Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On August 2, 2010, ACADIA Pharmaceuticals Inc. (the Company) received a letter from the Listing Qualifications Department of The Nasdaq Stock Market notifying the Company that it does not comply with the minimum $50,000,000 market value of listed securities (MVLS) requirement for continued listing on The Nasdaq Global Market set forth in Marketplace Rule 5450(b)(2)(A).

Nasdaq stated in its letter that, in accordance with Marketplace Rule 5810(c)(3)(C), the Company has been provided a grace period of 180 calendar days, or until January 31, 2011, to regain compliance. During this period, compliance will be regained if the Company's MVLS closes at $50,000,000 or more for a minimum of 10 consecutive business days or the Company reports stockholders' equity of $10,000,000 or more.

The notification from Nasdaq does not impact the listing of the Company's common stock at this time and the Company's common stock will continue to trade on The Nasdaq Global Market under the symbol ACAD during the grace period.

In the event that the Company does not regain compliance by January 31, 2011, Nasdaq will provide the Company with written notice that its securities are subject to delisting. If the Company is unable to regain compliance with the listing requirement prior to January 31, 2011, the Company could apply to transfer its common stock to The Nasdaq Capital Market, provided that it satisfies the requirement for continued listing on that market, or could appeal the decision to a Nasdaq Listing Qualifications Panel. In the event of an appeal, the Company's securities would remain listed on The Nasdaq Global Market pending a decision by the panel following the hearing. There can be no assurance that, if the Company does appeal a delisting determination, such appeal would be successful.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements in this report that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements that involve a number of risks and uncertainties. Such forward-looking statements include statements relating to future actions that may be taken by the Company and future trading of the Company's stock. These statements are only predictions based on current information and expectations and involve a number of risks and uncertainties.
