Agreement of investment purchases and sales or maturities since our last examination from the books and records of the Company to broker confirmations.

We believe that our examination provides a reasonable basis for our opinion. Our examination does not provide a legal determination on the Company's compliance with the requirements of the Act. In our opinion, management's assertion that Franklin Capital Corporation maintained effective internal control, including the appropriate segregation of responsibilities and duties, over the transfer agent and registrar functions, and that no material inadequacies existed as defined by the requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of Rule 17f-2 of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as of December 17, 2003, is fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the criteria established by the requirements of subsections (b) and (c) of Rule 17f-2 of the Investment Company Act of 1940.
