If answer is no, identify report(s). ☒ Yes ☐ No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? ☒ Yes ☐ No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The registrant expects to report losses from operations of $94,942 for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2009 as compared to losses from operations of $27,544 for the fiscal year ended August 31, 2008. This increase to operational losses is as a result of a change of business from an online stocking distributor, buying and selling semiconductors, electro-mechanical and passive components to a company seeking projects in the renewable energy sector. During the twelve month period ended August 31, 2009 the Company expended $64,783 on professional services including legal and accounting fees and professional services related to the preparation of a business plan, as compared to $14,821 expended in the same category in the same twelve month period from the previous fiscal year. Additionally general and administrative expenses more than doubled over the comparative twelve month periods from $12,723 (2008) to $28,037(2009) as a result of increased travel costs as well as other expenses related to establishment of new corporate office locations.

In addition, during the most recently completed 12 month period ended August 31, 2009 there have been certain other actions undertaken by management (with no comparative data during the prior fiscal year) which have impacted the Company's year-end financial reporting as follows:

- A proposed offering to raise a total of $450,000 at $0.15 per share whereunder the Company received subscriptions totaling $68,000 or 453,333 shares of common stock. Between March and May 2009 were rescinded by the subscribers following a review of available exemptions by management and a determination that the subscriptions did not in fact comply. In respect of the aforementioned the Company repaid funds in the amount of $13,000 directly to the original subscribers and remaining funds in the amount of $55,000 were agreed to be converted to repayable loans to two individuals. Subsequently, on August 10, 2008 the Company settled these loans in exchange for certain assets of the Company as follows:

1. All office furniture and fittings, including computer equipment, desks, chairs and all other office fittings purchased from the period February 2009 to date of settlement, and currently owned by the Company;
2. $10 dollars and other good and valuable considerations.

As a result an amount of $55,000 was recorded as other income for the Company during the period ended August 31, 2009.

On March 17, 2009 and March 23, 2009 respectively the Company incorporated two wholly owned subsidiaries – Cascade Renewable Energy Inc., an Alberta Canada corporation (“Cascade Renewable”) and Cascade Solar Corp., a Nevada corporation (“Cascade Solar”) to undertake operations in Canada and the United States in the field of renewable energy. Subsequently, on August 10, 2009 the Company entered into a debt settlement agreement with a creditor where under for settlement in full of the amount of $3,971 the Creditor accepted all of the issued and outstanding shares of Cascade Renewable Energy Inc;

The transaction results in a gain of $3,621 which amount has been reflected in the Company’s Statement of Operations as a gain from discontinued operations.

During the fiscal year ended August 31, 2008 the Company reported revenues of $451 to offset operational expenses. There were no revenues reported during the current fiscal year ended August 31, 2009 as a result of the change in business.

Net losses for the comparative periods are expected to total $39,309 (2009) as compared to $27,995 (2008) respectively.
