Section 5 Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

On March 8, 2007, R. Edward Flood informed the Company that, for personal reasons, he did not intend to stand for re-election as a director of the Company at the next annual meeting of the Company's shareholders. Accordingly, Mr. Flood's term as a director will end at the conclusion of the Company's annual meeting of shareholders scheduled for May 3, 2007.

Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On March 8, 2007, the Company's board of directors amended the Company's bylaws to permit the Company's common shares to be issued and transferred electronically without a physical share certificate. The Company's common shares are quoted on the Nasdaq Capital Market ( "Nasdaq" ). The United States Securities and Exchange Commission recently approved amendments to the Nasdaq Marketplace Rules requiring securities listed on Nasdaq to be eligible for a Direct Registration Program ( "DRP" ), which permits a securityholder's ownership of securities to be recorded and maintained on the books of the issuer or the transfer agent without the issuance of a physical security certificate. In lieu of physical security certificates, securityholders who elect to participate in a DRP receive annual statements from the issuer indicating their holdings.

The amendments to Nasdaq's Marketplace Rules require that, on or before January 1, 2008, the Company's common shares be eligible to participate in a DRP. In order to be eligible, the Company's common shares must be capable of being issued and transferred electronically without physical share certificates. Before being amended by the Company's board of directors, the bylaws provided that a common share could only be transferred on the Company's share register upon presentation of the certificate representing the common shares to be transferred. Accordingly, unless amended, the bylaws would effectively preclude the Company's common shares from being eligible to participate in a DRP and, as a result, the Company would cease to be in compliance with the applicable Nasdaq Marketplace Rule as of January 1, 2008.

The amended bylaws took effect as of March 8, 2007 but will cease to be effective as of the date of the Company's next annual meeting of shareholders, scheduled for May 3, 2007, unless they are confirmed by the shareholders at that meeting.
