Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On November 12, 2010, the Board of Directors of Voyager Oil & Gas, Inc. (the Company) appointed a new director, Josh Sherman to serve on the Board of Directors.

Mr. Sherman is a Partner at Opportune, LLP, an independent consultancy focused on the energy industry. Mr. Sherman is currently the partner in charge of the Complex Reporting Group of Opportune in Houston and Denver. Mr. Sherman has over 12 years experience with the technical aspects of financial reporting, SEC filings and financial due diligence assistance.

Prior to working with Opportune, LLP, Mr. Sherman worked in the audit and global energy markets departments with Deloitte & Touche where he managed the audits of regulated gas and electric utilities, independent power producers and energy trading entities. A Certified Public Accountant and a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Mr. Sherman holds a BBA and a Masters in Accountancy from the University of Texas.

As an independent director, Mr. Sherman will serve as the primary financial expert on the Company s Board of Directors and will chair the Company s Audit Committee. As compensation for his agreement to serve, Mr. Sherman was granted stock options consistent with option grants made to other outside directors.

On November 12, 2010 Bradley Berman tendered his resignation to the Company s Board of Directors. Mr. Berman has decided to focus on other business ventures.

The Company issued a press release relating to the changes in its Board of Directors November 18, 2010 which is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
