LEADING INDEPENDENT ADVISORY FIRM GLASS LEWIS RECOMMENDS STOCKHOLDERS OF BOOKS-A-MILLION, INC. VOTE FOR THE PROPOSED TAKE-PRIVATE TRANSACTION

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (November 25, 2015) Books-A-Million, Inc. (NASDAQ: BAMM) (the Company) is pleased to announce that Glass Lewis & Co., LLC (Glass Lewis), a leading independent proxy advisory firm that provides advice and voting recommendations to shareholders, has recommended that stockholders of BAMM vote for the proposal to adopt the agreement and plan of merger (Merger Agreement) by and among the Company, Family Acquisition Holdings, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Parent), and Family Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation (Sub) pursuant to which Parent will acquire all of the outstanding shares of the Company [other than shares owned by Clyde B. Anderson, executive chairman of the Company, certain family members and related parties of Mr. Anderson (the Anderson Family), and senior management of the Company (collectively, the Purchaser Group)] for $3.25 per share and Sub will be merged with and into the Company (the Merger), with the Company surviving the Merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent. The $3.25 per share price represents a 93% premium to the Company's stock price before the public announcement of the Anderson Family's initial offer on January 29, 2015, and is an 18% increase above the initial offer of $2.75 per share.

Institutional Shareholder Services (ISS), a leading independent proxy advisory firm, has also advised shareholders to vote in favor of the Merger.

Both Glass Lewis and ISS recommended that stockholders vote for the proposed transaction, citing, among other factors, the evaluation of the proposed transaction by the BAMM Special Committee of independent directors, the premium to the unaffected trading price of BAMM's stock and the fact that the Merger Agreement for the proposed transaction is contingent upon a majority of the minority vote requirement.

In its report, Glass Lewis noted, “As opposed to the alternatives of either maintaining the status quo or holding out for a potentially higher offer from the Anderson family, both of which are fraught with their own risks and uncertainties, we believe accepting a far more certain cash offer at a fair price that appears to reasonably value the Company is the better option, in this case.”¹

The support of Glass Lewis and ISS by their recommendations that stockholders vote in favor of the $3.25 per share merger proposal is an important endorsement for the proposed transaction, said Mr. Edward W. Wilhelm, chair of the BAMM Special Committee of independent directors.

The board of directors of BAMM unanimously recommends (Clyde B. Anderson and Terrence C. Anderson being related parties, abstained from voting) that BAMM stockholders vote FOR the proposal to adopt the Merger Agreement and approve the Merger to be considered at the Special Meeting of BAMM stockholders.

BAMM stockholders are reminded to vote before the proxy cut-off time of 11:59 p.m. on December 7, 2015.

If you require assistance in completing your proxy, please contact our proxy solicitor, Okapi Partners LLC, at (855) 305-0855.

Forward-looking Statements

This press release contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Specifically, forward-looking statements may include statements relating to the completion of the proposed transaction and other statements preceded by, followed by or that include the words estimate, plan, project, forecast, intend, expect, anticipate, believe, seek, target, may, will, or could (including the negative thereof). These forward-looking statements are based on current expectations and assumptions that are subject to risks and uncertainties that may cause our actual results, performance, or achievements to differ materially from any expected future results, performance, or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. All statements other than statements of historical fact are statements that could be deemed forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to: the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstance that could give rise to the termination of the merger agreement; the outcome of any legal proceedings that have been or may be instituted against the Company or others relating to the merger agreement; the inability to complete the merger because of the failure to obtain Company stockholder approval or majority of the minority approval for the merger, failure of the Company to draw funds from the Company's existing credit facility required to fund the merger consideration or the failure to satisfy other conditions to consummation of the merger; the failure of the merger to close for any reason; the risk that the pendency of the merger disrupts current plans and operations and potential difficulties in employee retention as a result of the pendency of the merger; the effect of the announcement of the merger on the Company's business relationships, operating results and business generally; and the amount of the costs, fees, expenses and charges related to the merger. There is no assurance that our expectations will be realized. If one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize, or if our underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those expected estimated, or projected. Such risks and uncertainties also include those set forth under Risk Factors in our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended January 31, 2015, and our other filings. Our forward-looking statements speak only as of the time that they are made and do not necessarily reflect our outlook at any other point in time. Our forward-looking statements are expressly qualified in their entirety by this cautionary statement. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements that speak only as of the date hereof. Except to the extent otherwise required by federal securities law, we do not undertake any obligation to republish revised forward-looking statements to reflect events or circumstances after the date hereof or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events or the receipt of new information. Readers are also urged to carefully review and consider the various disclosures in our SEC reports.
