ITEM 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors;
Appointment of Principal Officers

On April 11, 2005, the Board of Directors of AIMS Technologies, Inc., a Utah corporation (the "Company"), authorized, effective immediately, leaves of absence for (a) Reginald Hall from his positions as Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and as an officer, director and employee of the Company's wholly owned subsidiary, Advanced Integrated Management Services, Inc., a Tennessee corporation ("AIMSI Services"), and all other subsidiaries of the Company (collectively, the "Subsidiaries"), and (b) David Reeder from his position as Chief Operating Officer of the Company, and as an officer and employee of the Subsidiaries.

The Board of Directors authorized such leaves of absence as a result of a multi-count indictment returned by a federal grand jury in the Eastern District of Tennessee on April 7, 2005, alleging conspiracy, fraud, money laundering, and obstruction of justice on the part of Messrs. Hall and Reeder, and AIMS Services, in connection with the administration of various subcontracts with the federal government contractor responsible for the management of the Oak Ridge National Laboratory. The parties named in the indictment have denied these allegations.

The Board has appointed an existing director, Roland Edison, to serve as the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company in Mr. Hall's absence, and has reassigned Mr. Reeder to serve in a non-officer capacity as Manager of Marketing for the Company.
