Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Effective November 3, 2010, John R. Kasich resigned as a director of Invacare Corporation (the “Company”) as a result of his election as Governor of the State of Ohio. Mr. Kasich became a director of the Company in 2001. He served most recently as Chairman of the Company’s Nominating Committee and as a member of the Company’s Governance Committee, and previously served on the Company’s Investment Committee.

A. Malachi Mixon, III, the Company’s Chairman, stated, “It has been our privilege to have Governor-elect Kasich serve on Invacare’s Board of Directors, and we thank him for his contributions to the Company. While the Board of Directors will miss having the benefit of his insights, we wish him all the best as Governor of Invacare’s home state of Ohio.”
