Any statement contained in any document incorporated or deemed to be incorporated by reference herein shall be deemed to be modified or superseded for the purposes of this Registration Statement to the extent that a statement contained herein or in any subsequently filed document which also is or is deemed to be incorporated by reference herein modifies or supersedes such statement. Item 4. Description of Securities.

Described in item (d) above.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Certain legal matters in connection with the shares of Common Stock to which this Registration Statement relates have been passed upon by Elizabeth L. Wittenberg, Associate General Counsel and Assistant Secretary of the Company. Ms. Wittenberg beneficially owns, directly or indirectly, shares of Common Stock of the Company.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Under provisions of the By-laws of the Company, each person who is or was a director or officer of the Company shall be indemnified by the Company to the full extent permitted or authorized by Section 145 of the General Corporation Law of Delaware.

Under Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, the directors and officers of the Company are entitled, under certain circumstances, to be indemnified by it against all expenses and liabilities incurred by or imposed upon them as a result of suits brought against them as such directors and officers, if they act in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believe to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Company, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, have no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful, except that no indemnification shall be made against expenses in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which they shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Company, unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, they are fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper. Any such indemnification may be made by the Company only as authorized in each specific case upon a determination by the stockholders, independent legal counsel, a majority of the disinterested directors or a committee of disinterested directors that indemnification is proper in the circumstances because the indemnitee has met the applicable statutory standard of conduct.

The Company carries liability insurance policies covering certain claims which may be made against the Company and/or its officers and directors. The Company also carries insurance where a claim arises under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 against a director or officer based on an alleged breach of fiduciary duty or other wrongful act.

The Securities and Exchange Commission has taken the position that insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted by a company to its directors and officers, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in such Act and is therefore unenforceable.

Item 7. Exemption From Registration Claimed.

Not applicable.
