Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 23, 2018, StarTek, Inc. (the “Company”) and Amazon.com, Inc. (“Amazon”) entered into a Transaction Agreement (the “Transaction Agreement”), pursuant to which the Company agreed to issue to Amazon.com NV Investment Holdings LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Amazon (“NV Investment”), a warrant (the “Warrant”) to acquire up to 4,000,000 shares (the “Warrant Shares”) of the Company’s common stock, par value $0.01 per share (“Common Stock”), subject to certain vesting events described below. The Company and Amazon entered into the Transaction Agreement in connection with existing commercial arrangements between the Company and Amazon pursuant to which the Company provides and will continue to provide commercial services to Amazon. The vesting of the Warrant Shares, described below, is linked to payments made by Amazon or its affiliates (directly or indirectly through third parties) pursuant to the existing commercial arrangements.

Warrant

The Warrant Shares will vest based on Amazon’s payment of up to $600 million to the Company in connection with Amazon’s receipt of commercial services from the Company. The first tranche of 425,532 Warrant Shares vested upon the execution of the Warrant and the Transaction Agreement. The remaining Warrant Shares will vest from time to time if and as certain revenue thresholds are met over the life of the Warrant. The exercise price for the Warrant Shares will be $9.96 per share of Common Stock. The Warrant is exercisable through January 23, 2026.

Upon the consummation of certain change of control transactions (as defined in the Warrant), the Warrant will automatically vest and become exercisable for all of the Warrant Shares. The exercise price and the Warrant Shares issuable upon exercise of the Warrant are subject to customary antidilution adjustments.

Transaction Agreement

The Transaction Agreement sets forth certain governance arrangements and provisions relating to Amazon’s equity interest in the Company, including customary registration rights, and includes customary representations, warranties and covenants of the Company and Amazon.

The Transaction Agreement contains certain restrictions on Amazon’s ability to transfer the Warrant and the Warrant Shares. The Transaction Agreement also contains certain customary standstill restrictions that remain in effect during the period from the execution of the Transaction Agreement until such time as Amazon and its affiliates beneficially own less than 10% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock (the “Standstill Period”). During the Standstill Period, Amazon and its affiliates will be required to vote all of their shares of Common Stock in excess of 19.9% of the Company’s outstanding shares of Common Stock in accordance with the recommendation of the Company’s Board of Directors.

Pursuant to the Transaction Agreement, the Warrant may be exercised with respect to Warrant Shares representing 19.9% of the shares of Common Stock outstanding as of the date of issuance of the Warrant, or 3,222,681 shares of Common Stock, without the approval of the Company’s stockholders but subject to the vesting requirements of the Warrant. The exercise of the remaining 777,319 Warrant Shares (the “Excess Warrant Shares”) is subject to the prior approval of the Company’s stockholders, as required under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange (the “Stockholder Approval”), in addition to the vesting requirements. Pursuant to the Transaction Agreement, the Company has agreed to seek the Stockholder Approval at the next annual or special meeting of the Company’s stockholders (the “Stockholder Meeting”).

The Warrant and Warrant Shares have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act and rules and regulations of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) promulgated thereunder. The Warrant was issued only to NV Investment in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Agreement. This Form 8-K does not constitute an offer to sell, or a solicitation of an offer to buy, any security and shall not constitute an offer, solicitation or sale in any jurisdiction in which such offering would be unlawful.

Item 3.02. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities.

See disclosures under Item 1.01 of this Form 8-K.
