[PHILIP MORRIS COMPANIES INC. LETTERHEAD]

[], 2002

Dear --:

Thank you for your letter expressing your thoughts on our parent company's proposed name change.

Philip Morris Companies Inc. is a great name that has served us well over many years. The decision to move ahead with a shareholder vote on the proposal to change the name of our parent company to Altria Group, Inc. comes only after months of study, research and thoughtful discussion.

We know that not every shareholder will agree with the recommendation and that some people will not like the choice for a new name. However, we also have found that after an initial period of adjustment, most people understand and accept both the reasons for the change and the name itself, as well as the potential benefits for our company over the long term.

One of the primary reasons we are seeking to change the name of our parent company is to clarify the identity of our corporate parent and make it clearer when reference is being made to each of our tobacco companies. We will not change the names of our principal operating companies, including Philip Morris Incorporated (Philip Morris U.S.A.), Philip Morris International Inc., Kraft Foods Inc. and Miller Brewing Company.

We remain committed to each of our businesses and plan to continue fully supporting and building the equity established over many years in the Philip Morris name for our domestic and international tobacco companies. Please be assured that many things will not change with a new name. We look forward to continuing our many important relationships with business partners and the financial community, as well as the many organizations we have supported through grants and other philanthropic activities.

Again, thank you for sharing your thoughts with us.
