THE INDIA FUND, INC. ANNOUNCES COMMENCEMENT OF RIGHTS OFFERING

NEW YORK, July 20, 2009 The India Fund, Inc. (NYSE: IFN; the Fund) announced today that the subscription period for its non-transferable rights offering (the Offer) has commenced.

The Fund is issuing to stockholders of record as of the close of business on July 20, 2009 one right for each share of common stock held. The rights entitle stockholders to subscribe for additional shares of the Fund's common stock. The subscription period commences today, July 20, 2009, and will expire at 5:00 p.m., Eastern daylight time, on August 14, 2009, unless extended. The subscription price per share will be equal to 95% of the Fund's net asset value per share on the expiration date of the Offer, which is August 14, 2009. Stockholders will be able to purchase one share of common stock for every three rights held. The rights are non-transferable and will not be admitted for trading on the New York Stock Exchange.

Stockholders who exercise all rights issued to them will be entitled to subscribe for additional shares at the subscription price pursuant to an over-subscription privilege. If sufficient shares are not available to honor all requests for over-subscriptions, the Fund may, in its discretion, issue additional shares in an amount up to 25% of the shares that were available in the primary offering. Regardless of whether the Fund issues additional shares, if sufficient shares are not available to honor all over-subscription requests, available shares will be allocated pro rata among stockholders who over-subscribe based on the number of rights originally issued to them by the Fund. If all subscription rights are exercised (including the additional 25%), the Fund will issue an aggregate total of 16,032,758 shares of its common stock in the Offer.
