(e) Employment Agreement with Chief Financial Officer

On January 8, 2019, FedNat Holding Company (the “Company”) entered into an employment agreement (the “Employment Agreement”) with Ronald A. Jordan, the Company’s Chief Financial Officer.

Under the Employment Agreement, Mr. Jordan is entitled to receive base salary and incentive compensation as determined by the Compensation Committee of the Company’s Board of Directors. He is also entitled to receive medical insurance (including family coverage) and other benefits commensurate with that offered to other similarly situated employees.

Mr. Jordan’s employment agreement is for a two-year term beginning on the date of execution. If Mr. Jordan’s employment is terminated by the Company without cause prior to a change of control of the Company (as defined in the Employment Agreement), Mr. Jordan will be entitled to receive in a lump sum payment severance equal to two times his annual base salary as in effect immediately prior to such termination (“Termination Severance”) and any accrued but unpaid bonuses, incentive compensation and other benefits (“Accrued Obligations”). In addition, any unvested equity awards held by Mr. Jordan will vest. The Company will also provide Mr. Jordan and his family medical insurance coverage for two years at no cost (“Extended Medical Coverage”).

If Mr. Jordan’s employment is terminated because of his death or disability (as defined in the Employment Agreement), Mr. Jordan will be entitled to receive the Termination Severance (less, in the case of his disability, any amounts paid to him under a long-term disability policy) and the Accrued Obligations. The Termination Severance will be paid in a lump sum in the case of his death, and in accordance with the Company’s payroll practices, in the case of his disability. In addition, any unvested equity awards held by him will vest and the Company will provide two years of Extended Medical Coverage to his family, in the case of his death, or to him and his family, in the case of his disability.

If Mr. Jordan’s employment is terminated by the Company without cause or is terminated by him for Good Reason (as defined in the Employment Agreement) following a change of control of the Company, Mr. Jordan will be entitled to receive in a lump sum payment severance equal to two times the sum of (a) his annual base salary in effect immediately prior to date of the definitive agreement for the transaction resulting in the change of control plus (b) the average of his incentive bonuses (annual and long-term) awarded for the three fiscal years immediately preceding the termination of his employment (“Change of Control Severance”). In addition, any unvested equity awards held by Mr. Jordan will vest. The Company will also provide Mr. Jordan and his family Extended Medical Coverage for two years.

If Mr. Jordan’s employment is terminated by the Company without cause prior to a change of control, and a change of control occurs within six months of the termination of his employment, Mr. Jordan will be entitled to receive an additional payment equal to the difference between the Change of Control Severance to which he would have been entitled and the Termination Severance. If Mr. Jordan resigns, or is terminated by the Company for cause (as defined in the Employment Agreement), he will be entitled to receive only his base salary prorated through the date of termination and will forfeit any accrued but unpaid bonus or other incentive compensation or other benefits, unless otherwise provided under the applicable plan, program or arrangement.

The Employment Agreement sets forth a reaffirmation of the restrictive covenants in Mr. Jordan’s Confidential Information, Non-Solicitation and Non-Competition Agreement dated April 17, 2017.

The foregoing summary of the Employment Agreement is qualified by reference to the full text of the Employment Agreement, a copy of which is filed with this Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1.
