The agreements discussed above reflect changes to each of the various award agreements to separate the “Grant Date” from the “Vesting Date.” Historically, the Company has used the anniversaries of a grant date as the related vesting dates. The changes approved by the Compensation Committee allow the Compensation Committee to have additional flexibility in establishing one or more vesting dates that are different than the anniversary date. Additionally, the Company added stronger non-solicitation language in each of the various award agreements as well as the ability to provide varying lengths of time for these provisions to be effective. The length of time the Company would want protection for these eventualities will vary depending on the level of an associate and the area of the Company in which they are employed. Finally, the Company developed a series of special award agreements to include explicit language concerning non-competition. This will align the language in the award agreements with the separate non-competition agreements the Company utilizes in cases where equity awards are made in consideration for obtaining these agreements. Separate award agreements will cover each type of equity award.
