A Message from Joe R. Davis:

In a joint press release earlier today, RR Donnelley and Consolidated Graphics announced that a definitive agreement has been signed, under which RR Donnelley would acquire Consolidated Graphics for a per share consideration of $34.44 in cash and 1.651 shares of RR Donnelley's common stock in a deal valued at $620 million or $62 per share. The transaction is subject to the customary closing conditions, including regulatory approvals and the approval of our shareholders. It is expected to be completed sometime in the first quarter of 2014.

As many of you know, RR Donnelley is a leading provider of integrated communications solutions, including printing and related services. They have more than 57,000 employees, more than 500 locations worldwide, and annual revenues in 2012 of approximately $10 billion.

We believe that the RR Donnelley / Consolidated Graphics combination will bring an extremely compelling set of benefits to customers, employees, shareholders and other stakeholders. Customers, for example, will benefit from the collective expertise that the combined organizations will offer, including new capabilities and expanded geographic reach.

RR Donnelley has a strong history of embracing best of the best ideas and its management team understands and appreciates the expertise, innovation and service for which we are known. They will look to incorporate many of our products, services and best practices, including the planned adoption of Consolidated Graphics' local service model for all of its commercial printing group. And, in turn, RR Donnelley's broad product and service line will be attractive to our clients and offer additional value.

We know that you will have questions. Please speak with your President with specific questions or concerns.

Until the transaction is consummated, RR Donnelley and Consolidated Graphics will remain two separate companies, each responsible for serving its customers independently. It is imperative that we continue to provide our clients with the same high level of service that they have come to expect from Consolidated Graphics. You should continue with business as usual and execute projects and strategic initiatives according to plan.

Both companies are committed to assuring that the coming months are smooth for employees and customers alike.

Be assured that within the guidelines governing communications related to an acquisition, we will communicate developments to all of our employees as they unfold.
