Under the NPA Amendment, NRP Operating has agreed to use certain asset sale proceeds to make mandatory prepayment offers on the Notes as follows:

Until the earlier of the time that (1) NRP Operating has sold $300 million of assets or (2) June 30, 2020, NRP Operating will be required to make prepayment offers to the holders of the Notes using 25% of the net cash proceeds from certain asset sales; and

After the earlier to occur of the dates above, NRP Operating will be required to make prepayment offers to the holders of the Notes using an amount of net cash proceeds from certain asset sales that will be calculated pro-rata based on the amount of Notes then outstanding compared to the other total NRP Operating senior debt outstanding that is being prepaid.

The mandatory prepayment offers described above will be made pro-rata across each series of outstanding Notes and will not require any make-whole payment by NRP Operating. In addition, the remaining principal and interest payments on the Notes will be adjusted accordingly based on the amount of Notes actually prepaid. The prepayments will not affect maturity dates of any series of the Notes.
