Harmony Gold Mining Company Limited

(Harmony), a world-class gold mining and exploration company, has operations and assets in South Africa and Papua New Guinea. Harmony, which has more than 60 years' experience in the industry, is the third largest gold producer in South Africa.

Our assets include 9 underground mines and 1 open pit operation and several surface sources in South Africa.

Our assets in PNG – an open pit mine (Hidden Valley), as well as the significant Golpu project – are held in a joint venture. We also own several exploration tenements, in Papua New Guinea.

The company's primary stock exchange listing is on the JSE with a secondary listing on the New York Stock Exchange. The bulk of our shareholders are in South Africa and the United States. Additional information on the company is available on the corporate website, www.harmony.co.za.

Harmony's NYSE share price cured after improved trading performance

Johannesburg: Tuesday, 2 February 2016. Harmony Gold Mining Company Limited (Harmony) is pleased to advise that the trading price of the Harmony American Depositary Receipts (ADRs) on the New York Stock Exchange (Ticker: HMY) has complied with the NYSE's continued listing standard, a month before the expiry of the six months' notice period and therefore no reverse split or change in ADR ratio (currently 1:1) is required.

Harmony received notice from the NYSE on 8 September 2015 regarding the ADR price being below US$1. Harmony's ADR has now complied with the NYSE's continued listing standard by achieving a minimum closing price of US$1 on 29 January 2016 and a minimum average of US$1 over 30 consecutive trading days.

Forward-Looking Statements

This announcement contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 with respect to Harmony's financial condition, results of operations, business strategies, operating efficiencies, competitive positions, growth opportunities for existing services, plans and objectives of management, markets for stock and other matters. Statements in this announcement that are not historical facts are "forward-looking statements" for the purpose of the safe harbour provided by Section 21E of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Section 27A of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Forward-looking statements are statements that are not historical facts. These statements include financial projections and estimates and their underlying assumptions, statements regarding plans, objectives and expectations with respect to future operations, products and services, and statements regarding future performance. Forward-looking statements are generally identified by the words "expect", "anticipates", "believes", "intends", "estimates" and similar expressions. These statements are only predictions. All forward-looking statements involve a number of risks, uncertainties and other factors and we cannot assure you that such statements will prove to be correct. Risks, uncertainties and other factors could cause actual events or results to differ from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements, including, among others, those relating to the future business prospects, revenues and income of Harmony, wherever they may occur in this announcement, are necessarily estimates reflecting the best judgement of the senior management of Harmony and involve a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those suggested by the forward-looking statements. As a consequence, these forward-looking statements should be considered in light of various important factors, including those set forth in this announcement. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from estimates or projections contained in the forward-looking statements include, without limitation: overall
