Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 11, 2018, we were awarded a new contract by the U.S. Department of Education to provide debt collection services on defaulted federal student loans.

The base ordering period for the new contract is January 11, 2018 through January 10, 2023, with additional optional ordering periods and optional in-payment retention periods that may run from January 11, 2023 through January 10, 2028. Notwithstanding the base and optional terms of the contract as set forth above, the Department of Education retains the right to terminate the contract, or any part thereof, at its own discretion at any time.

Pursuant to the terms of the new contract, we have the right to receive fees and commissions in connection with several services to be rendered, which includes a commission equal to 15.2% of recovered amounts for each periodic payment collected on an allocated loan up to and including the final periodic payment prior to the loan being considered “rehabilitated” and if the loan is “rehabilitated,” then we are paid a one-time commission equal to the principal and interest balance of the rehabilitated loan, not to exceed $1,710. Generally, a loan is considered successfully rehabilitated after the student loan borrower has made nine consecutive qualifying monthly payments and the Department of Education has notified us that it is recalling the loan.

According to the Department of Education, the total contract award amount for the base period and any optional period shall not exceed $400,000,000.
