Emmis Communications Corporation Announces Going Private Merger Agreement

Indianapolis, IN— May 25, 2010 — Emmis Communications Corporation (Nasdaq: EMMS) announced today that it has signed a definitive merger agreement which will result in Emmis being taken private by JS Acquisition, LLC, a company formed by its Chairman and CEO, Jeffrey H. Smulyan. The financing for the transaction will be provided by an affiliate of Alden Global Capital, a private asset management company with over $3 billion under management, pursuant to a definitive agreement with JS Acquisition that was signed last night.

The going private transaction will be effectuated through a cash tender offer for its Class A Common Stock at $2.40 per Share, an exchange offer of 12% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2017 for its Preferred Stock, amendments to its Articles affecting the Preferred Stock and a back-end merger.

The merger agreement, the tender offer, the exchange offer and the Preferred Stock amendments were unanimously approved today by the Board of Directors of Emmis. Approval of the tender offer and merger agreement were recommended by a Committee of Disinterested Directors of Emmis.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, JS Acquisition will commence a cash tender offer to acquire all of the outstanding shares of Class A Common Stock of Emmis for $2.40 per share. Any Class A Common Stock that is not tendered pursuant to the offer will be cashed out at $2.40 per share in the back-end merger. The all cash purchase price of $2.40 per share represents a 74% premium over the 30-trading day average closing price of the Class A Common Stock and a 118% premium over the 180-trading day average closing price of the Class A Common Stock as of April 26, 2010, the date when Mr. Smulyan and Alden first announced their intention to pursue the transaction.

The completion of the tender offer will be subject to the condition that the number of shares validly tendered, when combined with the shares held by JS Acquisition and its investors, including Mr. Smulyan and Alden, represents at least a majority of the outstanding Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock. The completion of the tender offer is also subject to other conditions, including the completion and effectiveness of the amendments to the terms of the Preferred Stock described below, the Alden funding and other customary conditions.

The merger agreement also requires Emmis to commence an offer to exchange all of its outstanding Preferred Stock for newly-issued 12% Senior Subordinated Notes due 2017 of Emmis with an aggregate principal amount equal to 60% of the aggregate liquidation preference (excluding accrued and unpaid dividends) of the Preferred Stock. In connection with the exchange offer and as a condition to Emmis accepting shares tendered therein, exchanging holders will be required to consent to (i) eliminate the provisions of Emmis' Articles of Incorporation providing for a redemption, at par plus accrued and unpaid dividends, in connection with a going private transaction, (ii) provide for the automatic conversion of any Preferred Stock not exchanged (other than Preferred Stock held by Alden, which will be converted into Notes) upon the merger into $5.86 (the amount of consideration that would be paid to holders of shares of Class A Common Stock into which the Preferred Stock was convertible immediately prior to the merger) and (iii) eliminate the right of holders of Preferred Stock to nominate directors to Emmis' board of directors in certain circumstances. For the amendments to be effective they must receive the vote of holders of two-thirds of the outstanding Preferred Stock and more shares of Common Stock must be voted in favor of the Amendments than against. Alden, which currently holds 41.4% of the Preferred Stock, has agreed to vote in favor of such amendments and exchange its Preferred Stock for Notes. JS Acquisition and Alden have agreed to vote their shares of Common Stock in favor; therefore the Common Stock vote will be obtained.

Morgan Stanley acted as financial advisor to the Committee of Disinterested Directors, and Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP and Barnes & Thornburg LLP served as their legal counsel. Moelis & Company and BIA Capital Strategies LLC are acting as financial advisors to JS Acquisition. Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP and Taft Stettinius & Hollister LLP are acting as legal counsel to JS Acquisition. Alden is represented by Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP and Krieg DeVault LLP.

The following is a communication issued by Emmis Communications Corporation on May 26, 2010 to its employees.

Subject: Go-Private Transactions

Last evening, Emmis Communications and CEO Jeff Smulyan (through JS Acquisition which was formed for the purpose of completing the go-private transactions) announced plans to formalize the $2.40 per share offer to purchase Emmis' Class A common stock and the offer to exchange Emmis' preferred stock into debt. Earlier this week, Jeff and his investment partner, Alden Global Capital, signed a definitive agreement for Alden to provide the required financing for the go-private transactions. Jeff would ordinarily communicate this important information to you, but given his direct involvement in the transactions, I am pinch hitting for Jeff.

Yesterday's announcement is the next step in the process Jeff and Alden announced on April 26, 2010. I wanted to send you this brief update because I'm certain you will read more about the go-private transactions in various industry trades in the coming days.

Alden Global Capital is a large, multi-billion dollar investment firm with interests in many companies in various industries, including media. If the proposed transactions are completed, Jeff will be the majority shareholder, Chairman and CEO of privately-held Emmis and while Alden will have certain rights as a minority shareholder under the proposed transactions, they will not be involved in the day-to-day operations of Emmis. The transaction should not result in changes to how we operate the business.

If you own Emmis common or preferred shares, you'll receive more information in the mail on the proposed transactions in the coming days including instructions on how to tender your shares. In the event all the proposed transactions are completed, there are several items that will be of interest to employees:

1. If you hold unvested Emmis stock options with an exercise price less than $2.40, the vesting of these options will accelerate and at closing the options will be cashed out at $2.40 less your exercise prices less applicable tax withholding.
2. If you have unvested restricted stock or unvested restricted stock units, the vesting of these shares or units will accelerate and at closing the shares or units will be cashed out at $2.40 less applicable tax withholding.
3. If you hold vested or unvested Emmis stock options with an exercise price of $2.40 or more, these out-of-the-money stock options will be cancelled.
4. If you own Emmis common shares including shares in the 401k plan, shares held by brokers like Merrill Lynch, or shares held in certificate form, these shares, if tendered, will be cashed out at $2.40 at the completion of the tender offer. If you do not tender, your owned shares will be cashed out at $2.40 at closing.

Successful completion of the go-private transactions is estimated to take three months. During this process and after the process concludes, regardless of the outcome, our work is unchanged: execute our strategy, hit our budgets and key metrics, and deliver for our listeners, readers and advertisers. In other words, we will keep you updated, but stay focused on what matters most in this important rebuilding year for Emmis.

If you are contacted by a shareholder or member of the media, please direct inquiries to me. Let me know if you have questions.
