On June 14, 2016, the Company restated its broad-based severance policy for U.S. employees, which applies to terminations of employment not in connection with a change of control, to, among other things, (i) clarify the calculation of severance pay and modify the severance pay formulas applicable to certain classes of eligible employees, (ii) reflect the transfer of sponsorship of the policy to the Company and to rename the policy, and (iii) reflect certain requirements relating to confidentiality. The foregoing summary of the severance policy for U.S. employees does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the policy, which is included as Exhibit 10.1 hereto.

In addition, on June 14, 2016, the Company made certain immaterial changes to its broad-based change in control severance policy for U.S. employees and its Annual Incentive Plan.
