1 SAFE HARBOR

This presentation contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause our actual results to be materially different from historical results or from any future results expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. The factors that could cause actual results of EchoStar Communications Corporation ("EchoStar") or a combined EchoStar and Hughes Electronics Corporation ("Hughes") to differ materially, many of which are beyond the control of EchoStar include, but are not limited to, the following: (1) the businesses of EchoStar and Hughes may not be integrated successfully or such integration may be more difficult, time-consuming or costly than expected; (2) expected benefits and synergies from the combination may not be realized within the expected time frame or at all; (3) revenues following the transaction may be lower than expected; (4) operating costs, customer loss and business disruption including, without limitation, difficulties in maintaining relationships with employees, customers, clients or suppliers, may be greater than expected following the transaction; (5) generating the incremental growth in the subscriber base of the combined company may be more costly or difficult than expected; (6) the regulatory approvals required for the transaction may not be obtained on the terms expected or on the anticipated schedule; (7) the effects of legislative and regulatory changes; (8) an inability by EchoStar to obtain certain retransmission consents; (9) EchoStar's inability to retain necessary authorizations from the FCC; (10) an increase in competition from cable as a result of digital cable or otherwise, direct broadcast satellite, other satellite system operators, and other providers of subscription television services; (11) the introduction of new technologies and competitors into the subscription television business; (12) changes in labor, programming, equipment and capital costs; (13) future acquisitions, strategic partnership and divestitures; (14) general business and economic conditions; and (15) other risks described from time to time in EchoStar's periodic reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. You are urged to consider statements that include the words "may," "will," "would," "could," "should," "believes," "estimates," "projects," "potential," "expects," "plans," "anticipates," "intends," "continues" or the negative of those words or other comparable words to be uncertain and forward-looking. This cautionary statement applies to all forward-looking statements in this presentation. Subject to future developments, EchoStar may file with the Securities and Exchange Commission a registration statement at a date or dates subsequent hereto to register the EchoStar shares to be issued in the proposed transaction. Investors and security holders are urged to read the registration statement (when and if available) and any other relevant documents filed with the SEC, as well as any amendments or supplements obtain a free copy of the registration statement (when and if available) and other relevant documents at the SEC's Internet web site at www.sec.gov. The registration statement (when and if available) and other relevant documents may also be obtained free of charge from EchoStar by directing such request to: EchoStar Communications Corp., 5701 South Santa Fe Drive, Littleton, CO 80120, Attention: Investor Relations.

EchoStar and certain executive officers of EchoStar may be deemed to be "participants" in EchoStar's solicitation of proxies from GM and GMH shareholders. A detailed list of the names, affiliations and interests of the participants in the solicitation was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on August 6, 2001.

INFORMATION REGARDING PARTICIPANTS

Edgar Filing: HUGHES ELECTRONICS CORP - Form 425

EchoStar and the following persons may be deemed to be "participants" on behalf of EchoStar in the solicitation of proxies from GM and GMH shareholders.

Charles W. Ergen	Chairman and Chief Executive Officer
David K. Moskowitz	Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary
Michael R. McDonnell	Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer
Jason Kiser	Treasurer

As of August 6, 2001 EchoStar beneficially owned 1,000 shares of General Motors common stock and 185,000 shares of Hughes tracking stock. Mr. Ergen beneficially owns approximately 1,000 shares of General Motors common stock and approximately 10,000 shares of Hughes tracking stock.

Other than as set forth herein, as of the date hereof, neither EchoStar nor any of the other participants listed above has any substantial interest, direct or indirect, by security holdings or otherwise, in General Motors or Hughes.

Certain other persons named below may assist EchoStar in the solicitation of proxies from GM and GMH shareholders. Pursuant to a letter agreement between UBS Warburg LLC ("UBS Warburg") and EchoStar, EchoStar has agreed to pay UBS Warburg for its financial advisory services in connection with the proposed transaction involving Hughes a financial advisory fee of (1) up to $5,000,000 in connection with the public announcement of the proposed transaction and (2) $20,000,000 upon the closing of a transaction involving Hughes, subject to certain fee credits. EchoStar also has agreed to provide UBS Warburg and certain related parties with customary indemnification. UBS Warburg does not admit that it or any of its directors, officers, employees, affiliates or controlling persons, if any, is a "participant" as defined in Schedule 14A promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, in the solicitation of proxies, or that Schedule 14A requires the disclosure of certain information concerning it or them. The following sets forth the name and title of each of the UBS Warburg employees who may assist EchoStar in the solicitation of proxies: James Brennan, Managing Director, Stephen Ketchum, Managing Director, James Neissa, Managing Director, Lee LeBrun, Executive Director and Lee Ann Gliha, Director.

UBS Warburg and its affiliates engage in a full range of investment banking, securities trading, market-making and brokerage services for institutional and individual clients. In the normal course of business, UBS Warburg and its affiliates may trade the debt and equity securities of General Motors for their own account and the accounts of customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities, or option contracts or other derivatives in or relating to such securities. UBS Warburg has informed EchoStar that, as of the close of business on August 3, 2001, UBS Warburg, for its own account, held a net long position of less than 1% of General Motors common stock and less than 1% of shares of Hughes tracking stock. UBS Warburg and certain of its affiliates also may have voting and/or dispositive power with respect to certain shares of General Motors and shares of Hughes tracking stock held in asset management, brokerage and other accounts. UBS Warburg and such affiliates disclaim beneficial ownership of such shares of General Motors and Hughes tracking stock.

Edgar Filing: HUGHES ELECTRONICS CORP - Form 425

Subject to future developments, EchoStar may file with the Securities and Exchange Commission a registration statement at a date or dates subsequent hereto to register the EchoStar shares to be issued in the proposed transaction. Investors and security holders are urged to read the registration statement (when and if available) and any other relevant documents filed with the SEC, as well as any amendments or supplements to those documents, because they will contain important information. Investors and security holders may obtain a free copy of the registration statement (when and if available) and other relevant documents at the SEC's Internet web site at www.sec.gov. The registration statement (when and if available) and other relevant documents may also be obtained free of charge from EchoStar by directing such request to: EchoStar Communications Corp., 5701 South Santa Fe Drive, Littleton, CO 80120, Attention: Investor Relations.
