the Merger are either satisfied or waived. The Merger will become effective when the Articles of Merger are filed with the Secretary of State of Florida or at such later date and time as may be specified in the Articles of Merger. The closing of the Merger will occur on the first business day of the calendar month following the calendar month in which the last of the conditions to the Merger are satisfied or waived or on such other date as agreed to by the parties. We currently anticipate that the Merger will be completed in the first or second quarter of 2018. However, completion of the Merger could be delayed if there is a delay in obtaining the required shareholder or regulatory approvals or in satisfying the other conditions to completion of the Merger. Floridian Community and FCB each have the right, subject to certain conditions, to terminate the Merger Agreement if the Merger is not completed by August 24, 2018.

NYSE Listing

FCB will file a notification with the NYSE regarding the issuance of FCB Class A common stock in the Merger. Following the Merger, the FCB shares of Class A common stock issued to Floridian Community shareholders will be listed on the NYSE.

Registration Statement

FCB has filed a Registration Statement on Form S-4 with the SEC in order to register the shares of FCB Class A common stock to be issued pursuant to the Merger under the Securities Act. Because FCB Class A common stock is listed on the NYSE, it is exempt from the statutory registration requirements of each state in the United States. Therefore, FCB has not taken any steps to register its stock under state laws.

Accounting Treatment

FCB will account for the Merger as a purchase by FCB of Floridian Community under GAAP. Under the purchase method of accounting, the total consideration paid in connection with the Merger is allocated among Floridian Community's assets, liabilities and identified intangibles based on the fair values of the assets acquired, the liabilities assumed and the identified intangibles. The difference between the total consideration paid in connection with the Merger and the fair values of the assets acquired, the liabilities assumed and the identified intangibles, if any, is allocated to goodwill. The results of operations of Floridian Community will be included in FCB's results of operations from the date of acquisition.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

When considering the recommendation of the Board of Directors of Floridian Community, you should be aware that certain of the directors and officers of Floridian Community have interests in the Merger other than their interests as Floridian Community shareholders, pursuant to certain agreements and understandings. These interests are different from, or in conflict with, your interests as Floridian Community shareholders. The members of Floridian Community's Board of Directors and the FCB Board of Directors were aware of these additional interests, and considered them, when they approved the Merger Agreement. Except as follows, to the knowledge of Floridian Community, the officers and directors of Floridian Community do not have any material interest in the Merger apart from their interests as shareholders.

Employment and Consulting Agreements. FCB Bank has entered into employment and consulting agreements with each of Joseph S. Marzouca, the Chief Executive Officer of Floridian Community, and Ulises I. Alonso, the Chief Financial Officer of Floridian Community, and an employment agreement with Lee A. Frankhouser, the President of Floridian Community. Those agreements will become effective as of the effective date of the Merger. Such agreements will provide for certain transitional employment and compensation arrangements for each of the executives, as follows:

Term: The employment term for each of the executives under their respective agreements with FCB Bank will continue until the earlier to occur of FCB Bank completing the integration of Floridian Community's business operations and systems or 120 days after the effective date of the Merger. For each of Mr. Marzouca and Mr. Alonso, if such executive is still employed by FCB Bank following such integration period, such executive will provide consulting services to FCB Bank, in the case of Mr. Marzouca for a period of 12 months, and in the case of Mr. Alonso, for a period of four months.

Each executive has the right to terminate the arrangement with FCB Bank with 30 days prior notice to FCB Bank, and FCB may terminate the arrangement with or without cause.

Compensation:

Base Salary: The base salary and consulting fees to be paid to the executives under the agreements are as follows:

Mr. Marzouca: Base salary at an annual rate of $375,000 during the employment term (pro-rated for any partial-year period), and consulting fees of $375,000 during the consulting term.

Mr. Frankhouser: Base salary at an annual rate of $250,000 during the employment term (pro-rated for any partial-year period).

Mr. Alonso: Base salary at an annual rate of $200,000 during the employment term (pro-rated for any partial-year period), and consulting fees of $76,667 during the consulting term.

Closing Payments: Within thirty (30) days after the effective date of the Merger, each executive will receive payout of all of such executive's outstanding Floridian Community stock options (if any) in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement. In addition, each executive will receive payout of his Change in Control Benefit under the Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan Agreement between such executive and Floridian Community, which in the case of Mr. Marzouca, Mr. Frankhouser and Mr. Alonso is equal to $1,759,686, $1,052,414 and $817,320, respectively. Each of Mr. Marzouca and Mr. Frankhouser will also receive a lump sum cash payment equal to $550,000 and $280,000, respectively.

Integration Bonus: Each of Mr. Frankhouser and Mr. Alonso is also entitled to receive a lump sum cash payment equal to $40,000 and $100,000, respectively, as an integration bonus, within thirty (30) days following the successful completion of integration of Floridian Community's business operations and systems.

Non-Compete Payment: In consideration for providing certain non-solicitation and non-competition covenant in each of their respective agreements with FCB (described further below), no later than (60) days following the end of their respective employment terms, each of Mr. Marzouca, Mr. Frankhouser and Mr. Alonso will receive a lump sum cash payment equal to $850,000, $250,000 and $300,000, respectively (subject to adjustment pursuant to Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code), unless such executive is in breach of such non-solicitation and non-competition covenants.

Car Allowance: Each of the executives will be provided with a car allowance of $750 per month during the employment term.

Certain Payments Upon Termination

If the executive's employment is terminated by FCB Bank without cause, or if executive resigns for good reason or due to death or disability, FCB Bank will pay to executive the remainder of any base salary and consulting fees (if applicable), and in the case of Mr. Alonso and Mr. Frankhouser, the integration bonus, that would have been payable through the term but for the termination, in a cash lump sum.

In the case of Mr. Marzouca and Mr. Alonso, if such executive's consulting services are terminated without cause, or if the executive resigns for good reason or due to death or disability, FCB Bank will pay to executive the remainder of any consulting fees that would have been payable through the consulting period in a cash lump sum.

Table of Contents

If the executive is terminated for cause or upon his voluntary resignation other than for good reason, the only payment that will be due from FCB Bank to executive will be the non-compete payment.

Agreements Not to Solicit or Hire Employees or Customers; Non-Compete

For a period of two years, in the case of Mr. Marzouca, eighteen (18) months in the case of Mr. Alonso and one year in the case of Mr. Frankhouser (each, a Restricted Period), each executive has agreed:

not to solicit or in any way cause any employee or consultant of FCB Bank or FCB to leave the employ of FCB Bank, or to hire any person who is or was an employee or consultant of FCB Bank or FCB during the 2-year period preceding the end of such executive's employment term;

not to solicit or in any way cause any customer of FCB Bank or its affiliate to cease to do business with or otherwise conduct banking or lending business with a customer of FCB Bank or FCB; and not to engage in any competing banking and lending business of FCB Bank or FCB in the counties in which FCB Bank conducts its business as of the last day of the employment term.

Stock Ownership and Voting Agreements. All of the directors, certain officers and certain significant shareholders of Floridian Community, as of November 27, 2017, the date the Merger Agreement was executed, entered into a voting agreement with FCB to cause all Floridian Community common stock owned by each of them of record or beneficially on such date to be voted in favor of the Merger Proposal. A copy of the form of these voting agreements is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement and prospectus. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT Voting Agreement on page 69. As of the record date, the directors, officers and the shareholders of Floridian Community that executed such voting agreements had the power to vote, or caused to be voted, an aggregate of 1,185,183.92 shares of Floridian Community voting common stock outstanding, representing approximately 34.74% of Floridian Community's voting common stock outstanding on that date, and an aggregate of 372,195 shares of Floridian Community non-voting common stock outstanding, representing approximately 89.55% of Floridian Community's outstanding non-voting common stock on that date. Other than directors and certain officers of Floridian Community, the only shareholders that executed the voting agreement owned five percent or more of Floridian Community's outstanding common stock, as of November 27, 2017.

For a list of the number of shares of Floridian Community common stock held by (i) each director of Floridian Community, (ii) each shareholder that is known to Floridian Community as of the date of this proxy statement and prospectus to beneficially own more than 5% percent of the outstanding shares of Floridian Community common stock and (iii) all directors and executive officers of Floridian Community as a group, see THE FLORIDIAN COMMUNITY SPECIAL MEETING Beneficial Ownership of Floridian Community Common Stock by Certain Shareholders.

Stock Options. To the extent a director or executive officer of Floridian Community and/or Floridian Community Bank holds outstanding Floridian Community stock options, upon completion of the Merger, such Floridian Community stock options, whether vested or unvested, will be cancelled and terminated. In exchange, the holders of such stock options will receive cash, without any interest and subject to any required withholding tax, in an amount equal to the Merger Consideration Value Per Share, minus the applicable exercise price of such outstanding Floridian Community stock option.

Indemnification and Continued Director and Officer Liability Coverage. FCB will indemnify, defend and hold harmless each person who is or has been at any time prior to the date of the Merger Agreement or who becomes prior to the effective time of the Merger, an officer or director of Floridian Community and its subsidiaries (solely when acting in such capacity). FCB's indemnification obligations extend to all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, fees, expenses, judgments and fines incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit proceeding or investigation arising out of matters, actions or omissions occurring at or prior to the effective time of the Merger that is asserted or commenced prior to the six-year anniversary of the closing. Such indemnification payments will also include any amounts owed pursuant to a deductible, retention or similar provision under the tail directors and officers liability insurance policy obtained by Floridian Community as required under the Merger Agreement and described in the following paragraph.

Floridian Community will obtain, effective from and after the effective time of the Merger, a prepaid, fully earned and non-cancellable tail directors and officers liability insurance policy. Such policy shall be in respect of acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the effective time of the Merger with a claims period of six years from the effective time of the Merger. This policy will cover each person who is covered by any such policy of Floridian Community as of the date of the Merger Agreement, with the coverage and amounts and containing terms and conditions that are not less advantageous to the directors and officers of Floridian Community and its subsidiaries than those of the directors and officers liability insurance policy in effect as of the date of the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement provides that Floridian Community will only obtain such a policy with annual premiums that are no more than an amount equal to two hundred percent (200%) of the annual premium paid by Floridian Community for coverage for its current policy year for such insurance. Should the premium exceed that amount, Floridian will instead purchase as much coverage as may be available for such a premium amount.

Line of Credit. On September 15, 2015, a trust controlled by Harvey Sorkin, a member of Floridian Community's Board of Directors, purchased from a bank a $5,000,000 line of credit, which is secured by all outstanding shares of Floridian Community Bank's common stock. On September 22, 2015, Floridian Community entered into a Renewal, Extension and Modification Agreement with such trust. Pursuant to the Renewal, Extension and Modification Agreement, the maturity of the line of credit was extended to September 22, 2020 and interest payments are due monthly. No other modifications were made to the line of credit by the Renewal, Extension and Modification Agreement. As of September 30, 2016, the balance on the line of credit was $2,500,000. The line of credit bears interest at prime rate as published or quoted from time to time by The Wall Street Journal, subject to a floor of 5.50% and ceiling of 8.5%. The interest rate was 5.5% as of September 30, 2016. It is a condition to the closing of the Merger that Floridian Community shall have fully paid any outstanding balances under the line of credit and that the line of credit shall have been terminated pursuant to its terms.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following discussion describes the material provisions of the Merger Agreement. We urge you to read the Merger Agreement, which is attached as Annex A and incorporated by reference in this proxy statement and prospectus, carefully and in its entirety. The description of the Merger Agreement in this proxy statement and prospectus has been included to provide you with information regarding its terms. The Merger Agreement contains representations and warranties made by and to the parties thereto as of specific dates. The statements embodied in those representations and warranties were made for purposes of that contract between the parties and are subject to qualifications and limitations agreed by the parties in connection with negotiating the terms of that contract. In addition, certain representations and warranties were made as of a specified date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to shareholders, or may have been used for the purpose of allocating risk between the parties rather than establishing matters as facts.

Structure

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into Floridian Community, with Floridian Community being the surviving company. Immediately thereafter and as part of a single integrated transaction, Floridian Community will merge with and into FCB, with FCB being the surviving company. As a result, the separate existence of Floridian Community will terminate. Immediately following the Merger or at such later time as FCB may determine, Floridian Community Bank will merge with and into FCB Bank, with FCB Bank being the surviving bank and continuing its existence as a national banking association.

Merger Consideration

In connection with the Merger, Floridian Community shareholders will receive, for each share of Floridian Community common stock they hold immediately prior to the completion of the Merger, 0.4584 of a fully paid and non-assessable share of FCB Class A common stock. Upon completion of the Merger, each outstanding Floridian Community stock option will be cancelled and terminated. In exchange therefor, the holders of such options will receive cash, without any interest and subject to any required withholding tax, in an amount equal to the Merger Consideration Value Per Share, minus the applicable exercise price per share of such outstanding Floridian Community stock option. In the event that the exercise price of any Floridian Community stock option outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the Merger is greater than or equal to the Merger Consideration Value Per Share, no cash payment or other consideration for such Floridian Community stock option will be due or payable in respect thereof and such Floridian Community stock option will be cancelled as of the completion of the Merger.

The Exchange Ratio is subject to adjustment if FCB changes the number or kind of shares of its Class A common stock outstanding by way of stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification, reorganization or similar transaction.

Conversion of Shares; Exchange of Certificates; Fractional Shares

Conversion. The conversion of Floridian Community common stock into the right to receive the Merger Consideration will occur automatically at the effective time of the Merger.

Exchange Procedures. Prior to the completion of the Merger, FCB will deposit with its transfer agent or with a depository or trust institution of recognized standing selected by it and reasonably satisfactory to Floridian Community, which we refer to as the Exchange Agent, (i) certificates, or at FCB's option, evidence of shares in book-entry form, representing the shares of FCB Class A common stock to be issued under the Merger Agreement and

(ii) cash payable as part of the Merger Consideration and instead of any fractional shares of FCB Class A common stock to be issued under the Merger Agreement. As promptly as reasonably practicable after the effective time of the Merger, the Exchange Agent will provide Floridian Community shareholders with instructions in order to exchange their shares of Floridian Community common stock for the Merger

Consideration to be received in the Merger pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement. No interest will accrue or be paid with respect to any property to be delivered upon surrender of Floridian Community common stock.

If any FCB Class A common stock is to be issued, or cash payment made, in a name other than that in which the Floridian Community common stock surrendered in exchange for the Merger Consideration is registered, the Floridian Community common stock surrendered must be properly endorsed (or accompanied by an appropriate instrument of transfer) and otherwise in proper form of transfer. The person requesting the exchange must also pay any transfer or other similar taxes required due to such request, or must establish to the reasonable satisfaction of FCB and the Exchange Agent that any such taxes have been paid or are not applicable.

Dividends and Distributions. Until your Floridian Community common stock is surrendered for exchange, any dividends or other distributions declared after the effective time with respect to FCB Class A common stock into which shares of Floridian Community common stock may have been converted will accrue but will not be paid. When such Floridian Community common stock has been duly surrendered, FCB will pay any unpaid dividends or other distributions, without interest. After the effective time, there will be no transfers on the stock transfer books of Floridian Community of any shares of Floridian Community common stock. If shares of Floridian Community common stock are presented for transfer after the completion of the Merger, they will be cancelled and exchanged for the Merger Consideration into which the shares of Floridian Community common stock have been converted.

Withholding. The Exchange Agent will be entitled to deduct and withhold from the Merger Consideration payable to any Floridian Community shareholder the amounts it is required to deduct and withhold under any federal, state, local or foreign tax law. If the Exchange Agent withholds any amounts, these amounts will be treated for all purposes of the Merger as having been paid to the shareholders from whom they were withheld.

No Fractional Shares Will Be Issued. FCB will not issue fractional shares of FCB Class A common stock in the Merger. There will be no dividends or distributions with respect to any fractional shares of common stock or any voting or other rights with respect to any fractional shares of common stock. Instead of fractional shares of FCB Class A common stock, FCB will pay, as soon as reasonably practicable following the effective time of the Merger, to each Floridian Community shareholder an amount in cash determined by the multiplying the fractional share of FCB Class A common stock by the Merger Consideration Value Per Share.

Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Floridian Community Common Stock Certificates. If you have lost a certificate representing Floridian Community common stock, or it has been stolen or destroyed, FCB will issue to you the common stock or cash payable under the Merger Agreement if you submit an affidavit of that fact and, if requested by FCB, if you post bond in a customary amount as indemnity against any claim that may be made against FCB about ownership of the lost, stolen or destroyed certificate.

For a description of FCB Class A common stock and a description of the differences between the rights of Floridian Community shareholders and FCB shareholders, see DESCRIPTION OF FCB CAPITAL STOCK and COMPARISON OF SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS.

Effective Time

We plan to complete the Merger on the first business day of the calendar month following the calendar month in which the last remaining conditions to the Merger is satisfied or waived (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the closing, but subject to the fulfillment or waiver of those conditions), or at such other time and date as may be mutually agreed by the parties. The time the Merger is completed is the effective time of the Merger. See Conditions to Completion of the Merger .

We anticipate that we will complete the Merger during the first or second quarter of 2018. However, completion could be delayed if there is a delay in obtaining the necessary regulatory approvals or for other reasons. There can be no assurances as to if or when these approvals will be obtained or as to whether or when the Merger will be completed. If we do not complete the Merger by August 24, 2018, subject to an extension for an additional 90 days in order to obtain pending regulatory approval or elimination of some specified legal restraint, either party may terminate the Merger Agreement without penalty, unless the failure to complete the Merger by this date is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the Merger Agreement to perform or observe its obligations under the Merger Agreement. Acquisition Proposals by Third Parties

Floridian Community has agreed that it will not solicit or encourage inquiries or proposals with respect to any other Acquisition Proposal. Floridian Community has also agreed that it will not engage in any negotiations concerning any other Acquisition Proposal, or provide any confidential or nonpublic information or data to, or have any discussions with, any person relating to any other Acquisition Proposal.

However, if Floridian Community receives an unsolicited bona fide Acquisition Proposal and the Floridian Community Board of Directors concludes in good faith (after consultation with its financial and legal advisors) that it constitutes a Superior Proposal, Floridian Community may furnish nonpublic information and participate in negotiations or discussions if the Floridian Community Board of Directors concludes in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel, that failure to take those actions would result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law. Before providing any nonpublic information, Floridian Community must enter into a confidentiality agreement with the third party no less favorable to it than the confidentiality agreement with FCB. While Floridian Community has the right to enter into negotiations regarding a Superior Proposal under the foregoing circumstances, the Merger Agreement does not allow Floridian Community to terminate the Merger Agreement solely because it has received a Superior Proposal, entered into such negotiations or decided to accept such offer.

For purposes of the Merger Agreement, the terms Acquisition Proposal and Superior Proposal have the following meanings:

The term Acquisition Proposal means, other than the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement:

a tender or exchange offer to acquire more than 20% of the voting power in Floridian Community or any of its significant subsidiaries;

a proposal for a merger, consolidation or other business combination involving Floridian Community or any of its significant subsidiaries; or any other proposal to acquire more than 20% of the voting power in, or more than 20% of the business, assets or deposits of, Floridian Community or any of its significant subsidiaries.

The term Superior Proposal means a bona fide written Acquisition Proposal (with the references to 20% deemed references to 50%) that Floridian Community's Board of Directors concludes in good faith to be more favorable from a financial point of view to its shareholders than the FCB Merger after:

receiving the advice of its financial advisors;

taking into account the likelihood of completion of the proposed transaction (as compared to, and with due regard for, the terms of the Merger Agreement); and taking into account legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of such proposal. Floridian Community has agreed to cease immediately any activities, negotiations or discussions conducted before the date of the Merger Agreement with any other persons with respect to Acquisition Proposals and to use commercially reasonable efforts to enforce any confidentiality or similar agreement relating to such Acquisition Proposals and request and confirm the return or destruction of any confidential information provided to any person other than FCB and its affiliates. Floridian Community has also agreed to promptly notify FCB of receiving any Acquisition Proposal and the substance of the proposal.

In addition, Floridian Community has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain from its shareholders approval of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger. However, if the Floridian Community Board of Directors (after consultation with, and based on the advice of, counsel) determines in good faith that, because of an Acquisition Proposal that Floridian Community's Board of Directors concludes in good faith constitutes a Superior Proposal, to continue to recommend such items to its shareholders would result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law, it may withhold or withdraw or modify its recommendation or submit such items without recommendation and communicate the basis for its lack of recommendation to its shareholders. Floridian Community agreed that before taking such action with respect to an Acquisition Proposal, it will give FCB at least five business days to respond to the proposal and will consider any amendment or modification to the Merger Agreement proposed by FCB.

Under certain circumstances, including if the Merger Agreement is terminated in the event Floridian Community breaches certain obligations described above, Floridian Community must pay FCB a fee equal to $3,100,000. See Termination of the Merger Agreement .

Other Agreements

In addition to the agreements we have described above, we have also agreed in the Merger Agreement to take several other actions, such as:

we agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to complete the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement;

we agreed that FCB and Floridian Community will give notice to the other party of any fact, event or circumstance that is reasonably likely to result in any material adverse effect, as defined in the Merger Agreement, or that would constitute a material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the Merger Agreement;

we agreed that FCB and Floridian Community will give notice to the other party of any fact, event or circumstance that is reasonably likely to result in any material adverse effect, as defined in the Merger Agreement, or that would constitute a material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements in the Merger Agreement;

we agreed that Floridian Community will convene a special meeting of its shareholders within 45 days from the date the registration statement, of which this proxy statement and prospectus is a part, becomes effective to consider and vote on the Merger Proposal, and that Floridian Community will adjourn or postpone such meeting twice if there are insufficient shares of Floridian Community voting common stock or Floridian Community non-voting common stock to constitute a quorum, or if Floridian Community has not then received sufficient proxies to approve the Merger Proposal, except that Floridian does not need to adjourn the meeting twice in the event Floridian's Board of Directors changes its recommendation as a result of a Superior Proposal;

we agreed that FCB will use its reasonable best efforts to cause the shares of FCB Class A common stock to be issued in the Merger to be approved for listing on the NYSE (subject to official notice of issuance) as promptly as practicable, and in any event before the effective time of the Merger;

we agreed that, subject to applicable law, FCB and Floridian Community will cooperate with each other and to prepare promptly and file all necessary documentation to obtain all required permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of third parties and governmental entities, including this proxy statement and prospectus and the Registration Statement for the FCB Class A common stock to be issued in the Merger of which this proxy statement and prospectus is a part;

we agreed that FCB and Floridian Community will provide each other, and each other's officers, employees, counsel, accountants and other authorized representatives, reasonable access during normal business hours throughout the period prior to the effective time of the Merger to the books, records, properties, personnel and other information of FCB or Floridian Community as either FCB or Floridian Community may reasonably request;

we agreed that Floridian Community will provide FCB with copies of documents filed by Floridian Community pursuant to the requirements of federal or state banking or securities laws and all other information concerning the business, properties and personnel of Floridian Community and its subsidiaries as FCB may reasonably request, including providing FCB with biweekly or monthly reports of all non-performing loans, other real estate owned and loans in the process of being modified or having a forbearance granted, and loan and deposit trial balances for the biweekly period beginning with the first full week after the date of the Merger Agreement and until the effective time of the Merger;

we agreed to cooperate on shareholder and employee communications and press releases;

we agreed that Floridian Community will not take any actions that would cause the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement to be subject to any takeover laws;

we agreed to keep any nonpublic information confidential;

we agreed that, if requested by FCB, Floridian Community will have, at least five business days prior to the closing of the Merger, adopted resolutions of its Board of Directors to terminate the Floridian Community 401(k) and Profit Sharing Plan and will have, within 30 days prior to the effective time of the Merger, taken all action necessary to terminate the Floridian Community's Supplemental Executive Retirement Plans;

we agreed that following the effective time of the Merger and ending on the first anniversary thereof, FCB will maintain or cause to be maintained employee benefit plans for the benefit of employees of Floridian Community and its subsidiaries who continue to remain employed by FCB that provide employee benefits which are made available from time to time to similarly situated employees of FCB and will cause each employee benefit plan of FCB in which Floridian Community employees are eligible to participate to take into account, for purposes of eligibility and vesting (and not, other than in the case of vacation benefits, for benefit accrual) thereunder, the service of such employees with Floridian Community as if such service were with FCB, to the same extent that such service was credited under a comparable plan of Floridian Community, and, with respect to welfare benefit plans of FCB in which employees of Floridian Community are eligible to participate, FCB agreed to waive any preexisting conditions, waiting periods and actively at work requirements under such plans;

we agreed that for purposes of each FCB health plan, FCB shall cause any eligible expenses incurred by employees of Floridian Community who are employees of Floridian Community or Floridian Community Bank on the closing date of the Merger and their covered dependents during the portion of the plan year of the comparable plan of Floridian Community or its subsidiaries ending on the date such employee's participation in the corresponding FCB plan begins to be taken into account under such FCB plan for purposes of satisfying all deductible, coinsurance and maximum out-of-pocket requirements applicable to such employee and his or her covered dependents for the applicable plan year of the FCB plan;

we agreed that Floridian Community will deliver to FCB copies of the most recent owner's closing title insurance binder or abstract and surveys for certain real property owned by Floridian Community or its subsidiaries, or such other evidence of title as may be reasonably requested by FCB;

we agreed that FCB will indemnify, defend and hold harmless each person who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date of the Merger Agreement or who becomes prior to the effective time of the Merger, an officer or director of Floridian Community and its subsidiaries (when acting in such capacity) against all costs and liabilities (including any amounts owed pursuant to a deductible, retention or similar provision under the tail directors and officers insurance policy contemplated in the next bullet) arising out of actions or omissions occurring at or prior to the completion of the Merger, that is asserted or commenced prior to the six-year anniversary of the closing date of the Merger;

we agreed that Floridian Community will obtain, effective from and after the effective time of the Merger, a prepaid, fully earned and non-cancellable tail directors and officers liability insurance policy in respect of acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the effective time of the Merger with a claims period of six years from the effective time of the Merger, covering each person who is covered by any such policy of Floridian Community as of the date of the Merger Agreement, with a total annual premium that is no more than 200% of the annual premium paid by Floridian Community for coverage for its current policy year for such insurance. See THE MERGER Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger ;

we agreed to use our commercially reasonable efforts to plan, execute and complete the conversion of the processing, computing, payment and other operating systems of Floridian Community Bank to those of FCB Bank by the closing of the Merger, or at such later time as FCB may determine, provided that such conversion shall not become effective prior to the closing of the Merger;

we agreed that if, after the effective time of the Merger, any further action is necessary to carry out the purposes of the Merger Agreement or to vest FCB with full title to all properties, assets, rights, approvals, immunities and franchises of any of the parties to the Merger, the then current officers and directors of each party to the Merger Agreement and their respective subsidiaries will take or cause to be taken such necessary action; and we agreed that if Floridian Community fails to obtain the requisite vote of its shareholders as contemplated by the Merger Agreement, each of the parties will use its reasonable best efforts to negotiate a restructuring of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement (except that no party may have obligations to (i) alter or change the material terms of the Merger Agreement, including the Merger Consideration, in a manner adverse to it or its shareholders, (ii) adversely affect the tax treatment of the Merger to Floridian Community's shareholders or (iii) forego any rights in the Merger Agreement and/or resubmit the Merger Agreement or the transactions contemplated thereby to its shareholders for approval or adoption).

Conditions to Completion of the Merger

The obligations of FCB and Floridian Community to complete the Merger are subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following conditions:

the Merger Agreement and the Merger must be approved by the requisite vote of holders of Floridian Community common stock;

the required regulatory approvals must be obtained without any conditions that could (i) materially and adversely affect the business, operations or financial condition of FCB (measured on a scale relative to Floridian Community and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole), (ii) require FCB or any of its subsidiaries to make any material covenants or commitments, or complete any divestitures, whether prior to or subsequent to the closing of the Merger, (iii) result in a material adverse effect on Floridian Community and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, (iv) adversely impact the economic benefits expected from the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; or (v) restrict in any material respect or impose a material burden on FCB or any of its subsidiaries in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or with respect to the business or operations of FCB or any of its subsidiaries, and any waiting periods required by law must expire (the foregoing clauses (i) through (v) referred to as a burdensome condition);

the FCB Class A common stock that is to be issued in the Merger must be approved for listing on the NYSE and the Registration Statement filed with the SEC, of which this proxy statement and prospectus is a part, must be effective; and there must be no government action or other legal restraint or prohibition preventing completion of the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

The obligation of Floridian Community to complete the Merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the following conditions:

the representations and warranties of FCB contained in the Merger Agreement must be true and correct in all respects as of the date of the Merger Agreement and as of the closing date of the Merger, other than, in most cases, those failures to be true and correct that would not reasonably be likely to have a material adverse effect on FCB and FCB must have performed all obligations and complied with all agreements and covenants required to be performed by it under the Merger Agreement in all material respects; receipt of a legal opinion from Iglar and Pearlman, P.A., dated as of the date the Merger is completed, that, on the basis of facts, representations and assumptions set forth in the opinion, the Merger will be treated as a tax-free reorganization under federal tax laws.

Floridian Community shall have obtained certain required third-party consents, as defined in the Merger Agreement and shall deliver to FCB an officers certificate to that effect;

Floridian Community shall have fully paid any outstanding balances under that certain line of credit between Floridian Community and a trust controlled by Harvey Sorkin, a member of Floridian Community's board of directors and such line of credit shall have been terminated pursuant to its terms (see "The Merger Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger");

the receipt by FCB of a certificate by Floridian Community stating that it and Floridian Community Bank are not and have not been United States real property holding corporations (provided that FCB's only remedy for failure of this condition will be to withhold from the Exchange Agent any required withholding tax under Section 1445 of the Internal Revenue Code);

Floridian Community shall have delivered to FCB the certificate or certificates representing the shares of common stock of Floridian Community Bank held by Floridian Community; and Floridian Community shall have terminated those certain registration rights and shareholders agreements as of the effective time of the Merger.

No assurance can be provided as to if, or when, the required regulatory approvals necessary to complete the Merger will be obtained, or whether all of the other conditions to the Merger will be satisfied or waived by the party permitted to do so. As discussed below, if the Merger is not completed on or before August 24, 2018, subject to a possible 90-day extension by either party discussed below, either FCB or Floridian Community may terminate the Merger Agreement, unless the failure to complete the Merger by that date is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the Merger Agreement to comply with any of the provisions of the Merger Agreement.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The Merger Agreement may be terminated by either FCB or Floridian Community at any time before or after Floridian Community has received approval of the Merger Proposal by its shareholders:

by our mutual consent;

if the other party is in a continuing breach of a representation, warranty or covenant contained in the Merger Agreement, as long as that breach has not been cured within the earlier of August 24, 2018 and 15 days following written notice thereof and that breach would also allow the non-breaching party not to complete the Merger;

if holders of Floridian Community common stock fail to approve the Merger Proposal;

if any governmental entity that must grant a regulatory approval has denied approval of the Merger, Bank Merger or the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement by final and non-appealable action, but not by a party whose failure to comply with any provision of the Merger Agreement caused, or materially contributed to, such denial, or if an application for a required regulatory approval has been withdrawn upon the request or recommendation of the applicable governmental authority and such authority would not accept the refiling of such application; or if the Merger is not completed on or before August 24, 2018, unless the failure to complete the Merger by this date is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the Merger Agreement to comply with any of the provisions of the Merger Agreement, except that if the Merger is not completed on or before August 24, 2018 and all the conditions to the completion of the Merger, other than the conditions related to regulatory approvals and government action, shall have been satisfied or are capable of being satisfied, either FCB or Floridian Community may extend the Merger Agreement on one occasion for a period of 90 days by written notice to the other party.

The Merger Agreement may also be terminated by FCB at any time before or after the shareholders of Floridian Community approve the matters required to be approved by such shareholders pursuant to the Merger Agreement:

if Floridian Community's Board of Directors submits the Merger Agreement and the other transactions contemplated thereby to its shareholders without a recommendation for approval or with material and adverse qualifications on the approval, or if the Board of Directors otherwise withdraws or materially and adversely modifies its recommendation for approval;

if Floridian Community's Board of Directors recommends an Acquisition Proposal other than the Merger, or if Floridian Community's Board of Directors negotiates or authorizes negotiations with a third party regarding an Acquisition Proposal other than the Merger and those negotiations continue for at least 10 business days, except that negotiations will not include the request and receipt of information from any person that submits an Acquisition Proposal, or discussions regarding such information for the sole purpose of ascertaining the terms of the Acquisition Proposal and determining whether Floridian Community's Board of Directors will, in fact, engage in or authorize negotiations;

if Floridian Community has breached its covenant not to solicit or encourage inquiries or proposals with respect to any Acquisition Proposal, in circumstances not permitted under the Merger Agreement, as described above under Acquisition Proposals by Third Parties ; or if the number of dissenting shares of Floridian Community common stock exceeds 5% of the outstanding shares of Floridian Community common stock.

The Merger Agreement may also be terminated by Floridian Community, if a majority of the Floridian Board of Directors determines within five days of the later of the date on which all required regulatory approvals are received or the date on which Floridian Community's shareholders approve the Merger Agreement that (1) the market value of an FCB share of Class A common stock is less than $41.6075 (subject to customary anti-dilution adjustments) and (2) the ratio of the then current market value of an FCB share of Class A common stock as compared to its value as of November 27, 2017 is less than the ratio of the then current value of the KBW Regional Banking Index as compared to such value as of November 27, 2017 minus 0.15 (all such values calculated as specified in the Merger Agreement). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if Floridian Community elects to terminate the Merger Agreement due to the decline in FCB's stock price, FCB has the option for up to five business days from receipt of notice of such termination to increase the consideration to be received by the holders of Floridian Community common stock by adjusting the exchange ratio pursuant to an agreed formula specified in the Merger Agreement, in which case the Merger Agreement will not be terminated. Because the formula is dependent on the future price of FCB Class A common stock and that of the KBW Regional Banking Index, it is not possible presently to determine what the adjusted Merger consideration would be at this time, but, in general, more shares of FCB Class A common stock would be issued, to take into account the extent by which the average price of FCB Class A common stock exceeded the decline in the average value of the KBW Regional Banking Index.

Table of Contents

The Merger Agreement also provides that Floridian Community must pay FCB a fee equal to $3,100,000 if, on or prior to the termination of the Merger Agreement or 540 days after the termination of the Merger Agreement in certain circumstances set forth in the Merger Agreement, both (i) the Merger Agreement is terminated and (ii) any of the following circumstances occur:

the Board of Directors of Floridian Community submitting the Merger Agreement to its shareholders without a recommendation for approval or with material and adverse conditions on such approval, or otherwise withdrawing or materially and adversely modifying its recommendation (or disclosing its intention to do so);

Floridian Community, without FCB's prior written consent, enters into an agreement to engage in a competing acquisition transaction with any person other than FCB or FCB's subsidiaries;

Floridian Community authorizes, recommends or proposes (or publicly announces its intention to authorize, recommend or propose) an agreement to engage in a competing Acquisition Proposal with any person other than FCB or its subsidiaries or Floridian Community's Board of Directors recommends that Floridian Community shareholders approve or accept such a competing Acquisition Proposal; Floridian Community fails to convene a shareholder meeting to approve the Merger Agreement and the other transactions contemplated thereby, including the Merger, within 45 days of the effectiveness of the registration statement of which this proxy statement and prospectus is a part;

Floridian Community breaches its covenant not to solicit or encourage inquiries or proposals with respect to any Acquisition Proposal in circumstances not permitted under the Merger Agreement, which covenant is described above under Acquisition Proposals by Third Parties ;

any of Floridian Community's principal shareholders (as defined in the Merger Agreement) breaches, and remains in breach, of its obligations in the voting agreement entered into by such shareholder to (i) vote in favor of the Merger Proposal and (ii) comply with certain restrictions on transfer of Floridian Community common stock during the period prior to the effective time of the Merger, in each case after being provided with notice of such breach and a 30-day cure period; or holders of Floridian Community common stock fail to approve the Merger Proposal.

Waiver and Amendment of the Merger Agreement

At any time before completion of the Merger, either FCB or Floridian Community may, to the extent legally allowed, waive in writing compliance by the other with any provision contained in the Merger Agreement. However, once holders of Floridian Community common stock have approved the Merger Proposal, no waiver of any condition may be made that would require further approval by Floridian Community shareholders unless that approval is obtained.

FCB may also change the structure of the Merger or the method effecting the Merger before the effective time of the Merger, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors of Floridian Community, so long as any change does not: (i) change the kind, amount or economic value of consideration to be received by Floridian Community shareholders;

(ii) adversely affect the tax consequences of the Merger to Floridian Community shareholders; (iii) adversely affect the timing of or capability of completion of the Merger; or (iv) cause or could not be reasonably expected to cause any of the conditions to complete the Merger to be incapable of being satisfied.

Dividends

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Floridian Community is prohibited from paying cash dividends to shareholders of its common stock.

Stock Exchange Listing

FCB has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to list the FCB Class A common stock to be issued in the Merger on the NYSE. It is a condition to the completion of the Merger that those shares be approved for listing on the NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance. Following the Merger, FCB expects that its Class A common stock will continue to trade on the NYSE under the symbol FCB .

Voting Agreement

In connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement, and as a condition to FCB's willingness to enter into the Merger Agreement, all of the directors and certain officers and certain significant shareholders of Floridian Community who beneficially owned in the aggregate approximately 34.74% of Floridian Community's outstanding voting common stock and approximately 89.55% of Floridian Community's outstanding non-voting common stock, in each case as of November 27, 2017, have entered into voting agreements with FCB. A copy of the form of these voting agreements is attached as Annex B to this proxy statement and prospectus. Other than directors and certain officers of Floridian Community, the only shareholders that executed the voting agreement owned five percent or more of Floridian Community's outstanding common stock, as of November 27, 2017.

Under the voting agreement, each such shareholder has agreed, with respect to the shares of Floridian Community voting common stock and Floridian non-voting common stock owned of record or beneficially by the shareholder, that at any meeting of Floridian Community shareholders in relation to the Merger Agreement and transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and at the special shareholders meeting or any other meeting or action of Floridian Community shareholders called in relation to such matters, the shareholder shall vote, or cause to be voted, such shares as follows:

vote in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including the Merger, any other matters required to be approved or adopted in order to effect the Merger and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement; and not vote in favor of any competing acquisition proposal or any action that is intended or could reasonably be expected to materially impede, interfere with, delay or materially and adversely affect the merger or any transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

The voting agreement also contains restrictions on the sale, transfer, assignment, pledge or other disposition of the shareholder's shares prior to the effective time of the Merger, unless the proposed transferee executes and delivers an agreement in which it agrees to comply with the requirements of the voting agreement.

The voting agreement will terminate automatically upon the termination of the Merger Agreement.

Table of ContentsMATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following is a general discussion of the material federal income tax consequences of the Merger to U.S. Holders (as hereinafter defined) of Floridian Community common stock that exchange their shares of Floridian Community common stock for shares of FCB Class A common stock. The following discussion is based on current provisions of the Internal Revenue Code, the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, published pronouncements of the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") and case law, all as currently in effect and which are subject to differing interpretations and subject to change at any time by legislative, judicial or administrative action, possibly with retroactive effect. This discussion is limited to U.S. Holders, who hold their shares of Floridian Community common stock as capital assets for U.S. federal income tax purposes (generally, assets held for investment).

This discussion does not address the federal income tax consequences of shareholders who are not U.S. Holders, nor does it address all of the tax consequences relevant to certain U.S. Holders including, but not limited to, S corporations, partnerships or other pass-through entities (including investors in pass-through entities), financial institutions, insurance companies, tax-exempt organizations, trusts described in Sections 1361(c)(2)(A) and 1361(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, dealers in securities or currencies, traders in securities that use a mark to market method of accounting, persons who hold Floridian Community common stock as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale conversion or other integrated transaction, persons who acquired their shares of Floridian Community common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation or through a tax-qualified plan, regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts and foreign persons or persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar. This discussion also does not address the tax consequences of persons who are subject to alternative minimum tax, the tax consequences of the Merger under state, local or foreign tax laws, or any tax consequences arising under the unearned income Medicare contribution tax pursuant to the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010.

All U.S. Holders including, but not limited to, the U.S. Holders referenced immediately above, should consult their own tax advisors about the tax consequences of the Merger to them.

For purposes of this discussion, the term "U.S. Holder" means a beneficial owner of Floridian Community common stock that for U.S. federal income tax purposes is an individual who is a citizen or resident of the U.S., a corporation or entity taxed as a corporation that was organized under the laws of the U.S. or any state or the District of Columbia, an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source, or a trust that (i) is subject to the supervision of a court within the U.S. and the control of one (1) or more U.S. Persons (as hereinafter defined) or (ii) has a valid election in effect under applicable Treasury Regulations to be treated as a U.S. Person. For purposes of this discussion, "U.S. Person" shall have the meaning ascribed to it by Section 7701(a)(30) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally

The parties intend for the Merger to qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for U.S. federal income tax purposes. It is a condition to the obligation of the parties to complete the Merger that FCB obtain an opinion from the law firm of Sullivan & Cromwell LLP and that Floridian Community obtain an opinion from the law firm Iglar and Pearlman, P.A., in each case, that the Merger to be effected pursuant to the Merger Agreement constitutes a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The obligation of each of Sullivan & Cromwell LLP and Iglar and Pearlman, P.A. to deliver such opinions is conditioned on the Merger satisfying the statutory and regulatory requirements of a reorganization. The determination by tax counsel as to whether the Merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code is based on the facts and law existing as of the effective date of the Merger.

Table of Contents

The opinions will be subject to customary qualifications and assumptions, including that the Merger will be completed according to the terms of the Merger Agreement. In rendering the tax opinions, such counsel may require and rely on factual representations of FCB and Floridian Community. If any of such assumptions or representations is or becomes inaccurate, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger could be adversely affected. The opinions will not be binding on the IRS. FCB and Floridian Community do not intend to request any ruling from the IRS as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger. Consequently, no assurance can be given that the IRS will not assert, or that a court will not sustain, a position contrary to any of the tax consequences set forth below or any of the tax consequences described in the tax opinions. Accordingly, each holder of Floridian Community common stock should consult its tax advisor with respect to the particular tax consequences of the Merger to such holder.

Based upon the facts and representations contained in the representation letters received from FCB and Floridian Community in connection with the filing of the Registration Statement on Form S-4 of which this proxy statement and prospectus is a part, it is the opinion of Sullivan & Cromwell LLP and Iglar and Pearlman, P.A. that the Merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code and accordingly, the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger will be as follows:

Tax Consequences to FCB, FCB Shareholders and Floridian Community

No gain or loss will be recognized by FCB, FCB shareholders or Floridian Community with respect to the Merger.

Tax Consequences of the Merger to U.S. Holders of Floridian Community Common Stock

In general, a U.S. Holder who receives FCB Class A common stock in exchange for Floridian Community common stock will not recognize any gain or loss on the exchange for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares of FCB Class A common stock (as discussed below). The aggregate tax basis of FCB Class A common stock received by a U.S. Holder in exchange for their Floridian Community common stock (including any fractional shares of FCB Class A common stock deemed received and redeemed for cash as described below) will be equal to the U.S. Holder's aggregate adjusted tax basis in their Floridian Community common stock exchanged. In addition, the holding period of the FCB Class A common stock received in the Merger (including any fractional shares of FCB Class A common stock deemed received and redeemed for cash as described below) generally will include the holding period of Floridian Community common stock surrendered in the exchange. If a U.S. Holder acquired different blocks of Floridian Community common stock at different times or at different prices, the FCB Class A common stock received in the Merger will be allocated pro rata to each block of Floridian Community common stock, and the basis and holding period of each block of FCB Class A common stock received will be determined on a block-for-block basis depending on the basis and holding period of the blocks of Floridian Community common stock exchanged for such block of FCB Class A common stock.

A U.S. Holder who receives cash in lieu of fractional shares of FCB Class A common stock will be treated as having received such fractional share of FCB Class A common stock pursuant to the Merger and then as having sold that fractional share of FCB Class A common stock for cash. As a result, a U.S. Holder will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the U.S. Holder's basis in the fractional share of FCB Class A common stock determined as described above. Any resultant gain or loss will be capital in nature, and will be long-term or short-term, depending on the period of time the exchanged Floridian Community common stock were held. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Cash payments received in the Merger by a U.S. Holder are subject to information reporting and may, under certain circumstances, be subject to backup withholding, unless the U.S. Holder provides proof of an applicable exemption, furnishes its taxpayer identification number (in the case of individuals, their social security number) and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a U.S. Holder under the backup withholding rules are not an additional tax and will be allowed as a refund or credit against the U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

Reporting Requirements

U.S. Holders who are significant holders and receive FCB Class A common stock in exchange for Floridian Community common stock are required to file a statement with their U.S. federal income tax return setting forth certain information, including, but not limited to, their tax basis (determined immediately before the Merger) in the Floridian Community common stock exchanged in the Merger and the fair market value (determined immediately before the Merger) of the Floridian Community common stock exchanged in the Merger. A significant holder is a holder of Floridian Community common stock who immediately before the Merger (i) owned at least 1% of the total outstanding stock of Floridian Community by vote or by value or (ii) owned stock of Floridian Community with a tax basis of at least $1 million.

All Floridian Community shareholders will be required to retain permanent tax records of the tax basis of Floridian Community common stock exchanged and the FCB Class A common stock and cash received in the Merger.

This discussion is of a general nature only, is not exhaustive, and is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal or tax advice to any particular shareholder. Because of the complexity of the tax law and because of the unique tax consequences to the shareholders following the Merger, each shareholder is strongly urged to consult such shareholder's own tax advisor as to the particular tax consequences to such shareholder of the Merger, including the applicability and effect of federal, state, local, foreign and other tax laws in such shareholder's particular circumstances.

FCB may repurchase shares of its common stock in accordance with applicable legal guidelines. The actual amount of shares repurchased will depend on various factors, including: the discretion of FCB's Board of Directors, market conditions, legal limitations and considerations affecting the amount and timing of repurchase activity, the company's capital position, internal capital generation and alternative potential investment opportunities.

FCB has never paid a cash dividend on its common stock; however, its growth plans may provide the opportunity for FCB to consider a sustainable dividend program at some point in the future. The payment of any dividends is within the discretion of FCB's Board of Directors. The payment of dividends or the acquisition of FCB's own shares in the future, if any, will be contingent upon its revenues and earnings, if any, capital requirements and its general financial condition. FCB is a bank holding company and accordingly, any dividends paid by FCB or acquisitions of its own shares is subject to various federal and state regulatory limitations and also may be subject to the ability of FCB's subsidiary depository institution(s) to make distributions or pay dividends to FCB. The ability of FCB to pay dividends is limited by minimum capital and other requirements prescribed by law and regulation. Banking regulators have authority to impose additional limits on dividends and distributions by FCB and its subsidiaries. Certain restrictive covenants in future debt instruments, if any, may also limit FCB's ability to pay dividends or the FCB Bank's ability to make distributions or pay dividends to FCB.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Floridian Community is generally prohibited from paying cash dividends to holders of its common stock prior to completion of the Merger. To date, Floridian Community has not paid any dividends to its shareholders.

As of November 27, 2017, Floridian Community had approximately 309 shareholders of record for its common stock.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE COMPANIES

The following information should be read with the financial statements incorporated by reference into this proxy statement and prospectus.

FCB

FCB Financial Holdings, Inc. is a bank holding company, headquartered in Weston, Florida, with one wholly-owned national bank subsidiary, Florida Community Bank, National Association. FCB provides a range of financial products and services to individuals, small and medium-sized businesses, some large businesses, and other local organizations and entities through 46 branches in south and central Florida. FCB targets retail customers and commercial customers who are engaged in a wide variety of industries including healthcare and professional services; retail and wholesale trade; tourism; agricultural services; manufacturing; distribution and distribution-related industries; technology; automotive; aviation; food products; building materials; residential housing; and commercial real estate.

Since its formation in April 2009, FCB has raised equity capital and acquired certain assets and assumed certain liabilities of eight failed banks from the FDIC, as receiver. In January 2014, FCB acquired Great Florida Bank, which, combined with the acquisitions of the eight failed banks, are collectively referred to as the Acquisitions. Through the integration of the operations and systems of the acquired banks, FCB has transformed into a large, integrated commercial bank. Subsequent to the Acquisitions, FCB has focused on internal growth. From the Acquisitions and FCB's internal growth, FCB's consolidated total assets, total deposits and total stockholders' equity were $10.23 billion, $8.11 billion and $1.16 billion at September 30, 2017. As of September 30, 2017, FCB and its subsidiaries had 685 full-time equivalent employees.

FCB's principal office is located at 2500 Weston Road, Suite 300, Weston, Florida 33331. Its telephone number is (954) 984-3313.

Impact of Tax Reform on FCB

The recently enacted Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 (the TCJA) resulted in significant changes to the U.S. tax code, including a reduction in the maximum federal corporate income tax rate from 35% to 21%, effective January 1, 2018. FCB is required to revalue its deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities to account for the future impact of lower corporate tax rates on these deferred amounts. The reduction in the federal corporate tax rate will negatively impact FCB's fourth quarter 2017 results but is expected to positively impact FCB's future after-tax earnings.

FCB has performed a preliminary analysis as of December 31, 2017 estimating the impact of this one-time non-cash charge to the income statement of approximately $14.3 million that will reduce FCB's fourth quarter 2017 results. Pursuant to FCB's analysis, the fourth quarter earnings impact will be approximately $(0.31) per share and the tangible book value impact will be approximately $(0.32) per share based on fourth quarter weighted average diluted shares of 46,565,052 and total shares outstanding of 44,380,580 at year end, respectively.

These preliminary estimates of the impact of the TCJA on FCB should not be viewed as a substitute for full financial statements prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles, and are not necessarily indicative of the results to be achieved for any future periods. The estimates have been prepared by FCB management and FCB's independent auditors have not completed their audit or review of such information.

Floridian Community

Floridian Community Holdings, Inc.

Floridian Community was granted permission to operate as a bank holding company by the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta on June 18, 2004. Floridian Community became a bank holding company on July 9, 2004, when it acquired all of the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of Floridian Community Bank. Floridian's primary source of income is from its wholly owned subsidiaries, Floridian Community Bank and Custody. Floridian Community's corporate headquarters is located at 5599 South University Drive, Davie, Florida, which is in Broward County. Floridian Community's telephone number is (954) 434-8050.

Floridian Community Bank

Floridian Community Bank commenced operations on March 10, 2003, as a Florida state-chartered commercial bank. Floridian Community Bank currently operates out of five full service offices. Floridian Community Bank's main office is located at 5599 South University Drive, Davie, Florida, with four branch offices located in Juno Beach, Delray Beach, Wellington, and Boca Raton, Florida.

Floridian Custody Services, Inc.

Floridian Community formed Custody in 2008 for the purpose of being able to enter into the business of safekeeping certificates of deposit, primarily for institutional investors such as credit unions, pension funds, and municipalities. This venture was a result of an opportunity to take over Banco Popular North America's existing custodial business, which at the time safekept $235.1 million in certificates of deposit on behalf of others.

Custody provides custodian services to deposit brokers and their clients, typically institutions, such as credit unions, pension funds, and municipalities, which purchase jumbo CDs in the national brokered CD market. Custody establishes CDs at FDIC-insured institutions throughout the country with funds received from the deposit brokers clients. Custody takes possession of the CDs or evidence thereof and safekeeps those assets. Custody confirms the CD transactions with the clients, remits interest payments to the client pursuant to the terms of the CD, furnishes the client with statements and provides year-end tax reporting functions. In consideration of the services performed, the deposit brokers pay Custody a servicing fee. Custody maintains its clearing accounts with Floridian Community Bank and acts as custodian for Floridian Community Bank in instances where Floridian Community Bank temporarily invests its excess liquidity in CDs as a means to increase net interest income.

Market Area

Floridian Community has identified the Miami Fort Lauderdale West Palm Beach corridor on the east coast of Florida, with a particular focus on Broward and Palm Beach Counties, as its primary business area. Floridian Community Bank currently operates five branch offices strategically located in Broward and Palm Beach Counties. Floridian Community Bank has established its footprint in South Florida specifically targeting lucrative and/or expanding communities. In establishing such a presence, Floridian Community Bank's business model has been to identify vacant branch facilities as opposed to employing a ground up construction approach which can be more costly and time consuming. An important element to Floridian Community Bank's success with opening a new branch is hiring a talented and experienced branch manager well ahead of opening who is familiar with the surrounding area and has a following. In addition, Floridian Community Bank caters to each of these markets by designing specific strategies tailored to their dynamics, in order to extract maximum value and effectively serve customers.

Floridian Community Bank offers a wide range of lending services to the community, providing loans to small to medium sized companies, their owners, and other in market individuals. Included in Floridian Community Bank's array of commercial loan products are commercial real estate loans, loans for equipment financing, working capital lines of credit, and SBA loans. Floridian Community Bank participates in interbank credit arrangements to permit it to take part in commercial loans for amounts which are in excess of legal lending limits. Consumer loans include residential first and second mortgage loans, home equity lines of credit, and, to a lesser extent, consumer installment loans for cars and trucks. Most of Floridian Community Bank's retail lending connections are driven by relationships with commercial clients. Floridian Community Bank maintains strong and disciplined underwriting and credit policies and procedures and makes loans on a nondiscriminatory basis throughout its lending area.

Floridian Community Bank categorizes its loans as follows: commercial real estate, residential real estate (first and second mortgages), construction and land loans, commercial loans, and consumer loans.

Commercial Real Estate Loans. Secured by mortgages on commercial property, these loans are typically more complex and present a higher risk profile than consumer real estate loans. Commercial loans that are secured by owner-occupied commercial real estate are repaid through operating cash flows of the borrower whereas non owner-occupied commercial real estate loans are generally dependent on rental income. The typical maturity for these loans is three to five years; however, payments typically are amortized over a longer period and contain prepayment penalties. Interest rates on commercial real estate loans are generally fixed for five years or less after which they adjust based upon a predetermined spread over an index. At times, a rate may be fixed for longer than five years. As part of the credit underwriting standards, Floridian Community Bank normally requires personal guarantees from the principal owners of the business supported by a review of the principal owners' personal financial statements and tax returns. As part of the risk management process, Floridian Community Bank understands that risks associated with commercial real estate loans include fluctuations in real estate values, the overall strength of the borrower, the overall strength of the economy, new job creation trends, tenant vacancy rates, environmental contamination, and the quality of the borrower's management. In order to mitigate and limit these risks, Floridian Community Bank analyzes the borrower's liquidity cash flow and evaluate collateral value. Currently, the collateral securing commercial real estate loans includes a variety of property types, such as office, warehouse, and retail facilities, multifamily properties, hotels, mixed-use residential and commercial properties. In general, Floridian Community Bank requires the escrow of taxes and insurance for properties securing commercial real estate loans.

Residential Real Estate Loans. Floridian Community Bank offers first and second one-to-four family mortgage loans and home equity lines of credit. The collateral for these loans is generally the borrower's owner-occupied residences. Although these types of loans present lower levels of risk than commercial real estate loans, risks do still exist because of possible fluctuations in the value of the real estate collateral securing the loan, as well as changes in the borrower's financial condition. Borrowers may be affected by numerous factors, including divorce, job loss, illness, or other personal hardship. As part of a product mix, Floridian Community Bank offers both portfolio and secondary market mortgages. Portfolio loans generally consist of 1-year, 3-year, or 5-year adjustable rate mortgages. Generally, Floridian Community Bank sells 15-year or 30-year fixed rate loans to the secondary market. Floridian Community Bank's portfolio residential loans are generally underwritten based on the guidelines of the secondary market, predominantly Freddie Mac and Fannie Mae. In general, Floridian Community Bank requires the escrow of taxes and insurance for properties securing residential real estate loans.

Construction and Land Loans. Typically, these loans have a term of one to two years and the interest is paid monthly. This portion of Floridian Community Bank's loan portfolio includes loans to small-to-medium sized businesses to construct owner-user properties, loans to developers of commercial real estate investment properties, and loans to residential developers. This type of loan is also made to individual clients for construction of single family homes in Floridian Community Bank's market area. An independent appraisal is used to determine the value of the collateral and confirm that the ratio of the loan principal to the value of the collateral will not exceed Floridian Community Bank's policies. In addition, Floridian Community Bank typically requires pre-leasing or pre-sale of projects and an equity contribution from the owner to be injected into the project prior to an initial loan draw. As the construction project progresses, loan proceeds are requested by the borrower to complete phases of construction, and funding is only disbursed after the project has been inspected by a third-party inspector or experienced construction lender. Risks associated with construction and land loans include fluctuations in the value of real estate, project completion risk, and changes in market trends. The ability of the construction loan borrower to move to permanent financing of the loan or sell the property upon completion of the project is another risk factor that also may be affected by changes in market trends after the initial funding of the loan.

Commercial Loans. Floridian Community Bank offers a wide range of commercial loans, including business term loans, equipment financing, lines of credit, and SBA loans. Small-to-medium sized businesses, retail, and professional establishments, make up the target market for commercial loans. Floridian Community Bank's lenders primarily underwrite these loans based on the borrower's ability to service the loan from cash flow. Lines of credit and loans secured by accounts receivable and/or inventory are monitored periodically by staff. Loans secured by all business assets, or a blanket lien are typically only made to highly qualified borrowers due to the nonspecific nature of the collateral. Valuation of business collateral is generally supported by an appraisal, purchase order, or third party physical inspection. Personal guarantees of the principals of business borrowers are usually required. Equipment loans generally have a term of five years or less and may have a fixed or variable rate. Working capital loans generally do not exceed two years and typically, are secured by accounts receivable, inventory, and the personal guarantees of the principals of the business. Significant factors affecting a commercial borrower's credit-worthiness include the quality of management and the ability to evaluate changes in the supply and demand characteristics affecting the business markets for products and services and respond effectively to such changes. These loans may be made unsecured or secured, but most are made on a secured basis. Risks associated with the commercial loan portfolio include local, regional, and national market conditions. Other risk factors could include changes in the borrower's management and fluctuations in collateral value. Additionally, there may be refinancing risk if a commercial loan includes a balloon payment which must be refinanced or paid off at loan maturity. In reference to the risk management process, Floridian Community Bank's commercial loan portfolio presents a higher risk profile than its residential real estate and consumer loan portfolios. Therefore, Floridian Community Bank requires that all loans to businesses must have a clearly stated and reasonable payment plan to allow for timely retirement of debt.

Consumer Loans. The consumer loan portfolio is the smallest portion of Floridian Community Bank's loan portfolio. These loans are made for various consumer purposes, such as the financing of automobiles and trucks. The payment structure of these loans is normally on an installment basis. The risk associated with this category of loans stems from the reduced collateral value for a defaulted loan; it may not provide an adequate source of repayment of the principal. The underwriting on these loans is primarily based on the borrower's financial condition. In some cases, consumer loans are unsecured credits that subject Floridian Community Bank to risk when the borrower's financial condition declines or deteriorates. Consumer loans are made at fixed and variable interest rates and are based on the appropriate amortization for the asset and purpose.

Deposit Services

Deposits are the major source of Floridian Community Bank's funds for lending and other investment purposes. Deposits are gathered principally from within Floridian Community Bank's primary market area through the offering of a broad variety of deposit products, including checking accounts, money-market accounts, regular savings accounts, term CDs (including jumbo CDs in denominations of $100,000 or more), and retirement savings plans. Floridian Community Bank considers regular savings, demand, NOW, and money-market deposit accounts to be core deposits. The majority of deposits are generated within Broward and Palm Beach Counties, Florida area.

Table of Contents

Maturity terms, service fees, and withdrawal penalties are established by Floridian Community Bank on a periodic basis. The determination of rates and terms is predicated on funds acquisition and liquidity requirements, rates paid by competitors, growth goals, and federal regulations. Floridian Community Bank requires that commercial loan borrowers and commercial real estate loan borrowers maintain deposit balances with Floridian Community Bank.

Investments

Floridian Community Bank invests a portion of its assets in U.S. Government agency obligations, government-sponsored enterprises, mortgage-backed securities, municipal securities, and asset-backed securities. Investments are managed in relation to loan demand and deposit growth. Available funds are placed in low risk investments and provide liquidity to fund increases in loan demand or to offset fluctuations in deposits.

With respect to the investment portfolio, the total portfolio may be invested in U.S. Treasuries, general obligations of government agencies, and bank-qualified municipal securities because such securities generally represent a minimal investment risk. Occasionally, Floridian Community Bank may purchase CDs from national and state banks, including CDs safekept by Custody. Floridian Community Bank also invests in mortgage-backed securities which generally have a shorter life than the stated maturity.

Floridian Community Bank monitors changes in financial markets. In addition to portfolio investments, Floridian Community Bank's daily cash position is monitored to ensure that all available funds earn interest at the earliest possible date. A portion of the investment account is designated as secondary reserves and invested in liquid securities that can be readily converted to cash with minimum risk of market loss. These investments usually consist of U.S. Treasury obligations, U.S. Government agencies and federal funds. The remainder of the investment account may be placed in investment securities of a different type and longer maturity. Whenever possible, Floridian Community Bank's strategy is to stagger the maturities of securities to produce a steady cash-flow in the event it needs cash, or economic conditions change to a more favorable rate environment.

Competition

All phases of Floridian Community Bank's operations are highly competitive. Many commercial bank and thrift competitors have assets, capital, and lending limits, which are materially larger than Floridian Community Bank's. Floridian Community Bank competes with other financial service providers for loans and deposits. These competitors include:

large national and super-regional financial institutions;

finance companies, investment banking and brokerage firms, and insurance companies that offer bank-like products;

credit unions, which can offer highly competitive rates on loans and deposits because they receive tax advantages not available to commercial banks;

other community banks, that compete for clients desiring a high level of service;

technology-based financial institutions, including large national and super-regional banks offering on-line deposit, bill payment and mortgage loan application services; and both local and out-of-state trust companies and trust service offices.

Some of the non-traditional financial institution competitors are not subject to the same degree of regulatory oversight to which Floridian Community Bank is subject.

Floridian Community common stock is not registered under the Exchange Act and, accordingly, the company does not file periodic or current reports with the SEC.

FCB shareholder's rights will be governed by Delaware law and the restated certificate of incorporation and the bylaws (as amended) of FCB as may be amended and in effect from time to time. The following description of the material terms of FCB's capital stock, including the Class A common stock to be issued in the Merger, reflects the anticipated state of affairs upon completion of the Merger. We urge all FCB shareholders to read the applicable provisions of Delaware law, FCB's restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws (as amended), and federal law governing bank holding companies carefully and in their entirety. Copies of FCB's restated certificate of incorporation and FCB's bylaws (as amended) have been filed with the SEC. To find out where copies of these documents can be obtained, see WHERE YOU CAN FIND MORE INFORMATION.

General

The FCB restated certificate of incorporation provides that FCB may issue up to 100,000,000 shares of Class A common stock, par value $0.001 per share, and 50,000,000 shares of Class B common stock, par value $0.001 per share, and 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.001 per share. As of January 9, 2018, there were 44,550,780 shares of Class A common stock outstanding and no shares of Class B common stock or preferred stock outstanding. In addition, as of January 9, 2018, there were options and warrants to purchase 4,673,695 shares of Class A common stock outstanding.

Common Stock

Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock. Other than with respect to voting rights and transfer and conversion provisions, each as described below, the Class A common stock and Class B common stock are treated equally and identically.

Voting Rights. The holders of FCB Class A common stock are entitled to one vote for each share held of record on all matters properly submitted to a vote of the shareholders, including the election of directors. Holders of FCB Class B common stock do not have voting power except as required by applicable law. Holders of common stock do not have cumulative voting rights in the election of directors. Accordingly, the holders of a majority of the shares of Class A common stock entitled to vote in any election of directors can elect all of the directors standing for election, if they so choose.

Conversion. Each share of Class B common stock will be convertible into one share of Class A common stock, subject to the following restrictions. Class B common stock may not be converted into Class A common stock in the hands of the initial investor or any of its affiliates and may only be transferred by the initial investor if (A) such transfer is otherwise permitted by FCB's restated certificate of incorporation and (B) such transfer is (i) to an affiliate of the initial investor or to FCB; (ii) in a widespread public distribution; (iii) in transfers in which no transferee (or group of associated transferees) would receive 2% or more of any class of voting securities of FCB; or (iv) to a transferee that would control more than 50% of the voting securities of FCB without any transfer from the investor. Class A common stock may not be converted into Class B common stock.

Dividends. Subject to preferences that may be applicable to any then outstanding preferred stock, holders of common stock are entitled to receive ratably those dividends, if any, as may be declared by the Board of Directors out of legally available funds. See Item 1. Business Supervision and Regulation Regulatory Limits on Dividends and Distributions in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2016.

Liquidation, Dissolution and Winding Up. Upon FCB's liquidation, dissolution or winding up, the holders of common stock will be entitled to share ratably in the assets legally available for distribution to shareholders after the payment of all debts and other liabilities, subject to the prior rights of any preferred stock then outstanding.

Table of Contents

Preemptive Rights. Holders of common stock have no preemptive rights or conversion rights or other subscription rights and there are no redemption or sinking funds provisions applicable to the common stock.

Assessment. All outstanding shares of common stock are fully paid and nonassessable.

Ownership Limitations. If any applicable regulatory authority determines that the identity or structure of a holder of common stock precludes FCB from participating in any acquisition of a financial institution or otherwise precludes the granting of any approval, consent or similar actions, then FCB may require the holder of common stock to transfer such common stock or, at the discretion of FCB and subject to applicable regulatory approval, FCB may repurchase the common stock from such holder.

FCB is a bank holding company. A holder of common stock (or group of holders acting in concert) that (i) directly or indirectly owns, controls or has the power to vote more than 5% of the total voting power of FCB and is a registered bank holding company, (ii) directly or indirectly owns, controls or has the power to vote 10% or more of any class of voting securities of FCB if applicable presumptions are not rebutted, (iii) directly or indirectly owns, controls or has the power to vote 25% or more of any class of voting securities of FCB, or (iv) is otherwise deemed to control FCB under applicable regulatory standards may be subject to important restrictions, such as prior regulatory notice or approval requirements and applicable provisions of the FDIC Statement of Policy on Qualifications for Failed Bank Acquisitions.

Preferred Stock

No shares of preferred stock are issued and outstanding, FCB has no current intent to issue preferred stock in the immediate future. The Board of Directors has the authority, without further action by the shareholders, to issue from time to time the undesignated preferred stock in one or more series and to fix the number of shares, designations, preferences, powers, and relative, participating, optional or other special rights and the qualifications or restrictions thereof. The preferences, powers, rights and restrictions of different series of preferred stock may differ with respect to dividend rates, amounts payable on liquidation, voting rights, conversion rights, redemption provisions, sinking fund provisions, and purchase funds and other matters. The issuance of preferred stock could decrease the amount of earnings and assets available for distribution to holders of common stock or adversely affect the rights and powers, including voting rights, of the holders of common stock, and may have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change in control of FCB.

Anti-Takeover Considerations and Special Provisions of FCB's Restated Certificate of Incorporation, Bylaws (as amended) and Delaware Law

The following sets forth certain provisions of the DGCL, FCB's restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws (as amended). Banking laws also impose notice approval and ongoing regulatory requirements on any shareholder or other party that seeks to acquire direct or indirect control of an FDIC-insured depository institution described above under Ownership Limitations.

Requirements for Advance Notification of Shareholder Nominations and Proposals. FCB's bylaws (as amended) establish advance notice procedures with respect to shareholder proposals and the nomination of candidates for election as directors, other than nominations made by or at the director of FCB's Board of Directors or a committee of FCB's Board of Directors.

Shareholder Meetings. FCB's bylaws (as amended) provide that special meetings of the shareholders may be called for any purpose or purposes pursuant to a resolution approved by the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors, or by the Executive Chairman, the Executive Vice-Chairman, the Chief Executive Officer or the Secretary upon written request signed by the holders of more than 50% of the issued and outstanding stock entitled to vote at such meeting.

Table of Contents

No Action by Shareholders Without a Meeting. The FCB restated certificate of incorporation provides that shareholders are not entitled to act by written consent.

Amendments to FCB's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws. Under the DGCL, FCB's bylaws (as amended) may be modified by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of its outstanding stock entitled to vote thereon. FCB's restated certificate of incorporation provides that FCB's Board of Directors is expressly empowered to adopt, amend or repeal FCB's bylaws (as amended).

The DGCL also provides that any amendment of FCB's restated certificate of incorporation must be made by a resolution of the Board of Directors setting forth the amendment, declaring its advisability, and either calling a special meeting of the shareholders entitled to vote thereon or directing that the amendment proposed be considered at the next annual meeting of the shareholders. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of FCB's outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon is required to approve any amendment to FCB's restated certificate of incorporation; provided, that the prior approval of holders of Class A common stock entitled to vote thereon whose aggregate Class A common stock holdings at such time exceed 80% of all Class A common stock at such time is required to (i) amend or alter the provision of the restated certificate of incorporation regarding amendments to the restated certificate of incorporation and bylaws (as amended) and (ii) to amend or repeal, or adopt any provisions inconsistent with the section of the restated certificate of incorporation regarding the composition and term of office of the FCB Board of Directors.

No Cumulative Voting. The DGCL provides that shareholders are not entitled to the right to cumulate votes in the election of directors unless the restated certificate of incorporation provides otherwise. FCB's restated certificate of incorporation does not provide for cumulative voting in the election of directors.

Director Removal. FCB's bylaws (as amended) provide that holders of Class A common stock entitled to vote thereon whose aggregate Class A common stock holdings at such time exceed 80% of all Class A common stock at such time may remove an officer or director without cause by written notice to the Company and such officer or director.

Section 203 of the DGCL. FCB is subject to Section 203 of the DGCL, which prohibits a Delaware corporation from engaging in any business combination with any interested stockholder for a period of three years after the date that such stockholder became an interested stockholder, with the following exceptions:

before such date, FCB's Board of Directors approved either the business combination or the transaction that resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested holder;

upon completion of the transaction that resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder, the interested stockholder owned at least 85% of the voting stock of the corporation outstanding at the time the transaction began, excluding for purposes of determining the voting stock outstanding (but not the outstanding voting stock owned by the interested stockholder) those shares owned (1) by persons who are directors and also officers and (2) employee stock plans in which employee participants do not have the right to determine confidentially whether shares held subject to the plan will be tendered in a tender or exchange offer; or on or after such date, the business combination is approved by FCB's Board of Directors and authorized at an annual or special meeting of the stockholders, and not by written consent, by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 66 2/3% of the outstanding voting stock that is not owned by the interested stockholder. In general, Section 203 defines business combination to include the following:

any merger or consolidation involving the corporation and the interested stockholder;

any sale, transfer, pledge, or other disposition of 10% or more of the assets of the corporation involving the interested stockholder;

subject to certain exceptions, any transaction that results in the issuance or transfer by the corporation of any stock of the corporation to the interested stockholder;

any transaction involving the corporation that has the effect of increasing the proportionate share of the stock or any class or series of the corporation beneficially owned by the interested stockholder; or the receipt by the interested stockholder of the benefit of any loans, advances, guarantees, pledges, or other financial benefits by or through the corporation.

In general, Section 203 defines an interested stockholder as an entity or person who, together with the person's affiliates and associates, beneficially owns, or within three years prior to the time of determination of interested stockholder status did own, 15% or more of the outstanding voting stock of the corporation.

A Delaware corporation may opt out of Section 203 with an expressed provision in its original certificate of incorporation or an expressed provision in its certificate of incorporation or bylaws resulting from amendments approved by holders of at least a majority of the corporation's outstanding voting shares. FCB has not opted out and intends not to elect to opt out of Section 203.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS FOR NEXT YEAR

FCB

FCB held its 2017 annual meeting of shareholders on May 15, 2017. If the Merger is completed, Floridian Community shareholders will become shareholders of FCB. In order to submit shareholder proposals for the 2018 Annual Meeting of shareholders for inclusion in FCB's proxy statement pursuant to Exchange Act Rule 14a-8, materials must have been received by the Corporate Secretary at FCB's principal office in Weston, Florida, no later than December 4, 2017 (provided, however, if the date of the 2018 annual shareholders' meeting has been changed by more than 30 days from the date of the 2017 annual meeting, then the deadline is a reasonable time before FCB begins to print and send its proxy materials for the 2018 annual meeting).

Proposals must comply with all of the requirements of Exchange Act Rule 14a-8. Proposals should be addressed to: Corporate Secretary, FCB Financial Holdings, Inc., 2500 Weston Road, Suite 300, Weston, Florida 33331. As the rules of the SEC make clear, simply submitting a proposal does not guarantee its inclusion.

FCB's bylaws (as amended) also establish an advance notice procedure with regard to director nominations and shareholder proposals that are not submitted for inclusion in FCB's proxy statement, but that a shareholder instead wishes to present directly at an annual meeting. To be properly brought before the 2018 annual meeting of shareholders, a notice of the nomination or the matter the shareholder wishes to present at the meeting outside of Rule 14a-8 under the Exchange Act must be delivered to or mailed and received by the Corporate Secretary at FCB's principal office in Weston, Florida (see address above) no earlier than January 15, 2018 and no later than February 14, 2018 (provided, however, that if the 2018 annual meeting of shareholders is to be held on a date that is not within 30 days before or later than 70 days after the one-year anniversary of the 2017 annual meeting date, the shareholder's notice in order to be timely must be received by the Corporate Secretary not later than the close of business on the tenth day following the public disclosure of the date of the 2018 annual meeting of shareholders). All director nominations and shareholder proposals must comply with the requirements of FCB's bylaws (as amended), a copy of which may be obtained at no cost from the Corporate Secretary of FCB.

Floridian Community

Floridian Community held its 2017 annual meeting of shareholders on May 16, 2017. If the Merger occurs, there will be no Floridian Community annual meeting of shareholders for 2018. In that case, shareholder proposals must be submitted to FCB in accordance with the procedures described above.

If the Merger is not completed, Floridian Community will hold its 2018 annual meeting in accordance with its current governing documents and as required by Florida law.

No interest will accrue or be paid with respect to any New Certificate or cash to be delivered upon surrender of Old Certificates. If any New Certificate is to be issued or cash is to be paid in a name other than that in which the Old Certificate surrendered in exchange therefor is registered, it will be a condition to the exchange that the Old Certificate so surrendered shall be properly endorsed (or accompanied by an appropriate instrument of transfer) and otherwise in proper form of transfer, and that the person requesting the exchange (1) pay any transfer or other similar Taxes required by reason of the issuance of the New Certificate or the making of the cash payment in a name other than the name of the holder of the surrendered Old Certificate or (2) establish to the reasonable satisfaction of Parent (or the Exchange Agent, as the case may be) that any such Taxes have been paid or are not applicable.

(c) No dividends or other distributions with respect to Parent Common Stock having a record date after the Effective Time will be paid to any holder of Company Common Stock until such holder has surrendered the Old Certificate representing such stock as provided herein. Subject to the effect of applicable Law, following surrender of any such Old Certificates, there shall be paid to the holder of New Certificates issued in exchange therefor, without interest, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time previously payable with respect to the shares of Parent Common Stock represented thereby. To the extent permitted by applicable Law, holders of Company Common Stock who receive Parent Common Stock in the Merger shall be entitled to vote after the Effective Time at any meeting of Parent stockholders the number of whole shares of Parent Common Stock into which their respective shares of Company Common Stock are converted, regardless of whether such holders of Company Common Stock have exchanged their Old Certificates for New Certificates in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement.

(d) Parent shall be entitled to rely upon the Company's stock transfer books to establish the identity of those persons entitled to receive consideration pursuant to this Article 3, which books shall be conclusive with respect thereto. In the event of a dispute with respect to ownership of stock represented by any Old Certificate, Parent shall be entitled to deposit the full consideration represented thereby in escrow with an independent third party and thereafter be relieved from any and all liability and obligation with respect to any claims thereto. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, no party hereto shall be liable to any former holder of Company Common Stock for any amount properly delivered to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Laws.

(p) No Undisclosed Liabilities. Neither the Parent nor any of its Significant Subsidiaries has any material liability, whether asserted or unasserted, absolute or contingent, accrued or unaccrued, liquidated or unliquidated, or due or to become due required in accordance with GAAP to be reflected in audited consolidated statements of financial condition of the Parent or the notes thereto, except for (i) liabilities fully set forth or reserved against on the face of the balance sheet contained in the Parent SEC Filings as of and for the period ending December 31, 2016, for (ii) normal fluctuations in the amount of the liabilities referred to in clause (i) above or other liabilities occurring in the ordinary course of business of the Parent or its Significant Subsidiaries in accordance with past practice since December 31, 2016, which fluctuations in the aggregate are not material to the Parent and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, and (iii) liabilities relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Covenants

6.1 Commercially Reasonable Efforts.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and prior to the Effective Time, the Company and Parent will use commercially reasonable efforts to take, or cause to be taken, in good faith, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper, desirable or advisable under applicable Law, so as to permit consummation of the Merger and the Subsequent Mergers as promptly as practicable and otherwise to enable consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, and each will cooperate with, and furnish information to, the other party to that end.

(b) The Company and Parent will give prompt notice to the other of any fact, event or circumstance known to it that (1) is reasonably likely, individually or taken together with all other facts, events and circumstances known to it, to result in any Material Adverse Effect with respect to it or (2) would cause or constitute a breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained herein that reasonably could be expected to give rise, individually or in the aggregate, to the failure of a condition in Article 7.

(c) From time to time on or prior to the Closing Date, the Company and Parent shall promptly, after it becomes aware, supplement any of its representations and warranties with respect to any fact, change, event or circumstance that has had or is reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect on it or which it believes would or would be reasonably likely to cause or constitute a material breach of any of its representations, warranties or covenants contained herein by delivering a supplemental Disclosure Schedule (Supplemental Disclosure Schedule); provided that any failure to give notice in accordance with the foregoing with respect to any breach shall not be deemed to constitute a violation of this Section 6.1(c) or the failure of any condition set forth in Section 7.2 or Section 7.3 to be satisfied, or otherwise constitute a breach of this Agreement by the party failing to give such notice, in each case unless the underlying breach would independently result in a failure of the conditions set forth in Section 7.2 or Section 7.3. The information contained in any such Supplemental Disclosure Schedule shall not be deemed to have modified any of the representations and warranties of the Company or Parent contained in this Agreement or be considered Previously Disclosed.

6.2 Shareholder Approval.

(a) As promptly as practicable following the date upon which the Registration Statement, filed pursuant to Section 6.5, shall have become effective (but in any event within forty-five (45) days thereof), the Company Board will submit to its shareholders the Company Shareholder Matters and any other matters required to be approved or adopted by such shareholders in order to carry out the intentions of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby. In furtherance of that obligation, the Company will take, in accordance with applicable Law and its Constituent desirable or advisable to convene a meeting of its shareholders (including any adjournment or postponement, the Company Meeting) as promptly as practicable (but in any event within forty-five (45) days of the Registration Statement becoming effective) to consider and vote upon approval of the Company Shareholder Matters and any such other matters. The Company and the Company Board, as applicable, will each use its reasonable best efforts to obtain from each class of the Company's shareholders the required vote to approve the Company Shareholder Matters and any such other matters, including soliciting proxies through the Proxy Statement in accordance with applicable Law and recommending that the Company's shareholders vote in favor of the Company Shareholder Matters (and including such recommendation in the Proxy Statement). The Company shall provide Parent with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment upon all proxy materials prior to the distribution of such proxy materials to shareholders of the Company and all such proxy materials shall be reasonably satisfactory to Parent prior to the distribution thereof.

Documents, all action necessary, proper,

(b) Except as provided in this Section 6.2(b), the Company Board shall communicate to the shareholders of the Company its recommendation that the shareholders adopt and approve the Company Shareholder Matters and include such recommendation in the Company's proxy materials. The Company Board shall not (i) withdraw, qualify or modify, or propose publicly to withdraw, qualify or modify, in a manner adverse to Parent, such recommendation; or (ii) approve or recommend, or propose publicly to approve or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal (each, an Adverse Recommendation Change); provided, however, that, the Company Board may submit this Agreement to the Company's shareholders without recommendation (although the resolutions approving this Agreement as of the date hereof may not be rescinded or amended), in which event the Company Board may communicate the basis for its lack of recommendation to the Company's shareholders in the Proxy Statement or an appropriate amendment or supplement thereto to the extent required by Law, if (A) the Company's Board of Directors determines in good faith, after consultation with the Company FA and counsel, that it has received an Acquisition Proposal (that did not result from a breach of Section 6.7) that is a Superior Proposal and such Superior Proposal has not been withdrawn; (B) the Company Board determines in good faith, after consultation with the Company's outside counsel, that a failure to accept such Superior Proposal would result in a breach of the fiduciary duties of the members of the Company Board under applicable Law; (C) the Company Board provides written notice (a Notice of Recommendation Change) to Parent of its receipt of the Superior Proposal and its intent to announce an Adverse Recommendation Change on the fifth (5th) Business Day following delivery of such notice, which notice shall specify the material terms and conditions and the identity of the third party in any such Superior Proposal (it being understood that any amendment or modification to any material term of such Superior Proposal shall require a new Notice of Recommendation Change and a new notice period as referred to in this Section 6.2(b)); (D) after providing such Notice of Recommendation Change, the Company negotiates in good faith with Parent (if requested by Parent) and provides Parent reasonable opportunity during the five (5) Business Day period following the Notice of Recommendation Change to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement as would enable the Company Board to proceed without an Adverse Recommendation Change; provided, however, that Parent shall not be required to propose any such adjustments; and (E) the Company Board, following the final such five (5) Business Day period, again determines in good faith, after consultation with the Company FA and counsel, that such Acquisition Proposal nonetheless continues to constitute a Superior Proposal and that failure to take such action would be reasonably likely to result in a breach of the fiduciary duties of the members of the Board of Directors of the Company under applicable Law. Nothing in this Agreement shall be interpreted to excuse (1) the Company or the Company Board from complying with its obligation to submit this Agreement and the other Company Shareholder Matters to its shareholders or (2) any party to a Voting Agreement from complying with its obligations thereunder. Neither the Company nor the Company Board shall submit any Acquisition Proposal other than the Merger to the vote of its shareholders unless this Agreement shall have first been terminated in accordance with its terms. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, should the Company Board effect an Adverse Recommendation Change pursuant to this Section 6.2(b) and the Company shareholders, at the Company Meeting with a sufficient number of shares represented to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of such meeting, vote against approval of the Company Shareholder Matters, the Company shall no longer be subject to the requirements set forth in Section 6.2(c) and Parent and the Company shall no longer be subject to the requirements set forth in Section 6.17.

(c) The Company shall adjourn or postpone the Company Meeting if, as of the time for which such meeting is originally scheduled, there are insufficient shares of Company Voting Common Stock or Company Non-Voting Common Stock, as applicable, represented (either in person or by proxy) to constitute a quorum necessary to conduct the business of such meeting, or if on the date of such meeting, the Company has not received proxies representing a sufficient number of shares necessary to approve all of the Company Shareholder Matters, and the Company shall continue to use all reasonable best efforts to assist in the solicitation of proxies from shareholders relating to the approval of the Company Shareholder Matters. The Company shall only be required to adjourn or postpone the Company Meeting twice pursuant to this Section 6.2(c). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, unless this Agreement has been terminated in accordance with its terms, the Company Meeting shall be convened, and the Company Shareholder Matters shall be submitted to the shareholders of the Company at the Company Meeting for approval in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, and nothing contained herein shall be deemed to relieve the Company of such obligation.

(d) The Company shall cooperate and keep Parent informed on a current basis regarding its solicitation efforts and voting results following the dissemination of the Proxy Statement to its shareholders.

(e) In the event that any Principal Shareholder shall breach its obligations under the Voting Agreement, pursuant to Section 13(g) thereof the Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to enforce the terms therein, including Section 2 and Section 5 thereof.

6.3 Regulatory Applications; Third-Party Consents.

(a) Prior to the Effective Time, the Company and Parent and their respective Subsidiaries will cooperate and use reasonable best efforts to prepare as promptly as practicable all documentation, to make all filings and to obtain all consents, approvals, permits and other authorizations of all Governmental Authorities, including, but not limited to, the approval of the FRB and the OCC under the BHC Act and the Bank Merger Act, respectively, necessary to consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby, including the Subsequent Mergers, or those the failure of which to be obtained would reasonably be likely to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material and adverse effect on Parent or the Surviving Corporation (the Requisite Regulatory Approvals), and to make and obtain all other Required Third-Party Consents; notwithstanding the foregoing, Parent and the Company will use reasonable best efforts to prepare and file, or cause their respective Subsidiaries to prepare and file, any applications, notices and filings required in order to obtain the Requisite Regulatory Approvals within forty-five (45) days of the date of this Agreement (but in any event within sixty (60) days of the date of this Agreement). Each of the Company and Parent will have the right to review in advance, and to the extent practicable, each will consult with the other, in each case subject to applicable Law relating to the exchange of information, with respect to all material written information submitted to any third party or any Governmental Authority in connection with the Requisite Regulatory Approvals and the Required Third-Party Consents, other than any information which is otherwise confidential. In exercising the foregoing right, each of the parties will act reasonably and as promptly as practicable. Each party agrees that it will consult with the other party with respect to obtaining all material permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Authorities necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, and each party will keep the other party apprised of the status of material matters relating to completion of the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) The Company and Parent will, upon request (but subject to applicable confidentiality requirements), furnish the other party with all information concerning itself, its Affiliates, directors, officers and stockholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary, proper, desirable or advisable in connection with any filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of such other party or any of its Affiliates with or to any third party or Governmental Authority in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby and to respond to any comment letters received in connection therewith.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything else in this Agreement:

(1) Except as listed in Section 6.3(c)(1) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, the Company (or any Subsidiary thereof) shall not amend, modify, extend, supplement or waive any of the material terms and conditions of any Material Contract without the prior written consent of Parent, nor shall the Company or any Subsidiary thereof, without the prior written consent of Parent, pay or commit to pay to any person whose consent, waiver or approval is being sought any cash or other consideration, make any accommodation or commitment to incur any liability or other obligation to such person in connection with such consent, waiver or approval, except for immaterial customary fees and expenses expressly imposed by the terms of any such Material Contract; provided that in connection therewith, Parent shall not unreasonably withhold, condition or delay its consent; and

(2) Nothing herein shall require Parent to, and the Company and its Subsidiaries shall not, without the prior written consent of Parent, agree to, take any action or commit to take any action in connection with, or agree to any condition on, or request with respect to, any Requisite Regulatory Approval that would (i) materially and adversely affect the business, operations or financial condition of Parent (measured on a scale relative to the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole), (ii) require Parent or any of its Subsidiaries to make any material covenants or commitments, or complete any divestitures, whether prior to or subsequent to the Closing, (iii) result in a Material Adverse Effect on the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, (iv) adversely impact the economic benefits expected from the transactions contemplated hereby or (v) or restrict in any material respect or impose a material burden on Parent or any of its Subsidiaries (including, after the Effective Time, the Company and its Subsidiaries) in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby or with respect to the business or operation of Parent or any of its Subsidiaries (including, after the Effective Time, the Company and its Subsidiaries) (for purposes of clause (v), materiality shall be measured on a scale relative to the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole) (any of the foregoing, a Burdensome Condition).

6.4 Exchange Listing. Parent will use reasonable best efforts to cause the shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued in the Merger to be approved for listing on NYSE, subject to official notice of issuance, as promptly as practicable, and in any event before the Effective Time.

6.5 SEC Filings.

(a) Parent will prepare a registration statement on Form S-4 or other applicable form (the Registration Statement) to be filed by Parent with the SEC in connection with the issuance of Parent Common Stock in the Merger (including the prospectus of the Parent and the notice, proxy statement and other proxy solicitation materials of the Company constituting a part thereof (the Proxy Statement) and all related documents). The parties agree to cooperate, and to cause their Subsidiaries to cooperate, with the other party, its counsel and its accountants, in the preparation of the Registration Statement and the Proxy Statement and to use their reasonable best efforts to cause the filing of the Registration Statement with the SEC within sixty (60) days following the date of this Agreement. Parent will use all reasonable best efforts to cause the Registration Statement to be declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as reasonably practicable after filing thereof and to maintain the effectiveness (including by filing any necessary amendments or supplements) of such Registration Statement until the Effective Time. Parent also agrees to use all reasonable best efforts to obtain all necessary state securities Law or Blue Sky permits and approvals required to carry out the transactions contemplated hereby. The Company agrees to promptly furnish to Parent all information concerning the Company, its Affiliates, officers, directors and shareholders as may be reasonably requested in connection with the foregoing, in a form appropriate (or from which such information can be derived in a commercially reasonable manner) for usage in such document or any such other use.

(b) The Company and Parent each agrees, as to itself and its Affiliates, that none of the information supplied or to be supplied by it for inclusion or incorporation by reference in (1) the Registration Statement will, at the time the Registration Statement and each amendment or supplement thereto, if any, becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading and (2) the Proxy Statement and any amendment or supplement thereto will, at the date of mailing to shareholders and at the time of the Company Meeting, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein, in the light of the circumstances under which such statement was made, not misleading. The Company and Parent each further agree that if it becomes aware that any information furnished by it would cause any of the statements in the Proxy Statement or the Registration Statement to be false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or to omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein not false or misleading, to promptly inform the other party thereof and to take appropriate steps to amend and correct the Proxy Statement or the Registration Statement.

(c) The Company will, upon request, promptly furnish Parent with all information concerning itself, its Affiliates, directors, officers and shareholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary, proper, desirable or advisable in order for Parent to respond promptly to any comments received from the SEC. Parent will advise the Company, promptly after Parent receives notice thereof, of the time when the Registration Statement has become effective or any supplement or amendment has been filed, of the issuance of any stop order or the suspension of the qualification of Parent Common Stock for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, of the initiation or threat of any proceeding for any such purpose, or of any request by the SEC for the amendment or supplement of the Registration Statement or for additional information. Should the SEC request such an amendment or supplement, the parties agree to use their reasonable best efforts to cause the filing of such an amendment or supplement with the SEC as promptly as practicable following the date of receipt of such a request.

6.6 Press Releases. Each party will consult with the other before issuing any press release, employee communication or other shareholder communication with respect to the Merger or this Agreement and will not issue any such press release or make any such communication without the prior written consent of such other party, which will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; provided that a party may, without the prior written consent of the other party (but after prior consultation, to the extent practicable in the circumstances), issue such press release or make such communication as may be required by applicable Law or securities exchange rules. The Company and Parent will cooperate to develop all public communications of the Company and make appropriate members of management available at presentations related to the transactions contemplated hereby as reasonably requested by the other party.

6.7 Acquisition Proposals.

(a) The Company shall not, and shall not authorize or permit any of its Subsidiaries and its Subsidiaries Representatives to, directly or indirectly, solicit, initiate or entertain offers from, negotiate with or in any manner encourage, discuss, accept or consider an Acquisition Proposal of, any other Person. In addition, the Company agrees to immediately cease and cause to be terminated any previously undertaken or ongoing activities, discussions or negotiations conducted before the date of this Agreement with any persons other than Parent with respect to any Acquisition Proposal and will use its reasonable best efforts to enforce any confidentiality or similar agreement relating to an Acquisition Proposal, and within five (5) Business Days after the date hereof, request and confirm the return or destruction of any confidential information provided to any person (other than Parent and its affiliates) pursuant to any such confidentiality or similar agreement. Furthermore, if the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, employees, agents or advisors receives any communication regarding an Acquisition Proposal between the date hereof and the Closing Date, then the Company shall immediately (but in no event later than twenty-four (24) hours) notify Parent of the receipt of such Acquisition Proposal.

A-45

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, prior to the time, but not after, the Company shareholders have approved the Company Shareholder Matters, the Company shall be permitted to furnish nonpublic information regarding the Company to, or enter into discussions or negotiations with, any person in response to a bona fide, unsolicited written Acquisition Proposal submitted by such person if:

(1) the Acquisition Proposal did not result from a breach of this Section 6.7;

(2) the Company Board determines in good faith, after consultation with the Company FA and legal counsel, that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal;

(3) the Company Board determines in good faith, after consultation with the Company's outside counsel, that a failure to take such action would result in a breach of the fiduciary duties of the members of the Company Board under applicable Law;

(4) (A) the Company gives Parent prompt (but in no event later than twenty-four (24) hours) notice (which notice may be oral, but, if oral, shall be subsequently confirmed in writing): (1) of receipt of any Acquisition Proposal by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or its Subsidiaries' Representatives (which notice shall include the identity of such Person or group and the material terms and conditions of any proposals or offers, including, if applicable, copies of any written requests, proposals or offers, including proposed agreements); and (2) of the Company's furnishing nonpublic information to, or entering into discussions or negotiations with, such person or group; and (B) the Company receives from such person or group an executed confidentiality agreement containing terms no less favorable to the Company than the terms of the Confidentiality Agreement (without regard to any modification thereof pursuant hereto or lapse of time); and

(5) contemporaneously with, or promptly after, furnishing any such nonpublic information to such person or group, the Company furnishes such nonpublic information to Parent (to the extent such nonpublic information has not been previously furnished by the Company to Parent).

(c) In addition to the foregoing, the Company shall keep Parent reasonably informed on a prompt basis of the status and material terms of any such Acquisition Proposal, including any material amendments or proposed amendments as to price and other material terms thereof and any change in the Company's intentions with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby.

6.8 Takeover Laws and Provisions. The Company will not take any action that would cause the transactions contemplated hereby to be subject to requirements imposed by any Takeover Law and will take or cause to be taken all commercially reasonable steps within its control to exempt (or ensure the continued exemption of) the transactions contemplated hereby from, or if necessary challenge the validity or applicability of, any applicable Takeover Law, as now or hereafter in effect.

6.9 Access; Information.

(a) The Company and Parent each agree that upon reasonable notice and subject to applicable Law relating to the exchange of information, each will (and will cause its Subsidiaries to) afford each other, and their respective Representatives, such reasonable access during normal business hours throughout the period before the Effective Time to the books, records (including Tax Returns and work papers of independent auditors), properties, personnel and to such other information in its possession or control as either the Company or Parent may reasonably request under the circumstances, including for purposes of facilitating the Conversion and the integration of the Company and its Subsidiaries with Parent and its Subsidiaries. In addition, the Company will furnish promptly to Parent (1) a copy of each report, schedule and other document filed by it pursuant to the requirements of federal or state banking or securities Laws, and (2) all other information in its possession or control concerning the business, properties and personnel of it and its Subsidiaries as Parent may reasonably request. In addition, the Company shall provide Parent biweekly or monthly, as applicable, reports of all non-performing loans, OREO and Loans in the process of being modified or having a forbearance granted, and Loan and deposit trial balances, in each case for each biweekly period beginning with the first full week after the date hereof until the Effective Time as promptly as they become available. The Company and Parent each agree to promptly notify the other of any action, suit, claim, hearing, dispute, subpoena, investigation or proceeding commenced, or to the Knowledge of the Company or Parent, as applicable, threatened against the Company or Parent or any of their respective Subsidiaries that are related to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Neither the Company nor Parent will be required to afford access or disclose information that would jeopardize attorney-client privilege or contravene any binding agreement with any third party. The parties will make appropriate substitute arrangements in circumstances where the previous sentence applies. Each of the Company and Parent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize any interference with the regular business operations of the Company or Parent and their respective Subsidiaries, as applicable, during any such access.

(b) No investigation by Parent or the Company of, or Knowledge that Parent or the Company may have with respect to, the business and affairs of the other party, pursuant to this Section 6.9 or otherwise, will affect or be deemed to modify or waive any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement in this Agreement, or the conditions to Parent's or the Company's, as applicable, obligation to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

(c) Each of Parent and the Company will hold any information it may obtain from the other in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby which is nonpublic and confidential to the extent required by, and in accordance with, the Confidentiality Agreement.

6.10 Debt Instruments. At or before the Effective Time, Parent and the Company will execute and deliver, or cause to be executed and delivered, by or on behalf of Parent and the Company, one or more debt instruments, and take or cause to be taken all such other action, required for the due assumption of the Company's outstanding debt, guarantees, securities, and (to the extent Previously Disclosed by the Company) other agreements to the extent required by the terms of such debt, guarantees, securities or other agreements.

6.11 Indemnification.

(a) To the fullest extent permitted under applicable Law, Parent shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless each natural person who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date hereof or who becomes prior to the Effective Time, an officer or director of the Company and its Subsidiaries (each an Indemnified Party) (in each case, solely when acting in such capacity) against all losses, claims, damages, liabilities, fees, expenses, judgments and fines (including any amounts owed pursuant to a deductible, retention or similar provision under the tail directors and officers liability insurance policy contemplated by Section 6.11(b)) incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit proceeding or investigation arising out of matters, actions or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time (including in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement) that is asserted or commenced prior to the six-year anniversary of the Closing Date, and shall, subject to applicable Law, reimburse each Indemnified Party for any reasonable legal or other expenses incurred by such Indemnified Party in connection with investigating or defending any such losses, claims, damages, liabilities, fees, expenses, judgments and fines as such expenses are incurred, subject to Parent's receipt of an undertaking by such Indemnified Party, in a form satisfactory to Parent, to repay such legal and other fees and expenses paid in advance if it is ultimately determined that such Indemnified Party is not entitled to indemnification; provided, however, that Parent will not be liable for any settlement effected without its prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

(b) The Company shall obtain, at or prior to the Effective Time, and effective from and after the Effective Time, a prepaid, fully earned and non-cancellable tail directors and officers liability insurance policy in respect of acts or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time with a claims period of six years from the Effective Time, covering each person who is covered by any such policy of the Company as of the date of this Agreement, in each case to the extent set forth on Section 6.11(b) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, with the coverage and amounts and containing terms and conditions that are not less advantageous to the directors and officers of the Company and its Subsidiaries than those of the directors and officers liability insurance policy in effect as of the date of this Agreement; provided, however, that the Company shall not expend pursuant to this Agreement, on an annual basis, more than an amount equal to two hundred percent (200%) of the annual premium paid by the Company for coverage for its current policy year for such insurance, and if the premium therefor would be in excess of such amount, the Company shall purchase such tail policy with the greatest coverage available as to matters occurring prior to the Effective Time as is available for a cost not exceeding that premium amount. The obligations under this Section 6.11(b) shall not relieve Parent of any of its other obligations under this Section 6.11.

(c) The obligations of Parent under this Section 6.11 shall survive the consummation of the Merger and shall not be terminated or modified in such a manner as to materially and adversely affect any Indemnified Party to whom this Section 6.11 applies without the consent of such affected Indemnified Party (it being expressly agreed that the Indemnified Parties to whom this Section 6.11 applies shall be third-party beneficiaries of this Section 6.11, each of whom may enforce the provisions of this Section 6.11). Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under Section 6.11(a), upon learning of any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation described above, will promptly notify Parent thereof.

(d) In the event Parent or any of its successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other person and shall not be the continuing or surviving entity in such consolidation or merger or (ii) transfers all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any other person, then, in either such case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of Parent shall assume all the obligations of Parent set forth in this Section 6.11. The agreements and covenants contained herein shall not be deemed to be exclusive of any other rights to which any Indemnified Party is entitled, whether pursuant to Law, contract or otherwise. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to, shall be construed to or shall release, waive or impair any rights to directors and officers insurance claims under any policy that is or has been in existence with respect to the Company or its officers, directors and employees, it being understood and agreed that the indemnification provided for in this Section 6.11 is not prior to, or in substitution to, any such claims under any such policies.

6.12 Benefits Arrangements.

(a) Termination of Company 401(k) Plan.

(1) If requested by Parent in writing, at least five (5) Business Days prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall have adopted resolutions of its board of directors to terminate the Company's 401(k) & Profit Sharing Plan (the Company 401(k) Plan) effective immediately prior to the Effective Time and to fully vest all participants in such Company 401(k) Plan. Before adopting such resolutions, the Company shall provide a draft of such resolutions to Parent for an opportunity to comment thereon, which Parent shall not unreasonably delay.

(2) If the Company 401(k) Plan is terminated pursuant to Section 6.12(a)(1), immediately after the Effective Time, Parent shall (i) offer participation in Parent's tax-qualified defined contribution plan (Parent 401(k) Plan) to each person who was an active participant in the Company 401(k) Plan as of the date of its termination and (ii) permit the Parent 401(k) Plan to, following the Closing Date and pursuant to Section 401(a)(31)(D) of the Code, accept rollover contributions of eligible rollover distributions (within the meaning of Section 401(a)(31) of the Code) of eligible amounts (including outstanding loans) distributed to employees from the Company 401(k) Plan.

(b) Termination of Supplemental Executive Retirement Plans. If requested by the Company, within the thirty (30) days prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall have taken or caused to be taken all such actions as may be necessary to terminate the Company's Supplemental Executive Retirement Plans (the SERPs) effective as of the Effective Time and provide for lump sum payment of the benefits thereunder within thirty (30) days after the Effective Time and to facilitate the administration of the SERPs by Parent after the Effective Time.

(c) Participation in Parent and Parent Bank Sub Benefit Arrangements. Following the Effective Time and ending on the first anniversary thereof, Parent shall maintain or cause to be maintained employee benefit plans (including severance plans or practices) for the benefit of employees (as a group) who are employees of the Company or any Company Subsidiary on the Closing Date and who continue to remain employed with Parent or its Subsidiary after the Effective Time (Covered Employees) that provide employee benefits which are made available from time to time to similarly situated employees of Parent and Parent Bank Sub, as applicable, in accordance with the terms and conditions of such plans in effect from time to time. To the extent that a Covered Employee becomes eligible to participate in a Parent or Parent Bank Sub Benefit Arrangement, Parent or Parent Bank Sub shall cause such Benefit Arrangement to take into account for eligibility and vesting purposes thereunder only (and not for benefit accrual under defined benefit pension plans) the service of such employees with the Company or any Company Subsidiary as if such service were with Parent or Parent Bank Sub, to the same extent that such service was credited under a comparable Benefit Arrangement sponsored or maintained by the Company or any Company Subsidiary, and, with respect to welfare benefit plans of Parent or Parent Bank Sub in which Covered Employees are eligible to participate, Parent agrees to cause each such welfare benefit plan to waive any preexisting conditions, waiting periods and actively at work requirements under such plans. In no event shall such recognition of service operate to duplicate any benefits of a Covered Employee with respect to the same period of service. For purposes of each Parent health plan, Parent shall cause any eligible expenses incurred by Covered Employees and their covered dependents during the portion of the plan year of the comparable plan of the Company or Company Bank Sub ending on the date such employee's participation in the corresponding Parent plan begins to be taken into account under such Parent plan for purposes of satisfying all deductible, coinsurance and maximum out-of-pocket requirements applicable to such employee and his covered dependents for the applicable plan year of the Parent plan.

(d) Amendments; No Third Party Rights. This Section 6.12 shall be binding upon and inure solely to the benefit of each party hereto, and nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to or shall confer upon any other person any right, benefit or remedy of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Section 6.12. In no event shall the terms of this Agreement be deemed to (1) establish, amend, modify, change or terminate any Benefit Arrangement of the Company or its Subsidiaries or Parent or its Subsidiaries, (2) alter or limit the ability of Parent or its Subsidiaries to amend, modify, change or terminate any Benefit Arrangement or any other benefit or employment plan, program, agreement or arrangement after the Closing Date, (3) confer upon any current or former employee or other service provider of the Company or its Subsidiaries, any right to employment or continued employment or continued service with Parent or of its Subsidiaries, or constitute or create an employment or agreement with, or modify the at-will status of any, employee or other service provider, (4) permit any payment to be made to an employee or service provider of the Company or its Subsidiaries that requires prior approval or non-objection from a Governmental Authority without obtaining such prior approval or non-objection or (5) alter or limit the ability of Parent or its Subsidiaries to exercise discretion with respect to eligibility, participation, amounts awarded or payable, or benefits provided, under the terms or provisions of any Benefit Arrangement of Parent or its Subsidiaries.

6.13 Conversion, Data Processing and Related Matters. Prior to the Effective Time, the parties agree to cooperate and to employ their commercially reasonable efforts to plan, execute and complete the Conversion in an orderly and efficient manner as of the Effective Time, or at such later time as Parent may determine; provided that in no event shall the Conversion become effective prior to the Effective Time. Commencing as of the date of this Agreement, the Company and Parent shall each appoint qualified staff members to act as project managers for the Conversion (each, a Conversion Project Manager). Such Conversion Project Managers shall act as the principal contacts between the parties on matters relating to the Conversion, and shall coordinate the assignment of personnel as required and generally facilitate the planning, execution and completion of the Conversion. In addition to any conversion of the data and systems files as part of the Conversion, the parties shall reasonably cooperate in exchanging and providing the information requested and performing such tasks as may be necessary to complete the Conversion, including the collection and input of relevant data, development of new operating procedures and design of forms, in each case, as mutually agreed by the parties. The Company shall, commencing as of the date of this Agreement, provide Parent and Parent Bank Sub with reasonable access to the Company Bank Sub offices, systems and facilities and all relevant information and personnel at such times and places as Parent Bank Sub shall reasonably request (in connection therewith, the parties shall cooperate towards causing the least possible disruption to the Company's and Company Bank Sub's employees, customers and operations), to allow Parent Bank Sub to implement such changes as shall be reasonably necessary to effect the Conversion at the Effective Time, or at such other time following the Effective Time as Company and Parent may mutually determine. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall give Parent, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the operations of Company or its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time, and nothing contained in this Agreement shall give Company, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the operations of Parent or its Subsidiaries prior to the Effective Time. Prior to the Effective Time, each of Parent and Company shall exercise, consistent with, and subject to, the terms and conditions of this Agreement, complete control and supervision over its and its Subsidiaries' respective operations.

6.14 Title Insurance and Surveys. The Company shall deliver to Parent prior to the Closing Date copies of the most recent owner's closing title insurance binder or abstract and surveys on all Owned Real Property, or such other evidence of title as may be reasonably requested by Parent. The Company shall also provide to Parent upon request any updates or new policies, abstracts or surveys on any such real estate as Parent shall reasonably request. 6.15 Shareholder Litigation. Each of Parent and the Company shall promptly notify each other in writing of any action, claim, proceeding, arbitration, audit, hearing, investigation, litigation, suit, subpoena or summons issued, commenced, brought, conducted or heard by or before, or otherwise involving, any Governmental Authority or arbitrator pending or, to the knowledge of Parent or the Company, as applicable, threatened against Parent, the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries that (a) questions or would reasonably be expected to question the validity of this Agreement or the other agreements contemplated hereby or thereby or any actions taken or to be taken by Parent, the Company or their respective Subsidiaries with respect hereto or thereto, or (b) seeks to enjoin, materially delay or otherwise restrain the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby. The Company shall give Parent the opportunity to participate at its own expense in the defense or settlement of any litigation against the Company and or its directors or Affiliates relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and the Company shall not agree to any such settlement without Parent's prior written consent (which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

6.16 Additional Agreements. In case at any time after the Effective Time any further action that is reasonably necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement or to vest Parent or the Surviving Corporation with full title to all properties, assets, rights, approvals, immunities and franchises of any of the parties to the Merger or the Parent Merger, the then current officers and directors of each party to this Agreement and their respective Subsidiaries shall take, or cause to be taken, all such reasonably necessary action as may be reasonably requested by the other party, at the expense of the party who makes any such request.

6.17 Restructuring Efforts. If the Company shall have failed to obtain the requisite vote of its shareholders to approve the Company Shareholder Matters at a duly convened Company Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof, each of the parties shall in good faith use its reasonable best efforts to negotiate a restructuring of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (provided, however, that no party shall have any obligation to agree to (1) alter or change any material term of this Agreement, including the amount or kind of the Per Common Share Consideration, in a manner adverse to such party or its shareholders, (2) adversely affect the Tax treatment, including the Intended Tax Treatment, of the Merger and the Parent Merger to the Company's shareholders or (3) forego any of its other rights under this Agreement) and/or resubmit this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby (or as restructured pursuant to this Section 6.17) to its shareholders for approval or adoption.

Termination

8.1 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated, and the Merger and the transactions contemplated hereby may be abandoned, at any time before the Effective Time, by the Company or Parent, whether prior to or after approval of the Company Shareholder Matters by the requisite votes of the holders of the Company Common Stock and/or the approval of the Parent Common Stock Issuance by the requisite vote of the holders of Parent Common Stock, as follows:

(a) Mutual Agreement. With the mutual written agreement of the other party.

(b) Breach. If there has occurred and is continuing: (1) a breach by the other party of any representation or warranty contained herein or (2) a breach by the other party of any covenant or agreement contained herein; provided that such breach has not been cured within the earlier of the Outside Date and fifteen (15) days following written notice thereof and that such breach (under either clause (1) or (2)) would entitle the non-breaching party not to consummate the Merger under Article 7.

(c) Denial of Shareholder Approval. If the Company Shareholder Matters are not approved by the requisite votes of the holders of the Company Common Stock at the Company Meeting.

(d) Denial or Withdrawal of Application for Regulatory Approval. (1) If the approval of any Governmental Authority required for consummation of the Merger, the Bank Merger or the other transactions contemplated hereby is denied by final, non-appealable action of such Governmental Authority or (2) any application, filing or notice necessary in connection with a Requisite Regulatory Approval has been withdrawn at the request or recommendation of the applicable Governmental Authority and such Governmental Authority would not accept the re-filing of such application; provided that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 8.1(d) shall not be available to any party whose failure to comply with any provision of this Agreement has been the cause of, or materially contributed to, the foregoing.

(e) Outside Date. If the Effective Time has not occurred by the close of business on the date which is two hundred seventy (270) days after the date hereof (the Outside Date); provided that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 8.1(e) shall not be available to any party whose failure to comply with any provision of this Agreement has been the cause of, or materially contributed to, the failure of the Effective Time to occur on or before such date; provided, further that if the Closing shall not have occurred prior to such date and all the conditions to Closing, other than Sections 7.1(b) and (e), shall have been satisfied or shall be capable of being satisfied at such time, the Outside Date may be extended on one occasion by either Parent or the Company for a period of ninety (90) days by written notice to the other party.

(f) Acquisition Proposal.

(1) In the case of Parent only, it will have the right to terminate this Agreement if (A) the Company Board (i) submits this Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby (including the other Company Shareholder Matters) to its shareholders without a recommendation for approval or with material and adverse conditions on such approval (or fails to reconfirm its recommendation after a request to do so by Parent), or otherwise makes an Adverse Recommendation Change, (ii) recommends to its shareholders an Acquisition Proposal other than the Merger or (iii) negotiates or authorizes the conduct of negotiations with a third party regarding an Acquisition Proposal other than the Merger and ten (10) Business Days elapse without such negotiations being discontinued (it being understood and agreed that negotiate will not be deemed to include requesting and receiving information from, or discussing such information with, a person that submits an Acquisition Proposal for the sole purpose of ascertaining the terms of such Acquisition Proposal and determining whether the Company Board will in fact engage in or authorize negotiations) or (B) there is a material breach of Section 6.7.

(g) Dissenting Common Shares. In the case of Parent only, it will have the right to terminate this Agreement if the number of Dissenting Common Shares exceeds five percent (5%) of the outstanding shares of Company Common Stock.

(h) Parent Stock Price. In the case of the Company only, if the Company Board so determines by a majority vote of the members of the entire Company Board, it will have the right to terminate this Agreement, at any time during the five-day period commencing on and following the Determination Date (as defined below), such termination to be effective on the 30th day following such Determination Date, if both of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) The quotient obtained by dividing the Parent Average Stock Price by the Initial Parent Market Price (as defined below) (the Parent Ratio) shall be less than 0.85; and

(2) (x) the Parent Ratio shall be less than (y) the quotient obtained by dividing the Final Index Price by the Initial Index Price on the Starting Date (each as defined below) and subtracting 0.15 from the quotient in this clause (2)(y) (such number in this clause (2)(y) that results from dividing the Final Index Price by the Index Price on the Starting Date being referred to herein as the Index Ratio); subject, however, to the following three sentences. If Company elects to exercise its termination right pursuant to this Section 8.1(h), it shall give written notice thereof to Parent. During the five Business Day period commencing with and following its receipt of such notice, Parent shall have the option to increase the consideration to be received by the holders of Company Common Stock hereunder, either by adjusting the Per Common Share Consideration, or by providing a cash payment so that the Per Common Share Consideration or the combination of such cash payment plus the Per Common Share Consideration, equals the lesser of (x) a number (rounded to the nearest one one-thousandth) obtained by dividing (A) the product of the Initial Parent Market Price, 0.85 and the Per Common Share Consideration by (B) the Parent Average

Stock Price and (y) a number (rounded to the nearest one one-thousandth) obtained by dividing (A) the product of the Index Ratio and the Per Common Share Consideration by (B) the Parent Ratio. If Parent so elects within such five Business Day period, it shall give prompt written notice to Company of such election and the adjusted Per Common Share Consideration, whereupon no termination shall have occurred pursuant to this Section 8.1(h) and this Agreement shall remain in effect in accordance with its terms (except as the Per Common Share Consideration may have been so modified).

Determination Date means the later of (i) the date on which the last Requisite Regulatory Approval is obtained without regard to any requisite waiting period, or (ii) the date on which the approval of the Company Shareholder Matters is obtained.

If Parent or any company belonging to the Index Group declares or effects a stock dividend, reclassification, recapitalization, split-up, combination, exchange of shares or similar transaction between the date of this Agreement and the Determination Date, the prices for the common stock of such company shall be appropriately adjusted for the purposes of applying this Section 8.1(h).

8.2 Effect of Termination and Abandonment.

(a) Except as otherwise provided herein, a termination of this Agreement pursuant to the terms hereof shall be effective immediately upon delivery of written notice by the terminating party to the other parties hereto. If this Agreement is terminated and the Merger and the transactions contemplated hereby are abandoned, no party will have any liability or further obligation under this Agreement, except that the first sentence of Section 5.2(i), Section 5.3(h), Section 6.9(b), this Section 8.2, Section 8.3 and Article 9, as well as any relevant definitions, will survive termination of this Agreement and remain in full force and effect and except that termination will not relieve a party from liability for any willful breach by it of this Agreement.

8.3 Fee.

(a) In the event that, after the date hereof and on or before a Fee Termination Date (as defined below), both (1) any of (A) the Company Board submits this Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby to its shareholders without a recommendation for approval or with material and adverse conditions on such approval, or otherwise withdraws or materially and adversely modifies (or discloses its intention to withdraw or materially and adversely modify) its recommendation referred to in Section 6.2(b), (B) the Company, without having received Parent's prior written consent, enters into an agreement to engage in an Acquisition Transaction with any person (the term person for purposes of this definition having the meaning assigned in Sections 3(a)(9) and 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act) other than Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, (C) the Company authorizes, recommends or proposes (or publicly announces its intention to authorize, recommend or propose) an agreement to engage in an Acquisition Transaction with any person other than Parent or any of its Subsidiaries, (D) the Company Board recommends to its shareholders an Acquisition Transaction other than the Merger, (E) the Company fails to convene a shareholder meeting to approve this Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby in accordance with Section 6.2, (F) the Company breaches Section 6.7 of this Agreement, (G) any Principal Shareholder has breached, and remains in breach, of its obligations under Section 2 or Section 5 of the Voting Agreement entered into by such Principal Shareholder, after being provided with notice of such breach and a thirty (30) day period in which to cure such breach or (H) the Company terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 8.1(c) and (2) this Agreement is terminated (the occurrence of any of clauses (1)(A) through (H) and such termination shall be a Fee Triggering Event), then the Company will pay to Parent a cash termination fee (the Fee) of $3,100,000 plus all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by Parent in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby and in connection with enforcing the payment of the Fee; provided that for purposes of this Section 8.3(a), all references to more than twenty percent (20%) in the definition of Acquisition Transaction shall be deemed to be references to fifty percent (50%) or more . The Fee will be payable, without setoff, by wire transfer in immediately available funds not later than three (3) Business Days following the first occurrence of a Fee Triggering Event to an account specified by Parent for such purpose.

(b) For purposes of this Section 8.3, Fee Termination Date means one (1) day after the day on which the termination of this Agreement is effective; provided, however, if this Agreement is terminated by Parent pursuant to Section 8.1(b), 8.1(c) or Section 8.1(f), then, solely with respect to Section 8.3(a)(1)(B), (C) and (D), the Fee Termination Date means the date that is five hundred and forty (540) days after the termination of this Agreement.

(c) If the Fee has not been received by Parent within three (3) Business Days following the first occurrence of a Fee Triggering Event interest shall accrue on the Fee commencing on the forty-fifth (45th) day following the first occurrence of a Fee Triggering Event, at an annual rate equal to the prime rate, as published in the Wall Street Journal on the date that the Fee was first required to be paid to Parent. The parties acknowledge that the agreements contained in this Section 8.3 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated hereby, and that, without these agreements, the parties would not enter into this Agreement.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, but without limiting the right of any party to recover liabilities or damages, the maximum aggregate amount of fees payable by the Company under Section 8.3(a) shall be equal to the Fee.

(e) Notwithstanding the foregoing, Parent may, at its written election within forty-five (45) days following the first occurrence of a Fee Triggering Event, forego the Fee and pursue any and all rights it may have with respect to this Agreement, provided that if Parent does not so elect, the payment of the Fee by the Company shall constitute liquidated damages and not a penalty, and shall be the sole remedy of Parent in the event of a termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 9Miscellaneous

9.1 Survival. The representations, warranties, agreements and covenants contained in this Agreement will not survive the Effective Time (other than Article 2, Article 3, Section 6.9(c), Section 6.11 and this Article 9).

9.4 Waiver; Amendment.

(a) Any term, provision or condition of this Agreement may be waived in writing at any time by the party which is entitled to the benefits hereof; provided, however, after the approval of the Company Shareholder Matters by the requisite votes of the holders of the Company Common Stock, no waiver of any term, provision or condition hereof shall be made which by law requires further approval of the shareholders of the Company unless such further approval is obtained. Each and every right granted to any party hereunder, or under any other document delivered in connection herewith or therewith, and each and every right allowed it by law or equity, shall be cumulative and may be exercised from time to time. The failure of any party at any time or times to require performance of any provision hereof shall in no manner affect such party's right at a later time to enforce the same. No waiver by any party of a condition or of the breach of any term, agreement, covenant, representation or warranty contained in this Agreement, whether by conduct or otherwise, in any one or more instances shall be deemed to be or construed as a further or continuing waiver of any such condition or breach or a waiver of any other condition or of the breach of any other term, agreement, covenant, representation or warranty of this Agreement.

(b) This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties hereto. Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement may be amended by the parties hereto by action taken by the board of directors of Parent and the board of directors of the Company at any time before or after the approval of the Company Shareholder Matters by the requisite votes of the holders of the Company Common Stock; provided, however, no amendment shall be made after the receipt of such approval which by law requires further approval of the shareholders of the Company unless such further approval is obtained; provided, further, Parent and the Company may without approval of their respective boards of directors, make such technical changes to this Agreement, not inconsistent with the purposes hereof, as may be required to effect or facilitate any Requisite Regulatory Approvals or acceptance of the Merger or of this Agreement or to effect or facilitate any filing or recording required for the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated hereby.

9.5 Alternative Structure. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, before the Effective Time, Parent, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors of the Company, may revise the structure of the Merger or otherwise revise the method of effecting the Merger and the transactions contemplated hereby, provided that (a) such revision does not alter or change the kind, amount or economic value of consideration to be delivered to shareholders of the Company, (b) such revision does not adversely affect the tax consequences to the shareholders of the Company, (c) such revised structure or method is reasonably capable of consummation without significant delay in relation to the structure contemplated herein and (d) such revision does not otherwise cause, and could not reasonably be expected to cause, any of the conditions set forth in Article 7 not to be capable of being fulfilled (unless duly waived by the party entitled to the benefits thereof). This Agreement and any related documents will be appropriately amended in accordance with the terms hereof or thereof in order to reflect any such revised structure or method.

9.6 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware, without giving effect to any principles of conflicts of law or choice of law that would have the effect of giving effect to the laws of another jurisdiction (except that matters relating to the fiduciary duties of the Board of Directors of the Company shall be subject to the laws of the State of Florida).

9.7 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE EACH SUCH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY. This letter agreement (the Agreement) is being entered into in connection with the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of November 27, 2017, (the Merger Agreement), by and among FCB Financial Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Parent), Floridian Community Holdings, Inc., a Florida corporation (the Company), and Flamingo Sub, Inc., a Florida corporation and a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub). Capitalized terms used but not defined herein are to be deemed to have the meanings assigned to them in the Merger Agreement. If this agreement is being provided on behalf of a trust, the term undersigned shall include both the trust and the trustee.

WHEREAS, contemporaneously with the execution of this Agreement, Parent, Company and Merger Sub have entered into the Merger Agreement (as may be amended or supplemented from time to time (which amendment or supplement shall not require the consent of the undersigned)), providing for, among other things, the Merger of Company with and into Merger Sub or any other method of effecting Parent's acquisition of Company in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof, including without limitation through other affiliates of Parent (the Merger) and the other transactions contemplated thereby (together with the Merger, the Transactions); and

WHEREAS, the undersigned acknowledges that it will benefit directly and substantially from the consummation of the Transactions, and as an inducement to and condition of Parent's willingness to enter into the Merger Agreement, the undersigned wishes to enter into this Agreement.

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt, sufficiency and adequacy of which is hereby acknowledged, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Representations and Warranties. The undersigned represents and warrants to Parent that:

(a) The undersigned lawfully owns beneficially (as such term is defined in Rule 13d-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act)) or of record the shares of Company Voting Common Stock and Company Non-Voting Common Stock listed opposite set forth on the signature page hereof (the Owned Shares) free and clear of all Liens and, except for this Agreement and the Merger Agreement, there are no options, warrants or other rights, agreements, arrangements or commitments of any character to which the undersigned is a party relating to the pledge, disposition or Voting of any shares of capital stock of the Company and there are no Voting trusts or Voting agreements with respect to such shares;

(b) The undersigned does not beneficially own (as such term is used in Rule 13d-3 of the Exchange Act) any shares of Company Common Stock other than such Owned Shares and does not have any options, warrants or other rights to acquire any additional shares of capital stock of the Company or any security exercisable for or convertible into shares of capital stock of the Company, except as disclosed in the Company Disclosure Schedule;

(c) The undersigned has full power and authority and has taken all actions necessary to enter into, execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform fully the undersigned's obligations hereunder;

(d) This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered and constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of the undersigned enforceable against the undersigned in accordance with its terms;

(e) Other than filings under the Exchange Act, no notices, reports or other filings are required to be made by the undersigned with, nor are any consents, registrations, approvals, permits or authorizations required to be obtained by the undersigned from any Governmental Authority or other third party, in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement by the undersigned; and

(f) The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by the undersigned does not, and the consummation by the undersigned of the transactions contemplated hereby will not, (i) result in a violation or breach of, or constitute (with or without due notice or lapse of time or both) a default (or give rise to any right of termination, cancellation, modification or acceleration) (whether after the giving of or the passage of time or both) under, any contract, agreement, arrangement or commitment to which the undersigned is a party or which is binding on the undersigned or its assets, (ii) violate, or constitute an unauthorized action under, a charter, certificate of incorporation, declaration of trust, bylaws, limited liability company agreement or any other organizational document of the undersigned or (iii) result in the creation of any Lien on, or security interest in, any of the assets or properties of the undersigned.

2. Agreement to Vote Owned Shares. The undersigned irrevocably and unconditionally agrees that at the Company Meeting, every adjournment or postponement thereof or any other meeting or action of the shareholders of the Company, including a written consent solicitation, the undersigned will (a) Vote all the Owned Shares (or otherwise provide a proxy or consent) in favor of, and will otherwise support, approval of the Merger Agreement, the Merger and any other matters required to be approved or adopted in order to effect the Transactions, including the other Company Shareholder Matters, (b) not vote in favor of, or approve or otherwise support, (i) any action or agreement that would compete with, or impede, or interfere with or that would reasonably be expected to discourage the Transactions or inhibit the timely consummation of the Transactions, (ii) any action or agreement that would result in a breach in any respect of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation of the Company under the Merger Agreement or (iii) any Acquisition Proposal.

For purposes of this Agreement, Vote includes voting in person or by proxy in favor of or against any action, otherwise consenting or withholding consent in respect of any action (including, but not limited to, consenting in accordance with Section 607.0204 of the FBCA) or taking other action in favor of or against any action. Voting shall have a correlative meaning.

3. No Voting Trusts. The undersigned agrees that it will not, nor will the undersigned permit any entity under his, her or its control to, deposit any of its Owned Shares or New Shares in a Voting trust or subject any of their Owned Shares or New Shares to any arrangement with respect to the Voting of such Owned Shares or New Shares other than agreements entered into with Parent.

4. No Proxy Solicitations. The undersigned agrees that it will not, nor will it permit any entity under its control, to:

(a) Solicit proxies or become a participant in a solicitation (as such terms are defined in Regulation 14A under the Exchange Act) in opposition to or competition with the consummation of the Transactions or otherwise encourage or assist any party in taking or planning any action which would compete with, or impede, or interfere with or that would reasonably be expected to discourage the Transactions or inhibit the timely consummation of the Transactions in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement;

(b) Directly or indirectly encourage, initiate or cooperate in a shareholders' Vote or action by written consent of the Company's shareholders in opposition to or in competition with the consummation of the Transactions; or

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Section 4 shall not be interpreted to require the undersigned (to the extent the undersigned acts as a director of the Company) or any of its appointees to the Company Board to take any action that would result in a breach of its or any of its appointees' fiduciary duties under applicable Law.

5. Transfer and Encumbrance. Prior to the Effective Time, the undersigned agrees that the undersigned will not, without the prior written consent of Parent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned) (1) directly or indirectly, sell, hypothecate, gift, bequeath, transfer, assign, pledge or in any way whatsoever otherwise encumber or dispose of (whether for or without consideration, whether voluntarily or involuntarily or by operation of law), or enter into any contract, option, commitment, derivative or other arrangement or understanding with respect to any of the foregoing (each, a Transfer) of, any of the Owned Shares or New Shares, unless the proposed transferee executes and delivers an agreement that pursuant to which such proposed transferee agrees to comply with the requirements of this letter agreement and the undersigned provides prior written notice to Parent of any such proposed Transfer, or (2) take any action or omit to take any action which would prohibit, prevent or preclude the undersigned from performing its obligations under this letter agreement. Parent acknowledges that the undersigned may Transfer any or all of the Owned Shares or New Shares for estate planning or tax planning purposes so long as the proposed transferee executes and delivers an agreement that pursuant to which such proposed transferee agrees to comply with the requirements of this letter agreement and the undersigned provides prior written notice to Parent of any such proposed Transfer.

6. Additional Purchases. The undersigned agrees that it will not purchase or otherwise acquire beneficial ownership (as such term is used in Rule 13d-3 of the Exchange Act) of any shares of Company Common Stock after the execution of this Agreement (New Shares), nor will the undersigned voluntarily acquire the right to Vote or share in the Voting of any shares of Company Common Stock other than the Owned Shares, unless the undersigned agrees immediately after such purchase or acquisition to Vote such New Shares in accordance with Section 2 of this Agreement. The undersigned also agrees that any New Shares acquired or purchased by him, her or it shall be subject to the terms of this Agreement to the same extent as if they constituted Owned Shares.

7. Waiver of Certain Rights and Claims. To the extent applicable, effective as of the Effective Time, the undersigned irrevocably agrees to waive and does hereby waive (1) any and all rights to which the undersigned has been, is or may be entitled under (A) the Company Shareholders Agreement and (B) the Registration Rights Agreement; (2) any and all claims (whether at law, at equity, through arbitration or otherwise) against the Company, Parent, the Surviving Corporation and their respective Affiliates and each of their respective officers, employees and directors to the extent relating to, in connection with or arising from the Company Shareholders Agreement or the Registration Rights Agreement; and (3) any and all claims arising prior to or as of the Effective Time as a result of the undersigned's ownership of the Owned Shares (whether at law, at equity, through arbitration or otherwise) against the Company and entities that are its Affiliates prior to the Effective Time and each of their respective officers, employees and directors (and against Parent and the Surviving Corporation and their respective Affiliates and each of their respective officers, employees and directors, as applicable, each as successors to the Company or any entity that is any Affiliate of the Company prior to the Effective Time), including without limitation claims relating to, in connection with or arising from the Merger Agreement or the Merger, the due authorization and execution and fairness (to the undersigned or otherwise) of the Merger Agreement or the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, other than the right to receive dividends declared by the Company prior to the Effective Time and the consideration provided for in the Merger Agreement upon consummation of the Merger. To avoid doubt, the waiver contained in this Section 7 shall be absolute and perpetual effective as of the Effective Time unless and until such time as this agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 9 below. The undersigned also hereby consents to the termination at the Effective Time of the Company Shareholders Agreement and the Registration Rights Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, clauses (2) and (3) of this Section 7 shall not apply to any rights or claims to which the undersigned may be entitled that arise as a result of any fraud or intentional misconduct that has occurred in connection with the Closing.

8. Specific Performance. The parties acknowledge that there may be no adequate remedy at law for a breach of this Agreement and that money damages may not be an appropriate remedy for breach of this Agreement. Therefore, the parties agree that each party has the right to injunctive relief and specific performance of this Agreement in the event of any breach hereof in addition to any rights it may have for damages, which shall include out of pocket expenses, loss of business opportunities and any other damages, direct and indirect, consequential, punitive or otherwise. The remedies set forth in this Section 9 are cumulative and shall in no way limit any other remedy any party hereto has at law, in equity or pursuant hereto.

9. Termination of this Agreement. This agreement will terminate automatically upon the termination of the Merger Agreement by either or both of the Company or Parent pursuant to Section 8.1 of the Merger Agreement. Upon such termination, no party shall have any further obligations or liabilities hereunder; provided, however, such termination will not relieve any party from liability for any breach of this agreement prior to such termination.

10. Appraisal Rights. The undersigned hereby waives and agrees not to exercise any rights of appraisal or rights to dissent from the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement that he, she or it may have with respect to the Owned Shares under applicable Law.

ANNEX C

Opinion of Hovde Group LLC

November 27, 2017

Board of Directors

Floridian Community Holdings, Inc.

5599 South University Drive, Suite 100

Davie, Florida 33328

Gentlemen:

Hovde Group, LLC (we or Hovde) understand that FCB Financial Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Buyer), Floridian Community Holdings, Inc., a Florida corporation (Seller), and Flamingo Sub, Inc., a newly formed, direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of Buyer (Merger Sub), are about to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger to be dated on or about November 27, 2017 (the Agreement). Subject to the terms and conditions of the Agreement, at the Effective Time, Merger Sub shall merge with and into Seller (the Merger), with Seller being the Surviving Corporation. Immediately following the Merger, Seller shall merge with and into Buyer (the Buyer Merger), with Buyer being the surviving entity in the Buyer Merger and shall continue its existence under the laws of the State of Delaware. Further, subject to the terms and conditions of Annex 2 of the Agreement (the Bank Merger Agreement), immediately following the Effective Time, or such later time as the Buyer may determine, Seller Bank, a wholly-owned Florida state-chartered banking subsidiary of Seller, shall be merged with and into Buyer Bank, a national banking association and wholly-owned subsidiary of Buyer (the Bank Merger). The Buyer Bank shall be the Surviving Bank in the Bank Merger and will continue its existence under the laws of the United States. The Merger, the Buyer Merger and the Bank Merger collectively shall be referred to herein as the Merger Capitalized terms used herein that are not otherwise defined shall have the same meanings attributed to them in the Agreement. For purposes of our analysis and opinion, Agreement as used herein shall refer to the draft Agreement dated November 26, 2017 provided to Hovde by the Seller.

Pursuant and subject to the terms of the Agreement, each share of Seller Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, other than Excluded Common Shares and Dissenting Common Shares, will be converted into and constitute the right to receive a number of shares of Buyer Common Stock, rounded to four decimal places (the Per Common Share Consideration) and cash in lieu of any fractional shares. With your consent, we have assumed that the Per Common Share Consideration is 0.4584 Shares of Buyer Common Stock for each share of Seller Common Stock. Consequently, the value of the Per Common Share Consideration will be the product of the Per Common Share Consideration of 0.4584 shares of Buyer Common Stock and the closing price of the Buyer's Common Stock as of the Closing Date. With your consent, for purposes of the analysis and opinion, we have assumed that the closing price of the Buyer's Common Stock as of the Closing Date is $48.55 (the closing price as of November 24, 2017) which results in the assumed value of the Per Common Stock Consideration of $22.26 per share of Seller Common Stock. Therefore, based upon there being 3,824,248 shares of Seller's Common Stock outstanding as of November 24, 2017, we have assumed for purposes of our analysis and opinion that the total value of the Per Common Share Consideration is $85,109,841 (the Total Value of Per Common Share Consideration).

We note that pursuant to the Agreement, each holder of a Seller Stock Option outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time, the exercise price per share of which is less than the product of (a) the Per Common Share Consideration and (b) the per share volume weighted average price of Buyer Common Stock for the ten trading days immediately preceding the Closing Date (the product being the Merger Consideration Value Per Share), shall be entitled to receive an amount in cash, without any interest and subject to any required Tax withholding, equal to the product of: (i) the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration Value Per Share over the exercise price per share of Seller Common Stock subject to such Seller Stock Option; and (ii) the number of shares of Seller Common Stock subject to such Seller Stock Option. In the event that the exercise price of any Seller Stock Option outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time is equal to or greater than the Merger Consideration Value Per Share, no cash payment or other consideration for such Seller Stock Option shall be due and payable in respect thereof and the Seller Stock Option shall be cancelled as of the Effective Time. With your consent, we have assumed that for purposes of this analysis and opinion that the Merger Consideration Value Per Share is equal to the value of the Per Common Share Consideration of $22.26. We have been advised by you that as of November 24, 2017 there are 393,500 Seller Stock Options outstanding with a weighted average exercise price of $11.99; therefore, we have assumed, based upon the assumed value of the Merger Consideration Value Per Share of $22.13 as set forth above, that the total value of the Seller Stock Option Payment is $4,037,310 (the Total Seller Stock Option Payment). Consequently, the total value of the Merger which we have assumed for purposes of our analysis and opinion is $89,147,151, which is equal to the sum of the Total Value of Per Common Share Consideration of $85,109,841 and the Total Seller Stock Option Payment of $4,037,310.

We note that pursuant to Section 8.1(h) of the Agreement, the Agreement may be terminated by Seller, at any time during the five-day period commencing on the Determination Date (as defined in Section 8.1 of the Agreement), if both of the following conditions are satisfied: (a) the quotient obtained by dividing the average closing price of Buyer Common Stock for the ten trading days ending on the trading day immediately prior to the Determination Date (the Buyer Average Stock Price) by the Initial Buyer Market Price (such quotient being the Buyer Ratio), shall be less than 0.85; and (b) the Buyer Ratio shall be less than 85% of the quotient of (i) the average closing prices of the KBW Regional Bank Index (the Index Group) for the ten trading days ending on the trading day immediately prior to the Determination Date (the Final Index Price) divided by (ii) the Initial Index (such quotient being the Index Ratio). However, if Seller elects to exercise its termination right pursuant to these conditions, Buyer shall have the option, but not the obligation, to increase the consideration to be received by the holders of Seller Common Stock either (i) by adjusting the Per Common Share Consideration, or (ii) by providing a cash payment so that the Per Common Share Consideration or the combination of such cash payment plus the Per Common Share Consideration, equals the lesser of: (x) a number (rounded to the nearest one one-thousandth) obtained by dividing (a) the product of the Initial Buyer Market Price, 0.85 and the Per Common Share Consideration by (b) the Buyer Average Stock Price; and (y) a number (rounded to the nearest one one-thousandth) obtained by dividing (i) the product of the Index Ratio and the Per Common Share Consideration by (ii) the Buyer Ratio. For purposes of our analysis and opinion, we have assumed, with your consent, that the provisions of Section 8.1(h) of the Agreement will not be invoked and will not result in any adjustment to the total assumed value of the Merger of $89,147,151 as set forth above.

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Per Common Share Consideration to holders of Company Common Stock. This opinion addresses only the fairness of the Per Common Share Consideration to be paid in connection with the Merger, and we are not opining on any individual stock, cash, option, or other components of the consideration.

During the course of our engagement and for the purposes of the opinion set forth herein, we have:

- (i) reviewed a draft of the Agreement dated November 24, 2017, as provided to Hovde by the Seller;
- (ii) reviewed unaudited financial statements for the Seller and the Buyer for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2017;

- (iii) reviewed certain historical annual reports of each of the Seller and the Buyer, including audited annual reports for the year ending December 31, 2016;
- (iv) reviewed certain historical publicly available business and financial information concerning each of the Seller and the Buyer;
- (v) reviewed certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating data concerning the Seller;
- (vi) reviewed financial projections prepared by certain members of senior management of the Seller;

C-2

Table of Contents

- (vii) discussed with certain members of senior management of the Seller and the Buyer the business, financial condition, results of operations and future prospects of each entity; the history and past and current operations of the Seller and the Buyer; the Seller's and the Buyer's historical financial performance; and their assessment of the rationale for the Merger;
- (viii) reviewed and analyzed materials detailing the Merger prepared by the Seller and the Buyer and by their respective legal and financial advisors, including the estimated amount and timing of the cost savings and related expenses, purchase accounting adjustments and synergies expected to result from the Merger (the Synergies);
- (ix) analyzed the pro forma financial impact of the Merger on the combined company's earnings, tangible book value, financial ratios and other such metrics we deemed relevant, giving effect to the Merger based on assumptions relating to the Synergies;
- (x) reviewed publicly available consensus mean analyst earnings per share estimates for the Seller and the Buyer for the years ending December 31, 2017 and December 31, 2018;
- (xi) assessed current general economic, market and financial conditions;
- (xii) reviewed the terms of recent merger, acquisition and control investment transactions, to the extent publicly available, involving financial institutions and financial institution holding companies that we considered relevant;
- (xiii) taken into consideration our experience in other similar transactions and securities valuations as well as our knowledge of the banking and financial services industry;
- (xiv) reviewed historical market prices and trading volumes of the Buyer's common stock;
- (xv) reviewed certain publicly available financial and stock market data relating to selected public companies that we deemed relevant to our analysis; and

(xvi) performed such other analyses and considered such other factors as we have deemed appropriate. We have assumed, without investigation, that there have been, and from the date hereof through the Effective Date will be, no material changes in the financial condition and results of operations of Seller or Buyer since the date of the latest financial information described above. We have further assumed, without independent verification, that the representations and financial and other information included in the Agreement and all other related documents and instruments that are referred to therein or otherwise provided to us by Seller and Buyer are true and complete. We have relied upon the management of Seller and Buyer as to the reasonableness and achievability of the financial forecasts, projections and other forward-looking information provided to Hovde by Seller and Buyer, and we assumed such forecasts, projections and other forward-looking information have been reasonably prepared by Seller and Buyer on a basis reflecting the best currently available information and Seller's and Buyer's judgments and estimates. We have assumed that such forecasts, projections and other forward-looking information would be realized in the amounts and at the times contemplated thereby, and we do not assume any responsibility for the accuracy or reasonableness thereof. We have been authorized by Seller to rely upon such forecasts, projections and other information and data, and we express no view as to any such forecasts, projections or other forward-looking information or data, or the bases or assumptions on which they were prepared.

In performing our review, we have assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to us from public sources, that was provided to us by Seller or Buyer or their respective representatives or that was otherwise reviewed by us for purposes of rendering this opinion. We have further relied on the assurances of the respective managements of Seller and Buyer that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. We have not been asked to undertake, and have not undertaken, an independent verification of any of such information, and we do not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. We have assumed that each party to the Agreement would advise us promptly if any information previously provided to us became inaccurate or was required to be updated during the period of our review.

We are not experts in the evaluation of loan and lease portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances for losses with respect thereto. We have assumed that such allowances for Seller and Buyer are, in the aggregate, adequate to cover such losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity. We were not requested to make, and have not made, an independent evaluation, physical inspection or appraisal of the assets, properties, facilities, or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Seller or Buyer, the collateral securing any such assets or liabilities, or the collectability of any such assets, and we were not furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals; nor did we review any loan or credit files of Seller or Buyer.

We have undertaken no independent analysis of any pending or threatened litigation, regulatory action, possible unasserted claims or other contingent liabilities to which Seller or Buyer is a party or may be subject, and our opinion makes no assumption concerning, and therefore does not consider, the possible assertion of claims, outcomes or damages arising out of any such matters. We have also assumed, with your consent, that neither Seller nor Buyer is party to any material pending transaction, including without limitation any financing, recapitalization, acquisition or merger, divestiture or spin-off, other than the Merger contemplated by the Agreement.

We have relied upon and assumed with your consent and without independent verification, that the Merger will be consummated substantially in accordance with the terms set forth in the Agreement, without any waiver of material terms or conditions by Seller or any other party to the Agreement and that the final Agreement will not differ materially from the draft we reviewed. We have assumed that the Merger will be consummated in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations. Seller has advised us that they are not aware of any factors that would impede any necessary regulatory or governmental approval of the Merger. We have assumed that the necessary regulatory and governmental approvals as granted will not be subject to any conditions that would be unduly burdensome on Seller or Buyer or would have a material adverse effect on the contemplated benefits of the Merger.

Our opinion does not consider, include or address: (i) the legal, tax, accounting, or regulatory consequences of the Merger on Seller, or its stockholders; (ii) any advice or opinions provided by any other advisor to the Board or Seller; (iii) any other strategic alternatives that might be available to Seller; or (iv) whether Buyer has sufficient cash or other sources of funds to enable it to pay the consideration contemplated by the Merger.

Our opinion does not constitute a recommendation to Seller as to whether or not Seller should enter into the Agreement or to any stockholders of Seller as to how such stockholders should vote at any meetings of stockholders called to consider and vote upon the Merger. Our opinion does not address the underlying business decision to proceed with the Merger or the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation, if any, to be received by any of the officers, directors or employees of Seller relative to the amount of consideration to be paid with respect to the Merger. Our opinion should not be construed as implying that the Per Common Share Consideration is necessarily the highest or best price that could be obtained in a sale, merger, or combination transaction with a third party. We do not express any opinion as to the value of Buyer's Common Stock following the announcement of the proposed Merger, or the value of Buyer's Common Stock following the consummation of the Merger, or the prices at which shares of Buyer's Common Stock may be purchased or sold at any time. Other than as specifically set forth herein, we are not expressing any opinion with respect to the terms and provisions of the Agreement or the enforceability of any such terms or provisions. Our opinion is not a solvency opinion and does not in any way address the solvency or financial condition of Seller or Buyer.

This opinion was approved by Hovde's fairness opinion committee. This letter is directed solely to the board of directors of Seller and is not to be used for any other purpose or quoted or referred to, in whole or in part, in any registration statement, prospectus, proxy statement, or any other document, except in each case in accordance with our prior written consent; provided, however, that we hereby consent to the inclusion and reference to this letter in any registration statement, proxy statement or information statement to be delivered to the holders of Seller Common Stock in connection with the Merger if, and only if, (i) this letter is quoted in full or attached as an exhibit to such document, (ii) this letter has not been withdrawn prior to the date of such document, and (iii) any description of or reference to Hovde or the analyses performed by Hovde or any summary of this opinion in such filing is in a form acceptable to Hovde and its counsel in the exercise of their reasonable judgment.

Our opinion is based solely upon the information available to us and described above, and the economic, market and other circumstances as they exist as of the date hereof. Events occurring and information that becomes available after the date hereof could materially affect the assumptions and analyses used in preparing this opinion. We have not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this opinion or to otherwise comment upon events occurring or information that becomes available after the date hereof.

In arriving at this opinion, Hovde did not attribute any particular weight to any single analysis or factor considered by it, but rather made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Accordingly, Hovde believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses, without considering all analyses, would create an incomplete view of the process underlying this opinion.

Hovde, as part of its investment banking business, regularly performs valuations of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. In addition to being retained to render this opinion letter, we were retained by Seller to act as its financial advisor in connection with the Merger. In connection with our services, we will receive from Seller a fairness opinion fee that is contingent upon the issuance of this opinion letter and a completion fee that is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger; the opinion fee will be credited in full towards the portion of the completion fee which will become payable to Hovde upon the consummation of the Merger. Seller has also agreed to indemnify us and our affiliates for certain liabilities that may arise out of our engagement.

Other than in connection with this present engagement, in the past two years, Hovde has not provided investment banking or financial advisory services to Seller. During the past two years preceding the date of this opinion Hovde has not provided any investment banking or financial advisory services to Buyer for which it received a fee. We or our affiliates may presently or in the future seek or receive compensation from Buyer in connection with future transactions, or in connection with potential advisory services and corporate transactions, although to our knowledge none are expected at this time. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker/dealer, we may from time to time purchase securities from, and sell securities to, Seller or Buyer or their affiliates, and as a market maker in securities, Hovde may from time to time have a long or short position in, and buy or sell, debt or equity securities of Seller or Buyer for its own accounts and for the accounts of customers. Except for the foregoing, during the past two years there have not been, and there currently are no mutual understandings contemplating in the future, any material relationships between Hovde and Seller or Buyer.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing review, assumptions and limitations, we are of the opinion, as of the date hereof, that the Per Common Share Consideration to be paid in connection with the Merger is fair to the holders of Seller Common Stock from a financial point of view.

Sincerely,

HOVDE GROUP, LLC

When two or more persons agree to act together for the purpose of voting their shares of the corporation, each member of the group formed thereby shall be deemed to have acquired beneficial ownership, as of the date of such agreement, of all voting shares of the corporation beneficially owned by any member of the group.

Court action.

- (1) If a shareholder makes demand for payment under s. 607.1326 which remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence a proceeding within 60 days after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the 60-day period, any shareholder who has made a demand pursuant to s. 607.1326 may commence the proceeding in the name of the corporation.
- (2) The proceeding shall be commenced in the appropriate court of the county in which the corporation's principal office, or, if none, its registered office, in this state is located. If the corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered office in this state, the proceeding shall be commenced in the county in this state in which the principal office or registered office of the domestic corporation merged with the foreign corporation was located at the time of the transaction.
- (3) All shareholders, whether or not residents of this state, whose demands remain unsettled shall be made parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares. The corporation shall serve a copy of the initial pleading in such proceeding upon each shareholder party who is a resident of this state in the manner provided by law for the service of a summons and complaint and upon each nonresident shareholder party by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law.
- (4) The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection (2) is plenary and exclusive. If it so elects, the court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend a decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers shall have the powers described in the order appointing them or in any amendment to the order. The shareholders demanding appraisal rights are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings. There shall be no right to a jury trial.
- (5) Each shareholder made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment for the amount of the fair value of such shareholder's shares, plus interest, as found by the court.
- (6) The corporation shall pay each such shareholder the amount found to be due within 10 days after final determination of the proceedings. Upon payment of the judgment, the shareholder shall cease to have any interest in the shares.

Court costs and counsel fees.

(1) The court in an appraisal proceeding shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs against the corporation, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the shareholders demanding appraisal, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds such shareholders acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this chapter.

(2) The court in an appraisal proceeding may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:

(a) Against the corporation and in favor of any or all shareholders demanding appraisal if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with ss. 607.1320 and 607.1322; or

(b) Against either the corporation or a shareholder demanding appraisal, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this chapter.

(3) If the court in an appraisal proceeding finds that the services of counsel for any shareholder were of substantial benefit to other shareholders similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award to such counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the shareholders who were benefited.

(4) To the extent the corporation fails to make a required payment pursuant to s. 607.1324, the shareholder may sue directly for the amount owed and, to the extent successful, shall be entitled to recover from the corporation all costs and expenses of the suit, including counsel fees.

Florida Statutes § 607.1332.

Disposition of acquired shares.

Shares acquired by a corporation pursuant to payment of the agreed value thereof or pursuant to payment of the judgment entered therefor, as provided in this chapter, may be held and disposed of by such corporation as authorized but unissued shares of the corporation, except that, in the case of a merger or share exchange, they may be held and disposed of as the plan of merger or share exchange otherwise provides. The shares of the surviving corporation into which the shares of such shareholders demanding appraisal rights would have been converted had they assented to the merger shall have the status of authorized but unissued shares of the surviving corporation.

(1) No payment shall be made to a shareholder seeking appraisal rights if, at the time of payment, the corporation is unable to meet the distribution standards of s. 607.06401. In such event, the shareholder shall, at the shareholder's option:

(a) Withdraw his or her notice of intent to assert appraisal rights, which shall in such event be deemed withdrawn with the consent of the corporation; or

(b) Retain his or her status as a claimant against the corporation and, if it is liquidated, be subordinated to the rights of creditors of the corporation, but have rights superior to the shareholders not asserting appraisal rights, and if it is not liquidated, retain his or her right to be paid for the shares, which right the corporation shall be obliged to satisfy when the restrictions of this section do not apply.

(2) The shareholder shall exercise the option under paragraph (1)(a) or paragraph (1)(b) by written notice filed with the corporation within 30 days after the corporation has given written notice that the payment for shares cannot be made because of the restrictions of this section. If the shareholder fails to exercise the option, the shareholder shall be deemed to have withdrawn his or her notice of intent to assert appraisal rights.
