The matters discussed in this Current Report on Form 8-K include forward looking statements, which are subject to various risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from the results anticipated in such forward looking statements. Such risks, uncertainties and other factors include the uncertainties inherent in oil and gas development and production activities, the effect of actions by third parties including government officials, fluctuations in world oil prices and other risks detailed in the Company's Reports on Forms 10-K and 10-Q filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The forward-looking statements are intended to help shareholders and others assess the Company's business prospects and should be considered together with all information available. They are made in reliance upon the safe harbor provisions of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The Company cannot give assurance that the results will be attained.

Section 7 Regulation FD

Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

November 8, 2007 Guernsey, Channel Islands CanArgo Energy Corporation (CanArgo or the Company) (OSE: CNR, AMEX: CNR) today issued a statement that operations in Georgia are unaffected by the state of emergency declared in the country.

Oil production operations continue as normal at the Ninotsminda Field which is located 35 kilometres to the east of the capital city Tbilisi where demonstrations have been taking place for a number of days. Preparations are also progressing at the Manavi 12 well for the planned acid fracturing stimulation and the testing of the well which has encountered oil in Cretaceous carbonates within what is mapped as a potentially large structure. This operation is dependent on the availability of equipment and crew which need to be mobilised to Georgia from as far a field as Kazakhstan and Germany. Schlumberger has been contracted to provide the equipment and services, but has yet to confirm its readiness to commence mobilization

November 9, 2007 Guernsey, Channel Islands CanArgo Energy Corporation (CanArgo or the Company) (OSE: CNR, AMEX: CNR) today announced that it is planning to hold a briefing meeting at the Scandic KNA Hotel, Parkveien 68, Oslo, Norway at 09:00 am Central European Time on Tuesday, November 13, 2007 to update shareholders on its third quarter 2007 financial results for the period ended September 30, 2007 and to provide an update on the Company's current operations in Georgia.

The presentation will be broadcast over the internet. To listen to the presentation, please go to
