PART I

In October 2007 Community Bankers Acquisition Corp. changed its fiscal year end from March 31 to December 31. In accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the financial statements included elsewhere herein reflect our results of operations for the nine months ended December 31, 2007 (audited) and 2006 (unaudited). When used in this report, fiscal 2007 means the nine months, or transition period, April 1, 2007 to December 31, 2007, our year ended March 31, 2007, means the period April 1, 2006 through March 31, 2007, and fiscal 2006 means the year ended March 31, 2006.

Unless otherwise provided in this Annual Report on Form 10-K, references to the Company, we, us and our refer to Community Bankers Acquisition Corp.

ITEM 1. BUSINESS

Forward Looking Statements

This Annual Report on Form 10-K contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws. These statements relate to future events or our future financial performance and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause our actual results, levels of activity, performance or achievements expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements to differ materially. In some cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by terminology such as may, will, should, expect, plan, anticipate, believe, predict, potential, continue or the negative of these terms or other comparable terminology. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, the statements regarding: our ability to complete the proposed mergers with TransCommunity and BOE (as described below) on a timely basis; failure to obtain regulatory approvals; success in retaining or recruiting, or changes required in, our officers, key employees or directors following the mergers; the anticipated benefits of the proposed mergers, including future financial and operating results, cost savings and enhanced revenues that may be realized, as well as other statements or expectations regarding the proposed mergers; reduction of our working capital due to costs related to the proposed mergers; liquidation if no business combination occurs by June 7, 2008; successful integration of the TransCommunity operations and, potentially the operations of BOE; delisting of our securities from the American Stock Exchange or our inability to have our securities listed on the American Stock Exchange following the TransCommunity Merger; financial performance following the proposed mergers; interest to be earned on the trust account; uses of our working capital; risks associated with the banking industry in the event one or both of the proposed mergers occur; and other risks and uncertainties detailed in our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. All forward-looking statements included in this report are based on information available to us on the date hereof, and we assume no obligation to revise or publicly release the results of any revision to any such forward-looking statement, except as may otherwise be required by law.

General

We are a blank check company organized under the laws of the State of Delaware on April 6, 2005. As a Targeted Acquisition CorporationSM or TACSM we were formed to effect a merger, capital stock exchange, asset acquisition or other similar business combination with an operating business in the banking industry. Prior to executing the merger agreement with TransCommunity as described below in Proposed Business Combination, our activities were limited to organizational matters, completing our initial public offering and seeking and evaluating possible business combination opportunities.

On June 8, 2006, we consummated our initial public offering of 7,500,000 units, which commenced trading on the American Stock Exchange under the symbol BTC.U. Each unit consisted of one share of common stock and one redeemable common stock purchase warrant. Each warrant entitles the holder to purchase from us one share of our common stock at an exercise price of $5.00 per share beginning upon the consummation of a business combination. Our common stock and warrants started trading separately on the American Stock Exchange as of September 5, 2006, under the symbols BTC and BTC.WS, respectively.

Table of Contents

The initial target business or businesses we acquire must have a collective fair market value equal to at least 80% of our net assets at the time of the business combination (excluding the portion of the trust account attributable to the underwriters' discount). The fair market value of such business or businesses will be determined by our board of directors based upon standards generally accepted by the financial community, such as actual and potential revenues, net income, assets, cash flow and book value. We are not required to obtain an opinion from an investment banking firm as to the fair market value if our board of directors independently determines that the target business has sufficient fair market value, but may do so.

Proposed Business Combination

On September 5, 2007, we entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "TransCommunity Merger Agreement") with TransCommunity Financial Corporation ("TransCommunity"). The TransCommunity Merger Agreement sets forth the terms and conditions of our proposed acquisition of TransCommunity through the merger of TransCommunity with and into the Company (the "TransCommunity Merger"). TransCommunity Bank, N.A., a wholly owned subsidiary of TransCommunity, will become a wholly owned subsidiary of the surviving company in the TransCommunity Merger.

Under the terms of the TransCommunity Merger Agreement, the Company will issue to the shareholders of TransCommunity, for each share of TransCommunity's common stock that they own, 1.4200 shares of our common stock (the "Exchange Ratio"), subject to adjustment. If the daily average closing price for our common stock for the 20 consecutive days of trading in such stock ending five days before the closing date is less than $7.42, we will increase the Exchange Ratio to the quotient obtained by dividing $10.5364 by such daily average closing price.

Consummation of the TransCommunity Merger is subject to a number of customary conditions including the approval of the TransCommunity Merger by the shareholders of TransCommunity and our stockholders and the receipt of all required regulatory approvals. In addition, closing of the transaction is also conditioned on holders of fewer than 20% of the shares of our common stock voting against the transaction and electing to convert their common stock into cash. The TransCommunity Merger is expected to be completed in the second quarter of 2008. Pursuant to the TransCommunity Merger Agreement either party may terminate the Agreement in the event the TransCommunity Merger is not consummated by May 31, 2008. As a result of the execution of the TransCommunity Merger Agreement, pursuant to our certificate of incorporation, we have until June 7, 2008 to complete the transaction before we would otherwise be required to liquidate.

Proposed Merger with BOE Financial Services

On December 14, 2007 we announced that we had entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of December 13, 2007, (the "BOE Merger Agreement") with BOE Financial Services of Virginia, Inc. ("BOE"). The BOE Merger Agreement sets forth the terms and conditions of the Company's acquisition of BOE through the merger of BOE with and into the Company (the "BOE Merger"). Bank of Essex, a Virginia state bank and a wholly owned subsidiary of BOE (the "Bank") will become a wholly owned subsidiary of the surviving corporation in the BOE Merger.

Under the terms of the BOE Merger Agreement, we will issue to the stockholders of BOE, for each share of BOE's common stock that they own, 5.7278 shares of our common stock (the "Exchange Ratio"), subject to adjustment. If the daily average closing price for our common stock for the 20 consecutive days of trading in such stock ending five days before the closing date is less than $7.42, we will increase the Exchange Ratio to the quotient obtained by dividing $42.50 by such daily average closing price.

Consummation of the BOE Merger is subject to the consummation of the TransCommunity Merger and a number of customary conditions including the approval of the BOE Merger by the stockholders of BOE and by our stockholders and the receipt of all required regulatory approvals. The BOE Merger is expected to be completed in the second quarter of 2008. Pursuant to the BOE Merger Agreement either party may terminate the BOE Merger Agreement in the event the BOE Merger Agreement is not consummated by June 30, 2008.

Trust Account

The net proceeds from the sale of our units were approximately $54,950,000. Of this amount, $54,350,000 of the net proceeds, plus $2,100,000 attributable to the underwriters' discount that I-Bankers Securities, Inc., Maxim Group LLC and Legend Merchant Group, Inc., the representatives of the underwriters in our initial public offering, agreed to defer until we consummated our initial business combination, was deposited in an interest-bearing trust account at JPMorgan Chase NY Bank maintained by Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company, as trustee, pursuant to an agreement signed on June 8, 2006. As of December 31, 2007, the amount held in trust was $58,452,512, including $2,100,000 of deferred underwriting discounts. Except for a portion of the interest earned on the trust account which may be released to us, these proceeds will not be released until the earlier of the completion of a business combination or our liquidation. The remaining $600,000 in net proceeds, together with $1,129,000 interest released to us to cover operating expenses, were made available to be used by us to provide for business, legal and accounting due diligence on prospective business combinations and continuing general and administrative expenses. Substantially all of the net proceeds not held in the trust account of our initial public offering are intended to be used to acquire a target business, including identifying and evaluating prospective acquisition candidates, selecting the target business, and structuring, negotiating and consummating the business combination. Upon consummation of our initial business combination, funds held in the trust account after payment of amounts, if any, to our stockholders requesting and exercising their conversion rights and the deferred underwriting compensation, will be released to us. We intend to pay any additional expenses related to the TransCommunity Merger and BOE Merger and hold the remaining funds as capital at the holding company level pending use for general corporate and strategic purposes. Such purposes may include increasing the capital of TransCommunity Bank or Bank of Essex, future mergers and acquisitions, branch construction, asset purchases, payment of dividends, repurchases of shares of our common stock and general corporate purposes. Until such capital is fully leveraged or deployed, we may not be able to successfully deploy such capital and our return on equity could be negatively impacted.

Conversion rights

At the time we seek stockholder approval of the TransCommunity Merger, we will offer each public stockholder, excluding our initial stockholders who have waived the right to convert any of their shares, the right to have such stockholder's shares of common stock converted to cash if the stockholder both votes against the business combination and exercises his conversion rights and the business combination is approved and completed. In the event the TransCommunity Merger is not approved by our stockholders and completed, public stockholders will not be able to convert their stock. The actual per-share conversion price will be equal to the amount in the trust fund, including any interest not released to us, net of taxes, as of the record date for determination of stockholders entitled to vote on the business combination, divided by the 7,500,000 shares of our common stock sold in our initial public offering. Without taking into account any interest earned on the trust account subsequent to March 25, 2008, or taxes payable on such interest, the per share conversion price at March 25, 2008, the record date for our annual meeting, will be approximately $7.72 or $0.28 lower than the $8.00 per unit price paid in the offering. An eligible stockholder may request conversion at any time after the mailing to our stockholders of the joint proxy statement/prospectus relating to the TransCommunity Merger and prior to the vote taken with respect to the TransCommunity Merger at a meeting held for that purpose, but the request will not be granted unless the stockholder votes against the TransCommunity Merger, the TransCommunity Merger is approved and completed and the stockholder timely delivers his stock certificate for cancellation. If a stockholder votes against the business combination but has not properly exercised such stockholder's conversion rights, such stockholder will not have the shares of common stock held by such stockholder converted into the stockholder's pro rata distribution of the trust fund. Any request for conversion, once made, may be withdrawn at any time up to the date of the meeting held for the approval of the TransCommunity Merger. It is anticipated that the funds to be distributed to stockholders entitled to convert their shares who elect conversion will be distributed promptly after completion of our business combination and presentation of their stock certificates for cancellation. Public stockholders who convert their stock into their share of the trust fund will continue to own any redeemable warrants they may hold and have the right to sell, transfer or exercise such redeemable warrants. We will not complete the proposed merger with TransCommunity if stockholders who own at least a majority of the shares of common stock voted at the meeting to approve the proposed merger fail to vote in favor of the merger at such meeting.

or if stockholders owning 20% or more of the shares sold in our initial public offering both vote against the TransCommunity Merger and exercise their conversion rights.

Opportunity for Stockholder Approval of Business Combination

As we will be issuing shares of our common stock in the TransCommunity Merger totaling more than 20% of the outstanding shares of our common stock immediately prior to the effective time of the TransCommunity Merger, as well as in connection with the proposed subsequent BOE Merger, Delaware law requires that our stockholders adopt the TransCommunity Merger Agreement for the TransCommunity Merger to be consummated and adopt the BOE Merger Agreement for the BOE Merger to be consummated. In addition, our certificate of incorporation requires that we submit the TransCommunity Merger to our stockholders for approval, even if stockholder approval was not required under Delaware law. Delaware law requires that the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote at the stockholder meeting adopt the TransCommunity Merger Agreement for the TransCommunity Merger to be consummated and adopt the BOE Merger Agreement for the BOE Merger to be consummated.

Further, as required by our certificate of incorporation, we will proceed with the TransCommunity Merger only:
if the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of our common stock issued in our initial public offering and voted at the stockholder meeting vote in favor of the merger proposal; and the holders of less than 20% of the outstanding shares of our stock issued in our initial public offering vote against the business combination and exercise their conversion rights.

All of our insiders, including all of our officers, directors and initial stockholders, have agreed to vote the 1,875,000 shares of our common stock acquired by them before our initial public offering either for or against the TransCommunity Merger consistent with the majority of the votes cast by the holders of the shares of common stock issued in the initial public offering. This voting arrangement shall not apply to shares included in units purchased in our initial public offering or purchased following our initial public offering in the open market by any of our officers directors, or initial stockholders. Accordingly, they may vote on the TransCommunity Merger with respect to shares of common stock acquired in or after the consummation of our initial public offering any way they choose. Our insiders may vote all of their shares any way they choose with respect to the BOE Merger.

Liquidation If No Business Combination

If we do not complete the TransCommunity Merger by June 7, 2008, our certificate of incorporation (1) provides that our corporate powers would automatically thereafter be limited to acts and activities relating to dissolving and winding up its affairs, including liquidation, and we would not be able to engage in any other business activities and (2) requires that our board of directors within 15 days adopt a resolution finding our dissolution advisable and provide notice as soon as possible thereafter of a special meeting of stockholders to vote on our dissolution. Pursuant to Delaware law, our dissolution would require the affirmative vote of stockholders owning a majority of the then outstanding shares of our common stock. We would promptly prepare a proxy statement and notice of special meeting of stockholders in accordance with the requirements of Delaware General Corporation Law, or DGCL, and the federal securities laws, which proxy statement would be required to be submitted to and reviewed by the SEC, and thereafter forward the proxy statement and notice of meeting to our stockholders no less than 10 nor more than 60 days prior to our special meeting of stockholders soliciting stockholder votes with respect to our dissolution. In the event that we do not initially obtain approval for such dissolution by stockholders owning a majority of the then outstanding shares of our common stock, we would continue to take all reasonable actions to obtain such approval, which may include adjourning the meeting from time to time to allow us to obtain the required vote and retaining a proxy solicitation firm to assist us in obtaining such vote. Our insiders (including all of our directors, officers and initial stockholders) have agreed to vote all shares of our common stock owned by them that were purchased prior to or issued in our initial public offering in favor of such dissolution. However, there can be no assurance that our stockholders would approve a dissolution in a timely manner or ever approve a dissolution. If we are not able to obtain the approval from a majority of the stockholders, we would not be able to dissolve and liquidate and we would not be able to distribute funds from our trust account to public stockholders and these funds would not be available for any other corporate purpose.

We anticipate that any liquidation would occur pursuant to Section 281(b) of the DGCL and, in this event, our board of directors would be required under Section 281(b) of the DGCL to adopt, within a three year period, a plan of distribution pursuant to which we would pay or make reasonable provision to pay all of our existing claims and obligations, all contingent, conditional or unmatured contractual claims, claims subject of a pending suit, and claims that are likely to arise or become known within 10 years after our dissolution. Our plan of distribution will provide that we will pay or reserve for such claims from our funds not held in trust. Our board of directors intends to adopt a plan of distribution and to distribute the funds held in trust and any of our remaining assets to public stockholders as promptly as practicable following our dissolution. Until adoption of our plan of distribution and distribution of the funds held in trust, which we anticipate would be accomplished within six months following board approval of our dissolution, the funds would remain in trust and held by the trustee in permitted investments.

Assuming our dissolution were submitted to and approved by our stockholders in accordance with Delaware law, the holders of our common stock issued in our initial public offering would, in that event, be entitled to receive their proportionate share of the trust account (including any interest not released to us, net of taxes, and the deferred underwriting discount). In addition, such holders would be entitled to receive a pro rata portion of our remaining assets not held in trust, less amounts we would pay, or reserve to pay, for all of our liabilities and obligations. These liabilities and obligations include our corporate expenses arising during our remaining existence and the costs associated with our dissolution and liquidation. Our corporate expenses are expected to be primarily associated with preparation for and conduct of our special meeting of stockholders and our continuing public reporting obligations, including legal services, proxy soliciting firms, services of our independent public accounting firm and legal fees we may incur in the event of disputes with any claimants or creditors. Gary A. Simanson, our president and chief executive officer, and David Zalman, an initial stockholder, would be personally liable for ensuring that the trust account is not reduced by claims of our vendors and service providers in the event of our dissolution and liquidation. Messrs. Simanson and Zalman will not be liable for and will not pay any termination fees that may be payable by the Company to TransCommunity or BOE under their respective merger agreements. To the extent funds reserved to pay liabilities or obligations are not subsequently used for such purpose, the funds would be available for distribution to our public stockholders or for ongoing corporate expenses including costs of our liquidation during our remaining existence.

Our initial stockholders have waived their rights to participate in any distribution with respect to shares of common stock owned by them before our initial public offering upon our liquidation prior to a business combination. In addition, the representatives of the underwriters in our initial public offering have agreed to forfeit any rights to or claims against the portion of the trust account attributable to the contingent underwriting discount in the event we do not timely complete a business combination and dissolve and distribute the funds held in the trust account upon our liquidation. There will be no distribution from the trust account with respect to our warrants, which will expire without value in the event of our liquidation.

Under the DGCL, stockholders may be held liable for claims by third parties against a corporation to the extent of distributions received by them in a dissolution. If a corporation, following its dissolution, complies with the statutory procedures set forth in Section 280 of the DGCL, intended to ensure that the corporation makes reasonable provision for all claims against it, any liability of stockholders with respect to a liquidating distribution is limited to the lesser of such stockholder's pro rata share of the claim or the amount distributed to the stockholder, and any liability of the stockholder would be barred after the third anniversary of the dissolution. The procedures in Section 280 of the DGCL include a 60-day notice period during which any third-party claims can be brought against the corporation, a 90-day period during which the corporation may reject any claims brought, and an additional 150-day waiting period before any liquidating distributions may be made to stockholders. However, it is our intention to seek approval of our stockholders to make liquidating distributions to our public stockholders as soon as reasonably practicable following our dissolution in accordance with Section 281(b) of the DGCL. Therefore, our stockholders could potentially be liable for any claims to the extent of distributions received by them in a dissolution and any liability of our stockholders may extend beyond the third anniversary of such dissolution.

In addition, the proceeds deposited in the trust account could become subject to the claims of our creditors and we could be required to pay creditors prior to making any distributions to the holders of shares of our common stock that were issued in the initial public offering. We have prepaid certain of our material legal, printing, accounting, administrative and financial advisory fees and intend to prepay or to obtain waiver agreements from vendors and service providers we may engage in the future for any material amounts. Any such waiver agreements will provide that the applicable vendor or service provider waives any right, title, interest or claim of any kind in or to any monies held in the trust account for the benefit of us and the holders of shares of our common stock that were issued in the initial public offering. If any potential vendor or service provider objects to being prepaid or refuses to enter into a waiver agreement, we will consider whether there is a suitable alternative provider, the expected aggregate contract amount and our assessment of the potential risk to the trust account before engaging such person. However, because we are a blank check company, rather than an operating company, and our operations are limited to consummation of the TransCommunity and BOE Mergers, the only likely claims to arise would be from our vendors or service providers (such as accountants, lawyers or investment bankers) or potential target businesses. In addition, TransCommunity and BOE have each agreed as part of the respective merger agreements that neither will pursue any claim or enforce any right, title, interest or claim of any kind in or to any monies held in the trust account. As a result of these efforts coupled with Messrs. Simanson's and Zalman's agreement to be personally liable to ensure that the proceeds in the trust account are not reduced by the claims of any vendor or service provider, management believes the claims that could be made against us are significantly limited and the likelihood that any claim that would result in any liability extending to the trust is remote. However, there can be no guarantee that persons will not seek recourse against the trust account. Accordingly, we cannot assure you that the actual per share liquidation price will not be less than $7.72 per share as of March 25, 2008, due to claims of creditors.

Competition

If we succeed in effecting the TransCommunity Merger and the subsequent BOE Merger, there will be, in all likelihood, intense competition from competitors in the commercial banking industry and other financial service businesses. We cannot assure you that, subsequent to our proposed mergers, if consummated, we will have the resources or ability to compete effectively.

Employees

Our officers and directors are not obligated to contribute any specific number of hours to our matters and devote only as much time as they deem necessary to our affairs. Our executive officers are also involved with business ventures other than us. The amount of time they devote in any time period has varied based on the availability of suitable target businesses to investigate although Mr. Simanson devotes the majority of his professional time to our business. We do not currently have and do not intend to have any full time employees prior to the consummation of the merger with TransCommunity.

Periodic Reporting and Financial Information

We have registered our units, common stock and warrants under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or the Exchange Act, and have reporting obligations, including the requirement that we file annual and quarterly reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). The public may read and copy materials we file with the SEC at the SEC's Public Reference Room at 100 F Street, NE, Washington, DC 20549, on official business days during the hours of 10:00 am to 3:00 pm. You may obtain information on the operation of the Public Reference Room by calling the SEC at 1-800-SEC-0330. The SEC maintains an Internet site that contains reports, proxy and information statements, and other information regarding issuers that file electronically with the SEC at <http://www.sec.gov>.

ITEM 1A. RISK FACTORS

Not applicable.

ITEM 1B. UNRESOLVED STAFF COMMENTS

We have received no written comments regarding our periodic or current reports from the staff of the SEC that were issued 180 days or more preceding the end of our 2007 fiscal year and that remain unresolved.

ITEM 2. PROPERTIES

We maintain our executive offices at 9912 Georgetown Pike, Suite D203, Great Falls, Virginia 22066. The cost for this space is included in the $7,500 per month fee Community Bankers Acquisition, LLC charges us for general and administrative services pursuant to a letter agreement between us and Community Bankers Acquisition, LLC. The $7,500 per month fee will no longer be payable following consummation of the TransCommunity Merger. We believe, based on rents and fees for similar services in the Great Falls, Virginia metropolitan area, that the fee charged by Community Bankers Acquisition, LLC is at least as favorable as we could have obtained from an unaffiliated person. We consider our current office space adequate for our current activities.

On March 25, 2008 the closing prices of the common stock, warrants and units were $7.49, $0.08 and $7.45, respectively.

Holders of Record

As of March 25, 2008, there were one holder of record of our units, ten holders of record of our common stock and two holders of record of our warrants, not including beneficial holders of our securities held in street name.

Dividends

We have not paid any dividends on our common stock to date and do not intend to pay dividends prior to the completion of a business combination. The payment of dividends in the future will be contingent upon our revenues and earnings, if any, capital requirements and general financial condition subsequent to completion of a business combination. The payment of any dividends subsequent to a business combination will be within the discretion of our then board of directors and subject to restrictions under applicable banking laws and regulations. It is the present intention of our board of directors to retain all earnings, if any, for use in our business operations and, accordingly, our board does not anticipate declaring any dividends prior to the proposed TransCommunity Merger. Upon completion of the TransCommunity and BOE Mergers, we expect to pay regular dividends to our stockholders. Subject to board and regulatory approvals, we expect to pay quarterly cash dividends in an amount not less than the quotient obtained by dividing $0.22 by the BOE exchange ratio (5.7278, subject to adjustment), for the foreseeable future.

Securities Authorized for Issuance Under Equity Compensation Plans

The Company does not have any securities authorized for issuance under any equity compensation plans.

Use of Proceeds From Our Initial Public Offering

On June 8, 2006, we consummated the closing of the sale of 7,500,000 units in connection with our initial public offering. Each unit consists of one share of our common stock and one warrant entitling the holder to purchase from us one share of our common stock at an exercise price of $5.00. The units were sold at an offering price of $8.00 per unit, generating total gross proceeds of $60,000,000 and net proceeds of $54,950,000.

The securities sold in our initial public offering were registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, on a registration statement on Form S-1 (File No. 333-124240). The SEC declared the registration statement effective on June 5, 2006. I-Bankers Securities, Inc., Maxim Group LLC and Legend Merchant Group, Inc. acted as the representatives of the underwriters. Of the gross proceeds from the offering, (i) we deposited $56,450,000 into a trust account at JP Morgan Chase NY Bank, maintained by Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company as trustee, which amount included $2,100,000 of contingent underwriting discount; (ii) the underwriters received $1,800,000 as underwriting discount and $600,000 as non-accountable expenses; and (iii) we used an estimated $550,000 for offering expenses. The remaining proceeds of $600,000 together with $1,129,000 of interest earned on funds held in trust which were released to us have been used for working capital purposes in connection with acquisition and consummation of a business combination, such as due diligence, legal, and general and administrative expenses including payment of $180,000 to Community Bankers Acquisition, LLC, an affiliate of our president and chief executive officer, for administrative services. The sum of $40,000 in offering expenses was advanced to us by Community Bankers Acquisition, LLC and was repaid following consummation of the offering. Upon consummation of the TransCommunity Merger, we will pay the contingent underwriting discount held in the trust account to the representatives of the underwriters.

In connection with our initial public offering, we sold to I-Bankers Securities, Inc., Maxim Group LLC and Legend Merchant Group, Inc., or their designees for $100, options to purchase up to a total of 525,000 units. The units issuable upon exercise of this option are identical to those sold in our offering except that the warrants included in the units have an exercise price of $7.50. These options are exercisable at $10.00 per unit commencing on the consummation of a business combination and expiring on June 4, 2011. The purchase option and the securities issuable upon exercise of such option were included in our registration statement on Form S-1 described above.

ITEM 7. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion of our financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with our financial statements, the accuracy of which involves risks and uncertainties. Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements for many reasons.

General

We were incorporated on April 6, 2005, to serve as a vehicle to effect a merger, capital stock exchange, asset acquisition or other similar business combination with an operating business in the banking industry. We consummated our initial public offering on June 8, 2006. We have neither engaged in any operations nor generated any revenues, other than interest income, nor incurred any debt or expenses during the period ended December 31, 2007, other than in connection with our initial public offering, meeting our regulatory reporting requirements including certain legal, accounting and other expenses related to selection of and consummation of an initial business combination. Our entire activity since inception has been to prepare for and consummate our initial public offering and to identify and investigate targets for our initial business combination as well as a subsequent business combination.

Table of Contents

We are currently in the process of obtaining regulatory approvals relating to the TransCommunity Merger and the BOE Merger. We are not presently engaged in, and will not engage in, any substantive commercial business until we consummate the TransCommunity Merger. We intend to utilize our capital stock in effecting the TransCommunity Merger as well as the BOE Merger. If we are unable to consummate the TransCommunity Merger by June 7, 2008, we will be required to dissolve and liquidate.

On October 29, 2007, our board of directors resolved that our fiscal year that began on April 1, 2007 would end on December 31, 2007, and from and after that date, our fiscal year would be the period beginning January 1 of each year and ending on December 31. As a result, this Form 10-K is a transition report, and includes financial information for the nine-month transition period April 1, 2007 through December 31, 2007, which we refer to as fiscal 2007 or fiscal year 2007. All references to years prior to fiscal 2007, unless otherwise noted, refer to our historical fiscal year, which ended on March 31. For example, a reference to fiscal 2006 or fiscal year 2006 means the 12-month period ended March 31, 2006.

Results of Operations for the Transition Year April 1, 2007 through December 31, 2007

For the transition period April 1, 2007 through December 31, 2007, operating costs of $263,000 consisted primarily of $54,000 in legal and professional fees, $67,500 for office and administrative services, $73,000 for amortization of prepaid insurance and $50,500 in travel and due diligence expenses. Interest income on the trust fund investments, including interest allocable to shares subject to possible conversion, amounted to $1,944,000. This resulted in net income for the year ended December 31, 2007 of $1,105,000.

Results of Operations for the Year Ended March 31, 2007

For the year ended March 31, 2007, operating costs of $338,700 consisted primarily of $117,000 in legal and professional fees, $75,000 for office and administrative services, $87,500 for amortization of prepaid insurance and $7,700 in travel expenses. Interest income on the trust fund investments, including interest allocable to shares subject to possible conversion, amounted to $2,268,800. This resulted in net income for the year ended March 31, 2007 of $1,124,100.

Results of Operations for the Period April 6, 2005 (inception) to December 31, 2007

For the period April 6, 2005 (inception) to December 31, 2007, operating costs of $601,800 consisted primarily of $171,000 in legal and professional fees, $142,500 for office and administrative services, $160,000 for amortization of prepaid insurance and $58,000 in travel and due diligence expenses. Interest income on the trust fund investments, including interest allocable to shares subject to possible conversion amounted to $3,611,000. This resulted in net income during the period of $2,229,000.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The net proceeds of our initial public offering, after deducting the underwriters' discount and offering expenses, was $54,950,000. Of these net proceeds, $54,350,000 has been placed in a trust account at J.P. Morgan Chase Bank maintained by Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company, New York, New York, as trustee, and invested in United States government securities together with an additional $2,100,000 of deferred underwriting compensation. The funds held in the trust account, other than the deferred underwriting compensation, may be used as consideration to pay the sellers of a target business with which we ultimately complete a business combination. Interest earned on the trust account, net of taxes, will be retained in the trust account for distribution to public stockholders under certain circumstances except that up to $1,129,000, net of taxes, has been released to us periodically to fund our working capital requirements. Upon the consummation of the TransCommunity Merger, we will pay the deferred underwriting compensation to the underwriters, less $0.28 per share for each share converted in connection with the TransCommunity Merger, out of the proceeds of our initial public offering held in trust. The remaining funds currently held in the trust account, less any amounts paid to our stockholders who exercise their conversion rights, will be released to us. We intend to pay any additional expenses of the TransCommunity Merger and BOE Merger and hold the remaining funds as capital at the holding company level pending use for general corporate and strategic purposes. Such purposes may include increasing the capital of TransCommunity Bank or Bank of Essex, future mergers and acquisitions, branch construction, asset purchases, payments of dividends, repurchases of shares of our common stock and general corporate purposes. Until such capital is fully leveraged or deployed, we may not be able to successfully deploy such capital and our return on equity could be negatively impacted.

As of December 31, 2007, we had cash not held in trust of $162,154, and an aggregate of $1,600,000 of interest earned on the trust funds was released to us from the trust account for the payment of taxes and working capital. We have used the funds not held in trust together with interest released to us from the trust account for identifying, evaluating and selecting prospective acquisition candidates, performing business due diligence on prospective target businesses, and legal, accounting and other related expenses attendant to structuring, negotiating and consummating our two proposed mergers. Our cash requirements are expected to change based on the timing, nature and outcome of our intended business combination.

We are obligated, until the closing of the TransCommunity Merger, to pay to Community Bankers Acquisition, LLC, an affiliate of one of our directors and executive officers, a monthly fee of $7,500 for office space and general and administrative services. An aggregate of $180,000 has been paid as of December 31, 2007.

We do not believe we will need to raise additional funds in order to meet the expenditures required for operating our business. However, we may need to raise additional funds through a private offering or debt or equity securities if it is required to consummate the TransCommunity and BOE Mergers. We would only consummate such a fundraising simultaneously with the consummation of a business combination.

If we are unable to obtain the required regulatory approvals and consummate the TransCommunity Merger by June 7, 2008, we will be forced to liquidate. If we are forced to liquidate, the per share liquidation amount may be less than the initial per share liquidation value of $7.72 as of March 25, 2008. Additionally, if third parties make claims against us, the funds held in the trust account could be subject to those claims, resulting in a further reduction to the per share liquidation price. Under Delaware law, our stockholders who have received distributions from us may be held liable for claims by third parties to the extent such claims have not been paid by us. Furthermore, our warrants will expire worthless if we liquidate before the completion of our initial business combination.

Off Balance Sheet Arrangements

As of December 31, 2007, we did not have any off balance sheet arrangements.

ITEM 7A. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

Market risk is a broad term for the risk of economic loss due to adverse changes in the fair value of a financial instrument. These changes may be the result of various factors, including interest rates, foreign exchange rates, commodity prices and/or equity prices. Our exposure to market risk is primarily limited to interest income sensitivity with respect to the funds placed in the trust account. However, the funds held in our trust account have been invested only in U.S. government securities, defined as any Treasury Bill issued by the United States having a maturity of one hundred and eighty days or less or in money market funds meeting certain conditions under Rule 2a-7 promulgated under the Investment Company Act of 1940, so we are not deemed to be an investment company under the Investment Company Act. Thus, we are subject to market risk primarily through the effect of changes in interest rates on government securities. The effect of other changes, such as foreign exchange rates, commodity prices and/or equity prices, does not pose significant market risk to us.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders

Community Bankers Acquisition Corp.

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of Community Bankers Acquisition Corp. (a corporation in the development stage) as of December 31, 2007 and March 31, 2007 and the related statements of income, stockholders equity and cash flows for the nine months ended December 31, 2007, the year ended March 31, 2007 and the period from April 6, 2005 (inception) to December 31, 2007. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Corporation's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement. The Corporation is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. Our audit included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Corporation's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Community Bankers Acquisition Corp. as of December 31, 2007 and March 31, 2007 and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the nine months ended December 31, 2007, the year ended March 31, 2007 and the period from April 6, 2005 (inception) to December 31, 2007, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

1. ORGANIZATION, BUSINESS OPERATIONS

The Corporation was incorporated in Delaware on April 6, 2005 as a blank check company whose objective is to merge with or acquire an operating commercial bank or bank holding company. The Corporation has neither engaged in any operations nor generated revenue to date other than interest income. The registration statement for the Corporation's initial public offering (Offering) was declared effective June 5, 2006. The Corporation consummated the Offering on June 8, 2006 and received net proceeds of $54,950,000 which is discussed in Note 3. The Corporation's management has broad discretion with respect to the specific application of the net proceeds of this Offering, although substantially all of the net proceeds are intended to be generally applied toward consummating a merger, capital stock exchange, asset acquisition or other similar business combination with an operating business whose objective is to operate a commercial bank or bank holding company (Business Combination). There is no assurance that the Corporation will be able to successfully effect a Business Combination. Upon the closing of the Offering, $56,450,000 of the proceeds, including $2,100,000 attributable to the underwriters' discount which the representatives of the underwriters have agreed to defer until the initial Business Combination, are being held in a trust account (Trust Account) and invested in U.S. government securities or other high-quality, short term interest-bearing investments, until the earlier of (i) the consummation of the Corporation's first Business Combination or (ii) distribution of the Trust Account as described below; provided, however, that up to $1,129,000 of interest income, net of taxes payable on interest earned on the Trust Account, may be released to the Corporation periodically to cover its operating expenses. Interest released to the Corporation to cover its operating expenses and the proceeds of the Offering that were not deposited in the Trust Account will be used to pay for business, legal and accounting due diligence on prospective mergers or acquisitions and continuing general and administrative expenses. The Corporation, after signing a definitive agreement for the Business Combination, will submit such transaction for stockholder approval. In the event that stockholders owning 20% or more of the outstanding stock excluding, for this purpose, those persons who were stockholders immediately prior to the Offering, both vote against the Business Combination and exercise their conversion rights, the Business Combination will not be consummated. All of the Corporation's stockholders prior to the Offering, including all of the officers and directors of the Corporation (Initial Stockholders), have agreed to vote all of their founding shares of common stock either for or against the Business Combination as determined by the majority of the votes cast by the holders of the common stock who purchase shares sold in the Offering (Public Stockholders) with respect to a Business Combination. After consummation of the Corporation's first Business Combination, these voting safeguards no longer apply.

With respect to the first Business Combination which is approved and consummated, any Public Stockholder, other than the Corporation's Initial Stockholders, who vote against the Business Combination may demand that the Corporation redeem his or her shares. The per share redemption price will equal the amount in the Trust Fund as of the record date for determination of stockholders entitled to vote on the Business Combination divided by the number of shares of common stock held by Public Stockholders at the consummation of the Offering. Accordingly, Public Stockholders holding up to 20% of the aggregate number of shares owned by all Public Stockholders may seek redemption of their shares in the event of a Business Combination. Such Public Stockholders are entitled to receive their per share interest in the Trust Fund computed without regard to the shares held by Initial Stockholders. In this respect, $11,690,502 has been classified as common stock subject to possible conversion at December 31, 2007.

The Corporation's Certificate of Incorporation provides that in the event that the Corporation does not consummate a Business Combination by the latter of (i) 18 months after the consummation of the Offering or (ii) 24 months after the consummation of the Offering in the event that either a letter of intent, an agreement in principle or a definitive agreement to complete the Business Combination was executed but was not consummated within such 18-month period (such later date being referred to as the Termination Date), the board of directors will adopt a resolution, within 15 days thereafter, finding the Corporation's dissolution advisable and provide notice as promptly thereafter as practicable to stockholders in connection with our dissolution in accordance with Section 275 of the Delaware General Corporation Law. In the event that the Corporation is so dissolved, the Corporation shall promptly adopt and implement a plan of distribution which provides that only holders of shares sold in the Offering shall be entitled to receive liquidating distributions and the Corporation shall pay no liquidating distributions with respect to any other shares of capital stock of the Corporation. In the event of liquidation, it is likely that the per share value of residual assets remaining available for distribution (including Trust Fund assets) will be less than the initial public offering price per share in the Offering (assuming no value is attributed to the Redeemable Warrants contained in the Units sold in the Offering as described in Note 3).

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The financial statements include the accounts of the Corporation. As of December 31, 2007, the Corporation had not engaged in any business operations. All activity through December 31, 2007, is related to the Corporation's formation, the Offering and the pursuit of its objective of acquiring a bank.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingencies at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of expenses during the reporting period. Actual amounts could differ from those estimates.

Cash Equivalents

The Corporation considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Corporation to credit risk consist of cash and cash equivalents. The Corporation's policy is to limit the amount of credit exposure to any one financial institution and place investments with financial institutions or in short-term money market funds that provide minimal exposure to interest rate and credit risk.

Income Taxes

The Corporation's policy is to recognize deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of temporary differences between amounts recognized in the Corporation's financial statements and its tax returns. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on the difference between the financial statement carrying amounts and the tax bases of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates in effect in the years in which the differences are expected to reverse. The effect of significant tax positions for which it is more likely than not that the Corporation will not prevail are recognized liabilities or reductions of deferred tax assets. Valuation allowances are recognized if it is more likely than not that the future tax benefits of deferred tax assets will not be realized. Assessments, if any, for tax related interest are classified as interest expense and tax penalties are classified as general and administrative expenses.

Earnings per Common Share

Basic earnings per share (EPS) is computed by dividing net income applicable to common stock by the weighted average common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted EPS reflects the additional dilution for all potentially dilutive securities such as stock warrants.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards

Management does not believe that any recently issued, but not yet effective accounting pronouncements, if adopted, would have a material effect on the accompanying financial statements.

3. INITIAL PUBLIC OFFERING

On June 8, 2006, the Corporation sold 7,500,000 units (Units) in the Offering. Each Unit consists of one share of the Corporation's common stock, $0.01 par value, and one Redeemable Common Stock Purchase Warrant (Warrant). Each Warrant will entitle the holder to purchase one share of common stock from the Corporation at an exercise price of $5.00 commencing on the completion of a Business Combination and expiring five years from the date of the Offering. The Warrants will be redeemable by the Corporation at a price of $0.01 per Warrant upon 30 days' notice after the Warrants become exercisable, only in the event that the last sale price of the common stock is at least $11.50 per share for any 20 trading days within a 30 trading day period ending on the third business day prior to the date on which notice of the redemption is given.

In addition, the Corporation sold an option to purchase an aggregate of up to 525,000 units for $100, to I-Bankers Securities, Inc., Maxim Group LLC and Legend Merchant Group, Inc. or their designees, the representatives of the underwriters (the Underwriters). The units issuable upon exercise of this option are identical to those offered in the Initial Public Offering, except that each of the warrants underlying this option entitles the holder to purchase one share of common stock at a price of $7.50. This option is exercisable at $10.00 per unit commencing on the later of the consummation of a Business Combination or one year from the date of the Offering. This option expires June 4, 2011. In lieu of the payment of the exercise price, this option may be converted into units on a net-share settlement or cashless exercise basis to the extent that the market value of the units at the time of conversion exceeds the exercise price of this option. This option may only be exercised or converted by the option holder and cannot be redeemed by the Corporation for cash.

The sale of the option to the representatives of the underwriters is accounted for as an equity transaction in accordance with Emerging Issues Task Force No. 00-19, Accounting for Derivative Financial Instruments Indexed to, and Potentially Settled in a Company's Own Stock, and measured at its fair value. As a result, the Corporation's cash position and stockholders' equity increased by the $100 proceeds from the sale. The Corporation accounted for the fair value of the option as an expense of the Offering. The Corporation has determined based upon a trinomial model that the estimated fair value of the option on the date of sale was approximately $2.4145 per unit or an aggregate of $1,267,613 assuming an expected life of five years, volatility of 32.371% and a risk-free interest rate of 4.929%. Although an expected life of five years was used, if the Corporation does not consummate a Business Combination within the prescribed time period and liquidate, this option would become worthless.

Because the Corporation does not have a trading history, the Corporation estimated the potential volatility of its common stock price using the average volatility of ten publicly-traded banking institutions with market capitalizations ranging from $64 million to $288 million with an average of $149 million. The Corporation believes that the average volatility of these representative institutions is a reasonable benchmark to use in estimating the expected volatility of its common stock after consummation of a Business Combination, because these sample institutions are operating banks or bank holding companies that are similar in size to target business acquisitions. The volatility calculation of 32.371% was derived using the composite volatility of representative banks. This calculation used the daily closing prices for the five year period ended April 30, 2006. Using a higher volatility would have the effect of increasing the implied value of this option.

Pursuant to Rule 2710(g)(1) of the NASD Conduct Rule, the option to purchase 525,000 units is deemed to be underwriting compensation and therefore upon exercise the underlying shares and warrants are subject to a 180-day lock-up. Additionally, the option may not be sold, transferred, assigned, pledged or hypothecated for a one-year period (including the foregoing 180-day period) following the date of the Offering.

Although this option and its underlying securities have been registered by the Corporation, the Corporation has granted to the holders of this option demand and piggy back registration rights until the later of five years from the date of the Offering or one year after the warrants are exercised with respect to the securities directly and indirectly issuable upon exercise of this option. The Corporation will bear all fees and expenses attendant to registering the securities, other than underwriting commissions which will be paid for by the holders themselves. The exercise price and number of units issuable upon exercise of this option shall be adjusted in certain circumstances including in the event of a stock dividend, or the Corporation's recapitalization, reorganization, merger or consolidation. However, no adjustments to this option will be made for issuances of common stock at a price below the exercise price of this option.

4. NOTE PAYABLE

Community Bankers Acquisition, LLC, an affiliate of the Corporation's president and one of its stockholders, entered into a revolving credit agreement with the Corporation in the amount of $100,000. Advances under the credit facility were $40,000. The loan was non-interest bearing and was repaid on June 29, 2006.

5. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Corporation presently occupies office space provided by an affiliate of the Corporation's president and an Initial Stockholder. Such affiliate has agreed that, until the acquisition of a target business by the Corporation, it will make such office space, as well as certain office and secretarial services, available to the Corporation, as may be required by the Corporation from time to time. The Corporation has agreed to pay such affiliate $7,500 per month for such services commencing June 5, 2006. Payments made under this agreement totaled $67,320 for the nine months ended December 31, 2007 and $75,000 for the year ended March 31, 2007.

6. CAPITAL STOCK

Common Stock

The Corporation is authorized to issue 50,000,000 shares of common stock. Stockholders are entitled to one vote for each share held of record on all matters to be voted on by stockholders. Stockholders have no conversion, preemptive or other subscription rights and there are no sinking fund or redemption provisions applicable to the common stock, except that Public Stockholders have the right to have their shares of common stock converted to cash equal to their pro rata share of the trust fund if they both elect such conversion within the prescribed time period and they subsequently vote against a Business Combination that is ultimately approved and completed. Assuming that such a Business Combination is not timely completed and the Corporation's dissolution is approved by the stockholders in accordance with Delaware law, Public Stockholders will be entitled to receive their proportionate share of the Trust Fund (including any interest not released to us, net of taxes, and the deferred underwriting discount). In addition, Public Stockholders will be entitled to receive a pro rata portion of our remaining assets not held in trust, less amounts we pay, or reserve to pay, for all of our liabilities and obligations.

Pursuant to letter agreements with the Corporation, the Initial Stockholders have waived their right to receive distributions with respect to their founding shares upon the Corporation's liquidation.

Preferred Stock

The Corporation is authorized to issue 5,000,000 shares of preferred stock with such designations, voting and other rights and preferences as may be determined from time to time by the board of directors.

The agreement with the underwriters prohibits the Corporation, prior to a Business Combination, from issuing preferred stock without the consent of the representatives of the underwriters.

7. INCOME TAXES

There is no difference between the effective tax rate reflected by the provision for income taxes and the amounts calculated using statutory tax rates. The components of the provision for income tax are as follows:

8. PER SHARE INFORMATION

Basic earnings per common share (Basic EPS) is computed by dividing the net income by the weighted-average number of shares outstanding. Diluted earnings per common share (Diluted EPS) is computed by dividing the net income by the weighted-average number of common shares and dilutive common share equivalents and warrants then outstanding. The presentation of both Basic EPS and Diluted EPS on the face of the Corporation's Statements of Income is required.

The following table sets forth the computation of basic and diluted per share information:

10. PROPOSED BUSINESS COMBINATIONS

TransCommunity Merger

On September 5, 2007, the Corporation entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "TFC Merger Agreement") with TransCommunity Financial Corporation ("TFC"). The TFC Merger Agreement sets forth the terms and conditions of the Corporation's acquisition of TFC through the merger of TFC with and into the Corporation (the "TFC Merger"). TransCommunity Bank, N.A., a wholly owned subsidiary of TFC, will become a wholly owned subsidiary of the surviving company in the TFC Merger.

Under the terms of the TFC Merger Agreement, the Corporation will issue to the shareholders of TFC, for each share of TFC's common stock that they own, 1.4200 shares of the Corporation's common stock (the "Exchange Ratio"), subject to adjustment as described below. If the daily average closing price for the Corporation's common stock for the 20 consecutive full days of trading in such stock ending five days before the closing date is less than $7.42, the Corporation will increase the Exchange Ratio to the quotient obtained by dividing $10.5364 by such daily average closing price.

In addition, at the effective time of the TFC Merger, each outstanding option to purchase shares of TFC's common stock under any of TFC's stock plans shall vest pursuant to its terms and shall be converted into an option to acquire the number of shares of the Corporation's common stock equal to the number of shares of common stock underlying the option multiplied by the Exchange Ratio. The exercise price of each option will be adjusted accordingly.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to a number of customary conditions including the approval of the Merger by the shareholders of each of TFC and the Corporation and the receipt of all required regulatory approvals. In addition, closing of the transaction is also conditioned on holders of fewer than 20% of the shares of the Corporation's common stock voting against the transaction and electing to convert their shares of the Corporation's common stock into cash. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement either party may terminate the Agreement in the event the Merger is not consummated by May 31, 2008. As a result of the execution of the Merger Agreement, pursuant to the Corporation's certificate of incorporation, it has until June 7, 2008 to complete the transaction before it would otherwise be required to liquidate.

BOE Merger

On December 14, 2007 the Corporation announced that it had entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of December 13, 2007, (the "BOE Merger Agreement") with BOE Financial Services of Virginia, Inc. ("BOE"). The BOE Merger Agreement sets forth the terms and conditions of the Corporation's acquisition of BOE through the merger of BOE with and into the Corporation (the "BOE Merger"). Bank of Essex, a Virginia state bank and a wholly owned subsidiary of BOE (the "Bank") will become a wholly owned subsidiary of the surviving corporation in the BOE Merger.

Under the terms of the BOE Merger Agreement, the Corporation will issue to the stockholders of BOE, for each share of BOE's common stock that they own, 5.7278 shares of the Corporation's common stock (the "Exchange Ratio"), subject to adjustment. If the daily average closing price for the Corporation's common stock for the 20 consecutive full days of trading in such stock ending five days before the closing date is less than $7.42, we will increase the Exchange Ratio to the quotient obtained by dividing $42.50 by such daily average closing price.

In addition, at the effective time of the BOE Merger, each outstanding option to purchase shares of BOE's common stock under any of BOE's stock plans shall vest pursuant to its terms and shall be converted into an option to acquire the number of shares of the Corporation's common stock equal to the number of shares of common stock underlying the option multiplied by the Exchange Ratio. The exercise price of each option will be adjusted accordingly.

Consummation of the BOE Merger is subject to the consummation of the TFC Merger and a number of customary conditions including the approval of the BOE Merger by the stockholders of BOE and by the Corporation's stockholders and the receipt of all required regulatory approvals. The BOE Merger is expected to be completed in the second quarter of 2008. Pursuant to the BOE Merger Agreement either party may terminate the BOE Merger Agreement in the event the BOE Merger Agreement is not consummated by June 30, 2008.

11. COMMITMENTS

On September 5, 2007, the Corporation entered into an agreement with Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. (KBW) to provide financial advisory and investment banking services to the Corporation in connection with the proposed Merger with TransCommunity Financial Corporation discussed in Note 10. The Corporation paid $125,000 upon execution of the agreement and, in the event that the business combination with TFC is consummated, it will pay a cash fee to KBW at closing of $375,000.

On December 5, 2007, the Corporation entered into an agreement with KBW to provide financial advisory and investment banking services to the Corporation in connection with the proposed Merger with BOE Financial Services of Virginia, Inc., discussed in Note 10. The Corporation paid $125,000 upon execution of the agreement and, in the event that the business combination with BOE is consummated, it will pay a cash fee to KBW at closing of $375,000. In addition, the Corporation agreed to pay to I-Bankers Securities, Inc. serving as the underwriting syndicate's representative, $2,100,000 attributable to the underwriters' discount which the representatives of the underwriters have agreed to defer until the consummation of the initial Business Combination. Until a Business Combination is completed, these funds are held in the Trust Account. If the Corporation does not complete a Business Combination, then the 2% deferred discount will become part of the funds returned to the Corporation's Public Stockholders from the trust account upon its liquidation as part of any plan of dissolution and distribution approved by the Corporation's stockholders.

12. SUBSEQUENT EVENT

Pursuant to an amendment dated March 20, 2008 to its engagement agreement dated September 5, 2007 with the Corporation, Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. has agreed to assist the Corporation in organizing meetings with third parties not currently stockholders in the Corporation to discuss the TFC Merger. For its assistance in organizing such meetings, the Corporation has agreed to pay Keefe, Bruyette & Woods a fee of $750,000 contingent upon consummation of the merger. Such fee is in addition to the other cash fees due to Keefe, Bruyette & Woods, Inc. at the time of and contingent upon closing of the TFC Merger and the BOE Merger.

ITEM 9. CHANGES IN AND DISAGREEMENTS WITH ACCOUNTANTS ON ACCOUNTING AND FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

As reported on a Current Report on Form 8-K filed on May 18, 2007, we advised Yount, Hyde & Barbour, P.C. on May 15, 2007, that the Audit Committee of our board of directors had determined to engage Miller, Ellin & Company LLP on that date as our independent registered public accounting firm to audit our financial statements as of and for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2007, and to serve as our independent registered public accounting firm for the fiscal year ending March 31, 2008. As reported on a Current Report on Form 8-K filed November 2, 2007, on October 29, 2007, our board of directors acted in accordance with our bylaws to change our fiscal year to end on December 31, commencing with the fiscal year ending December 31, 2007. The reports of Yount, Hyde & Barbour, P.C. on our consolidated financial statements as of and for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2006, did not contain any adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principle. During the period from inception through the fiscal year ended March 31, 2006, and through May 15, 2007, there were no (1) disagreements with Yount, Hyde & Barbour, P.C. on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which disagreements, if not resolved to Yount, Hyde & Barbour's satisfaction, would have caused Yount, Hyde & Barbour to make reference thereto in its report on the financial statements for such years, or (2) reportable events described under Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

ITEM 9A. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

As of the end of the period covered by this annual report, the Company's management, with the participation of the Company's chief executive officer and chief financial officer (the Certifying Officer), conducted evaluations of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures. As defined under Sections 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), the term "disclosure controls and procedures" means controls and other procedures of an issuer that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the issuer in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported, within the time periods specified in the Commission's rules and forms. Disclosure controls and procedures include without limitation, controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by an issuer in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to the issuer's management, including the Certifying Officer, to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosures. Based on this evaluation, the Certifying Officer has concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were effective to ensure that material information is recorded, processed, summarized and reported by management of the Company on a timely basis in order to comply with the Company's disclosure obligations under the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

Further, there were no changes in the Company's internal control over financial reporting during the Company's last fiscal quarter that materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

Management's Report on Internal Control over Financial Reporting

Our chief executive officer (CEO) and chief financial officer (CFO), is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting, as such term is defined in Rule 13a-15(f) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act).

Table of Contents

Internal control over financial reporting is defined in Rule 13a-15(f) promulgated under the Exchange Act as a process designed by, or under the supervision of, our CEO and CFO and effected by our board of directors, management and other personnel, to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and includes those policies and procedures that:

- pertain to the maintenance of records that in reasonable detail accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of our assets;

- provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that our receipts and expenditures are being made only in accordance with authorizations of our management and directors; and

- provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition or disposition of our assets that could have a material effect on the financial statements.

Readers are cautioned that internal control over financial reporting, no matter how well designed, has inherent limitations and may not prevent or detect misstatements. Therefore, even effective internal control over financial reporting can only provide reasonable assurance with respect to the financial statement preparation and presentation.

Our management, under the supervision and with the participation of our CEO and CFO, has evaluated the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) as of the end of the period covered by this report based upon the framework in Internal Control ——— Integrated Framework issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission (COSO). Based on such evaluation, our management has made an assessment that our internal control over financial reporting is effective as of December 31, 2007.

This annual report does not include an attestation report of the Company's registered public accounting firm regarding internal control over financial reporting. Management's report was not subject to attestation by the Company's registered public accounting firm pursuant to temporary rules of the SEC that permit the Company to provide only management's report in this annual report.

Special Advisor

We also may consult, from time to time, with certain individuals who have experience in the financial and/or banking sectors, who we call our special advisors, each of whom may also be a stockholder of the Company, who may assist us in our search for, and evaluation of, our target business and other matters relating to our operations. However, no compensation of any kind, including finder's and consulting fees, other than reimbursement for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with activities on our behalf, such as identifying potential target businesses and performing due diligence on suitable business combinations, will be paid to any of our existing stockholders, including our special advisors, or any of their affiliates, for services rendered to us prior to or in connection with the consummation of the business combination. Our special advisor is as follows:

DAVID W. SPAINHOUR has served as a special advisor to the Board of Directors since June 2005. He is Chairman Emeritus of Pacific Capital Bancorp, (Nasdaq: PCBC) which is the holding company for Pacific Capital Bank, N.A., a nationally chartered bank. With 48 branches and $7.0 billion in assets, Pacific Capital Bancorp is the largest independent banking company headquartered on the Central Coast of California and operates under the local brand names of Santa Barbara Bank & Trust, First Bank of San Luis Obispo, First National Bank of Central California, South Valley National Bank, San Benito Bank, and Pacific Capital Bank. Mr. Spainhour joined the bank in 1966 as Controller, was named Senior Vice President in 1972, elected to the Board of Directors in 1974 and served as President and CEO from 1989 until being named Chairman of the Board of Santa Barbara Bank & Trust in 1996. He served as Chairman of the Board of the holding company, Pacific Capital Bancorp, from April 2000 until his retirement in 2004. Prior to joining Santa Barbara Bank & Trust, he spent 12 years with the former Security Pacific National Bank in Los Angeles. Additionally, he serves on a variety of community boards and has received numerous honors and awards, including most recently the Santa Barbara News-Press Lifetime Achievement Award in 2000. He attended Glendale College, UCLA, the National School of Bank Investments, and the University of Southern California's Managerial Policy Institute. In 1970 he graduated from the Pacific Coast Banking School, University of Washington, where he was named to the school's Hall of Fame in 1998 for his personal achievements and contributions to the financial services community.

We may identify, from time to time, additional individuals to serve as special advisors if those individuals possess a level of experience within the financial or banking sectors that we believe may be beneficial to us.

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires our executive officers and directors, and persons who own more than ten percent of any publicly traded class of our equity securities, to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership of equity securities of the Company with the SEC and the American Stock Exchange. Officers, directors, and greater-than-ten-percent stockholders are required by the SEC's regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms that they file.

Based solely upon a review of Forms 3 and Forms 4 furnished to us during the most recent fiscal year, and Forms 5 with respect to its most recent fiscal year, we believe that all such forms required to be filed pursuant to Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act were timely filed, as necessary, by the officers, directors, and security holders required to file the same during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007.

Board of Directors

The board of directors oversees the business affairs of the Company and monitors the performance of management. Pursuant to our Bylaws, the board of directors has established that the board of directors shall consist of five members. Our board of directors is divided into three classes with only one class of directors being elected in each year and each class serving a three-year term. The term of office of the first class of directors, consisting of Mr. Walz and Mr. Bagley, will expire at our first annual meeting of stockholders following completion of the initial public offering. The term of office of the second class of directors, consisting of Mr. Paperin until his resignation on March 18, 2008, will expire at the second annual meeting following completion of the initial public offering. The term of office of the third class of directors, consisting of Mr. Simanson and Mr. Putnam, will expire at the third annual meeting following completion of the initial public offering.

Our board has established policies regarding meetings and executive sessions. Under the policy, our board is to meet at least quarterly and the independent directors of our board shall meet in executive session without management on a regularly scheduled basis, but no less than once annually. Our board encourages all current board members and all nominees for election to our board put forth in our proxy statement to attend the annual meeting of shareholders, provided, however, attendance shall not be required if personal circumstances affecting the board member or director nominee make his or her attendance impracticable or inappropriate.

Committees of the Board of Directors

Our board of directors has an audit committee, a nominating committee and compensation committee, each consisting of Eugene S. Putnam, Jr. and Keith Walz. Stewart J. Paperin was also a member of the audit committee, nominating committee and compensation committee until his resignation on March 18, 2008. The Board intends to appoint Chris A. Bagley to each of such committees effective April 1, 2008.

Audit Committee

The directors we appointed to our audit committee are independent as defined by the rules of the American Stock Exchange and the rules and regulations of the SEC. Each member of our audit committee is financially literate under the current listing standards of the American Stock Exchange, one of whom, Keith Walz, qualifies as an audit committee financial expert, as such term is defined by SEC rules.

The audit committee, in accordance with its charter, reviews the professional services and independence of our independent registered public accounting firm and our accounts, procedures and internal controls. The audit committee also recommends the firm selected to be our independent registered public accounting firm, reviews and approves the scope of the annual audit, reviews and evaluates with the independent public accounting firm our annual audit and annual consolidated financial statements, reviews with management the status of internal accounting controls, evaluates problem areas having a potential financial impact on us that may be brought to the committee's attention by management, the independent registered public accounting firm or the board of directors, and evaluates all of our public financial reporting documents. The audit committee also monitors compliance on a quarterly basis with the terms of our initial public offering. If any noncompliance is identified, then the audit committee is charged with the responsibility to take immediately all action necessary to rectify such noncompliance or otherwise cause compliance with the terms of our initial public offering. The audit committee held two meetings during fiscal 2007.

Nominating Committee

Our board has also established a nominating committee and has adopted a charter for this committee. The nominating committee is responsible for making recommendations to the board regarding the membership of our board, including; (i) recommending to the board the slate of director nominees for election at the annual meeting of shareholders; (ii) considering, recommending and recruiting candidates to fill any vacancies or new positions on the board, including candidates that may be recommended by shareholders; (iii) establishing criteria for selecting new directors; and (iv) reviewing the backgrounds and qualifications of possible candidates for director positions. The nominating committee held one meeting during fiscal 2007.

The nominating committee will evaluate a candidate proposed by any single shareholder or group of shareholders that beneficially owned more than 5% of our common stock for at least one year (and will hold the required number of shares through the meeting of shareholders at which the election will occur) and that satisfies the notice, information and consent procedures set forth below.

Community Bankers' bylaws require that all nominations for persons to be elected as a director, other than those made by the board of directors, be made pursuant to written notice to Community Bankers' Secretary. The notice must be received not less than 60 nor more than 90 days prior to the meeting at which the election will take place (or not later than 10 days after notice or public disclosure of such meeting date if such disclosure occurs less than 70 days prior to the date of such meeting). The notice must set forth:

as to each person whom the stockholder proposes to nominate for election or reelection as director:

the name, age, business address and residence address of the person;

the principal occupation or employment of the person;

the class and number of shares of capital stock of the Corporation which are beneficially owned by the person; and any other information relating to the person that is required to be disclosed in solicitations for proxies for election of directors pursuant to the Rules and Regulations of the SEC under Section 14 of the Exchange Act; and as to the stockholder giving the notice:

the name and record address of the stockholder; and

the class and number of shares of capital stock of the Corporation which are beneficially owned by the stockholder.

No material changes have been made to the procedures by which stockholders may recommend nominees to Community Bankers' board of directors.

Compensation Committee

Our board has also established a compensation committee in order to comply with the American Stock Exchange corporate governance listing requirements. The compensation committee does not currently have a charter, as management will receive no compensation until completion of a business combination. Consequently, the compensation committee held no meetings in fiscal 2007.

Code of Conduct and Ethics

The Company has adopted a Code of Conduct and Ethics that applies to all employees as well as its principal executive, financial and accounting officers.

Communicating with the Board

Our board of directors has established a policy regarding shareholder communications. Communications from security holders should be in the form of written correspondence, and should be sent via registered mail or overnight delivery service to the Company's corporate office, care of the Corporate Secretary. The correspondence shall include supporting documentation evidencing the security holder's security holdings in our company. The board will not respond to or act upon any security holder correspondence that pertains to the solicitation of services or products (for use by us or our board) conducted by or obtained from the security holder or any entity with which the security holder has an affiliation. Security holders should follow the rules adopted under the Exchange Act and the procedures disclosed within our bylaws and proxy statement to submit shareholder proposals intended for inclusion in our proxy statement for the next annual meeting of shareholders and should follow the procedures described within our proxy statement or other Exchange Act filings to submit board of director nominations. See the procedure for shareholder nominations set forth above.

Conflicts of Interest

Investors and stockholders should be aware of the following potential conflicts of interest:

None of our officers or directors is required to commit their full time to our affairs and, accordingly, they may have conflicts of interest in allocating management time among various business activities. The amount of time our officers will commit to our affairs will vary, depending on which phase we are in of our business plan. Generally, we expect (i) our chief executive officer to contribute 50% or more of his time to our affairs and (ii) our independent directors to contribute the customary amount of time required by an independent director necessary to perform his fiduciary duties to our company.

In the course of their other business activities, our officers and directors may become aware of investment and business opportunities which may be appropriate for presentation to us as well as the other entities with which they are affiliated. They may have conflicts of interest in determining to which entity a particular business opportunity should be presented.

Our officers and directors may in the future become affiliated with entities, including other blank check companies, engaged in business activities similar to those intended to be conducted by us.

Since our directors own shares of our common stock that will be released from escrow only if a business combination is successfully completed, members of our board may have a conflict of interest in determining whether a particular target business is appropriate to effect a business combination. The personal and financial interests of our directors and officers may influence their motivation in identifying and selecting a target business, completing a business combination timely and securing the release of their stock. Additionally, such individuals may purchase our securities in the open market and would be entitled to vote any shares acquired in the offering or in the open market as they choose with respect to a proposal to approve a business combination.

Some of our officers and directors may be deemed to have interests in the mergers in addition to their interests as stockholders generally. These interests include, among others, proposed employee benefits for those who become our employees, proposed employment agreements with one of our executive officers, and the continuation of two of our directors as directors of the surviving entity after the two proposed mergers.

We may have insufficient funds outside of the trust to pay for due diligence, legal, accounting and other expenses attendant to completing a business combination. In such event, our existing stockholders may have to incur such expenses in order to proceed with the proposed business combination. As part of any such combination, such existing stockholders may negotiate the repayment of some or all of such expenses, with or without interest or other compensation, which if not agreed to by the target business management, could cause our management to view such potential business combination unfavorably, thereby resulting in a conflict of interest.

Our officers, directors, and stockholders will receive reimbursement for any out-of pocket expenses incurred by them in connection with activities on our behalf, such as identifying potential target businesses and performing due diligence on suitable business combinations.

In general, officers and directors of a corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware are required to present business opportunities to a corporation if:

the corporation could financially undertake the opportunity;

the opportunity is within the corporation's line of business; and it would not be fair to the corporation and its stockholders for the opportunity not to be brought to the attention of the corporation.

Accordingly, as a result of multiple business affiliations, our officers and directors may have similar legal obligations relating to presenting business opportunities meeting the above-listed criteria to multiple entities. In addition, conflicts of interest may arise when our board evaluates a particular business opportunity with respect to the above-listed criteria. We cannot assure you that any of the above-mentioned conflicts will be resolved in our favor.

In order to minimize potential conflicts of interest which may arise from multiple corporate affiliations, each of our officers and directors has agreed, until the earlier of a business combination, our liquidation or such time as he ceases to be an officer or director, to present to us for our consideration, prior to presentation to any other entity, any suitable business opportunity which may reasonably be required to be presented to us.

In connection with the vote required for the TransCommunity Merger, all of our existing stockholders, including all of our officers and directors, have agreed to vote all of their respective shares of common stock acquired by them prior to our initial public offering (i) either for or against the TransCommunity Merger as determined by the majority of the votes cast by the holders of the shares of our common stock sold in our initial public offering and (ii) in the event we are unable to timely complete the TransCommunity Merger, in favor of the dissolution and liquidation of the Company. In addition, they have agreed to waive their respective rights to exercise their conversion rights with respect to all shares owned by them whether owned on the effective date of our registration statement or thereafter acquired or to participate in any liquidation distribution but only with respect to those shares of common stock acquired by them prior to our initial public offering. Any common stock acquired by existing stockholders in our initial public offering or in the open market thereafter will have the same voting rights in connection with the TransCommunity Merger as other stockholders with respect to such shares. Accordingly, they may vote such shares on the TransCommunity Merger any way they choose.

To further minimize potential conflicts of interest, we have agreed not to consummate a business combination with an entity that is affiliated with any of our existing stockholders, officers and directors or management of the representatives of the underwriters unless we obtain an opinion from an independent investment banking firm that the business combination is fair to our stockholders from a financial point of view.

ITEM 11. EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

No executive officer or director has received any cash compensation for services rendered. Commencing on June 5, 2006, through the acquisition of a target business, we will pay Community Bankers Acquisition, LLC, an affiliate of Mr. Simanson, our president, a fee of $7,500 per month for providing us with office space and certain office and secretarial services. Other than this $7,500 per-month fee, no compensation of any kind, including finder's and consulting fees, will be paid to any of our existing stockholders, or any of their respective affiliates, including First Capital Group, an entity owned by our president, for services rendered to us prior to or with respect to the business combination. However, our existing stockholders will be reimbursed for any out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with activities on our behalf such as identifying potential target businesses and performing due diligence on suitable business combinations. Such individuals may be paid consulting, management or other fees from target businesses, either prior to or as a result of the business combination, with such amounts being fully disclosed to stockholders, to the extent then known, in the proxy materials furnished to the stockholders. There is no limit on the amount of these out-of-pocket expenses and there will be no review of the reasonableness of the expenses by anyone other than our board of directors, which includes persons who may seek reimbursement, or a court of competent jurisdiction if such reimbursement is challenged.

Table of ContentsEmployment Agreements

Currently, we do not have an employment agreement with Gary A. Simanson, our sole executive officer. We expect to enter into employment agreements with each of Bruce B. Nolte, Patrick J. Tewell, Richard C. Stonbraker, M. Andrew McLean and Gary A. Simanson prior to the completion of the TransCommunity Merger. Upon completion of the proposed BOE Merger, we also expect to enter into employment agreements with George M. Longest, Jr. and Bruce E. Thomas.

Compensation Committee Report

None of our officers or directors received compensation for their service to us during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007 nor have there been any grants of stock based awards or stock options to officers or directors.

All of the shares of our common stock outstanding as of the date of our initial public offering including those owned by our officers and directors were placed in escrow with Continental Stock Transfer & Trust Company, as escrow agent. These shares will be released from escrow on June 2, 2009, but only if the merger with TransCommunity or another business combination is completed on or before the deadlines contained in our certificate of incorporation.

During the escrow period, the holders of these shares will not be able to sell or transfer their securities except that Community Bankers Acquisition, LLC may transfer its shares to its present beneficial owners and other stockholders may make transfers to their spouses and children or trusts or family partnerships established for their benefit, or to a transferee that does not affect beneficial ownership, but will retain all other rights as our stockholders, including, without limitation, the right to vote their shares of common stock and the right to receive cash dividends, if declared. If dividends are declared and payable in shares of common stock, such dividends will also be placed in escrow. If we are unable to effect a business combination and liquidate the company, none of our initial stockholders will receive any portion of the liquidation proceeds with respect to such common stock owned by them.

Securities Authorized for Issuance Under Equity Compensation Plans

The Company does not have any securities authorized for issuance under any equity compensation plans.

ITEM 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND TRANSACTIONS, AND DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE

The holders of the majority of the 1,875,000 shares held by our initial stockholders, including our executive officers and directors, will be entitled to make up to two demands that we register these shares for resale pursuant to an agreement signed concurrently with the consummation of our initial public offering. The holders of the majority of these shares will be entitled to elect to exercise these registration rights at any time after the date on which these shares of common stock are released from escrow. In addition, these stockholders have certain piggy-back registration rights on registration statements filed subsequent to the date on which these shares of common stock are released from escrow. We will bear the expenses incurred in connection with the filing of any such registration statements.

Community Bankers Acquisition, LLC, an affiliate of Mr. Simanson, our president and chief executive officer, has agreed that, commencing June 5, 2006 through the acquisition of a target business, it will make available to us a small amount of office space and certain office and secretarial services, as we may require from time to time. We have agreed to pay Community Bankers Acquisition, LLC $7,500 per month for these services commencing June 5, 2006, and ending upon the acquisition of a target business. An aggregate of $180,000 has been paid as of December 31, 2007.

We will reimburse our officers, directors and stockholders for any reasonable out-of-pocket business expenses incurred by them in connection with certain activities on our behalf such as identifying and investigating possible target businesses, conducting due diligence and other activities related to consummation of a business combination. There is no limit on the amount of accountable out-of-pocket expenses reimbursable by us, which will be reviewed only by our board or a court of competent jurisdiction if such reimbursement is challenged. For fiscal 2007, an aggregate of $50,500 has been reimbursed to our officers and directors.

In addition, Gary A. Simanson, our president and chief executive officer, and David Zalman, a stockholder, agreed as part of our initial public offering, pursuant to an agreement with the representatives of the underwriters in the initial public offering, that they or their affiliates or designees, would purchase up to 1,000,000 warrants in the aggregate in open market transactions at market prices not to exceed $0.80 per warrant. Under this agreement, I-Bankers Securities, Inc., Maxim Group LLC and Legend Merchant Group, Inc., the representatives of the underwriters, also agreed to place an irrevocable order for the purchase by them, or their affiliates or designees, of up to 500,000 warrants in the aggregate under identical terms and conditions as the purchases of Mr. Simanson and Mr. Zalman. As a result of this agreement, Community Bankers Acquisition, LLC an affiliate of Mr. Simanson, acquired an aggregate of 349,724 warrants and the representatives of the underwriters acquired an aggregate of 300,000 warrants.

Pursuant to letter agreements with the Company, the Company's officers and directors and initial stockholders waived their rights to receive distributions with respect to shares owned by them in the event of the Company's liquidation. Other than the $7,500 per month administrative fees and reimbursable out-of-pocket expenses payable to our officers, directors and stockholders, no compensation or fees of any kind, including finders and consulting fees, will be paid to any of our existing stockholders, officers or directors who owned our common stock prior to our initial public offering, or to any of their respective affiliates, including First Capital Group which is affiliated with Mr. Simanson, for services rendered to us prior to or with respect to the business combination.

All ongoing and future material transactions between us and any of our officers and directors or their respective affiliates will be on terms believed by us to be no less favorable than are available from unaffiliated third parties and will require prior approval in each instance by a majority of the members of our board who do not have an interest in the transaction. In their consideration of each transaction, these members of the board shall be provided with access, should they so request and at our expense, to our attorneys or independent legal counsel selected by them. Moreover, we shall endeavor to obtain and present to the directors considering such transaction estimates obtained from unaffiliated third parties for similar goods or services to ascertain whether such transaction is on terms that are no less favorable to us than is otherwise available from such unaffiliated third parties. If a transaction with an affiliated third party is found to be on terms less favorable to us than with an unaffiliated third party, we will not engage in such transaction.

Director Independence

The board of directors has adopted standards concerning director independence, which meet the independence standards of the American Stock Exchange and, with respect to the audit committee, the rules of the SEC.

Other than as described above, during the last fiscal year, there were no transactions, relationships or arrangements not disclosed as related person transactions that were considered by the board of directors in determining that the applicable independence standards have been met by each of the directors.

ITEM 14. PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTANT FEES AND SERVICES

Audit and Non-Audit Services

The audit committee is directly responsible for the appointment, compensation, and oversight of the performance of our independent registered public accounting firm. In addition to retaining Yount, Hyde and Barbour, P.C. to audit our financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2006, our board of directors retained Yount Hyde and Barbour, P.C. to provide auditing services in connection with our initial public offering. Effective May 15, 2007, the board of directors engaged Miller, Ellin & Company LLP to audit the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2007. The audit committee has reviewed all services provided by Yount Hyde and Barbour, P.C. and Miller, Ellin & Company LLP, including services provided in connection with the review of our financial statements during and for the year ended March 31, 2007, and has concluded that the provision of such services was compatible with maintaining such firms' respective independence in the conduct of its auditing functions.

Pre-Approval Policies and Procedures

Our audit committee has adopted policies and procedures for the pre-approval of services provided by the independent registered public accounting firm. These services may include audit services, audit-related services, tax services and other services. Such policies and procedures provide that the audit committee shall pre-approve all auditing and permitted non-audit services (including the fees and terms thereof).

Table of Contents

As permitted under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, the audit committee may form and delegate pre-approval authority for audit and permitted non-audit services to a subcommittee consisting of one or more members of the audit committee. Any service pre-approved by a delegate must be reported to the audit committee at the next scheduled meeting.

The aggregate fees incurred by us for audit and non audit services for fiscal 2007 and the years ended March 31, 2007 and 2006 were as follows:

Service Category	Fiscal 2007	Year Ended March 31, 2007
Audit Fees	$ 18,280	$
Audit Related Fees	$ 6,170	$ 10,000
Tax Fees	$ 3,709	$
All Other Fees	$ 5,483	$
Total	$ 33,642	$ 10,000

In the above table, in accordance with the SEC's definitions and rules, audit fees are fees for professional services for the audit of a company's financial statements included in the annual report on Form 10-K, for the review of a company's financial statements included in the quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, and for services that are normally provided by the accountant in connection with statutory and regulatory filings or engagements; audit-related fees are fees for assurance and related services that are reasonably related to the performance of the audit or review of a company's financial statements; and tax fees are fees for tax compliance, tax advice and tax planning. Included in audit fees are fees that were billed and unbilled for the 2007 audit and fees associated with our initial public offering.
