Part II-Rules 12b-25 (b) and (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25, the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate) [x]

- (a) The reasons described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense;
(b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, 11-K or Form N-SAR, or portion thereof will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q, or portion thereof will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and
(c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

Part III-Narrative

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Form 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The annual report on Form 10-K could not be filed within the prescribed time period because the Company is in the process of finalizing its annual financial statements as well as the supporting documentation related thereto. On January 15, 2004, the Company filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Bankruptcy Court"). The Company has not been able to complete its year end financial results due to the dedication of most of the Company's internal financial management resources to the preparation for and conduct of the Company's bankruptcy proceeding as debtor in possession. In addition, the Company is in the process of working with its auditor, Ernst & Young LLP, to seek approval from the Bankruptcy Court for the retention of Ernst & Young LLP in order to complete the work required to finalize the audit of the Company's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003. Accordingly, the Company needs additional time to complete the disclosure in the annual report on Form 10-K as required under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
