On March 26, 2019, the Reporting Persons issued a press release announcing the nomination of sixteen highly-qualified independent candidates for election to the Board at the Annual Meeting. In the press release, the Reporting Persons noted that given the magnitude of value destruction at the Issuer, wholesale Board and leadership changes were warranted, including a search to replace CEO Steven Temares. The Reporting Persons noted that the Issuer has lost more than $8 billion in market value over Mr. Temares' 15-year tenure as CEO, with total shareholder returns of negative 58% and, since early 2015, the stock has lost over 80% of its value. The Reporting Persons also noted issues with the Board's long average tenure of 19 years, the Issuer's excessive executive pay packages, certain governance issues, among other things. The Reporting Persons intend to deliver a detailed plan to turn the Issuer around in the near term that will focus on, among other things, recruiting a highly qualified CEO to lead the Issuer going forward, addressing the Issuer's weak sales, improving gross margins, adopting cost-cutting measures, creating an incentive compensation structure that better aligns pay for performance, and reviewing all non-core businesses and assessing their value as part of the business or their potential value to other parties. A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1.

On March 26, 2019 Legion Partners Holdings delivered a letter to the Issuer (the "Nomination Letter") nominating a slate of sixteen highly qualified candidates, Victor Herrero Amigo, Theresa R. Reardon, Hugh R. Rovit, Joshua E. Schechter and Alexander W. Smith (collectively, the "Nominees"), for election to the Board at the Issuer's 2019 annual meeting of shareholders (the "Annual Meeting"). The Reporting Persons believe that the Nominees have the qualifications, experience and skill sets necessary to serve as directors of the Issuer, as evidenced by their biographies below.
