Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 1, 2016, MPLX LP, a Delaware limited partnership (“MPLX”), entered into a Master Reorganization Agreement (the “Master Reorganization Agreement”) by and among various affiliates, including MPLX Holdings Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Holdings”), MarkWest Energy Partners, L.P., a Delaware limited partnership (“MarkWest”), MWE GP LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“MWE GP”), MPLX GP LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“MPLX GP”), MPC Investment LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“MPC Investment”), MPLX Logistics Holdings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“Logistics Holdings”), and MarkWest Hydrocarbon, L.L.C., a Delaware limited liability company (“Hydrocarbon”), whereby the parties agreed to effect or cause to be effected a series of reorganization transactions, including the exchange of all of the issued and outstanding Class A Units representing limited partner interests of MPLX (“MPLX Class A Units”) for newly issued common units representing limited partner interests of MPLX (“MPLX Common Units”) to, among other things, simplify MPLX’s ownership structure by eliminating the MPLX Class A Units, simplify MPLX’s financial and tax reporting and to facilitate the repayment of intercompany debt between Hydrocarbon and MarkWest. Such reorganization transactions include the following, as more fully described in the Master Reorganization Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1:

Hydrocarbon will sell to Logistics Holdings, and Logistics Holdings will purchase, 2,500,000 MPLX Class A Units held by Hydrocarbon for the purchase price payable in cash to Hydrocarbon of $83,750,000, with such number of MPLX Class A Units purchased calculated based on the simple average of the closing prices of MPLX Common Units as reported on the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) for the last ten trading days prior to September 1, 2016.

MPLX will transfer (i) 980 shares of Holdings common stock, representing a 98 percent ownership interest of Holdings, to Logistics Holdings, in exchange for 21,401,137 MPLX Common Units held by Logistics Holdings, which number of MPLX Common Units to be exchanged shall be calculated based on the simple average of the closing prices of MPLX Common Units as reported on the NYSE for the last ten trading days prior to September 1, 2016, and (ii) 20 shares of Holdings common stock, representing a 2 percent ownership interest of Holdings, to MPLX GP, in exchange for 436,758 MPLX general partner units held by MPLX GP, which number of MPLX general partner units to be exchanged shall be calculated based on the simple average of the closing prices of MPLX Common Units as reported on NYSE for the last ten trading days prior to September 1, 2016.

MPLX will issue (i) MPLX Common Units to Hydrocarbon in exchange for all of the MPLX Class A Units then held by Hydrocarbon and (ii) MPLX Common Units to Logistics Holdings in exchange for all of the MPLX Class A Units then held by Logistics Holdings, in each case based on a one-to-one conversion, eliminating all issued and outstanding MPLX Class A Units.

Hydrocarbon will transfer cash in the amount of $225 million to MarkWest in full payment and satisfaction of an intercompany loan owed by Hydrocarbon to MarkWest. Hydrocarbon will distribute to Holdings all of the MPLX Common Units issued to Hydrocarbon.

The foregoing description of the Master Reorganization Agreement does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Master Reorganization Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

MPC Investment is the sole member of MPLX GP, the general partner of MPLX, and is a wholly owned subsidiary of Marathon Petroleum Corporation, a Delaware corporation (“MPC”).
