Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On December 29, 2008, Xerium Technologies, Inc. (the Company) was notified by NYSE Regulation, Inc. (NYSER) that it was not in compliance with the New York Stock Exchange's (NYSE) continued listing criteria under Sections 802.01B and C of the NYSE Listed Company Manual (the Listed Company Manual). Specifically, the Company is considered below criteria by the NYSE because (i) the average closing price of the Company's common stock was less than $1.00 per share over a consecutive 30 trading day period, and (ii) the Company's average total market capitalization has been less than $75 million over the same period and its most recently reported stockholders' equity was less than $75 million.

Under applicable NYSE rules, the Company has 45 days from the receipt of the notice to submit a plan advising the NYSE of definitive actions the Company has taken, or proposes to take, that would bring it into compliance with the market capitalization listing standards within 18 months of receipt of the letter. The Company intends to submit such a plan within the prescribed timeframe. Additionally, since the Company is below the share price criterion, it must bring its share price and average share price above $1.00 within the longer of six months of receipt of the notification or its next annual meeting of stockholders if stockholder action is proposed. During this time, the Company's common shares will continue to be listed on the NYSE, subject to the Company's compliance with other NYSE continued listing standards but will be assigned a .BC suffix by the NYSE to signify that the Company is not currently in compliance with the NYSE continued listing standards. If the Company is not compliant with the continued listing standards within the applicable timeframe, its common stock will be subject to suspension and delisting by the NYSE.

On January 5, 2009, the Company issued a press release announcing that it had received a notice from NYSER that it was not in compliance with the NYSE's continued listing criteria under Sections 802.01B and C of the Listed Company Manual. A copy of the press release issued by the Company is attached as Exhibit 99.1 hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
